

No, Caitlin, this is not a hospital.
It's kind of like a... health camp!

They will help you cope with your depression.

One of the best!

Oh, don't worry, honey. It's only for a month.

Caitlin?!

Caitlin?!

ONE MONTH LATER.

I need some new stuff. Nothing suits me anymore.

Good Lord, Caitlin, they're huge!

Yeah!

Is it difficult to walk with such large implants?

These are not implants.

What do you mean?

They are my own.

But they look absolutely fake!

It's because my skin doesn't keep up with my fast-growing tits. It needs time to stretch out.

Damn, girl! What the hell happened in that camp?!

Sorry, I can't talk about it.

Uhm... Why?

I was forbidden.

Oh, come on!
How am I supposed to live with this now?

You see, it's for members only.

Please, Caitlin! We're best friends.
I won't tell anyone.

Eerrr...

Please, please, please!

Weeeell... all right.

Yeeaaa...

*But you're the only one I'll tell,
so don't say a word to anyone.*

Got it! I'll be dumb as a fish.

I hope so. Otherwise I will have problems.

Tell me all the details!

Okay. That's how it was.

DAY 1

As you understand, the idea of the camp did not belong to me. So after my parents left, leaving me there, I was scared and confused. But then... She appeared!

- Hey, you must be Caitlin, right?

- Uh huh...

- Welcome to the family! Welcome to Lolipop Camp. My name is Isabella. I will be your mentor throughout your stay here. If you need anything, please let me know.

- Ummm... Thanks.

- Cheer up! Come on, I'll help you get settled!

DAY 1

I must admit, she knows how to win over. Isabella... She's gorgeous! In a word, she is one of those women who always get their way. And it's damn hard to say no to her.

- In our camp, we help people understand themselves, their emotions, feelings and learn to control and use them in the right direction. It's a very difficult task, isn't it?

- I guess...

And one more detail about her... She's super hot! You should have seen her figure! Her breasts are even bigger than mine right now.

No way! Even bigger?!

Yeah, I was a little shocked when I first saw her.

Wow!

But that wasn't the only surprise that day.

DAY 1

Tell me more!

Everyone around had huge tits! Every single woman!

Ha!

And I said to myself then:

- Something's wrong here...

- We learn to love, trust and help each other. Therefore, there is nothing to worry about. There is no doubt that you will fit perfectly into the team.

- I wanna go home!
