BOUND TO BE A MAID

Bound to be a Maid, ‘Bound’ was originally sold in the 1950’s as a set of 40 photographs of “VanRod” (Gene Bilbrew) art.

Its original title was “Bound Over or Missing Gwen de Lynn”.

No credit was given to the author whose brief text appeared above each drawing, nor was the publisher named.

A 40 panel Gene Bilbrew (Van Rod) story that covers female domination, transvestites, cross dressing, bondage and forced feminisation.

"KISS ME!" by the girl
 "Come in," she called, a multi-colored French maid came in, carrying something. "Good day, Mademoiselle. I am Mad, your maid, says Madame Will-Come. Here - your clothes - I bring them." Mad held out a rather long pink corset, with many strings hanging loosely from the back. "Come look the present, looked at it slowly, and realized suddenly that it was intended for her. She gasped, excitement, and said, "For Me? Are you crazy? My - I've never worn one in my life! I don't need one, and I don't intend to wear one. Would you?" "Oh, no, Mademoiselle," smiled Mad. "I have special one now - you like to see! Madame has very special ones for me - all made in New York.
 This one very nice. Madame say you not to have thinking corset because you do not know how good it is for you. She say you wear this and Mad help you put on and then try old French corset! Know that Madame saved for guest with her size." "Thank, Madam! My - can you imagine me?" - then Madam the present as Betty entered.
