I had the idea of having a bondage BJ party.

It was easy to find a suitable location for this party. And there were also many friends who immediately agreed to join in. Be it for the preparation or as actors.

Maybe you also know many of them.

Here you can see among others:

Veronica, Brooke, Samantha, Conny, Gwendi, Sheila, Gracia (The OC of missgracia), Jutta, Cathrine (An OC of CatONine), Sophia, Evalina, and myself.

We're all waiting in this cell until the preparations for our bondage BJ party are completed.

I hope you also have a lot of fun at this party.

Your Tawny

After all the equipment has been set up, we are taken out of our cell and tied to the appropriate equipment.

After all the girls have been strapped to their devices, the male players are moved in.

All devices are switched on and ... Action ...

The Jury

The men have received the order that everyone must be served by all 12 girls. Miss Grace stands in the background at the gong and initiates the change with the gong stroke. After 12 changes, each of the men has to hand in a note stating the name of the girl who, in his opinion, served him best.

The 3 girls with the most votes are then asked to a final session, where they fight again for the title of "Miss Blowjob". In order not to counteract extreme disappointment here, the nominated ones are not named in the order of the evaluation and even the 3 with the highest votes are not ranked according to the number of votes they received.

Miss Stella, Miss Grace and Miss Serayes as well as Robert have made themselves available as Jury respectively for the supervision of the action as well as for the protection of the girls.

Miss Grace strikes the gong and the men have to change girls ...

As planned, the men carry out the change.

During the first changes, a rather muddy mess arose, similar to a fairground carousel, where the most beautiful places are fought for. But little by little the change worked better and better.

There were also breaks again and again, where also the devices were switched off and that both the women and the men can recover accordingly. Carmen and Giselle provided refreshments here. The whole session with the 12 laps and the breaks ran over a longer period of time.

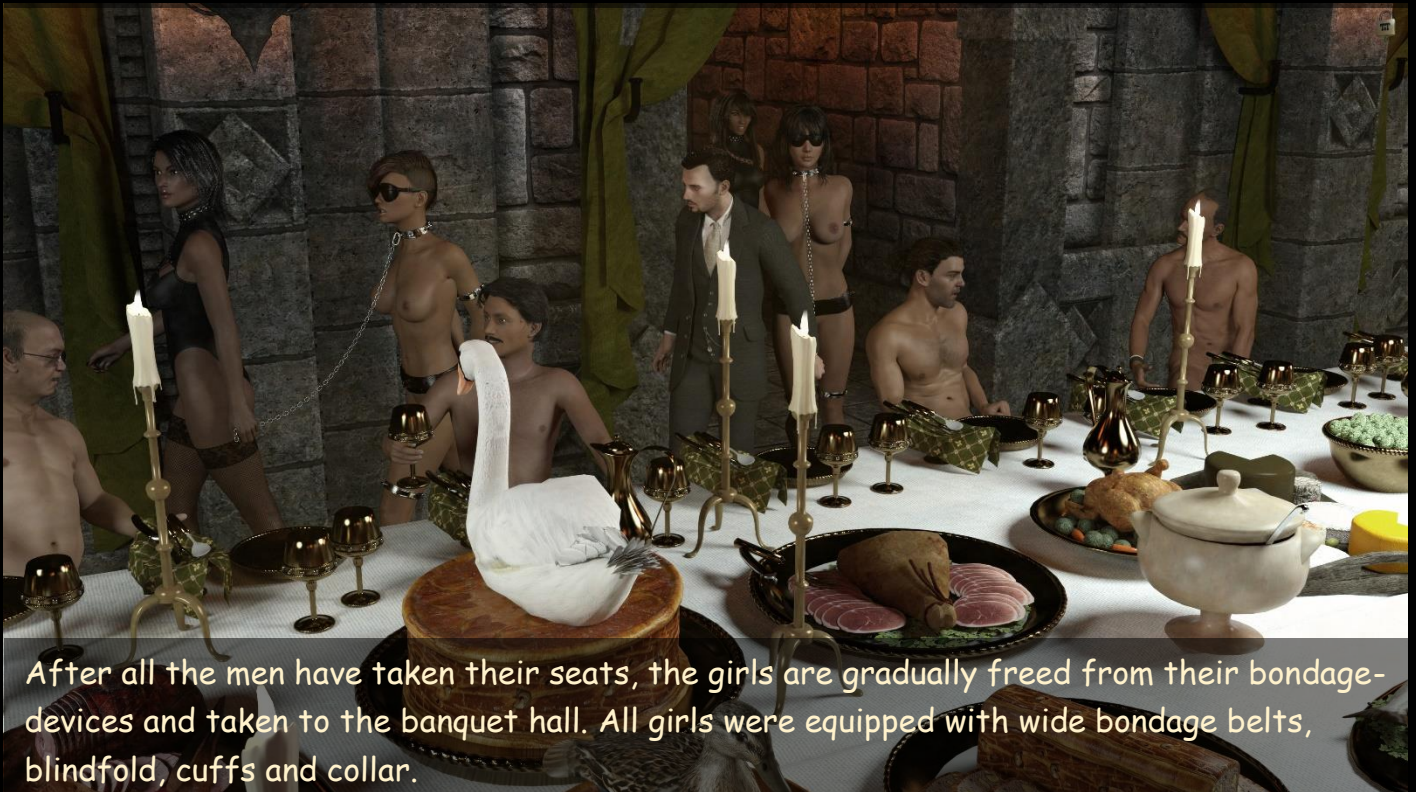

After the 12th change the gong sounds again and the men retreat into the festival room. Stella, Grace, Serayes and Robert remain with the girls and wait until the men have taken their seats in the banquet hall.

In the passage to the banquet hall are the ballot papers, pens and the ballot box. Each of the men has cast his vote here. There are also cleaning facilities in the passageway, which is absolutely necessary after the previous action.

After the gentlemen have cast their votes and cleaned themselves, they enter the banquet hall and take a seat at the generously laid table, leaving space between them for one lady each, also for logical reasons.

After all the men have taken their seats, the girls are gradually freed from their bondage-devices and taken to the banquet hall. All girls were equipped with wide bondage belts, blindfold, cuffs and collar.

The girls are led to their prepared places between the gentlemen and due to the fact that their hands are tied and their eyes are blindfolded, the dominants and Robert helped them to sit on the provided equipment.

After the girls have taken their seats, the belt is fastened with chains to the bench, thus depriving them of the opportunity to get up independently and free themselves from their equipment.

After everyone had taken their seats at the festive table, the girls' hands were loosened at the back and all were connected in such a way that the left wrist-cuff of each was connected with chains to the right wrist-cuff of the girl sitting on the left. This places their hands between the legs of the men and gives them the opportunity to do something good for the men sitting next to them.

In addition, a taut chain on the front-ring of the collars makes sure that they have to sit slightly bent over. So they have absolutely no possibility to escape the gentle massage in the lower part of their body, which is caused by the equipment that was installed on their seats.

Let's take a quick look under the table and see what's going on there.

After the situation around the table has calmed down a bit and everyone is satisfied, Miss Stella gets up. Miss Stella: "My dear friends I have now switched off the equipment on the benches. Now it is time to enjoy the delicacies that have been served to us. The ladies will remain as they are and will be looked after by their neighbors. Dear gentlemen, I hope you will take care that your ladies will not be shortchanged at this feast. After the meal we will announce which of the ladies will make it to the final round. Bon Appetit... "

The gentlemen cossets the ladies sitting next to them to the best of their ability and the feast is enjoyed by everyone. Of course, due to the unusual way of consumption, the feast will take a little longer. But there is enough time for everyone to get their money's worth.

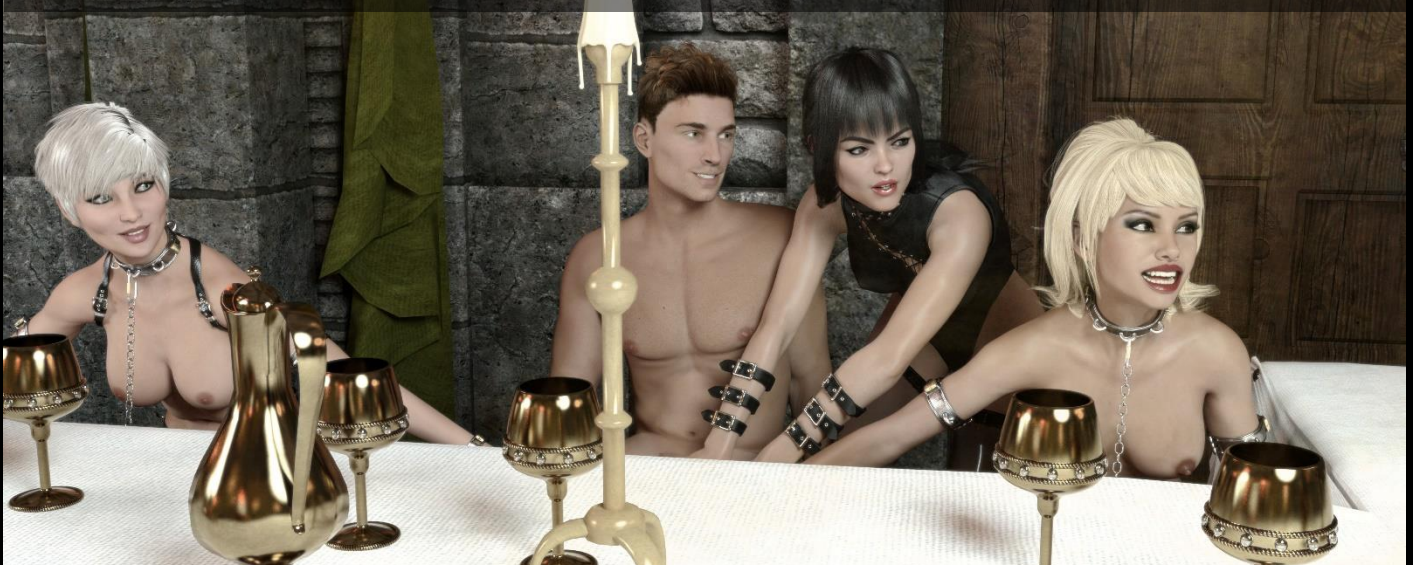

The banquet took a little longer than normal due to the aggravating situation.

After everyone was satisfied, the staff cleared the tables and Miss Stella took the floor again: "Dear friends, I hope the meal has been to your liking. As promised I now come to the announcement of the 3 finalists. But first, I'll ask the men to remove your ladies' blindfolds. Ladies, you've all been great, and we won't announce a ranking. The three finalists will also be named in random order. The first one to be happy and take a seat on the podium is Stella: "The first one to be happy and take a seat on the podium is

Gwendi

Gwendi smiled widely: "Oh my ... I wasn't expecting that ... Yippee ... Thanks." Stella: "Serayes, please release Gwendi and take her to the podium. The next lucky participant is Stella: "The next lucky participant is in random order of course Tawny" Tawny with a big smile on her/my face: "Wow ... I didn't expect that". Stella: "Robert, I would ask you to lead Tawny to her podium place". Robert: "Gladly, Miss Stella" Stella: "And the third podium place gets to" "

Stella: "And the third podium place gets to" "
"Sheila... Congratulations to all finalists. Grace, may I ask you to release Sheila as well and lead her to the podium."

The 3 finalists will be brought on stage by their nominated accompanying persons and will be fixed on their seats.

Miss Stella: "My dear gentlemen, now you are in demand again and it's all about finding the winner of this evening. Each of you has to be served by all 3 ladies until the highlight. I would suggest that you line up on the left side facing the stage and test your first lady. Afterwards you line up again at the back and test the 2nd, etc. As soon as all our finalists are fixed, we will start. After you have tested all 3 ladies, you come to me and give your vote. Well then ... have fun"

Sheila, Gwendi and Tawny are accordingly fixed on their designated seats. The poles which fixed the girls gives no opportunity to move away from their seats. Only the heads can be moved a bit. Also the men have already lined up in anticipation as suggested by Miss Stella and are waiting in joyful excitement for Miss Stella's starting signal.

All the other girls have also had their blindfold removed, so that they can at least visually participate in the fun. However, the equipment mounted on their seats will also make sure that they can "suffer" accordingly.

Miss Stella takes the remote control and activates both the equipment on the benches and the Sybians. "Gentlemen, here we go... have fun."

In each case 3 men placed themselves in front of the 3 selected girls and got a blowjob until they came off, while the girls themselves were permanently penetrated by the Sybians. Afterwards the men line up again at the back to be served by the next girl.

The last round has started, each of the 3 competitors has now sucked 12 men until they cum and one can see the effusions of the men as well as the effort caused by the permanent penetration of their pussy, which was beneficial to them during their activity. Here you can see Tawny, who is again gaining on the final spurt.

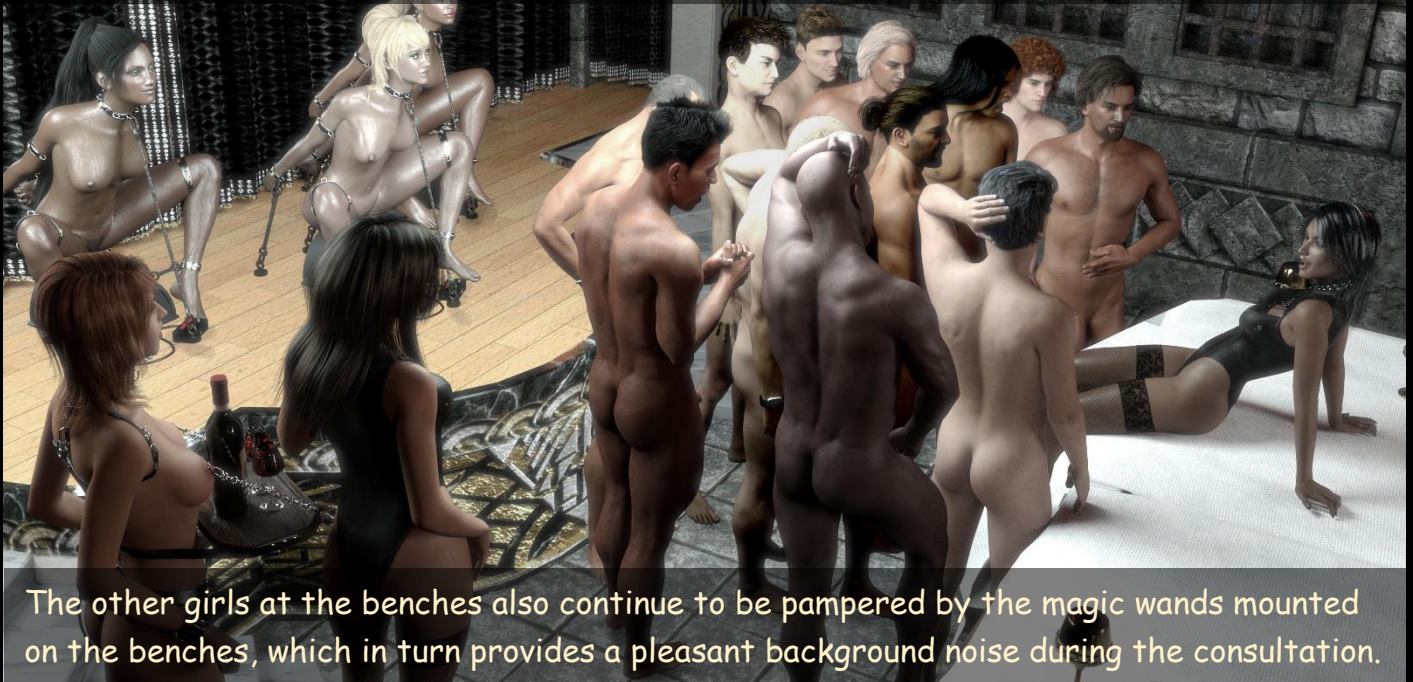

Also, Gwendi is already quite exhausted by the permanent penetration of the Sybian and tries to give her best in the last round. She sucks with her last strength on the tail of her last judge so that he can hear and see her and judges Gwendi as a top wind player.

And also, Sheila puts in a final spurt and tries again to give her best. If she is successful with this, we will see shortly ...

The 3 finalists have almost made it. All the men were finally served by the girls. While Miss Stella gathers the men around her and discusses with them who is now the winner of the contest, the girls' penetration through the Sybians remain active and continue to give them further pleasure.

The other girls at the benches also continue to be pampered by the magic wands mounted on the benches, which in turn provides a pleasant background noise during the consultation.

After Miss Stella's consultation with the men, the decision of who won the contest has been made. The men take their seats again next to the rest of the girls. Giselle has already prepared the victory trophies on her tray and the winners' podium is set up.

Miss Stella: "The 3rd place in this BJ-Contest goes to GWENDI

Applause for Gwendi ... Congratulations"

Gwendi climbs full of joy on the podium and wants to receive the bronze statue in the shape of a cock.

Miss Stella: "No, we do it differently ... Gwendi, spread your legs".

Gwendi's eyes widen and she opens her thighs

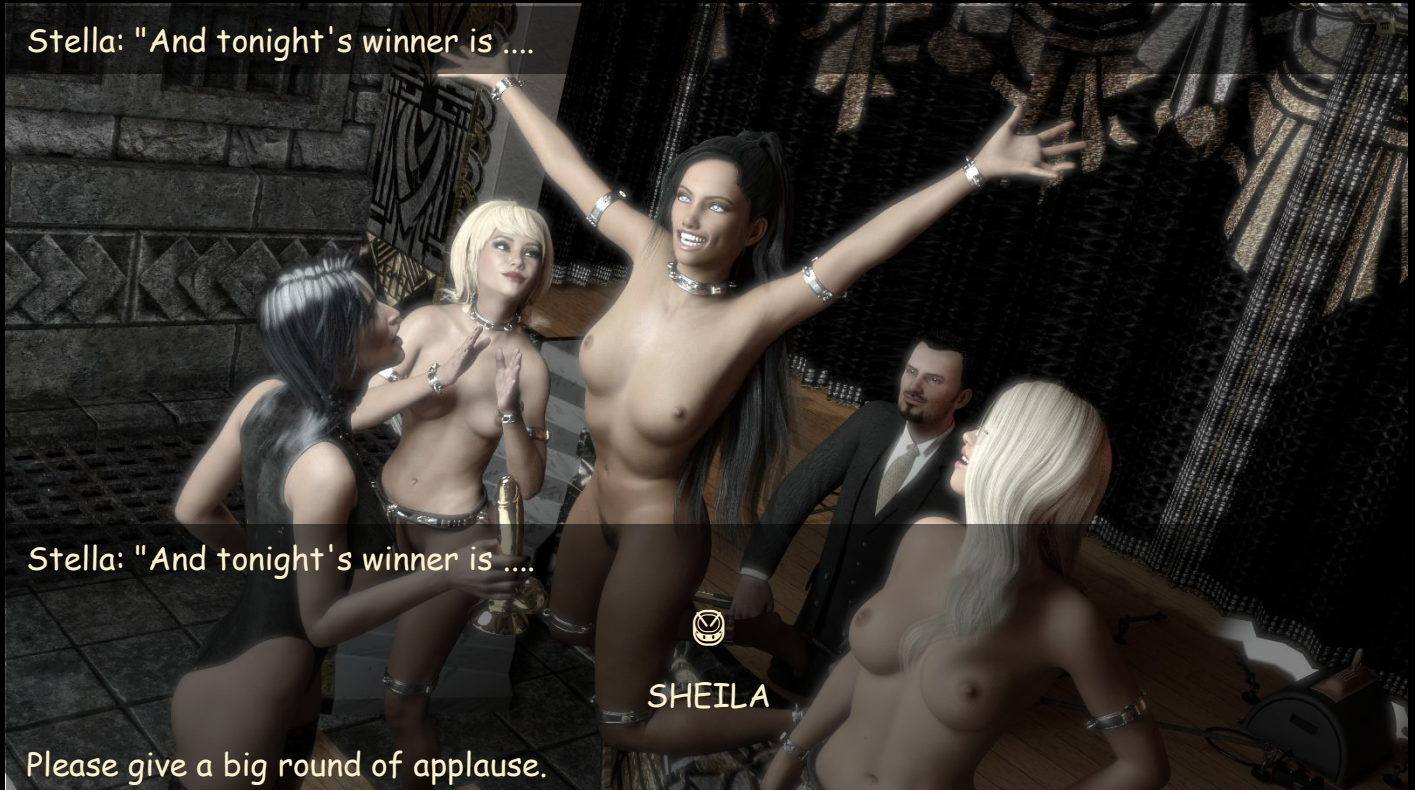

Miss Stella kneels down and inserts the bronze dildo into Gwendi's cave. Behind, Robert waits with a chastity belt to hold the dildo in place.

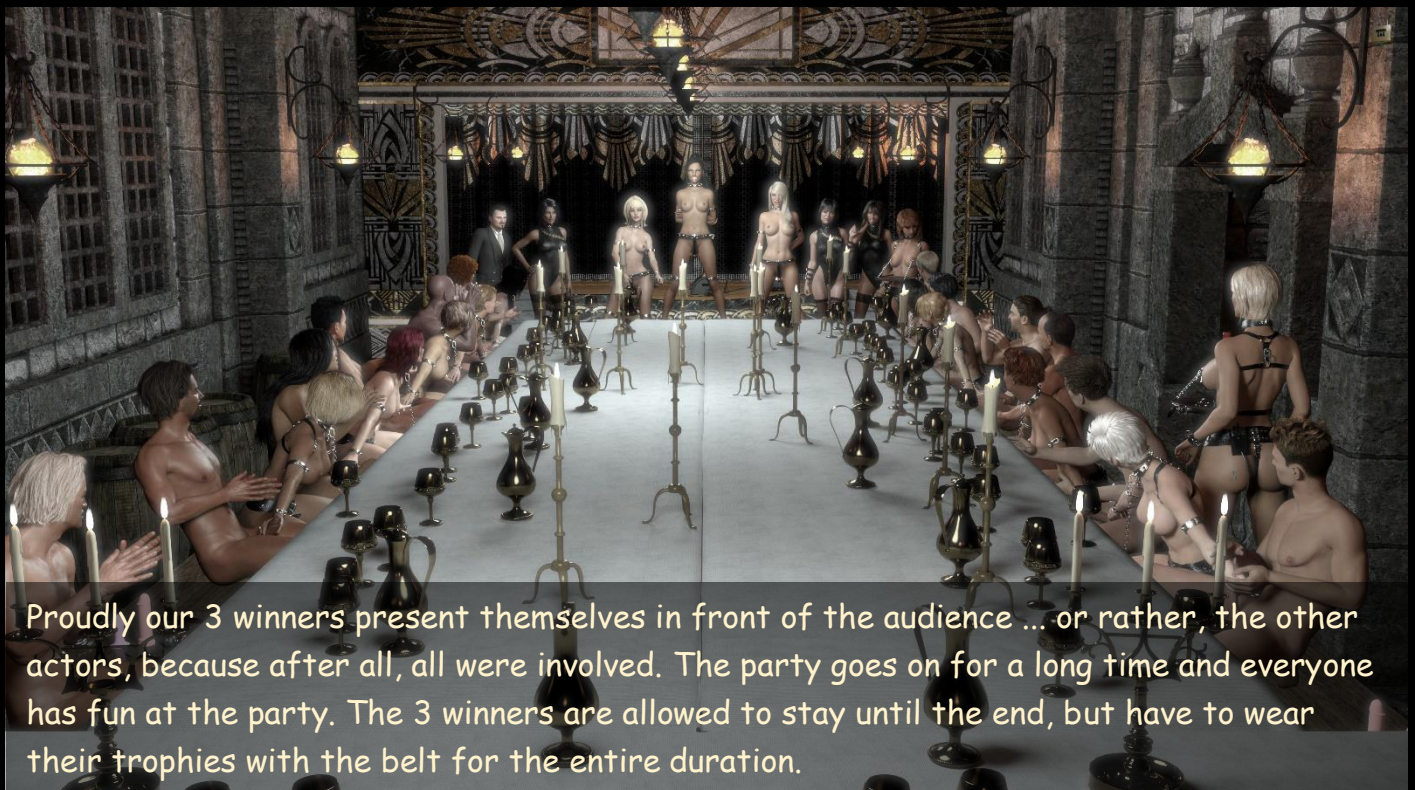

Stella: "And on place 2 from our BJ Contest is 🏆 Tawny!
Congratulations Tawny."

Miss Stella guides the trophy into Tawny's pussy as well and Robert is also waiting with a prepared chastity-belt to fix the silver dildo.

I may congratulate you and give you both the golden dildo and the title: Best cocksucker of the year. By the way, it also looks good to use such merits in serious job interviews ;)"
