OVERPOWERED RANGER
ART AND STORY BY JACK⚡BULLETS
WRITTEN BY R B ASHTON

It was Tuesday afternoon and the gang were all down the gym, as usual. Kendra was killing this set, getting seriously pumped, as the guys hung back chatting.

With a chirrup of beeps and flashes from their watches, the guys went quiet. So much for chilling.

KENDRA SAT UP AS HER ALARM SOUNDED TOO. AND SHE'D BEEN SO CLOSE TO FINISHING. DAMMIT.

She called over to Todd, her boyfriend and their de facto leader, "What've we got?"

In central Grovebrook, trouble was stirring: a gang of wicked homunculi were charging through Middle Park, sending innocent civilians running. The abominations charged about with horrible spidery motions and wicked intentions, snickering and stinking. "Get away from me!" a woman screamed.

ANOTHER YOUNG WOMAN GRABBED HER AND POINTED. "LOOK! WE'RE SAVED!"

"It's the rangers!"
They'd come out of nowhere - all five rangers in full getup, ready in fighting stance. Sharp yellow, steady Blue, powerful Black and stalwart Red! Oh, and who could forget mighty Pink?

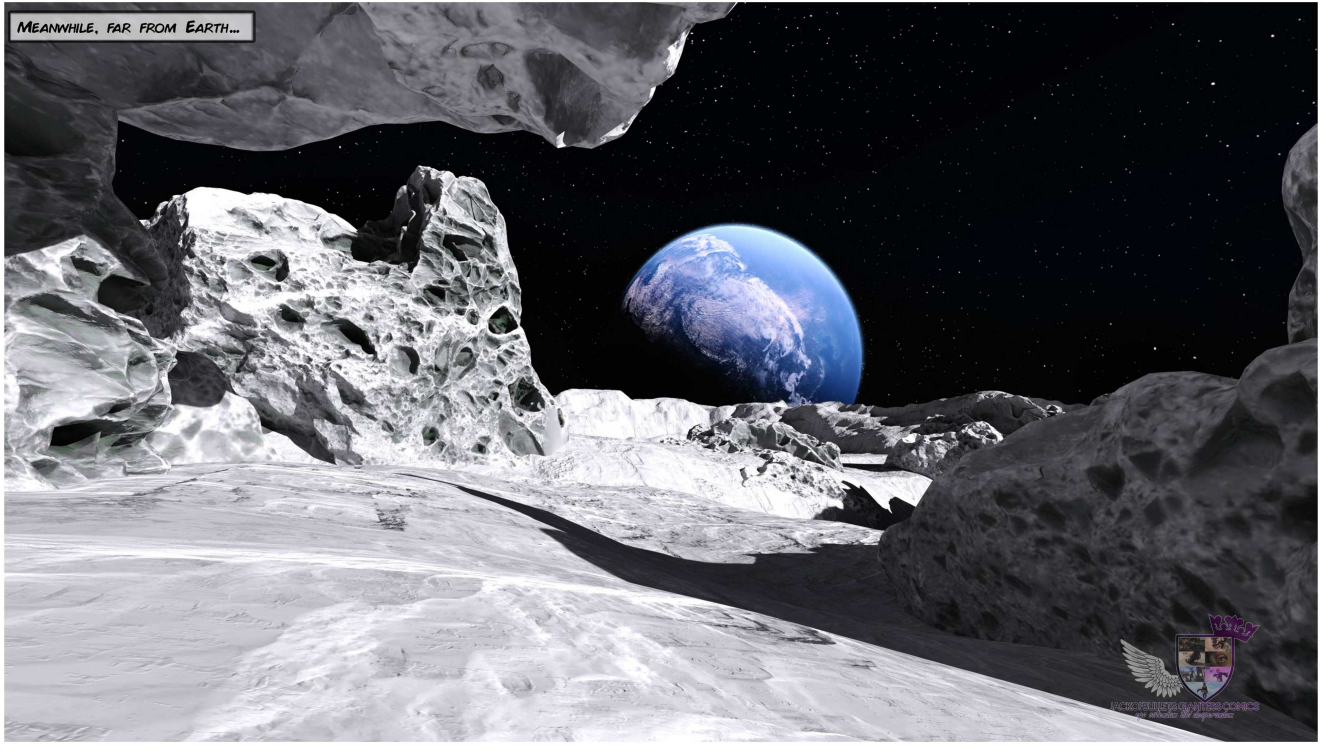
"Hi-ya!" Yellow led the charge, sweeping in with a fierce kick to the closest goon. Black came in just behind him, kicking another monster's face.
JACKOFBULLET'S GIANTESS COMICS

The homunculi with their modified strength and foul intentions were no match for Red and Blue gliding through the air with rock-hard punches and kicks.

PINK GRABBED THE CLOSEST FIEND AND HAULED IT EFFORTLESSLY OVERHEAD, LAUGHING AT THE PUNY WEIGHT. THIS WOULD MAKE UP FOR HER INTERRUPTED SET.

"Suck it!" she shouted, snapping the wretched creature over the back of one knee. It folded with a terrible scream and a horrific crack.

With the crack still echoing through the park, everyone went still, gaping at her.
"Whoa Kendra," Red said.
"Bit much?"

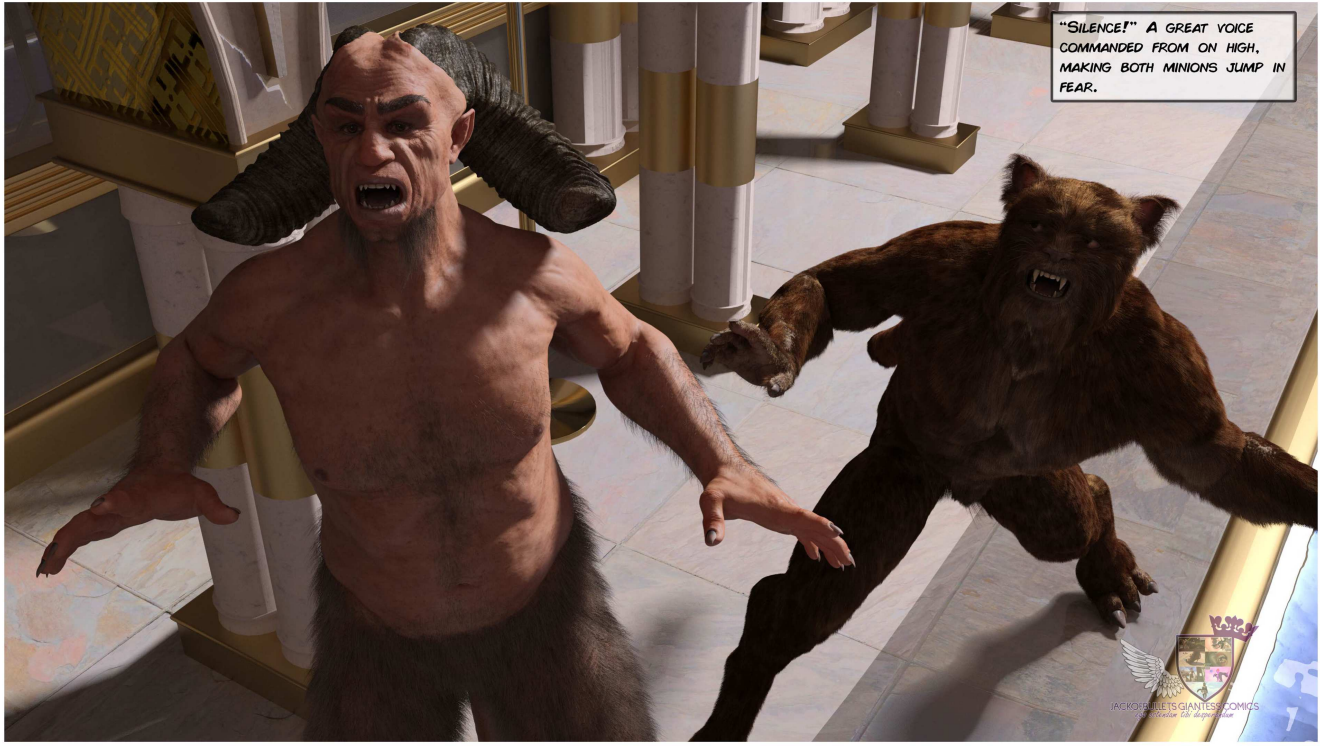


Meanwhile, far from Earth...

In the deep, hidden recesses of the moon, a sinister fortress sat, where even more sinister beings lurked.

The chief henchmen of the Revolta clan, warped and twisted beasts with purely malicious intent, watched through the pool portal as their fellow villains were subdued by the blasted Rangers.

"Regina oughta send me down there!" Krampus thundered angrily. "I'd show those Ranger shrimps what real strength looks like!"
"You, you slow fool?" Catman snapped back. "It will take the speed and cunning of a feline to stop them - she needs to send me!"



"SILENCE!" A GREAT VOICE COMMANDED FROM ON HIGH, MAKING BOTH MINIONS JUMP IN FEAR.
JACKOFBULLETSGIANTESSCOMICS

"You think I would send either of you idiots?" Regina Revolta sneered from her wicked throne. "I have something much more dastardly prepared. Wait until the Rangers see my latest creation. It's time to destroy them once and for all!"
FACTORBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

"We're sorry Regina, forgive us!" Catman and Krampus bowed in unison, grovelling before their mighty mistress. She merely sneered again at their pathetic display.

Turning her attention to her new plot, she established a connection to the mutoid - sure to be the Rangers' final downfall. Cackling as she began to control it, she cried out, "Yes, go my pretty! Time to defeat those idiot Rangers!"

Back on Earth, at the same instant, the Rangers were shaken out of their celebratory poses by a wild crackle in the air. The Yellow Ranger, Bruce, demanded, "Well what the shit is that?"

"That is one ugly mother!" Lee in Blue exclaimed, as the creature emerged from one of Regina's vile temporal rifts.
And he was not wrong.
The mutoid stood roughly human size and shape, but with the slimy flesh and forked tongue of an unnatural monster.

"Don't worry, gang!" Kendra shouted. "There's nothing we can't beat when we work together! Rangers, let's go!"
"Yeah!" Todd said, but charged ahead adding, "Leave it to me and Bruce!"

They'd barely got close when the mutoid lashed out with one gangly arm and slapped both Bruce and Todd back with girlish screams.
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

Lee and Greg ran in to follow, with Blue effortlessly tossed aside and a downward strike smacking Black out of the way.

SUDDENLY IT WAS JUST KENDRA, STANDING ALONE. BUT SHE WASN'T GOING TO RUN, AND SHE SURE WASN'T GOING TO LET IT SLAP HER DOWN.
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

THE MUTOID MOVED FAST, BUT SHE MOVED FASTER, AND BAM - THREW A TERRIFIC PUNCH DEEP INTO THE CHARGING THING'S GUT, LIFTING IT OFF THE GROUND.

As it fell past her she brought both arms round hard, clenching her fists together to punch its spine.

It wasn't done yet, lashing its tongue about, hissing and scratching, but Kendra deftly avoided one blow after another, redirecting the mutoid's weight as she sliced in to finish it.

"By the legs of beetles, why am I surrounded by incompetence!" Regina roared, trembling the fortress with her voice.

"Must I always have to intervene!" she said, and directed her power towards the viewing portal. "I'll make you big, then, my festering minion – perhaps then you will finally be of some use!"
JACKOBULLETS.COUNTESSCOMICS

"GROW, MY PRETTY, GROW!"
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

As Kendra twisted the mutoid around, firing a strike into its jaw, an eerie glow came from the sky.

"KENDRA, LOOK OUT!" LEE SQUEALED, BUT KENDRA WAS TOO BUSY POUNDING ON THE MUTOID TO HEAR.

"I HAVE TO SAVE HER!" LEE GASPED.

He sprinted, running for all his worth - time to be the hero he was born to be.

Though she hadn't heard his shouts, Kendra sensed an attack coming, so finely tuned as she was to fighting. She ducked out of the way as Lee dived in to push her - and he flew right past, into the mutoid, knocking it back.

"Um. Thanks, I guess?" Kendra said with confusion, as the mutoid and Lee groaned on the floor.

"Kendra, move!" Bruce shouted, the red glow of Revolta's magic now bathing the park.

She turned just in time to see it coming, realising too late why Lee had run in.

The magic burst over her, and Kendra screamed - the pain, the horror, Regina had struck her!

But as Kendra kept screaming, cursing Regina in her stupid moon kingdom, she felt the power surging into her, heating her, filling her with something other than pain. In fact, it almost felt... good?
JACKOFBULLETSGIANTESSCOMICS

Bruce squinted against the burning light of the rays, not sure what he was seeing exactly, except that Kendra hadn't been frazzled to a crisp. Instead, she kind of looked... bigger.

"Oh, shit on me," Regina muttered.
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

With the light of Regina's rays fading, Kendra took in a breath, trying to sense what had happened to her.

She was swelling, feeling bigger, more powerful by the second.

Not just feeling it, she realised. She was getting bigger, the ground creaking under her growing weight.

Kendra burst up towards the sky, expanding in all directions and sending the other Rangers scattering with fearful yelps. She was a giant!

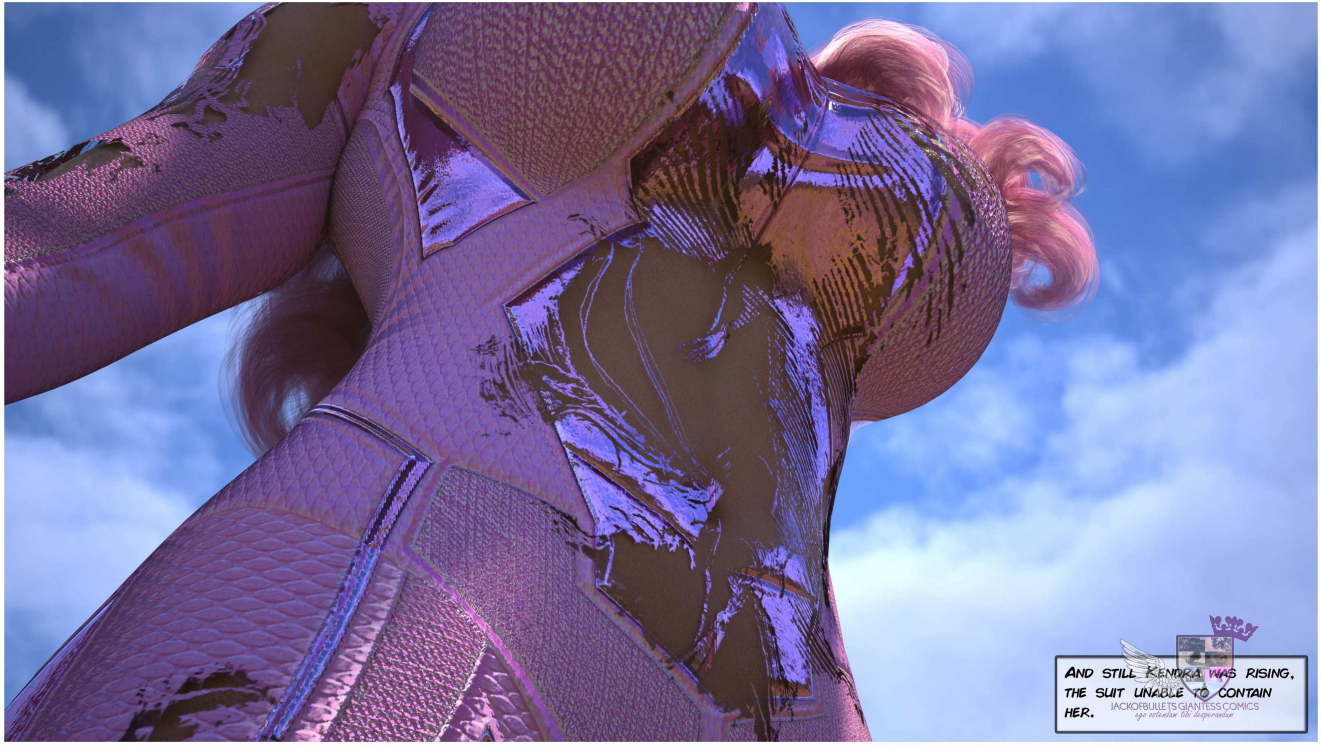
And she kept growing, moaning in the pleasure of taking in all this power.

"Yes!" Kendra groaned huskily, swelling. She hadn't felt anything like this in a long time.

Still growing, her thigh muscles burst through the seams of her ranger suit, hulking out.

HER SLEEVES RIPPED.
ASTROBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

HER SUIT TORE ALL OVER AS HER CURVES BULGED, AND THE WIND FELT GOOD ON HER FLESH - SO MUCH FLESH NOW!



AND STILL KENDRA WAS RISING, THE SUIT UNABLE TO CONTAIN HER.
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS
ego ostentum tibi desperandum

She moaned even louder at the power, knowing herself to be almighty, magnificent, brimming with strength. Trembling with pleasure, this was almost...

With a plink, her breasts popped out, ripping through the suit, and a nipple catching the air made Kendra open her eyes with surprise. Well, a lot of people were going to see that.
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS
ego scientiae hic desperatum

As Lee scrabbled about uselessly near Kendra's now impossibly big boot, and Bruce crept closer exclaiming, "That is the biggest booty I've ever seen!", the mutoid leapt up to flee.
Greg shouted up, "The monster's getting away! Kendra!"

Kenda looked down, just remembering the fight she'd been in, to notice just how small everything looked below.

She still had a job to do, she realised. Now that mutoid scum was really gonna suffer!
JACKOFBULLETS.GIANTESSCOMICS

The mutoid was moving fast, screeching like the desperate vermin it was. Not fast enough.
Kendra raised one of her colossal boots.

With a sudden, wall-shaking stomp, she brought her foot down on the mutoid and squelched it with the crack and pop of a cockroach. As its blood sprayed back across Greg, he cried out, "Kendra, ew, gross!"

Several hours later, in a Secret location...

The guys had arrived back at HQ after a quiet, uneasy drive. As they got out of the truck, Bruce was bitching. "This is pretty fucked, right? I mean, the giant monsters normally explode when we give them the beatdown. What's the plan when we have one that's hanging around?"

"Kendra's not a monster, dude," Todd corrected. "She's still my girl."
"Sure," Bruce said. "Tell us how it works out next time you hit that, bro."

"I'm serious man." Todd said. "Don't blow this out of proportion. Zortanna will know what to do, we can trust her."
He didn't sound convinced himself, though, pointedly not drawing attention to the shredded, impossibly massive remnants of Kendra's ranger suit discarded outside.

"Just think about how she's feeling, okay?" he went on, also avoiding the empty boots, with platform soles alone bigger than each of them. "We've just gotta be here for her, now. Be a team."
"That's bigger than my apartment." Greg whispered, quietly considering how much money he could save living in a boot.

KENDRA WAS SCRUNCHED INSIDE, CRAMPED AND MISERABLE AS SHE STRUGGLED TO GET COMFORTABLE IN THE TINY CONFINES OF THIS MASSIVE AIRCRAFT HANGAR.

The guys entered through a side door and stopped in their tracks, seeing her sitting enormously above them. Bruce chuckled and forced a quip, "Hey there little lady. Almost didn't see you there."

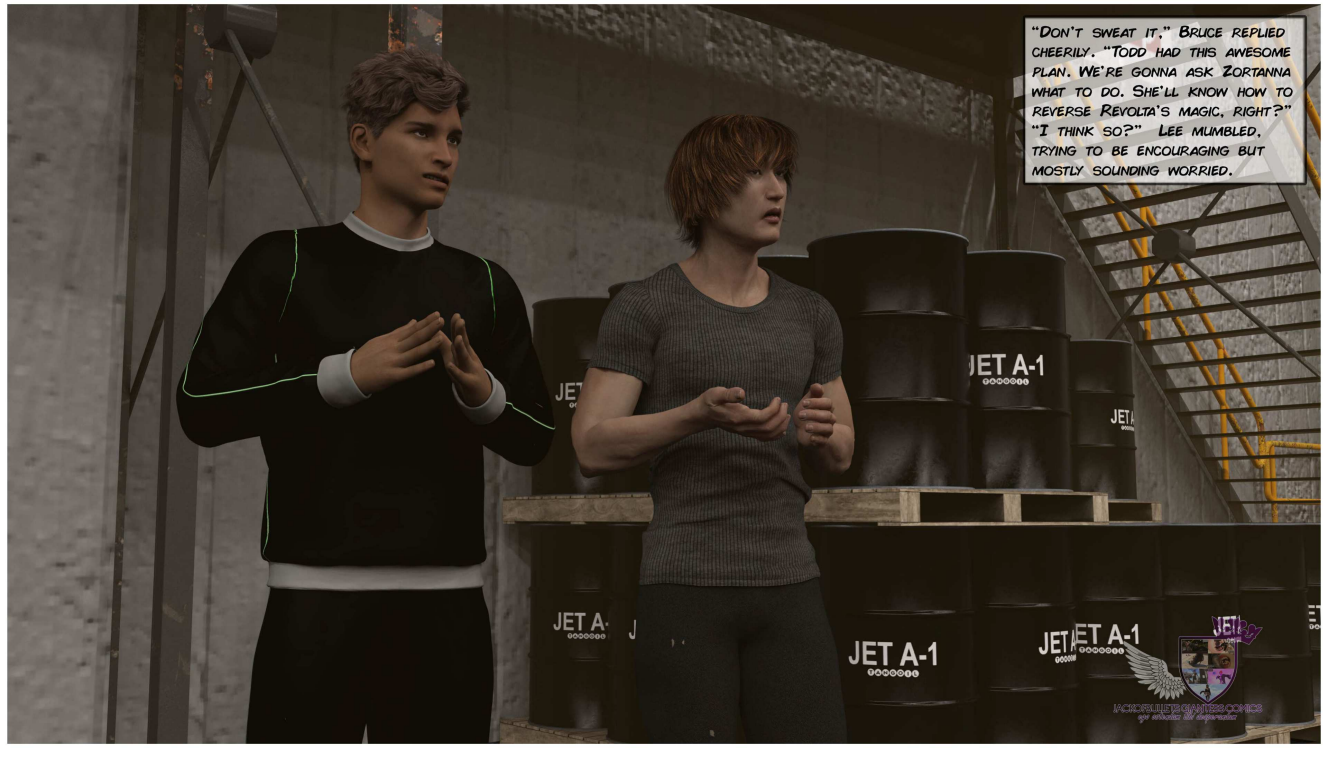
Not amused, Kendra groaned, "Guys, what the hell am I supposed to do now? I'm a monster!" She felt naked before them, the great stretches of tarpaulin she'd fashioned into a dress doing little to hide her.



"Don't sweat it," Bruce replied cheerily. "Todd had this awesome plan. We're gonna ask Zortanna what to do. She'll know how to reverse Revolta's magic, right?"
"I think so?" Lee mumbled, trying to be encouraging but mostly sounding worried.

"Well how long is that going to take?" Kendra asked.
JACKOBULLE'S GIANTESS COMICS

"As long as it needs to," Greg said. "But you can trust us, we're here for you."
"Yeah," Todd put in, about all he could muster. Now he was standing near her, his girlfriend beyond massive, he had to admit she was pretty scary.

"As long as it needs to?" Kendra echoed, a little anger in her response, shaking the hangar around them. "I don't want to stay like this, guys!"

With her voice rising, Kendra clenched a fist. "Damn that Regina! When I get my hands on her, I'll snap her in two!"

NO
"Ow!" Kendra said, her head hitting the ceiling in her frustration. The bump shook the room, making the lights flicker and producing an unhealthy squeak from the building supports.

"Hey, hey, chill out babes!" Todd called up, raising his hands, before she could put her head through the roof.

"How can I chill out?" Kendra demanded, tense all over. "I can't stand being cooped up in here! I'm too damn big!"

She caught herself, though, realising she was letting the anger get the better of her, and took a deep breath. Counting back from ten, she recentred. Calm, be calm.

"I'm sorry," Kendra said. "I don't mean to take it out on you guys - none of you could've known what that ray would do. I'm just not enjoying this. And I'm hungry. So damn hungry!"

"Damn, thanks man," Greg said to Todd quietly. "You got in there just before she exploded. She could've brought the whole place down, trapping us like rats!"

As the guys reconvened, Kendra twisted around, stretching and cracking her back to try and get more comfortable. Bruce said, "Well what the hell now, Todd?"
"I don't know!" Todd complained. "Like I said, we need to see Zortanna. But we'd also better get her something to eat. You know she can be a real monster when she's hungry! Bruce, take the truck, find something that might satisfy her."

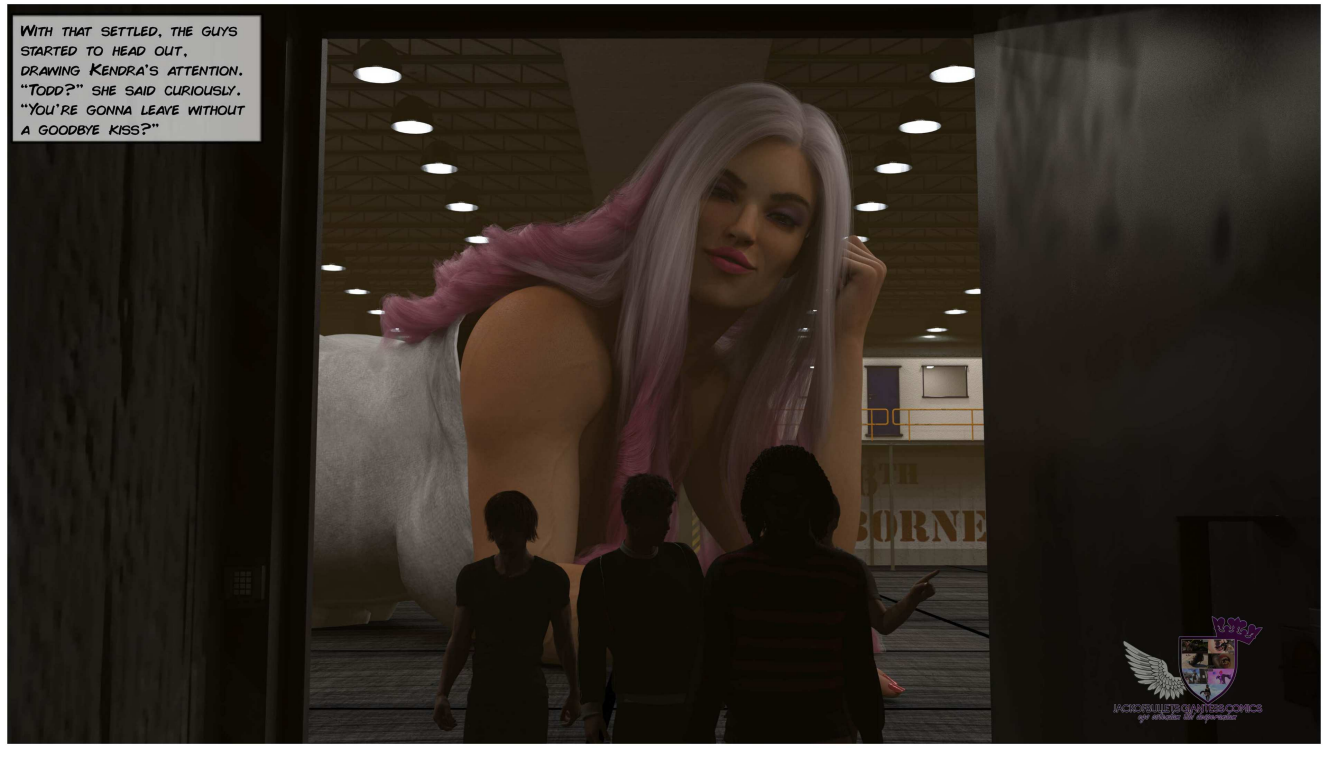
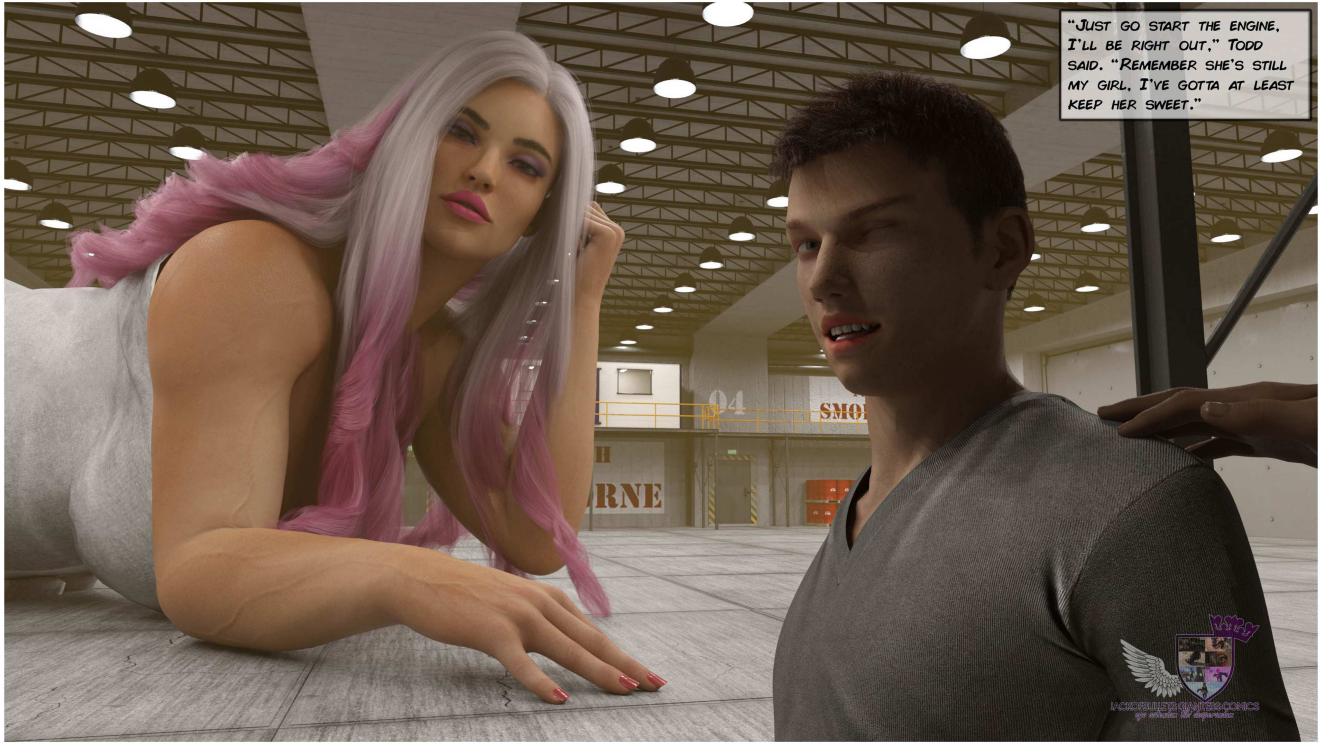
AIRBORNE

"Why me?" Bruce whined. "Is that what I am now, a delivery boy?"
"At her size," Todd said, "it's a big responsibility. Just drop us off by the secret entrance on the way, and we'll meet back here ASAP."



With that settled, the guys started to head out, drawing Kendra's attention. "Todd?" she said curiously. "You're gonna leave without a goodbye kiss?"
BORNE

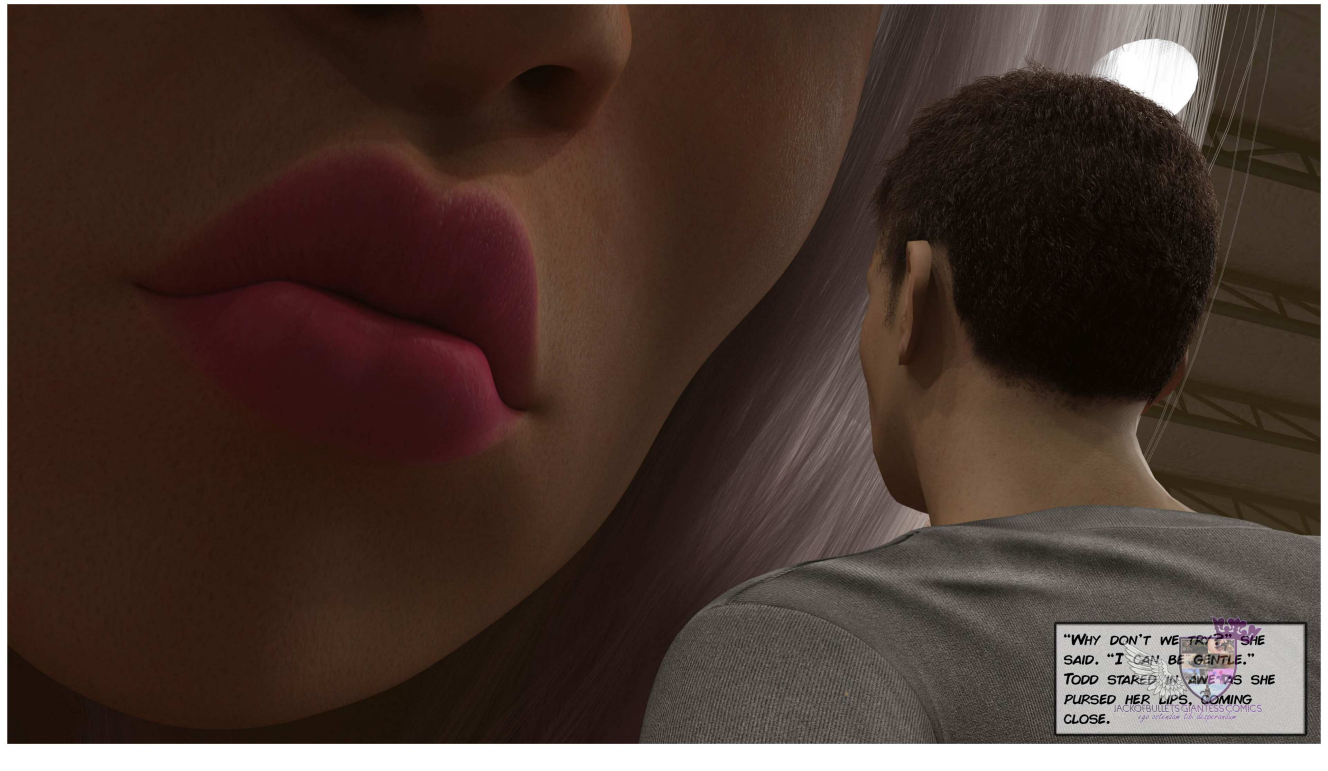
"Dude, no." Bruce quickly whispered. "She might be a mountain of hotness, but this isn't the time to be exploring that."
Todd was torn. There was a lot of Kendra to love back there, after all. And a lot of woman to upset...



"Just go start the engine, I'll be right out," Todd said. "Remember she's still my girl. I've gotta at least keep her sweet."

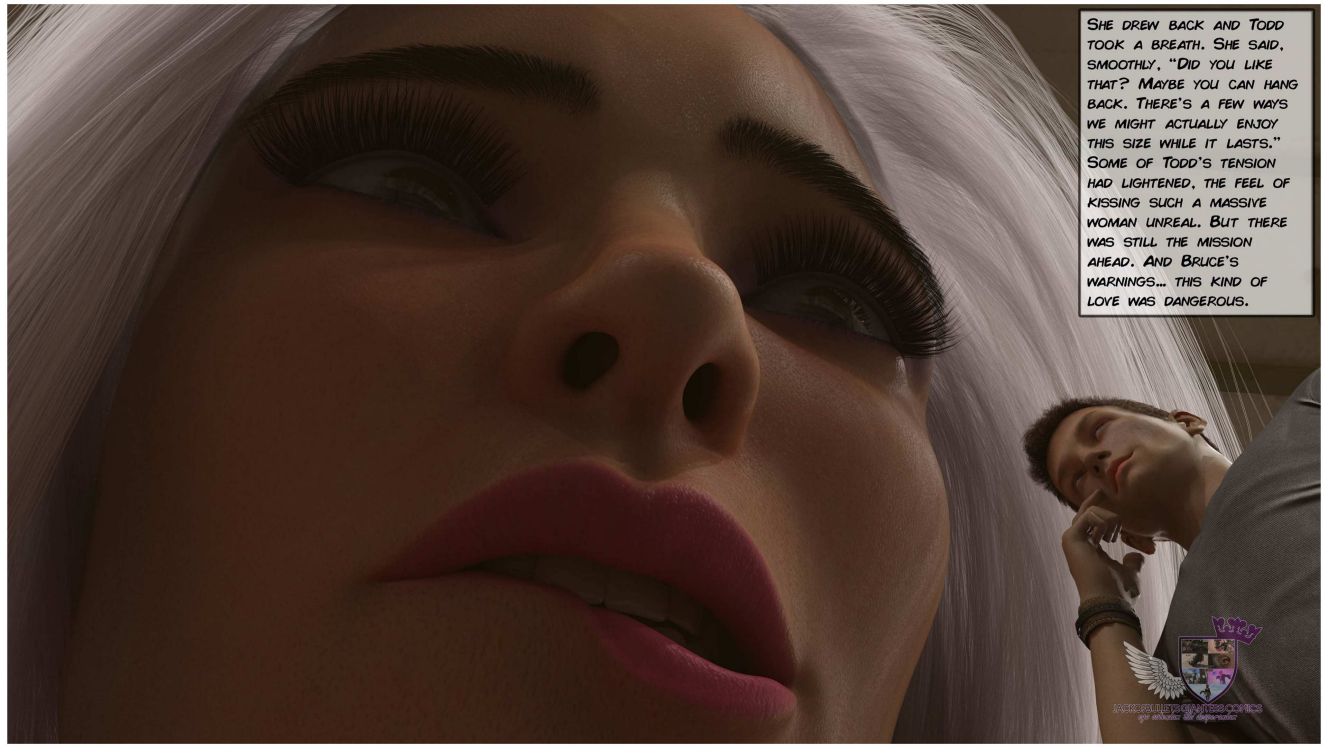
As the others left, Todd walked to Kendra, appreciating all the more how massive she was, the closer he got. Damn, what was he supposed to do? He said. "So, uh. Guess you can finally be happy with how big those biceps are, at least?"
She smiled, with an anticipation he wasn't sure how to process.

"Like," Todd went on, with a laugh, trying to keep her happy, "this is where I'd usually sweep in for a smooch. But I might fall in?"
"Oh yeah?" Kendra said, starting to lower herself.



"WHY DON'T WE TRY?" SHE SAID. "I CAN BE GENTLE."
TODD STARED IN AWE AS SHE PURSED HER LIPS, COMING CLOSE.

Kendra touched her lips to Todd, careful to be as soft as possible. For one peaceful moment she put all this craziness aside. With his whole head sinking into her lips, it felt good just to touch him...



She drew back and Todd took a breath. She said, smoothly, "Did you like that? Maybe you can hang back. There's a few ways we might actually enjoy this size while it lasts." Some of Todd's tension had lightened, the feel of kissing such a massive woman unreal. But there was still the mission ahead. And Bruce's warnings... this kind of love was dangerous.

"I would, you definitely know I would." Todd lied, turning away, "But we really need to get moving –"
He got one step before Kendra's massive hand fell in front of him, a wall of flesh blocking his path. She said, "You're going to leave me all alone?"

Kendra grabbed him and lifted him off the floor as easily as snatching a doll. Todd yelped in fear. "What are you doing, Kendra? Let me go!" His commands were useless, now, though, trapped in her grip.

"I love you Todd." Kendra told him. "You don't think of me differently because I'm a giant, do you? If we can't reverse it -"
"We will reverse it!" Todd insisted quickly, whatever she needed to hear!
Kendra paused, seeing how scared she'd made him. "I'm sorry. I'm just worried. This whole thing's got me on edge, nervy. I don't know what's happening to me... this isn't me!"

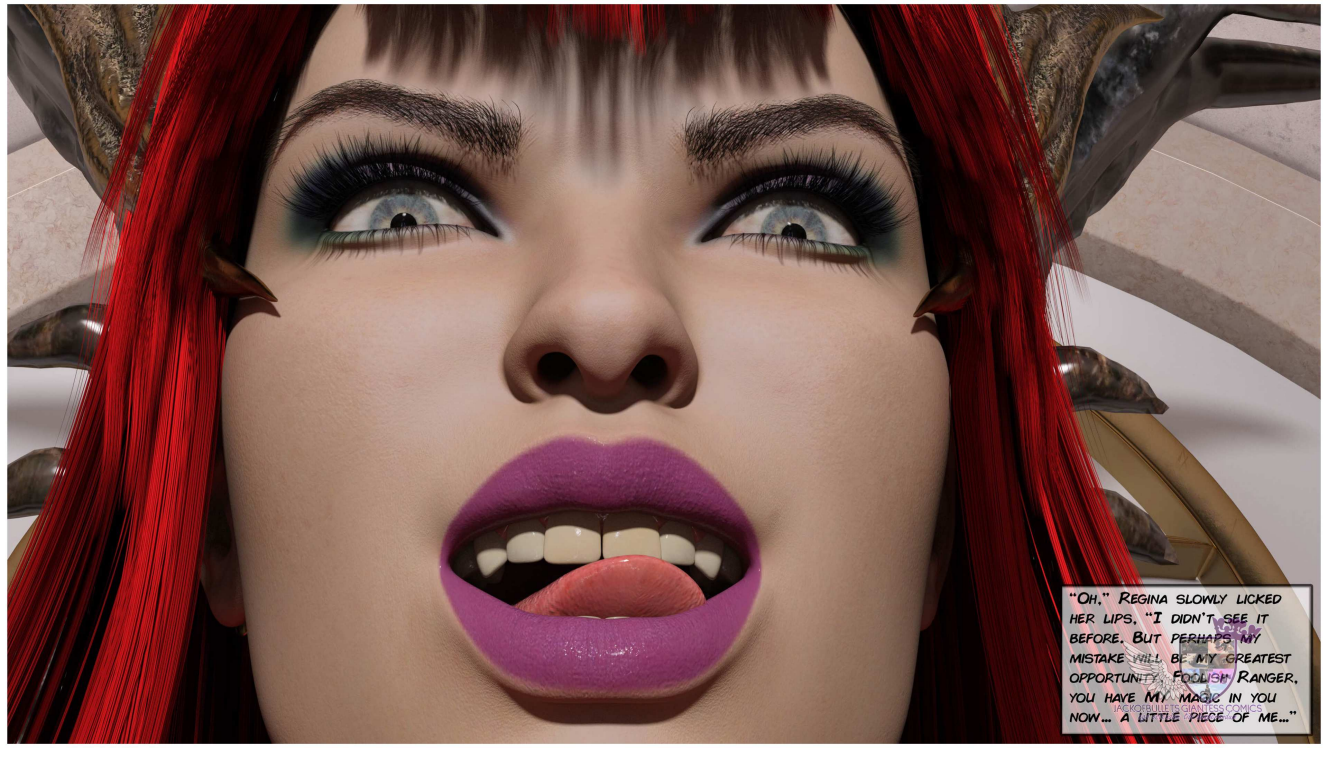
Back on the moon, Regina was releasing frustrations of her own, directing her anger at her pitiful minions. With her toe pinning Krampus to the ground, she snarled, "Why can't any of you get anything right? I should step on the lot of you!"

"Mistress, please!" Krampus wailed, clawing about to try and pull himself free from under her. "We can do better! We'll do whatever you command, only spare us!"

CATMAN JOINED IN THE SERENADE, WHEEZING AS REGINA SQUEEZED HIM IN HER FIST. "YES, MISTRESS, WHATEVER YOU ASK!"

"Send me down there, I will finish the Rangers for you myself! I will let you control my body, even, so you can experience their downfall at my claws!"
JACKOFBULLETSGIANTESSCOMICS

Control his body? The thought made Regina pause. But of course - her misfire, gifting the Pink Ranger great size, had other consequences. She saw, past her fist clutching Catman, that Kendra had a man in a hand herself. Just like her...



"Oh," Regina slowly licked her lips. "I didn't see it before. But perhaps my mistake will be my greatest opportunity. Foolish Ranger, you have My magic in you now... a little piece of me..."

"However you're feeling," Todd was trying to get through to Kendra, "we can work through this together, Babes. Is it like giant PMS?"
"No," Kendra replied distantly. Did she hear something? A woman talking? Her muscles tightened with concern.

"ARGH!" TODD BARKED, AND KENDRA GASPED, DROPPING HIM AS SHE SAW SHE'D SQUEEZED HIM.
"I'M SO SORRY!" KENDRA SAID.

"Look, don't worry about it," Todd replied hurriedly, turning away and patting himself down.
"I didn't mean to hurt you," Kendra told him, internally kicking herself for not being gentler. "Todd? You're not going to leave me are you? Because I'm giant?"
"Just sit tight," Todd said, not even looking back. "You'll get back to normal soon, won't you?"

After another awkward drive, in which Todd resolutely did not let the others know he'd been picked up like a toy, Bruce pulled up near Zortanna's super-secret hidden crash site and let the others out.

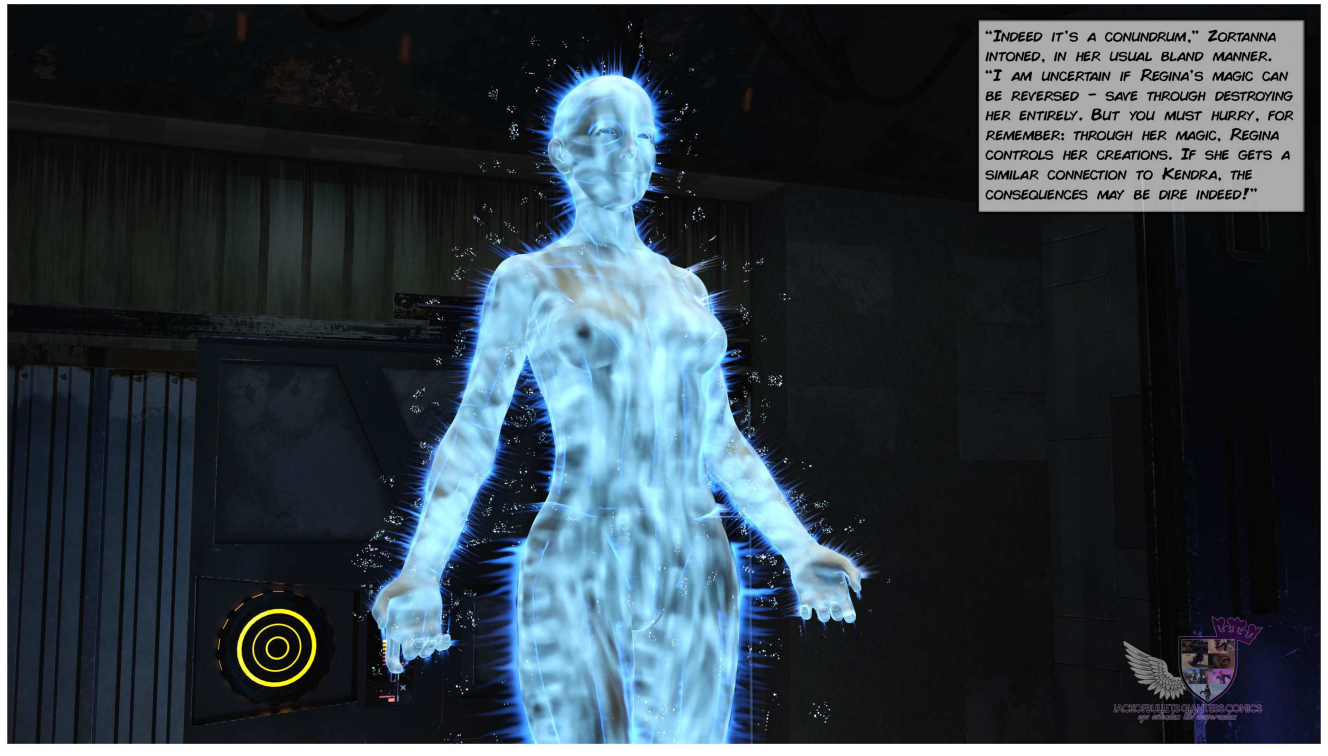
"Well, have fun saving the day, guys," Bruce smirked out the window. "While I get the important shit done, figuring out how to organise a takeaway for a 100-foot woman."

"It is important, Bruce," Todd replied, seriously. "I don't know what else we can do, but feeding Kendra is one thing we can control. She's alone and scared, man, this'll make a difference."

"Yeah, yeah." Bruce waved them off, no more enthusiastic than before. He sped away through the desert, leaving the others to hike out to Zortanna's starship.

Once they got in, Todd quickly explained the entire dire situation to Zortanna.
JACKOFBULLETSCHANTED COMICS

"So what do we do now?" he asked. "Normally we'd kick Regina's enlarged monster's butt with the Ultimabot, and then they just blow up. No one's ever considered bringing one back down to size."



"Indeed it's a conundrum," Zortanna intoned, in her usual bland manner. "I am uncertain if Regina's magic can be reversed - save through destroying her entirely. But you must hurry, for remember: through her magic, Regina controls her creations. If she gets a similar connection to Kendra, the consequences may be dire indeed!"

Back at the hangar, Kendra was trying uneasily to sleep, to help time pass quicker.

A SOFT, SEDUCTIVE VOICE WHISPERED DIRECTLY INTO HER EAR, "WAKE UP, BEAUTIFUL."

"Ah, shitballs!" Kendra jerked upright, out of her dream, with the lights snapping on overhead.
"No shitballs." Bruce laughed, wandering in with boxes under his arms. "Only me!"

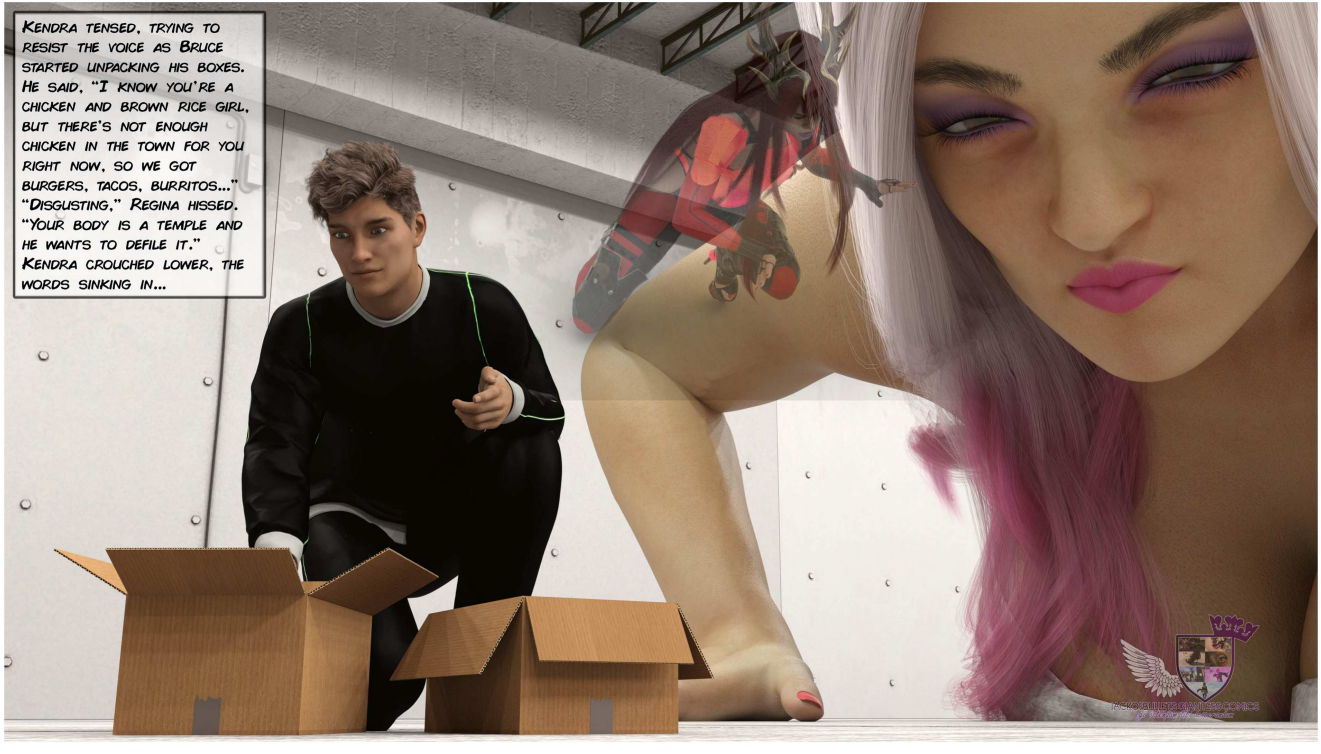
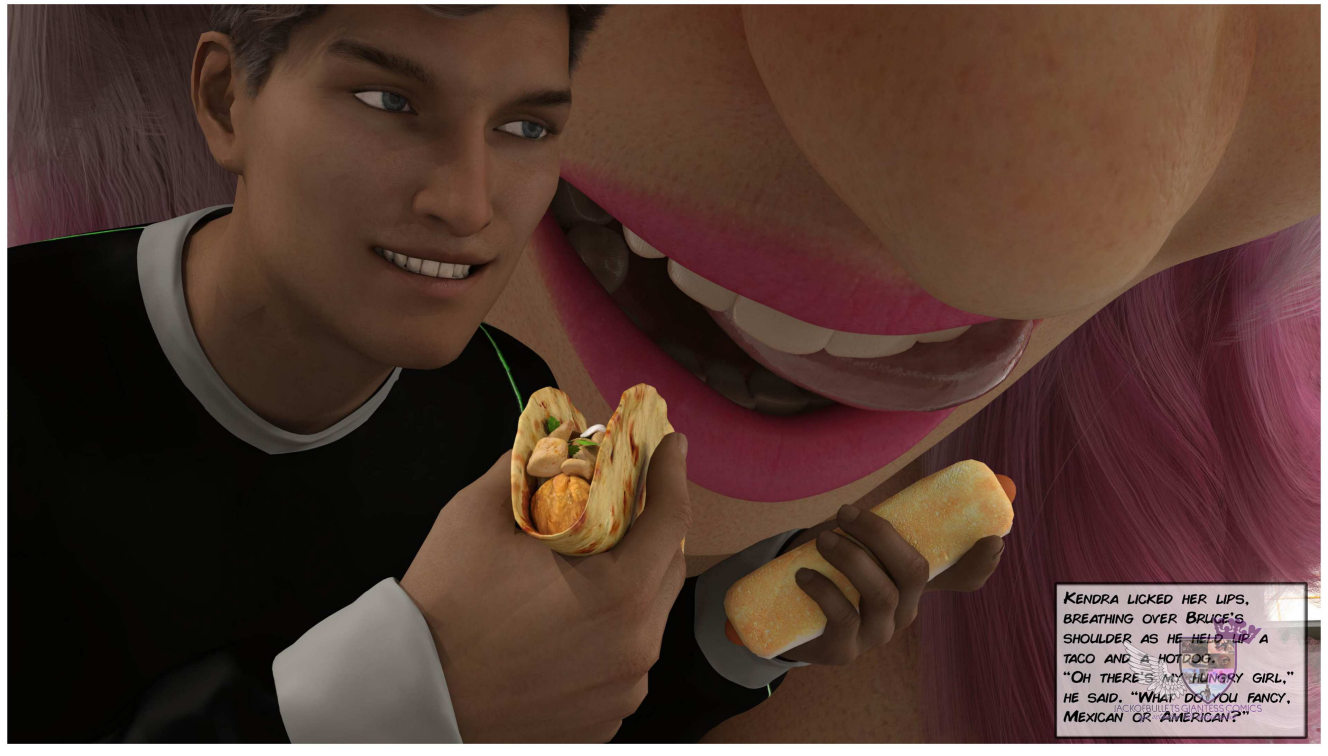
KENDRA LAUGHED, HIS MANNER AND THE PROMISE OF FOOD DRAWING RIGHT OUT OF HER DARK THOUGHTS. SHE SAID, "I DON'T CARE WHAT YOU'VE GOT, I FEEL LIKE I HAVEN'T EATEN IN A WEEK - I'LL EAT LITERALLY ANYTHING."

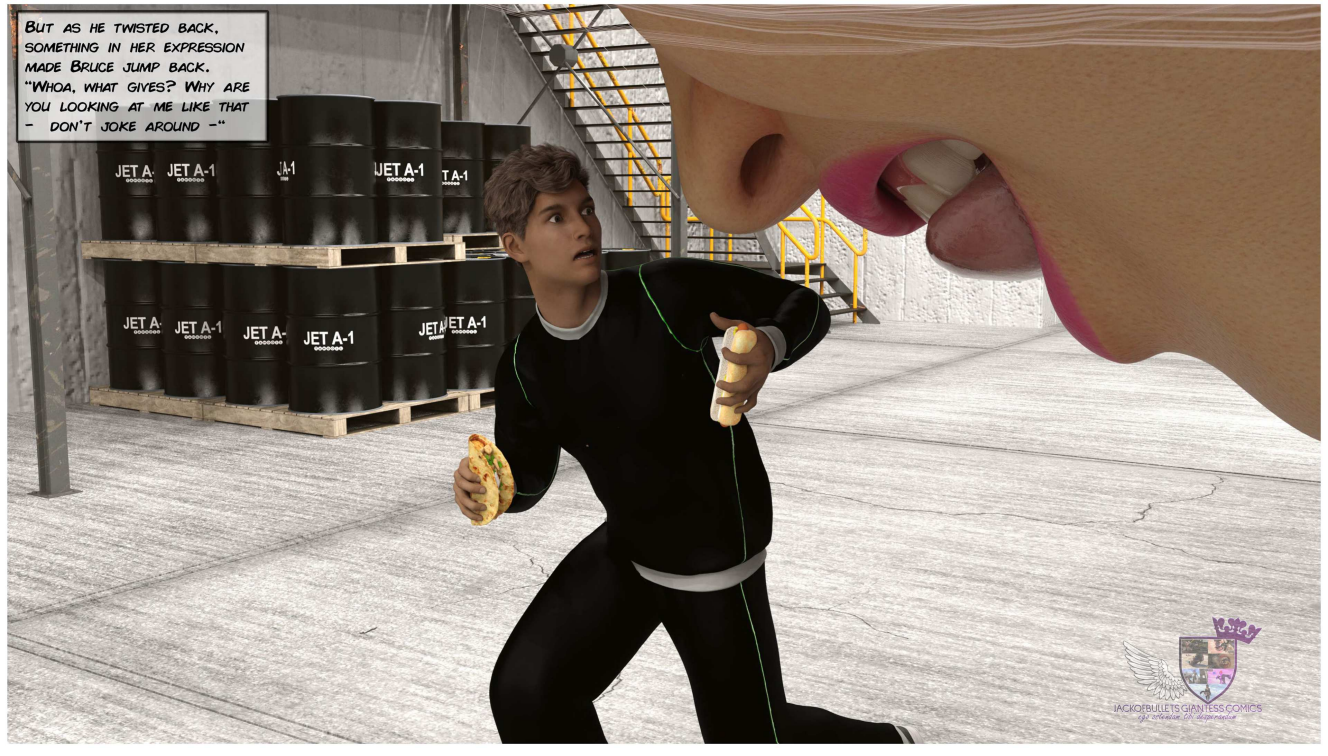
"Anything?" Regina whispered. Scolding her. "You are a queen. A goddess. Don't let him insult you with fast food. You could eat HIM."



Kendra tensed, trying to resist the voice as Bruce started unpacking his boxes. He said, "I know you're a chicken and brown rice girl, but there's not enough chicken in the town for you right now, so we got burgers, tacos, burritos..."
"Disgusting," Regina hissed. "Your body is a temple and he wants to defile it."
Kendra crouched lower, the words sinking in...



KENDRA LICKED HER LIPS, BREATHING OVER BRUCE'S SHOULDER AS HE HELD UP A TACO AND A HOTDOG.
"OH THERE'S MY HUNGRY GIRL," HE SAID. "WHAT DO YOU FANCY, MEXICAN OR AMERICAN?"



But as he twisted back, something in her expression made Bruce jump back. "Whoa, what gives? Why are you looking at me like that - don't joke around -"

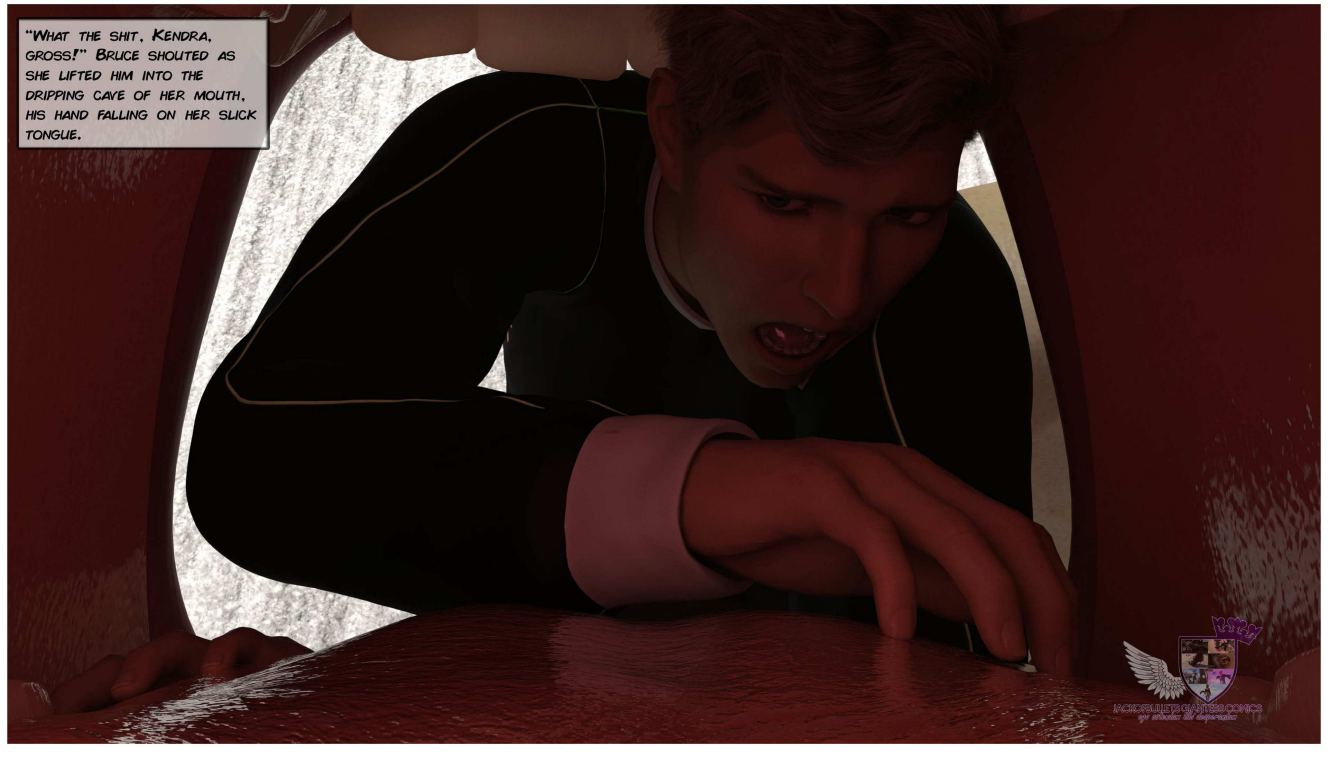
"Joking around is your thing, Bruce," Kendra whispered, eyes focusing not on the food but directly on him. Much more appetising. "I'm just making my choice. I think I do fancy a nice tasty American..."

"Oh shit!" Bruce cried out, dropping the food and turning to run. In a flash, Kendra reached a giant hand around him, letting out a hungry moan.

She snatched Bruce up and spun him back towards her widening mouth as he swung his arms around, yelling.

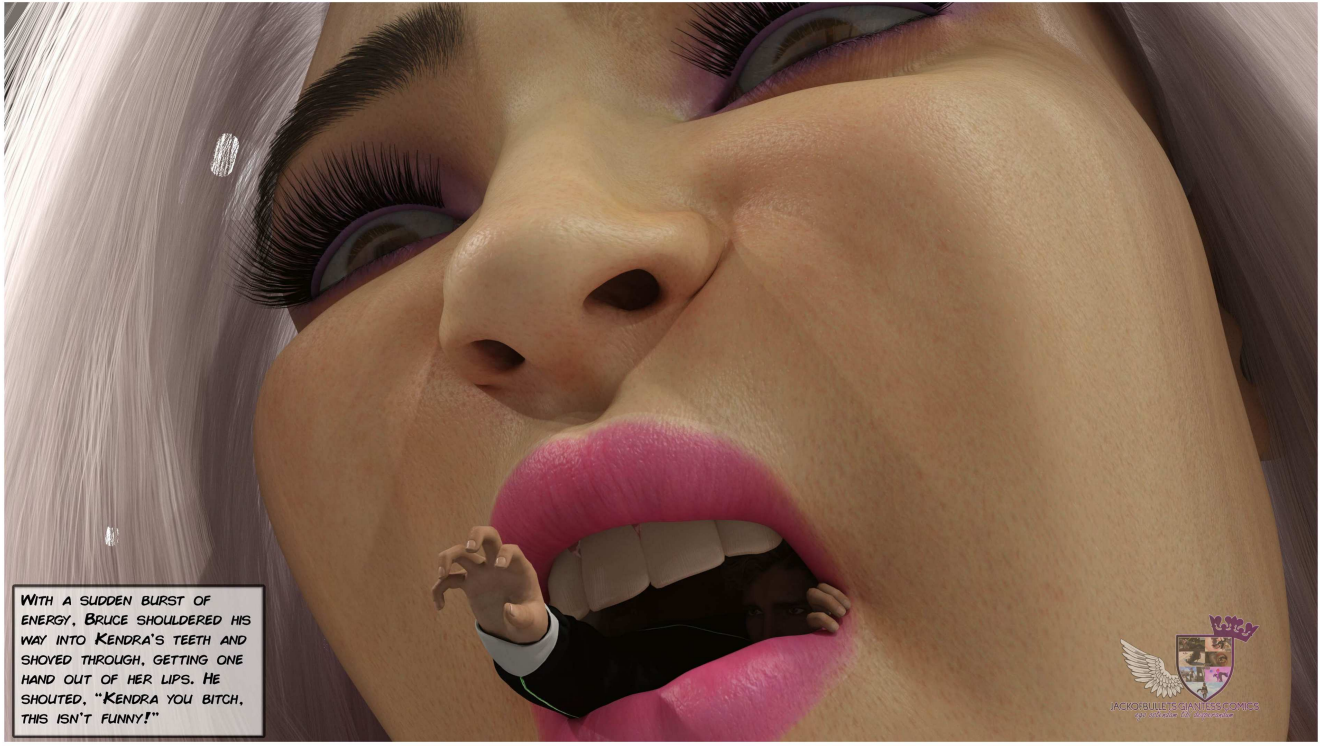


"What the shit, Kendra, gross!" Bruce shouted as she lifted him into the dripping cave of her mouth, his hand falling on her slick tongue.

"Mmm." Kendra murmured in pleasure, ignoring his shouts as his little hands slapped about inside her.

Taken by the thrill of his little struggles, Kendra swung a finger up and shoved him the rest of the way in.

Kendra gave another moan, this time in pleasure at the feeling of her teammate struggling about on her tongue. The sheer power of it, an entire man in her mouth. His shouts and screams only excited her more.



With a sudden burst of energy, Bruce shouldered his way into Kendra's teeth and shoved through, getting one hand out of her lips. He shouted, "Kendra you bitch, this isn't funny!"
JACKOFBULL'S GIANTESS COMICS

In a startled impulse, to stop him getting out, Kendra gulped back quickly, and Bruce slid back suddenly down her throat.

BRUCE FELL DOWN SCREAMING INTO HER STOMACH.

Kendra propped herself back up, focusing with wonder on the feeling of the little man passing through her, squirming inside.

Bruce thrashed about in the acid, yelling and cursing as it burnt him. "Kendra! Get me out of here!"
But there was no way out.

Near Zortanna's starship, the rest of the team waited impatiently for a ride to arrive, concerned that Bruce wasn't answering their calls.
"He could be driving, right?" Lee suggested. "Or busy doing something else."

"Man, on any other day I'd say he might be porking your girl," Greg said, trying and failing to sound light-hearted. "But no way he's getting it on with Kendra at her size, right?"
"Dude," Todd said. "Even at her regular size she would've eaten him alive."

"Screw it, enough waiting, we need to get back fast." Todd decided, and broke into a run. For anyone else, this might've been an unthinkable journey, but the Rangers weren't average people...

In her fortress, Regina was busy congratulating herself, laughing away. "Almost too easy! A few whispers and one Ranger has already eaten another! This is my best plan yet!"

"An incredible plan!" Catman cried up from the floor. "Absolutely astounding. Only, to beg a second of your time, Magnificence - I fear Krampus may be... dead?"
JACKORBULLET'S GIANTESS COMICS

With a bored grumble, Regina lifted her boot, having forgotten all about the minion it was resting on. She looked down with disgust.

Sure enough, in her enthusiasm she had broken Krampus under her toe.

Regina rolled her eyes, and said, "Utterly pathetic."

Putting him back out of her mind, she returned her attention to the portal pool, seeing the other Rangers were returning to their base. Her excitement returned as she said, "Ah. Time for Phase Two - how far can we take this Pink Titan of mine?"
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

On the ground level, Todd led the charge towards the doors, oblivious to what was coming...

"They know!" Regina whispered into Kendra's ear, startling her. "They're back and they know you ate their friend. They're calling you a monster. Zortanna told them so. Just another monster to be destroyed..."

"No!" Kendra argued. "I'm still me, still a Ranger - they wouldn't turn on me that quickly, would they?"
"Oh sweetheart," Regina replied. "Don't you get it? The only thing Rangers know to do well is kill monsters. It was inevitable. But listen to me. I can help. I'll make it all better. First, let's escape this cage they've put you in."

Barely thinking, Kendra did as Regina suggested, shoving up with her legs to slam her shoulders into the ceiling. She felt the power surging through her, hands pushing easily through the roof. Cracks spread and chunks of concrete started to fall down. Yes. This was the way - she wasn't going to be treated as a monster!

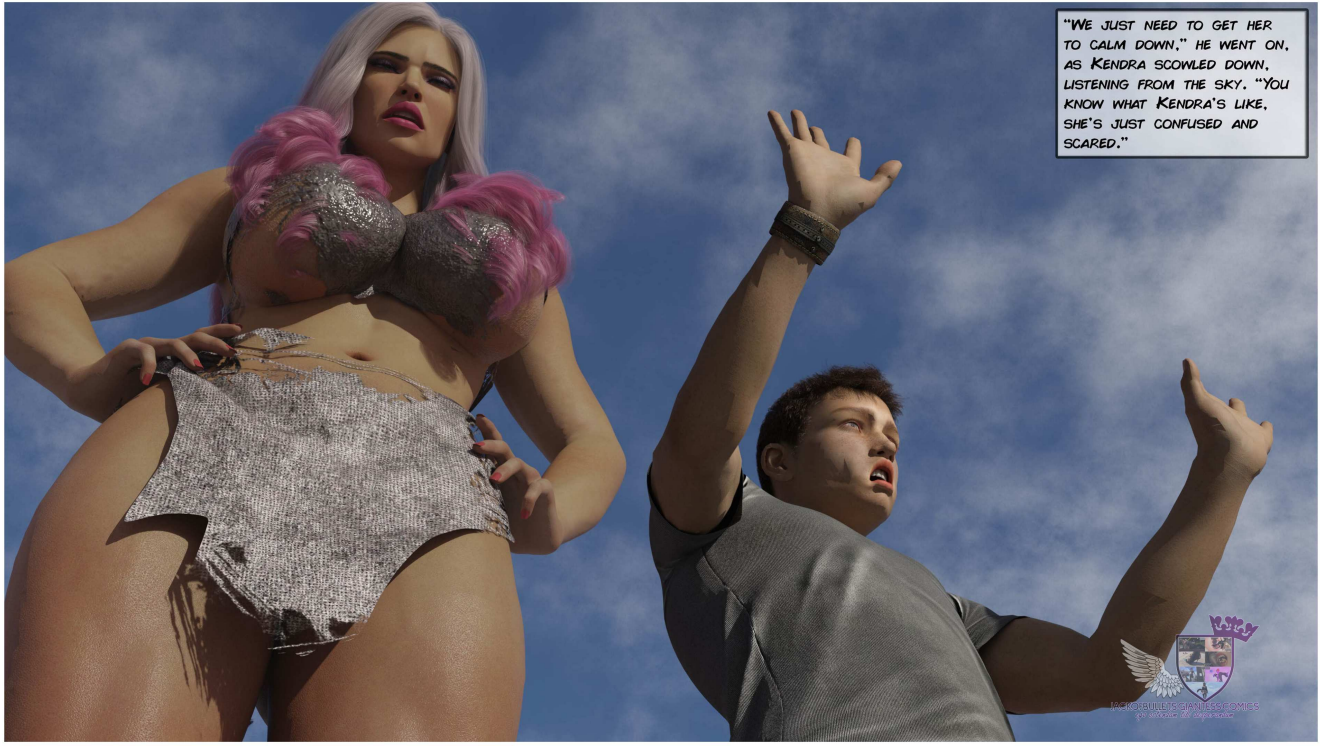
"Get ready!" Greg shouted, jumping up into a fighting pose.
Lee leapt up, too, but Todd warned them, "Wait, guys stop! This is Kendra!"

"So it's true," Kendra growled, eyeing their poses. "You did come here to kill me. This was Zortanna's solution?"

"How quickly you've turned on me. We were supposed to be friends!"
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

"Just wait!" Todd pleaded with the others. "I can still talk her around, give me a chance!"



"We just need to get her to calm down." he went on, as Kendra scowled down, listening from the sky. "You know what Kendra's like, she's just confused and scared."

"Are they always this patronising?" Regina sneered, slinking over Kendra's shoulder. "Are you just confused, my dear? A scared little girl who can be pacified by kind words and tacos? You were always the strongest Ranger. They've only ever held you back. You never needed them before. you definitely don't need them now."

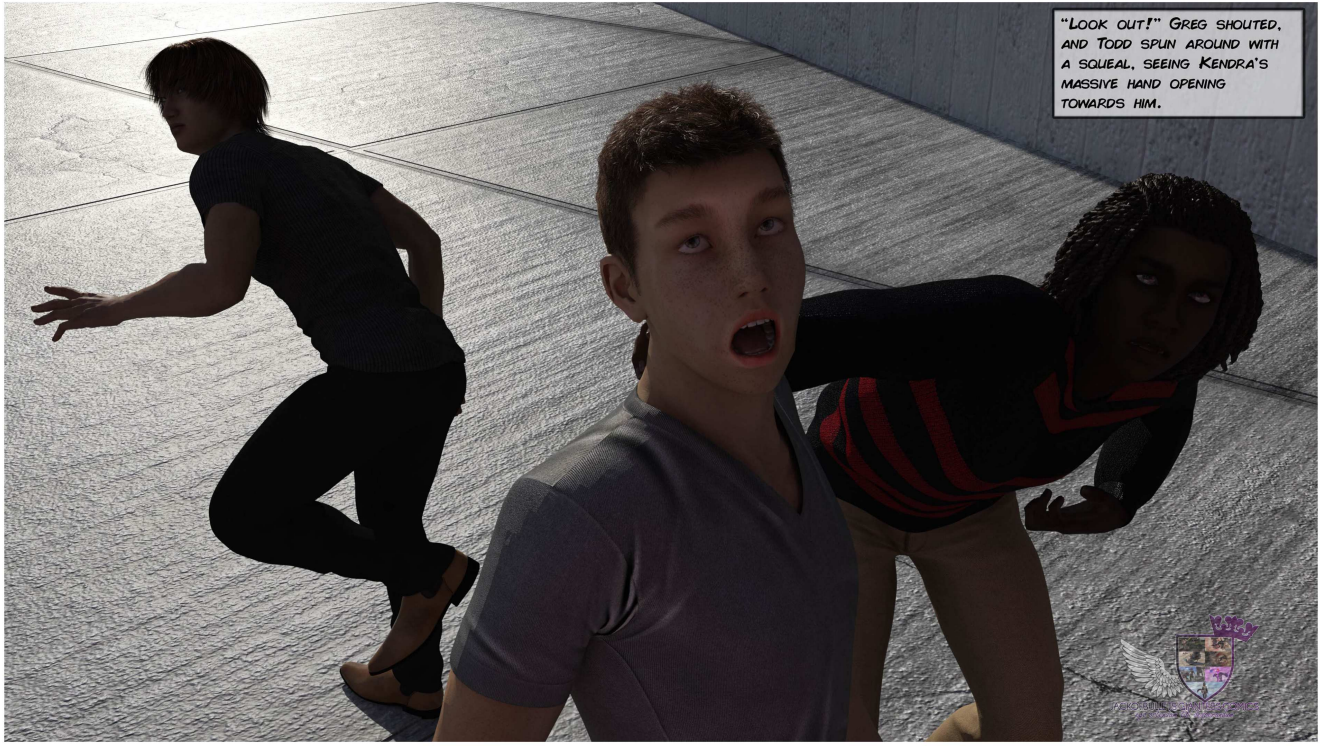
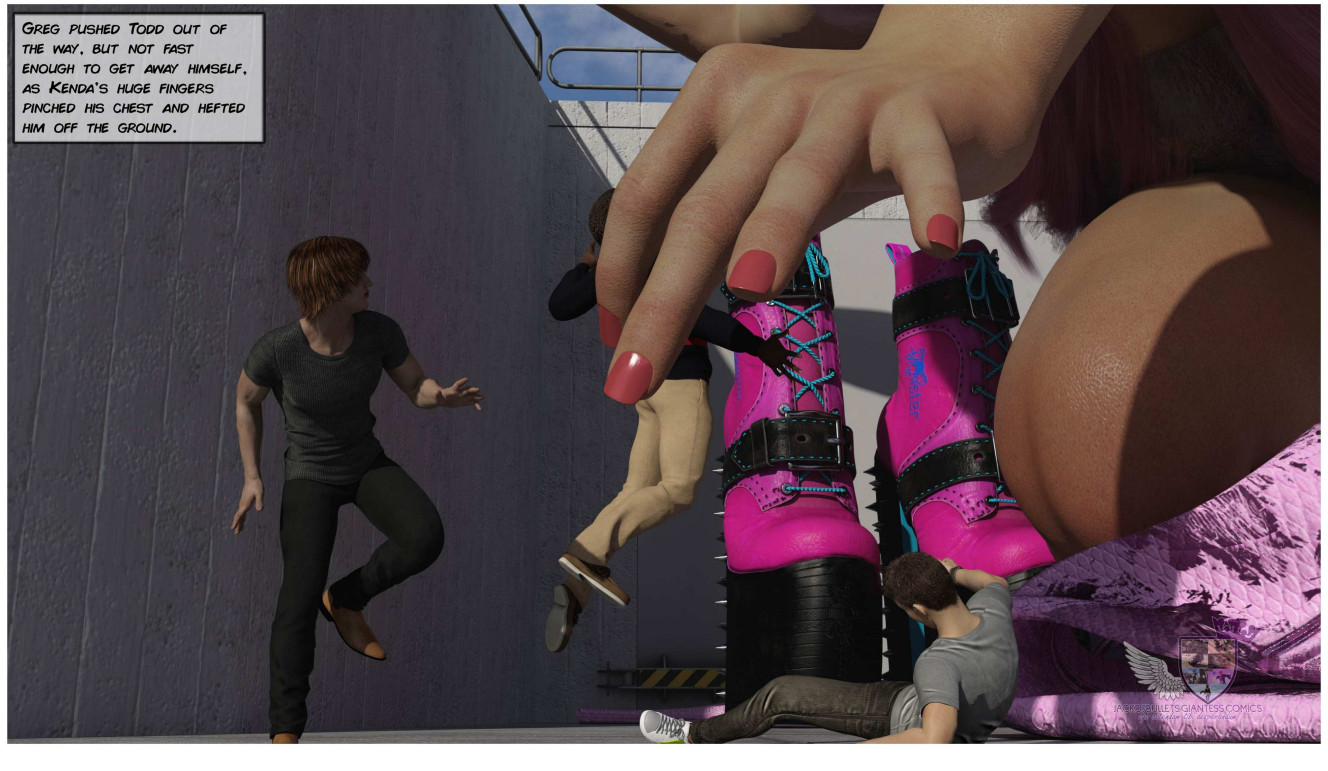
With a trembling snarl, Kendra snatched down towards the ground - damn these guys, she'd show them!



"Look out!" Greg shouted, and Todd spun around with a squeal, seeing Kendra's massive hand opening towards him.



Greg pushed Todd out of the way, but not fast enough to get away himself, as Kenda's huge fingers pinched his chest and hefted him off the ground.

"Come on bro, we gotta scram!" Lee said, helping Todd up.
"She's got Greg!" Todd replied.
"And she'll get us too - we can't help him like this!"

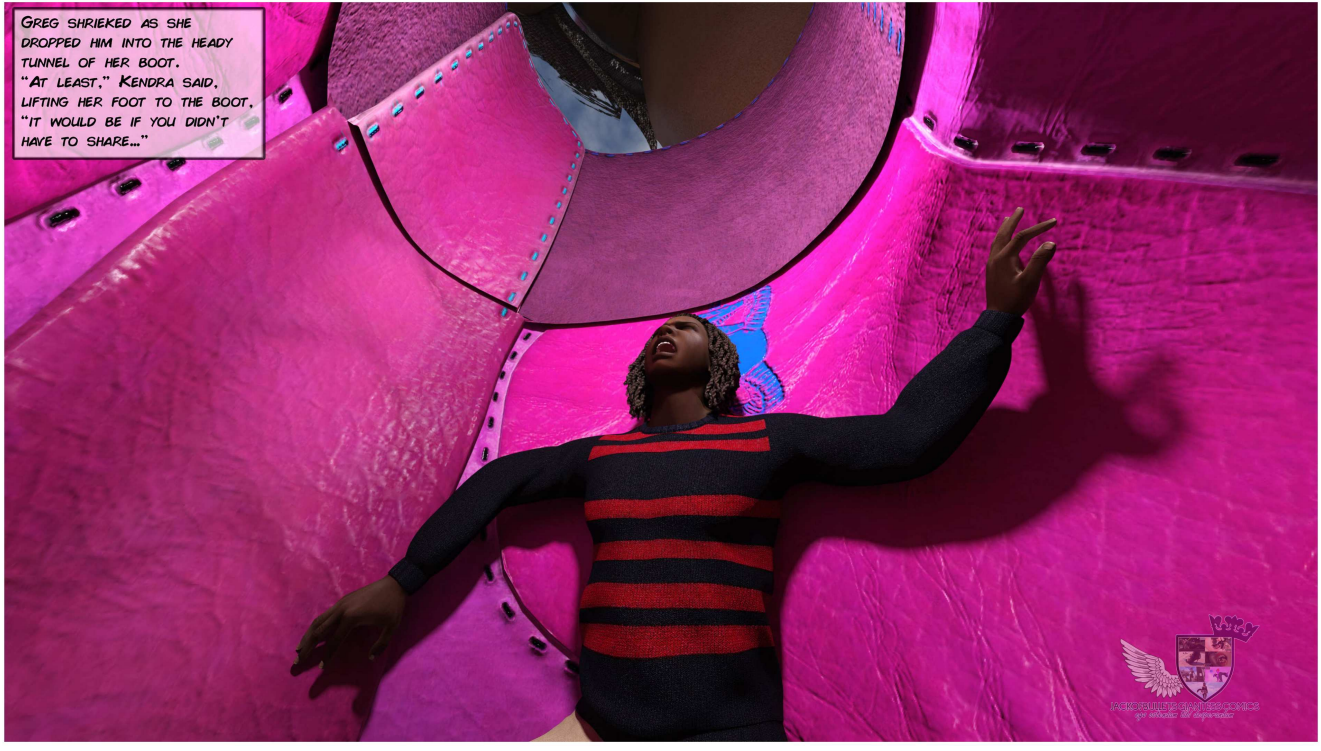
"What were you gonna do Greg?" Kendra laughed as she lifted Greg to her face, the small man squirming like a trapped bug. "Karate chop my toe?"

"What a lively morsel," Regina purred, watching Greg push desperately at Kendra's thumb. "He's got a lot of energy. Swallow him up and take that energy for yourself!"

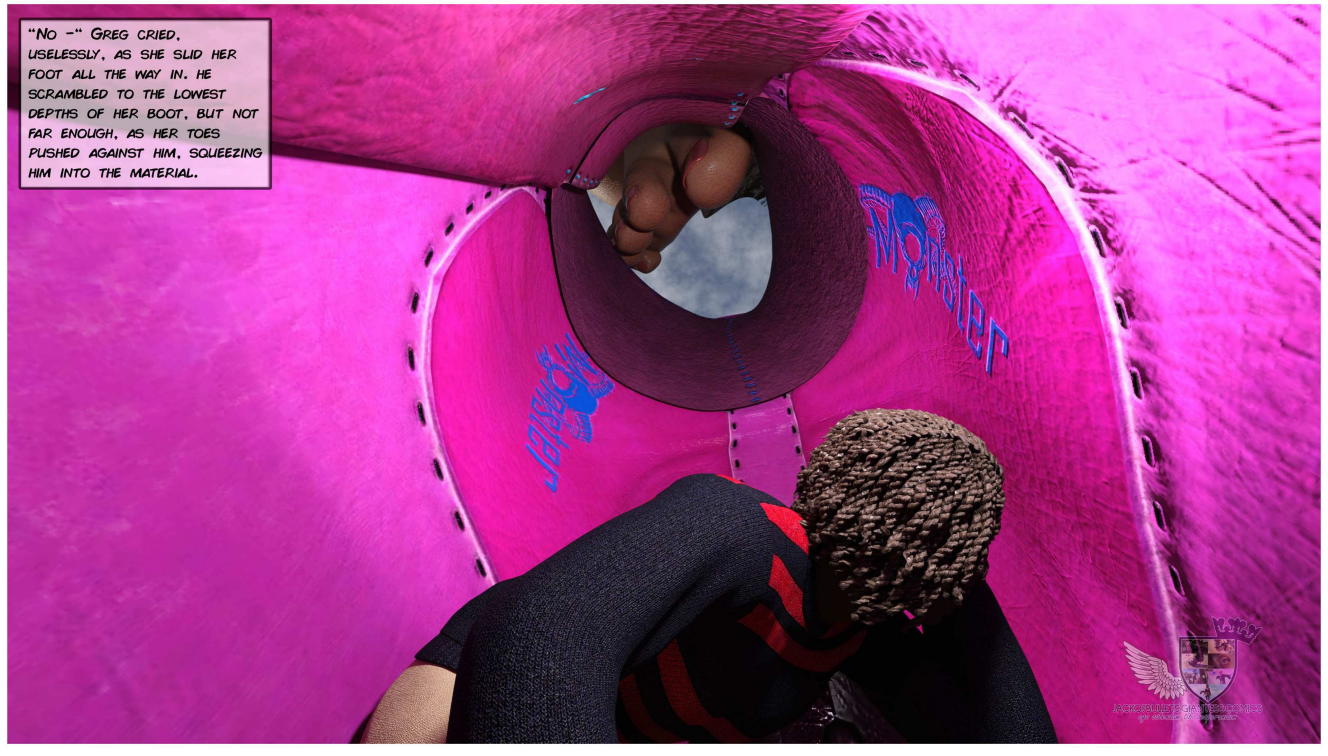
"No, that's too good for him," Kendra said, giving him a little extra squeeze. "He wanted to imprison me, didn't he?"
"Ah!" Greg groaned in pain. "Who are you talking to?"

She ignored him, going on, "But I have a prison for you..."

She swung him over the opening to her boot. "More roomy than a hamster cage, at least."



Greg shrieked as she dropped him into the heady tunnel of her boot.
"At least," Kendra said, lifting her foot to the boot, "it would be if you didn't have to share..."



"No -" Greg cried, uselessly, as she slid her foot all the way in. He scrambled to the lowest depths of her boot, but not far enough, as her toes pushed against him, squeezing him into the material.

"Yes, Mistress!" Catman joined in with a cackle of his own. "What a perfect plan! You are truly glorious!"

That cut off her fun, his annoying voice only reminding her how awful the rest of her minions were. She said, "Ugh, must I hear your screech again?" She paused. "No. Now that I have a 100-foot pet Ranger..."

"YES, MY PRETTY!" REGINA CHEERED. "KILL FOR ME! DESTROY THEM ALL!"

KENDRA HAD ARRIVED AT A BUILT-UP AREA, WHERE HER TREMENDOUS FOOTSTEPS SHOOK THE BUILDINGS AND SENT THE CROWDS OF TINY PEOPLE SCATTERING IN SCREAMING FEAR.

"Such bugs," Kendra sneered to herself. "You tiny, weak little things. I wasted so much time protecting you. And for what?"

"You can't even get out of the way of one big girl's shoe, can you, you dumb insects?" Kendra roared, overtaken by her anger and the thrill of this power. She lifted a giant boot over the crowd.

Kendra stomped down, with one footstep squishing at least four stupid people into the cracking ground.

Enjoying the feeling, she took another step after the fleeing idiots...

... HER NEXT STEP SQUELCHED THREE MORE PEOPLE, TOO SLOW TO GET OUT OF THE WAY, THE BUILDINGS SHAKING AROUND THEM.

With another step, she caught a screaming couple as the guy tried to drag his girlfriend clear. Both gone in an instant!

KENDRA LAUGHED AS SHE SWUNG HER BOOT UP TO KNOCK ANOTHER GUY DOWN, GETTING A SHARP SCREAM FROM HIM AS HE FELL.

Then she crunched him into the ground along with the rest.

Leaving behind a trail of flattened bodies and broken tiles, Kendra continued happily between the buildings.

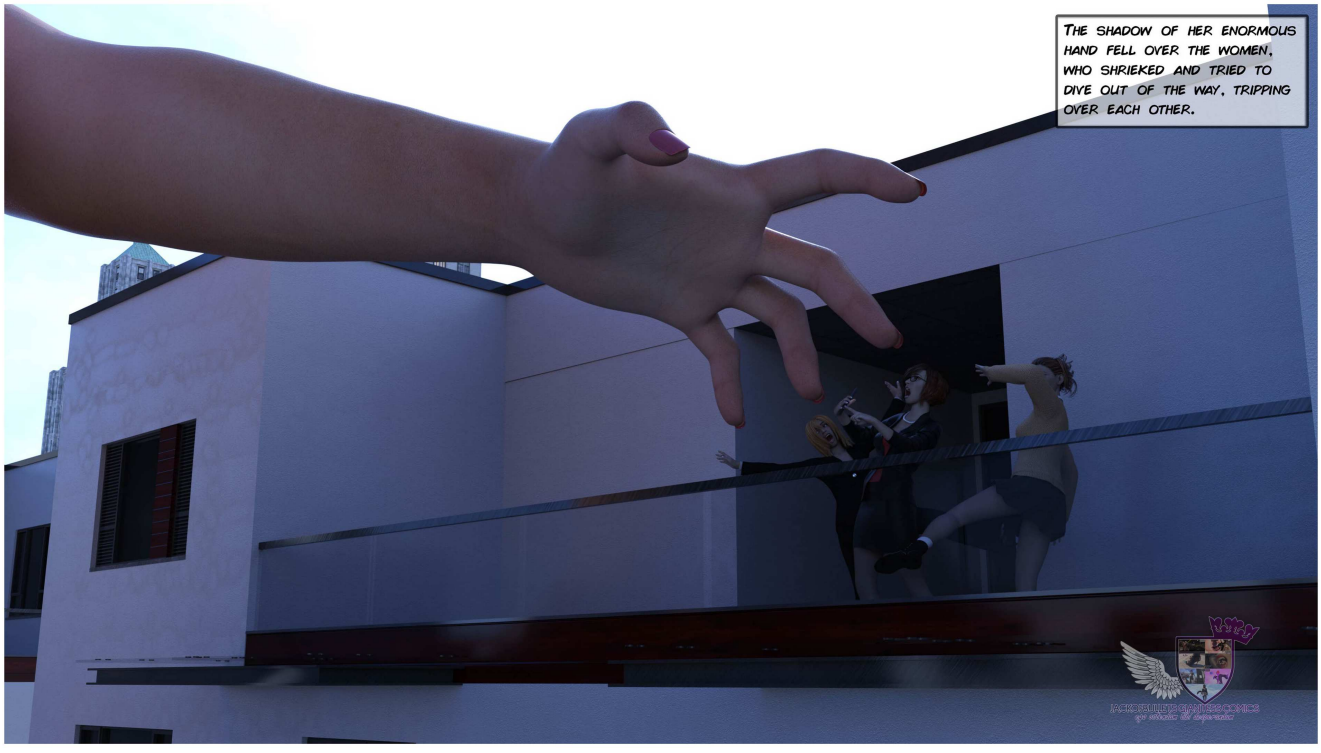
Meanwhile, Todd and Lee had made it back to Zortanna's, exhausted and barely able to explain what had happened. Todd concluded, breathlessly, "I know it looks bad, but I can still persuade her, I'm sure –"

"We are too late," Zortanna concluded, with mechanical calm. "We have lost Kendra to Regina, and your love cannot overcome that.

We must act quickly if we want to save Grovebrook. You know what must be done."

On a rooftop in town, a group of women who'd come out to see the commotion screamed as Kendra stepped into view - right into a perfect shot for one of their phone cameras.

"Are you filming me?" Kendra demanded. "What for? To report to the police? So everyone can comment online?"



The shadow of her enormous hand fell over the women, who shrieked and tried to dive out of the way, tripping over each other.

With one quick snatch, Kendra scooped all three girls screaming into her hand, the women throwing their hands about wildly.

"You useless little shrimps, only good for taking pictures of a real woman like me," Kendra snarled as the women howled for mercy. "Actually, there's one other thing shrimps are good for..."

"Seeing as my lunch with Bruce was so short-lived," Kendra murmured, plucking up one of the women by the hand.

Kendra lifted the woman from her fist to dangle, opening her mouth wide. Her victim thrashed about, pleading, "No, I don't want to be a snack!"

Kendra released her to drop onto her tongue. The woman's panic turned to rapid begging as her legs slid towards Kendra's waiting throat. "I've got a family, a pet hamster, you can't do this to me - I'll do anything!"

The woman fought hard as she was pulled into Kendra's mouth, shoving up her huge lips and thumping her teeth. "I can pay you! How much do you want! Uck, this is disgusting!"

Her talk turned to a strained scream as Kenda gulped her the rest of the way in, pulling the noisy woman down her throat.

The other two resumed their frantic struggle, going wild at the sight of their friend devoured, but all their scratching and shoving couldn't move Kendra's mighty fingers.

They were distracted by the sound of Kendra's tongue slurping over her lips, eyes resting on them hungrily. She said, "That was delicious. But not enough."
JACKORBULL'S GIANTESS COMICS

Without warning, Kendra thrust the other two towards her mouth.

She shoved the women in together and they wrestled with each other to get back out, rolling around on her tongue, swearing and shouting as they dragged each other down.

KENDRA CLOSED HER MOUTH ON THEIR STRUGGLES, SAVOURING THE TINY PEOPLE DESPERATELY WRIGGLING ABOUT IN HER CHEEKS, BEGGING HER TO STOP.

Kendra swallowed with a big effort, the two women bulging down her throat, down into her belly, and she stretched with a satisfied moan. This power was incredible - she wanted more people inside her, more of this feeling...

She turned on a toe, eyeing the other tiny people running terrified. So many for her to play with...

Regina hopped up and down on the spot, giggling with delight at her handiwork. This was going even better than she hoped! She cried, "Yes, my pretty, get them all! Make them feel our wrath!"

With great thundering strides, Kendra continued towards the centre of Grovebook, laughing as people abandoned their shaking buildings to run through the streets.

"Kendra, stop!" a familiar voice shouted, making Kendra pause.
She smirked. "I was wondering when you two would show up."

"Ah," Kendra replied. "Greg is finding out whether or not he's into feet..."

"And Bruce made me a delicious lunch, like you wanted him to!"

Todd took off his helmet, to look at her earnestly. "Please. Kendra, honey. It's not too late to stop. I still love you! I always will!"

But out of nowhere, with a great FWOOM and a flash of light, a laser fired.

KENDRA TURNED TO THE SOUND, BROUGHT SHARPLY BACK TO REALITY - TOO LATE TO AVOID THE BEAM.

The laser struck her in the chest with a burst of fiery energy, knocking her breath away and making Kendra stumble. Her footing thrown, she couldn't catch her balance and slowly, terribly, tumbled.

Kendra smashed through a building, which gave way immediately under her immense weight, crumbling in a cascade of debris, firing out chunks across the road.

She steadied herself, using another building for support, as the dust cleared. Down, dizzied, but, she found, actually barely hurt. But who had shot her?

ULTIMABOT!
THE GREAT SHINY GUARDIAN OF THE RANGERS STOOD DEFIANTLY AT THE CENTRE OF TOWN, READY FOR A FIGHT. CONTROLLED BY WHO? THE SURVIVING RANGERS WERE DOWN ON THE STREET. "SURPRISE!" ZORTANNA'S VOICE CAME OUT, ECHOING OFF THE WALLS. "YOU HAVE ALL BECOME TOO BUSY FIGHTING YOUR FEELINGS TO FIGHT THE MONSTER. I HAVE COME TO SAVE THE DAY!"

"Didn't I tell you this would happen?" Regina hissed into Kendra's ear. "They won't stop until you are destroyed."
"Then I'll be destroyed," Kendra replied, uneasily. "That's the Ultimabot - no one can defeat that, that's the whole point of it!"

"Everything has a weakness," Regina promised. "The Ultimabot included. With your wonderful size and power, I can stop her, at long last. If you'll only let me help you. Join me, Kendra..."

"Together, we can bring that tyrant robot down, and with Zortanna gone, we can rule the earth -together, the way it was meant to be!"

Ultimabot's foot shook the town as Zortanna readied to attack, and Lee desperately tried to persuade Todd to move: "We need to go!" Todd shook with despair, muttering over and over about losing his girlfriend. His team. "It's all gone..."

"If you wanted to stop her," Regina cackled loudly, "you should have killed her when you had the chance!"

A magical light burst out of her, and in an instant Regina was gone, replaced by a swirling, glowing red mist. The mist drew back into Kendra, absorbed into her throbbing chest.

Her torn rags of tarpaulin clothing were replaced by a rich black and red outfit, horns sticking from her hair - the familiar, frightening style of Regina's.

AND SHE WAS RISING UP, SEEMING TO GET BIGGER.
JACKOFBULLETS GIANTESS COMICS

It was still Kendra, but also not, as Regina's magic had fused with her. Regina was in there too, now, the pair combined for one horrifically powerful, huge, and (admittedly) gorgeous monster. This, Was Kaiser Kendra.

"Bytes and chips!" Zortanna cursed in her own unusual way. "This is exactly what I worried would happen! Rangers, we have to attack her together!"

As Ultimabot's boot came down with another ready stomp, Todd and Lee jumped into fighting poses. There was no avoiding it now - Regina's threat was written all over their former teammate.
"Okay!" Todd shouted. "Let's cut her down to size!"

"Actually," Kaiser Kendra replied, wickedly smirking their way, "I think I would prefer..."

She finished with a terrific roar, spreading her arms, "to make my monster grow!"

With another burst of power, her body began expanding again, the street straining under her.

And still she rose, growing ever more hugely into the sky.

At triple the size, making the tallest buildings in Grovebrook look like toys, she arched her back and moaned loudly with pleasure, taking on this new power.

Then she settled, exhaling, and steadied her gaze back on the Ultimabot.
"It would seem, Zortanna, that you need a bigger robot."
