Behind Closed Doors - August 12, 2000

Good morning, my slave.

How are you today? When I watched you leave this morning, in my favorite dark suit, I couldn't help but think how heavy my desires have been lately. I can think about little else. Every time you satisfy me, submit to me, surrender, suffer, and endure humiliation for me, I feel that I am content - full, happy, satisfied. For good.

Then, the next day, it is back. And stronger. There is little I can do right now to eliminate it or tone it down. It's just - there.

And right now, I am again caught thinking about how I want to use you for my pleasure. The look in your eyes that I need to see so badly right now - I picture you hog-tied in a pair of pink panties and pink bra, with high heels on, and a pretty red ball gag in your mouth. Your lips - still painted with pretty pink lipstick, and you are so good now at not letting it smear when you suck my dick, or wear a ball gag.

Today I want you to do something special for me. Today, I want you to prepare yourself for the ultimate night of humiliation and degradation. To prepare yourself, you need to carry out a few tasks for me, and then call me each time to tell me how it felt when you did it. I will keep my cell phone with me all day as I go out and purchase a few things that I need...a new latex outfit, a new whip, and a new leather strapon harness.

You must go buy a large, large dildo.

I want it to be larger than any of the ones you own. It must have balls, and it must fit into the base of my current leather strapon harness. You need to choose it carefully; you will be sucking it deep tonight, as well as feeling it plunging into your tight little hole.

Then, you need to go buy a new outfit to wear tonight. You must get something to surprise me, to turn me on. It must be very slutty, and I want it to be very tight. My only requirement is that it includes crotchless panties. You also must make sure you wear thigh high stockings and high heels.

After your shopping, you are to return to your office and prepare for me. Prepare by inserting your small butt plug and stripping down into the black panties you are wearing today. Then I want you to spend a long time - an hour, at least, massaging yourself through the panties, imagining that I am there teasing you with my pussy. Teasing you by sliding up and down on your panties, feeling your hardness, stroking your face and telling you sweetly what a whore you are, and how you are going to be serving me in the most humiliating ways.

Calling you nasty names. Like "My hole" and "little bitch" and "cum drinker".

I want you to put on some red lipstick, take out your 7 inch dildo and ream your mouth with it. Suck it deeply, stretch out your jaw and get yourself ready for a long night of humiliation and torture. I want you to practice cocksucking to prove that you can still deep throat a cock without smearing your lipstick at all. You are to bring the dildo home with you tonight to show me how much lipstick you smeared off on it.

Then, be home at 7pm tonight, dressed and ready, with your new dildo. I will have done some shopping myself, and trust me when I tell you that you are in for a very long night with me...

I'll be thinking of you all day...

Adoringly,

Akasha
