Behind Closed Doors - August 7, 2000

Good morning, my slut.

How are you on this gloomy Monday morning? I say gloomy because I am here and you are there - and you know where you should be!

(right here under my desk with your face pressed between my thighs, but that is another story....)

You probably know my mood right now based on our little rendezvous this morning. You do remember, don't you? Being hogtied in panties and bra as I rode your face picking up the morning news on the television and making calls to the office on the phone? Did you like how I managed to ride out an orgasm while talking to my client? Much like what I make you do...with a plug in your ass sometimes!

I couldn't resist sending you to work with a little silver plug in your tight ass and a pair of lavender panties. I enjoyed placing them on the sink while you showered - my subtle way of telling you what to put on. And I swear, I could hear you let out your breath when you emerged from the shower and saw them, with the silver butt plug, sitting there, waiting for you. And it gets me so hot that you put them both on, diligently, then came to me for inspection before putting on your corporate slut clothes.

And it makes me wet to think that you are reading this right now with that cool silver plug up your butt and those sweet lavender thong panties riding up your ass. I bet you have been reminded of me all day long....

I have sent a little care package your way today, my sweet slut. Because I feel frisky, and I want to play, and dammit, you will take time from your day and play with me today. On my terms. (And then, tonight, you will be fucked in the ass in front of a full length mirror, but I won't go into those details....)

To match your sweet lavender thong, I have a nice lavender bra on its way to you. With some breast forms, to work on that figure of yours. You are going to have to put that on for me of course...and then, put on a sweet lavender sun dress I picked out for you. I think it will look just beautiful on you --- and with the breast forms, you will be so shapely...

I also sent you some perfume. The scent - appropriately - lavender! I want you to put it on, and then take a stroll around your office. That's right - just to see if anyone notices how sweet and feminine you smell! I want you to linger by your hot receptionist's work area - I am sure she will pick up on it, and I bet she will look at you and know something is going on....they are going to wonderjust why do you smell like a woman!?

Keep in mind, you must still be wearing the perfume when you come see me tonight. So you can't hide it. I will know.

And finally, in the box I sent you, is a polaroid camera. I want ten photos of you in glamour shots in your office. Both in bra and panties, and then in the sun dress, and some with you wiggling that plug in your ass. I want them messengered back to me by 3pm today. I can't wait to see them!

I know you have limited time, so I will leave you to your "work".

And remember, tonight you are mine. Come home smelling like a sweet little whore, dressed for me under your powersuit, and be ready for a long night on your hands and knees...with your ass up in the air.

Adoringly,

Akasha
