

Amy's Conquest 2

Amy Hardstone rushed back to her home after one of the most amazing afternoons of her life, bouncing around like the excited schoolgirl that she was, as she made her way upstairs and into her room. Within seconds of entering her large, spacious private space, she pulled out her coveted picture taking cell-phone, plugged it into her high tech PC that sat on a desk nearby, and began downloading her newest (and easily her most favorite) set of Amazon inspired pictures yet. Downloading them not to simply save on her hard-drive for her own continued viewing pleasure, to look at any and every time she liked, but to a certain and very specific area online that many of today's youth used - and Amy was no exception.

With a wide grin across her youthful and incredibly attractive face, she moved these shots into a folder she quickly called The Best Ever, one of several others of its kind in a larger file called Amy's Amazon Fun, and all of this on her decked out, fully illustrated personal page on OurSpace.com. A place where anybody with a computer could create little homepages about themselves, complete with pictures, descriptions, background history, anything and everything that person may wish to put up (which in the case of such amazingly hot young girls such as Amy, usually consisted of exact physical dimensions such as height, weight and cup-size, something as proud of her body as she was, she didn't mind posting in the least)

Though with such unreal physical statistics as near 17" biceps, 27" thighs, DD-cup breasts, and a full 6 feet in height, it wasn't long after she started her own personal page that people started calling her the very obvious Amazon Amy, and her OurSpace page was literally flooded with male (and even a good amount of female) admirers of young, sexy, hard, female muscle. Which eventually led to her being introduced to a separate, very select and private grouping of young girls (ranging in age from 18 - 23) who like herself were strong, powerful super feminine hardbodies. These sexy young Amazons were always on the look-out for more girls like themselves, and in Amy they found one of the best, so it was a no brainer in giving her an official invite to this very select group. It was in fact her idea to arrange for pictures of their various feats and conquests to be taken and downloaded onto their own pages, showing off not only to one other, but to the very select grouping of lucky male admirers of female muscle all over the world, who simply couldn't get enough of these strikingly beautiful, teenage Amazon girls.

So with a quick cell-phone to computer transfer of her incredibly arousing, super sexy pictures, with her and the Oh So Adorable Mr. Scott, Amy swiftly copied them onto her specified folder with a huge amount of girlish glee, before popping off and making her way out - her official (though personally altered) Candy Striper outfit in hand, as she joyfully skipped her way on downstairs and off to their local hospital, where she had a very special patient, that needed some very special attention, to look in on.

A few hours later she returned home and as always bounced back up into her room. Her specially made outfit showing its signs of self induced rips and tears, as she collapsed on her full, soft bed with an amorous sigh and a fluttering of her eyes. Ahhhhh, how she loved being a strong, powerful young girl, and so did the men in her life, especially one in particular, even if he would be hard pressed to admit it.....even if it was just responsible for adding another few days onto his medically issued recovery time this night.

Yes, Amy relished in her physical superiority, her unequaled good looks, and her girlishly playful attitude. All of these things combined helped make her one of the most unique young women around, though as she was about to find out very shortly, not nearly as One Of A Kind as she may have originally thought.

The following morning Amy bounded out of bed, making an excited dash towards her PC to punch up her very own OurSpace page to see if anyone had taken a look at her recently taken photos of yesterdays rousing rampage with herself and Mr. Scott, cursing herself in an "Oh Poo" tone for not thinking of taking any additional pictures during their later nights session. With a few clicks of her commonly used keyboard, which like her entire computer was specially made in Pink, she made it to her desired online location, clicked on Replies to her latest personalized picture folder, and gave off a wide smile and some girlish giggles of excitement at what she saw inside.

Over 50 Replies (a Huge amount, considering these shots have only been up for half a day) from fans of hers, lovers of young, female muscle girls, and fellow youthful Amazons themselves, all rating and raving about her latest series of photos, and from most all of the female repliers, her absolutely adorable male "volunteer". Replies like "Mmmmm.....his chest is smaller than my thighs, I'd love to scissor him in half!" and "He's so adorable - I'd squeeze his head and dick until they both pop!" from her Sisters In Muscle were littered around these perfectly taken muscle shots. The lucky men honored enough to see such unreal shots were hardly ones to be outdone in this case, as posts like "My God....you're unreal.....you're a Goddess. Marry me?" to "You are the most beautiful girl on Earth, with the muscles to match" to even a few of the more forward like "I'd love to take my cock and have you Pec Fuck me To Death!" helped fill up her personalized internet page, and made her one of the most sought after teenage musclegirls on this mostly private website, with little doubt.

So sought after was Amy, that her Private Message box was nearly overflowing with further responses, all of them giving her unreal praise for her newest selection of Amazon girl inspired pictures, while many of them begging and pleading for her to continue on with her unreal photo gallery, most of them praying they could be closer to where she lived so that they could either join in on the fun (for the girls) or have this amazing 18 year old supergirl do that to them (for the boys). One such email did attract more attention from her than any other, as it was from a fellow Amazonian schoolgirl, who unlike all of her other inter-sexual admirers, lived only 15 minutes drive from her home.

Her name was Jessica Armstrong, and if the pictures she had sent along with her initial PM were truthful to what in fact she looked like (and they were), Amy felt like she was looking at her spitting image (with the exception of Jessica's long black hair to Amy's flowing blond locks). A long time athlete in everything from gymnastics, basketball, softball and track, Jessica's more than impressive muscular size and shape was only matched by her extremely youthful good looks and her 6 foot tall physique. In addition to their similarities, both of these teenage supergirls shared a true passion, dominating, controlling and in the end raping men (preferably older, though physically smaller, males).

As such, Amy instantly felt a huge connection with Jessica, and was thrilled to have her living so close. As such, a meeting between these two gorgeous teenage Amazons was without a doubt, and in the few weeks that followed these two young powerhouses made OurSpace history with their assortment of newly posted pictures, photos of them individually or the two together posing in tight sexy outfits (their favorite was dressing as young, under-age schoolgirls), or with special "invited" male guests (sometimes 3 or 4 at a time). But the one guest they would talk about the most, especially Jessica as she herself was dying for a taste, was of Robert Scott. The cute as Hell, little schoolteacher that Amy so brutally, yet too sexually, handled in her now historic Detention Session. So brutally in fact that time was needed to heal the wounds on his poor, frail body before any more visits to him could be made.....though as the old saying goes, time flies when you're having fun, and these two super hot hardbodies were having the times of their young lives.

As such, it wasn't long before they were finalizing their plans regarding this adorable little man, packing up their own girlish suitcases, and making their way out for a weekend of Sexy Flexing Fun - which would surely blow their previous set of sexily taken, erotically posed, super muscle packed, downloadable pictures completely out of the water.

Knock, Knock, Knock!, came a series of forceful wrappings on the front door of Mr. Robert Scotts home, causing him to give a slight grunt of effort as he raised up from his chair, prying himself away from his favorite Friday night TV line-up, to see who could be paying him a visit at this time of the day - or any time of the day, as he was hardly what one could call overly social, especially since his return home a little over a week ago from a nearly month long hospital stay.

Just thinking about that bizarre instance that put him "in traction" sent shivers of down his spine, which contained feelings of both unreal dread, helplessness and pain, as well as incredible lust, arousal and passion. How could such conflicting emotions all be caused from the same event, the same situation, the same person, he wondered to himself, as he made his way closer to the continued knocking of his main doorway? Yet, such feelings and their source were undeniable, as even the briefest memory of that truly awesome young girl, and the many utterly devastating, yet pleasingly sexual, things she could do with her body caused him to feel like a grown man simply shouldn't about an 18 year old girl. (Something his currently expanding erection could more than attest to)

No, he had to push these thoughts and emotions away, he had to focus on the here and now, as it had been sometime since he had laid eyes on (or even heard from) that young powerhouse beauty, and as it was coming to the end of her Senior Year in High School, to which Mr. Scott was medically excused until the beginning of the next school semester, he would doubt if he would ever lay his eyes on her again.....a thought he immediately discarded the very second he opened his front door, and saw what was standing on the other end, or more specifically, Who.

"Hiya teach, did ya miss me?" a statuesque muscularly curved blond teenager spoke out with a teasing smile, with what appeared to be a nearly identical twin of her standing just as powerfully to her side, as they both brushed right by him and entered his home without even a hint of an invite. "Hope you don't mind if we crash here for the weekend, Cutie.....not that it'll matter of course if you do. Hee hee hee" with girls giggled out, as they placed their fully stocked suitcases down on the floor in his entryway, staring his T-shirt and sweatpants wearing form up and down as if he was a piece of meat.

"Mmmmmm, he's so cute....and tiny.....God he's even better in person than he was in your pictures" Jessica sensuously cooed out to her fellow Amazon girl, her muscle packed form clearly aroused, which one could tell not only from the tone of her voice, but from her fully erect nipples, the erotically charged licking of her lips, and the soft fluttering of her light blue eyes.

"Oh Yessss, and you haven't even seen the best part of him yet, isn't that right, Mr. Scott?" Amy sexily made out, as she used her body to maneuver the much smaller and completely shocked man back into his living room, as her partner in muscle made her way towards the main entrance, locking the doors hard wooden frame tight in several places. Amy's own feelings and displays of arousal and lust just as evident as that of her fellow musclegirls, a look Mr. Scott was more than familiar with, a look that he still saw routinely in his dreams/nightmares.

"I so can't wait to have our fun with him, Baby. Can we start now, I don't know how much longer I can hold off" the dark haired Amazon cooed out, returning to rejoin the party, moving her hands up and down her voluptuously shaped hardbody, gyrating her hips back and forth with her fingers dancing across her mountainous breasts, as she did so.

"Mmmmmm, soon Sweetie, real soon, but first, I think its time we show our adorable little man here just what he's in store for" Amy softly breathed out, as she gently (though firmly) pushed Robert onto his couch, then taking a few steps back to regroup with her equally sized, strong, shapely and sexy, supergirl.

"What the Hell do you think you're doing!?! This time you have gone too far Ms. Hardstone, you get out of my house.....right.....now.....or.....Ill.....?" the bewildered man could hardly finish speaking, as he was in the process of viewing what was probably one of the Top 5 Most Sexual sights he could ever, possibly, imagine.

POP! SNAP! RIP! SPLIT! TEAR!, came the sounds from these two gorgeous Amazons, as they began to flex and harden their already thick and meaty frames, causing their wealth of teenage girl muscle to grow and expand, shredding their once form fitting outfits to bits, turning their once stylish and fashionable clothing to little more than a pile of rags. Doing so in the most sensual, erotic, lust inducing way possible.

Jessica's lusciously stacked physique was covered in a body hugging blouse (which did wonders for showing off her massive, DD-cup pecs), and blue denim, skin tight jeans. Saying that she WAS covered as such was true to form, as it was only a matter of seconds before her perfectly posing, erotically moving, muscularly pumping young form flared out to an incredible degree, causing her ultra muscular body to come bursting out from under her outfit, as if she was some sexy, hot teenage She-Hulk.

Not to be outdone by her newest, and soon to be life-long, friend, Amy too went into a series of bodybuilding flexes, that coupled with her amazing level of sensual gyrations and erotic movements, would have been more than enough to turn any man into an Muscle Girl loving Schmoe in a heart beat. Her pink T-Shirt and tight pair of jean shorts began its own display of being torn apart by this beautiful young girl's more than impressive musculature, which was becoming even more visible with each and every Flex.

"Shhhhhh, you just relax and take it easy, Mr. Scott.....you're gonna need every ounce of your energy for what we have planned for you" Amy sexily made out, with a wide, in-control, smile as she hit an extremely muscle packed Double Biceps Shot. "I'd like for you to meet Jessica Armstrong, a new but very good friend of mine, someone I've gotten very close to over these past several weeks.....and someone I'm sure you're going to be getting just as close to during our weekend together" she concluded, causing both of these young girls to giggled out in unison, while Jessica placed her beefy arms behind her head, arched her back slightly, and showed off her utterly amazing 6-Pack stomach.

In less than a minute both girls had fully Flex Stripped out of their clothes, which was concluded with a final kicking off of their assorted footwear, and were standing before their completely in awe (not to mention incredibly aroused) man in nothing but tight, revealing thong bikinis (which since they both ended their incredibly arousing performance with their backs to him, hitting a truly unreal set of Lat Spreads each, showed off their wide muscular backs and thick round glutes, each the size, shape and hardness of bowling balls).

As they turned back around to face the object of their own desire, Robert Scott could easily see just how aroused these two young musclegirls in fact were, as their bikini bottoms were both covered in a soft, sexually smelling, layer of moistness that was only more evident with Amy and Jessica's touches of their own throbbing private areas, the sounds of squishing of their sexual juices and erotic moans now filling up this room.

"Mmmmmm, I can't hold out.....Mmmmuch longer Baby.....that cock, so big.....I gotta have it....." Jessica cooed out to her fellow Amazon, her eyes mostly closed, her mouth giving soft, sensual bites to her full, lower lip. The cock she was commenting on was of course Robert Scotts unreal sized erection, clearly obvious to them all as it pushed its way up through the loose fitting pair of sweats he wore, growing to truly amazingly levels during this super sexy dance of the Amazon girls before him.

"Ooooooh yeah Sweetie.....its time Baby, its time....." Amy replied in kind, as they both made their way towards the small, frail looking schoolteacher before them, picking up his 155 pound form with ease, making their way through his own physical resistances as if they weren't even there. As easily as one would pick up a pillow, Amy and Jessica held this mans vastly inferior body nearly a foot off the ground, snuggled in between their curvaceously thick and muscle packed forms, as the both cooed out the same words to him, before closing their arms around one another and entrapping him even further inside their Prison Of Muscle - "Nighty Nights"

Then, as if he was being crushed to death by a pair of boa constrictors, Mr. Scott felt his body compress to an unreal degree, causing his bones to creak, his breath to leave him, and his mind to become woozy and weak. It was only the sounds of these teenage girls erotically groaning and arousingly moaning into his ears that kept him awake as long as he was - that and the feeling of their alternatingly placed thighs expertly rubbing up against his thickly growing, rock hard erection. Though as alive and well as his cock clearly was, every other part of his body was becoming that much weaker, which was exactly their plan from the get go. So within another few seconds, the hardest, sexiest and most aroused female upper bodies that he could possibly imagine squeezed in on him with mercilessly performed Muscle Cuddles, and the object of their weekends-long pleasure was crushed into unconsciousness, without a single thing he could do to stop it.

One Week Later.....

High School and College aged musclegirls, super athletes, buff chicks, fit supergals and all around youthful Amazons all gathered together on their favorite OurSpace group (along with a select few of their most prize male admirers) to view the latest, and previously advertised within this private community by Amy and Jessica as The Best Ever, series of recently downloaded Amazon Fun photos. What they saw simply blew them all away, with pictures that not only meet the hype this duo of young musclegirls created but exceeded them as well. A set of 10 online gallery shots (the girls favorite 10 picks of the many more than were taken) that made every man (and most of the women) viewing them do so with a single hand busy elsewhere, all of them wishing they could have been a part of such unreal pictures, in one way or the other.

Yes, Amy and Jessica's much promised and highly publicized gallery not only provided fans of Female Muscle everyone with a series of sexually charged, erotically posed, lustfully hit, powerfully flexed pictures, but they all included the adorable (and growingly famous in the Amazon community) Mr. Robert Scott, who was being used and abused in every way imaginable. Interested in "seeing" them for yourselves, well just look down below, keep a single hand free, and Enjoy!

Photo 1 - The stunningly beautiful, and very statuesque, Amy is standing in the middle of a well kept living room, displaying her unreal physique in her favorite little schoolgirl outfit, which as with most of her clothes she had forcibly altered (aka flexed through its material) for even sexier results. A black and red pleated skirt that was so short, even standing straight up as she was, you could see the bottom half of her perfectly rounded, silky smooth, thick as a rock melon glutes, which were currently covered in a body hugging, stretched to its limits, pair of little girl panties (complete with assorted teddy bears all over its now tissue paper thin material). Her thick, rippling hard legs were completely exposed, with just her feet being covered in a small pair of school-issued black shoes, with frilly white socks sticking out from around them.

Her upper body was covered (though barely) in a tight fitting white blouse, which was ripped apart at its sleeves (due to her massively muscle packed arms), rolled up to the bottom of her unreal sized chest and tied in a knot (showing off her rigidly hard stomach), and nearly completely unbuttoned to display her world class, nearly spilling out cleavage. Her model-esque face was flawless, though to match the mood of this photo, was dolled up to look even younger than her still teenage 18 years of age. Her long, flowing locks now braided tight into 2 girlish ponytails, one hanging down the side of her face, the other being played with by a single finger, twisted and twirled around like a young schoolgirl would do. Though that hair-tossing finger was attached to an arm that was fully flexed into a bulging, near 17" bicep that looked as amazingly hard and thick as it was tight and toned. Her "free" hand was holding a giant, multicolored, lollipop, which only added to the little girl look of this picture, while further showing off how incredibly muscular her arms were, even at rest.

Though while her athletically tight, sexually posed and super muscular body were more than enough to captivate anyone viewing this picture, it was what was trapped snugly inside it, namely her thick, rippling hard thighs, that really made this shot Work. It was the much smaller form of Mr. Scott, who was being held completely off the floor (facing up towards this Amazonian Schoolgirl before him) his body locked tight and in full control between Amy's 27" of pure power and steel. How painful such a hold would have been could only have been imagined by the viewer, as the poor mans face, like the rest of his body (most of it anyway), was completely limp and unconscious, showing no signs of life or movement, other than the wagging and clearly exposed tongue from his wide open mouth. Upon looking just a little closer at this picture perfect image of musclegirl superiority, one might think pain may not have been the only feeling coursing through Robert Scott while in this hold, as his body had been stripped completely naked, his huge, fully erect cock sucked into her tight, visibly wet pussy, done so due to Amy's previously slight lowering of her classic little girl underwear for "easy access".

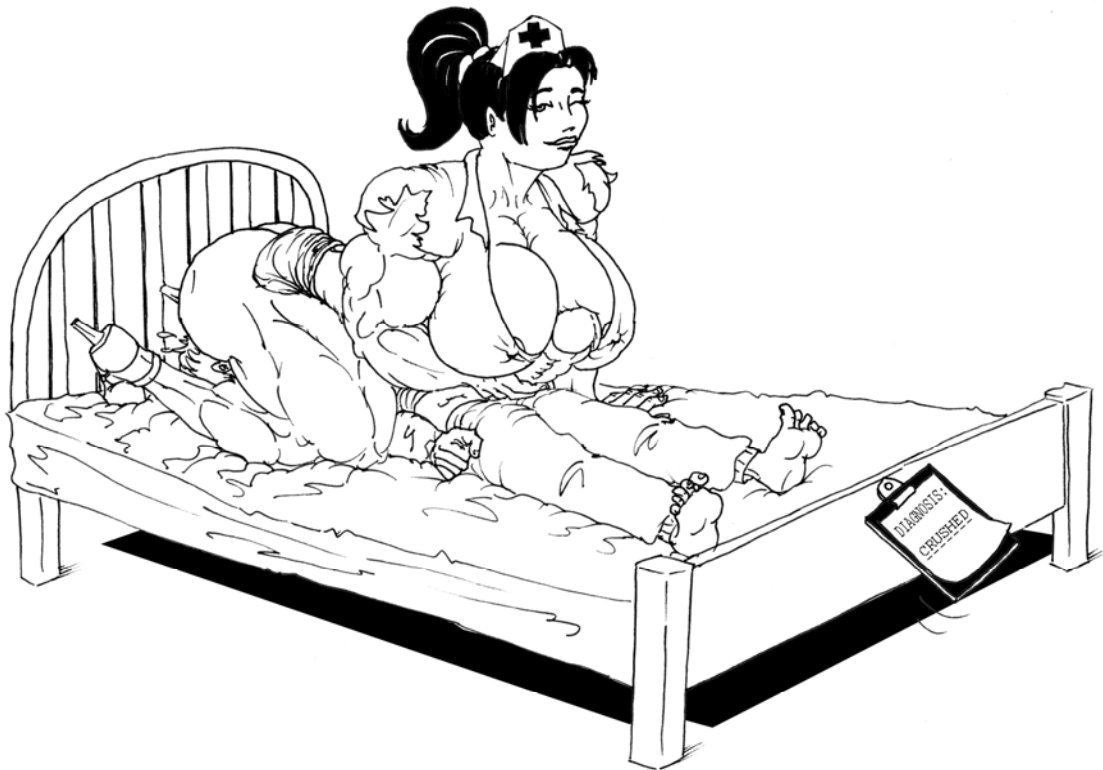

The full photo showing off not only how amazingly sexy and hot this young powerhouse beauty was, how strong and muscular her nearly completely exposed physique was looking, but more importantly the total control and dominance it displayed of a young girl to an older, though vastly weaker, male beneath her. Crushed into unconsciousness between her legs, which were holding his entire body off the floor with ease, while she was fucking him senseless with her vaginal muscles alone; doing so with a flex of her arms, while enjoying a much loved lollipop. Her gorgeous young face was purposely posed with a look of mock surprise and shock, with her glowing green eyes wide with awe and her full luscious lips cooed in a "surprising" O-shape, with the words "Oops, I Did It Again" digitally displayed on the bottom of this beautifully taken photograph (an homage to her favorite all time musician) - A true Amazon Classic, if there ever was one.

Photo 2 - This shot stars the equally Amazonian Jessica Armstrong, dressed in yet another sexy as Hell outfit (brought specifically by each girl in their suitcases as they entered this house), the always classic and never worn out Naughty Nurses uniform. Of course even the standard sexy role-playing outfits bought at the most erotic of locales would still need to be altered for girls of such impressive size and shape, this one being no exception. With a few full body flexings after her initial wearing of this outfit, sexy rips and tears were made (almost unintentionally) going down each side of her already minuscule mini-skirt, the buttons of her upper attire completely removed and an even additional tear coming down further for even more cleavage displayed (something that was done through this teenage musclegirls own pec flexes), a little white hat, colored to match the rest of her pristine nurses garb, and high heeled pumped that looked like they would have easily added another few inches to her already 6 feet in height.....something that would have been clearly shown, IF she was standing in this photo.

No, Jessica's voluptuously muscle packed form was laying on a large, full bed (Mr. Scotts no doubt), which was covered in white sheets and made up to look like one straight from their local hospital (a look Amy would have been more than familiar with herself). Of course such a shot wouldn't have been complete without their favorite, and oh so erotic, prop of Mr. Scott, whose weak and weedy looking form was laying flat on this bed, stripped bare yet again from his formerly wearing clothing, with the gorgeously young supergirl painfully straddling his body. His head inside her visibly wet and moist pussy, her already tampered with mini-skirt pulled up high to expose her perfectly shaped, unreal rounded muscle butt, his cock still as thick and as strong as ever in fully view, it being expertly played with by this sexually pumped Amazons hands and teasing fingers.

While this being a single shot, completely devoid of any actual motion, anyone seeing this photo for the first few times would have disbelieved that were so, as the several areas of motion blurriness around this incredibly sexy photo were more than enough to let anyone see that her humping of this much smaller mans head underneath her was anything but soft, loving and gentle. No, while Jessica was more than capable of getting herself off with such tactics, it was the hard, powerfully thrusting Muscle Fucks that really got her juices flowing (why else would a girl build her body full of muscle of she wasn't going to use it as such?), and this day was no exception. If Robert Scotts face was exposed at all, instead of being covered by this nasty nurse's unreal sized glutes, it would surely be one of extreme pain, with just a few hints and teases of sexual pleasure mixed within.

Though while her partners face may have been totally covered from view, her beautiful, black mane framed, face was surely not, as it showed off a look of lust and arousal that surely couldn't be faked, supporting the case even more (as if there were ever any doubts) that this was truly a shot of reality, and not some purposely posed single frame of erotic fakery. Her head cutely topped with a little white nurse's cap (complete with red cross symbol in its middle), the dark flowing bangs of her hair coming softly down her face, nearly covering one eye entirely, her other eye was posed with a sexy little wink, while her ruby red lips were giving off a soft cooing of unreal arousal. A final little bit of decoration to this Hospital Stay From Hell/Heaven photo (something that was more than familiar to Roberts himself), to anyone who could pry their eyes away from the main part of this shot, was a little Doctors Chart at the end of this medically made out bed, with just a single words instruction (written out in a cute and girlish pink color) regarding their newest patient this day - "CRUSH!"

Photo 3 - Amy's next photo was one of the most creative of the entire lot, and one she had been dying to try out ever since she had seen this outfit online - though she was more than sure none of the models that wore this on various erotic websites had done so, or were capable of doing so, as she was doing here and now. A full bodied, black spandex catsuit, whose elastic form hugged her lusciously packed, ultra curvaceous, frame like a second skin. Every ounce of shape, every hint of a curve, every voluptuously stacked inch of this blond bombshells incredible physique was covered from her ankles (below which she was wearing a pair of mid length, high heeled black boots) all of the way up to her neck (showing off a beautifully proud face, which displayed an equally confident and sexy smile). Though always one to put a spin on even the sexiest of outfits, she was wearing this hot and sexy body hugging material in a way she was sure no one had ever intended, and only the sexiest of female hardbodies could possibly achieve.....though first, she needed the assistance of a very good "friend".

Yes, as always, Mr. Scott was "ready, willing and able" to help out, and this picture was no exception. As impossibly as it sounds, even considering his small, thin and frail looking form, Amy had managed to stuff his entire body inside her skin tight catsuit along with her own powerfully thick frame. His naked form facing hers, zipping it all up high and tight, locking these two in a seal of nearly unbreakable spandex, forcing their two bodies to become One.

They were facing one another, skin to skin, body to body, for a very important reason, something his own hard and fully throbbing erection was a huge part of. His dick was encased deep inside her hot, wet pussy, and while that was the only part of her body that could actually touch and play with his own, her unreal muscle control (even in her most sensitive of areas) allowed her to manipulate, massage and even mangle his once hard and mighty shaft in any ways she desired. His face, as had been routine for their erotically shot pictures thus far, was completely covered from view. Not just due to the largest and hardest set of tits he had ever encountered, which were engulfing his entire head at this point, but also within her full body covering uniform, which with the exception of a few unnatural bulges and bumps across this mighty young girls perfectly shaped form, was utterly and totally hidden.

His screams of panic and pain, though while not visible in such a still image, was surely implied as such, which caused the gorgeous young musclegirl to coo out with looks of Ooohs and Aaaahs across her face; as she used a single outstretched hand holding her victims butt, while she proceeded to push and dig his unreal sized cock deeper and deeper inside her. Her all encompassing vagina taking it all in, its muscles sucking and drinking on it like a child's lips on a straw, and soon it would be downing every ounce of sexually exploded juices from its entrapped erection - which had actually taken place just a few seconds after this picture was taken, leaving her moaning and groaning with sensual pleasures, and Mr. Scotts fully engulfed form as always, exhausted, crying and on the verge of unconsciousness.

Photo 4 - Jessica again proudly displays her incredibly shapely and muscular female form to its limits, doing so this time wearing nothing at all, her amazingly fit teenage body exposed for all to see. In a more artistic shot than any of the others, the dark haired Amazon laid sexily on the floor, lying on her back and vertically away from the camera, her beautiful face being the closest, while the tips of her sexy feet were at the far end.

Her dark hair is purposely posed and positioned around the surrounding whiteness that was the floor (a bright white colored bed-sheet laid out over the area to give this effect, the brightness around her making her tanned body and black flowing mane stand out even more) Another stark contrast to her usual steel hard, rock solid physique and ultra dominating demeanor was the position she was now in, which was of a more unflexed frame and an almost gentle, soft, voluptuously shaped form.....almost.

Her body was still obviously very powerful and muscle packed, though not hardened to its fullest in this photo, giving the appearance of a more shapely off-season bodybuilder over a ripped contest ready muscle poser (something she could have rectified with a minute or two of hard, powerful poses). Yes, there was no mistaking the amount of muscular strength this young beauty held, especially looking at her now and seeing just what else she was holding within her super strong frame.

Snugly fitting tight into her lusciously hard form was of course the adorable, though looking more than a bit worse for wear, Mr. Scott. One time schoolteacher turned Teenage Amazon Playtoy, his body was just too much (or was that, too little) for any such woman to resist, which wasn't helped with him having a face that was as attractive and cute as could be. His body was lying completely on top of Jessica's, who was so much bigger and wider than he was it was as if she was a large, full bed for him to sleep on - though sleep was one thing he wasn't about to enter into lightly, as this amazingly built musclegirl was in the process of giving her man a very crushing cuddle (amongst other things), wrapping her thick thighs and beefy biceps into him from all sides, utterly trapping him into place and holding him completely immobile.

While such a position with such a gorgeous young woman might seem like Heaven to those not completely experienced with Muscle Girl Love, as she looked almost as if she was giving a loving embrace with her man, allowing him to rest softly within her all encompassing form. Though in looking a bit closer, one could see that her hard muscles and obviously squeezing constrictions could have snapped his body in two, if she so wished. Another indication of this less than comfortable locale was Mr. Scotts hands, which were all over this teenagers massive 17" arms, doing their best to claw his way free, though failing miserably at his pitiful attempts, with this beautiful super athlete looking like she wasn't even trying to hold him in place.....something she did with not only her arms and legs.

That's right, as always this small, helpless mans thick, unreal sized cock was lodged deep within this muscle packed girls vagina, its moist inner muscles in the process of flexing and kneading and crushing it to fulfill her own unending sexual desires. In addition, his head was resting within its usual position, firmly snug and deep within Jessica's more than ample cleavage, surrounded by a pair of thick, hard breasts that could crack his skull with a few well executed flexes. Though doing so would have ended not only his life, but her own fun, so she simply held him trapped within her embrace, her pussy fucking his cock all on its own, while her body wrapped around his, holding him inside her cocoon of unbreakable female muscle.

Her flawless face was at the forefront of this photo, which helped to show off just how easy it was for her to hold this man helpless within her grasp, as its unreal beauty and perfectly sculpted features displayed no signs of effort in doing so at all. It was as if Robert were simply sleeping on her much larger form, over struggling with all of his might to break free, as her body held him still with unreal ease. She simply looked up into the camera, giving off a sexy smile with her beautifully shaped lips, hitting a playful little wink with her piercing blue eyes, as she continued to envelope her mans body (in every way imaginable) deep inside her thick, voluptuous, completely naked and exposed, hardbody. Producing a finished shot that was artistic enough to compete in Americas Next Top Model, with a physique that was muscular enough to win Americas Next Top Amazon.

Photo 5 - Amy's next shot was a bit different, in that it was an outdoors picture, modeled after one of her favorite fund raising activities. Knowing full well they had all weekend to execute their plans and create set ups for their perfectly shot musclegirl photos, she wanted to be as creative as possible with them, and that meant using outside props and environments as much as indoor ones. The one she used for this incredibly sexy image was in fact a car, Robert Scotts own car, which had been pushed into the concealment of his backyard, hidden away from any prying eyes or uninvited glares. The activity she based this particular shot on was of a Bikini Car Wash (something she herself had participated in more than a few in her teenage years, achieving record breaking dollar amounts each and every time), as the large automobile was covered in a stream of soft, soapy water, sending suds bubbles and trickles of water dripping all around it. An amateurishly made cardboard sign just a few feet away loudly labeled, "Middlevale Fundraiser Car Wash - $5 For A Wash (And Other Things)" only added to this scenes pretend authenticity.

In the middle of it all was of course our favorite busty blond bombshell, who was rubbing down this cars metal exterior in her own unique fashion, doing so totally nude, exposing every inch of her unreal physical form and its sexily shaped, erotically sculpted, female muscularity. Her body was huge and rippling with muscles, all of it silky smooth, all of it glistened with a thin layer of wetness, all of it strong enough to snap a man in two without even trying. Speaking of which, right in front of her, his form being smushed between the steel hardness of his car and the rock solid physique of this teenage Amazon Queen before him, was Robert Scott - yet again at the ready to assist in his girls latest series of Musclegirl Photo, yet again being raped and abused by this pair of extremely muscle packed young girls. Amy's beautiful face was smiling as always, relishing in her total control and physical mastery of this man before her, as sexy little pigtails held her golden locks tight and in a very girlish style. Her look onto the hapless man before her was of utter lust and arousal, as she used her body to maneuver his form into any position she desired, which it seemed was always his constantly expanding erection deep inside her moist, hot pussy.

Her normally full and luscious ass was now tight and steel hard, flexed to perfection as she was in the process of ramming her amazingly powerful body into the little male victim before her. Crushing him against his own soap covered car, while shoving his fully erect cock deeper and deeper into her always eager love-hole. Her calves bulging and hardening like perfectly cut diamonds, as she hit calve raise after calve raise to further add to her sexually charged gyrations, which was more than enough to lift Robert Scotts body high off the ground; his weak and tiny frame being used for Amy's erotic pleasures, and nothing else. A single feminine hand, attached to an arm that was strong enough to bend steel, was cupping his clearly exposed and visible balls (with most every inch of his monstrous dick inside this teenage supergirls vagina), as she moved them around and around, adding further to his discomfort.....and to his arousal. Her other arm was held away from the rest of the action, flexing its steel hardness to an unreal degree, as its hand held out a single $5 bill. Just what can such an amount buy you at this Amazonian Bikini Car Wash.....judging from this young girls treatment of this male before her, her thick and shapely muscular body, and her sexy as Hell wink and girlish smile - your wildest dreams and deepest nightmares come true.

Photo 6 - This next photo was made as an homage to Jessica's favorite film, V For Vendetta, more specifically the scene were its young, female star was trying to tempt a lecherous priest into doing something that was Wrong in every sense of the word. In the movie, this perverted Man Of The Cloth took to this young girls sexy looks and infantile outfit like a moth to the flame, getting himself so hot and bothered by her extremely youthful appearance that he wound up chasing her around the room with erotically charged enthusiasm; with the frightened female running away as if her life depended on it. Though as anyone who has seen even just a glimpse of Jessica and her thickly muscled, statuesquely molded, lusciously built physique, the words "running away" was simply not in her vocabulary - such was the reason for this particular shot, done in this particular fashion.

It was now her turn to get into the little girl uniform she brought along with her, where as Amy's earlier shot was of a sexy teenage schoolgirl, Jessica's look was of an even a more youthful appearance, complete with a very short pink and white frilly skirt, high pulled knee length white socks, little black shoes and a body hugging pink blouse that made this outfit look like it was for a girl barely 10 years of age, let alone this nearly past her teen years, lusciously stacked Amazon. Her already extremely young looking face only added to this overall look, especially with its large, rosy red cheeks (extra make-up used to help ensure this look hit its mark Perfectly), and long dark haired ponytails cascading down each side of her face, ending with soft pink bows to make this little girl look complete.

Though unlike Natalie's portrayal in this muscularly sculpted Amazons favorite film, this extremely well put together Girlie Girl was anything but scared, and if there was any running to be done in this scene, it would surely have been done by her accomplice.....if she let him do so anyway. Robert Smith, always there to lend a helping hand (whether he wanted to or not) was joining Jessica in this pictures center, adding to this movie-inspired shot dressed in a priests outfit, which was placed on him by fellow teenage supergirl Amy during his latest knocking out by her muscularly ample frame. As intended all along, it was a role reversal in classic style, with the terrified man laying on his full, soft bed, his black clergyman's robes pulled up high around his waist, his iconically religious white collar still visible to add to his desired look.

The reason his robe was placed so high on his beaten and battered form was to allow his little girl rapist access to his fully erect, hard as stone, world class cock. Yes, Jessica was always in the mood for a good Forced Fuck; especially with this man, his little body, his adorable face, it was just too much to resist. Playing the part of a lecherous encounter gone wrong, she had straddled this older mans much weaker form with untold ease, riding his body like a cowboy would ride a wild stallion. Though if anything, it was this beautiful young musclegirl that was unbridled and untameable, and the man being ridden who was simply crying out for release, both from the incredible pain she was causing him as well as from the massive amount of sexual lust this near bone-crushing action was creating inside him. Mr. Scotts face in this picture was so intense, that even as still and silent as it was, you could almost hear him screaming out from this sexually charged performance.

Jessica's face on the other hand, was of complete control, of total dominance, of incredible lust and amazing arousal. Her eyes were closed and fluttering with unreal sexual excitement, just as her tongue was sticking out of her erotically smiling mouth, licking and teasing the surrounding area of her full, thick rosy red lips. While her face was showing off the extreme level of pleasure and delights that were coursing through her unstoppable body, it was her musclepacked, bulgingly voluptuous form that was displaying the aura of Power and Strength. Her sexily curvaceous frame was pumped and powerful, threatening to rip the skin tight upper part of her outfit to pieces any second, while she pushed down on her helpless victim's body underneath her. Shoving him more and more into the soft bed with her rock hard grip and steel hard body. Again, her movements were so wild and furious that even though this was a still, unmoving image, the appearance of several blur lines of motion here and there left the viewer with little doubt of the savagery in which this 18 year old female powerhouse was sexually using and abusing her newest, and greatest, of sex-toys.

Photo 7 - There are fewer things sexier in this world than the vision of a truly beautiful woman with a perfectly sculpted body, wearing form fitting lacy lingerie, using her ultra feminine physique to arouse and entice, while using her expertly placed fingers for giving out unreal erotic pleasures. 18 year old Amy felt the same exact way, and decided her next picture would encompass this, adding in a little role-playing twist, to make this latest picture even more fun. She was standing in the middle of this houses main bedroom (soft layers of frilly whiteness covering the full, soft bed in the distance), dressed in an outfit that was a wedding night grooms ultimate dream come true. Her lusciously shaped form was covered in a soft lacy white bra and panties combo, with matching colored stockings that when up and over her thick upper thighs (barely), coupled with high heeled pumps to further enhance her already impressive height. To complete the look of this body hugging outfit, getting Amy completely into character as the blushing, pure and virginal bride, was a soft flowing veil worn to top it all off; it cascading down the back of her head, mixing perfectly with her own golden mane, both of them framing her gorgeous young face to utter perfection.

Though what kind of a wedding night photo would this be without a love-struck mate to share it all with, and once one could pry their eyes away from this teenage girls unreal Amazonian physique, pushing and stretching this sexily worn outfit to its limits (and in some cases beyond, as was shown by several rips and tears in her paper-thin stockings), and looked upwards in this photo, the lucky groom simply could not be missed. Being held high in the air, draped helplessly across this young musclegirls massive back and wide shoulders, was her Prince Charming, the man she said she would spend the rest of her life with (in which case this photo could truly be a picture of things to come), Mr. Robert Scott. His exposed and totally naked form (with the exception of a white suit collar and long black neck-tie adorning his neck, as every good groom should have), was in the process of being savagely bent over Amy's powerful back; with her tight, muscular arms wrapped around his body, pulling him downward, as she flexed her own ultra thick upper body to its limits. Her lats stuck out like rock solid wings on either side of her voluptuously shaped hardbody, as the rest of her frame gave off the appearance of molded steel, and femininely sculpted marble. The young girls physique was nearly bursting free from her bridal inspired, wedding night attire, something she could have done if she wished, though didn't want to ruin this outfit completely before the sexily posed for picture was taken.....a pose that was made only the more Sexy by the action she was taken to her newly acquired groom.

While one of her sexily placed, steel tight, hands was wrapped snugly around Robert Scotts neck, slowly bending him down against her rippling muscle packed form, her other hand was doing the same to his lower body, though in addition it was also responsible with a second, very important, task.....one which was being performed masterfully, and with very obvious results. Just as the nearly spine-snapping pressure on his back against her rock hard muscular form were sending wave after wave of agony shooting all around him, her teasing fingers and softly massaging touches were doing the exact opposite to his clearly erect and massively meaty dick. Nothing pleased Amy more than showing off just what her unreal body was capable of, especially in the arena of sexual delights and arousing pleasures, especially when she did so her way, which consisted of equal parts Pain and Pleasure. It was one thing to break a mans body, crush his bones, mangle his muscles, tear him limb from limb, make him scream and cry and beg for mercy while she gave out a series of girlish giggles and lustily filled laughter - it was another thing entirely to do so to a mans physical form, while giving him the biggest, thickest, hardest erection he ever had in his life while doing so.

Yes, the unequalled thrill of giving such incredible levels passion and pain to her men was what turned this youthful supergirl on like nothing else, and no one got her hotter in such a fashion than the ultra adorable cutie, Mr. Scott. Her face showed off such eroticism completely, as she stared not at the camera, but longingly at her mans screamingly aroused face, with her emerald green eyes half closed in a seductive glare, with her lips puckered out full and thick with an exotic little pout. Amy enjoyed this shot to no end, as it showed off her sexual motto of Pleasure and Pain to a T, something that was caught in perfect precision here and now, as it snapped out its instant image the very second her erotically charged (though agony filled) man exploded a stream of cum several feet in the air. A clearly visible explosion of thick, creamy love juices caught perfectly in this still photo, as this virginal Amazon bride gave her husband his first taste of what was to come, in more ways then one, in their new life together. "To Love, Dominate And Muscle Fuck...." was tastefully written on the bottom of this photo, one that if Amy had her way (and she always did), would be proudly displayed within their one day, real-life, wedding album.

Photo 8 - A large, well kept, full and spacious backyard sauna, bubbling off its warm, relaxing waters, complete with one of the most attractive young women you could ever hope to meet, with a body so voluptuously shaped you would think she was a comic book heroine, as she sips on a glass of wine, wrapping her body around you snug and tight, as you enjoy one another's loving embrace deep into the dark moonlight. A more perfect image of romantic warmth and sexual lust, any male on this Earth would be hard pressed to find.....unless you were Robert Scott, the small-in-build cutie of a schoolteacher who was apparently an addiction to powerful young girls, and unless this woman was Jessica, a 6 foot tall muscle packed beauty with a body that just wouldn't quit, and a sex drive to match.

The gorgeous Amazon girl was shot from ever so slightly above, as she stared at the camera with her glowing blue eyes, a content and satisfied smile across her gorgeous teenage face. Her black hair wet and slicked back across her thickly muscle capped shoulders, which were almost the only parts of her body that were actually above the slightly bubbling liquid that she so relaxingly laid in. Though even with most of her amazingly luscious physique "concealed" underwater, its curves, size and shape were so unreal that they could be seen from above with no effort at all. Not the least of which were her mammoth breasts, which were so full and thick that they could hardly be contained by the surrounding waters around it, the same could be said for her barely covering bikini top, which clung to her form like a second skin - or would have, if not for her favorite play-toy getting in its way.

Looking a bit deeper into this photo, the back of a mans head could be seen held underwater and locked tight not only between Jessica's two big and beefy breasts, but also snugly held in place by her swimwear's top as well. His head was actually inside her bikini, smothered in perfect flesh to flesh contact with one of the most unreal female chests imaginable, held tight by the flexing constrictions of their muscular size and strength from in front, as well as by the back of his head due to the sexy, tight waterproof top she wore as well. Not that the slight straps were actually providing much resistance for him to pull out from (her muscle tits were doing all of the head holding there), though it provided a perfectly erotic, incredibly sexual (not to mention dominating) look and feel for this picture.

Not that it was needed, but to add further to this mans unbreakable hold from this powerful young supergirl, a single female hand was placed on his bare and naked butt, which one could imagine was being used to not only keep him in his desired position, but to pump his manhood in and out of her hungry and hot vagina; which due to the position her legs were in, wrapped around his vastly inferior form as they were, one could easily see that's just where his incredible sized cock was located. Yes, raping this man (and even men much bigger than he was) was virtually child's play to this statuesque Amazon, who did so now without any effort at all. Sexually controlling him for the latest of many times during this past day. A point not only supported by a relaxing finger tracing the rim of a nearby, half filled glass of red wine, but a devious smile that let the world know that she enjoyed every single second of it. "All Too Easy!" was digitally scrolled at the bottom of this photo, which couldn't have summed up this perfectly shot Amazon photo any better.

Photo 9 - Truth, Justice and the American Way - such are the things the Man Of Steel, Earths Greatest Superhero has sworn to uphold and protect. With physical powers beyond comprehension, the world couldn't be more thankful that this being from afar decided to use his powers for the Forces Of Good, and not to fulfill his own petty, selfish and personal needs and desires.....too bad the same couldn't be said of his young cousin, who like so many other teenager girls her age, just want to have Fun. Such was the inspiration behind Amy's next and final posted picture, which had her dressed to perfection in a skin tight Supergirl outfit, complete with knee high length red boots, a matching pair of red short shorts, with an insanely snug blue material covering most of her upper body (with the exception of her displaying plenty voluptuously ample cleavage) with a bold red and yellow "S" in the center of her lusciously muscular chest. She did decide to leave off the loose and mostly concealing iconic cape for this shot, in order to show off her incredibly wide back and powerful looking shoulders, which threatened (as they so often did) to rip this sexily worn costume in half. Concluding this look with her long flowing blond locks, and a girlish little red headband (showing off the perfect amount of hair softly framing her gorgeous young face), and one couldn't imagine the actual Supergirl looking any better herself.

Though while being with the Girl Of Steel may be a comic book geek's fantasy come true, it was anything but for Robert Scott, the ever present male model in these world class Amazon photos, as it was his naked body that was being mercilessly crushed to pulp within this youthful musclegirls massively pumped arms. The 18 year old beauty was holding him high off the floor in her powerful embrace, as she smothered his vastly weaker form within her steel hard biceps and her rock solid pecs, both of which were crushing in on his thin and weedy chest with untold glee, girlish excitement and sensual thrills. So much so she could barely stop her devious giggling while posing for this picture, a malicious grin across her beautiful face and a sinister look from her dominantly fierce eyes were caught perfectly within frame, showing off the amazing amounts of enjoyment she was feeling from mangling this frail older mans form into her own. Knowing that with just a deep inhaling of her lungs, and a thrusting out of her lusciously hard breasts, could crack his ribs like twigs.

Even though one would hardly believe in real life comic book heroines walking around among us, one look at Amy's unreal physique, dressed in this sexy as Hell, body hugging uniform, would make anyone think twice. They would also think twice about being with such an unreal feminine figure (as Hot and Sexy as she was) after seeing the painfully executed hold she had Mr. Scott in here and now, which not only consisted of a perfectly performed, devastatingly constricting Bearhug, but also an equal amount cock crushing from her nearly as strong vaginal muscles as well, which currently held this mans foot long shaft deep inside her just as easily as her mighty arms entrapped his body. No mortal man could hope to escape from this superhumanly strong Supergirl, especially when she was in this frame of mind, especially when she wanted nothing more than to just suck on, drink down and overall fuck on a cock that was too well acquainted with her Amazonian physique. So with a crushing of this mans defeated (though obviously aroused) form hard into her bulging biceps and pulverizing pecs, matching such force with her squeezing pussy muscles around his once proud erection, all with an evil smile and piercing stare. Amy proved once again which one was in fact the Weaker Sex, and which of them was More Powerful Than A Locomotive.....a fact he would be learning again and again, for quite some time to come.

Photo 10 - As for Jessica's last shot, she eventually decided on something that discarded all of her previously thought of ideas and costumes she brought along with her, choosing to just go straight in for The Kill.....sexually speaking, of course. No fancy costumes, no particularly creative scenery, just her pulsatingly powerful and completely naked form doing what it did best, showing off its unreal strength and her unbridled sexual appetite. Joining her in this shot was of course the adorable Mr. Scott, who also felt the need to show off his utterly exposed form (like he had any choice in the matter), which was nothing new for this clearly exhausted and physically beaten male during these past few days. Though what was a new and different in this photo was his body's current pose and the hot, wet, totally engulfing love-hole that was currently massaging his thick, throbbing cock to eruption yet again.

This shot showed off his small and weedy frame being held several feet off the floor by a pair of powerfully hard, thickly muscled, female arms. Not unusual at all for this man during his weekend long photo assignment, to be true, though the slight twist here was that his helpless form was being lifted upside-down, with his dick not being massaged, sucked, smothered or crushed within this teenage girls muscular vagina or her mammothly hard breasts, but inside her all enveloping mouth, which lapped up every inch of his dick with untold levels of arousal. One would have thought that having this beautiful young woman using her thick, bee-stung lips and excitedly probing tongue on and around his erection would be like Heaven On Earth for this man; though as with the rest of her body, her tongue and lips actions were anything but soft and gentle, as she flicked his manhood around with a savage intensity and sucked on it so hard Robert Scott felt as if it was going to be torn right off of his body.

Though not totally without compassion, this young Amazon girl gave him something else to feel during her forcefully extracted Blow Job, to help take his mind off any pain or discomfort he might be experiencing from her passionately powerful mouth.....by placing his head snug and tight inside her thick, rippling hard, super strong thighs. Forcing his tongue to travel deep into her most private of areas, forcing him to send her to her sexual peak, or be crushed into oblivion by her sexy, smooth legs. Yes, the Standing 69 was a staple sexual position for any strong musclegirl, and one that Jessica relished to no end in doing to this extremely inferior man before her. A fact that was proven not only by her eyes closed and fluttering with unreal arousal (as she continued her sexual assault with her pleasuring lips and controlling tongue) but also with her victims A+ job in giving her wave after wave of oral delights. Knowing that at any moment if he displeased her she would squeeze his skull inside her twin 27" thighs (something she did several times anyway, just to hear him scream). Knowing that it was her powerfully thick arms and steel hard grip wrapped tight around his ankles that was holding him off the ground and completely in her control. Knowing that she could move him into any position she wished, to fulfill each and every one of her desires; that her body could control him in every conceivable way, and he couldn't do a thing to stop her - and Nothing turned her on more. A fact that was completely confirmed less than a minute after this photo was taken, as the two young lovers suddenly exploded streams of hot, sticky cum inside one another's open mouths. Jessica drinking down all that her mans unreal erection contained with a lust-filled passion, while nearly cracking his head like an egg between her pulsatingly powerful thighs in the process. If a picture was worth 1000 words, then each and every one of them for this breathtakingly arousing photo would be plain and simply, HOT!

10 female muscle inspired pictures out of literally hundreds taken during a weekend of uncontrollable and virtually unending Amazonian Sex. 10 of the best overall shots that were picked out specifically by this pair of drop dead gorgeous 18 year old supergirls. 10 images of such incredible sexual energy and erotically framed passion, that one simply couldn't go on to the next one without fully appreciating (one handed appreciation, that was) the last. Not only did these expertly taken and professionally posed for photos make each and every youthful musclegirl, fitness buff and female super athlete viewing them want to try each and every pose for themselves (which resulted in a huge outpouring of battered and beaten males world-wide), but for the select grouping of men who were lucky enough to see such shots of the perfect blending of amazing beauty and unrivaled physique, it changed their opinions of the Fairer (never again the Weaker) Sex forever.

Though this wasn't all that was being offered to their leagues of adoring female muscle fans (most of them being muscular females themselves) this day, as Amy and Jessica wanted to throw something extra into the mix for their fellow Sisters In Muscle all over the world - three something extras in fact, in the form of streaming video clips, taken over this same weekend of sex-crazed lust and girlish perversion, giving life and movement to those still-pictures that were undoubtedly driving the this select OurSpace grouping Wild. Giving all who watched, and I do mean ALL, an even greater taste, an even fuller experience, of just what it would be like to have the undivided attention of two 6 foot tall, solidly built, sexily shaped, muscularly powerful, Amazon girls for the weekend.....for better and for worse!

Muscle Video 1 - The scene starts out with the two gorgeous young musclegirls giggling up a storm, both filled with unreal excitement as they get themselves ready for their first female muscle video clip. Something neither of them has ever officially tried before, yet something they would wind up doing with such ease and unreal skill (not to mention plenty of sexy, young, female muscle) that anyone watching would have thought they had been practicing this online art for many years now. Bouncing up and down on a nearby bed (which was barely large enough to support these two massively muscle packed young women, Amy and Jessica were dressed in very short, tight and revealing lingerie, as they playfully smacked one another with large pillows taken from the front of this very bed. A true "Amazon Girl Sleepover" fantasy come true, and this was only the first 15 seconds.

"Hi all, were back, did you miss us?" Amy spoke out in a girlish tone, lowering her soft pillow down to her side, as she jumped off this barely still intact bed, with her fellow musclegirl following suit.

"Well, we sure missed you" Jessica giggled out, continuing their act of little girls, which wasn't too far of a stretch, since they themselves were only 18 years old. Though you wouldn't know that from their voluptuous physiques, which displayed a level of athletic shape, size and hardness that one would think could only belong to someone several years their senior. Yet as much as their bodies gave them the appearance of womanly age and maturity, their incredibly gorgeous and youthful faces made them look almost too young to be "enjoying" such videos and photos. As for their maturity, well girls will be girls, which goes double for those with rock solid, steel hard physiques, who were more than able to take virtually anything that they wanted.....or in this case, ANYONE that they wanted. "We hope you liked our pictures, we worked really hard on them for you all, almost as hard as our Big, Sexy bodies, Id say" she continued to chirp out in her little girl's voice.

"Oh, and what do you think of our outfits? We picked out something special for you all today, something special to show off what we've got. Do ya like?" the blond bombshell added on, with a large smile across her face, as this pair of teenage supergirls twirled and spun around, showing off their world class ultra feminine forms in some of the sexiest lingerie one could ever imagine.

Amy was wearing just a soft, silky little navy blue teddy, complete with thin spaghetti straps that did wonders for showing off her muscle capped shoulders and broad powerful back. Its overall length was so short it barely covered any of her smooth, rippling legs and full rounded butt, exactly the look she was going for. A matching blue choker around her neck to make her look even more erotic, and a pair of high heels to further emphasize her unreal sexuality, and Amy was simply the picture of Amazonian sexual perfection. Not to be outdone in the least by her fellow musclegirl, Jessica's outfit was just as stunning and easily as arousing, as she strutted her full, hardbodied figure in a bold red lacy bra and panties outfit, complete with matching fishnet stockings and high heeled pumps as well. Such bedroom attire was surely the fondest desire of most any man, and the object of jealous for most any woman, as they showed off plenty of tight, tanned and toned female flesh, while hiding certain parts of their anatomy for a more fun unwrapping later on. Either of these outfits could have been worn by top of the line Victoria Secrets models; though none of them could hope compare their forms to the jaw-dropping bodies of these two Amazons, nor their faces to the beauty that each of these teenage girls possessed.

"Oh, I'm sure they do Babe, but I think they'd enjoy something else a bit more" the dark haired musclegirl sexily cooed, biting her lower lip with sensual excitement, as she gave a seductive look towards the camera. With that, she began to flex a single arm, placing her other arm sensually on her waist, causing her softball sized bicep to grow and harden as she relished in the sight of her already thickly muscled guns expanding to even bigger and stronger levels.

"Mmmmmm, that's some muscle shot Sweetie, do you mind if I join in?" Amy teasingly asked in a very seductive way, as she mimicked the same exact pose of her Sister In Muscle, doing so in such a way that if not for the differing hair color and lingerie style, you would have thought they were in fact one and the same person.

"Not at all Honey, if you think you can keep up" Jessica taunted back, as she slowly switched to a double biceps pose, causing her muscle packed upper body to fill out completely with femininely shaped, rock hard muscle.

"Oh, I think I can manage" Amy replied with a wide grin, as she sexily moved her body into the same position of her nearby, and equally muscular, Amazon girlfriend. Matching her movements perfectly in not only grace, fluidity and poise (as they were both well versed in the art of Muscle Posing), but in size, hardness and power as well.

They then spent the several minutes posing in slow, soft, sexy motions, hitting and pumping up their bodies' unreal shape, incredible size and amazing hardness to even greater heights. Sensuously moving and gyrating their teenage forms to and fro, around and around, swaying their hips, lowering their chests for sexy cleavage shots (complete with powerfully hit pec pulsations), all the while posing their beautiful faces in a series of shots that were both youthful and exciting, as well as seductive and alluring. These girls knew just what they were doing (and just how to do it) which was getting the multitudes of female muscle fans watching their expertly performed erotic dance all Hot and Bothered.....something that certainly wasn't limited to the viewers at home at all.

It was clear as day to anyone watching this clip that just the flexing of their thick, hard, voluptuous frames was enough to turn each of these young girls on to no end. Not just the sights of one another's perfectly sculpted muscle bods, or the unreal firmness they could attain by flexing and pumping them up, but their own steel hardening forms as well. Their eyes closed and fluttering with arousal during half of their erotically danced muscle posing, feeling their own gloriously powerful teenage physiques about as often as they would lustfully gaze at their lusciously fit partners. Their obvious arousal was only further displayed by the hardening of their nipples, the quivering of their over excited bodies, and the series of moans and groans that were coming from this pair of beautiful young Amazons.

"Mmmmmm, I think its time Baby, I don't know....Ooooooo.....how much longer I can hold out....." Amy sexily breathed out, as she held on to her thickly muscle tits, using her thumbs to erotically tweak and tickle her clearly erect nipples, while using her pec control to create striations and cuts all over her rock hard globes.

"Yeaahhhh.....Ooooooo Yeah, you're so right.....Mmmmmm.....time to get this show started...." Jessica softly cooed out, as she traced her fingers across her ridged, steel hard, 6-Pack stomach, moving in and out of each hill and valley her bulletproof abs contained. She then sauntered over towards the computer screen, her hips slowly moving to and fro, as she stopped just before the online camera they were using (giving the viewers just a seconds image of her dripping wet around her lacy panties) before the screen switching to a different, yet easily as sexual an image, which now included the third member of their erotic musclegirl trio. Mr. Robert Scott, making his X-Rated streaming video debut, as always, placed in a position of his Mistresses choosing, suffering both unbelievable physical torture, and unreal sexual arousal.

Young supergirl Amy was now lying on the floor, her body now totally nude and exposed, though in this particular viewing she happened to be wearing something partially concealing nonetheless.....something that was screaming in pain and struggling with all of its might to break free. Yes, Mr. Scotts form was laying back to front on Amy's lusciously thick and muscle packed body, helplessly being held against his will (or most of his will anyway) in a perfectly executed combination Full Nelson and Body Scissors hold.

Amy's bulging arms could be seen on either side of his much smaller and easily weaker form, as she effortlessly held his arms up and over his head, leaving his upper body clearly exposed, leaving him unable to do a single thing about it. His lower half was being crushed by two of the largest, most muscular (yet smooth and sexy) female legs he had ever seen in his life. Thighs that were strong enough to crack solid rock between them were now being used as an inescapable vice, holding him still and immobile, while sending pulsations of pain shooting throughout his entire body. Amy's physique was so much larger than her entrapped mans in fact, that even though he was on top of her (she effortlessly supporting his pitiful frames weight) it was hardly blocking her body's full view behind her. The scores of Amazon lovers watching this video clip were seeing plenty of this super blonds super built physique, something that could also be said about Robert Scotts own utterly mangled form as well - especially its star attraction, his big, thick, throbbing cock.

"Shhhhhh, just relax Lover, and enjoy as best you can. I've held guys in here that would eat you for breakfast, and the only way they ever escaped, was when I let them go. So Shhhhh Baby, you're in for a real treat tonight. Hee hee hee" Amy whispered into his nearby ears, as she held him in such a way (all from behind, all with her pecs painfully thrusting into his back, all with the utmost of ease) that the only part of his body that was free to move around on its own was his growingly erect dick.....though that was something the now coming into view Jessica was more than happy to rectify.

"Mmmmmm, you look good enough to eat Sexy Boy, I might just have to try a taste of that big cock later on" she sexily spoke, as her completely naked form stepped into view, her back and shoulders so wide they almost eclipsed the entwined pair of young lovers before her from the cameras view. Though knowing full where this online device was, she seductively made her way to her desired location, which was standing at their feet, looking down as Roberts utterly terrified face, eyeing up his nearly foot-long erection, before giving off a sexy little growl and diving right in.

Her body moved forward so that she was now standing straight over this giant cock beneath her, before she lowered herself onto its nearly steel firm shaft, taking in every single inch of his manhood, giving off a loud and long series of lusty moans and groans as she did so. There weren't many men who could fill her up her insides with their erections as this man could, which meant every inch of her tight inner vaginal walls were being teased and tickled by the joining of their bodies together, instantly sending waves of sexual delights throughout her already very turned-on body and clearly hardening form.

"God....Oh Fuck God, Yes! Mmmmmm, he's so good.....so big.....so hard.....God, I'm so going to wrap my mouth over this cock and suck it dry later, Baby.....Ooooooohh.....I'm gonna suck it so hard, Ill rip it right off of your body" the 18 year old musclegirl breathed out with unreal arousal, as she just couldn't get enough of the biggest and most pleasurable dick she had ever come across (and even though she was only in her late teens, Jessica had more than her share of sexual encounters.....some of them even with the mans co-operation)

Jessica's visibly wet pussy was dribbling its love juices right down onto Mr. Scotts body, making his stomach sticky with her all covering cum. Her straddling form engulfed every inch of his more than impressive erection, which was throbbing even more due to her expert handling and vaginal muscle control; even though it felt as if he had placed his dick inside a moist, fleshy vice, which was mercilessly squeezing all over his entrapped sexual organ, clamping down on its once proud shaft so hard she was actually raising both him and the gorgeous young Amazon behind him clean off the floor with each and every sex filled thrust.

"Mmmmm, how does that feel Sweetie? How does Jessie's tight, wet pussy feel over your big, hard cock? Do you like how she can squeeze you, massage you, crush you, just with her pussy muscles alone? Mmmmmm, I can do that too you know, and later on I will.....or maybe Ill just shove that giant dick of yours inside my Muscle Tits, and see how much you like a good Pec Fuck instead" Amy sexily breathed out from behind, giving this man a combination of arousal and intimidation, all the while flexing her rock solid chest from behind him, stretching his body further and further out, which gave Jessica even more access to his amazingly throbbing shaft.

"Yessss, that's right.....Hold him still.....Mmmmmm.....hold him tight, Honey.....he's not going anywhere.....Oooooohh, not now.....and not ever...." the black-maned Amazon could barely make out from above, as she continued to pump and grind her body into her male sex-toys form; as her hands danced all across her voluptuously muscular chest, steel hard arms and tight, toned stomach. Her eyes closed and fluttering with amazing levels of arousal flowing through her, which was becoming more evident by the increased speed of her up and down gyrations, by the additional streams of cum that were escaping their nearly air tight sex-lock, by her tongue licking and biting her luscious lips while sexy little grunts and groans of excitement exited her O-shaped mouth. It was only a matter of seconds before Jessica was bound to explode all over him, something he himself felt in turn as well, though that was before this pair of young, sex-crazed supergirls did something that made it all put impossible for Robert Scott to do anything at all, and that included his own breathing. Jessica swiftly lowered her nearly 200 pound, muscle packed body into his own, while Amy thrust her own equally sized Amazonian physique upwards, crushing this poor mans frame inside an all enveloping sandwich of unstoppable, bone crushing, muscle.

Try as he might to scream in pain, his breath was pushed out of his thin and frail form the second these two muscular teenage girls converged in on him. From behind he could feel the tireless pulsations of Amy's massive pecs, her arms and legs squeezing and pulling his body out even more, while her hips began to move into his butt, her own moans of arousal clearly heard inside his ears. From in front, Jessica's incredibly lush physique was crushing down on him just with her bodyweight alone. Her thrusting form, her constricting pussy, her piston like movements on his body, the exact duplicate of her erotically breathing Amazon Sister from behind, was more than enough to end his consciousness in a matter of seconds, while Jessica screamed out a loud, orgasmic yell, which was followed by waves of sticky, hot cum (a culmination of both of their built up sexual juices) that managed to escape from their bodies interlocking.

After nearly a minute of continued hip thrusts, body pops, and cock suckings, the black haired supergirl slowly removed herself from the best erection she has ever had inside her, before plopping herself down next to Amy, who continued to hold his unconscious form in this steel tight, super erotic hold. Gyrating her own exposed pussy over and over into his cute, little butt, until before long she herself climaxed in utter and total ecstasy (nearly ripping him in half while doing so). Their breathing hard, their bodies glistening with a thin layer of sweat, their hearts racing at yet another taste of sexual delights due to the unreal manhood of Mr. Scott, as well as the excitement of finishing off their first streaming video clip, with the thrill of many more on the way.

Muscle Video 2 - This next visually erotic treat started out with our two teenage Amazons laying flat on the floor of yet another room in this house. Facing one another with malicious grins adorning their model-like faces, with their long, statuesque forms stretching out and away from each other. Their right hands bent and clasped tightly into each others, so much so that such a grasp would have broken the bones of a normal man to pieces, before counting in unison from 3...2...1.....GO! A stalemate if there ever was one, as the two hulkingly muscle packed beauties tried to push the others arm down, in a classic test of arm strength, mixed with incredible erotic beauty and sexual energy that only Amy and Jessica could deliver.

Bulging biceps larger than any normal mans on this Earth grew and thickened with female muscle, exerting enough force to throw three men across the room, yet each of them were held still and unmoving, each of them had found a perfect match in the other, and not just in arm strength at that.

"Bet you'd like to try your strength against one of us, just like this?" softly cooed out Jessica, as she turned and give a sexy little wink to the online camera, before blowing a kiss to all of their fans watching.

"Bet you'd like to see me Slam your hand down to the ground in 2 seconds flat, or should I say, Slam your Hands down, as you're gonna need both of them if you want to last even a second with either of us" Amy joined in on the lustfully teasing fun, as she too turned her amazingly attractive young face to the screen, before speaking her words, ending it with a soft, sensual licking of her full, red lips.

"Unless of course you're like us. Fit, tight, thickly muscled female hardbodies, who just Love showing off your Strength and Power, any and every chance you get.....especially with the "Weaker Sex"" the sultry brunette breathed out.

"In that case, come and pay us a visit sometime. Were always up for a challenge.....not to mention another Amazon girl to play around with.....in more ways than one" the gorgeous young blond seductively spoke.

Amy and Jessica were teasing and taunting their audience at home with professional level skill, while they continued to power down in their arm-wrestling match, which at this point looked to be so evenly matched that it was never going to end. They spent the next several minutes pushing their single arms power to its limits, moving their hands back and forth during that time, but always ending back up in the middle, always finishing off one another's attempt at victory in a stalemate.

Jessica then began to look longingly at the beautiful, golden haired supergirl before her, their faces so close to one another during this test of strength that it was nearly impossible to look at anything else. Still focusing all of her physical power into her right arm, which was struggling to no end against Amy's own, the dark haired Amazon began to lick her lips, which second later lead to a series of sensual bitings on her lower lip, which lead to a slow leaning in of her face closer to Amy's. Jessica's lips aching to reach hers, so that these two extremely turned on teenage girls could lock together their mouths, smacking and popping their luscious lips against one another, leading to who knows what after that.....or so that's what Amy had thought, as she was more than receptive towards Jessica's advances, which began with her leaning her own stunning face inches closer to her equally gorgeous partners before her - though ended with a Slamming down of her hand and claim of Victory to Jessica.

"Hey, you tricked me! You cant just come on to me like that, and just pin me for the win when I'm not ready!" Amy semi-jokingly laughed out, as they both burst up from the well carpeted floor at this contests end.

"Oh come now, like you've never challenged a guy to a sexy little mixed arm-wrestling match, then lowered your babies here to distract him, and taken the win?" Jessica laughed back during their mock argument.

"While I may have these babies to do just that....." Amy cooed out, as she bounced and flexed her DD-cup Pecs with incredible muscle control, ".....I also have these babies to make sure I don't need to" she concluded with a powerful glance, a wide smile, and a Double Bicep Flex that would have made any female bodybuilder jealous.

"Good point Baby, good point....." Jessica softly breathed back, as she too began flexing her mighty muscular arms to their fullest. ".....But I still won" she quickly added, sticking her tongue out like a spoiled little schoolgirl, causing Amy to respond by throwing a soft little pillow from her area over and onto her face, which caused them both to laugh out in girlish glee yet again. "Say, how much longer do we have to wait here, I'm just dying for a little more Muscle Lovin' Fun" the dark haired Amazon spoke out in a little girls tone, pouting her luscious lips, as she crossed her thickly muscled 17" arms over her more than ample chest, stomping one of her rippling hard legs on the floor in semi-pretend frustration.

"Don't be such a baby, Jessie, you're the one who decided to go for an underwater photo, you know those knock him out extra long" the hulkingly beautiful Amazon replied to her partners question with a girlish giggle and a sexy smile. "Don't get me wrong, it made for one Hell of a shot, but the recovery time he's going to need for this one.....well, you might as well have knocked him out with a tranquilizer dart"

"Hey, he got off easy, I didn't even use my Big, Hard, Muscular Thighs on him.....well, that much anyway" she giggled out with girlish glee, causing both of these young women to burst out with laughter. "And hey, its not like you're all against using a bit of water in your pictures, Ms. Bikini Car Wash? How long did we have to wait for him to come back after that little session?" Jessica taunted back, continuing their playful little arguing, which only further emphasized their youthful ages and attitudes.

"Oh, like you even noticed, calling out for pizza and then raping the delivery boy when he got here"

"Well, he was cute, and I do love a man in uniform" Jessica teased out, causing them both to giggled out yet again.
"Anyway, what do we do in the meantime, the cameras are rolling you know"

"Mmmmmm, I think we can do a little something to keep our viewers at home happy until Sleepy wakes up. Hee hee hee"
Amy cooed with a sexy little wink and a nod over to her newest friend and fellow supergirl, as they both then turned and gave exotic stares straight at their online camera, and the hordes of female muscle fans watching all over the world.

Each of them wore bikini tops that were strained to their absolute limits in their futile attempt to contain the massively thick, round and muscle packed breasts of this pairing of teenage Amazons. Amy in white, Jessica in black, these barely there upper body outfits did little to hide the voluptuously shaped muscles that both girls possessed; such their rippling wide backs, broad shoulders, thick chests, bulging biceps, and rigidly hard abs were as obvious to anyone watching this as their youthful faces were insanely beautiful. Their lower bodies were covered (if you could call it that) with the equally tight and stretched out compliment to their bikini tops, with colors to match, and with barely enough material to cover their very moist pussys, doing nothing to conceal their bowling ball sized glutes (each of which looked as big as a mans head, together capable of crushing a mans dick to pulp without effort). Two 18 year old girls who had the facial features to be models of the highest order, yet with the bodies capable of crushing and dominating any man around, a true Amazon Lovers dream come true.

"What do YOU think we should do with bodies like ours?" Jessica sexily breathed out to the camera, flexing her massive muscles in a double biceps shot, while addressing this video watching public.

"I think they'd like to see you put The Crush on something. Maybe that watermelon downstairs in the frig with your arms, or if your thighs are up for it I saw a bowling ball bag in his closet earlier, any of those will....." CRASH!, came out a sound from outside of this room, causing the two supergirls to bolt on after it, returning a few seconds later with the best prop they could possibly imagine, Mr. Scott utterly defeated form. He was draped over the shoulders of Jessica, who popped him up and down a few times, causing him to scream out in pain, before tossing him up and over her and onto a nearby couch.

"Naughty Boy, pretend to be asleep for longer than you were, only to try and sneak out and leave us little girls all alone"
Amy playfully cooed, pouting her lips in make-believe hurt at his actions. "What's the matter, don't you like us anymore? And here I thought we were being good to you.....maybe he'd like to see how we are when were Bad, eh Babe?" she spoke out with an evil smile as she turned her gaze towards her Amazonian Sister.

"Mmmmmm, I Love being bad, and I know just the way to do it" she sexily added, making her way towards Amy, cupping her mouth to her ears as she whispered something that caused them both to giggle aloud with excitement and bounce around like little girls. Seconds later, they separated themselves, and turned to look down at this terrified little man before them. Such was their stance, with even their thick and powerful backs and shoulders at rest, no lat spreads of any kind, they were able to totally block not only Robert Scotts quivering form from view, but also the entire love-seat he was laying on as well.

"What.....what are you going to do to me....." the voice of this physically battered, sexually raped man came out and over this wall of teenage female muscle, which was the only way the viewers at home would even know he was still in their other side.

They did not answer, only smiled as Jessica turned back around to the digital camera getting all of their shots perfectly, before making her way across the room to it, and turning it off. The last thing that was seen was Amy's chuckling form lowering down to pick up her mans body, his voice screaming loudly in protest, and the physical resistance of him against this blond musclegirl's unstoppable advances. Instantly, the image switched to of our two Amazon girls laying on the floor, their bodies completely naked, their looks were of unbridled sexual energy; as their eyes fluttered, their tongue licked its soft surrounding lips, their gyrations into one another's bodies incredibly arousing, as their moans and groans of delight could be heard to all who were watching.

While no sight of their favorite male accomplice could be found, the vision of unreal erotica lying down before the camera was easily enough to make anyone forget that he even existed. Just the sights of such amazingly beautiful teenage girls touching and feeling and groping one another, while one (Jessica) sensuously laid her perfectly shaped feminine form on the other (Amy), enjoying the feel, the hardness, the strength of one another's matching muscular bodies, was more than enough to make for another world class, sexually charged, female muscle video. Though what was seen next, simply blew that to a whole new level.

While their young, muscular forms were gyrating and grinding into one another, their sexual grunts and soft, womanly touches covering every inch of their bodies (oddly enough, as much as such women enjoying being Rough with their men in the arena of Sex, they loved being just as Gentle and Loving when they were touching other women of their kind), their muscular forms moving around all over the floor, a sight could be seen (just barely) peeking out from around the meeting of their twin sets of muscle packed, lusciously shaped breasts.

A head, a males head, and within a few more seconds one could see that it was in fact Mr. Scotts head (the top of if anyway). It appears that Amy and Jessica were using their favorite sex-toy in this video after all, and by the direction he seemed to be facing (as one could just see his eyes and nose barely peeking out from their unreal set of Muscle Tits) he seemed to be facing Amy's young, Amazonian form this time - no doubt with his near superhuman erection deep inside of her tight, wet, always eager pussy. What was also now more clear than before was that Jessica was not thrusting her body into her fellow musclegirls, but into the backside of her male victim, which in turn was helping the movements of his growing cock further and deeper into Amy's constricting, sexually charged, tingling with unreal excitement, vagina.

Thrust, Thrust, Thrust!, went their Super Hot female bodies into one another, the savagery of their hips motions (knowing that they were doing so into Roberts own vastly weaker form), was matched by the series of soft, sensual touches of their own surrounding bodies frames, as they sensually massaged one another's rippling arms, legs, backs and any other area of one another they could reach. Pound, Pound, Pound!, they went, as they continued on with their latest sexual session, crushing and smooching this poor mans body between their voluptuously hard, utterly engulfing, female physiques. His occasional screams of agony and terror could be heard every so often, doing so right into their fully pumped up pecs, which sent more tingling sensations of excitement running throughout their muscularly sculpted forms, causing them to giggle out with girlish excitement (usually coupled with a series of them biting their lower lips with girlish excitement as well).

Yes, it was little doubt this was how these 18 year old Amazons like to have sex with their men. They in total control of every single aspect, especially regarding the physical positioning of their men, with their partners (aka victims) not having a say at all.....other than screaming, crying, begging and the like. Had this been any random man, Amy and Jessica surely would have ended their sexual escapades this time with an extremely tight Double Sex-Hug, causing them both to explode their juices all over him, causing him to crack and crumble into a broken heap between them. Though since they knew doing so would end their fun with this truly adorable, huge cock wielding man (who they actually had feelings for, especially Amy), they did only two of those three. Powering their quivering bodies all around him, before yelling out with incredible erotic energy, and covering him in a sea of hot, sticky cum, gushing out from their young, feminine forms. Completing their next unbelievably Hot streaming video clip which would have made any female capable of such feats want to run out and grab a man to do so with, and any of the select grouping of males viewing this want to make their way to their local gym, in the hopes that some super buff girl would Take Them, utterly and completely (something such men may well regret before too long).

Muscle Video 3 - This video, their last in the newest series of photos and streaming clips posted this weekend, was quite different than their last few. This one started out with no cute little girl teases or playful little muscle displays or sexy outfits covering Amy and Jessica's lusciously shaped hardbodies. It simply started smack dab in the middle of yet another sexually charged Amazonian sex session, with Mr. Scotts battered and beaten body trapped on the ground by our buxom blonds towering frame. His head stuffed tightly between her rippling hard thighs, a single one of her hands on the back of his head, as she pushed his face (and with it, his tongue) as deep into her clearly exposed pussy as she could.

Her eyes closed with orgasmic delights, as she took soft, sensual bites from her lower lip, while she was grinding his hips into this mans forcefully awaiting mouth, over and over and over again. Her free hand was moving across her own form as if she was as much turned on by it as she was the tongue that was pleasingly dancing its way all over her moist, hot insides. Her feminine shaped hand frequently ending its trip around her unreal shaped body at her mouth, where she would stick a single finger deep inside, wrapping her lips around its form just as her thighs were tightly engulfing Mr. Scotts head, sucking and fucking on her alternating fingers just as her vagina was doing to his hopelessly enveloped face.

With such treatment, especially with a man as sexually attractive and overall arousing (to women of her kind anyway), it didn't take too long for Amy to fill herself to her sexual limits, as her girlish grunts and groans filled this area, while she sped up the intensity of her face sitting, finger licking Muscle Fucking pace, knowing it was now only a matter of seconds before she reached her climatic end, and exploded her love-juices all over her mans face and head, undoubtedly crushing him into the blackness of unconsciousness with her muscle packed thighs when she did so.

Or so she thought, as before she could reach her peak and finish what she began off-camera, a set of hugely muscled (though very feminine) arms reached onto her, lifting her off of Mr. Scotts face (exposing it now, in all of its cum damp "glory"), before joining his weak and defeated form down on the floor. This was of course fellow Amazon girl Jessica, who was tired of watching such an incredibly Sexy routine from off-screen, and wanted her piece of this very sexy male-pie before he was knocked out from another savage musclegirl encounter with the equally beautiful and powerful Amy.

So Jessica maneuvered him into her desired position, his head wrapped tightly between a steel hard, 17" bicep and her mammoth DD-cup pecs, crushing onto it in a severely painful Headlock. Though she didn't keep him held in this position for long, not with her bulging biceps anyway. She quickly released his head with her arm, and then grabbed her matching leg by the knee, pulling it right into his head, using her massive quad (held there by the strength of her single arm, in addition to her own legs unreal strength) to push his face even more into her unyielding, rock solid tits. With an evil, malicious grin, she then grabbed onto one of his hands and pushing it into her now very exposed vagina, forcing him to finger-fuck her to the highest levels of pleasure, or suffer the very agonizing consequences (something she further emphasized by a few pops of leg and pec muscles in on his entrapped head).

Her own free hand she used very similar to Amy's previously, which was just tracing, groping, tickling and teasing all over every available inch of her powerfully nude form. Whether it be twisting her very erect nipples, sending shivers of ecstasy flowing across her incredibly ample breasts, or a soft tracing of her etched out 6-Pack stomach with her fingernails, or a tender tickling of her inner thighs which at this point were fully out-stretched and looking for any and all attention she decided to give it. Her eyes glazed over in erotic lust, her tongue peeking out here and there to give licks to her thick lips, while she sensually thrust her hips into her sex-slaves pleasuring fingers, letting out a series of moans and groans of sexual delight as she did so.

Robert Scott on the other hand wasn't enjoying his latest musclegirl raping nearly so much, as his head was truly stuck in the middle of a rock and a hard place (which wasn't helped by Jessica's frequent pec pulsations and quad crushes), as he felt this amazingly attractive young women's body just overwhelm his own with her massively superior strength, forcing him to do anything she wished, with him being utterly unable to do anything about it. The strange thing was, and this was proven time and again on several recent occasions, deep down inside, where his lust, passion and arousal lie, he Loved it. Sure the pain and agony (even to the point of broken bones and torn muscles) his frail body sustained was anything but pleasurable, though he simply couldn't help it, as anytime he was around such incredibly beautiful, insanely voluptuous, female hardbodies, his cock had a mind of its own, and that was usually enough to get him into his share of "trouble" in such situations (which thus far had only been with Amy and her new friend Jessica, though what the sexual future held for this man, was anybody's guess)

Just as before with Amy, Jessica's body was quivering and shaking with erotic delights, as waves of lust flowed over each and every muscle packed curve. Her eyes closed and lost in the moment, her moans getting louder and louder, her tight muscular flesh covered in a thin layer of sweat, her hip pops becoming more and more severe and aggressive. It was only a matter of seconds before she finished her latest forced sexual encounter, and erupted her juices all over Mr. Scott's ultra pleasing fingers, while crushing his face to mush inside her lusciously curvaceous Amazonian form. Again.....or so she thought.

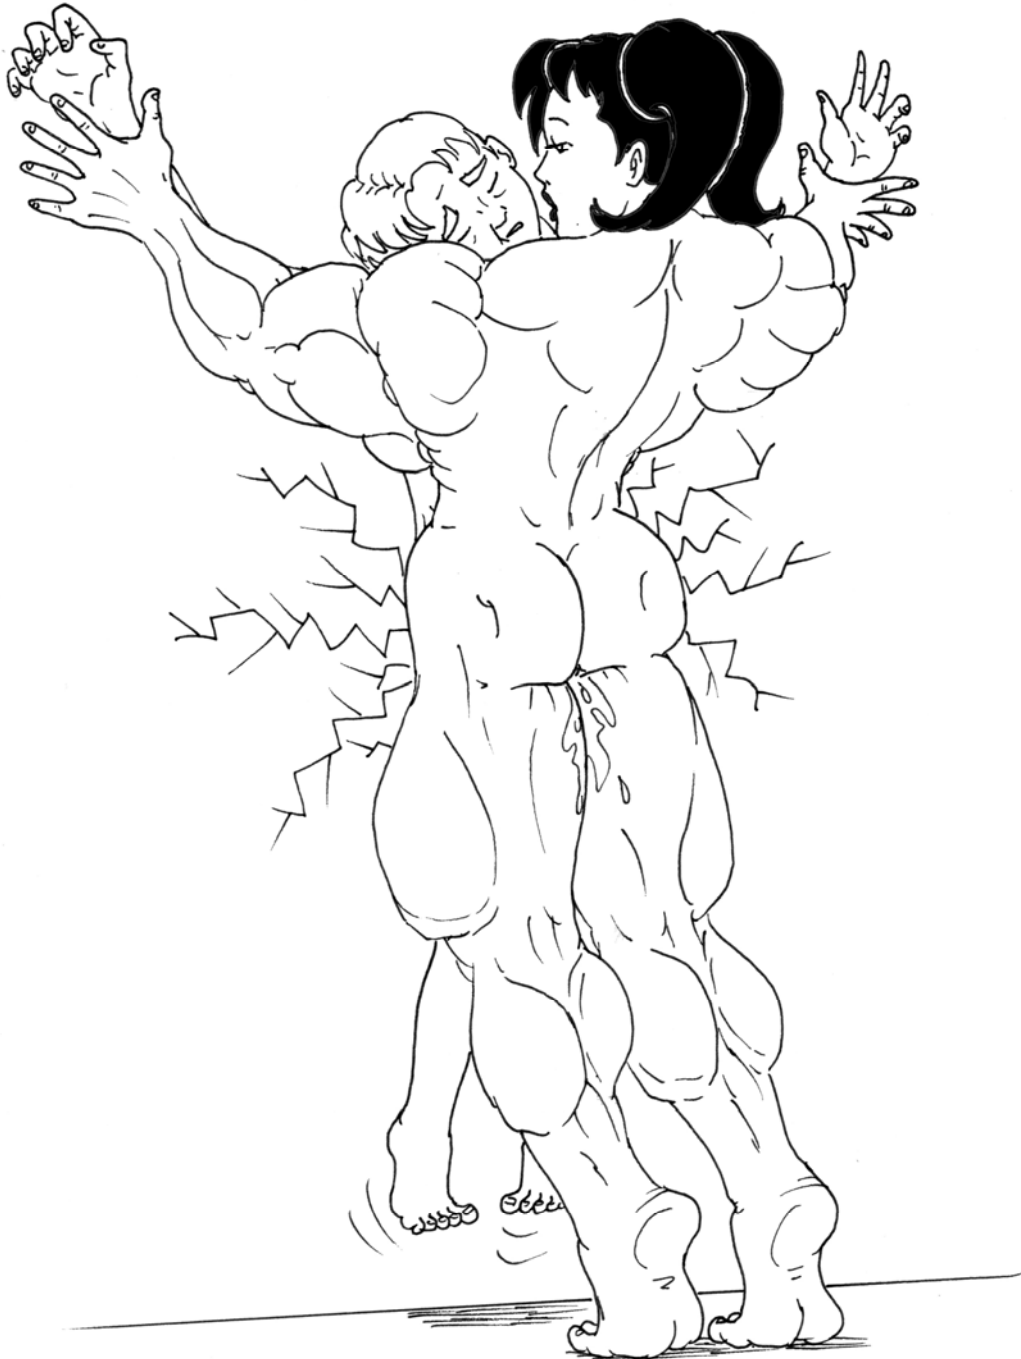

Just as she was about to reach her erotic peaks, and beyond, Amy now came into view, using her massive strength and muscular power to separate these two pulsating partners of passion, before turning this defeated man over and onto his back, straddling him with one of her steel hard legs on either side of him, before she savagely grabbed his body, easily lifting him off the floor with her arms, before encasing his cock inside her visibly wet, physically constricting, pussy. She then moved her thighs (capable of breaking a mans ribs with ease) snug around his torso, holding him high off the floor now with only her thickly muscled legs, and the vice-like grip she held over his erection from her super strong vagina.

He let out a scream of pain that echoed around the entire room, taking much of his remaining strength to do so, as this hold was anything but comfortable on his extremely inferior form, as now even his world class dick was being mercilessly man-handled by her pussy, just as easily as her legs were doing to his chest. She even began to show off her mighty body's strength even more by releasing her thighs grip over him, now holding him aloft by his erection alone, before powering out a series of erotically performed squats. Doing so with a vicious grin as she looked down at his agony-filled face, relishing in the thought that she was handling and overpowering him so easily, which turned her on like little else in this world. Amy then gave one final powerful thrust upward, before re-clamping this man within her pair of 27" thighs, and continuing to harshly milk his cock with her constantly sucking vagina.

Being held in this fashion put a tremendous strain on his entire body, as he felt as if his ribs were about to snap any second now, and his even once confident shaft was on the verge of being either mashed to pulp or ripping clean from his body. Yet still it grew, still it hardened, still it throbbed within Amy's hot, wet love-hole, letting her know beyond any doubts that no matter how much pain Mr. Scott was in, that her using her body on him in such a fashion was undeniably turning him on, which is why she knew he was going to be Hers for the rest of their lives.

Though not for the rest of this session it seemed, as Jessica suddenly came into view, rudely interrupting their forced love-making, before grabbing their mans body underneath his butt with both hands (his frame being so much smaller than theirs, she could hold onto each of his butt-cheeks within each of her hands) and slamming him into a nearby wall. Such an impact caused a few crackles and snaps to emerge from his utterly outclassed form, though this dark haired Amazon seemed to care little for his well-being at this time, and only about quenching her own sexual thrust, which she did so by swiftly shoving his still throbbing cock deep inside her, as she continued to Ram her thick and shapely physique into his, crushing his body between her own and the wall behind him, while she squeezed his cock inside her muscle packed pussy.

Again and again her rock solid frame would Slam into his own, giving her body unreal thrills and chills at her latest and greatest forced fucking. So harsh were her impacts on his body, and therefore him into the wall behind him, that the once sturdy surrounding area of this room began to crack and crumble underneath such a powerful physical onslaught. Mr. Scott had no choice regarding his very own life at this stage (something he was becoming all too familiar with recently), as with his last remaining ounce of strength soon to be leaving him (everywhere except his too-strong-for-its-own-good erection), he could only lean his body forward, rest his head on one of Jessica's extremely wide and muscle capped shoulders, while giving off pitiful little grunts of pain (or where they of pleasure?) with each and every hip thrust she gave in on him.

Her sexual limits about to be reached, as her passionate desires were about to be quenched, it should have been no surprise to her to feel a pair of female hands reaching out and around her body, pulling her away from this shared sexual treasure that was Robert Scott; Amy catching him before he fell near lifelessly to the floor within her own equally powerful and steel hard arms, before maneuvering him into yet another position to satisfy her own lustful urges and erotic delights. And thus these two insanely sex-crazed supergirls went on and on, using and abusing this mans frail and weedy form for their unbridled Amazonian pleasures, taking him from the other just before they managed to explode with passionate fury, to claim him for themselves and use him as they saw fit.

Their muscular frames pulsed and pumped with each and every exchange, causing their luscious hardness to appear larger, fuller, thicker with female muscle strength and power. Their smooth, silky skin was now covered in a layer of sexual sweat, which only increased as they went on, hugging their body's every curve and inch of shape, making it look like they were glowing with energy, something that wasn't too far from the truth in fact. Their hearts raced as they continued to pump and grind their bodies into him, their eyes fluttered with excitement, their tongues danced around their lips with arousal, and their pussys became so wet that they were literally dripping their sticky, hot love juices all around them. Yet still they had yet to finish a single sexual session, still they had yet to climax, to erupt their juices from within their quivering young bodies, offering them an erotic release from what they were holding inside them, which was building to nearly impossible levels during this semi-pretend Fight For Your Man sexual performance.

So during Amy's next attempt to interfere with Jessica's raping of Robert Scott bruised and beaten form, the black-maned Amazon resisted, causing them to nearly create a man-made tug of war, one which surely would have ended with his vastly inferior body being ripped in half. Of course this was not their plan, and as it appeared that each of them were actually angry with the other, this was the scenario they had in mind all along - to play the jealous young girl fighting the other for the right to be with her man. Though in the end there could be only the one result, which is what was about to take place here and now, with Jessica temporarily reclaiming their male sex-toys frame into her own, holding him up and off the floor by his sore and aching ass, with his legs limply hanging around her rock hard waist, with his pushed to its limits erection placed deep inside of her sexual opening.

Amy was hardly admitting defeat here, and she too joined in on their fun, as she moved closer to them both, reaching her muscle packed arms around their entwined forms, wrapping them around her Sister In Muscles rippling back, while Jessica did the same to her, as they encased Mr. Scotts weedy frame inside a solid, all encompassing, utterly enveloping, completely inescapable wall of sexy, female muscle. Instantly the two young women began to moan out with sexual pleasures in their girlish, high pitched voices, while their hands would probe and grope their fellow Amazons body. Giving one another an immensely erotic hug, getting turned on to no end not only from each others steel firm bulges of sweaty feminine muscle but also from having cute, little Robert Scotts completely defeated form smothered inside their unyielding embrace.

In addition to their hands pleasurable motions across their supremely muscular forms, their hips also were gyrating, thrusting and grinding into one another, though in actuality it was their mans form that they were pounding into. His unreal shaft shoved deep within Jessica's own vaginal walls, which were pulsating all around its hard shaft, surrounding it in her completely overflowing wetness, longing for his own vast amounts of sticky fluid to explode and join with her own. Their faces completely lost in lust-filled passion, their bodies moving and swaying as one, their fingers dancing and playing all over each others sweat covered, completely naked bodies, coupled with nearly 10 minutes of foreplay beforehand, was all simply too much to bare for Jessica, whose pussy was being tickled and teased to an incredible degree by a foot-long cock that she held trapped inside her. So with a scream that sounded like she was being attacked, rather than one of amazing orgasmic delights, she let go all of the juices that her body contained, sending wave after wave of cum flowing from inside her, something that was coupled with their mans own erupting love juices, which too had been building up to its peak since before this video clip began. Of course, when women such as Amy and Jessica reach their climax, it always involved a tensing of their truly massive, muscle packed physiques, and this case was certainly no different (quite the opposite, in fact), as the two teenage Amazons flexed their bodies to unreal levels, causing them to smash and grind into one another even more, not to mention a few more snaps and brakes emitting from Mr. Scotts woefully battered torso.

After a few more seconds of their steel tight embrace, the two youthful musclegirls sexily separated their glistening hot bodies, only to come back together a second later, with their mans virtually unconscious form switched the other way. His spent (though still amazingly stiff) dick now placed deep within Amy's eagerly awaiting love-hole, whose muscular walls clamped down on it the second it entered, and began sucking onto its juices with the desire to mix them with her own still peak level wetness. Their previous hold was performed yet again, this time with Amy now being on the receiving end of this unreal piece of sexual man-meat. The girls bodies still extremely hot and bothered, flowing with sexual energy, even after Jessica's release, as women such as they could literally go all night long, especially with the weekend of sex and lust these girls had just lived through, something that was only making them cry out for More!

Though while they may have had near boundless energy and an Amazonian fitness level, their male partner (especially after all he had been through during the past two days) did not. So without wasting any time (which was just fine for Amy, as she was aching to give her body the sexual release it was dying for) the twin supergirls continued on with their grinding, their pulsating, their thrusts and touches and grunts and groans of sensual delight, which soon culminated in an animalistic yelling of pleasure from our blond musclegirl; and surprisingly enough yet another explosion from the unreal erection that was inside her, which her inner-most muscles relished in sucking down every drop that she possibly could, its excess spilling on the ground right next to Jessica's own erotically created puddle.

Of course Robert Scott was not able to enjoy such post-climax pleasures, as with yet another sexual conclusion meant another expanding and hardening of their young, female forms around him, which caused another series of crackling sounds to emerge from his chest, and yet another forced trip to the land of unconsciousness. As before, the girls still held onto one another sexily slick bodies (continuing to smother their knocked out male in the process), as they were still giving soft and sensual gyrations into one another, allowing their ecstasy fueled breath to return to normal, finishing what was nearly a 15 minute long sexual threesome. Before long they separated their supremely pumped up physiques from each other, allowing their thoroughly defeated mate to fall to the floor in a heap of limp and nearly lifeless male flesh.

Proud as always of their bodies accomplishments, not to mention the several world class video clips and photos they now had for their many internet admirers of female muscle all over the world, Amy and Jessica covering their gorgeous (though sweat covered) faces in wide smiles, before they started giggling out aloud with unreal girlish excitement. They then placed a single, incredibly muscular, leg on top of their mans clearly beaten, broken, battered and utterly defeated form laying on the ground, before looking straight into the still recording online camera, and hitting a double biceps shot that was so massive they looked like they could jump onto a stage with many male bodybuilders (and win), yet so sexy and feminine that they could never hope to be mistaken for anything but the hot, young girls they were. Little streams of cum were still flowing down their legs and onto Mr. Scotts form beneath them, as they realized that while he may have been done for the moment (and very well done with their man for their current visit), that they themselves were far from finished.

Jessica then gazed into Amy's eyes with youthful passion and extreme arousal, as she stepped over the slumped over form of this barely living schoolteacher to reach her, gently stroking her massively sized arms. Both of their body's standing full and straight, their breasts so close that their nipples were touching and teasing one another's, which was sending waves of pleasure all throughout their thickly muscled frames. With her eyes slowly closing, her lips puckering up in a perfectly luscious kissing shape, Jessica reached forward to her fellow Amazon Amy with only one thing on her mind.

"You're so dead if this is another trick, Baby" Amy cooed out so softly the cameras audio barely caught it, with her lips stopping just a hairs breath from Jessica's own, her eyes mostly closed and on their way to being lost with unreal arousal.

"Just shut up and kiss me, Lover" the dark haired supergirl whispered back, as she pulled the busty young blond Goddess into her body, the same exact thing being done to her in return, as two of the most beautiful teenage Amazons one could ever hope to imagine began what would wind up being Muscle Video #4.....something that they would be saving for their own private viewing - for now, anyway.
