

A few minutes later, Lucas explained his idea to Adrianna, but kept some of the details to himself.

Is that the whole plan?

So, what do you think?

Nope. Just the general idea. I will have to modify the plan according to Dad's reaction. But at least you know what I'm aiming to do. Well, what do you think?

YES! She bought it...

I agree. So, you're not going to say anything until we try my idea, right?

About a couple of days.

Huh? What are you talking about?

Well... It isn't a bad plan. It can't be any worse than telling him face-to-face.

How long is it going to take?

And what about in the meantime?

You can forget about those private tasks I suggested last night. We won't be doing them.

Yeah... It's not like we can stop that, it's for your scholarship. But we are in this whole mess because of it.

By the way, how did you think up the trip Toraky City?

That's fine.

I will seduce you into doing them later. Step two is completed!

But you will do the organization's tasks, won't you?

Oh! Obviously you haven't read the new task yet.

*They postponed
it because we took more time
than we should.*

*New task?
We haven't finished the ongoing one yet.*

*They did?! And what's the new task
about?*

Nothing big. They want us to travel to Toraky and rent a studio apartment for a week or two. They will send me the money for it by tomorrow morning apparently.

Yeah, as soon as we rent a good place, we just confirm the task is done via the app.

William

Is dinner ready now, honey.

Is that all? Nothing else?

Okay... Strange... Rent a place in another city...?

Oh shit! I forgot about your father.

Too bad... After having anal with Mom last night and her suggestion to create her own private tasks, I thought I succeeded in fucking her pussy very soon. Now it's getting more complicated than before.

But I'm sure my new plan will work. The secret is to predicate the right fantasies she wishes for.

Yeah... Only five minutes, darling!

What is the matter, Lucas? You have been looking at me for a while.

Kind of. Don't worry, I will be fine if you keep your promise.

Are you alright, Mom?

Of course, I do! Would you like me to talk to Dad right away after dinner?

Until then, would you stop feeling guilty and blaming yourself for what happened?

You promise?

Not today. Do it tomorrow when we come back from Toraky City. Perhaps you would come back with more ideas.

I'll do my best.

**Giggle**
Thanks for your care,
sweetie.

It won't take long until Dad knows the truth. I promise you.

And I will make sure to keep our family together.

I hope so.

Sure.

*Uhhh... Everything is back under control!
Now, I can start planning for the next tasks. Also, I need to call Kristen to ask her for some help for tomorrow.*

Now, go upstairs and call William for dinner.
