

LITTLE CINDY'S BIG MUSCLES

This the story of Cindy, a cute young teen, with a nice looking face and cool pigtaails.

Since she was a baby, Cind' was a happy child, always smiling and enjoying life.

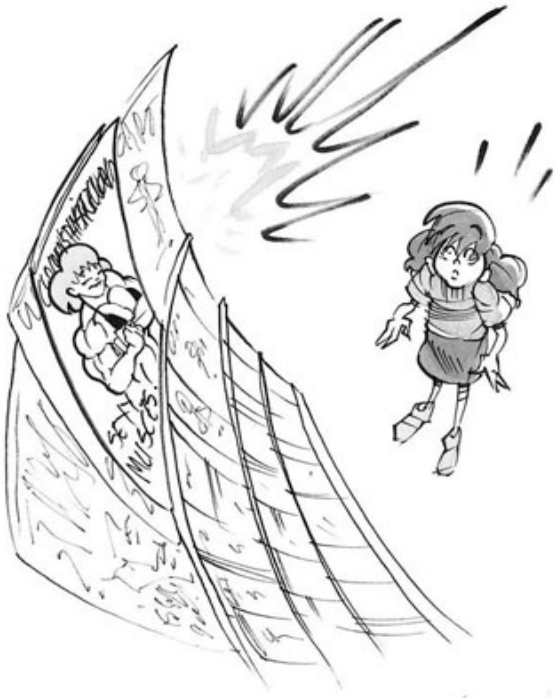

As she grew up, she keeps being a nice kid, like all the others, spending her time between games, television and friends.

In short, Cindy's life could have been like anyone else's, if, one day, at the age of 12, she had not....

... in a bookstore, found a magazine that would change her life forever: Women's PhysiqueWorld.

While picking up the newspaper for her father, as she did every day, she saw a cover on the shelves that caught her eyes: a photo of a muscular woman. What a shock!

She who had never seen a thing like this before was literally captivated by this vision, and rushed to browse the precious magazine ..

As she leafed through the magazine, she thought her head would explode: her heart was beating very fast, her stomach was in knots, her hands were sweaty ...

The vision of those women upset her conception of things: a woman could be muscular and sexy! Big muscles were not reserved only for men!

On every page, she could not believe her eyes: dozens of muscled women on stage, in the street, showing their muscles with pride ... They seemed to have so much confidence in them!

Cindy, who had always been painfully shy, was stunned ...

Of course, she bought the magazine and immediately went home, rushing to show her discovery to her parents, thinking she would teach them the incredible truth: muscular women are the sexiest!

Then, while she showing them a poster of Denise Masino, to share the merits of what was, in her view, the epitome of beauty, her parents didn't really have the reaction she expected ...

They looked disgusted and refused to hear what their daughter had to tell them ... Worse still, they did not understand the reaction of Cindy!

But this didn't disturb Cind': she had now found a purpose in her life ... Become the most muscular woman on earth! Her whole life was now devoted to Muscle!

From that day, she searched all pictures, all dvds, all she could find to satisfy her passion for female muscle

Under the disapproving gaze of her parents, who did not share their daughter's excitement over these "monsters" as they called them...

The days passed and Cindy deepened her research into this wonderful world of female muscle ... She visited all of the websites dedicated to muscular women , spent her days sitting at the computer to chat with other fans of muscle, to buy DVDs ...

She discovered that not only were muscular women sexy, but many men adored them! She, who had never had a boyfriend, felt excited : when she was muscular, men would be running after her!

She also discovered that some muscular women far exceeded the standard: Colette Guimond, Renee Toney and Maria Calo ... They immediately became her favorites! She wanted so much to be like them! They were so sexy with their big manly muscles! They were almost as muscular and big as men! Damn, little Cind' would have killed to have such big muscles! Bigger is better, as one might read on some sites ...

And so passed the life of Cindy ... Not a minute passed without her thinking about muscles ... Her room became a veritable temple dedicated to muscular women ... Everywhere posters, magazines, DVDs ... Every inch of her room was devoted to her passion for big muscles ...

The women on the walls were not looking like women than we usually see in commercials or magazines anymore.... No breasts, or female forms, or curves here: just hard, angular, veiny, masculine muscle ... Faces were emaciated, hollow ... Few traces of femininity in these pictures, except the few square centimeters of tissue that hide old breasts, who have completely disappeared and gave way to big pecs, so manly and sexy ...

Cindy was so happy among those women! Of course, her favs were all hanging on the walls: Colette, Andrulla, Tina ... The biggest, most muscular women that history has known were constantly turning the head of the young teen!

Unfortunately for our young friend, she was far from looking like her idols... Skinny, no shape... After all, her body was that of a 12 years old girl... Since her parents refused categorically that she go to a gym, the situation was not about to change!

So, to console herself, she spent most of her time imagining herself muscular... At school, she didn't work, preferring to draw herself as the more muscular 12 years old girl... And damn, she loved it! If only she could have muscles as big as in her dreams! She would show them to everyone proudly!

She imagined herself being on stage, performing poses that would emphasize her incredible musculature, especially for a girl of her age! Her little body, swollen and overloaded with muscles, would drive men crazy!

So when her father had discovered that her grades had fallen, she who had always been a good student, he furiously asked her why ...

To which she replied that she was done with the school, because the only thing that interested her now was becoming muscular ...

Her father then went into a black rage, and forbade her to waste her time on this kind of thing. He ordered her to take down her posters, and he yelled that while he was still alive, he would never let his daughter become a monster like those freaks!

Cindy was furious after this conversation and went to her room ... She could not believe her ears! Her father had forbidden her to become muscular! But that was the only thing she lived for!

Shocked, she threw herself on her bed and burst into tears ... She would never be the one that she had always wanted to be!

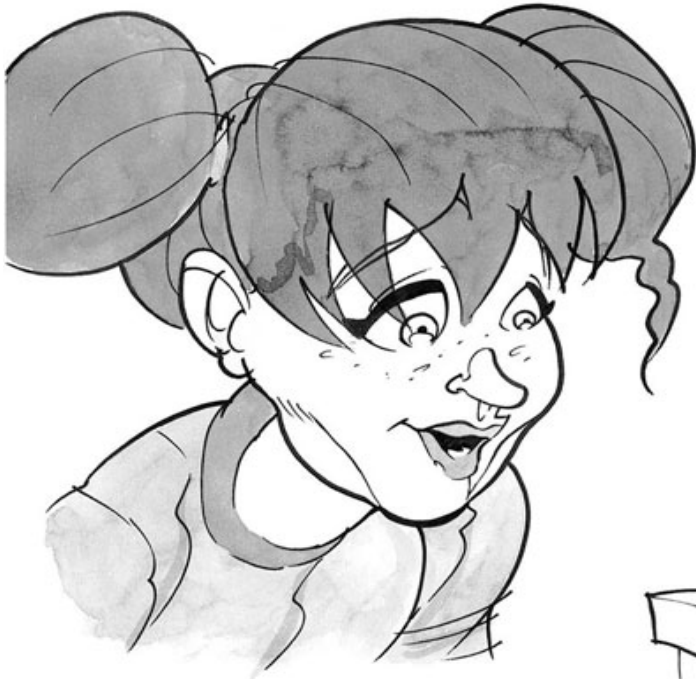

While she was crying, she felt a gentle warmth close to her face ... She looked up and saw a ball of light floating in the air .. A voice, sweet as honey, spoke to her:

"Do not cry, little Cindy, I am here..."

The voice was so reassuring that Cindy immediately stopped crying,

The ball then landed gently on the edge of the bedside table, and the light gradually faded to finally reveal the tiniest of muscular women!

"I am Musculina", began to tell the little woman. "And I heard you crying from the world of fairy muscle. You're such a good girl, I could not let you be unhappy and sad. So, I am here to realize your dream "

Cindy took the little fairy in her hand, she could not believe her eyes:

"Wow! You're so muscular, I can not believe that you exist! "

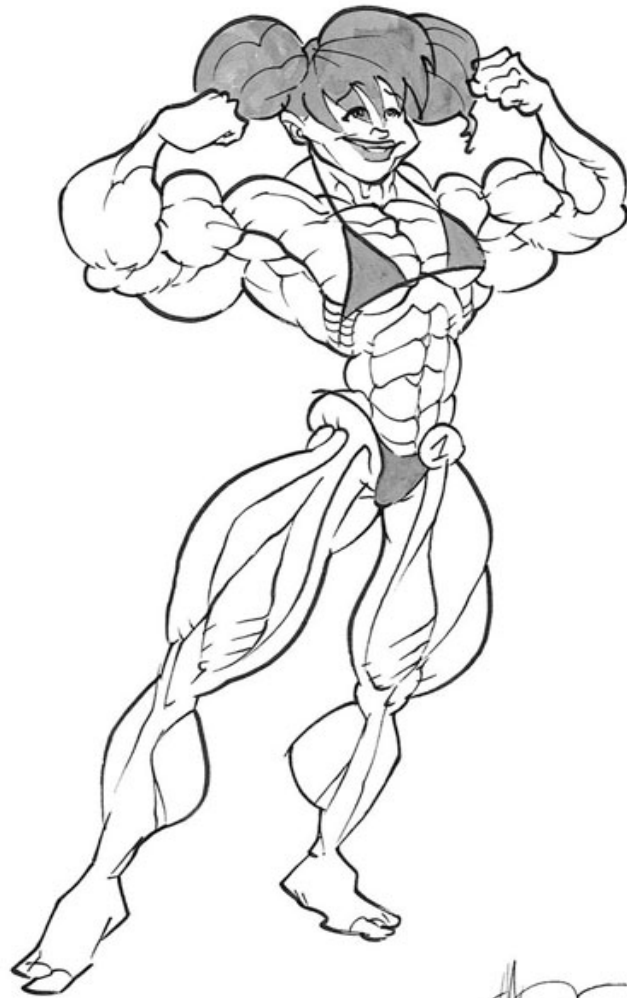

"And yet, I am real!"

"Incredible ... and you say that you can realize my dream!"

"That's why I'm here, darling ... You're so nice that I can not let you live without knowing the thrill of big female muscle ... So tell me, what do you want above all?"

"I think that you already know: I want to become the most muscular woman in the world! I want my big muscles to make men mad with desire and women crazy with jealousy! I want to get on stage and show my muscular body! I want to flex my big muscles whenever I want! I want to be .. huge! monstrous! sexy! I do not want to be a skinny little girl anymore! I want to be a goddess!"

"Well, at least you know what you want, I'm impressed!"

"Yes, but ... there is a small problem... My parents do not want me to be muscular.. They have forbidden me to think about big muscles.. And there will be trouble if they discover that I am more muscular than a man ... "

"Yes, I had forgotten ... And then there's the fact that you're only 12 years old..."

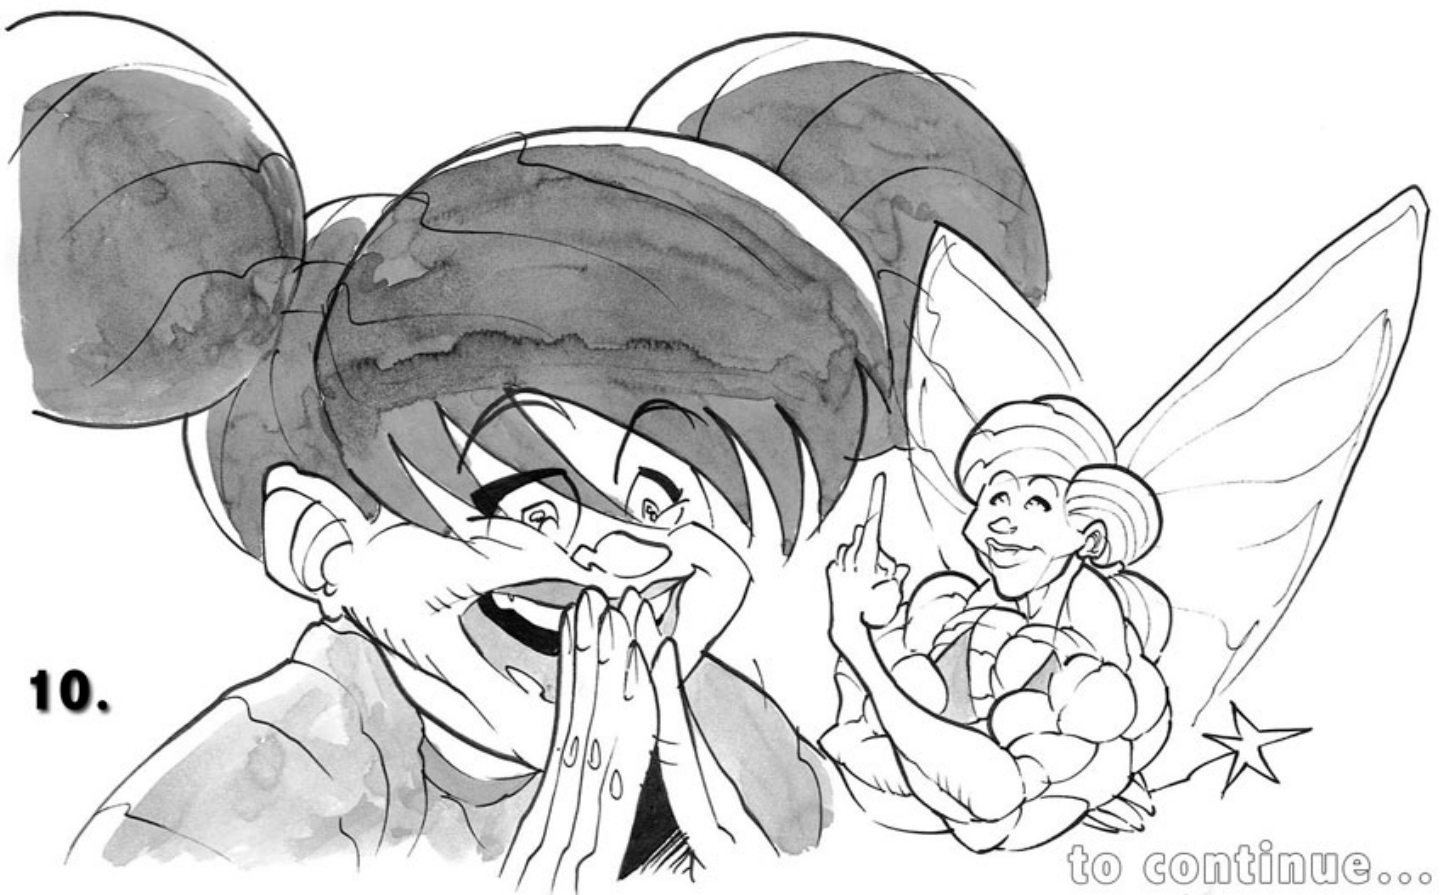

"Wait, I have an idea: I'll give you the ability to grow at will.. So, you will be able to become as big as you want, and then, become as you were whenever you want... That way, your parents will not notice anything! "

"Awesome! You can do that?"

"Of course! Am not I Musculina?"
