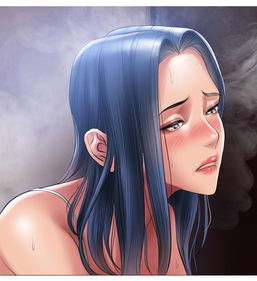
No…! Don't be ridiculous!

If I opened the door, I could ask Carter for help.



But I couldn't.

After that day,

I lost control and completely surrendered to him.

I blurted out something salacious that I'd never said in my life.

and lusted after his cock like crazy.

Rather than resisting the video shooting request

As if possessed by something, I was overwhelmed by the desire to take a picture of my indecent appearance and actively followed his commands.

When I came to my senses,
I was completely caught in his trap.

The video was proving that it wasn't rape.

Police and my family probably wouldn't believe me.
