Amber walked out into the woods as Jack walked with a case of beer. He was on the walkie Talkie.
"Where you at buddy.
She stalked him. He had no idea what was coming. She moved like a cat.
"Dammit going to freeze my balls out here."

She ran like a tiger and threw a punch. A Fist slammed into Jack's stomach. He flew in the air and landed hard on the ground as he moaned with pain as she picked him up
"Fuuuuccck" he Said
The wind was knocked out of him. She grabbed him by the legs and swung him into the tree. The tree now had a huge dent in it.
"Fuuucccking Hell!" He cried out

She slammed her foot on his chest and flexed both arms. She stood there naked. Her pussy was dripping with cum. Jack was terrified as the foot was pressing down on his chest hearing the cracks of his ribs. She flexed both arms showing mountains of muscle as the sun was going down over it. He coughs blood.

"Look at me"
"Help. Help"
He cried
"Looking for your friend. He is Dead" she Said
She twisted her foot hearing some more cracks of his ribs. She smiled enjoying the power over him. She smirked as she grinded her foot
"Fuck please STOP!"
"You going to lick my body clean boy" she Said
She parted her pussy lips

She sat on his face grinding him. She closes her legs around him

"Lick. Right there"

She grinded against him licking her messy pussy. he gasped as it got darker around her

"Yes baby...Yesssss"

She was the alpha beast in this forest as she grinded against him.

Jack sucked on her clit that was grinding into him

"That's a good boy"

She held his hands down and crushing them.

She leans her head back and was close to cumming

"Right there. Shiiiiit"

Her sex was animalistic"

She cried out as she soaked Jack's face with a massive climax. She moaned shaking with pleasure. She stood up and stripped off his clothes
"Your mine boy" she Said
She slipped him into her ass and fucked him under the moon light
"Fuck yea...Yessss
Then she wrapped her hands around his neck and choked him
"One last climax. Let's come together"

Blood rushed to his cock as she was choking him to death

His face was turning blue

"That's it almost there" she Said

She screamed out as felt his cock pulsates. He came as she came with an intense climax. He felt multiple climaxes wrecking his body. She squeezed. His body was motionless. She had choked him to death. She stood over his body

"Fucking wimp" she Said

Amber walked into the shower and let the water rain down. She like the water hot and steaming after a good kill. The Blood had crusted and she scrubbed deep. Soon she started to touch herself enjoying the feeling

She could still hear his pleading as she brought herself to climax. She shook with pleasure as she admired her muscles. Very few people knew the joys of having the powers she had. She would not waste. She would kill again. Nothing could stop her.

"Damm that was fun" She Said to herself

She soaped up her body and spent some quality time with herself.

She grabbed the beer that Jack brought and walked toward the car. It still had the keys in it.
"Fucking fool" she Said.

She admires it. It had some nice trunk space. She imagines she could fit some bodies in it. She had money from their wallets. A few hundred dollars. It was a start. It would get her where she needed to go for the next few kill. They were going to be her masterpieces. She knew who was going to be on the list next. She took a swig of beer and hopped into the car. She turn to the stations and heard some death metal

"Must be fate" She Said with a smile
She then drove away.
