CHAPTER 1
The Reading

Good afternoon, Thank you for coming. We are here to witness the reading of Hester Gomberg's Will. As you know she was a rather eccentric old lady but she was clear of mind in what she wanted to do with the large estate she left.
Get on with it. How much are we going to get?

I, Hester Glomberg, being of sound mind do bequeath the following:
To my two old friends John and Susan Bright the amount of $25,000. Unfortunately, my daughter, Lucy and her husband Brian were both killed in a car accident a few years ago leaving my two great nieces as my only other living relatives other than my twin sister Harriet. Harriet has, in recent years, had increasing bouts of memory loss thus I feel it would be unwise to transfer running of the whole of my estate to her. This task must be undertaken by my two nieces. Angela, the elder, having a degree in business administration, I charge with maintaining and possibly improving the portfolio which, I understand at the time of writing, is worth in the region of $48 million. Antonia, the younger niece I charge with acting as a companion and possible nurse to my sister Harriet. She has a fear of men therefore it is appropriate that she is looked after by a female family member. If both nieces undertake the tasks set, they will be awarded an annual salary of $500,000 if, however either of them do not fulfil the tasks they receive nothing and the whole of my estate will be given to the National Children's Foundation.
My lawyer has details of how the fulfilment of my wishes is to be monitored.

This is ridiculous. How are we supposed to carry out the wishes when there has been some misunderstanding from the writer. There is no way we can fulfil the tasks set. There for we get nothing, and it all goes to charity.
Sir, please sit down and be calm.
Hang on don't be hasty.

Wait. There could be a way of sorting this out which will allow us to fulfil her wishes and satisfy the monitoring.
I don't see how there can be. I'm leaving.
Wait. Don't leave before hearing how the monitoring will take place.

The stupid old woman thinking we were sisters. How could she. Surely the lawyer can see that there has been a mistake. All that money could have been ours instead it goes to charity and we het nothing.

Well, where else could I go? We could have been rich.
I don't see how we can do both. Great Aunt Harriet hates men. So how can we look after her?
Subterfuge?
What! No way!
So, you've decided to come home at last.
Listen. I talked to the lawyer and it seems there could be a way out of the situation.. The monitoring he mentioned involves both a close eye on the business section but also the welfare of Great Aunt Harriet. As long as she is content then the task is being fulfilled.
It will require an amount of subterfuge but I think we can do it.
You will have to pretend to be Antonia, her female niece.

CHAPTER 2
Antonia

I can't believe I'm going to do this. How can we hope to pull off the fact that I'm not Antonia but Anthony. However, if I don't, we get nothing.

Okay. I'm here what do we have to do to convince people that I'm Antonia
Well firstly you need to get rid of all your body hair. Go and soak in the bath and use a razor to shave yourself all over.

This isn't as easy as you would think. Luckily I'm not that hairy.

I've managed to get most of the hair off. What do you think?
Yes that should do. The next thing is to dress in female clothes and begin acting as a female.
XOX
OXO
XOX

What do you think? Is this okay?
Not really. You need to show a lot less skin and dress more lady like.
BORN PLAY

How about this then?
That's much better. However, you need to have some padding in the breast area you still look like a guy in female clothing.

You are getting better but you must think about how you sit. Sitting with legs apart is not very ladylike
I'll try and remember. There is such a lot to learn. However, I am managing to walk in these heels
~~We now need to~~ look at your face and hair. Make up should help

My God! Is that me?
You look great. The hair is still a little masculine but the make up helps with the illusion.

CHAPTER 3
A Visitor

Do I look OK? Do you think she will realise I'm not what I am trying to look like?
I Sure hope so. I would hate to think that I'm going through all this for nothing.
You are OK. The past couple of weeks you have worked hard. I'm sure she will not suspect.

Aunt Harriet this is Antonia
No I don't think we have ever met. Angela has told me about you though.
At last. I don't think we have ever met.
Yes she used to come and stay during the holidays when she was younger

I understand that you are going to be coming to live with me. I'm so glad to have someone to meet people and handle the day to day running of the house.

Yes. I'll be there but what seems to be the problem in meeting people?

Remember the lawyer told us that Aunt Harriet ahs a fear of men. So much so that she can't meet them without becoming ill. Tea everyone?

I suppose it will be OK. I'm not working at the moment so I will be able to be there all of the time.
Many years ago, when I was a young girl, I was alone in the house and two men broke in and I was attacked an raped. It has had such an effect that I cannot abide to have men near me. That's why I need another female in the house with me so that they can deak with callers and tradespeople I have to deal with. Don't worry I can give you any information you will need in dealing with them and if you are not sure then you can always find me and ask.

Antonia will be at your place tomorrow, Aunt Harriet. I hope you will be safe until then
I will see you tomorrow. I have a female taxi driver to take me home and I an going to lock the doors and stay safe.
You don't need to bring much I will provide any clothes you need and I will pay you a wage for being my companion
I will be there first thing in the morning. Just as soon as I have packed some essentials

You have to make sure she doesn't find out. You have to behave and act like a young woman.
If you don't then we lose the money.
You know she is going to find out that I'm not what she thinks I am and then what?
But all the time. That is going to be so difficult.

Good luck and be careful.
Thanks for nothing.
To Be Continued

Hello Dear. I hope your stay here will be pleasurable. You don't know how difficult I find it meeting other people I don't know.
Bring your things in and we can have a drink and a Chat in the main room
Thanks Aunt Harriet. I'm here to make sure that you don't have any trouble. We girls need to stick together.

Don’t worry Aunt Harriet. I’m here to make sure that you are ok, as we discussed.
Whayt happens if the delivery person is a man?
It really is good of you to come and be my companion. I understand that it was a stipulation in Hester’s will but it must be difficult for a young person like you to commit to it.
Well there is a room ready for you upstairs at this end of the house. The wardrobes are full of clothes which are in your size. I am really quite well off thanks to the investments Hester made for us snd with your sister Angela keeping and eye on them then we should not want for anything. Just let me know if there is anything you need and I’ll arrange for it to be delivered.
That’s where you come oin. You answer the door and deal with any male callers. Now I think you want to freshen up and find your way about.

She wasn't kidding when she said there are clothes in the wardrobe. Thee are even matching shoes. Well I suppose I should go down and begin working.

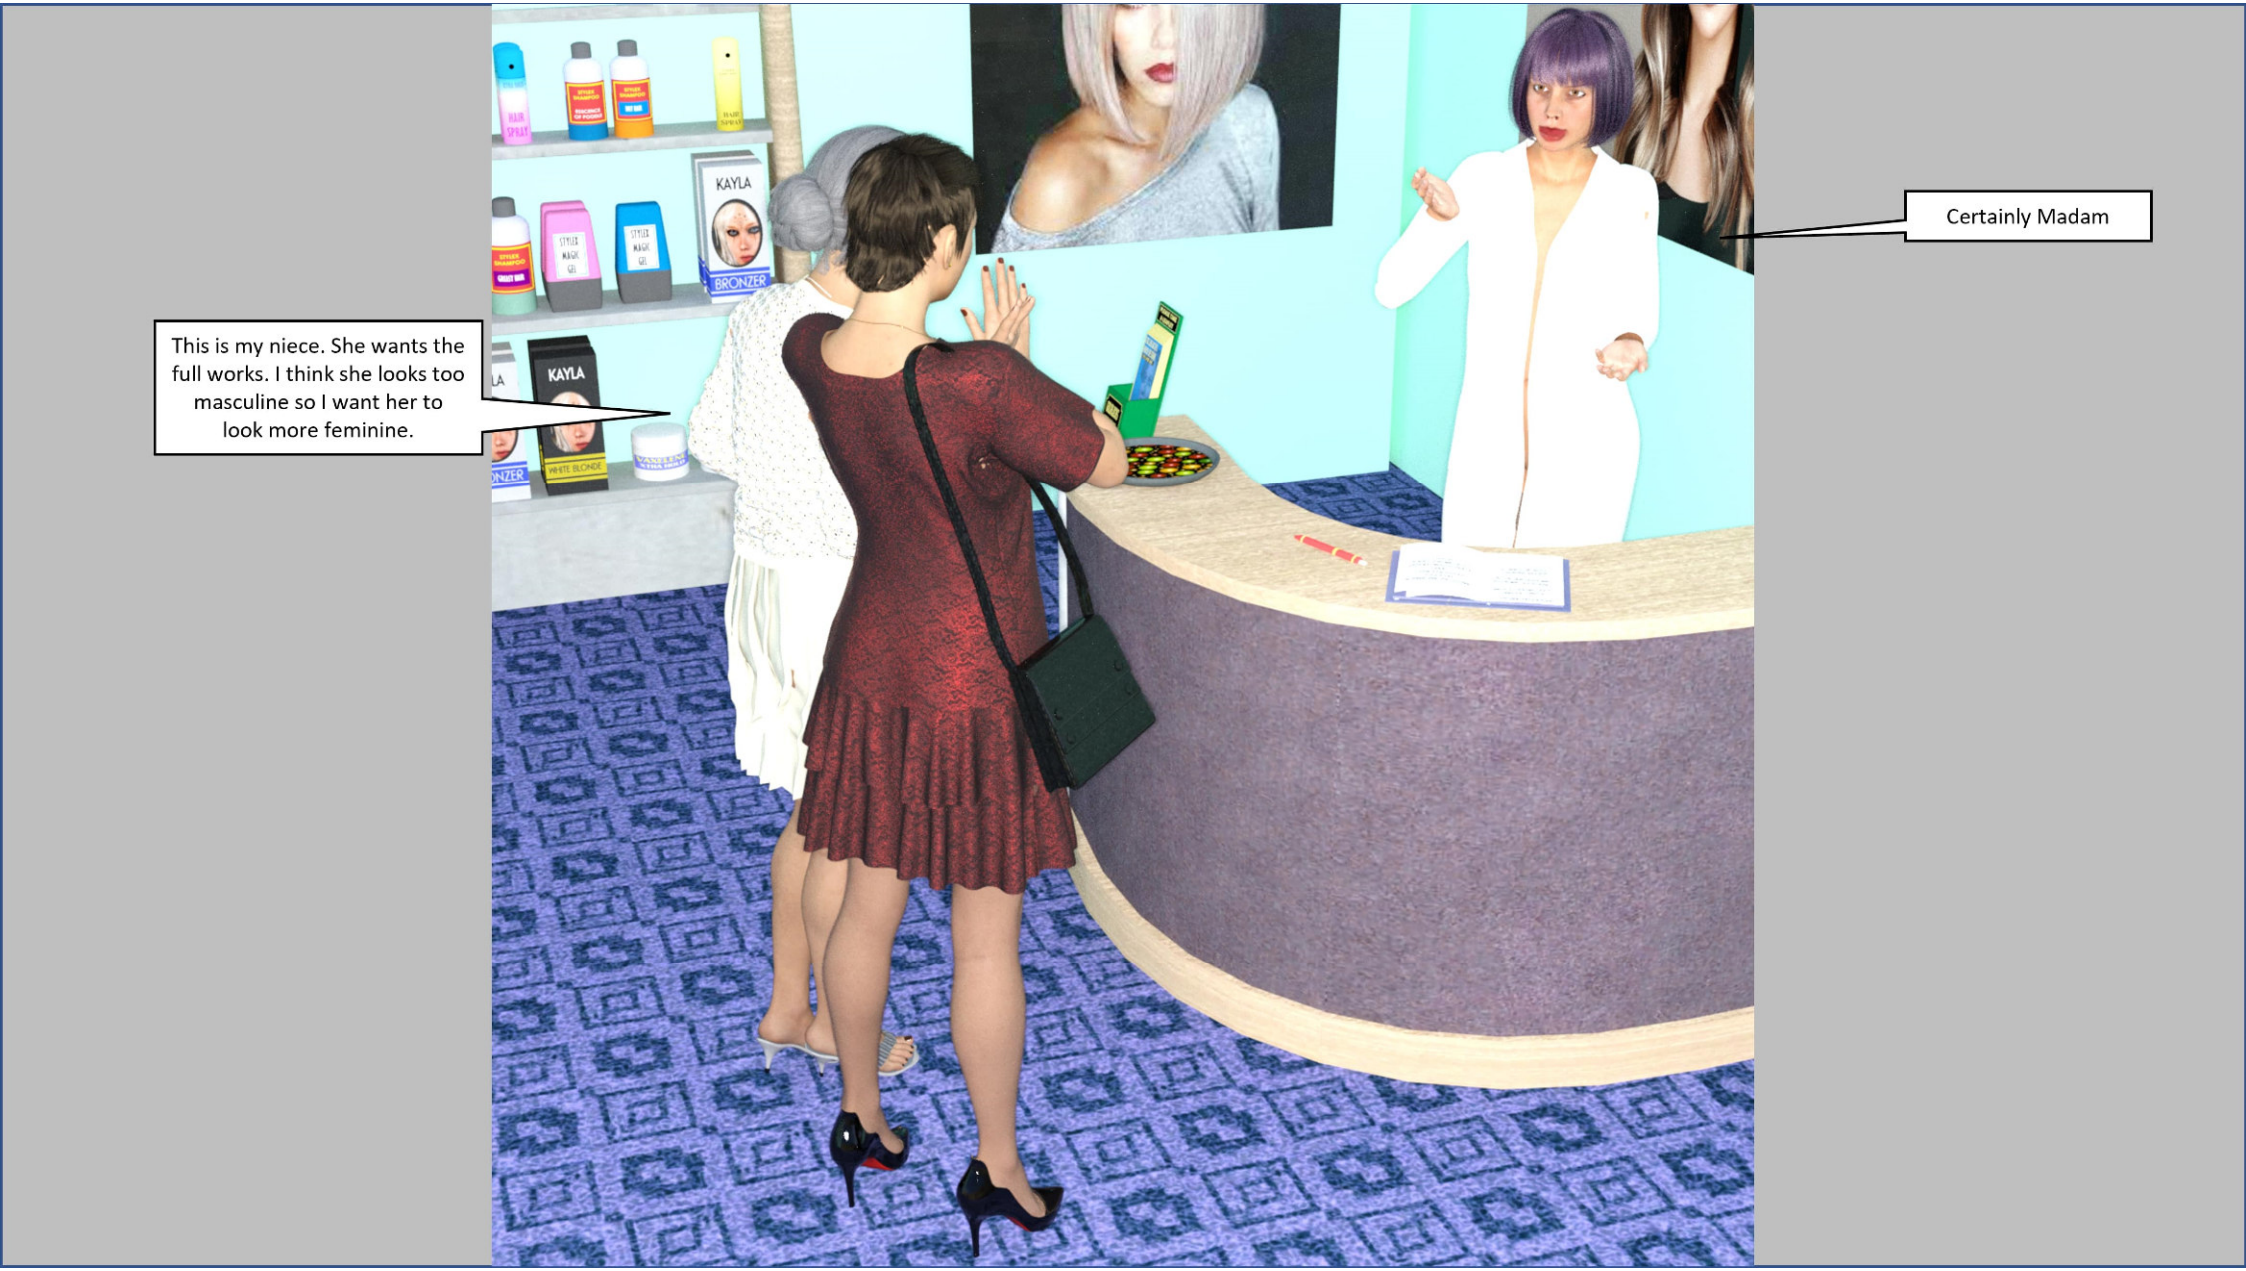
I'm not too great at cooking but if you can give directions I'm sure I can quickly learn.
I thought I was going to be a full-time helper, cook, washer-up and cleaner.
Don't worry dear. I'm sure we will survive and I can always do the cooking.
I may look a little frail but I'm not helpless. Your main job will be, as I said, dealing with male callers and tradespeople.

Well I've manged one day. It was not too hard. I just need to remember that I am female and not suddenly start acting in a male way. She is a funny old girl but, as she says she only wants me to field male contact for her and she is paying me I'm not sure how long I will have to do this, hopefully can manage.

Good morning dear. Did you sleep well?
Please drop the aunt. Just call me Harriet. Now come and sit down I want to ask you something.
Yes thank you Aunt Harriet

I'm sorry this is the way I normally look.
Heck has she worked it out?
No of course not
A make over?
Don't take this the wrong way but you look a little too masculine this morning.
I know dear, but the short hair and the shorts make me feel a little afraid. Would you mind if I make a suggestion.
How about you drive Hester's car and take us into town where you can have a makeover?
Yes the works. Hair make-up, nails the lot. I'll arrange it and pay. Now you go put on a pretty dress and we can make a day of it.

Here's the place. I'm sure you are going to enjoy yourself here.
I need to be careful here. Hopefully they will not say anything if they suspect me.
Yes Harriet. Thank you.



This is my niece. She wants the full works. I think she looks too masculine so I want her to look more feminine.

Four Hours Later

A very fruitful day. You look really pretty and no one, especially me would take you for being male.
Thanks Harriet. It has certainly been an interesting day. And this meal was excellent.

Hi sis. I thought I had blown it today.
Harriet said I looked too masculine this morning and she didn't like it.
I didn't do anything. Harriet suggested I have a makeover so we spent the day with me driving her into town and having a makeover
It made me think though. I only have my driver's licence with Anthony's name and picture. We need to do something about getting me one with Antonia on.
Ok see you tomorrow.
Why? What happened?
So what did you do?
Lucky you.
I tell you what, I'll pop over tomorrow and we can discuss how we can deal with the problem

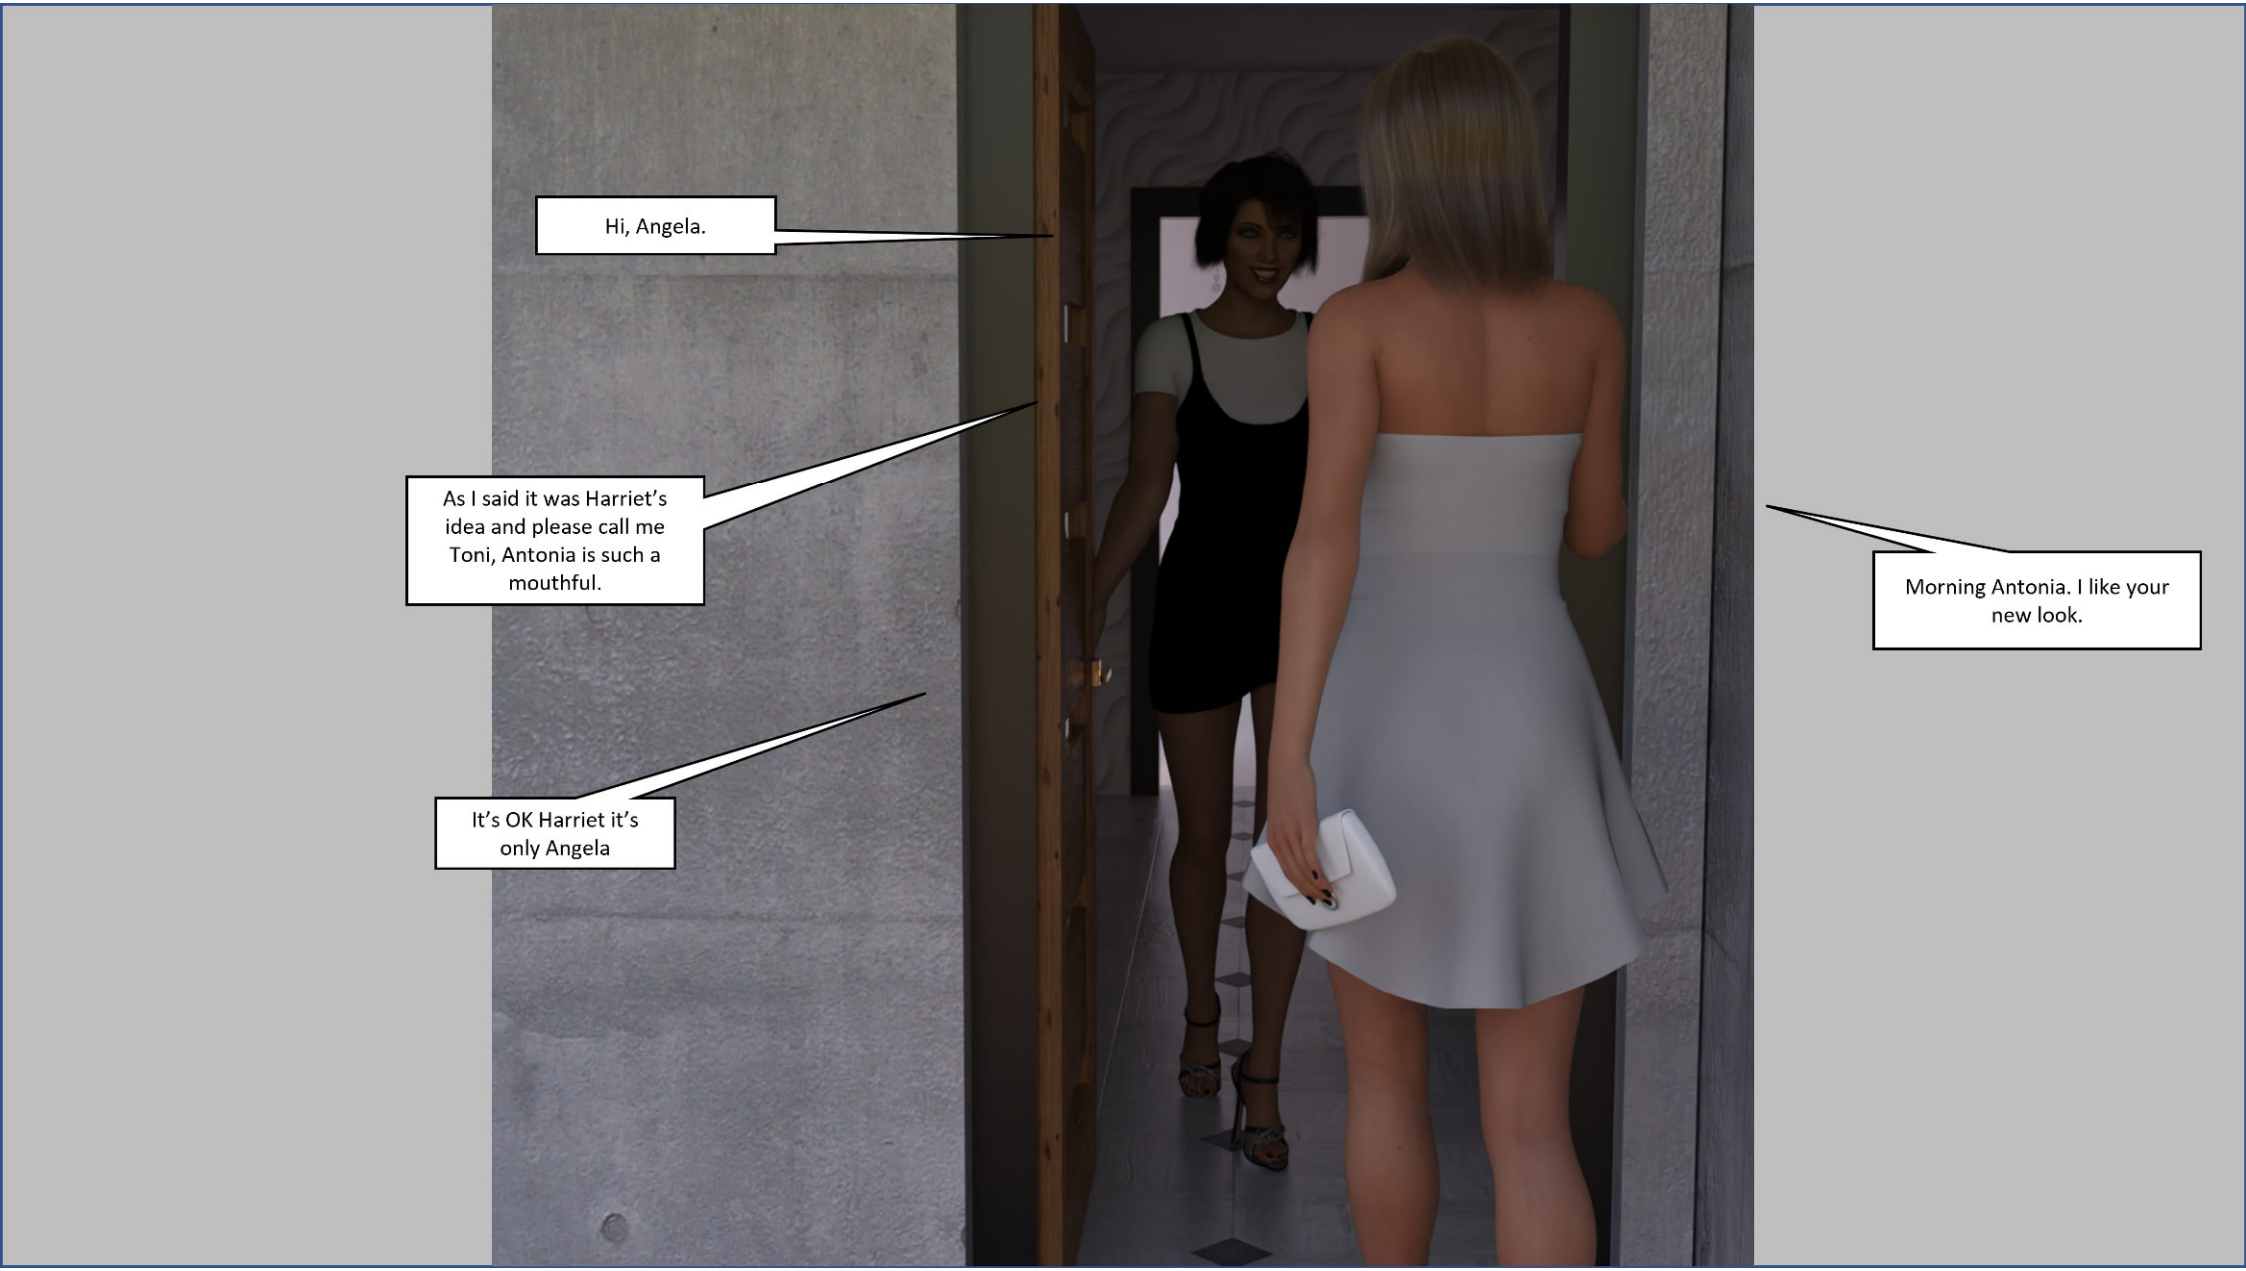
CHAPTER 5
Guidelines.

No dear. I'm not helpless. You just have to be here to handle any male callers. If they arrive I'll disappear upstairs while you handle whatever they are here for.
That will be nice I am interested to see how she is getting on with Hester's portfolio
Thank you for breakfast Harriet. I thought I was supposed to do the housework and cooking
Oh. I see. Well I had a chat with Angela last night and she said that she may come over today to discuss our arrangement.

That's the doorbell. I'll go to the bottom of the stairs and wait to see who it is.
Wel just in case I'll move.
OK. Hopefully it will be Angela so you needn't worry



Hi, Angela.
As I said it was Harriet's idea and please call me Toni, Antonia is such a mouthful.
It's OK Harriet it's only Angela
Morning Antonia. I like your new look.

Good Morning Aunt Harriet. I hope you are well and Toni is looking after you.
Good Morning Angela. It is nice to see you but please just call me Harriet. I may be old but calling me aunt makes me feel ancient

I need to tell you that all of Hester's portfolio and investments are safe. I have quit my job and am now overseeing the whole thing as Hester's stipulation in the will gave me an annual salary of $500,000 so it only fair that I take on the job full time.
Included in the will was that this house is to be your home until you either see fit to leave it or you die and enough money to awarded to you to be able to keep yourself in the manner you have always been. Toni will receive a salary as well from the earnings of the portfolio.

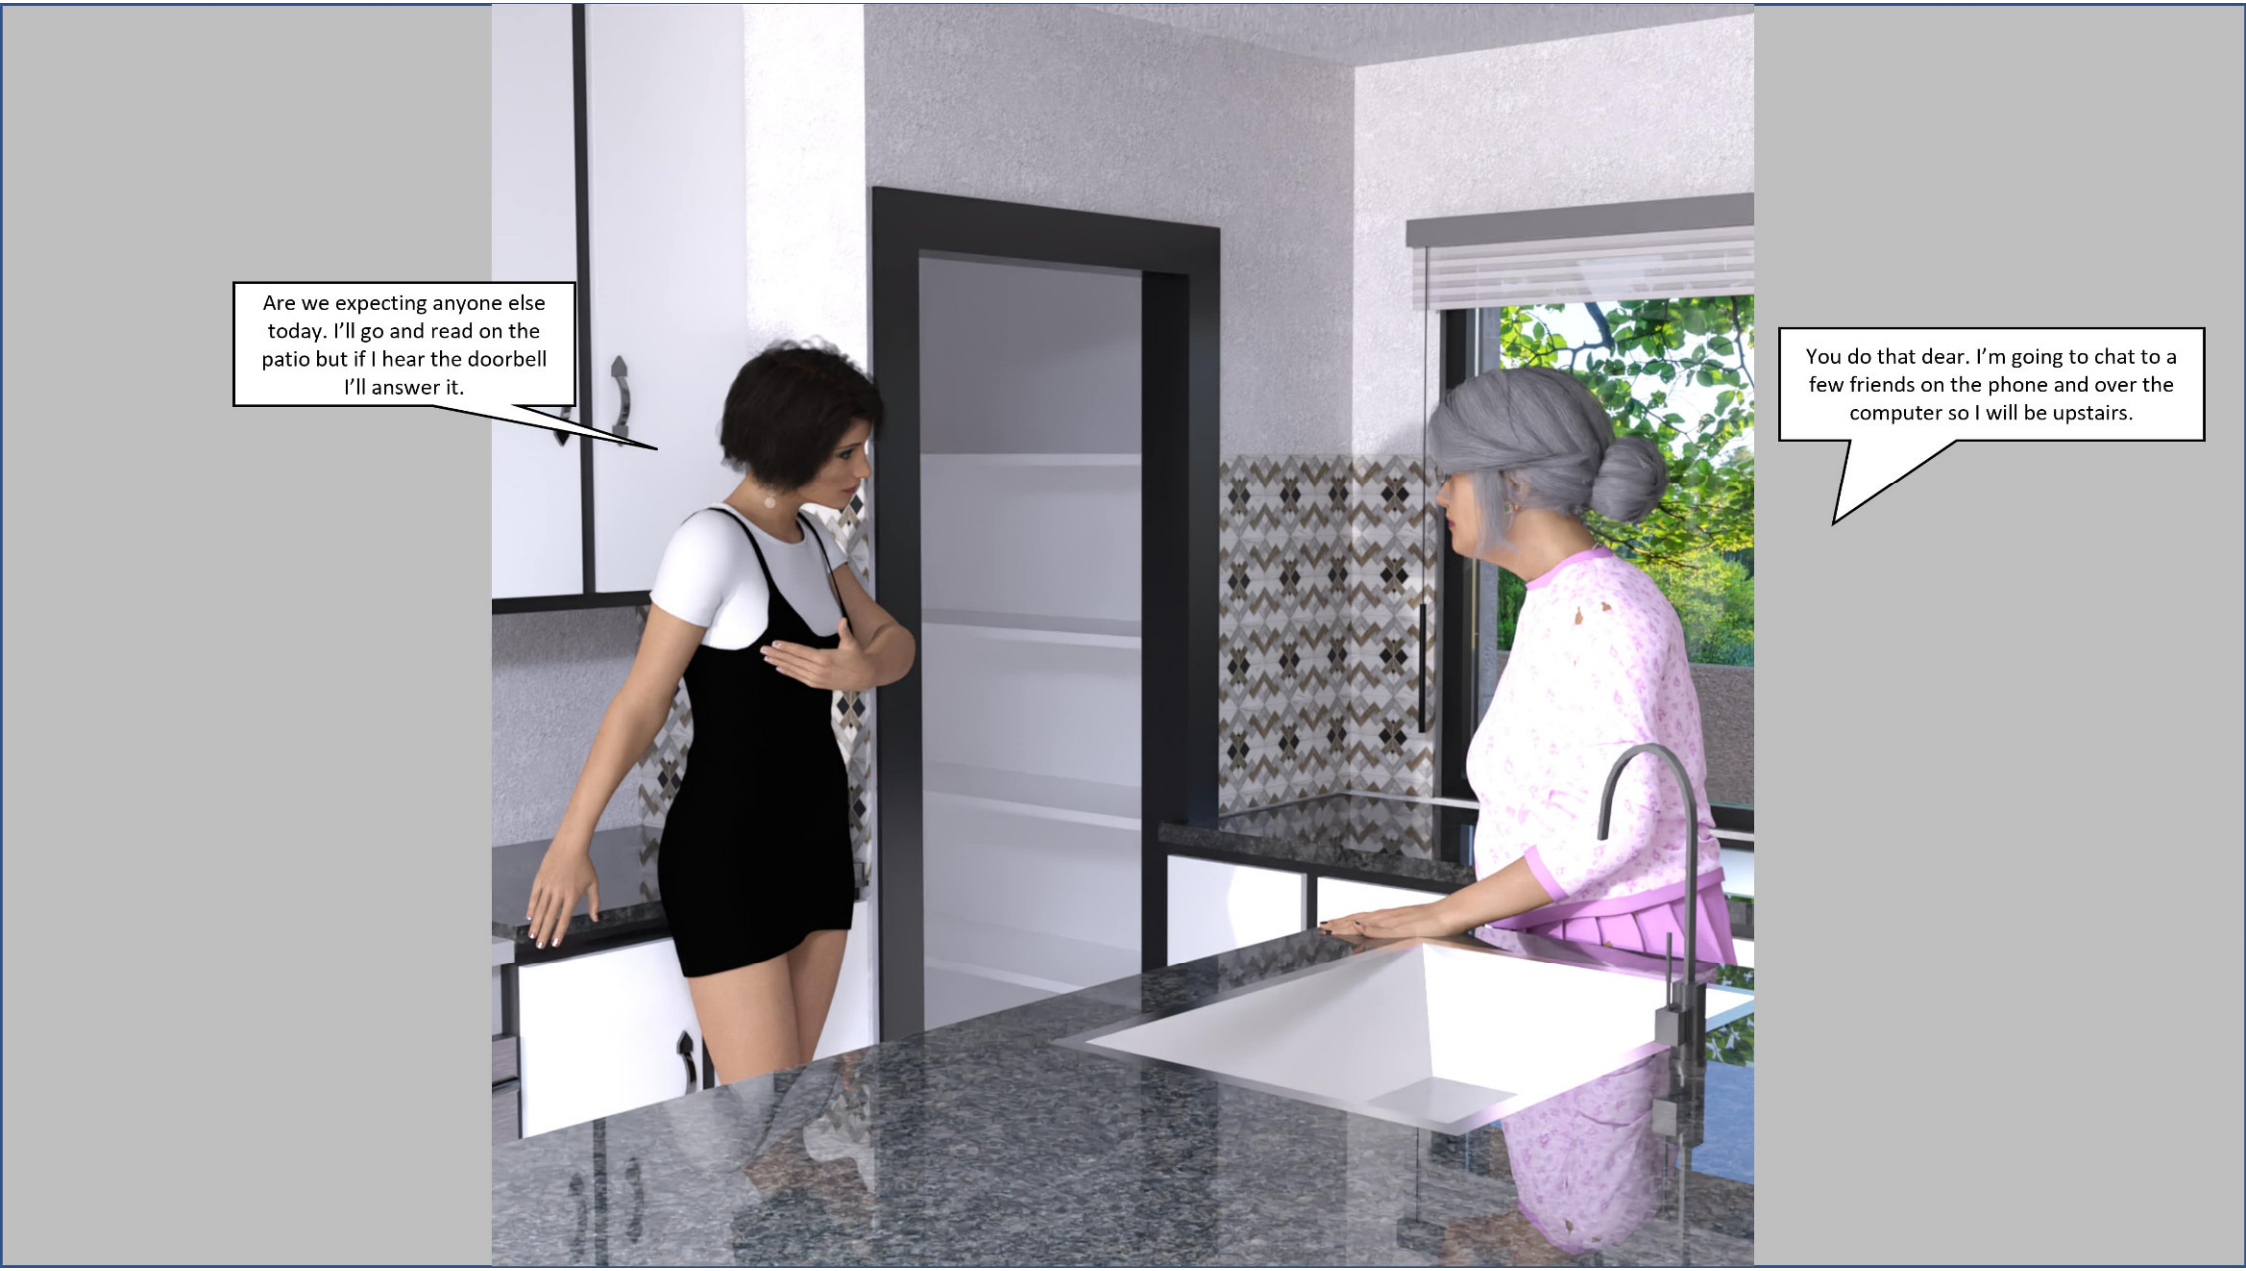
That's great by me. Harriet explained what she need from me. Can we have a chat about things at home in my room before you leave?

Yes dear I knew that it was oin the letter that the lawyer sent to me. I'm just glad that Toni will be here as a safety net for my phobia.

I don’t think you understand how hard this is for me. Look what she has made me do to my hair. What will she insist on next.
But she seems to keep looking at me and sometimes comments when I do something that is not what she thinks is ladylike.
Look Toni. You must be convincing, or we lose everything
Then you have to be more careful.

OK. But I'm not sure I can keep carrying it off as I have done so far.
Just keep it up. I'm trying to work something out with the lawyers to get us out of this mess and keep the money.
Interesting. I need to ring a few friends

Yes Sis. You know best. Keep in touch.
Goodbye Harriet. Toni you keep on looking after her as we discussed



Are we expecting anyone else today. I'll go and read on the patio but if I hear the doorbell I'll answer it.
You do that dear. I'm going to chat to a few friends on the phone and over the computer so I will be upstairs.

At least out here I'm not making any mistakes. And sitting like this I can take the heels off.
That's it. You sit and relax. I'm going to make sure that your play acting is for real. I have some really good friends who will help.

Did you have a good read?
I'm glad you like it. Here's to your new life here.
Yes. I also had a little nap. Thank you for making dinner and this wine is lovely
Thank you and good health to you too.

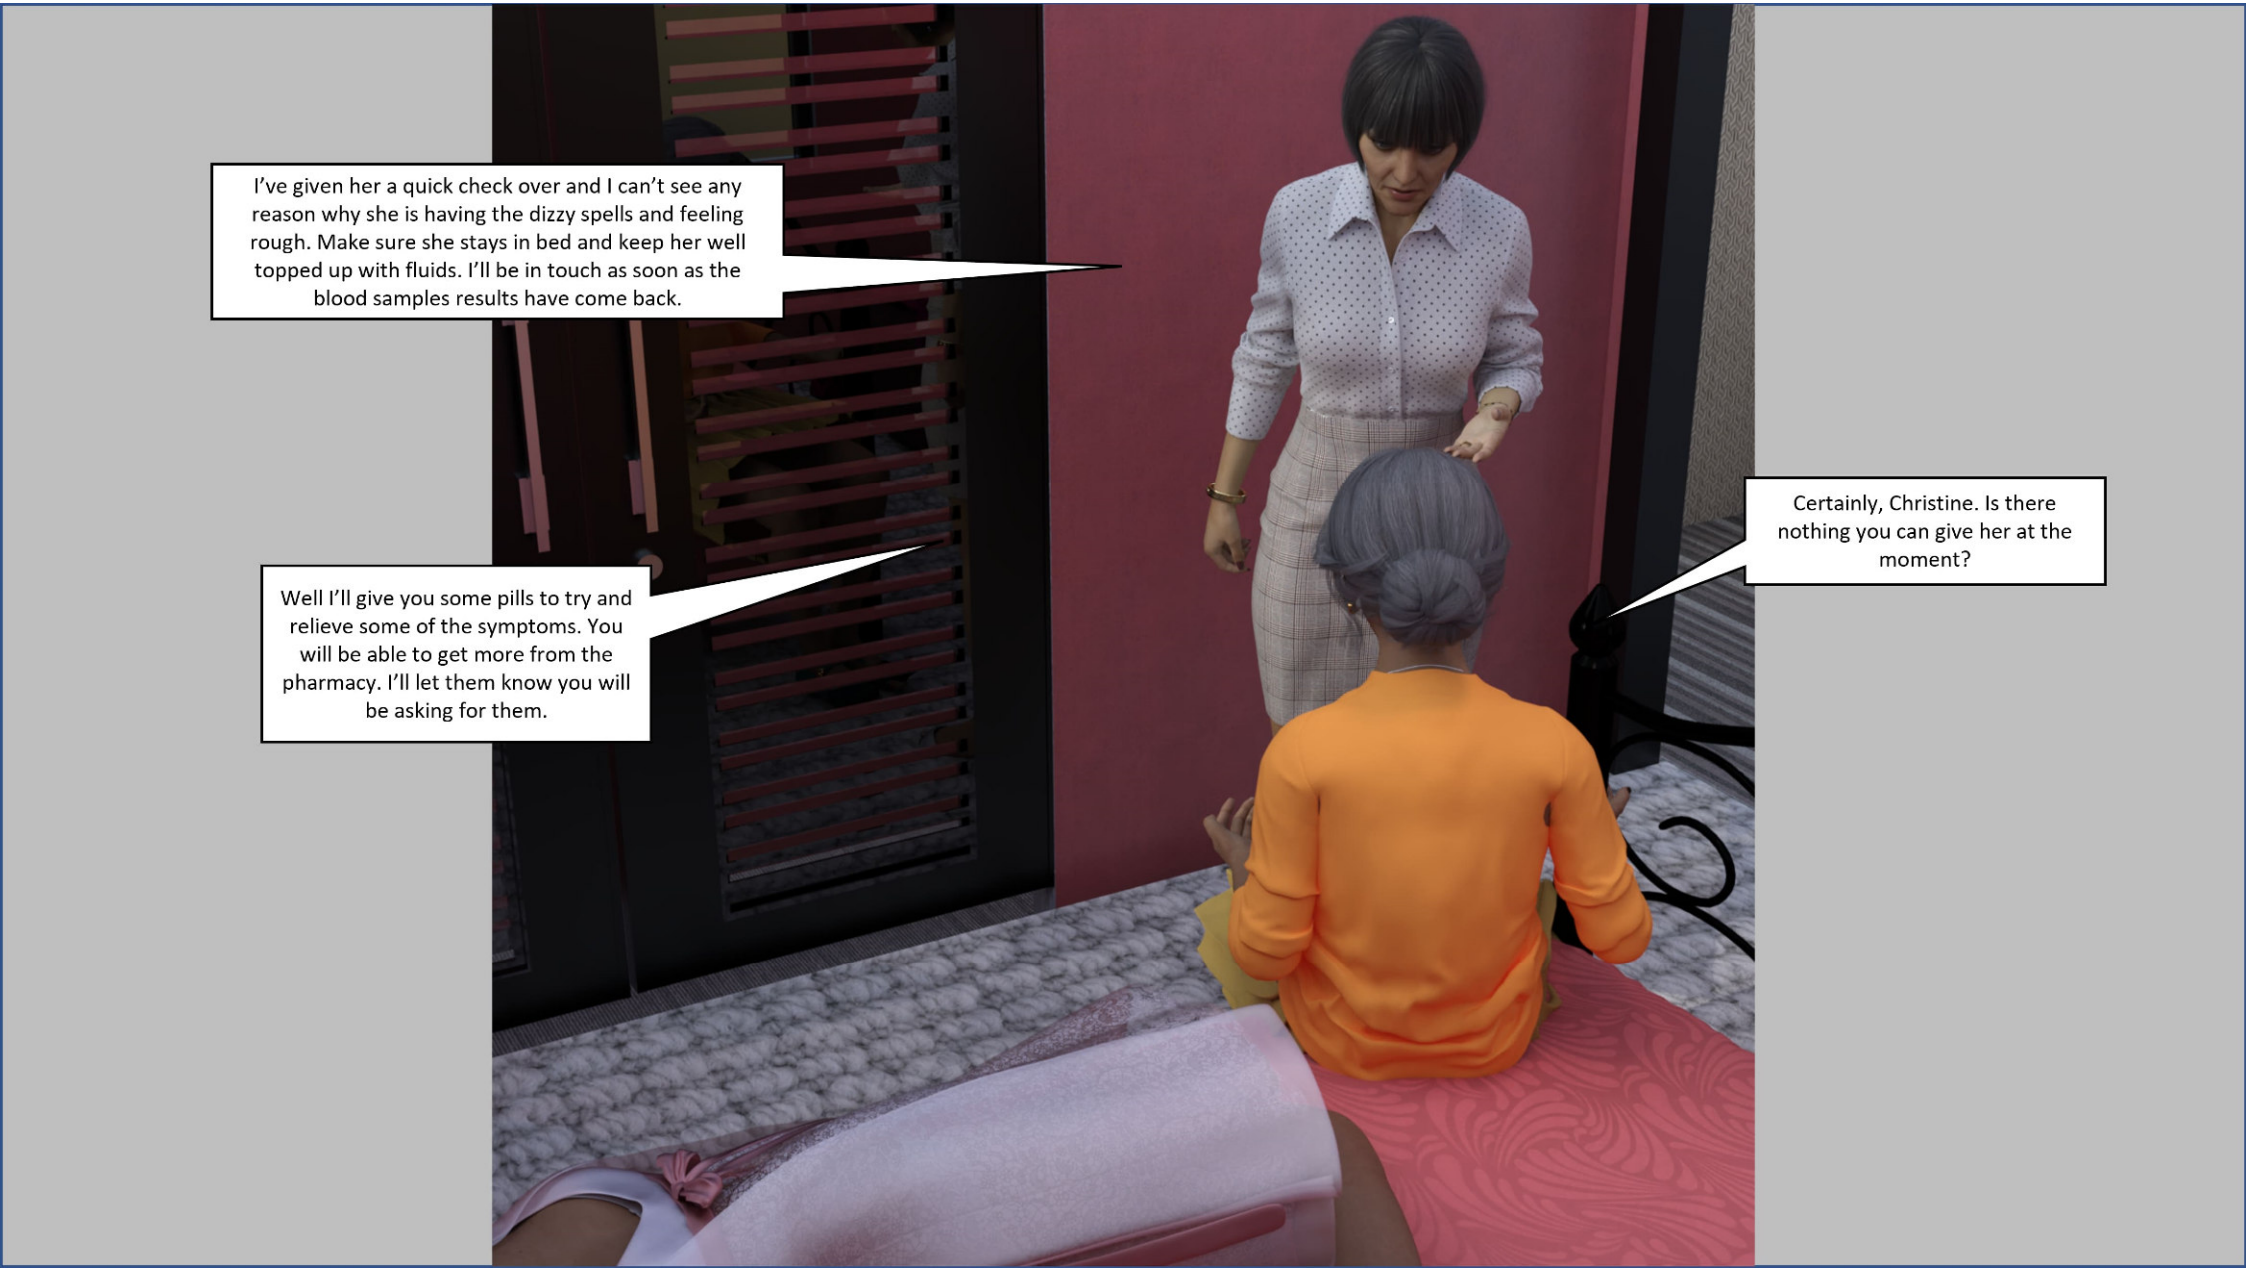
CHAPTER 6
Is It Catching?

Oh. I feel terrible. What did I eat last night? Perhaps it was the wine. I feel light-headed and really not well.

I'm sorry, Harriet. I don't feel very well today. I feel light-headed and my legs feel weak. I also think I have an upset stomach.
Oh dear. Well, we both had the same to eat and drink last night and I feel fine. Perhaps you have just picked up a bug. Why don't you lay down and I'll get you something to drink.

Here you are dear. It is just water.
OK. I think I'll call my doctor friend and see if she can come over and have a look at you.
Thank you, but I think I'm going to have to go back to bed. I feel awful
No. Don't worry I'm sure I shall be ok.

This is my friend Doctor Christine Mason. I've asked her to have a look at you
Now don't worry. I'll give you a quick check over and take some blood samples and we will see if we can find out what is wrong with you
It isn't necessary. I'm sure I'll be Ok soon.



I've given her a quick check over and I can't see any reason why she is having the dizzy spells and feeling rough. Make sure she stays in bed and keep her well topped up with fluids. I'll be in touch as soon as the blood samples results have come back.
Well I'll give you some pills to try and relieve some of the symptoms. You will be able to get more from the pharmacy. I'll let them know you will be asking for them.
Certainly, Christine. Is there nothing you can give her at the moment?

Thanks Harriet. I can't believe how unwell I feel.
Here we are. These are the pills the doctor asked me to give you. They should help alleviate the symptoms.

That's it you settle down. I'm sure sleep will help you to feel a lot better.
And the pills will begin doing their work.

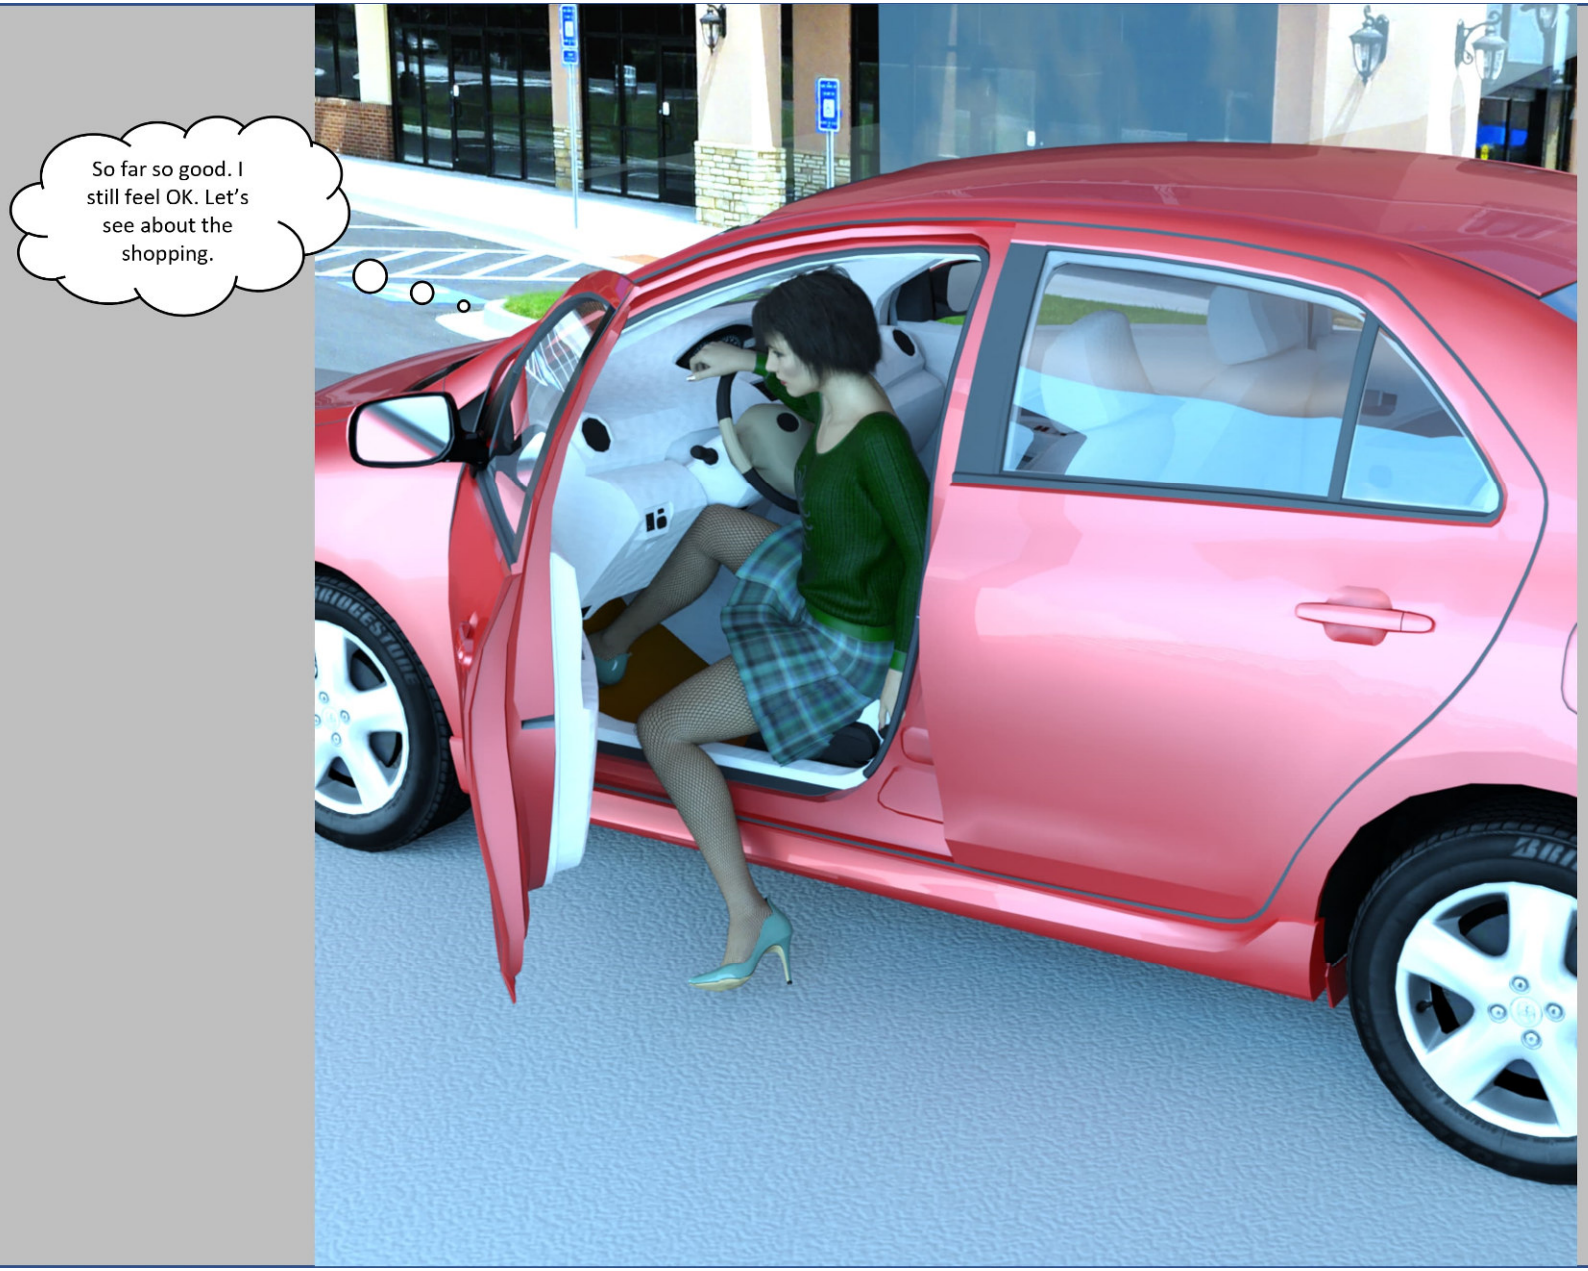
CHAPTER 7
Recovered?

A Few Days Later



So far so good. I still feel OK. Let's see about the shopping.

I think that's everything. I'm surer Harriet just used this as an excuse to get me to go out. Well, it is working.

Good Morning Miss. Did you get everything you needed?
Are you staying in the area? I don't recognise you
In that case I'm sure we will be seeing a lot more of you.
Sure. Have a nice day and see you soon.
As far as I know
Yes, I'm staying with Harriet Glomberg, sort of acting as her companion.
I'm sure you will. Can I have some bags to carry the stuff to the car, please
LOTTO MAGICI

That wasn't too hard. I'll just pop there in the car and...

Oh NO! Feeling dizzy again!

Are you OK, Miss?
I... I think so. I've just come over dizzy.
SAY NO TO PLASTIC BAGS

Do you need me to get you a medic?
No. I'll be fine in a moment or two thanks officer.
You need to make sure you are before you start to drive. Stay here until you feel OK.
I will. Don't worry I have had a few bad turns recently and am taking medication from the doctor. I will be ok in a few moments.

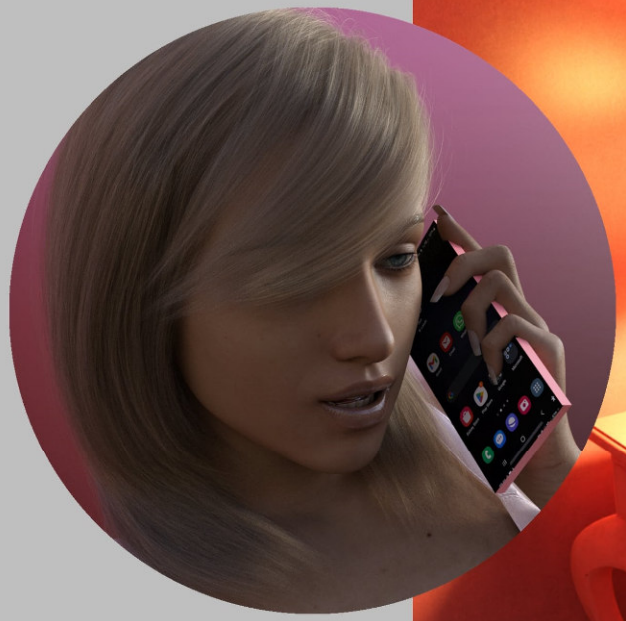
Here is the shopping you asked for, Harriet. I had another dizzy spell when I came out of the store. A cop asked me if I was OK and stayed with me until he was sure I was OK to drive.

Oh dear. You have a lie down and I'll put the shopping away.

What is wrong with me?

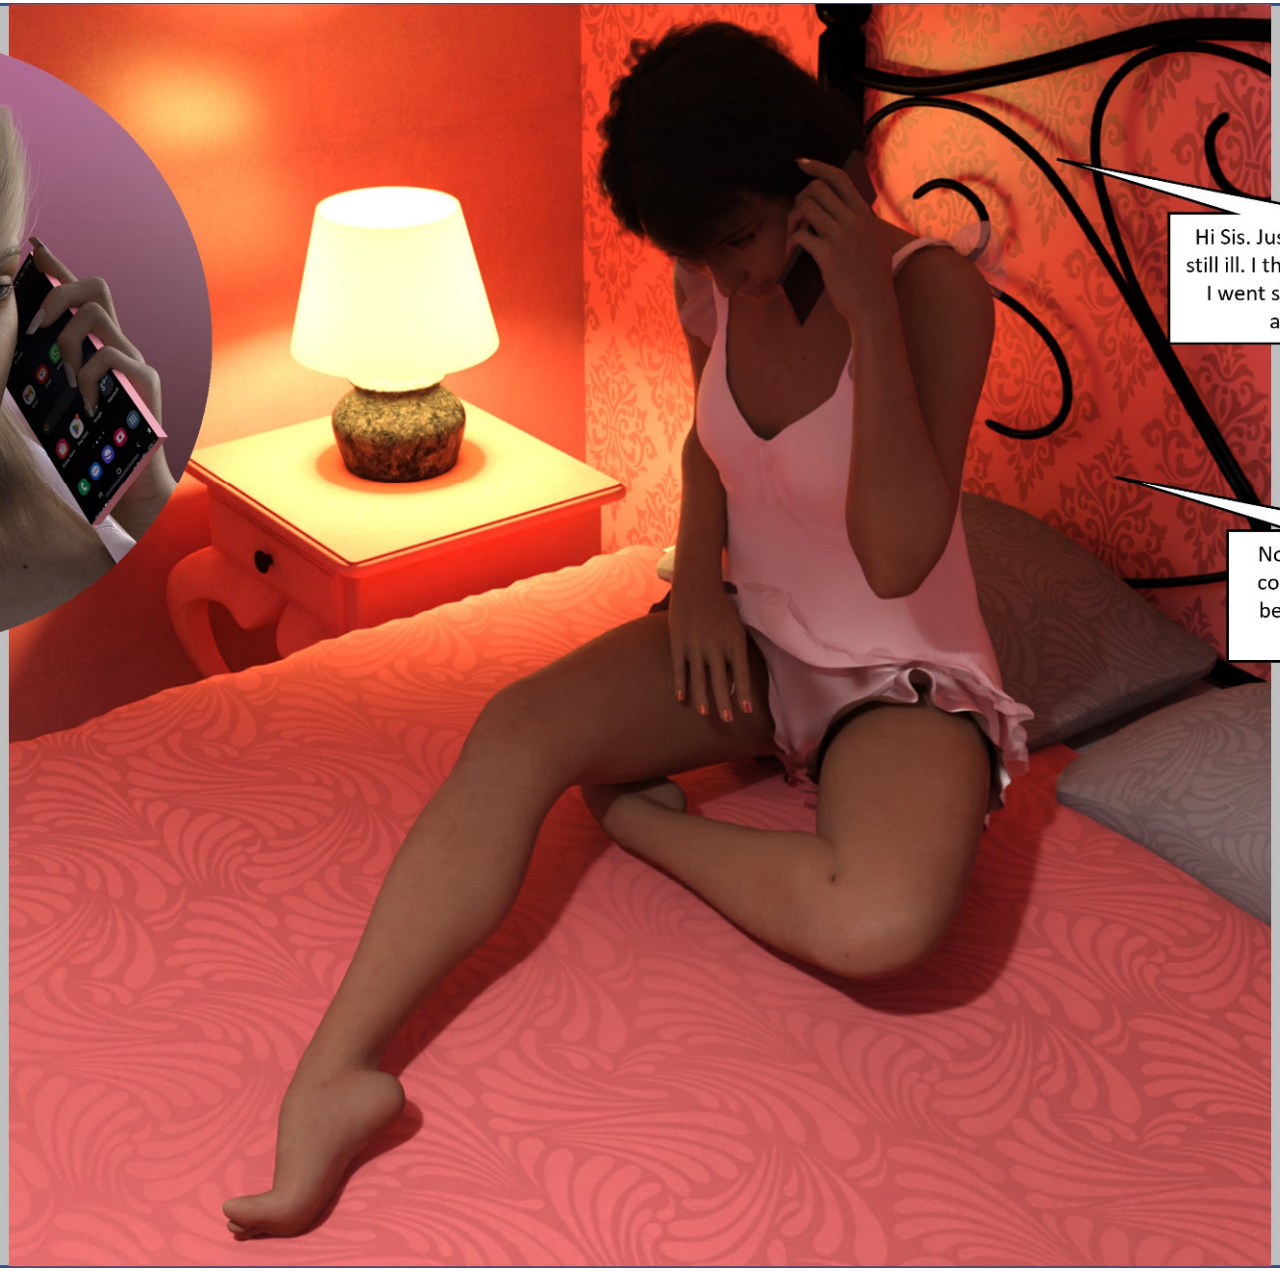
Your aunt rang me and as I was in the vicinity, I thought I would come and see how you are.
I'm not sure. I'm still waiting for the blood test results to come back. For some reason there has been a hold up.
What is wrong with me doctor?
I just want to feel normal again.

Ok, doctor. I'm sorry Harriet I'm not being much of a companion to you.
Don't worry dear you just get better.
Go to bed and rest again. I'll get on to the test people and hopefully I'll see you in the morning with the results and a solution to your problems



Oh Dear. Has the doctor come up with what is wrong with you?

Well I hope you find out soon so that you can get better. Let me know what happens.



Hi Sis. Just to let you know that I'm still ill. I thought I was better but hen I went shopping for Harriet I had another dizzy spell.

No the blood test results have not come back yet. Hopefully they will be back tomorrow and I will know more then.

CHAPTER 8
Doctor's Orders

The blood test results are back, and it shows that you have hormone imbalance.
Not necessarily. If it is treated properly then you should ecover but it will probably mean that you have to take medication everyday
This is a sort of booster to begin getting you back to being normal. Nothing to worry about.
Is that dangerous?
If that is what is needed to remain healthy and stop me feeling as I have been these past few days then let's do it.
OK. Let's begin. I'm not afraid of needles.

OK, doctor. I just hope the shots begin to work soon as I hate feeling unwell.
I'll make sure she is OK, doctor.
I'll be back every day for the next few days to give you another shot and to give you the tablets you will need to take.
You just begin behaving normally and you should be fine but ring me if you begin to feel lightheaded again.

Hi there. Can I help you?
Oh. My name is Steven Ongar. I'm the guy who comes round to maintain Harriet's pool. You're new here.
Yes I'm Harriet's niece. Since my Aunt Hester passed away, I've been looking after her.
OK. Well, I'll get on then. There should be a list somewhere with my name and the pool tasks I carry out on a regular basis.

I've found the list . Do I have to stand and watch you to make sure you carry all of them out.
No, ma'am. All you have to do is confirm that I have been and you are happy with the results if or when my boss calls.
Thanks, and you can call me Toni. Ma'am seems so formal. Would you like a drink it is quite hot out here .
Thank you Toni. A drink would be great once I have finished here.

Do you do lots of pools around here?
Yes. I do pools and also a number of other general repair and maintenance work. My older brother and I run our own business but he is really the one in charge. I tend to be the labourer.
So, you'll be coming around regularly.
I will and it will be a pleasure every time if you are here.
Flatterer. I bet you have lots of women waiting for you to come and work for them.
To be honest in this area, not wishing to be disrespectful, most of the houses are owned by middle aged or older people. There are very few people my age able to afford to own a house in this area
Ha. Ha. What a shame. So, what is the local area like. What is there for someone your age to do?
I'm not sure I can leave my aunt. Can I give you a call later?
How about I show you. I'll call round this evening and we can have a look at the area.
I'll give you my number.

Bye. Nice to meet you. Perhaps we will see each other later.
Bye. I hope to see you later.

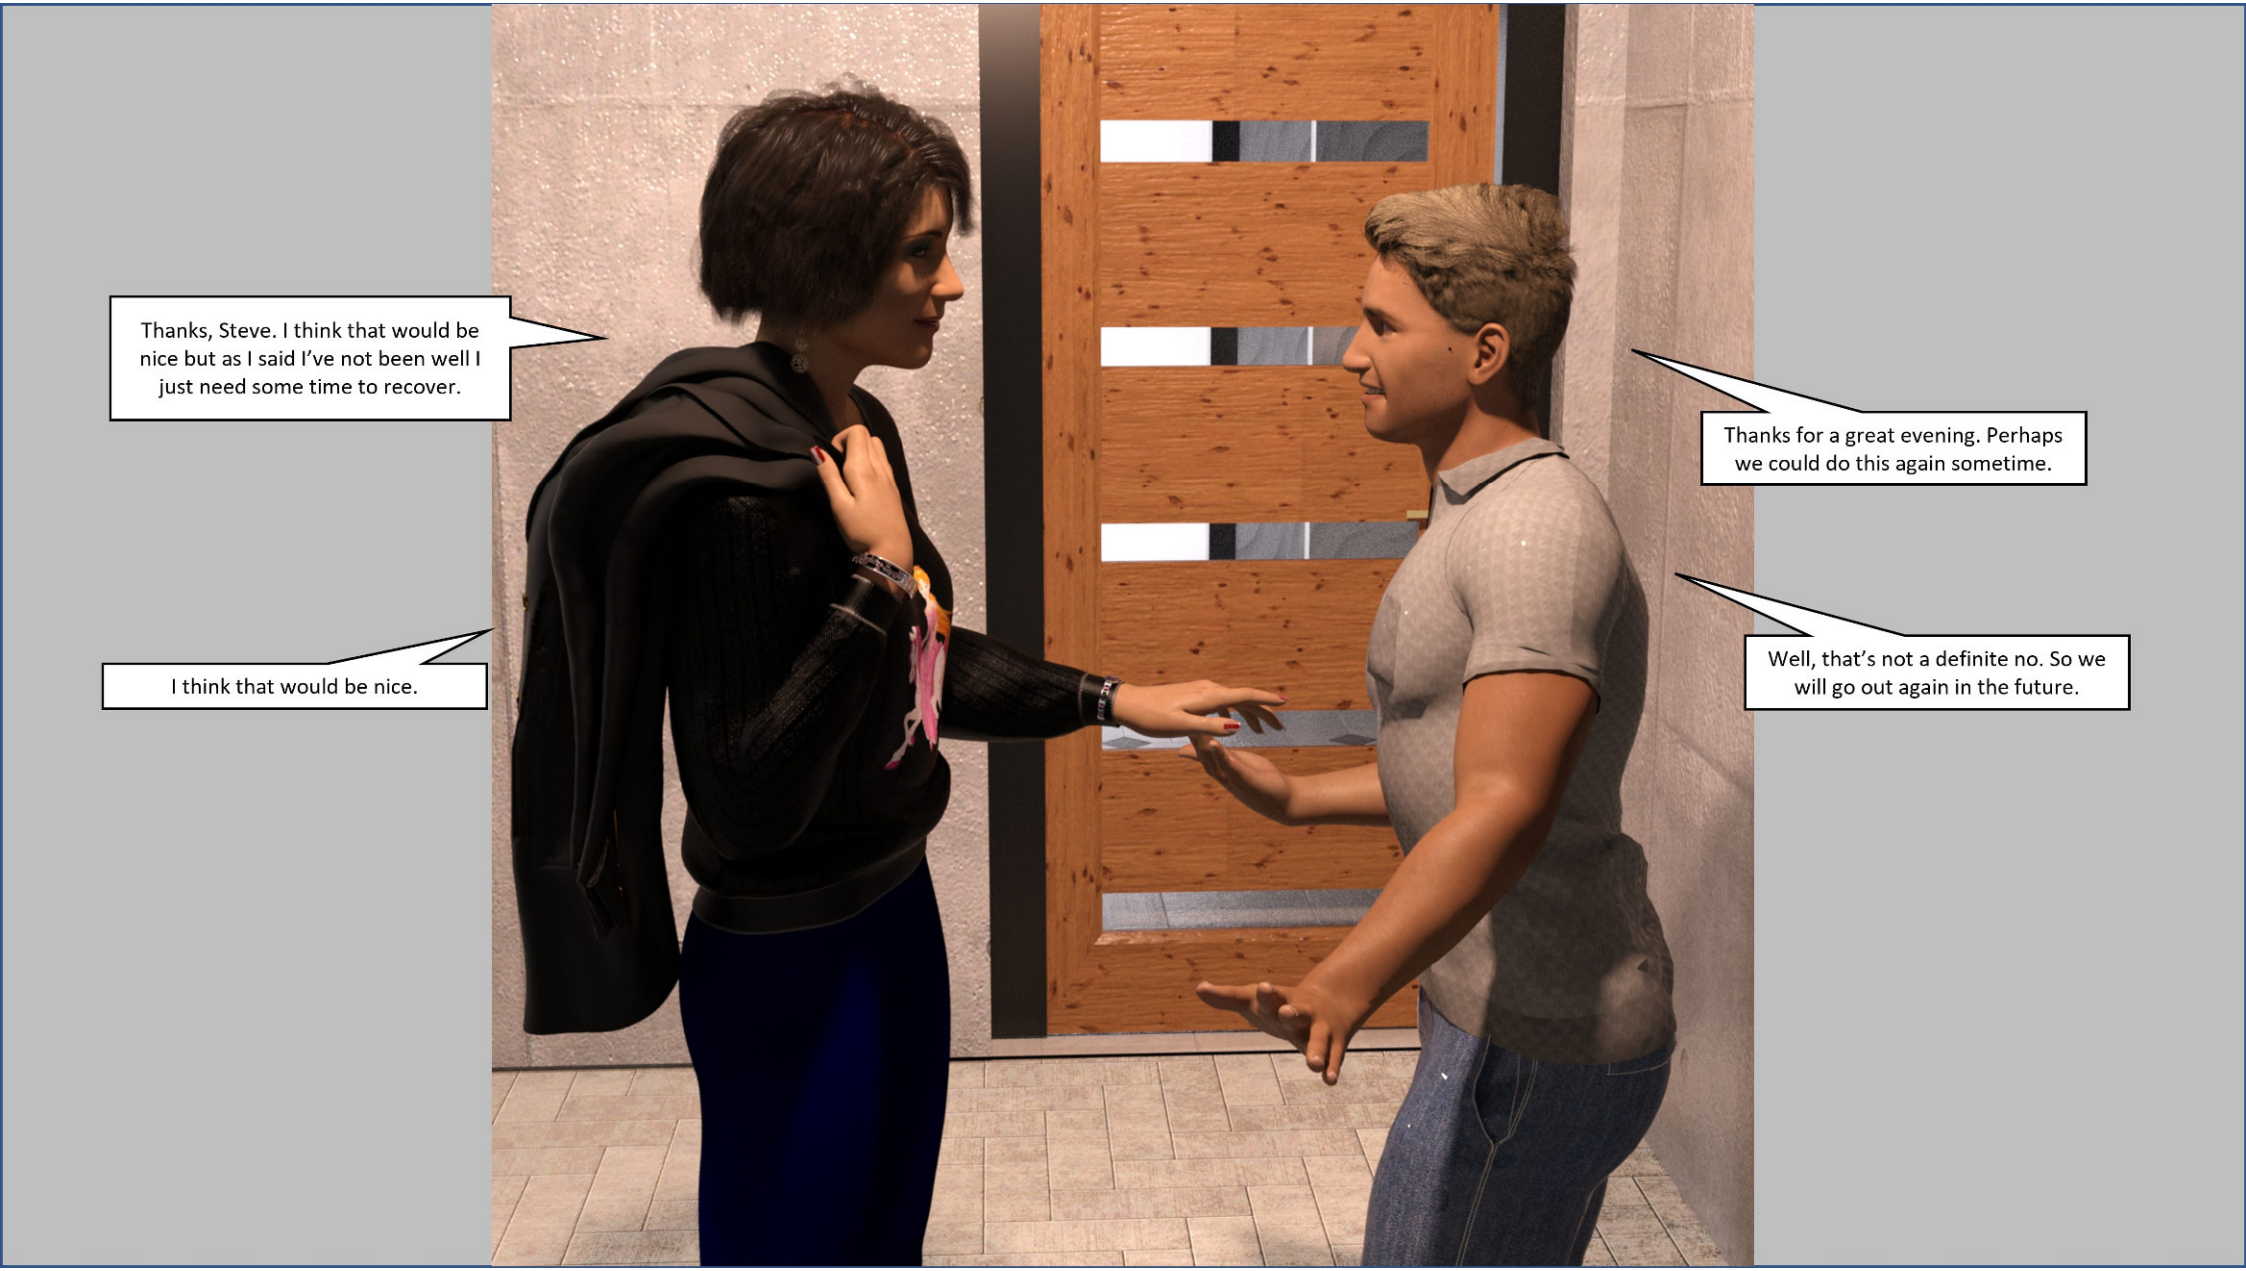
That was the pool guy. He asked me if I would like to go out and look at the local area with him later. I didn't say I would as I didn't want to leave you alone.
Are you sure?
You go. Don't worry about me you need to get out and spend some time with people your own age rather than with an old fuddy duddy like me.
Of course. A young girl like you needs to be going out.

Hi sis. I'm calling to ask your advice. The guy who does the pool maintenance has asked me out tonight. Should I go.
Thanks for the advice and I suppose he is built as you put it. I do suppose that any female would be sill not to go out with him.
OK, I'll give him a ring.
Wow you don't waste much time but of course you should go. It is what a young female like you would do. Is he built?
There you are. You go but be careful.

I don’t usually accept invitations from people I meet for the first time, but I could really do with getting out. I’ve not been well and I need to begin getting out
I’m glad you rang and accepted my invitation. Let me show you the area and then we’ll stop for a coffee at the local café.

Well that's the local area. Shops and amenities. This, however, is the best coffee shop in town.
Thanks for the drive around the town. I now feel I know it much better than I did having been shown around by a native.

Well, this is a new place for me, but I agree sometimes we need to go out and do new things.
Sometimes I think I would like to follow the river and see where it goes. I've spent most of my life in this place I would like to se other places. What about you.



Thanks, Steve. I think that would be nice but as I said I've not been well I just need some time to recover.
I think that would be nice.
Thanks for a great evening. Perhaps we could do this again sometime.
Well, that's not a definite no. So we will go out again in the future.

Hi sis. Just calling back to say I had a good evening with Steve.
No. Thankfully he was the perfect gentleman. I'm not sure how I would have reacted if he had tried something.
I will, don't worry. I want the money as well.
So, all was well. Did he try anything?
Interesting! By the way I heard from the lawyer he is sending a colleague up tomorrow to see how you are managing with Aunt Harriet so be careful.

CHAPTER 9
Appraisal

Bring her inside Antonia and we can chat an have a drink.
Yes. I'm Lisa McMurray. I'm here to see how Harriet and yourself are getting along.
Hello. You must be from the lawyer's office.

Here we are. Coffee for everyone.
I'm fine. Antoina handles male visitors and is looking after me as well.
Now Harriet. I need to make sure that you are being looked after and you are not being worried by male tradespeople of visitors.

I can take you upstairs and show you my room and my things if that is what you want.

That's great to hear. I just need to make sure that Antonia is actually living here and not just popping in because she knew I was coming. One of the stipulations in the will was that you, Harriet, had a constant companion.

Well this is my room and where my things are stored. I have resigned from the job I had so that I am now earning the yearly salary by working as a live in companion for Harriet.
It is good to see. However, we will be conduction spot checks in the future to ensure full compliance with the terms of the will.

Thank you. It was a pleasure to meet you. I look forward to seeing you in the future.
Well, it has been good meeting you Antonia. I can confirm that you and your sister are in complete compliance with the terms of the will. Monies owed to you for your time here will be released to your account. We will be back again at sometime in the future.

That was a pleasant visit.
I'll just ring Angela and tell her what has happened.
Yes. You and your sister have done well to comply with Hester's desires. I have enjoyed having you here with me and hope it continues well iknto the future. All we need is to find out what has been wrong with you and get that fixed.

That's fantastic. Everything is going well here. We are in the money.
The lawyer has just left. She said we were complying with the stipulations in the will and that I would be paid for the time I have been here. I'm going to have to be Antonia for some time yet.

CHAPTER 10
Diagnosis

A Few Weeks Later

Good morning, Harriet. Today's the day when I get to know what has been wrong with me. The doctor wants to see me to discuss what the trouble has been and the treatment she suggests
For the past couple of weeks I seem to have been OK. The shots and the pills the doctor has given me seem to have staved off the unwell feelings and the dizziness.
At last you will be able to begin living a normal life and not worry about collapsing or feeling ill
OK, off you go and find out the reason for your illness.

As you know I have been treating you for the past few weeks for what I first thought was a hormone imbalance.
Well, it turns out it is not as simple as that. You have already confided in me that you are in fact a young man dressing as a woman in order to gain an inheritance. As I am bound by doctor patient confidentiality, I have not revealed that to your aunt or anyone else.
However, I believe that you have Partial Androgen Sensitivity Syndrome. Which could explain how you can convincingly present yourself as a woman. Also my prescribing hormonal injections to try and improve the balance has partially exacerbated the situation. You are now on the way to becoming more female than male.
So, doctor have we finally found out what has been causing my problems?
That's what you told me and I think I am beginning to feel better.
For which I am very grateful.

What! I'm a man for God's sake
Please, clam down. We need to discuss your situation calmly.
Calmly!. What have you done to me?
Well, nothing that nature wasn't doing. The shots and pills only pushed you further into being female.

Please sit down and we can talk about where you go from here.
Yes, that's true but you are also exhibiting female signs. It is possible that you would be better off acting and behaving as a female rather than a male.
I can't be a woman. I have a penis. I'm a man!

Think about how you have been acting over the past month while living with Harriet.
How often have you had to shave? How does your skin feel?
Would it be so bad if you carried on living as a female forever?
I suppose you are right in a way. I've found it easier than I thought I would.
I've not had to shave much. In fact, I never really have had to and my skin feels soft
It may not be but it is a lot to take in.

Now I want you to continue with the pills which will continue to enhance your female side. Go out and embrace the female that you are.
OK, doctor. I'll try.

The doctor said I must keep taking the pills but in reality, I am ok. She wants me to get out more and find interests other than being your companion.
I need to have a chat with my sister.
So, how did it go with the doctor? Have you found out what was wrong with you?
I did wonder. You seem to have spent most of your time in the house with me rather than making your own life in the area.

Hi sis, I've been to the doctor today and I have some startling news
I have and it is really weird. Apparently, I have a rare condition which means that I am really neither male nor female.
Have you found out what was wrong with you?
What!

Wow that really is strange, but in some way it is good because you can continue to look after Harriet as Antonia and you will not need to be as careful.

If that's what the doctor says, then perhaps you should. Go and spend some time shopping or go have your hair done. Go out with that pool guy. Get used to being feminine. I can't get there for a few days as I am needed here so just have a girlie time.

The doctor says that because she had prescribed some hormone treatment, I'm now more female than male.

But what about my life as Anthony? I probably will never be able to go back to being him. The doctor suggested that I should embrace being female and going out and taking part in female activities.

Ok. But I'm not fantastically happy about the situation.

CHAPTER II
Being A Girl

That's a great idea. What say I ring the salon and we both go and have our hair done. I could do with a change of scenery, and I can arrange that there are only female assistants.
Well, I had a chat with my sister about what the doctor said and she said I should go shopping or have my hair done.
Let's do it then.

Not really. I just prefer this one when I have my hair done. They also come to the house to do it but this time I've come to them. Hester used to bring us both here as all the assistants are female
This is a different salon from thew one we went to last time. Is there a reason?
Oh I see.

You go for it Harriet. I'll see what they can do with my hair. Perhaps a change of colour.
It is quite a long time since I was here. I think I need to think about shortening my hair. It takes quite a time to tie up and comb through

Good morning, ladies. We are ready for you and there will be no interruptions as you have hired the salon for the whole day.
The whole day. Wow, Harriet, you don't do things by halves.
No dear. Nothing is too good for my Niece!

That's it dear just lay back and I'll wash and colour your hair
I'd like a lighter brown tint if at all possible

There that's a nice brown tint now to add some highlights and then the styling. Once that is done we can give you to Monica to do your makeup.

Well what do you think of the new look you.
Wow. I can't believe that is me.
I still can't believe I'm really supposed to be female. But look at me.

Have some coffee while you are waiting for us to finish with your aunt,
Thanks you.

Well Toni. What do you think?
I think it makes me look younger.
All you need now is to update your wardrobe, Harriet.

You look great Toni. I like that style for your hair. Also that's a good idea. What do you say? Should we go clothes shopping?
Whatever you want . I agree that you could do with a wardrobe update.

BOUTIQUE
You need to look at buying some pretty dresses that show off your figure and you can wear when you go out.
I'll see what they have but I'm happy with what I've got. I thought it was you we were buying for.

Good afternoon, ladies. I hope I can help you today. What are you looking for?
I'm sure I will be able to help you.
My aunt needs to update her wardrobe.
And she needs some dresses which show off her figure.

Here are some things to start you off. If there is nothing here you like I have lots more in the back. We have changing rooms in the back so you can try things on.
There are a couple of things her I might try and I'm looking for some shoes as well. Why don't you go and try some things on and come and show us what you like.
I'll see what I can find in the back as I don't really like anything here.

Even without my padding this dress looks good. Perhaps I am supposed to be a female

What do you think?
I think that looks great on you. I'm sure you would be belle of the ball wearing that. Buy it.
That really suits you. It shows off your figure well.

What do you think? Is this more up to date?
You don't look quite the old woman in that
Once again you look really good in that outfit

You seem to have had a successful visit. I hope everything is to your satisfaction

I'll pay then take the bags out to the car. Thanks for your help.

We could be back as we have seen quite a few things we like as well as what we have bought

Date

Hi there. Time to check the pool again. Wow! Look at you. I like your hair.
Thanks I decided to have a change. Go round and I'll bring a drink out when you are nearly finished.

Here we are. Some nice cool orange juice.
That is great. It is really quite warm out here.

So how have you been?
Not as well as I would have hoped. I keep having relapses, but I think I'm finally on the mend. However, the doctor is still keeping an eye on me.
I'm glad to hear you are definitely feeling better.
I'm definitely feeling different.

So how is business? Is your brother keeping you working hard?
Sounds good.
Should I accept? If I need to embrace my female self, then perhaps I should.
Er... OK.
Business is ticking over. We are looking to getting some new contracts which could mean a lot more business.
Well, it'll mean more money but also more work. But enough about business how about another date?
Great I'll pick you up tonight about 7.

I think it will do me good to get out for a while. I seem to have been in the house for ages. Aunt Harriet says it will do me good.
Thanks
She knows what she is talking about and you look fabulous

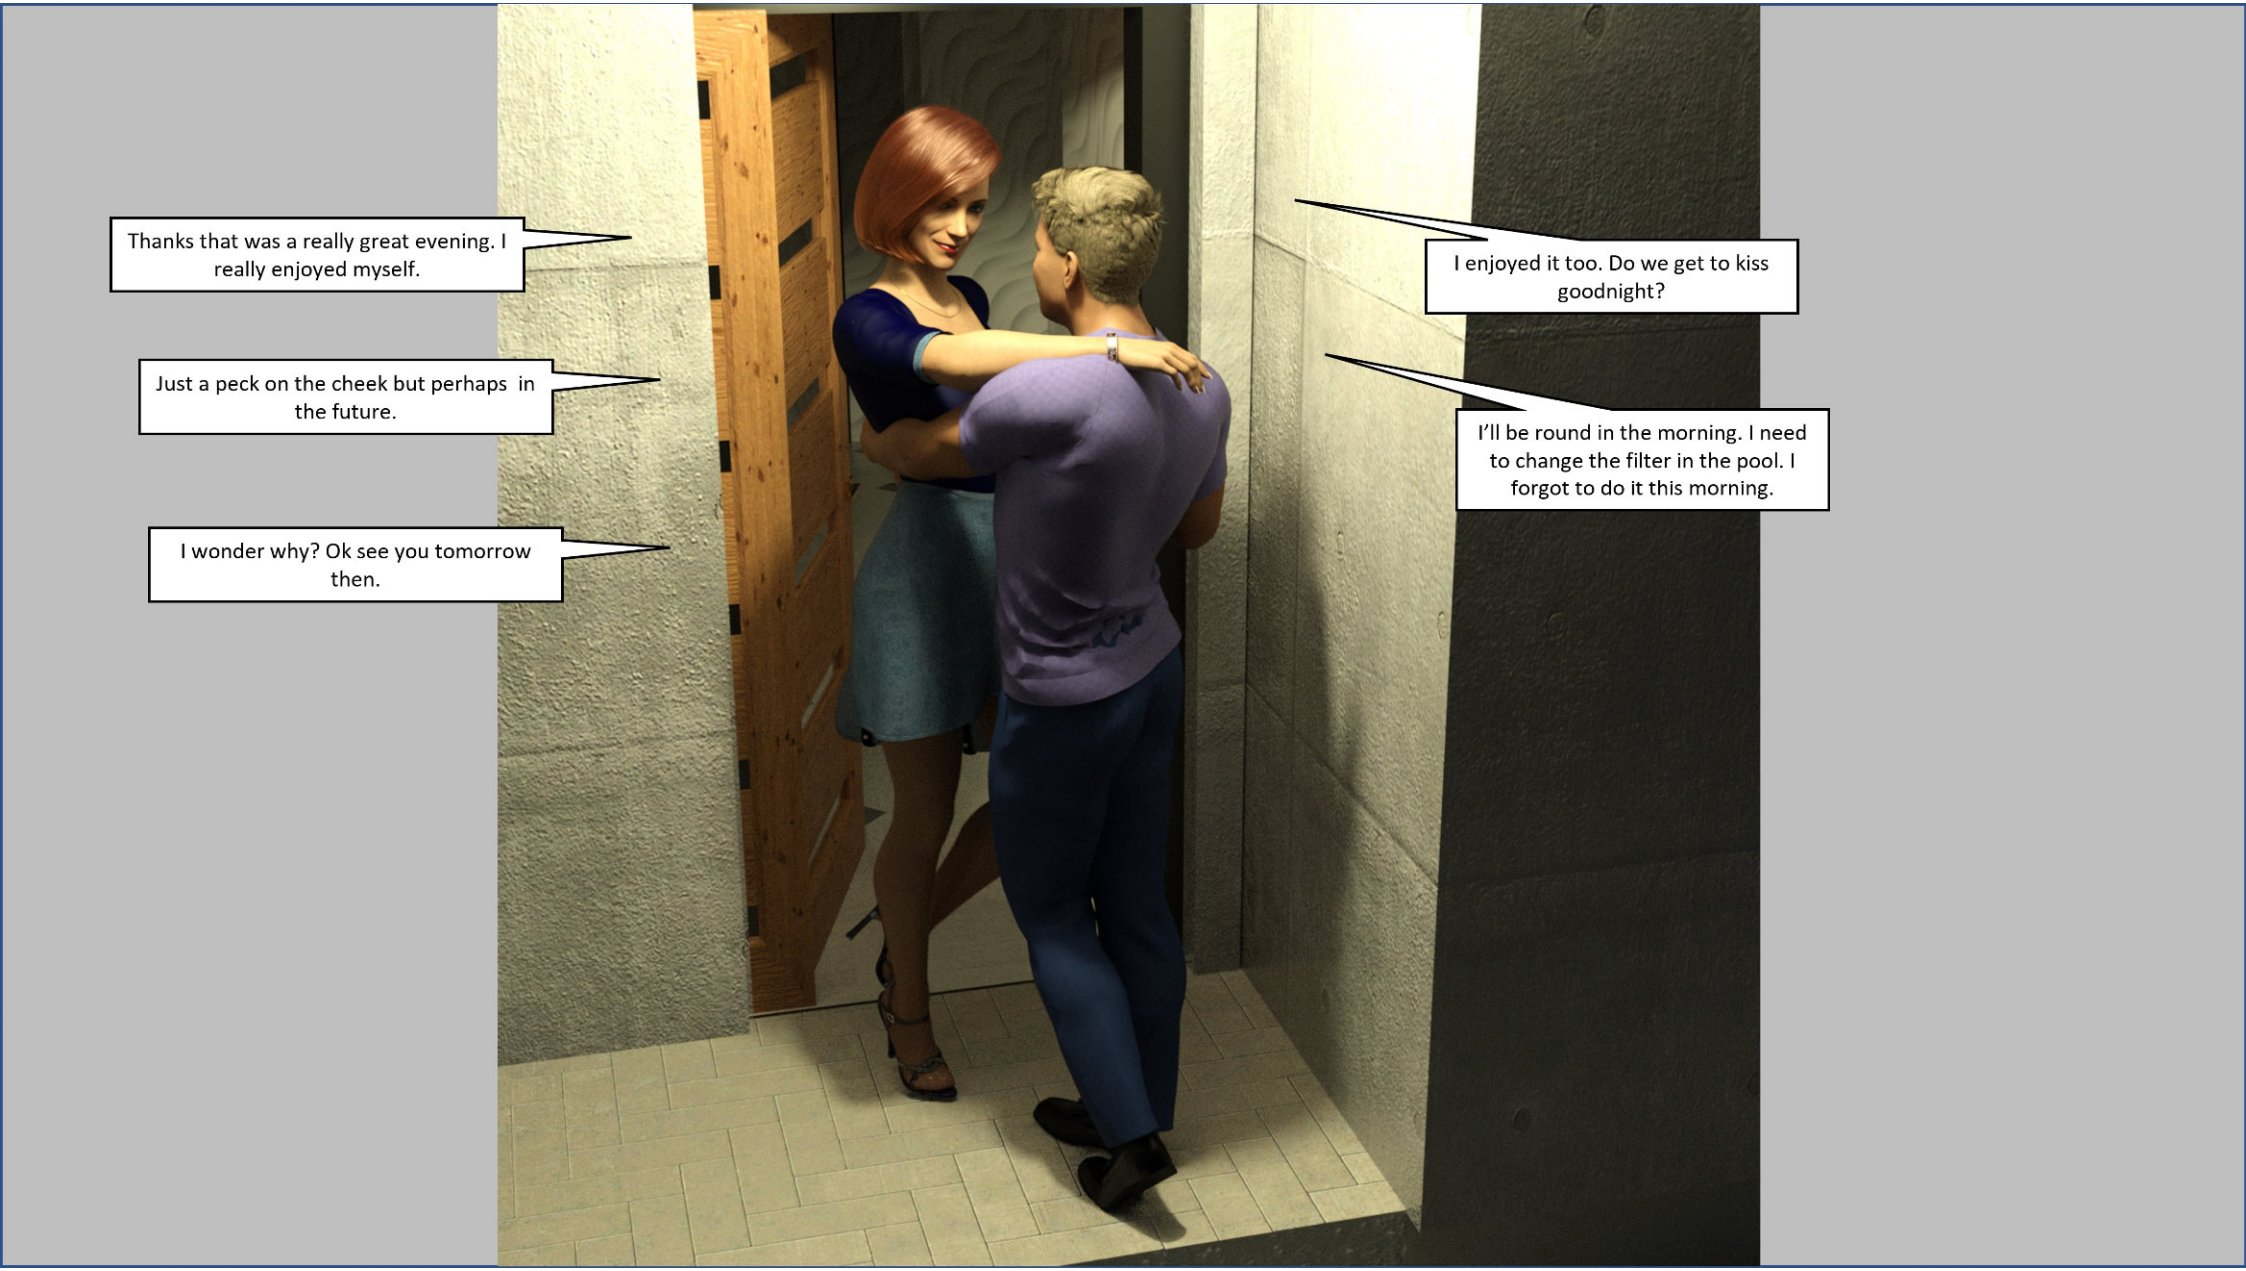
Do you need another fill up, Miss
I've had two already. Are you trying to get me drunk?
I've never danced in heels but what the heck.
Ok but I'm not very good.
Nothing of the sort. Just trying to help you relax. You seem a little stressed.
We'll have the same again please.
Let's dance

What's wrong with me I'm enjoying dancing with a guy
That's it just let yourself go. You can move.

Slow music and it seems so natural to be dancing close.

It is a really lovely evening
We'll just stroll through the park on the way to the care

Toni. You area really nice person and I'm getting to really like you.
I like you too.
Gosh sitting on a bench, holding hands, cuddling. Should I be doing this?



Thanks that was a really great evening. I really enjoyed myself.
Just a peck on the cheek but perhaps in the future.
I wonder why? Ok see you tomorrow then.
I enjoyed it too. Do we get to kiss goodnight?
I'll be round in the morning. I need to change the filter in the pool. I forgot to do it this morning.

CHAPTER 13
Rivals?

I can't believe I appear to have real breasts. I even have cleavage. What is happening to me?

I forgot to tell you Angela rang to say she would like to come up and visit.
Hi, Aunt Harriet. Thanks for letting me stay for a couple of days.
Angela. I didn't know you were coming

Yeah! I can show you round.
I hope you enjoy your visit. Please make yourself at home. Toni knows where everything is if you get lost.
If you can show me where I'll be sleeping, I can unpack and the we can begin enjoying each other's company.

How did you know?
I did. In fact, he is coming round today to finish off something he forgot to do yesterday.
Good idea I'll jus go and get changed.
You look great. You are making a good-looking girl. Did you have a good time with the pool guy last night?
Harriet told me you were out when I rang
In that case why don't we get changed and we can meet him at the pool?

Come on show yourself off,
I'm sure you will be just fine.
Thinking about it, I'm not too sure I should be wearing such a skimpy costume.
The thing is I'm not wearing any padding.

Come on in the water's great.
The costume looks great on you. No thanks I think I'll just lay out and soak up the sun

Nice to see you too. I said I'd be round so I just came around the back to check on the filter.
Steve nice to see you.

Yes, this is Angela
So, this is your sister you have been telling me about.
Hello there. So you are to Pool Guy Toni has been talking about.

The way she is laying is really playing up to him. Why am I starting to feel jealous?
It is something to do with the job I have. Tend to do a lot of lifting and I also like work out. Toni didn't tell me how good looking you are.
She didn't mention how well built you are. I really like a man with muscles.
Why. Thank you.

Can I come too
Flatterer
Another reason I came round this morning was to ask Toni if she would like to go for a celebratory meal this evening with me and my brother. The contract we have been bidding for has come through so we are going to be expanding the business. So we are going to celebrate this evening.
Of course. What could be better than a celebration with two beautiful women
Look at her throwing her chest at him. The bitch! Why am I thinking like this?
I'll be there as well.
I'm not letting Angela have him all to herself

He’s a real dish. I could really go for him in a big way.
My you have changed
This may sound weird coming from you brother but you do and I’ll tear your eyes out.
I’m beginning to realise that.

If you two girls are going out with a man, then be careful. They only want on thing
Just be careful.
Oh Auntie. Not everyone thinks the same as you.
I was out with him last night and he was the perfect gentleman.

CHAPTER 14
Double Date

Look at you. That dress shows off your figure well. There is no way anyone would suspect you were my brother.
Well, if you've got it flaunt it!
What about you? That dress is so short is shows your stocking tops.

Good evening, ladies. You are looking ravishing Angela.
Why thank you.
Why am I feeling jealous? What about me?

You don't mind if I sit in the front. I sometimes feel a little queasy in the back..
Not at all. You can get in the back can't you Toni?
Of course.
She's really throwing herself at him.

It is very kind of you to invite me along to your celebration.
Get your hand off his thigh!
Er... Not at all.

Toni. Angela. This is my brother Brad.
Hello Ladies
Just a little fun. You really have to learn to use one's charms.
What were you doing in the car? Putting your hand on his thigh?

So, you are the brains behind the outfit and Steve is the brawn?
Thank you, handsome
Sort of. We started the business together, but Steve enjoys getting about and about and working with his hands
You look really good tonight. I like your dress.

I'm told you are some sort of financial wizard.
Not really, I just manage the Hester Glomberg Trust
Good I'm quite hungry.
Your table is ready. If you would follow me.
MENU
Let's go have something to eat. I believe the food here is some of the best.

I'm hoping it is going to be much more. I'm trying to branch out into home and garden maintenance and eventually into property development. But that will depend on finances and winning contracts.
No. Apart from the low alcohol beer I had when we arrived. I'm driving.
You're not drinking.
This business you have. Is it just pool cleaning or is there more to it?
Hmm... Perhaps I can help you with that. We need to talk more.

A steak for sir and chicken for madam.
The burger for madam?
No that's not what I ordered
No that's not mine. It is hers.

Here's to the future,
Here's to the future.
I wonder what it can hold. I really like how he makes me feel. Is that normal?
Well after a fine meal let's have a toast to the future success of the business and perhaps with you help we can make it grow. I think we need to talk further.
I agree. I see it as a good opportunity
And the way he's fondling my leg he wants to do more than talk.

If you are sure. I'll see you later.
I bet. However, that will give me a chance to try and sort things out with Steve Brad has offered to give me a lift back. We need to discuss more about how The Trust can help his business.

CHAPTER 15
Decision

I can't go on like this. I know he fancies me so I've got to tell him.
Do you think you could pull over somewhere I'd like to chat,
Certainly. Just hang on until I find somewhere.

No, Steve. It's not what you think. I need to talk to you
The wine must have got to you. You are not usually this forward.

There's something you don't know about me that is very important that you know.
Why? What is it. You're not married are you?

No, Steve, I'm not married. I'm sorry but we can't be together. I'm starting to really care for you but we must stop seeing each other.
(Sob) The thing is I'm living a lie. In order to benefit from my late aunt's will I have to look after Aunt Harriet.
(Sob) But you don't understand. Aunt Harriet has a fear of men so I'm masquerading as her niece. When I'm really her nephew.
I'm really Anthony not Toni. But the worse thing is that since I've been here I've found out that I have a Syndrome which means I'm changing to be more female that male (Sob)
Why. What could be so wrong?
I know that. You've already told me that
WHAT!
Look at you. You look fabulous. Hair, make-up, dress, heels. You can't be male.

You know I like you. If you need someone to talk to then you can always come to me.
If you are sure. I'll see you later.
You don't understand. I'm so very confused. I can't really come to terms with what is happening to me.
(Sob) I can't, Steve. I can't until I know what is happening to me and where it is going to lead. I am starting to care for you but we can't go on seeing each other at the moment. But please don't tell anyone.
Please take me home

Bye, Steve.
Goodbye Toni. Take care.
RANGER
MD-43

I feel terrible. I've just had to admit what I am to a friend who I don't want to lose. He made me feel good. What is happening to me?

Morning. Did you have a good ride home with that hunk Steve?
Oh dear. What did he say?
So how do you feel?
I have to go in the morning but I suggest you ring the doctor and ask for advice. From what you have said she understands what is wrong with you and may be able to help.
No. We stopped and I told him everything. Who I am, What we are doing and what is happening to me.
Not a lot. I didn't let him. I told him we had to stop seeing each other and made him promise not to tell anyone.
Terrible. I really like him but I'm so confused. What am I to be man or woman?

It was nice to see you Angela. Don't be a stranger.
Thanks for the overnight stay Aunt Harriet but I have to get back to the office and ensure that the offer I made to Brad last night can be carried out. Toni you do what we discussed and keep yourself and Harriet safe.
I'll be in touch to see how everything is going.
Will do sis.

Hello, Doctor. It is Toni here. I need to ask your advice about my condition. I am becoming confused about my identity and need some way of coming to terms with what is happening to me
Thanks so much. I'll contact her as soon as I can arrange that Harriet will be ok with me being away for most of the day.
I understand. I know an excellent therapist. I'll give you her number. I'm sure she will be able to help you. The only thing is he office is in the centre of the city.

I'm noy too sure but if it is too make you better once and for all then I'm sure I'll be Ok.
Harriet I ned to go to the city to see someone about my illness. It means I'll be away for most of a day. Will that be OK?
That's great I'll contact them and make an appointment

Two Weeks Later

Well, I've parked the car and I'm on the way to see the therapist the doctor recommended. I wonder why she asked me to wear my shortest skirt, tightest top and high heeled boots. I can feel everyone looking at me. I'm sure my face must be glowing red from embarrassment

I thought you said you would be right behind me.
You're just a pervert.
I'm on my way and enjoying the view.

Welcome. I'm Susan Wharton.
I know and your doctor, Christine Mason, has been in contact so I understand some of the problems you may be having. I'm here to try and help you come to terms with what is happening to you.
Yes, it is underhand of you, but I am aware. Now, take your coat off and make yourself comfortable so we can talk.
I'll answer that when we are both comfortably seated
Pleased to meet you. I'm Toni Simmons
Good, that's what I need. At the moment I'm really confused as to who I am and who I want to be.
You do know the reason why I'm dressing and acting as a female. Even before I became aware of the syndrome
OK. I do have one question though. When I made the appointment, you stipulated what I should wear. Why?

I'm going to be taking notes while we talk. It helps me to put thing together later.
I asked you to dress in a very provocative and ultra feminine way to see what reactions you felt as you walked here and came through the building. So how was it.
I wasn't aware that the lift was out of order.
Dirty old man. How did that make you feel.
I must apologise. That was a ruse of mine to find out how you would react
That's fair enough. Now about my question.
Well, I'm used to acting and dressing as a female as you know but I must admit I felt a little uncomfortable being stared at especially when I had to walk up the fire stairs as the lift wasn't working.
Well, the repair guy said it was and he told me I needed to use the stairs but perhaps it was so he could get a good look up my skirt as I came up.
I was quite offended

Now a personal question. How much of you here is padding?
If that is so, then how do you feel about having breasts
Have you let your boyfriend fondle them?
Why not? I'm sure you would like him to.
Interesting. Now I'd like us to swap places and for you to lie down on this couch. I'd like to try some simple relaxation techniques with you.
None of it. What you see is all me
That's one of the things I'm not sure about. Having them is a real advantage in allowing me to present as a female but they are in contrast to my male parts down below.
What! No!
But where would that lead? I've told him about me and what I am and have stopped seeing him apart from when he comes to clean the pool. Even then it is just to make sure he doesn't worry my aunt.

That's it. Lie back and relax. Breathe in through the nose out through the mouth
Now let's think about you. How do you feel about how you are dressed?
What about having breasts?
Before you began your charade how did you feel about you attire?
And now?
What about the other people you meet, especially the males.
I'm trying to relax.
Actually, it makes me sexy in a strange way.
Strangely I like them. They seem to make me more me.
I never really thought about it. I just thought of what I was wearing as clothes.
I seem to take more time deciding what to wear so that I appear feminine for Aunt Harriet.
Hmm... I hadn't thought about that. I think I must try and impress them with my being female and try and dress to do that.

What about any specific males?

So are you saying that as a male you are dressing to attract another male, or are you a female trying to attract the attention of a male

And now?

Oh?

Are you happy with that?

I think, perhaps, you need to do some reassessing.

I suppose there is one who makes me think about wearing something to attract him.

That is the question. To begin with I was doing it because I had to appear to act as a female would to my aunt. Later, after I got to know him a bit more I think I was trying to make him want me as a female.

I don't think there is a now. I've told him all about me and that we can't go on seeing each other.

He seemed such a nice guy that I didn't want to lead him on into any sort of relationship which couldn't be meaningful. It didn't seem fair.

I thought I was but now I'm not sure.

Thank you for that. I agree I need to reassess how I think about myself and how I present myself to others.
So, I'll need to keep visiting
So what do you propose I do?
I wasn't thinking of going that far.
Just doing my job. However we are not finished. We need to have some more sessions to get into the underlying problems you are having.
Yes. We are getting there but there is still some way to go. You are a young man who has suddenly found that life is not what it seemed but has opened-up a whole new way of looking at things and it is causing you confusion
At present I suggest you accept you are what you seem to be a good-looking young woman. Try and embrace what that is. If it means going out with people then do it but have some restraint. Not all females have sex on the first date.
Good. Now I'll make an appointment for you for two week's time. Until then relax and let things happen.

Good. Take care and I will see you in a fortnight and you can tell me how things have been.
No wear what makes you comfortable.
I feel a bit better and will think about what you have said.
Do I have to dress like this next time?

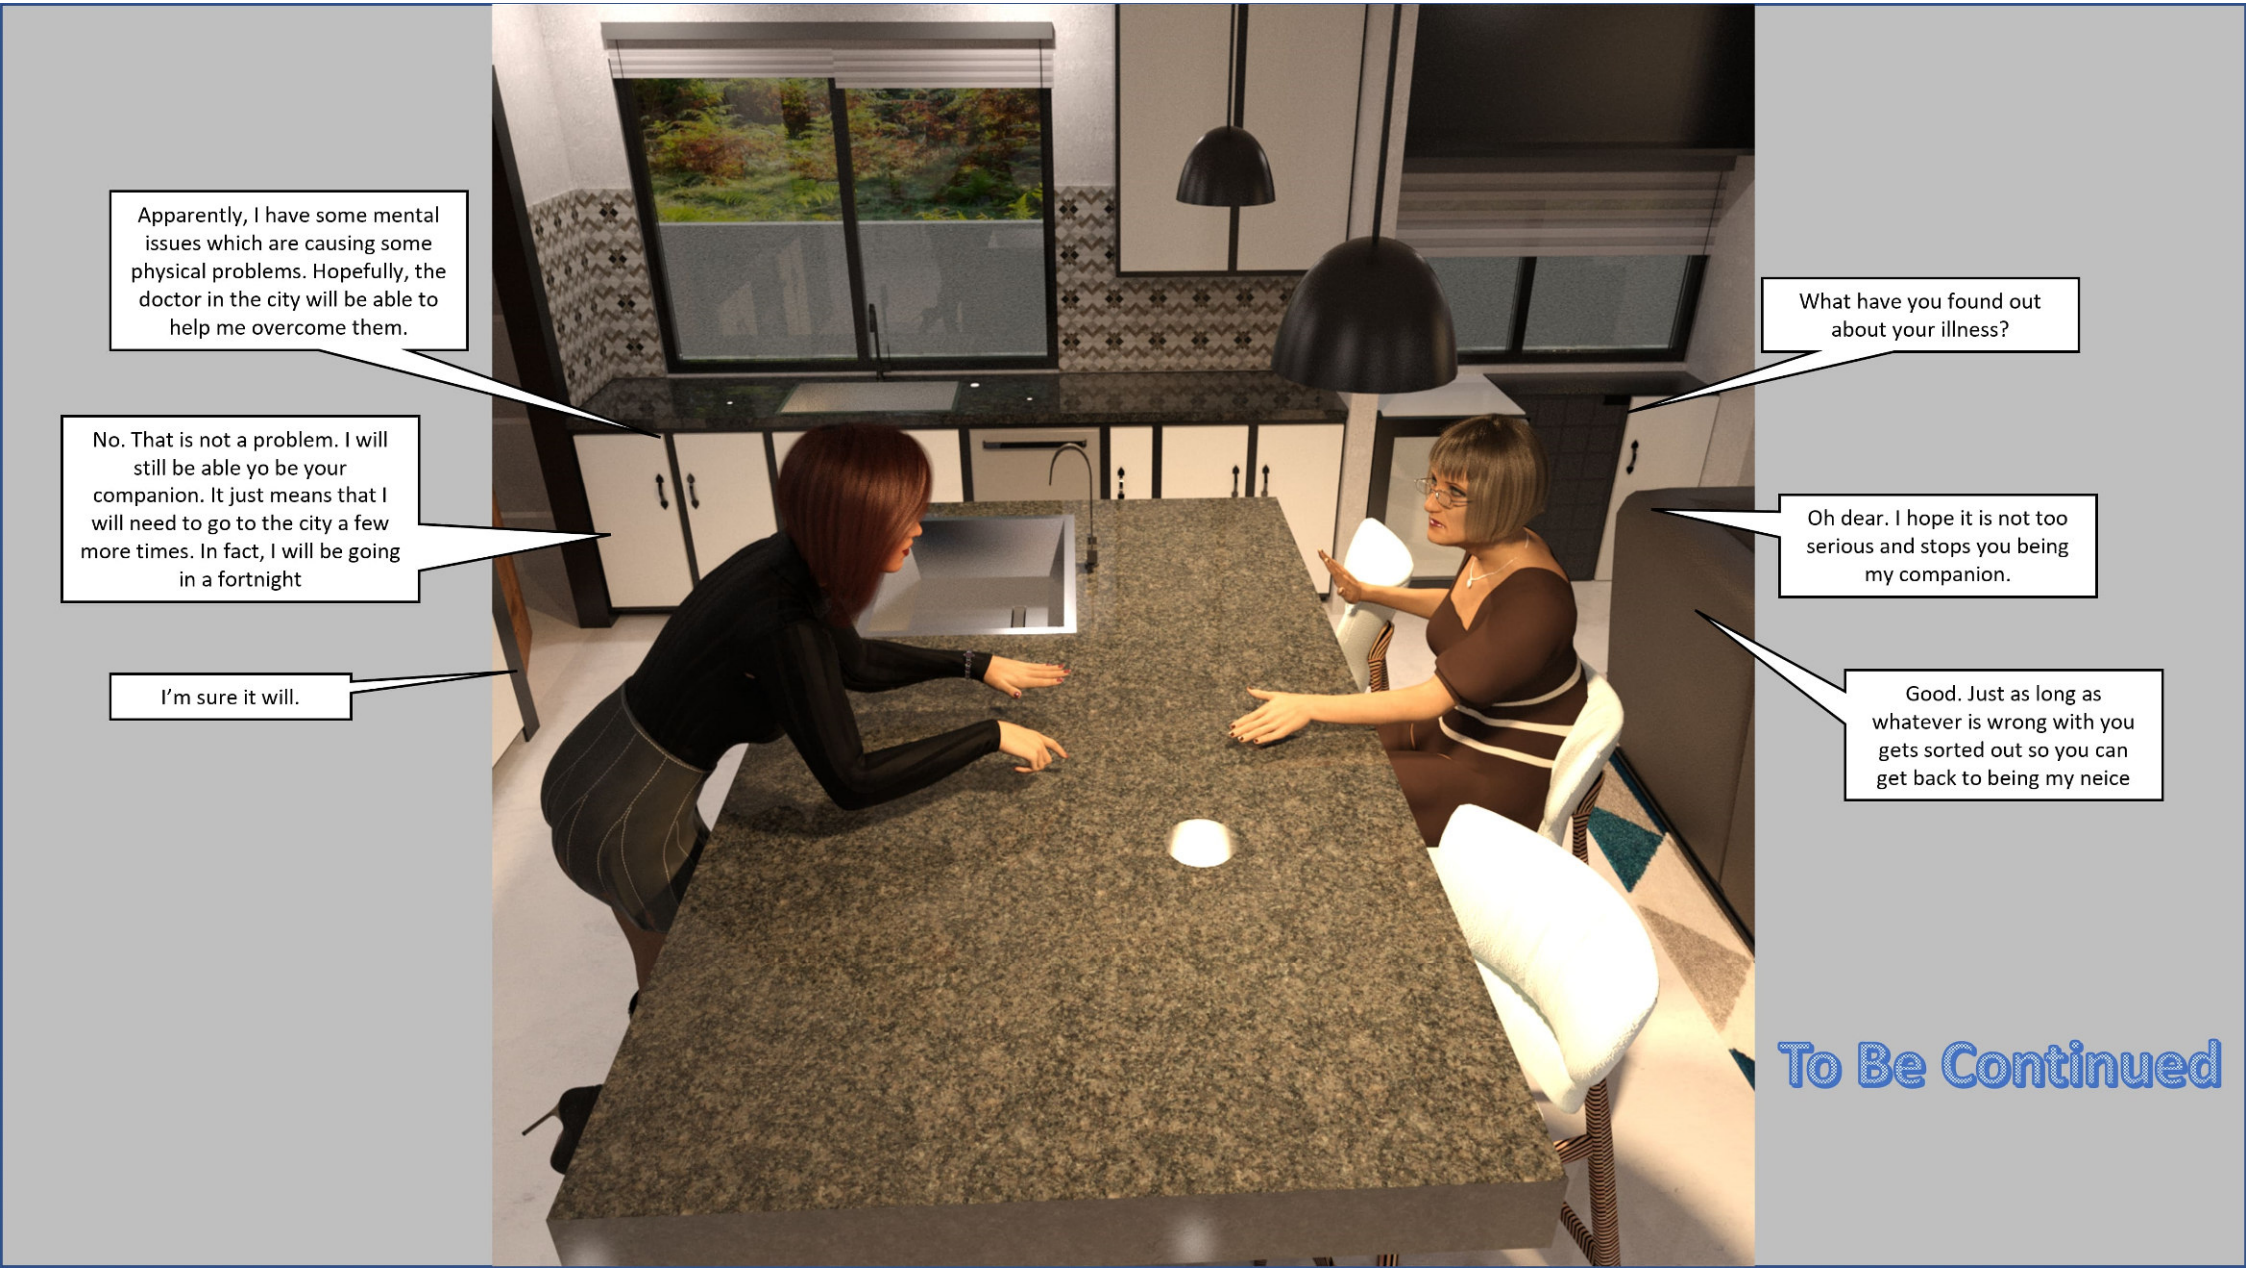
I don't feel half as self conscious as I did. Let them look if they want. It is when they don't look I'll start worrying. Ha!



Apparently, I have some mental issues which are causing some physical problems. Hopefully, the doctor in the city will be able to help me overcome them.
No. That is not a problem. I will still be able yo be your companion. It just means that I will need to go to the city a few more times. In fact, I will be going in a fortnight
I'm sure it will.

CHAPTER 17
Visitors

Later That Week

She is a good-looking girl. Has she got a boyfriend?
Well, I thought that she fancied the guy who looks after my pool, but they seem to have broken it off after their last outing.
I've made coffee for everyone and there are some snacks as well.
Excellent. Nice to see that you are well domesticated.
I like mine black

Perhaps you should go and chat to him Toni. I agree he does seem to be spending a lot of time staring at you
Isn't that the guy who looks after your pool Harriet? He seems to be more interested in looking at us than doing his job.

I understand all that but I can't get you out of my mind. I like you for being you. You are one fascinating person. Let's talk about it over here.
I know you are here to do a job but why keep looking at me. I explained what I am and why I am here and that we can't be together

I've thought about things after the last time we met, and I can't stop thinking about you.
In that case perhaps I can help.
I'm having problems at the moment trying to come to terms with what is happening to me.
How can you help me with my problem?

I can treat you like the woman you have become. I know there are problems with that, but I felt awful when you walked away from me.
Really. I admit that being out with you made me feel good.

I have some free time this afternoon. What about I take you out somewhere and we can chat about where you are going and what you want without your aunt being around to overhear what you are talking about.
I'll take you to a local viewpoint so wear something casual as the walk is over rough ground.
I'll pick you up this afternoon then.
Well she does have friends round for the day and I'm useless at poker so if it OK with her then I accept.
Ok. I agree I'm not dressed for rough walking.

That will be OK. I've got my friends here in case anything happens and you'll have your phone so you go and enjoy yourself,
He says he is not sure why we broke up. He wants to take me out this afternoon to talk about it.
Thanks. I'd better go and get changed.

I hope this is casual enough. I don't have any boots with heels lower than this. True to speak I feel quite excited.

CHAPTER 18
Afternoon Off

Is this casual enough? Sorry I don't have any boots with lower heels
You look great. I'm sure you'll manage. It is not too difficult a path to where we are going.

Where are we going?
You'll see. A place with a view which I don't think you have been to. It is a place I like to come to to just chill out.

The view-point is just along here. The other side of this stream.
I hope there is a bridge.

This is where we cross. Sorry no bridge just sort of stepping stones.
Don't worry. I'll help you. Just take it easy
Ok. I agree I'm not dressed for rough walking.
Ok. But you make sure you catch me if I fall.

Come on. Just reach across and I'll grab your hand.
My foot is slipping. Look out I'm going to jump for it.

See I told you I'd catch you.
Are you sure you've got me. You look as though you are going to overbalance.

OOFF!!
Steve are you OK? Did you hurt yourself? Did I land on you?

No. I'm fine. just a little winded.
Well...
Is there anything I can do to help?

I didn't expect that!
My God his tongue
is in my mouth!
MMM!

Are you sure we should be doing this?
N... No.
Definitely. Do you want to stop?
Good then let me kiss you again.

I've wanted to do that since I first met you.
You must be joking. You may have been a guy but you are definitely all woman now
But I'm a guy.
I don't know what to say.

Just stand here and take in the view. Think how quiet and peaceful it is. Forget all of your worries and just be in the moment.
It feels so good with his arms around me. I feel so feminine at this moment. Oh Steve...

But...
Kiss me again.
I don't care what you used to be. I'm looking at a beautiful woman. That's what you are.
Forget, but. Just be who you know you want to be.

I think I'll manage this time. I don't want you falling over again. Well...
Come on I've got you this time.

I've had a good afternoon. How about you.
I certainly hope so.
Ohh, Steve. I have to go. My aunt will be expecting me. Can we see each other soon?

Very pleasant. We walked in the woods and he took me to a viewpoint. We had an interesting time.
No thanks. I'm going for a shower and then I'll probably read in bed If you don't mind.
Come on leave the girl alone. She has had a good time and that is what counts.
So how was you afternoon?
From the look of you it was more than just interesting.
Are you going to join us for cards?

Wow what an afternoon. I don't think I'll ring Angela. Oh Steve...

CHAPTER 19
Unexpected Visitor

Well that is not the body of a guy. Apart from the thing between my I make a good-looking female. Perhaps I really am supposed to be female after all.

Hi Angela. This is an unexpected call.
What's the urgent news?
As far as I know everything here is in order. All I have to do is tidy up and get dressed.
Thanks for the head's up. I'll get dressed straight away.
I have some urgent news. My God! Put some clothes on!
I have heard that the lawyer will be making an unexpected visit today. Make sure all is in order.
Well get dressed first. Looking at you, you should have no trouble persuading her that you are female.
OK. Be careful

I've just heard we will be visited by the lawyer about the terms of Hester's will. Today
I don't know but I thought I'd just have a quick clean around before she comes.
Oh I wonder what she wants this time. She seemed very happy last time she came.

Just a quick dust and sweep and then I can go and change. Hello a poker chip from last night. Don't want the Lawyer to see that. She might think I'm letting Harriet stray into bad ways.

You've done a good job there. The place looks great.
Thanks. I need to go and change now before she arrives.

You're getting good at this. Who would have thought it a few months ago. Go get 'em girl,

Hello again. Pleased to see you. I have some important information to give you and Harriet.
Welcome. Nice to see you again. To what do we hold the pleasure.

Harriet is not as Gaga as she may seem. She knows who you are.
Hello again Harriet. I'm the lawyer who is looking after Hester's bequests from her will.
I know dear. Nice to see you again

It is a few months now since the terms of the will were announced and all seems to be in order. However, I have come to see you personally to explain the codicil to the will. Once the original terms and conditions are met, which they appear to have been, then the running of The Foundation is to be given over to Angela, your great niece and although you will keep the house and a substantial sum to keep you in the manner to which you are accustomed you niece Antonia will no longer be required to be your constant companion. I will return at a future date to bring all the necessary paperwork to finalise the matter.

I see.

Does that mean I can go back to being Anthony. Can I with the way I look? Do I want to?

You do realise that Harriet will be able to hire someone to act as a companion or even hire a couple of servants to look after her one all the paperwork is sorted out.
You will be able to go back to your old life a considerably richer person
Yes, I realise that. It will seem strange.
Can I go back to being Anthony?
Yes...

OH! NO!

What is to become of me?
You are now but what about the future. I'm going to be stuck in this house with no one I know. People who don't care about me.
Thank you dear. You don't know how much that means to me
There, there. Don't worry. I'm here.
It won't be like that. I don't intend to leave you on your own. I've made changes to my life to look after you these past months and I intend to keep doing so.
I'll phone my sister and make sure that nothing changes in the near future so that we can sort out what is happening.

Angela. The lawyer has just been and has told us that the terms of the will have been met and that you will be given the permanent position of running The Foundation, Harriet keeps the house and a good pension and I can go back to where I was before, a richer person. I've told Harriet that I am staying here for the time being and she should not worry. After all I have to complete my therapy sessions
Thank you, dear.

On the way to meet the therapist, this time dressed as I want. I wonder who is calling?

Steve. Nice to hear from you...

No, I'm just on the way to see the therapist...

Saturday? I'll have to check with Harriet but I'm sure it will be OK...

At least the lift is working this time. No dirty old man trying to see up my skirt.

Nice to see you again
Quite a bit
And yourself. Has much happened since our last session?
Have a seat and tell me about it

You remember that I told you about breaking up with the pool guy, Steve.

I was. Well it turns out that he still has feelings for me.

I wasn't too sure, but he came round to clean the pool and we chatted, and I agreed to go out for the afternoon with him.

To be honest I was egged on by some friends of Harriet's but in reality I think I wanted to go with him.

He took us out into the countryside and we went to a beauty spot.

We had to cross a stream. I was wearing boots with heels and nearly fell in but managed to jump and he caught me

Well in doing so he overbalanced and we fell with me on top of him.

I think so. Anyway he was winded and I was concerned but then he reached up and kissed me.

No! I reciprocated and we carried on for a long while, lying on the ground.

I do. You seemed quite upset about it.

And how do you feel about that?

Really?

Interesting. So what happened?

Go on I can see there is more.

And?

An accident?

So you protested and pushed him away.

So you are sorry it happened?

No I'm not sorry it happened. I enjoyed the feeling it gave me. However, I have another problem
I have found out that the terms of the will have been met and soon I will be able to go back to being what I was before. But I'm not sure I want to. Also, I have these female characteristics which will make it difficult to return and I don't want to leave Harriet in the lurch.
Another thing. On the way here Steve asked me to a Halloween Party on Saturday.
I do. As I came here I was thinking about what to wear and how I would look to impress him
Thanks for the advice.
Good You should enjoy pleasurable experiences. What is the new problem?
I can see we need to have a few more sessions to try and sort out where your priorities lie
Do you want to go?
Hmm... I think you should go with your pool guy. Go and impress him and then se how you feel. I'll see you next week

So, the therapist says I'm getting on OK. Also Steve has asked me if I would like to go to | Halloween Party on Saturday. I tentatively said yes but only as long as you are OK with it.
Good I'll let him know and I'll need to get something to wear and I may have my hair done the colour has almost all gone from this style.
You goi dear. I'll be alright here with the TV and films.
You do it. I'm sure I'll be fine. Just be careful

CHAPTER 20
Halloween Party

I won't have the whole place to myself like last time but that doesn't matter. All I want is my hair and nails doing.

Hi. I have an appointment for my hair and nails.
That sounds great. I'll leave it to the stylists to suggest something.
Hello again. I see the colour has grown out so we will need to do something about that.
I'm sure the stylist will be able to help you perhaps a new style as well. Have a seat and we will be right with you.

3 Hours Later

Found what I was looking for. I hope Steve approves.

What do you think of the new hairstyle auntie?
I think it suits you. And the makeup is marvelous. Steve is going to be one happy guy. I may not like them but I know what they like.

Well everything fits. I'm not sure about the hat but the low neckline shows off my newly acquired female assets. Roll on Saturday

Hello Steve. What have you done to yourself. Do you like the outfit. I'm not sure about the hat,
Well I think you look good.
Wow! Look at you. You look fantastic. I've used body paint to make me look like The Hulk but I don't have the full physique.
Ok. Shall we go?

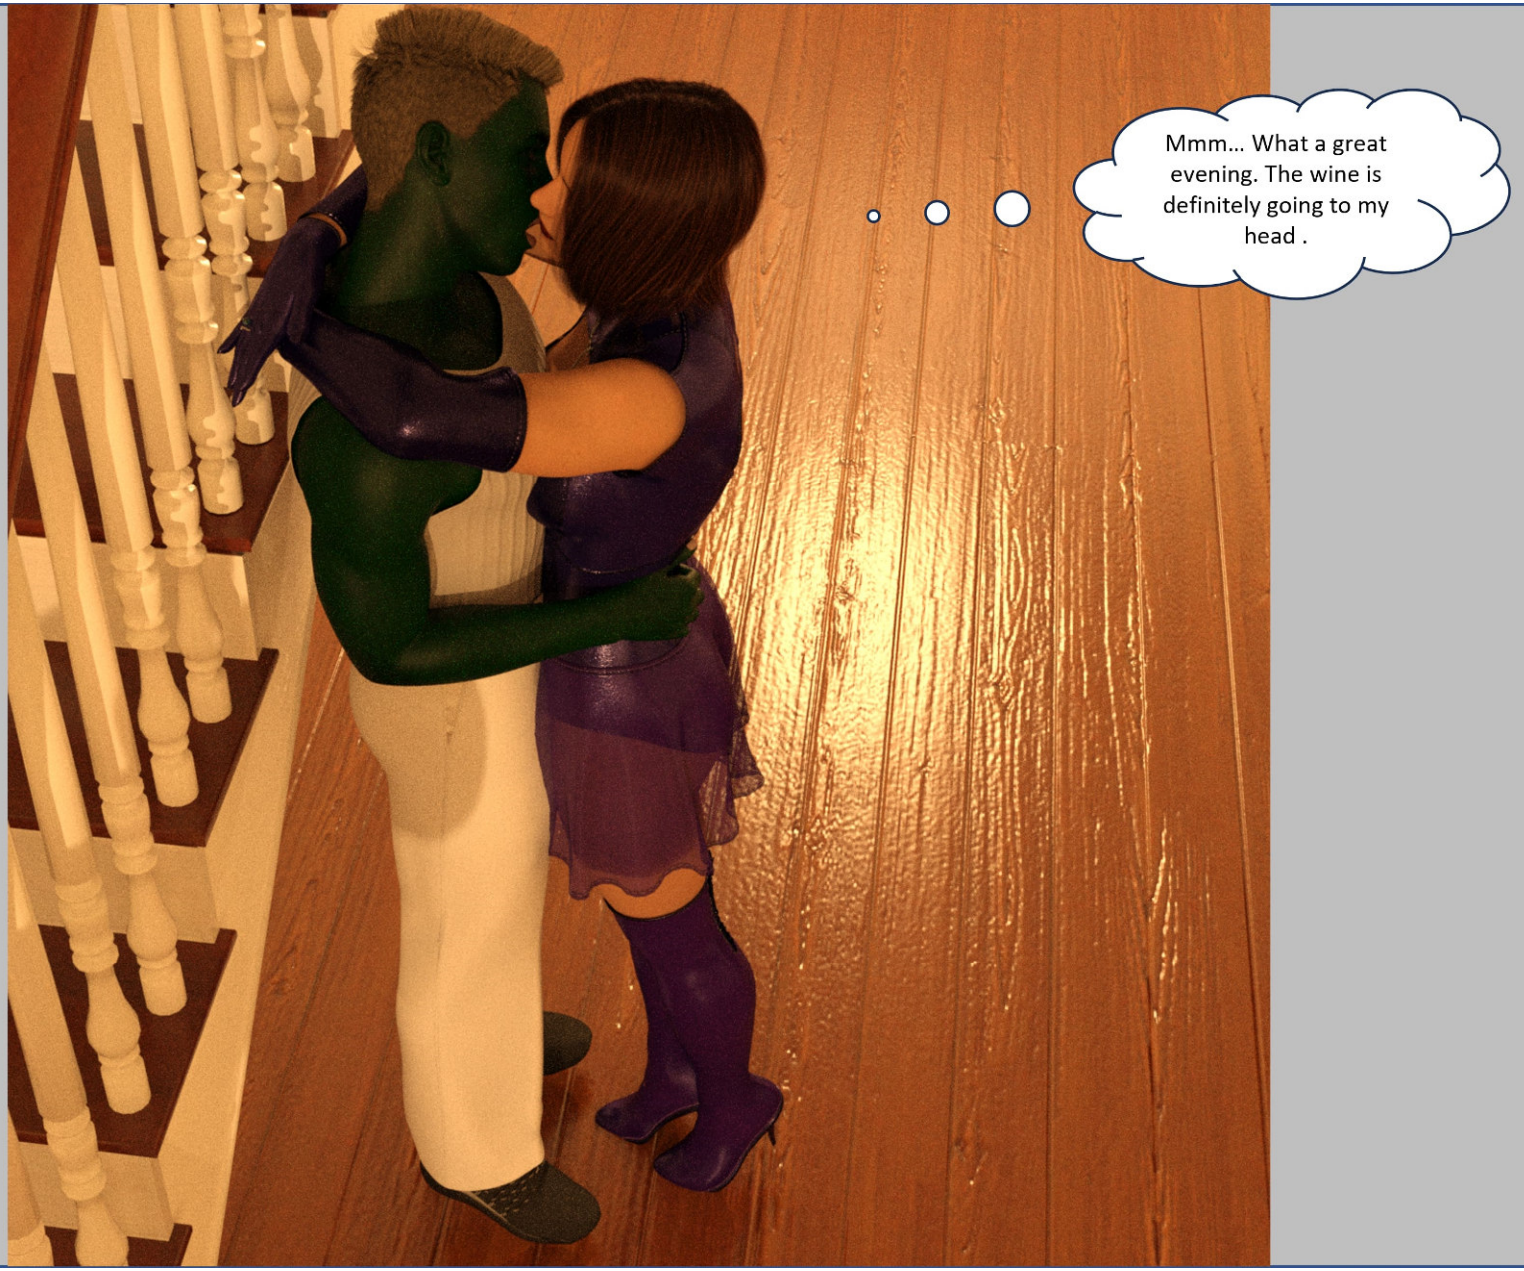
I have left the hat in the car. I can't see me being able to wear it all night.
I hope I don't let you down with your friends. Remember what I am.
Don't worry you'll be OK. These two in the hallway are the hosts. George and Lorraine.
You are a gorgeous young lady who is my date. How could you let me down? Now let's go meet our hosts.
HALLOWEEN
BOO!

Hi, George and Lorraine, this is Toni.
Pleased to meet you
No verrry pleased to meet you
Steady George,. Remember your blood pressure. Nice to meet you. You are new to the area? I haven't seen you before.
Well please enjoy yourself. I like your costume. Food and drinks are in the other room.
I'm Harriet Glomberg's niece. I'm staying with her now that he sister has passed on.

You know George couldn't keep his eyes off my tits
Hmm... How about some food and drink?
Surprise me.
Yes ,George is a bit of a letcher.
I'll get us some. Anything in particular?

Cake and wine?
There's a sofa over there.
I don't know how I'm going to mange both together. We need to sit down

Well you sure look like a maid. Can't you get me a drink?
I've told you before I'm NOT the maid. I'm in fancy dress
We can get up and dance if you want.
No I'm quite happy sitting cuddling with you. I think the wine is beginning to go to my head



Mmm... What a great evening. The wine is definitely going to my head .

Is that it. No goodnight kiss.
He's been a gentleman all evening. I hope he does more than just peck me on the cheek.
Here we are back home safe and sound
Well, if you insist.

I've been wanting to get hold of these since I first saw you in this outfit. You know how to drive a man wild.
Let me get behind you so I can get both hands on them.
Oh! Steve. Keep doing that. Ohhh!
Christ he's turning me on. Ohh! Keep doing that.

Ohh! Yes! YES! YES!
He's as hard as anything and if he keeps this up I'm going to come in my panties. Ohhh... My legs are turning to jelly
Now I can use both hands. Is this what you want.
If you keep moving your hand like that I'm going to stain my white slacks

My nipples ache and I think I came in my panties I feel wet
Oh. Steve I wish I could satisfy you as a true woman,
See you soon lover.
I can see that they are standing out quite proudly
You're doing ok as it is at the moment. We can try other things in the future. It is time I went before we get too involved out here in the open.
You can be sure of that.

You had a good evening then?
Just one thing. Try and be a little quieter when you come back in future. We don't want to wake up the whole neighbourhood.
Hello. Still up?
I'll try and remember that. Sorry.

CHAPTER 21
Working Things Out

I think the time is coming when I am going to have to make a decision about my future. It may have arrived.

Hello...
Sarah?
Oh hi. It's Toni here I wonder if I could come and see you today. I feel I have some decisions to make and would appreciate your advice...
3:15 that would be great. Thanks.

Nothing to worry about I just need a quick chat about me.
Just let me sit down and I'll explain.
This looks a little worrying.
About you. Why?

As you know I've been having problems with my health.
In some respects, but I need to seem my therapist again and she has given me an appointment this afternoon. Will you be OK here if I leave you?
Thanks Harriet. You know I don't like leaving you on your own.
But you seem to have recovered.
I don't see why not. You go if it is going to help you get over the problems you seem to be having.

By the end of today I should be able to come to some conclusions about my future.

Thanks for seeing me on such short notice Susan
I think I'm coming to an ultimate decision about who I am
Last evening and looking in the mirror this morning.
Well I'm here to help. What has prompted the visit?
And what has led you to this decision?
Interesting. Have a seat.

Now tell me all about it.
Wait you mean that you are going to continue living life as a female?
More than that? You want a sex change.
I've decided that I really should be what I look like now. Toni.
More than that.
Yes. I believe I do. I can't go on living in limbo.

Are you sure about that? It is a big step.
You know the implications and the costs involved as well as the dangers.
What happened?
Oh?
The more I thinks about it the more positive I am.
Listen, after the experience I had last evening I am more than sure
Steve and I went to the Halloween Party. We had a few drinks and some food and a good time but when we got back to the house... Well I've never felt like that before and I want more of it
As I am I can't reciprocate properly and I really want to. I really like him and don't want to lose him because I can't satisfy him fully.

It is a big step but you have finally come to realise where your future lies. What are you going to do now?
I can give you some information about that. Don't rush things and make sure that your decisions are for the right reasons
It is what you are paying for after all.
Looking at myself in the mirror this morning I realised that I look female apart from the bit between my legs. If I can do something about that then BINGO. I can be truly me.
I need to talk to my sister and tell her how I feel and what I have decided. Once that is done I need to think about reassignment surgery.
Thanks for all your help and for being here when I have needed you

Hello Madam. Can I help you?
She is in her office. I'll show you the way.
I don't see why not. You go if it is going to help you get over the problems you seem to be having.
Glomberg Foundation
RECEPTION

Sorry Carl. You'll have to either sort it out yourself or wait until I have finished talking to my sister
Sure thing Carl. See you later
Ok Angela. I'll see what I can come up with. If you'd be kind enough to have a look after you have finished?

OK. What brings you here? Why are you not with Harriet?

Oh dear. Is it that serious?

Ah. You've had enough of masquerading as Toni and want out. Now the lawyer has said that the terms of the will have a been fulfilled you want to go back to being Anthony.

You want to carry on being Toni?

I'm sorry but I need to chat with you face to face with you. It is important.

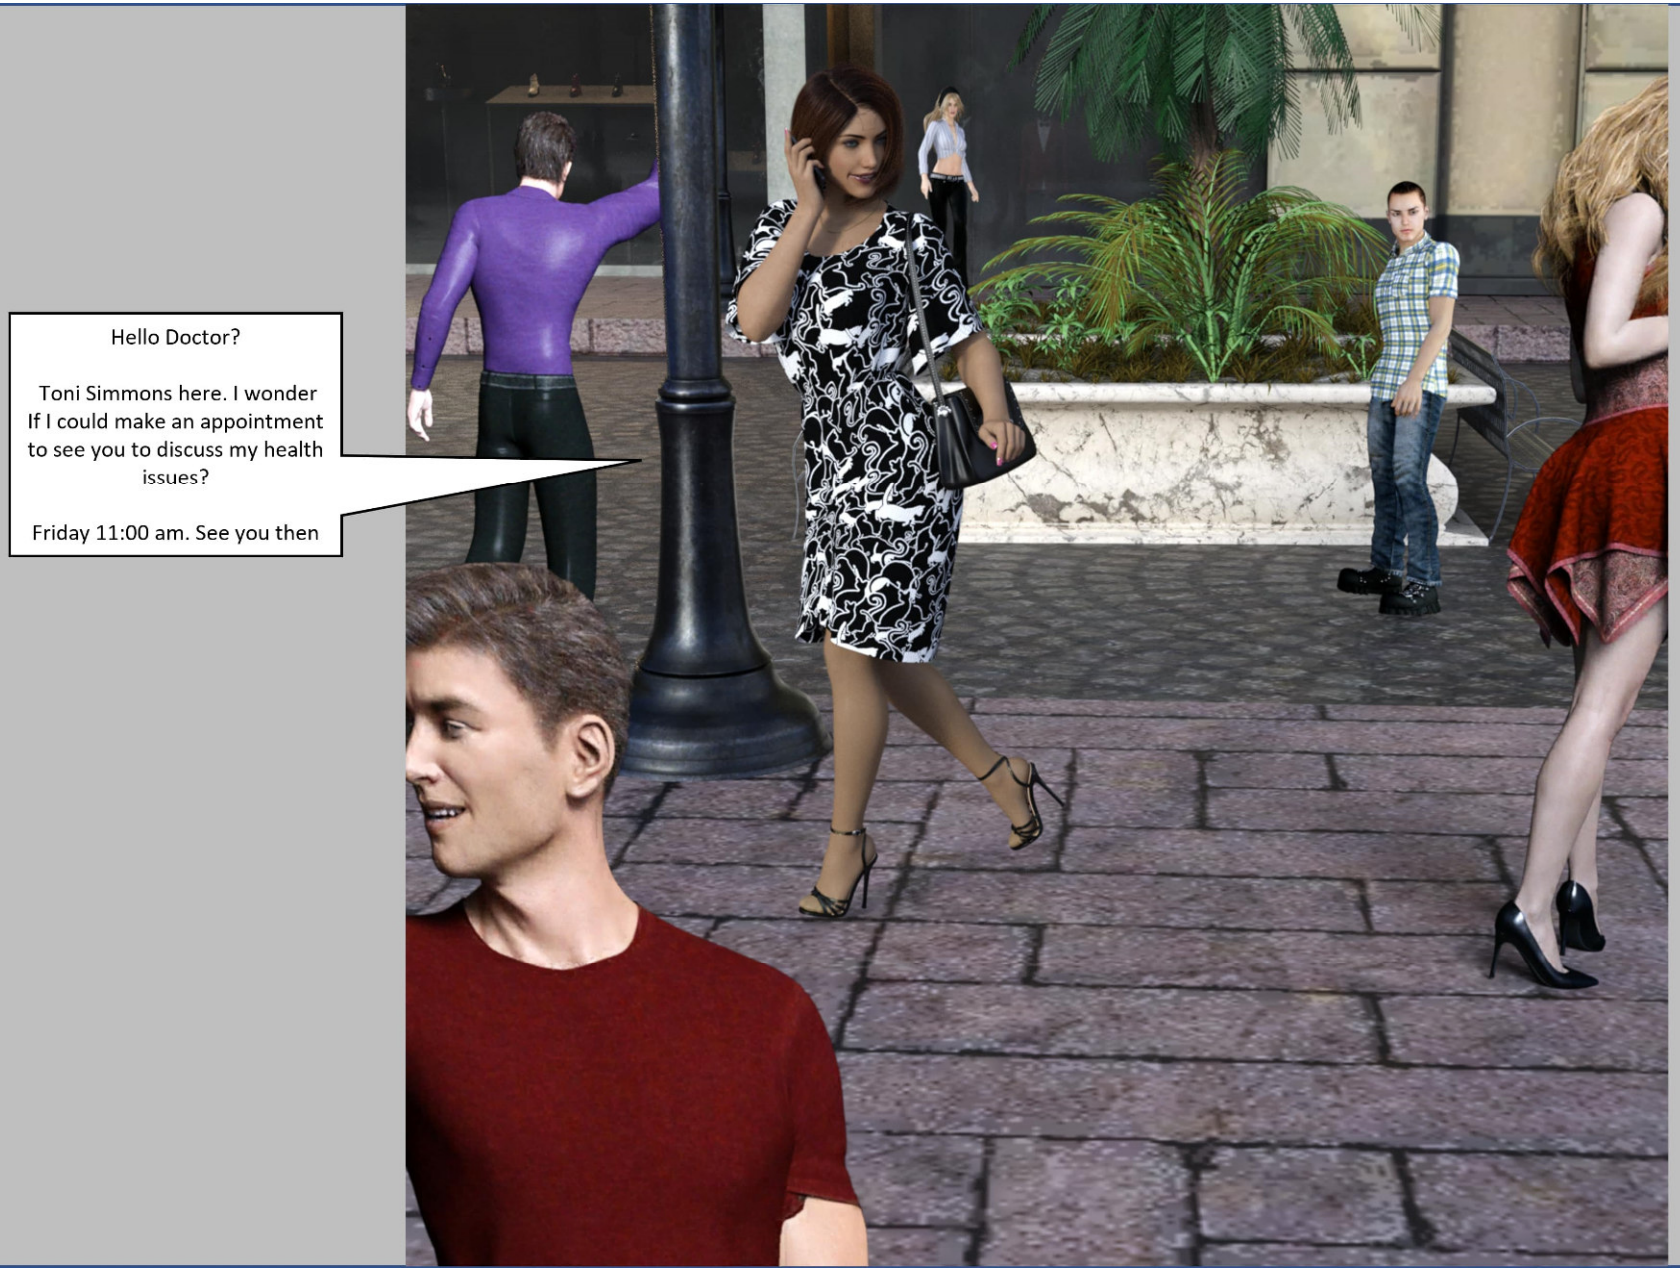
Depends on what you mean as serious. I think it is. I've come to a decision about me.

Quite the opposite. I want to continue being Toni. I have become used to being her. I like the way she makes me feel and I like the way others make Toni feel.

More that that. I want to be Toni completely!

Does that mean what I think it means?
You want a sex change?
Listen cost should not be an issue. The foundation can loan you the money needed and you will be able to pay it back once the will papers are finally signed off.
If you think it means me having an operation to remove or alter parts of my body then, Yes.
I've thought it over and again. Yes. The main problem though is the cost.
Thanks, sis. I can begin the process I'll contact Doctor Christine and see how I proceed from there.

Who would have thought my dork of a younger brother would turn into a good-looking younger sister. Has Steve got anything to do with your decision?
Perhaps.



Hello Doctor?
Toni Simmons here. I wonder If I could make an appointment to see you to discuss my health issues?
Friday 11:00 am. See you then

CHAPTER 22
Next Steps

You are sure about this?
Right let's give you an examination. Go behind the screens over there and strip completely. Please
I'm fed up with being stuck in Limbo. Neither one thing or the other. I've decided that I would like some help in becoming as much of a female as I can be
As sure as I can be. Looking at myself as I am now there is no way that I look or even can think about being Anthony again

Hmm... You're really quite small. Do you get erections still?
I do but not as often I used to.

Your breasts are quite firm and well formed. And your nipples react when I rub them.
I see. Is that one of your deciding factors in wanting to have sex reassignment surgery?
Yes. I have found that rubbing them makes me excited even more so when someone else rubs them
One of them.

You are exhibiting many aspects of a female body. I will contact a colleague who performs sex reassignment and we will see what he says
How long will it take?
The procedure takes quite a while and then there is recuperation time and therapy
I see. How soon could the procedure be done?
Let's not rush this. There will be some time before you will be able to undergo the surgery once my colleague has seen you.
Ok. But you don't see any problems with me going through with the procedure.
No.

Hi. Steve. I wonder if we could meet.
This afternoon would be fine. Ill meet you at the Little Cafe by the river where we first went together.

Thanks for meeting with me, Steve
I've something I need to tell you. Just let me sit down
WELCOME TO THE Little CAFE

Anytime. What's the reason?
Ok. I'm all ears.

I've been to see the doctor.
I've also come to a decision. I'm going to go the whole way and have sex reassignment surgery.
It is but I've thought long and hard about this and there is no way I can return to being Anthony.
Thank You. I'm also influenced by the feelings I have for you.
Oh?
Wow. That's a big decision.
Well you don't look like and Anthony and you don't act that way either.
Oh.

Being with you, Steve, makes me feel good. I want to go on feeling that way but I don't want you to feel bad about dating a guy.
You're not a guy Toni. You're my girl.

Remember when we first stood here together and thought about where the river goes and what we would like to do.
Yes. I said I'd like to see new things and go to new places but at the moment I'm happy here.

I don’t deserve him
but I want him.

Mmm... I feel really tingly

Well? What do you think? Will Steve approve of my look?
That's what I'm hoping.
He will but you make sure that this is what you want. Men are only after one thing.

Hi Steve.
Wow! You look great.

A quick kiss before we go.

Here's to the future and what it may hold for both of us.
I agree now I've come to a decision. I can't wait for thins to start happening.

If that's what you want, they can start happening tonight
Why Steve. What do you mean?

I’m as sure as you are.
Are you sure about this?

I know this makes you feel good.
It does but how about I take the dres off.

Do you like what you see?
I can't believe that you are a guy. Not looking like that. Come over here.

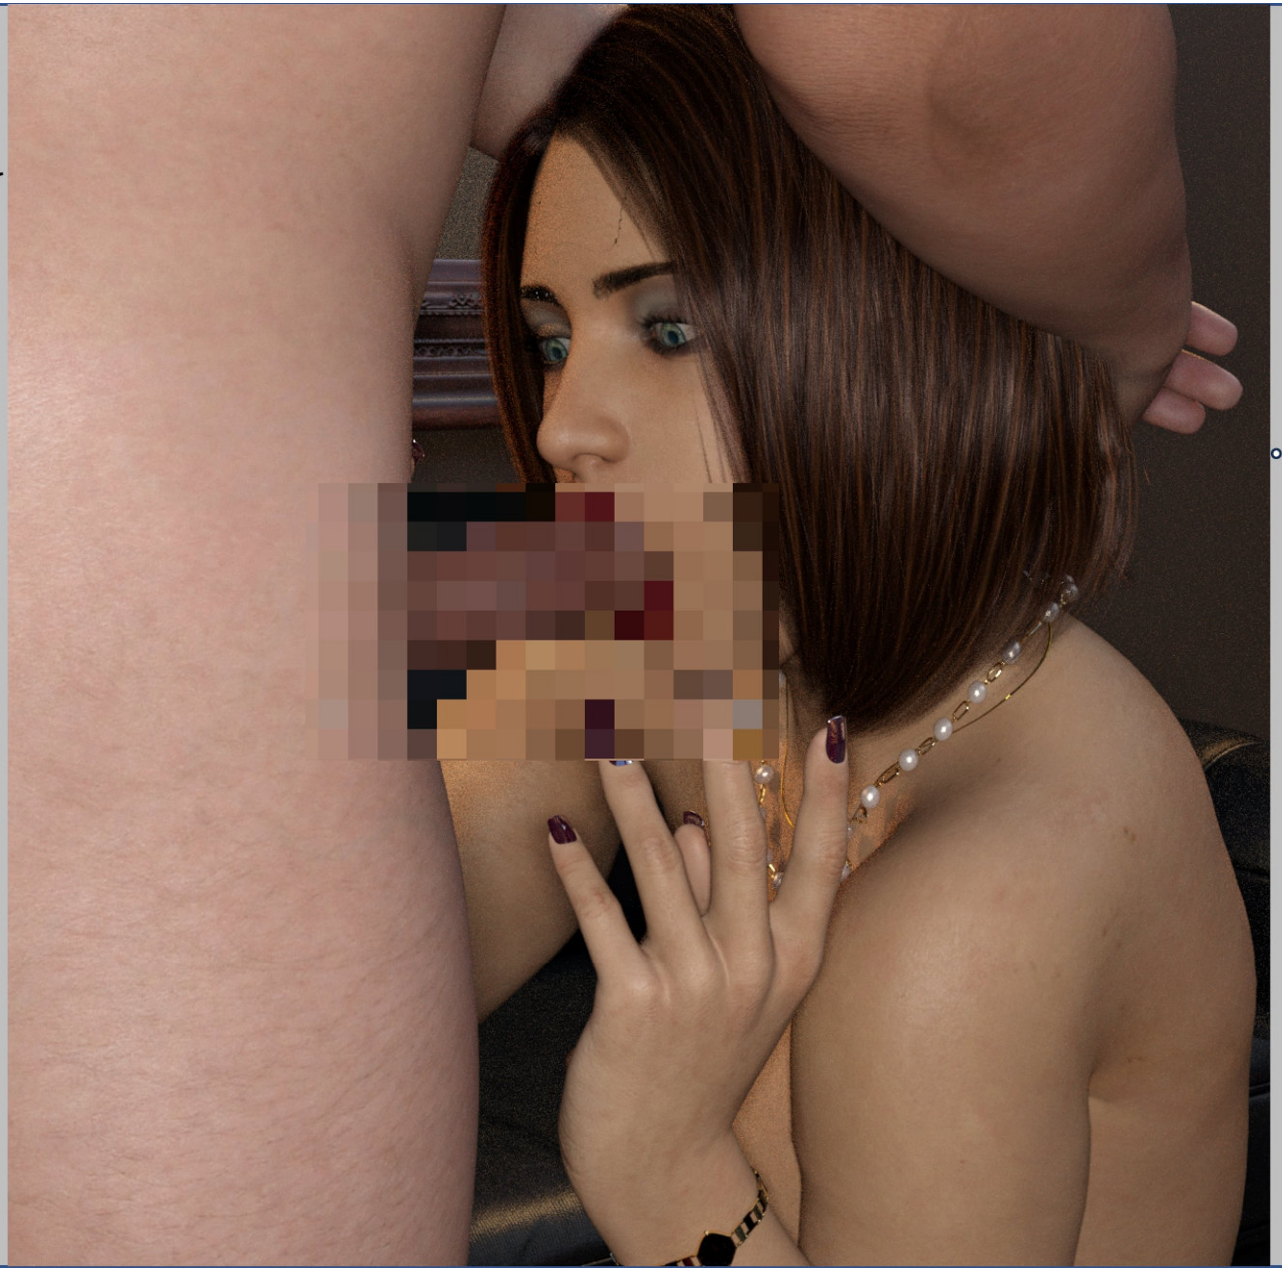
You don’t feel like a guy. You smell and feel like the girl you are.
Shut up. Kiss me and then get undressed. I want to show you what I can do for you.

See what an effect you are having on me.
I want to please you as a woman can but there is a problem. I don't have the equipment. Stand up and we can try another way.

I’m standing.
You are in the right position. Just let me try this.

My God! That feels good.
I hope I'm doing this right. Must make sure I don't bite him

Oh! Toni. That's fantastic.



Oh! It worked. He's coming. I must try and swallow it all.

Come here honey.
Now it's your turn.

How’s this?
Ohh! Steve. That feels great.

I know it's not perfect but that was fantastic.
I can't wait for you to be able to fuck me properly
If that's all we can do then I'll make do with that at the moment.
I cant't wait either. But we must.

We will.
Thanks for a lovely evening, Steve. I hope we have more of them.
