He lost his head and called me a whore.

Then he fucked me with his other head.

That's fucking hilarious!

You turned that old pervert into your plaything!

Yeah, it's made my school life so much easier.

By the way...

When did we become friends again? I don't remember at all.

Of course you don't. I erased all your memories of us meeting that night.

You reached out to me wanting to get along again, didn't you?

I did that?

My head's been all over the place lately.

I suddenly couldn't stand my entire wardrobe, everything I owned seemed so tacky.

I've become an instagram attention whore just like all those girls I used to hate.

I can't believe how much I've changed recently.

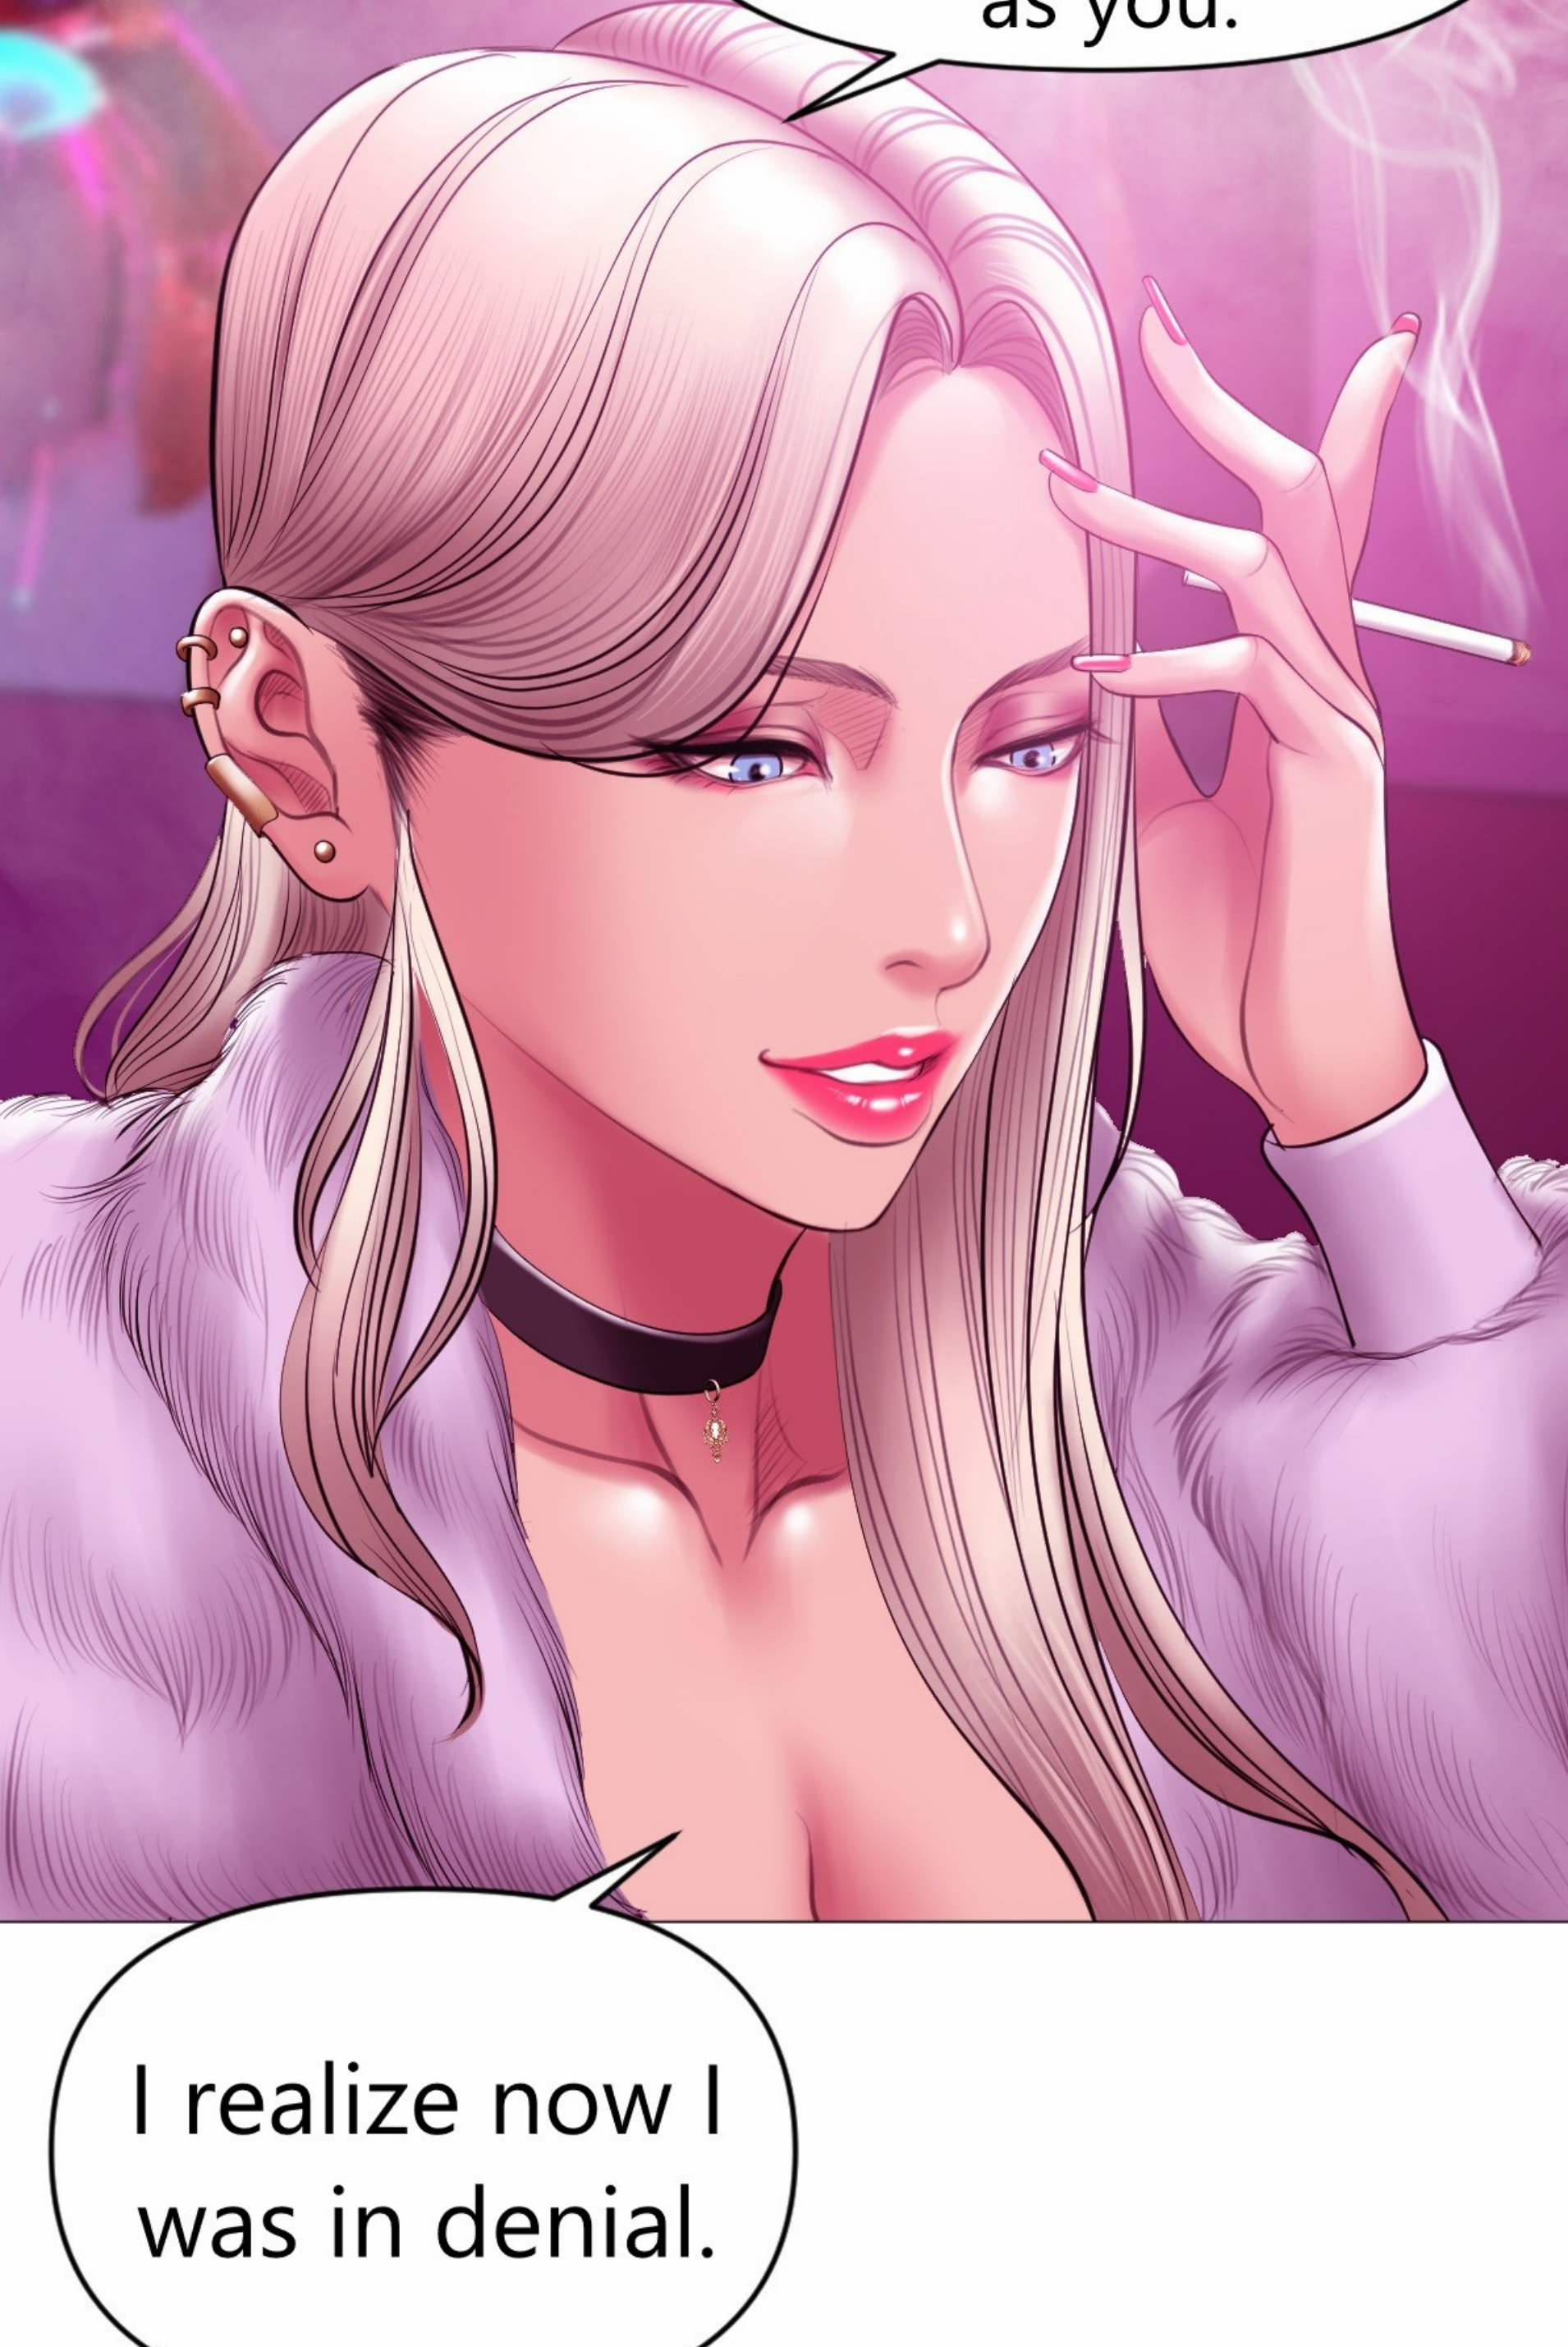

You despised me when I started whoring myself out.

But it turns out deep down you were just like me, weren't you?

I guess I was desperate to hide I was just as bad as you.

I realize now I was in denial.

Anyway... I'm really sorry for everything.

.....!

Don't worry about it.

That was a long time ago.

Mia is back by my side again.

Our friendship is very different from when we were in high school, but that's not a bad thing.

I'm just elated that she's fallen down to my level.
