There's some familiar faces...back already?

Yes, I'm afraid we'll have to make some more exchanges...

Not to worry. These things happen, after all. Let's just see what we're dealing with...

Oh dear...that can't possibly be comfortable, can it?

It's one of my sister's...

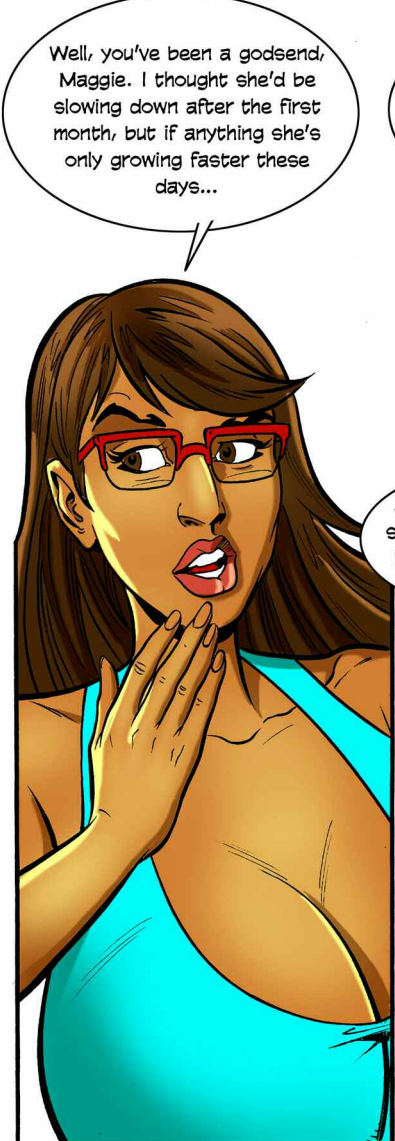

Once, maybe. But at this point I think it's stretched beyond use...

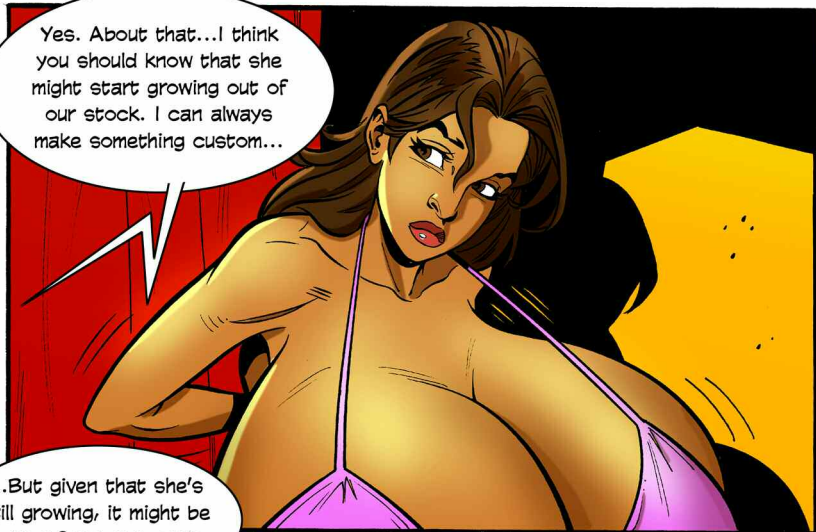

I'm sorry we have to keep doing this. I feel like we're here every other day now...

Pay it no mind. I made the store's exchange policy flexible for just these occasions.

Well, you've been a godsend, Maggie. I thought she'd be slowing down after the first month, but if anything she's only growing faster these days...

Yes. About that...I think you should know that she might start growing out of our stock. I can always make something custom...

...But given that she's still growing, it might be better for you to wait her out...

The idea that I was still growing, and faster, was music to my ears...

Especially since, if they did, I could rub it in the face of a certain someone...

...You know Rahmar, no matter how big you get, you're still going to be a freak.

Oh, enough already...

Yeah, see, I figure you had to have known I wasn't going to be a tiny shrimp forever...

See, you're just a big fish in a small pond. And the idea of anyone dethroning you one day drives you nuts, doesn't it?

Excuse me?

I get it now, okay? I've finally figured out.

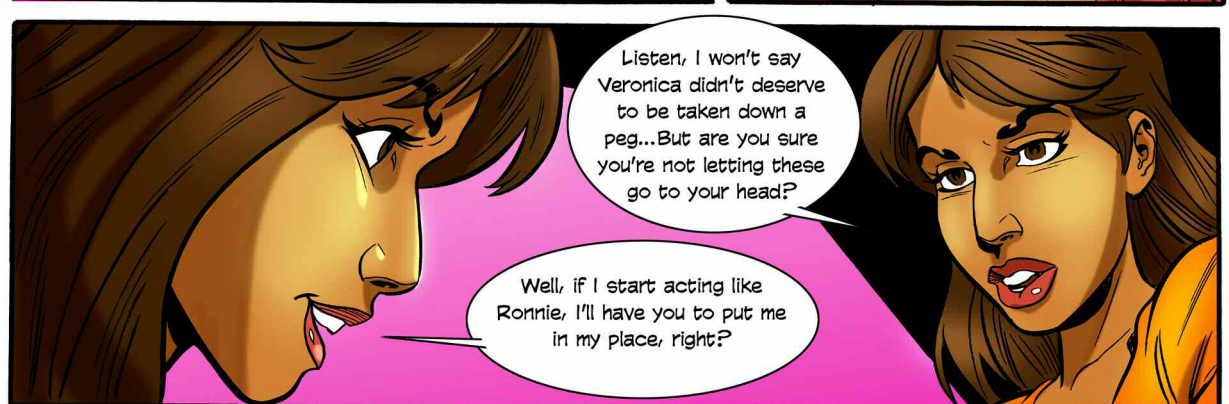

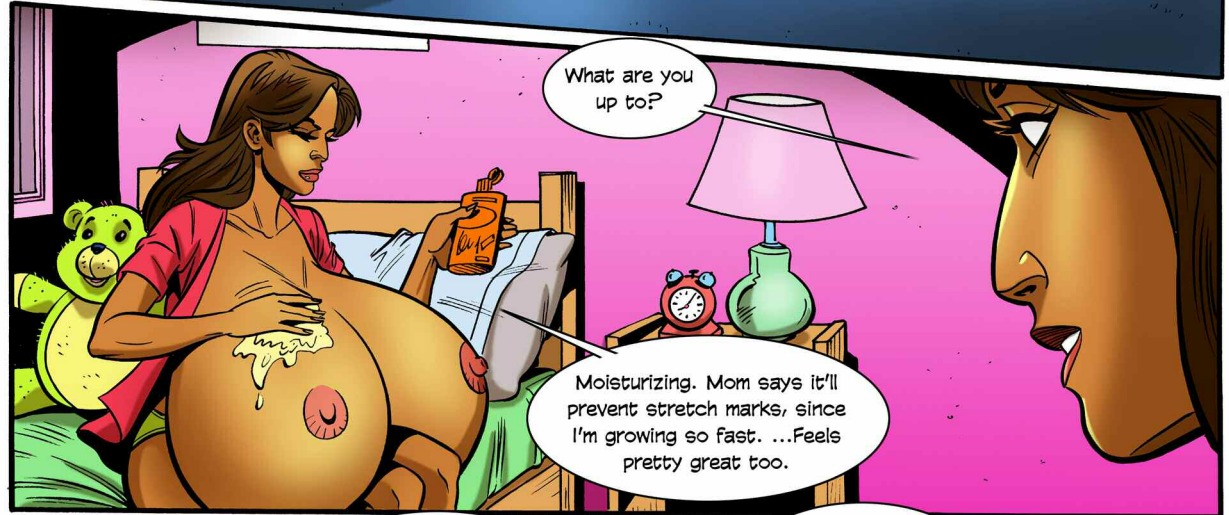

Oh really?

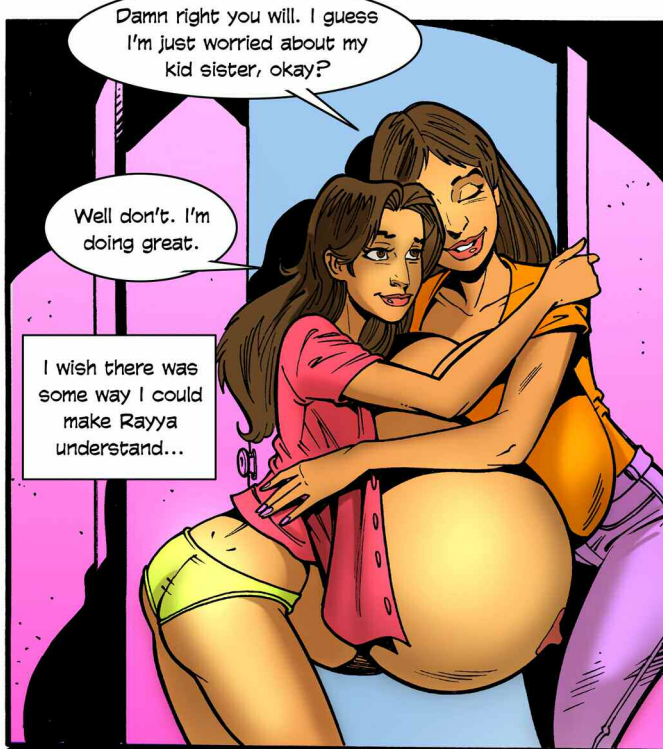

I-- You're seriously deluded if you think--

Well, either way, let it go, okay? Your attitude's gotten really old, Ronnie. And I've outgrown you.

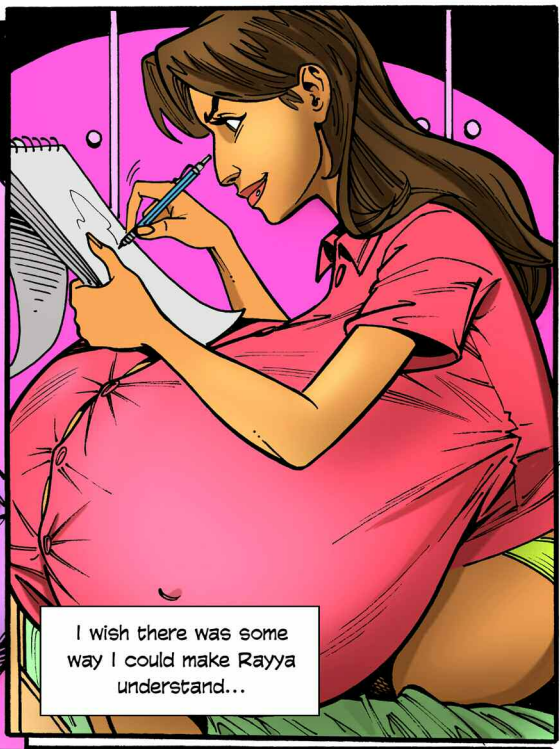

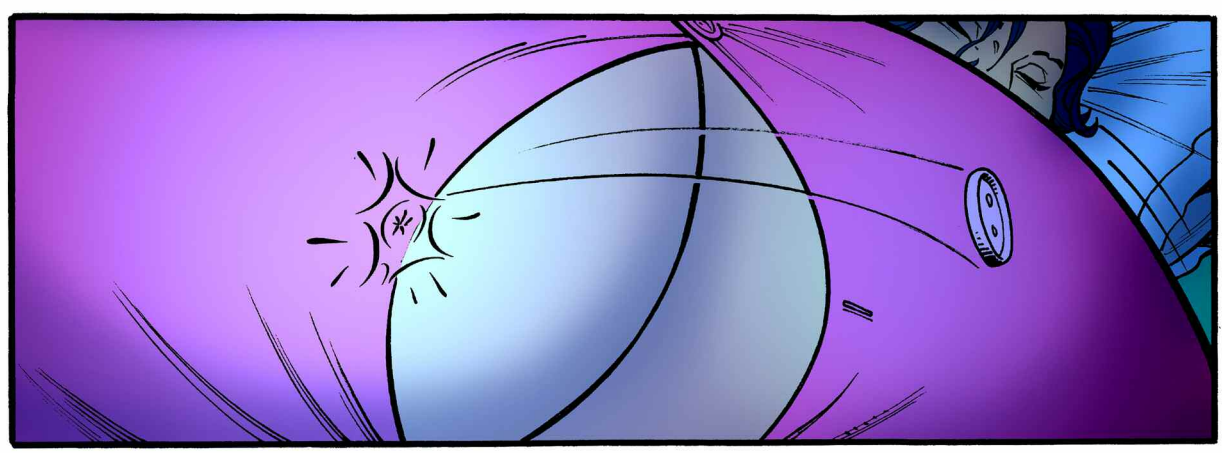

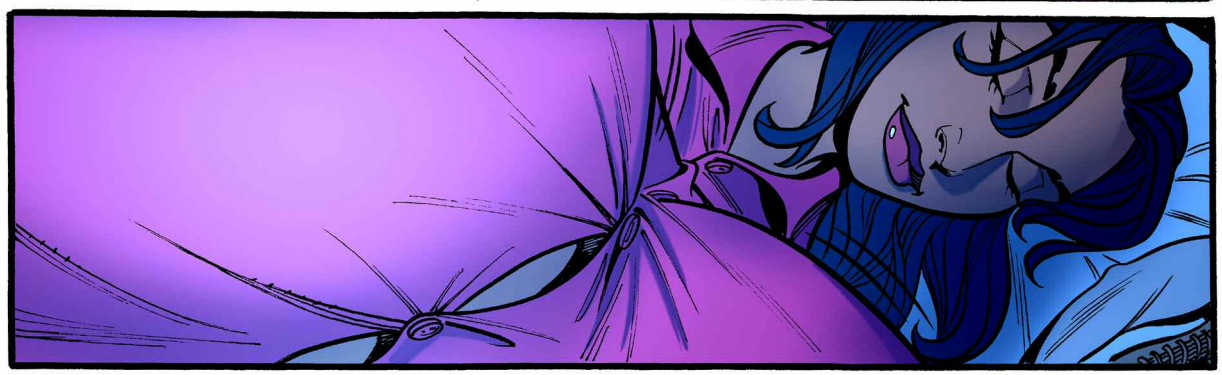

Damn right you will. I guess I'm just worried about my kid sister, okay?

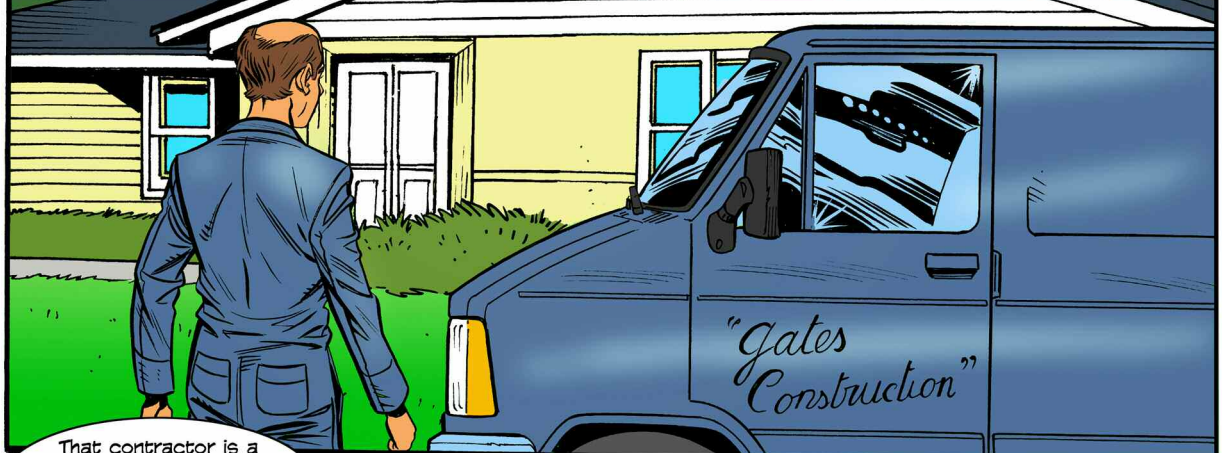

Well don't. I'm doing great.

I wish there was some way I could make Rayya understand...

I wish there was some way I could make Rayya understand...

But what are we going to do? If I don't stop growing I'll be too big for the house, and we can't—

Let us worry about that. I did get that raise at work recently... And I've heard the town does offer tax breaks for this kind of thing...

Maybe it's time we thought about moving?

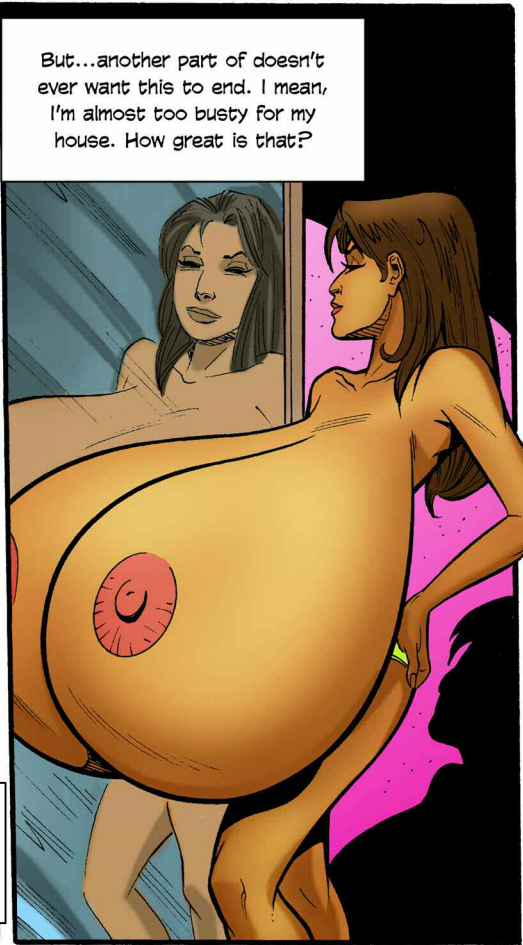

Stop.

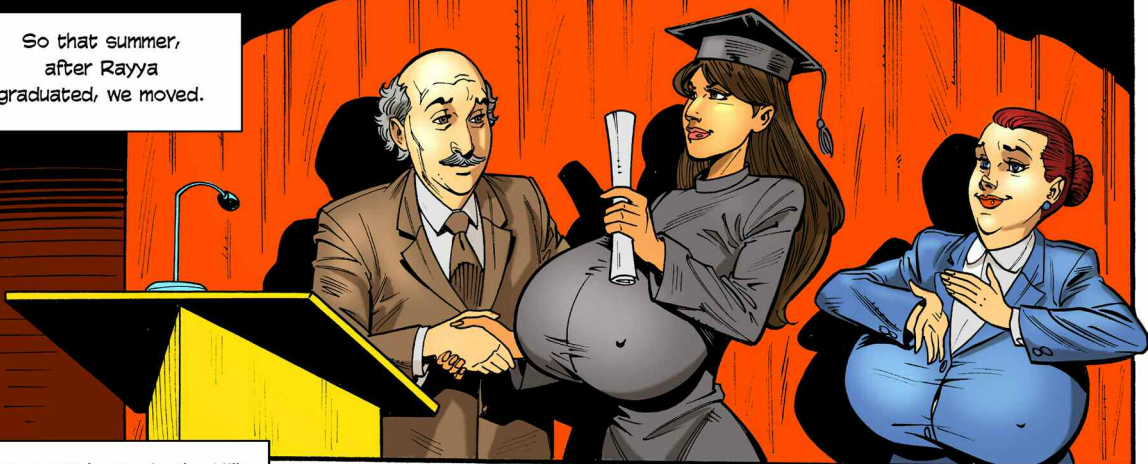

If mom and dad are okay with it, I am too. Besides, Paris and Milan will still be there while I do my undergrad locally...

I know they're putting on a brave face, and it just makes me feel sick. I don't want to be a burden to my family...

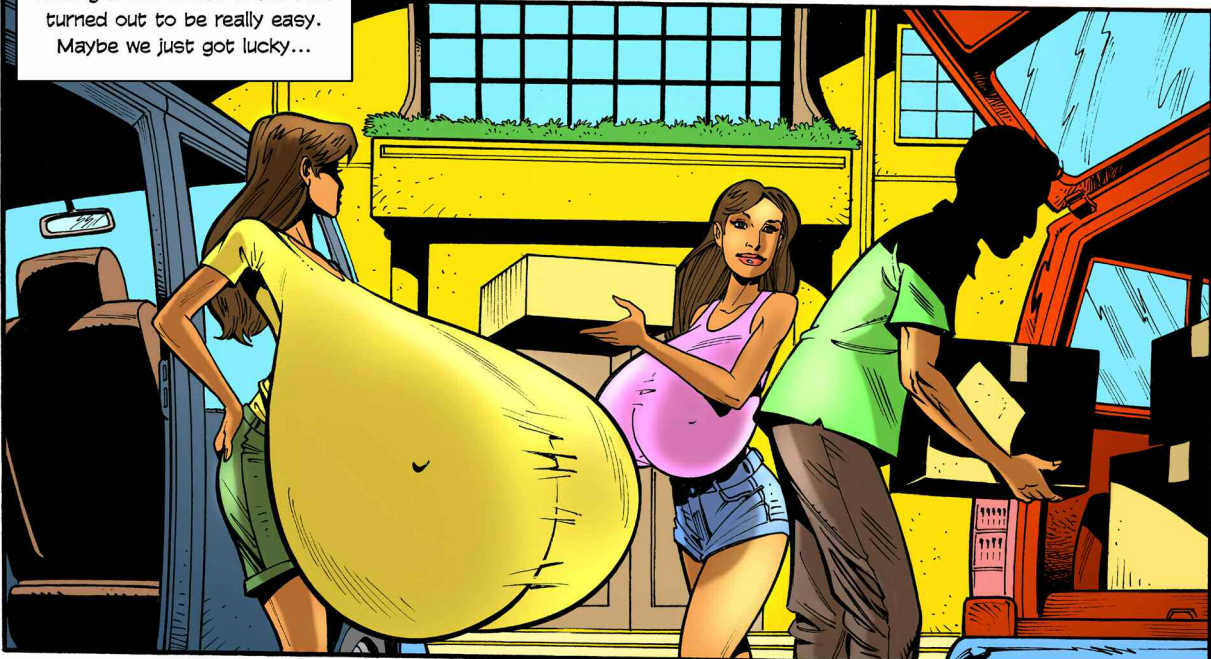

But...another part of doesn't ever want this to end. I mean, I'm almost too busty for my house. How great is that?

So that summer,
after Rayya
graduated, we moved.

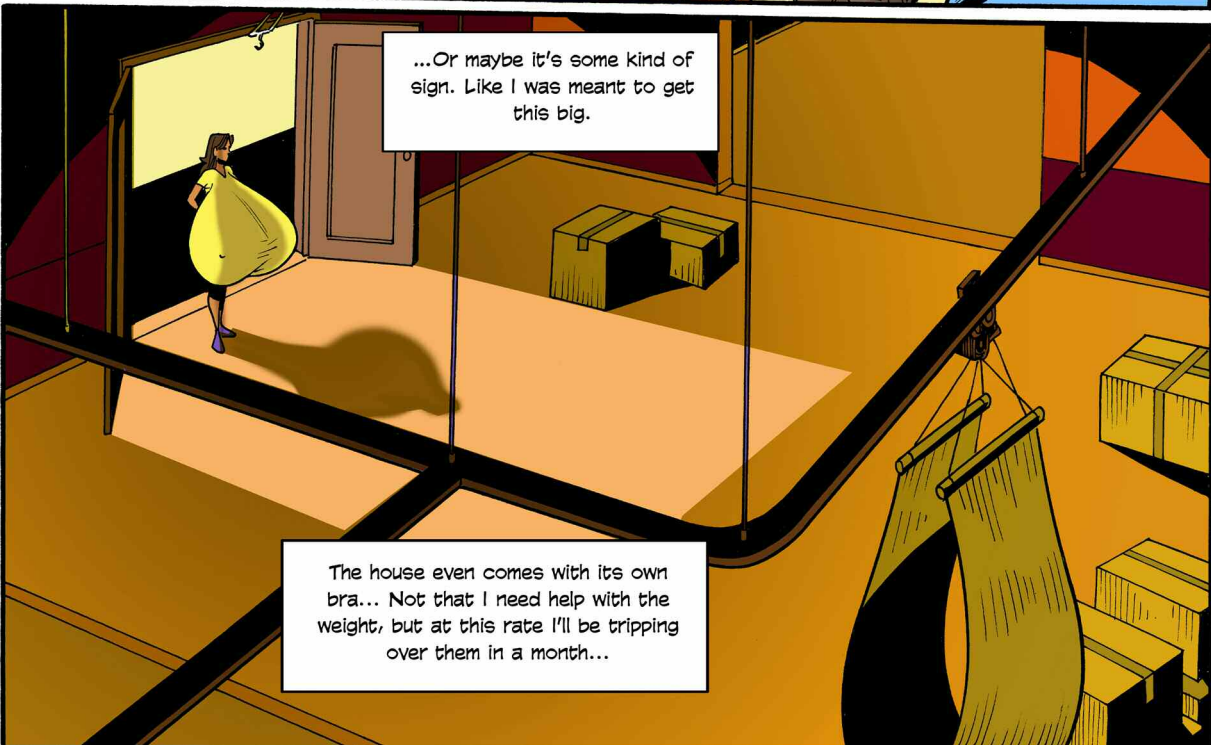

Finding a new house in the Hills
turned out to be really easy.
Maybe we just got lucky...

...Or maybe it's some kind of sign. Like I was meant to get this big.

The house even comes with its own bra... Not that I need help with the weight, but at this rate I'll be tripping over them in a month...

And I've had to learn how to dress myself all over again. And even then I sometimes need a hand...

Tell me again why you're getting fitted for your uniform now?

I know, I'll probably be bigger once the semester starts. But Mom said you were going into town...

Yeah, to the movies with Gwen. You didn't want to come with, did you?

No thanks... Besides, movie seats aren't built for these.

Well, if you're sure. I'll see you later, then.

Hey, that's a Hills Academy uniform, isn't it?

Yeah, I start there this fall.

I was thrilled to see we were about the same size...

Cool...

Thought as much. I didn't recognize you. I'm Ashley.

Tara. I just moved to the Hills.

That was my first time seeing someone else from the Hills my age.

You know, you should try something with horizontal stripes. It'll make you look even bigger up top.

Yeah?

I have so much to teach you. You should come over to my place later, I'll show you the ropes.

...Maybe it's because I remember what I said to Veronica...

But still...The bigger my boobs get, the bigger I want them.

(Is that weird?)

Watch your step...

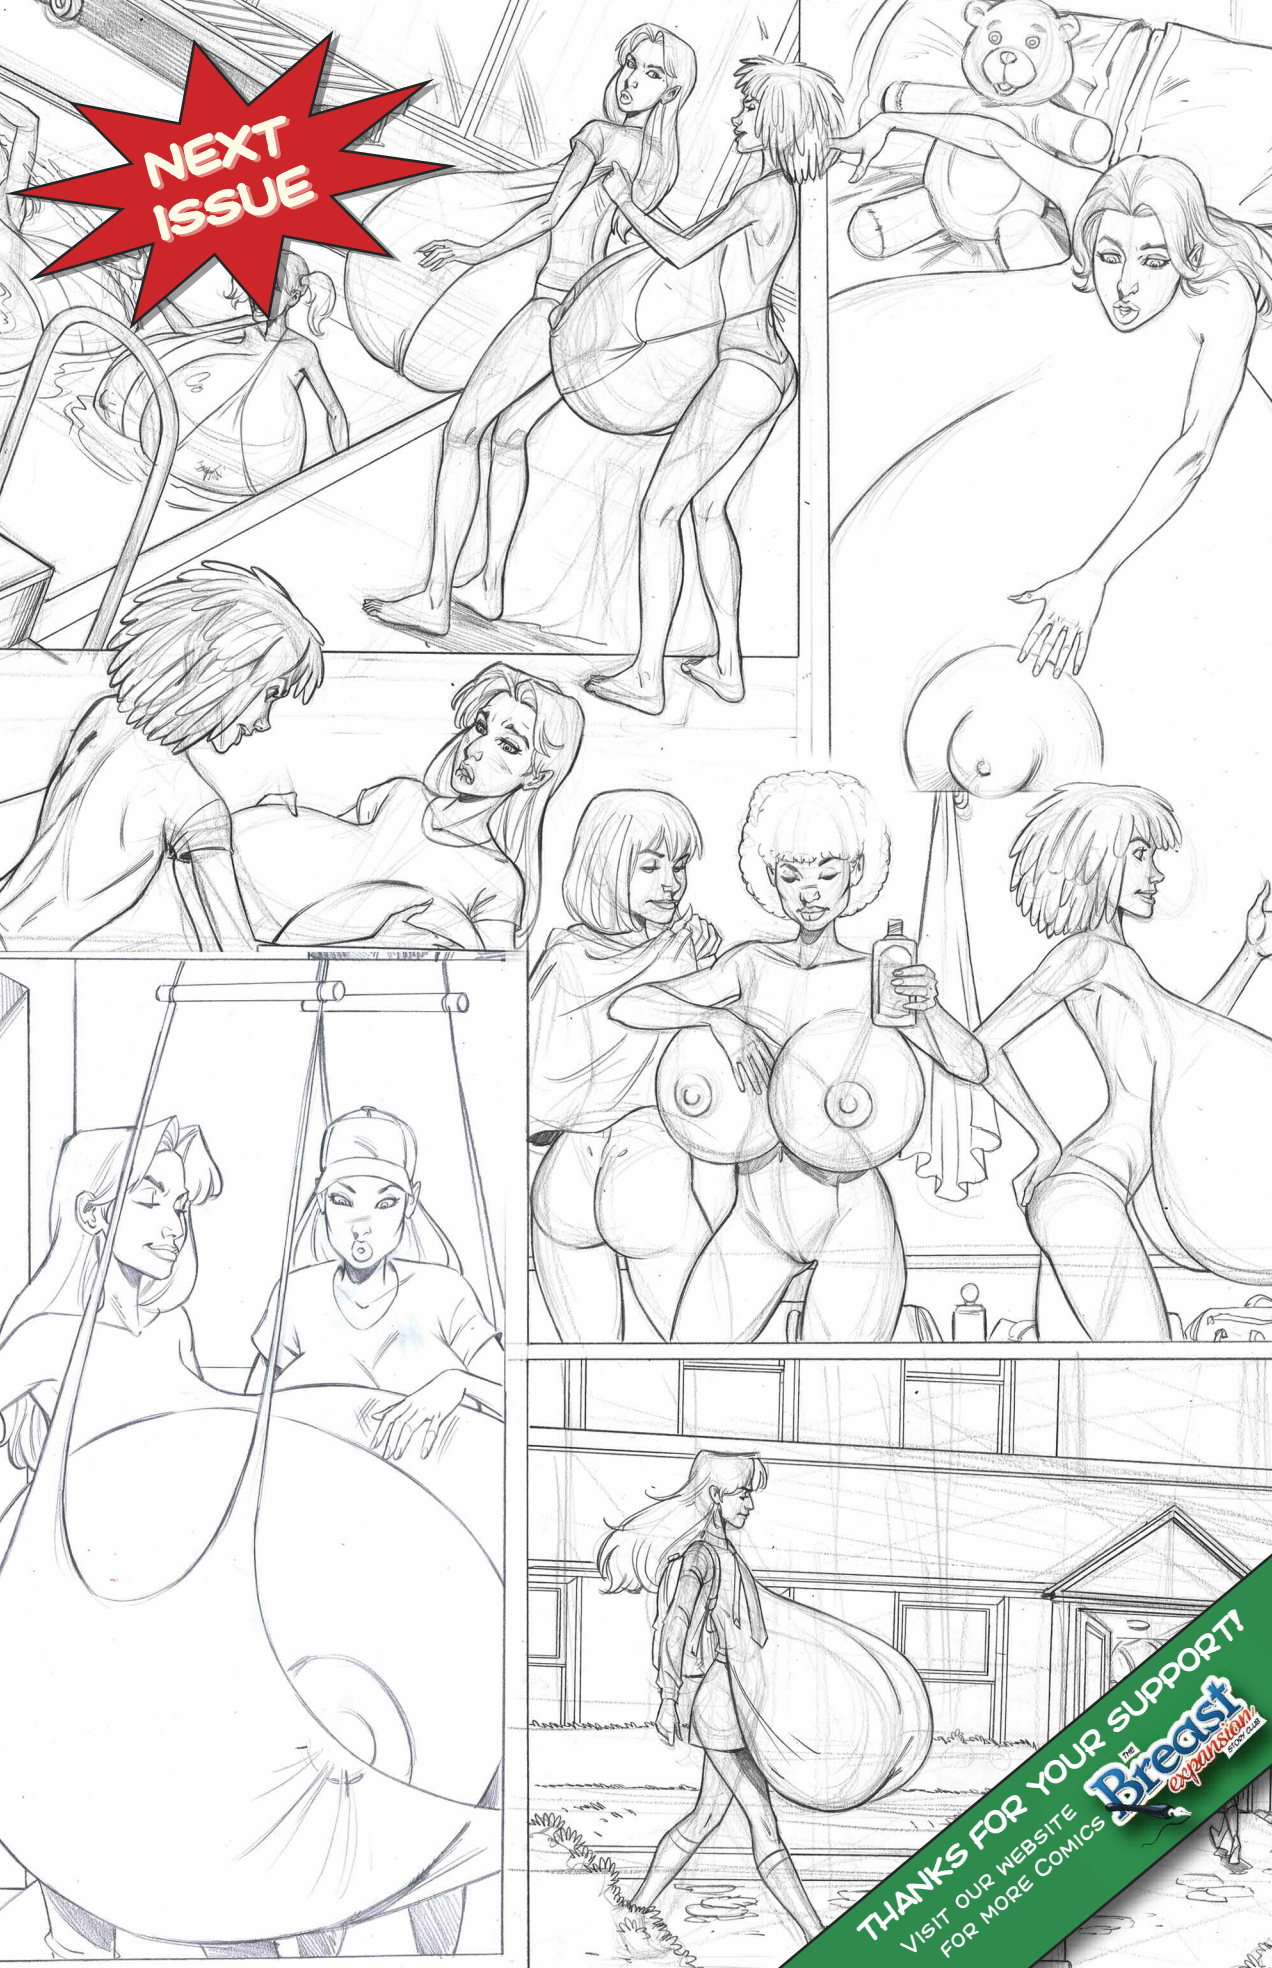

Oh! And welcome to the Hills!

If before I was a big fish in a small pond, what does that make me now?
