It was Sunday morning of a long weekend, I was lying in and saw my runt husband, Ronald, asleep on the floor beside me. As always around me he had a hard on even when sleeping, so this made me feel raunchy in need of an orgasm

While I enjoy at least 10 orgasms a day, mainly from Ronnie's mouth, he only gets to cum once a week.

He was in a very deep sleep, I had him working really hard around the house this weekend, even as I went to bed...

Ronald,
I want this floor sparkling in the morning.
And clean out the stove and fridge too while you're at it

Two weeks ago, though he missed a spot in the kitchen sink and that earned him an extra week of celibacy!

Ronnie knew exactly what to do, he always starts by reverently kissing my pretty toes and then works his way up my muscular legs kissing every inch up to my divine cunt

I stretched my powerful arms , closed my eyes, and smiled to myself as I felt his soft eager obedient mouth on my hairy pussy

He doesn't take long to get me to cum. But I ordered another one from him anyway and held his head at my squirting cunt--besides he knows to drink my juices to keep the sheets dry!

I was now ready to be a little more dominant, I ordered Ronnie to lie on his back and stick out his tongue as far as it could go and hold it stiffly in that position

Mmmmm I love it when I fuck his face, he may be a runt, but his tongue is amazing

Runt knows he is not to eat without my permission, and during this punishment phase I have only allowed him one meal per day..

For the second orgasm like this I went all out and pressed on the gas pedal like I was driving at the Indy 500! Wow!

Even in my bare feet, I stand 6'2" and Runt is a measly 5'4", but in these boots, I am massive, no wonder he feels so submissive in my presence!

I had Ronnie get the coffee table and pillow, so I could enjoy things from another position, after all I have only had 6 orgasms so far and I think I deserve some pleasure!

Now on the coffee table, which is sturdy enough for my weight, I hold his head using his hair to guide where to position his skillful and eager tongue

Oh runt, that's great, two more, c'mon, keep it!

I decided after 10 orgasms, that Runt had been trying really hard to please me. I suppose two weeks of punishment and no orgasms can motivate him, especially around someone as incredibly sexy as me! So, his reward would be my 'Charo Impression...

I swung my booted feet straight up, showing my pussy right in front of his face, at the bottom of the V of my legs, and I yelled

Coochie Coochie!!!
Coochie Coochie!!!

The sight of my pussy and body, plus those sexy boots I knew would be too much for him, and even despite all my great weight on him, he came with a huge explosion

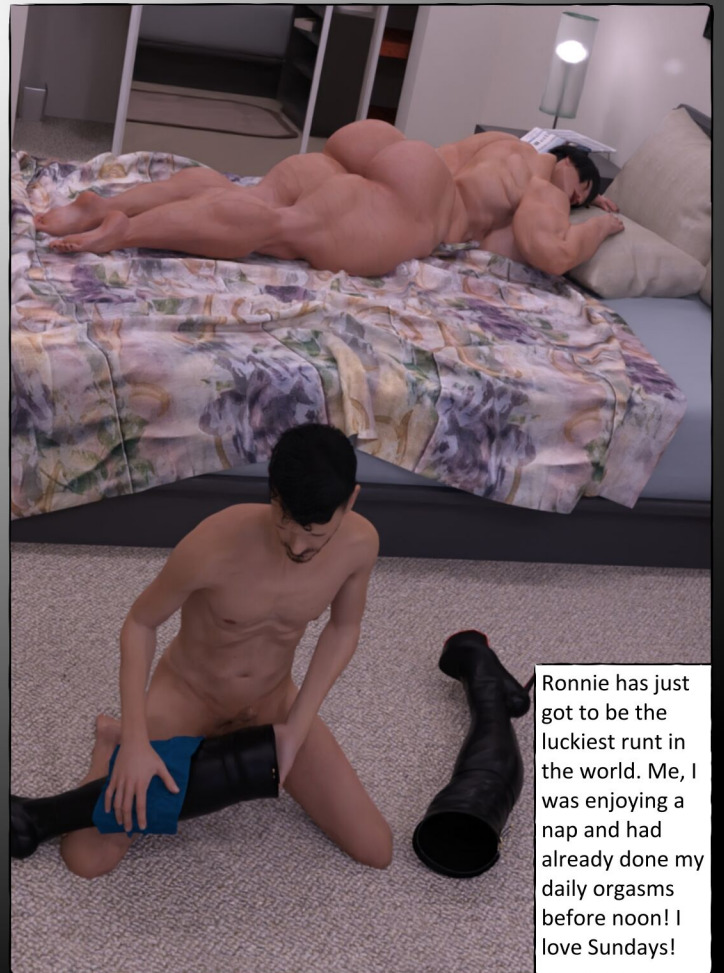

I could feel jets of hot cum hitting my lower back! I didnt even have to touch his cock and he came, that's how sexy I can be!

I got up off of my runt husband and flopped down on the bed. I was tired now and wanted a nap. I ordered Ronnie to get a warm moist face cloth and clean up the cum off my back

I gave him some chores to do, and my last order was to take off polish and put away my boots as I fell asleep...

Ronnie has just got to be the luckiest runt in the world. Me, I was enjoying a nap and had already done my daily orgasms before noon! I love Sundays!
