Aristocracy: School Wrestling Contest

Part 1: Prelude

Story by DCDC420
Art by Redfired0g

Eighteen year-old Erika was the richest person in her town – and just about every single other town nearby. She lived in a sleepy rural town, part of an entire community which had enough financial stability that their scales had stayed roughly the same for generations.

But Erika wasn't exactly like most people. Ever since she was a little girl, she'd been obsessed with the antics of the rich. Watching them on TV, begging her parents to let her go on holiday just to watch the "stars" stomping through the streets of the big city... she was obsessed. It was a passion that she couldn't ignore throughout her entire life – and combined with the unforgiving social environment of a small country town, it meant that Erika had spent most of her childhood glued to a computer screen. That same passion lead her to spend a few days putting together a tiny little game, one where you could squish people with a finger on your phone. That piece of software was now sitting firmly atop just about every single digital sales platform in the world – Erika had just about fulfilled her childhood dreams, and she was only 18.

Erika's home was the only building for miles that was actually taller than she was. Not even the trees reached past her chest here, and it made her feel good. Looking down across the rest of her property to the road, Erika quickly spotted the yellow school bus and grinned. Breaking out into a run that flattened trees and sent tremendous reverberations running through the earth, the massive girl reached the bus within seconds. The schoolkids inside could do little more than stare in fright since the moment Erika's door opened – back when she was the same size as they were, she'd been constantly relegated to the back of the bus. That ostracism meant that the school bus was Erika's absolute favourite target to bully.

Feeling the entire bus shake around them as Erika boomed closer, every single one of the vehicle's occupants had their face pressed against the window as the giant's sneakers came closer and closer.

Erika's upper body soon passed out of their field of view, and when the giantess spoke all the people below could see was a gigantic pair of sneakers attached to an equally gigantic pair of ankles.

The tremendous sole slowly lowered onto the roof of the bus, and the metal visibly crumpled with a hideous grinding sound that was quickly drowned out by a massive giggle.

Squatting down and grabbing the front of the bus in her hands, Erika tilted the vehicle upwards until everyone inside could see her smirking face.
"Woops, guess I wouldn't fit after all."

Gently lowering the bus back to the ground as she returned to her full height, Erika turned around with her legs still on opposite sides of the bus as she grabbed her phone and plugged in her earphones.

As the driver punched down furiously on the gas pedal, Erika calmly walked forward along the road while humming one of her favourite songs.

Her tremendous footfalls came down in front and behind the yellow bus, and the regular passing of her giant shadow left every single person inside terrified of a potential accident.

Miss Levi was one of the most well-liked and popular teachers in the school, [illegible] she actually treated the students in their final year like the adults they were – and it didn't hurt that she was fairly easy on the eyes, further adding to her appeal with the older students. Utterly unaware of what was happening just outside the portable classroom she'd been assigned for this final physics class, she continued to teach just like normal.

"Of course, these rules work fine for a time, but they obviously don't apply to people who reach a height of greater tha-"

Miss Levi never got to finish her statement after that. As she tapped against a diagram on the wall, the shoddily built portable classroom seemed to explode.

The white-painted wall of wood was shattered into a hundred tiny fragments, but they weren't replaced by the blue of the sky. Instead, they were replaced by a different kind of wall – one made of white fabric clinging to a rounded surface. That white fabric had been a familiar enough sight for a lot of the students, and a few of them had even had the misfortune to get as close a look as Miss Levi was getting now whenever the school's only giantess felt particularly mean. The arrival of Erika's butt was met with screams from the classroom – and while some of them were elicited by nothing more than the surprise of the classroom being destroyed, the sight of the incredibly mean girl it belonged to

The teacher was pinned to the floor of the makeshift, ruined classroom; her body pressed against the ground by Erika's massive behind. She was caught between two big cheeks, pinned helplessly in place by the massive girl doing nothing more than sitting down. The smell of the younger girl quickly filled up her nose, and she struggled to get out even more frantically when Erika finally settled down.
"Help! Get off me!"

The combination of a teacher struggling against her butt and the screams of the classmates she'd hated so much for the last few years brought a smile to Erika's billboard-sized face. Slowly turning around with an expression of mock surprise on her face, the towering schoolgirl smirked before starting to speak. Her words loud enough to instantly drown out and silence the teacher, the arrogant tomboy started to lie through her teeth.

"Woops. I forgot they'd put this classroom down here. Thought they'd finally gotten around to installing a seat for me. Although this does work too...who's playing the part of furniture down there?"

Miss Levi let out a long sigh, quickly realizing that Erika wouldn't let her get out of this without some sort of humiliating display.
"Yes, Erika, we've heard your complaints about the lack of giant-sized facilities before. Your donations have been appreciated, but that doesn't mean you can just go and wreck whatever you want."

www.erofus.com

Miss Levi's words triggered a reaction faster than she'd expected. Erika rolled backwards for a moment, rubbing her butt over the teacher's body in a painful and humiliating manner for a second before rising into a crouch. On her hands and knees, the giant tomboy was crawling above the wrecked back wall of the classroom – and still towering above everyone there. The view left her (albeit completely covered) breasts on display, moving about and drawing the attention of everyone below despite being completely out of reach... not that many of the people there thought that was a bad thing. There'd already been one "accident" involving someone trying to cop a feel of the giant girl, and that particular student was permanently relegated to a wheelchair for his bit of fun.

Erika's constant athleticism meant that she was incredibly fast despite her size – and before Miss Levi managed to stand up she'd been caught in a massive hand, the fingers curling into a fist that forced the air from her lungs. The panicking older woman was lifted up into the air and held before a massive, smug face. When Erika opened her mouth and spoke, she was so loud to her new plaything that it was painful – and even when she wasn't talking, her breath alone was like a warm, humid breeze.

"Actually, I'm pretty sure I can just go and wreck whatever I want. What, are you gonna stop me?"

The smirk on Erika's face slowly turned upwards, as if she was daring Miss Levi to respond or try and maintain a bit of respect and dignity.

"Hey, put her down! We're tryi-"

The students below quickly started protesting – they liked Miss Levi, and they liked her a hell of a lot more than they did Erika. All they earned for their trouble was a terrifying glare that shut most of them up... and a gigantic pound from an equally gigantic fist that did the same for the rest.

"Now now class, you'll speak when you're spoken to. Didn't anyone teach you good manners?"

Giggling at her own terrible joke, Erika turned her gaze back to the teacher before her and languorously ran the tip of her tongue over her lips as she slowly rose back up to her full, utterly imposing height.

"Erika, no amount of donations will get you excused from doing something like this. If you just put me down now and go off to the competition, there won't be any problems."

Erika opened her mouth to start responding, but she didn't even start her first word before stopping – all that escaped her mouth was the sound of her stomach rumbling. Miss Levi's features froze at the sound, her body trying to curl inwards a bit out of pure fear. It didn't help that she was forced to stare at the giant tomboy's open mouth when it happened, her attempt at maintaining a brave face doing little more than giving her terrified brain fuel for more images of getting devoured by the far larger female. Erika, with her fingers constricting almost every inch of Miss Levi's body, quickly realized what that instinctual fear was – and it brought a subtle flush to her cheeks.

"Oh, I get it. You're scared that I'm going to eat you, is that it?"
www.erofus.com

"You're right. There's no amount of donations that could make up for me turning you into a snack."

Miss Levi was surprised by the girl's words – she'd been expecting much worse. A little bit of relief crossing her features, she opened her mouth to speak only to get drowned out again.

www.erofus.com

"Doesn't mean I can't do it. You know how generous the law can be when you're literally too big for prison. There are boundaries, sure, but the occasional 'slip'..."
With that, Erika let go of Miss Levi. The teacher fell through the air, toward's Erika's enormous, hungry jaws. At the last second, though, Erika deftly grabbed Miss Levi's feet in mid-air, dangling the teacher upside-down above her mouth.

Erika's big blue eyes were drinking in the sight of the fear that her words had teased out from the teacher that she'd been forced to obey back when she was small. Even as she spoke, she slowly brought her teacher closer and closer to her waiting mouth. Miss Levi's head almost made it past those two huge lips before she started to scream in terror, begging and pleading for Erika to put her down.

"Would still be enough of an inconvenience that I'm not gonna really go out of my way to eat someone for being nasty to the old me."

Erika's grin as she pulled Miss Levi away from her mouth made it clear that despite her words, she was utterly capable of going through with her earlier threat. The teacher let out an audible sigh of relief in the belief that the giant girl had had her fun – which meant that she didn't even have her eyes open when Erika let her go in midair.

Letting out another scream of terror, the petrified teacher was cut off herself when she landed on something soft. Tumbling down over a big, fabric-clad bust, the much smaller woman ended up rolling down to land in between Erika's breasts. The giant tomboy was fairly well endowed – but the fall from that high up would have been lethal to Miss Levi. The frantic panicking elicited another laugh from Erika, but that meant that her chest started to move…which was exactly what she'd planned. The teacher trapped against her bust was jostled to and fro, bouncing about sensitive flesh high above the ground until she reached out and clung to the giantess' body, whimpering in fear once again.

"Besides, you're way too fatty for me. I have a very strict diet, and I can't really afford to break it just to scarf you up, even if it probably would all just go straight to my boobs."

Looking down at her chest, Erika waited for Miss Levi to finally settle down in a "safe" place, the teacher's frantic motion coming to a stop in the valley of the giant girl's cleavage. Erika's boobs were bigger than the teacher's body, and the much smaller woman could feel the beating of a giant heart against her own body.

"And they're a bit too big already. It can get kind of annoying when I'm trying to run… but they're fun enough to play with that I don't really mind. After all, I get to do stuff like this."

www.erofus.com

The moment Erika finished speaking, she'd placed a single hand on each breast and started to push together. The warm, soft flesh that surrounded Miss Levi started to bear down on her entire body with more and more force, as the oversized tomboy kept on increasing the pressure. Too scared to try and move out of the girl's cleavage (and risk falling to her death), Miss Levi simply put her arms out and tried to fight back against the encroaching wall of flesh. Even though she used all the strength she had in her body, she couldn't push back Erika's breasts – all she did was elicit a mocking giggle from the flushed face up above her.

"You know, that feels kind of nice. Really puts things into perspective, doesn't it? Your entire body failing to match up to one of my breasts is a pretty humiliating failure, isn't it? And I'm not even trying too hard, either."

To accentuate her point, Erika pushed her breasts together even harder – producing so much pressure that the trapped teacher was unable to move at all.

"Hey, that's cruel! Erika, put her down. We don't want to... [illegible] ...felt like being disgusting."

While the brave cry from some of the students down below earned Miss Levi a temporary respite from being crushed, it earned the class Erika's attention... which rapidly made them regret drawing the giant girl's ire. Instead of responding with words, she lowered her hands from her boobs and looked down at the classroom before her feet.

www.erofus.com

Raising her foot up, s... above their heads and grinned before suddenly bringing it down with a massive stomp. The sound of broken wood filled the air as one of the classroom's desks was reduced to splinters by the massive step, even as the shockwave it created knocked every single comparatively miniscule student to the ground. That huge sole lifted up and came back down shortly after, resting on the rest of the desks and leaving the students below trapped beneath Erika's foot.

"I told you to be quiet, and you just couldn't listen. I really thought you would have learned your lesson by now, but guess not. Hell, I'd have thought you'd figure out not to even talk back to me the moment I showed up to school with feet bigger than your entire bodies. I suppose that just means I have to find some other way to make you obey...luckily enough, I have one right here."
www.erofus.com

Erika's hands returned to her chest, at which point she gave them another squeeze – but this time she put more force into it than she had last time. The sudden increase in pressure teased out another scream from Miss Levi, and this one sounded hurt. The muttering and complaining coming from beneath Erika's feet was silenced instantly, the students below cowed into obedience by the threat of further pain and torment for their beloved teacher.

www.erofus.com

Erika simply giggled at the results she received, before starting to increase the pressure even more.

Miss Levi's screams grew more panicked and pained, before being cut off as her open mouth was filled with the bare flesh of one of Erika's breasts. She tried to bite down in a show of resistance, but all she did was tease out another giggle – and turn the giant girl on a bit, the resultant tightening of the fabric covering her shirt making it clear that her nipples had hardened.

"I wasn't actually going to kill you... but I figure this is decent payback for being such a bitch to me way back when. And before you go to try and report this to anyone, remember that I can see your house from here."

Crouching down to the ground, Erika roughly dropped Miss Levi down behind what was left of her desk and stood back up to her full height before stomping the ground for emphasis.

"Same goes for you lot too. You spill your mouths, I'll have to pay for another stupid looking memorial. Now, I've got a competition to get to. Have fun looking at your teacher's boobs."

With that, the massive girl turned on her heels and stomped away, the ground still shaking as she made her way to another part of the school.

Bonus: Alternate Ending

Erika pressed her breasts together with all her strength. Her huge breasts squeezed tight, squishing the small teacher into goo.

It would cost her, but so what? Erika had more money than she knew what to do with. A day's royalties to pay for a good lawyer, and she would be home free.
