Daniel was a normal guy, a normal lucky guy. His love life wasn't anything to write about, at least until the last few weeks, because he met someone really special this time. Viviane was a Brazilian woman he found in a dating app, something he always avoided to use because he never saw someone he thought would be a good match for anything but dinner and sex. Daniel was not interested in "short terms" anymore, he wanted something to last, but there was something about Viviane that caught his attention, and not only her gigantic size! Indeed, Viviane wasn't your normal woman, she was massive, she was voluptuous like very few women could dream to be. These really huge ladies are not exactly common, but Daniel noticed they are showing up more everywhere and he decided to try his luck with one of them, but he had a trump card. His "piece" was quite something. While he was average in pretty much anything else, that part of him ladies never complained about before, and because of that, he decided to meet someone like this titanic lady.

Viviane was living in his city for a few years now and was looking for someone who could be with her for the long term too. She had a few relationships before, with both men and women. But she had an issue, most of her former partners were so small they triggered her motherly instincts just as much as her sexual desires, and that wasn't something she wanted. That's when she met someone like her, but it didn't work out, although she's still a friend and maybe a bit more

But meeting Daniel felt different, something was special about him, and that's when their dates became more serious and culminated in this visit. It wasn't the first time they met privately, although this one would be special, she had some toys ready. She met many different people with very unique fetishes before, in fact that's how she makes most of her money, and she was ready for almost anything!

When Daniel saw Viviane that day, his heart was pounding fast and strong, he felt as if his life was about to change forever!

Viviane was in a different position, she saw Daniel as a possible partner, not like the many others she had in the past, but a special one.

Both of them were so lost in thoughts they couldn't notice someone was observing them very carefully!

While Viviane loves a good conversation, that day she was much more interested in getting physical with Daniel, and without a second thought she lifted him from the ground for a kiss. Daniel knew very well how absurdly strong Viviane was, it made sense with her size but it still surprised him. Their kiss was a bit too long and passionate for something you would do outside, so Viviane just pulled him inside and closed the door.

- Really glad you came Daniel, I was afraid the last time I got a bit too aggressive, and, you know...

Viviane was worried because she actually hurt Daniel in their last time together. She really enjoys playing with her partners and Daniel was one of the most cooperative men she ever met, so she decided to test his boundaries, and while he accepted most of it very well, things went sour when some of his ribs fractured. He took it like a champ but the pain was very real and he needed to recover for some weeks. He almost lost his job, but Viviane did "something" to make sure that didn't happen. Daniel isn't sure what exactly she did, but it worked.

- Can't deny you got me good that day, Viv. Your tights can probably kill bears so I guess I did alright. Daniel was apprehensive but also mystified by Viviane's figure. Viviane was the first time he got in contact with the real deal, these titan ladies some people call "amazons" and he would never lose his chance.

- Hahaha! Corajoso! Very well, let me take you to my room, it will be faster if I carry you all the way there, and I guess you prefer that way, right?

Viviane wasn't very good with formalities and also enjoyed to show her prowess, so she took him over her shoulder and went straight to her room. Her house wasn't a mansion but was really comfortable and ready for someone her size. Daniel was excited, not only because he wanted to experience Viviane once again but also had a feeling that something special would happen that day

The massive lady and her boytoy arrived in her room, and she wanted to show him something. Viviane was already half naked, without her robe so he could see her massive breasts and nipples. He remembered how hard they felt in his mouth the last time he tasted them, they were much more firm than he imagined, so hard he had a bit of trouble biting them before Viviane could really feel his teeth.

- Ah before we begin, let me show you something.

Viviane was really full of energy, it was easy to notice by how fast she was moving and the fact she wasn't even noticing Daniel weight over her shoulder. The woman was looking for something but Viviane had a bad memory, it was common for her to lose her keys or forget groceries in the market, that kind of thing. She was getting anxious as she kept looking in her room, and couldn't find it.

- Well, I will get down and help you, alright? What do yo-

Daniel tried to get out off her shoulder, it was a bit uncomfortable to him because she started to tighten her grip around him, but he immediately discoeverd that was a bad call. He felt her arm around his waist tightening it's grip even more, moving him effortlessly so he would now be facing her. She pressed him against one of her breasts and he could feel it forcing his torax. He remembered they were firm, but now they were pushing against his abs! Of course that sensation helped his erection.

- Be patient Gatinho. I will let you go when I find what I am looking for.

Viviane spoke as if she was really dealing with a pet. Daniel felt small but also very aroused! That side of Viviane was alluring to him in ways that he couldn't comprehend. She was lifting him as if he was weightless, talking to him in a joyful manner, making sure that he understood his position in that relationship, and he couldn't do anything about it.

Viviane was defeated once again by her memory, she couldn't remember where she left whatever she wanted to show to her boytoy. She got both her and Daniel fully undressed, now they could finally play.

- Well, guess we can forget that surprise for now, but don't worry, there is plenty we can do without it! Let's get ready gatinho!

Daniel decided to follow her and do the same, which made him a bit more comfortable, since he wasn't sure about what she wanted to try on him. She sits on her bed and grabs Daniel suddenly by his arm. He was used to these things but it still surprised him. She then brought him much closer to her, between her massive breasts, in a hug.

For most people that would be a dream coming true, Daniel included, but he knew how painful that could be. If that woman lost control for a moment, he would gain some bruises, maybe even fractures, and that wasn't fun.

Issue is, he had no choice, when Viviane started her engines, only her could stop them, so, Daniel tried to enjoy the moment as much as possible, or as long as he could.

Little did he know that Viviane was well aware of those risks and was restraining herself to make sure the past accident don't happen again.

Viviane wanted to show him a very special thing she only showed to people really close to her, literally and figuratively.

Daniel noticed that Viviane made sure he was facing her and she was looking directly at him with a mischievous expression, and that's when she showed her secret, her tongue! It was much longer than any other tongue he had seen before, and since Viviane herself was much bigger than most women, the size became even more shocking. She kept letting her tongue out until it reached his nose, and Daniel was thinking about what would happen when they kissed again, she would surely use that on him, and he wasn't sure if it would be pleasant or not.

The whole experience was so strange and arousing, Daniel was really losing himself on Viviane's body, she felt like a superior being to him at that moment. Everything she did made him feel small, weak, fragile, and it changed his perspective of many things, and that's when Viviane started to lick him.

- Let me taste you, little man.

Viviane was using her tongue to play with Daniel's face, and she purposely got more aggressive here, but only with her tongue. Daniel didn't understand at first and tried to resist just to find out that even her tongue is way too strong! She started to throw his head left and right and he was really using all his neck strength just to resist longer. It was clear to him now that she was finding new ways to show her superiority over him without the risk of harming him.

- Hum, so, so tasty! I think I will just bite you now, would you like that? I know I would. Now, hold tight darling. Viviane decided to change positions a bit, and now she lifts Daniel by the neck with one hand, but he is holding her arms for support. But now Daniel is using this opportunity to feel her body, her arms. They are truly magnificent, they are really strong but still look delicate. He tries to tighten his grip around her forearm, but it's useless, he can barely cause a dent to her skin, and that terrifies him as much as make his desire grow more.

Soon he sees himself sitting on Viviane, his legs over her big shoulders, with her beautiful face between his legs, looking at him, and his butt resting comfortably over her superb breasts, and both seem bigger than his butt! He is holding her whole bust and his weight with only one arm, and she is using the other to give herself some relief. Daniel can hear the sound of Viviane masturbating while she looks at him while she uses her tongue to play with his penis. She looks so full of desire but still caring, it is something Daniel could admire for hours, he thinks to himself. But soon she starts to suck, and suck hard. Daniel was prepared for that, and trained to make sure he would release a load so easily, but facing the power of Viviane's powerful tongue and mouth together wasn't something he could train for, but he wasn't going to give up.

Daniel did his best to hold his shot, and Viviane was really amazed by his tenacity, but she accepted the challenge and made sure he had the best suck in his whole life! Eventually, she tasted his flavor and knew she won again, but he was the best “player” she ever met, and that gave her the certainty that she met the right man!

- Wow gatinho, you really was a hard nut to suck, haha!

Viviane was really enjoying the moment, and she didn't want to waste anymore time with the preliminaries, she wants the main event, and she wants it now.

The hand she was using to please herself was full of musky juicy, Viviane was more than ready to have Daniel satiating her needs, so, she decided to change positions once again without telling her petman, by removing her arm from under her breasts! When her breasts lowered a bit Daniel lost his balance and fell on his back. The man thought he was about to hit the ground hard, Viviane lifted him at least 2m/6ft high, and he couldn't hold onto anything! But just like that, she grabbed him and lifted him as if he was a mere child to her. She hastily lay down on her bed, putting Daniel between her massive tights. He could see that her labia was really moisty, dripping love juice in the bed. That was the moment he was waiting for, to finally consume the act with that magnificent woman, and his too was more than ready! That's when he heard her saying something.

- Lick.

Daniel didn't had a problem doing that, but he didn't really want to do it now, but, soon enough she grabbed his head with her drenched hand, he could smell the unique fragrance from her vagina on it, and then she gripped, strongly, so strong he really felt pain and noticed she was losing herself once again, that meant he was in danger.

The man tried to force his head out of her grip, but it was futile, she just pulled his head onto her parts and forced him to act.

- Lick, pleeeeeease!

I really need it...

And clearly without options, he started and tried to now drown in that woman's syrup!

After some minutes trying to satisfy the insatiable lady holding him as a vibrator, Daniel was really finding it difficult to breathe, but couldn't free himself, and that's when things changed. He felt huge hands grabbing his chest. They could almost circumvent his body, that was not a common person that's for sure, and he was right. In a really fast move his whole body was lifted, removing the grip Viviane had on him by force. That was painful, but what happened next was worse, Daniel was just thrown away to the side of the room as if he was just a ragdoll, and he hit the wall with his back. Lucky for him, he fell in a way he managed to get up fast, and since he was full of adrenaline from the events that were happening in that room just moments before he could stand and process the information fast, and it wasn't looking good.

- What is this worm doing to you, Viviane?

There was, in the middle of the room, a black woman, taller than Viviane, but with a much more lean and muscular body. And she was clearly angry with Daniel for some reason he couldn't grasp. He never saw this woman before! Viviane changed her demeanor completely, usually carefree and happy, Viviane was tense now, and had a stern look to that woman in front of them.

- Jessie! Why are you here? I told you we needed some time!

Said Viviane, that was still laying in her bed but much more tense now.

- You told me to leave you so you could have a vermin like this in our bed? What does he have that I don't?

Jessie was the name of that woman. Daniel could feel that woman was no joke, she was angry, she was strong, she could and would hurt him if she had the chance. He needed to get out of there before things got too heated.

- C'mon Jessie, he is a man! You know what he has that you don't! And his is quite nice!

Those words worked as gasoline in a fire and Jessie went from anger to rage in a fraction of a second! Daniel understood what was about to happen and tried to leave the room, but Jessie was an athlete, a fighter, he couldn't imagine how fast someone her size could move, and before he could understand the situation, his feet weren't touching the ground anymore. That obsidian tower of a woman grabbed him by the neck and started to tight her grip. He was having difficulties to breath again, but this time it was more serious. And it got even worse when she grabbed his penis and scrotum.

- Well I can fix this!

Said Jessie with a terrifying smile on her face.

Viviane stood up in a flash, Daniel was surprised by how fast she could move too, that lady was no joke too. Viviane tried to take Jessie's hand out of Daniel's sensible parts, but Jessie wasn't having it!

- Jessie please, let's talk this out! You know you are my onça! I wouldn't switch you for anyone else! But Daniel...

Viviane tried to plead with Jessie, but she was way too angry for that.

- You know what I think about men!

Jessie was clearly not really worried about the feelings of Viviane. And the Brazilian woman noticed that!

- What do you mean? You know I always liked men and women! That's why we were together for so long, but I made it clear, I would have boyfriends too! And he was the best I ever had!

Viviane was starting to get angry, and she was showing it to Jessie who was in charge in that house. She hold Jessie and kissed with so much energy the woman wasn't sure about what to do, so she released Daniel on the floor. The man lost no time and tried to escape again, but, this time, it was Viviane who grabbed him by the leg and hold him in the air. The man was getting used to that situation but it still felt uncomfortable nonetheless.

- Where do you think you are going? We haven't fucked yet!

Viviane was showing a more savage side, probably because of the whole situation and her unsatisfied thirst, she wouldn't allow anyone to stop her now.

Jessie was more calm now, but she still didn't want to share that space, share Viviane with Daniel.

- Look Viviane, I will let him go OK, but he needs to go! Please! Plead Jessie, with a kind of sad and charming expression.

- C'mon Jessie, I said no! You know I want him here. And now, honestly I want you too!

Viviane was stubborn and she made that clear.

With the ruckus, Viviane had a revelation, she remembered where she left the thing she wanted to try and run out of the room.

Daniel and Jessie were left alone there, something both didn't want whatsoever. But, before the worst could happen, Viviane was back with a bag and a huge smile. Daniel and Jessie were intrigued by that, but only Daniel was worried.

Viviane ran to her bed, she was looking so lively again, as a kid who got the toy she always wanted. But she opened the bag and took out of it a bunch of huge sextoys. At least they looked big to Daniel but just the right size for those big ladies.

- Daniel, please, come here. While Viviane's voice was sweet and charming, Daniel was already too unsure about the whole ordeal, so he denied and started to run out of the room again.

- Jessie, please grab the sacred cat and bring him to me, alright?

Jessie reacted as a predator and grabbed Daniel by the arm so fast and strongly that he almost fell to the ground. It was clear that Jessie was enjoying that chance to deliver even a small amount of punishment to that "little" man in front of her.

- You heard her, vermin. Stay put or I might need to play rough. Jessie was seriously ecstatic with that situation. Viviane showed some ropes, a long and thick double sided dildo, handcuffs and other things, but she focused on the ropes and the dildo.

- OK, this is the idea, gatinho, your dick is amazing but you are just too weak to put the pressure I need.

- I had some ideas about what we could do but now that Jessie is here, I have a plan! I will make you into a strap-on for Jessie to use on me.

Jessie was now taking that well at all

- Wait! You want me to have this fucker strapped on me?! No way!

- If you try it, I will break him in half!

Viviane calmly stood up and touched Jessie's face, caressing the face of the angry woman that soon changed her expression from angry to that of a passionate and aroused young lady. Viviane knew Jessie well enough to know how powerful physical contact is to change her behavior.

- Please Jessie, I know you, I love you and I know this is something you will enjoy, I will be sure of that!

- And that's the same for you Daniel, I know you are afraid because of the last time but that won't happen again, just pleasure and no hospital time, OK?

Viviane grabbed Daniel, lift him and hugged him, having his head between her breasts and he instinctively held onto her, and just like that she embraced Jessie, that looked at Viviane as if she was a young girl with the lover of her dreams.

Viviane gave Jessie a kiss on the lips, but the tall woman wanted more, and she tried to force a french kiss, but Viviane was ready for that.

- Nah nah! You want more, you will play by my rules this time. Now, let's strap this dildo boy into you, ok?

Jessie was not happy with that but she finally understood there was no way around it, and went ahead with the idea.

- Alright, I will do it, but this better be good! And if this smart ass try anything I'll—

- You'll enjoy it Jessie! C'mon, stop with the angry act, if he gets really scared it will ruin it for everyone!

The angry lady was cut short by Viviane, that wanted to make sure Daniel wouldn't freak out and lose his hardness because of the risk of injury. And Viviane knew the risk was real, she wanted to be really careful with Jessie's temper.

Viviane remembers how she almost paralyzed a guy for touching her in the gym, but Viviane wasn't sure if the guy did it on purpose or not, since Jessie does have a horrible image of men in general.

- OK, first, I want you to get naked Jessie, I really want to taste you, and that gym clothing might work to show everyone how fit and hot you are, but I want to taste you whole.

With that, Jessie released her hold on Viviane and started to undress. Viviane decided to put Daniel on her bed and sit beside him to watch the show. Daniel was finally seeing Jessie clearly and she was truly statuesque. Taller than Viviane, but clearly built for sports, she didn't had the same "meat" as Viviane's, but her body was a work of art, it looked as if it was cut from ebony marble by a classic master, firm, dense, well defined. Arms, long and veiny, with hands that clearly punched something hard many times, her bust was almost breastless. She didn't have breast implants like other female athletes, so her pecs were clearly visible, and they looked like real shields. Daniel was sure that punching her there would just hurt anyone's hand.

Her legs were so anatomically perfect he could see muscles there that he never imagined existed. When Jessie turned around, her back the man was reminded of something he heard, a funny term, "Demon Back", for people with very well developed back muscles but now he could finally see one of those in person.

Finally, her butt, it was hard, just like the rest of her body but it was also big. Daniel thought how those muscles would feel, if he could even make a dent on those. But finally, he saw something rather peculiar, the woman's clit was big, bigger than any he had ever seen. It looked well with her super muscular body, but it was truly peculiar and imposing nonetheless.

- Vermin, enjoying what you saw? Wanna suck me?

Viviane was loving all of that, so she stood up and took Daniel to Jessie and forced him to get down, he wanted to kneel but Jessie was just too tall, that's when the woman grabbed him by the head and lifted him to the fright height and he started to lick, doing his best, and he was honestly enjoying it.

Jessie felt good, really good, so good she grabbed his head and forced him against her vagina while she moaned.

Jessie was amazed, that man was making her really feel really good, and she wanted more, but her pride was a tad too powerful to accept it, so she threw him away just before he could make her reach the climax.

- Alright, I'll do it with this vermin. Damn it! So, what now?

Viviane was having so many ideas that she almost didn't hear Jessie shouting, but she got back to her senses when Daniel hit her legs

- Ah, yes, yes. Let 's do it! Daniel, I please lay on the bed, belly down, and Jessie, you do the same over him.

Daniel wasn't sure, but before he could act Jessie grabbed and threw him over the bed, and just like that she laid over him. Daniel wasn't prepared for her weight, that lady was at least three or four times his own and her muscles were so hard that he could feel them really pushing against his body.

Finally, the man felt Viviane's hand grabbing his arms and legs, tying him to Jessie. It was almost painful, but feeling her warmth was really making him hard again. Soon enough, Viviane told Jessie to stand up, and so she did. The fact a whole man was attached to her body wasn't even starting to bother the woman, and so she stood up with Daniel tied to her body, with his arms and legs behind her back, and his penis close to her crotch. He could feel her clit touching him, and that was weird but that's how it will go for now on. Daniel accepted his situation, at least for now.

- Now, how am I supposed to feel anything?

Jessie was a bit annoyed with the idea that she would have to work for those two pleasing themselves. But that's when Viviane showed her again the huge dual sized dildo.

- Now, you see this thing? This is for us Jessie, and it is have some special features, you will roar my big onça!

- You two are making me feel like a princess! Now, let 's begin!
