After many hours of endless torture, Tawny and Sheila fainted.

The gate opens and strange people enter the lab.

Even more strange are the devices they position. The leader programs the computer and opens the glass cage.

The leader of this strange group awakens Tawny from her unconsciousness.

You should be honored because you have been elected as the new property of Miss Laura Eun.

Tawny opens her eyes widely. She couldn't believe what's going on. She wanted to protest against but her gag prevents any possibility to complain.

And now we will prepare you for the transport to your new home.

Helplessly, Tawny
has to watch as her unconscious Sheila is carried away.

Take a deep breath and dream something beautiful ...

Good job girls. And now let's put the two slaves into the boxes and head to Miss Laura.

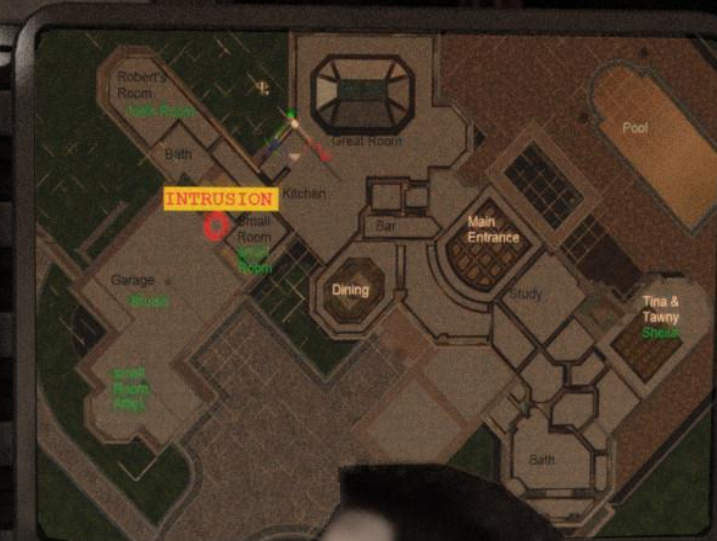

And a long journey
for our girls start ...

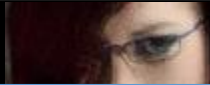

But what really happened? Let's Rewind a few hours ...

A few hours ago at Tomsen Manor ...

Robert was so worried about the girls that he did not notice the alarm on the right monitor. A serious mistake

After the gas has volatilized and Robert fell into a deep sleep, a mysterious lady and a strange guardian appears. The mysterious Lady is obviously familiar with the T&T-System and starts to manipulate this.

Hours later, Robert wakes up with a strong headache. He remembers the gas and examines the entire building. Except Him there is no one present. Tina, the Guardians and all other people vanished. The computer system is completely deactivated. All data are deleted and the backups are no longer usable.

Robert called the police and after a few minutes Mike appears, a good acquaintance of Robert.

Mike listens to the story from Robert's point of view.

No, I do not notice anything else.

Is there anything else besides the girls and the deleted data?

Not that I know of ...
Except ...
We once had an employee who wanted to do strange experiments and she could not agree with Tawny. Tawny dismissed her. Her name was Cassandra Storm, as far as I can remember.

Are there any enemies, bad-minded people or envious competitors?

That would be a clue. Do you know where this Cassandra Storm lives?

I have no idea. We never heard of her again.
OH MY GOD ... Tawny and Sheila ... We have to check to the lab ...

Horrible, Tawny and Sheila have been kidnapped too.

Trust me, due to the ongoing experiments they weren't able to leave alone.

Maybe they left the location in the meantime ...

Ok, we will send the securing of evidence team also to this location.

Meanwhile, our kidnapped girls have reached the destination in their boxes. The destination of the trip is a private island and the mountain is hollow contains the headquarter of a criminal organization which trades with slaves and among other things they perform forbidden experiments with their captives.

The precious cargo is unloaded by the team and transported to the storage rooms via the elevator.

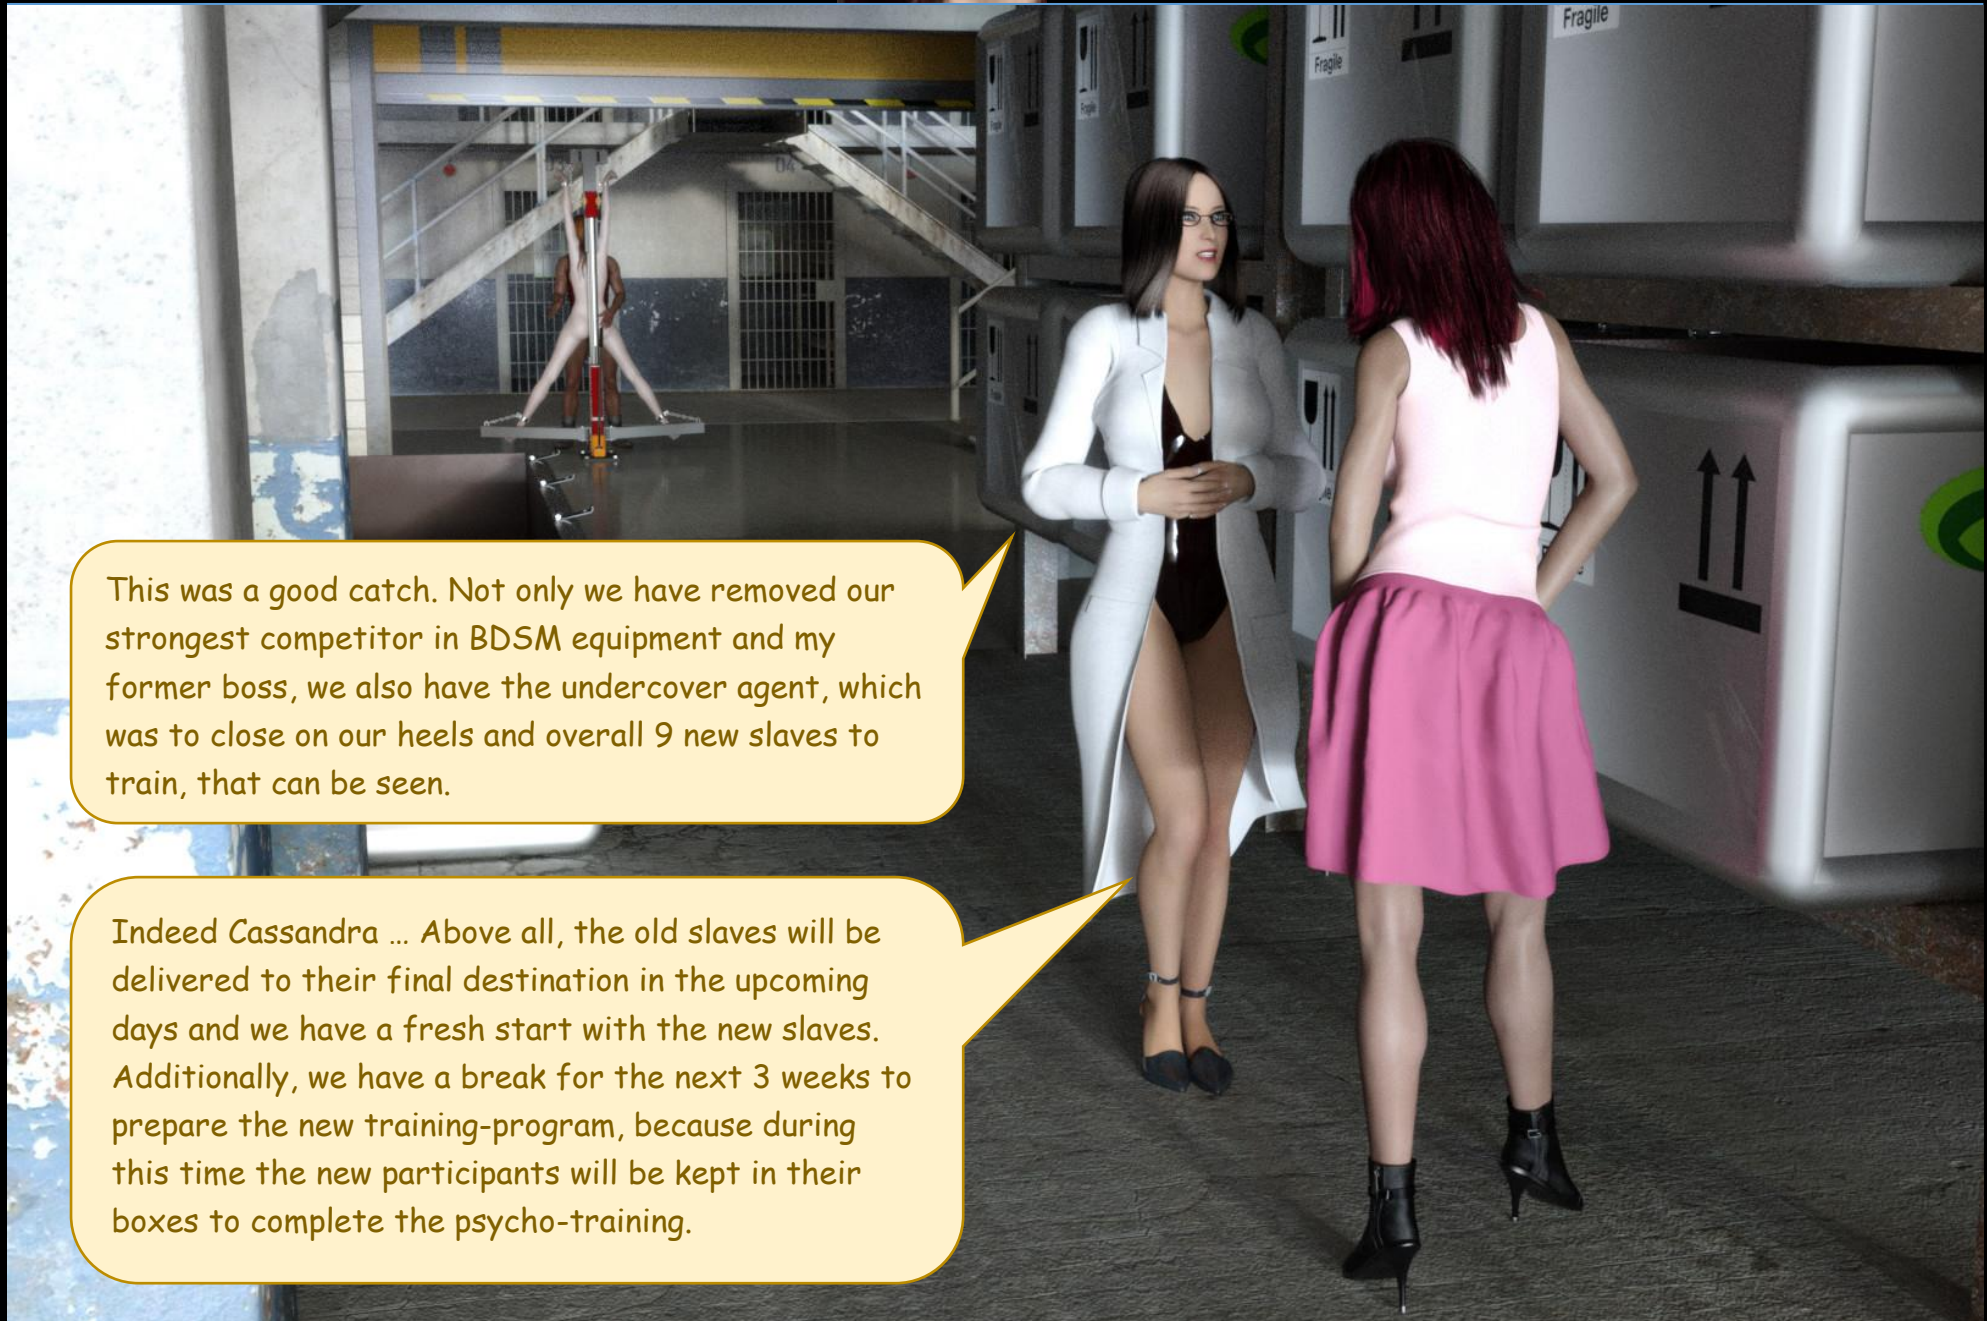

Laura receives the new delivery.

The new acquisitions are initially stored on these shelves.

Yes, Miss Laura.

This was a good catch. Not only we have removed our strongest competitor in BDSM equipment and my former boss, we also have the undercover agent, which was to close on our heels and overall 9 new slaves to train, that can be seen.

Indeed Cassandra ... Above all, the old slaves will be delivered to their final destination in the upcoming days and we have a fresh start with the new slaves. Additionally, we have a break for the next 3 weeks to prepare the new training-program, because during this time the new participants will be kept in their boxes to complete the psycho-training.

And what do you have in mind with our new slaves?

This is a good chance to try out your new serums before we go to the market. We should get rid of the policewoman and after we catch Paul, both together could be sold to GOR. They expect a new delivery anyway. Perhaps also one of the three intruders. Besides, we need supplies in our brothel and a corresponding demand for new slaves is also available. But first, they should complete their training and then we will decide.

Sounds really good ...

No good prospects for our girls.

A long break awaits them, where they are burdened by the "re-sense tool" up to the limits of the tolerable. Unmovable, permanently influenced by hypnosis training and held in high state of arousal without any chance to prevent this.

They will not necessarily have the best condition in 3 weeks.

So stay tuned on this channel for the next chapter called "Introduction into Slavery".
