

Morning. Next day.

Good morning, Lucas.

Good morning, Mom.

I wonder what private tasks Mom has in mind for us to do today. Hehe.

Did Dad already leave for work?

Is something wrong?

Sigh Yes. Ummm...

Listen, Lucas. I want to speak with you about something important.

I'm so grateful for everything we did together last night. We made one of my craziest wishes come true. On the other hand, you know that each decision we made will have some consequences.

So... I decided to tell your father everything.

He must know.

I will what?

WHAT?????!!

M-Mom, you can't do that!!
You will-

What we did was so terribly wrong. I can't live with the guilt of doing this behind your father's back.

Lucas, we could argue that point all day, whether it was cheating or not. But the fact is, I can't make a fool of your father like that.

You will tear down our home. Why???

But... It wasn't cheating, remember...?

I don't understand... If you believed that, why did you make us do this roleplaying game yesterday?

I'm a woman who will be in her 50s soon. So, just like any woman with fantasies, I wished to do them before it's too late. As I mentioned before, the organization's task brought something out in me and triggered those fantasies I thought were long covered in dust.

I had been trying to convince your father for days to play these games with me. But he kept saying we are too old for that, and to act more maturely.

But I just couldn't do what he said. And when I realized your crush on me, I just didn't hesitate in trying them with you.

My what....??

I'm not stupid, Lucas. I know you do have a crush on me.

The tasks from the organization have created a sexual bond between us.

Anyway, back to what I was saying, I was just so horny that I couldn't think straight. But... after satisfying my sexual needs last night, I'm back to my right mind and I realized what an awful mistake it was.

*Aaa...
Umm...*

Where are you going, Mom? We need to talk about this.

You're not going to change my mind about this. Just drop it. Also, I wish to be alone for a while, so please don't disturb me.

Mo-

Please, Lucas!

Holy fuck!! I need to do something...I have to think of something fast...!!

A few minutes later.
Lucas's bedroom.

DAMMIT!!! I never expected Mom to react like that. The reason that I have been slowly trying to groom Mom, was so I can have her, while also keeping the family together.

She hasn't thought this through and is being too hasty. She will ruin everything... I need to alter the plan...

Okay. What do we have here? Mom feels guilty. She has some fantasies that I have no idea about... Mmm... I've got a lot of work to do before Dad returns home.

homoeroticism

- Taboo sex acts
- Passion, romance, and intimacy
- BDSM
- Novelty, adventure, and variety
- Being in a non-monogamous relationship

Lucas spent his time reading some scientific papers and articles about sexual fantasies and open relationships between married couples.

Evening approached.

Adrianna

Hi, William.
Welcome back!

William

Hi, my love.

Fuck me... I'm so fucking exhausted...

SHIT!!! Dad's back earlier than usual... I thought I had some more time. Fuck this damn day! What a shit one...

William

I'm starving, Dear. I can smell your delicious cooking already, from here.

Adrianna

It'll take me 5 more minutes to get everything ready. But... William, I need to tell you something just now...

No-No-No-No... Wait, Mooooommmmm.... Here, the new task is created. I must hurry and stop her before it's too late.
