

OH GOSH...
That was INCREDIBLE!!

Shhh-shhh!
Mom! You'll wake up Dad!
Keep it down!

zzz

HAHAHA

Mom?? What the heck is going on?

Your father took a sleeping pill, honey. He won't wake up until morning.

Speak up! I CAN'T hear YOUU, haha!

What?! You've got to be kidding?

Oh my God...

Well, your father came back feeling very tired today. And since he keeps complaining that I snore and keep him up, I suggested that he take a sleeping pill. He thought it was a good idea, haha!

I don't really get it...

Why?

Why else do you think I risked doing what we did, if there was a chance he could have woken up at any moment?

I just thought you were being reckless... But what if the pills didn't work on him or he decided not to take them?

Obviously, I would have found you and told you to cancel the task, haha.

Hmm...

I'm glad to see you this happy, Mom. And...

I also need to apologize for using dirty words and being disrespectful to you and Dad. I hope you know that I was just playing a role - and didn't really mean it.

Lucas, I want you to know that I appreciate everything you did for me tonight. This was the best night I've had in my entire life.

What's wrong, Honey?

Hehe. I know, sweetheart. And you played your role soooo good!

I love you too, Mom.

No. It was only in the game. I like the word "Mom" more than anything else.

I love you very much, Lucas.

I thought for a second that you might call me Adrianna. Hehe

That's my lovely son! You are adorable, Lucas.

!!!

I'll get back to my room
now.

Yeah?

Oh!

Ummm...
Lucas?

The door is that
way. The roleplay is over, you don't need to sneak back out onto the balcony. *giggle*

Strange... For a second, I thought I was still sneaking around with you.

Haha! See you in the morning, Honey.

Good night, Mom.

Good night, my love.

30 minutes later. Adrianna didn't go immediately to bed, but instead stood over her husband and stayed deep in thought about what she had done with Lucas.

I realize now that I made a terrible mistake, William. You are a good husband and fantastic father. You deserve better than a wife like me.

When you get back from work tomorrow, I'll tell you everything that happened between me and Lucas...

You should know everything. I will take responsibility for my actions and accept any decision you make, and face the consequences.
