Chapter 1 - Saving The Girls.

Kevin had a long day at work, he had been working harder and longer hours since he became the CEO of his own company. All he wanted to do when he got home that evening was take a hot shower and go home just to do it all over again.

Lately the business had been going good, he was making more money than he had before taking the money from Jessica and she was happy with the quick turnaround as well, something that they had both wanted done to get the business out of the red zone of debt. Now they were selling more and more lumber when. They got more and more clients and more work as well.

Just as Kevin was thinking about how everything was going at work he heard his car sputter and slowly begin to die. Something he wasn't expecting. When he looked down to see how much gas he had he saw that it was on empty. The best he could do was pull over to the side of the road and leave it there. As much as he didn't want to, it was dark and he was still a ways from home, not wanting someone to break into the car to find out there was nothing in it.

“This is just great.” Kevin muttered to himself, shutting the car off as he shook his head back and forth.

He was disappointed in himself, he knew that he had to get gas and it had slipped his mind. Now he had to walk home in the dark and hope that his car was going to be there in the morning.

Looking both ways there were no cars in sight as he was walking further and further away from his car. He didn't have anyone to talk to on his walk back home. When he had been walking an hour he knew that he had to take some short cuts in order to make the time go quicker. All he wanted to do was get home and lay down for the night. He didn't even want the shower anymore.

Looking at his watch he saw that it was already almost ten at night. He wasn't going to make it home until close to one if he didn't find a quicker way to the house.

Kevin found a few side streets that he went down and before he knew it he was lost in a bad neighborhood. There were street lights but only ones that flickered from time to time threatening to blacken the street and sidewalks completely.

Kevin was about to take another side street when he heard someone screaming in an alley way. He knew that they were screaming for help and instead of minding his own business he took it upon himself to try and help out.

When he poked his head into the alley way where the noise was coming from he saw four big men with tattoos and they looked a bit on the scruff side as if they didn't know what a beard shaver was.

“Hey!” He hollered into them, watching the four men turn around to face him. That's when he noticed the two girls up against the side of the brick building. Two men holding them in place while the other two were trying to take advantage of them.

Kevin could see the guys ripped shirts, seeing their rippling muscles on their arms. It wasn't hard to tell that they were a member of a gang.

“What do you want? Keep going!” One of the guys hollered back to him and turned back to the girls to make sure they didn't get away.

Kevin knew that he should have walked away at this point and continue on his walk home. Instead he walked further into the alley way and saw that the girls were young, they were wearing revealing clothing.

One of the girls was wearing a tight mini-skirt and a black tank top that looked as if there were holes in the shirt. As he got closer he saw that there were holes where her nipples were and they were getting hard. He noticed that they were red and looked at the guys around her. He knew what they were doing to the girls he wasn't stupid.

“Leave them alone!” Kevin shouted at them, loosening his tie and putting his brief case down.

The girls had tattoo's and piercings in their mouths and nose, shaking his head he wondered what had happened to them so long ago that they had to do that to themselves. They all looked as if they had come from the wrong side of the tracks.

“It looks like you walked into the wrong alley way buddy.” One of the guys laughed at him, Kevin could see that the man was missing a tooth in the front of his mouth.

Before long Kevin found himself surrounded by the men and he couldn't find a way out. As the men got closer and closer leaving the girls alone like Kevin had told them to he knew that he had done the right thing no matter what they did to him.

Two of the men from behind him shoved him hard to the ground and he fell to his knees, hitting his head off the hard ground. He heard the girls screaming as he was being kicked around. He could feel the four guys kicking him, stomping on him like he was a small bug and he probably was to them as big as they were.

"I don't know who you think you are buddy but you really should have steered clear of here." One of the guys grunted as he got a boot to the face. He felt the pain of the steel toe boot and that was all he remembered until he woke up again.

When Kevin woke up he saw the stars in the night sky, wondering how long he had been knocked out. There were two girls standing on each side of him. The girls that were being attacked.

"Where did they go?" Kevin asked, looking around.

As Kevin sat up quickly he felt the earth spinning around him, feeling the back of his head he knew he had a big bump there.

"They took off. Once they heard sirens they must have thought the sirens were for them. When you weren't moving I think they were afraid that they had killed you. My name's Vanessa." The girl knelt down beside him to see if he was okay.

It was the girl who had holes in her shirt. He could see that she wasn't wearing any panties underneath her skirt and he shook his head. They were easy targets because they were wearing next to nothing for clothing.

“Thank you for helping us. You didn't have to do that you know. There were plenty of people who walked by and they didn't stop at all to help us out. You were the only brave one even though you got your ass kicked. My name is Lucy.” The other girl introduced herself.

Lucy had arm tattoos and hand tattoos she even had a neck tattoo he had noticed it was a shape of a heart and it had the word 'Mom' in it. He gave her a small smile.

Lucy had thin, blonde, hair and gray/blue eyes. She looked at him as if she had seen more in this lift time than what she wished she could take back.

“Here let's see if we can get you to stand up.” She told him softly.

Vanessa and Lucy helped him off the ground and saw that he was a little wobbly on his feet. They held on to him for a few seconds until he took his hands off the girls shoulders.

“You should come back to our flat. We can fix you up and you can stay there for the night.” Lucy suggested, Vanessa nodded her head in agreement.

“I don't think I can do that. I will be fine. See, my car broke down and I was making my way home from where I work. That's the only reason I came across the two of you tonight." He told them, shaking his head. He didn't want to be a burden to him.

"Oh we won't take no for an answer. You saved us tonight and the only way we can thank you is to make sure you make it home alright. If something was to happen to you we would just feel awful. There's no way we can let you go home the way you are. We just live right around the corner." Lucy told him, shaking her head back and forth as all three of them walked out of the alley way together.

Kevin nodded his head in agreement and looked up at one of the streetlights that had been flickering had turned black, he shook his head knowing that it was the only light to make sure the alley way was lit up.

"You will feel much better once you get fixed up and have a good night's sleep." Vanessa told him as they led the way to their flat.

Chapter 2 - Vanessa and Lucy's home.

Once inside the small flat they led him over to the breakfast bar that separated the kitchen from the dining room. He set on a small bar stool and watched as Vanessa made her way to the bathroom to get the things she needed in order to clean him.

“Do I really look that bad?” He asked, looking at Lucy from across the breakfast bar.

“You do look really bad. Do you want some coffee?” She asked him, not liking the silence with her sister in the other room.

“Sure, that would be great.” He nodded his head and saw how uncomfortable she was to be in there with him alone.

“Thank you for helping us. I don't know what would have happened if you didn't come along. I thought you were going to walk right by like the rest of them.” Lucy told him, putting water into the coffee maker.

“I couldn't just leave you girls there. I can't believe that anyone would just walk by and not try to help. Not call the cops or anything.” He shook his head, disappointed with society.

“Around here you don't call the cops. You either die in the street or someone comes looking for you if you do that.” Lucy pointed a finger at him.

“Then why do you guys live around here? I’m sure you girls could find a decent place to live.” He raised his eyebrows at her and felt pain when he did.

“Yeah, you have a few cuts to your face. I’m surprised you look so good for them stomping you in the face. They could have done worse.” Lucy told him as she watched the coffee starting to brew.

Vanessa walked back into the kitchen and sat beside him, putting the bandages on the breakfast bar as she began washing his face up. He gasped when the hot washcloth touched his face.

Kevin looked at Vanessa and she could see that he was looking at her hard nipples literally showing through her shirt. His eyes went lower to look at her pussy as she continued cleaning him up without saying a word.

“We live here because we don’t have all that much money to find a nice, normal, neighborhood. We are use to this.” Lucy shrugged her shoulders, feeling her face growing hot. She could see that Kevin was checking her sister out as well.

Kevin felt his cock getting hard inside his slacks and he knew that he couldn’t hide it. He felt it growing harder and harder and Vanessa could see it as well. She bit down on her lip, thinking about his cock while she was cleaning him up.

Vanessa was turned on that he was looking at her but she knew that it wasn’t the time to play around with him. He was hurt and she wanted to make sure that he got some sleep before the morning.

Lucy handed him the cup of coffee over the breakfast bar and he thanked her nodding his head at her.

They all talked for a little while longer and once the coffee ran out they were all getting tired. It was almost midnight before they thought about where everyone was going to be sleeping.

“You can take my room and I will take the living room.” Lucy offered up her bedroom to him, giving him a smile.

Kevin looked at Vanessa and saw her nod her head in agreement. As she ran a hand through her silky brown hair he could see that her light brown eyes were tired.

“Thank you for offering me to stay here for the night. I don't even know if I would have made it home myself tonight.” He admitted, putting his empty coffee cup on the breakfast bar and got off the stool.

“Thank you for being there at the right time.” Lucy told him, walking around the breakfast table she headed towards the living room.

Vanessa got up from her bar stool and headed to her room. She disappeared and went into the living room to get to her room on the other side of the flat.

Kevin was left in the kitchen by himself as he slowly made his way to Lucy's room. She had already pointed out which direction was her bedroom. It was literally right around the corner from the kitchen. The door was slightly open and with the help of the hallway light he could find his way into her room and saw there was a night stand where a lamp was sitting.

He walked into the bedroom and made his way to the bed, turning the light on he saw a wonderful surprise, something he wasn't expecting to see.

There were pictures of Lucy around her bedroom. Most of them in frames and other just tacked on the wall. They were pictures of her in different sexual poses. In one of her pictures she was sitting in a chair with a short, black, dress on and she had her legs spread. The shadow of the picture was just hiding the view of her pussy.

Kevin couldn't help but smile when he saw the picture. She seemed so normal in the kitchen, so sweet when she offered him coffee and there he was looking at her practically naked pictures.

He looked from picture to picture and saw that there were some of her in a bra and panty set. They were both white. It showed off her tattoo's on her body and she was laying down on a bed, spreading her arms up over her head and spreading her legs as far as she could, he licked his lips wishing she was there with him as his cock started getting hard for her. There was nothing else he could think about at the moment.

Kevin shut the light off with images of Lucy, only when he closed his eyes the pictures he had seen on the wall he had undressed her with his eyes. He could see her nice tits and shaved pussy. The more he thought about her the harder his cock got. The more it began throbbing for her. He wanted her but as much as he wanted her he knew that he had to get some sleep.

Kevin is grateful that the girls had given him a place to sleep, that they had patched him up when he needed it the most. He slowly drifted off to sleep with his cock still hard but he was happy with the outcome of the night and glad that they were able to patch him up. Glad that the girls had offered for him to stay because he wasn't sure he would have made it home even now if he was still walking, he only had a few hours of sleep and he wanted to make sure that he took that time and made sure that he used it to his advantage.

Off and on through the night he was tossing and turning, being in a new bed and a new place he couldn't sleep all that well. When the light came in from the windows of Lucy's bedroom he opened his eyes slowly, squinting as he realized it was another day.

When he opened his eyes fully he rolled over and saw that he wasn't the only one in the bedroom. He noticed that Lucy had slipped into bed with him sometime during the night. Her ass was facing him and the blankets were off of her. He felt his cock getting hard when he noticed that she was wearing pink underwear that was too small for her. He could see her ass cheeks hanging out of it and he felt his cock getting hard.

Feeling his cock growing harder and harder he gasps when he felt that his cock was trapped. Looking down his eyes grew wide when he saw that his cock was locked in a Chasity belt. There were spikes on the inside of it and felt them poking at his cock. Closing his eyes the only thing he could think of was what had happened to him at the ski lodge when he took Stacey there.

He knew the girls had put him in the Chasity belt sometime during the night. He slowly tried figuring out how to take it off him. Looking for a clasp that would just spring it open. He took it in both his hands and tried prying it apart. That's when he saw the padlock on the outside of it. He threw his head back against the pillow. This was something he wasn't expecting to happen he thought they had brought him back to the house to help him heal and mend from trying to rescue him. The more he moved around the harder it was to not wake Lucy up. The harder Kevin's cock got the more pain he was in. He groaned louder as he felt the spikes driving harder into his cock.

Lucy slowly began moving around, as she turned over on her back she saw that he was awake and she stretched her arms up over her head. Looking down at the Chasity belt she couldn't help but cover her mouth and giggle when she saw what the matter was with him. He could see that she was having a good time seeing his cock growing harder and harder for her. They both looked down at the padlock that was on the outside of the Chasity belt.

“Well, well, well. I didn't realize how big and hard your cock was. I saw that you were hard last night but that was through your pants.” Lucy laughed at him, licking her lips and keeping her eyes on his hard cock.

He moaned for her as he felt the pain growing because of the spikes that were in his cock. He shook his head at her and then looked down at his hard cock as well. If there was only a way he could get it off of him. There was no way he could get it off of him without one of the girls helping him. One of them had a key and he knew it.

“Look at that cock, it keeps growing and growing. I bet those spikes driving into you doesn't feel so good does it?" Lucy asked him, shaking her head back and forth as she slowly got up from the bed.

"No it doesn't." He agreed, feeling his face grow warm, glad that she liked the size of his cock. Glad that he could see the lust in her eyes when she kept looking at it.

"I think that I may be able to help you out. Come in the shower with me and I will see what I can do." She told him, giving him a wink and nodding her head at him.

He waited until Lucy got out of the bed and he slowly got up. His cock hurting even more as he moved around.

He watched Lucy go to the bedroom door and watched as she turned around to face him. Making sure that he was following right after her.

"Come on, don't keep me waiting." She looked at Kevin and giggled, she could see the immense pain that he was in and she grew happier knowing that he was in pain because his cock wouldn't stop growing. She wanted to see how hard it could get while it was in the Chasity belt, she had never seen a cock get that hard before.

Chapter 3 - Lucy And Kevin In The Shower

Lucy started the shower and shut the door behind them, she made sure the shower was nice and warm as she took her clothes off and got in. Lucy watched as he took his shirt off. The only thing that was covering him and when he got in the shower he gasped, feeling how hot the shower was. His body adjusted quickly and he smiled at her.

“I love it when I can just soap myself up with the bar of soap.” She winked at him, taking a bar of Irish spring off the soap dish in the shower and began running it down between her tits.

Lucy kept her eyes on Kevin, seeing his smile getting bigger and bigger as she began rubbing the bar of soap on her hard nipples slowly soaping up one of her hard nipples and then the other one. She began running the soap up and down her flat stomach, down to her shaved pussy as she looked down at his cock, seeing it was trying to push out the sides of the Chasity belt. The spikes had completely disappeared inside the sides of his cock. Lucy bit down on her lip knowing that it had to hurt him but he kept a smile on his face as he looked over her body.

“I love a man who can stand a lot of pain Kevin.” She told him, dropping the soap between them as she brought her arms around his neck.

She rubbed her hard nipples against his hard, wet, chest and pressed her pussy against the Chasity belt, she heard him moan as he felt a little bit of her pussy pressing against his hard cock. She watched as he closed his eyes and she knew he was thinking about her pussy.

“I bet that feels good huh? Having my tits pressed against yours. They are so nice and slick with wetness from the soap and the shower water.” She giggled in his ear as she brought the tip of her tongue out and began running it up and down the outside of his ear.

“It does.” He murmured to her, nodding his head slowly at her as she brushed her hard nipples back and forth over his pecs.

“I can take that off your cock Kevin. There's only one thing I want you to do for me.” Lucy told him, raising her eyebrows and seeing a glimmer of hope in his eyes.

“I will do anything for you.” He whispered, nodding his head at her as he kept eye contact with her.

“I want you to give me a rim job baby. I want to feel that wet tongue of yours teasing and tasting my asshole.” Lucy told him softly, feeling her pussy getting wet just thinking about it.

“God, that sounds so good.” He told her quickly, feeling his heart race for her. He felt special knowing that a young girl like her would want him to tease her ass.

“Good, you are so easy to please aren't you?” She laughed at him, shaking her head and shutting the shower head off.

“I'm easy to get along with yes.” He chuckled, nodding his head at her. Thinking she was giving him a compliment.

Lucy shut the shower off so that the water wouldn't get in their eyes. She wanted to make sure that the water beating down on them wouldn't be a distraction.

Lucy winked at him before she got down on her hands and knees in front of him, Kevin had to back away in order to make room for himself. He got down on his knees and saw that Lucy was raising her ass for him, making it easier for him.

He moaned as he placed his hands on her ass cheeks and spread them slowly apart so that he could take a good look at her asshole before he started licking it. He grunted, feeling his mouth water when he saw it, it was silently teasing him, silently begging him for to place his lips over it.

“You like what you see?” Lucy giggled, looking over her shoulder and seeing what was taking him so long to please her.

“God yes, your ass hole looks so fucking inviting.” He murmured to her, keeping his eyes on her ass instead of looking into Lucy's eyes.

He brought his mouth slowly down to her ass and licked both of her ass cheeks that were in his hands. He heard Lucy moan for him when he gently nibbled on both of them before sliding his tongue up and down her ass crack.

“You sure know how to tease a woman even if your cock is out of commission right now. Fuck!” Lucy screamed out with pleasure as she felt the tip of his tongue circling around her ass hole.

She closed her eyes when she felt his tongue lick slowly up and down her asshole for a few seconds before he entered her ass with his tongue.

Kevin slowly moved his tongue in and out of Lucy's ass over and over again. He licked the outside of her asshole feeling her body tremble. The more he teased her ass hole with his tongue the more her body began shaking.

Kevin heard her whimper and beg for him more and more. Kevin knew that if he didn't have the Chasity belt on him he would have cum already. He wanted to know what her pussy felt like on his cock. He wanted to know just how wet she was for him.

Before Lucy came herself she brought her ass away from his mouth and saw the disappointed look on his face. He licked his lips and looked down at his cock.

“Turn around for me Kevin. I will try to take it off.” She nodded her head at him, getting to her feet.

Kevin quickly got to his feet and turned around, facing the shower wall he hoped and prayed that she was going to be able to get it off of him. Wondering if there was a button on the side of the padlock to have the Chasity belt spring open and let his cock free.

When Kevin was completely turned around and his back was facing her she put her hand out of the shower and reached for the strap-on she had hanging on the wall right outside the shower curtain. Keeping her eye on him she quickly snapped it into place. Kevin didn't know what she was doing behind him but he knew not to move in case she got upset with him and chose not to take the Chasity belt off of him.

“I think I should be able to get it off of him.” Lucy told him, bringing her hands around to the front of him and grabbing a hold of the Chasity belt.

Lucy tried to squeeze the Chasity belt and open it that way. Pretending that she was trying to help him, pretending that she was on his side.

When Kevin felt the shape of a dildo pressing against his ass he didn't cry out, he wasn't even surprised. He had been through all sorts of pegging and nothing phased him now. There was nothing that he hadn't been through that he hadn't survived. He had been used to being violated that he didn't even care when she hadn't told him what she was going to do to him.

He moaned when he felt the head of the dildo go inside his ass. He was getting turned on more and more as he felt Lucy's hands on his shoulders and slowly slide down his back she rested them on his hips.

“Bend over for me baby.” Lucy moaned to him, seeing that he was liking everything that was going on in the shower.

Lucy felt him bend over slightly for her so that she could slowly push it further into his ass. Watching her dildo slide in and out of him she felt her pussy getting wetter and wetter for him. She couldn't believe that he wasn't complaining about having something shoved in his ass.

“I never thought you would be so willing Kevin.” She giggled to him, as she pushed the dildo back into his ass and left it there for a couple of seconds.

Lucy turned her head so that she could see the side view of Kevin. She wanted to have her pussy cum for him when she saw the size of him. She knew that Kevin was biggest one that she had seen ever in her life. She couldn't believe that Kevin wasn't struggling with her, that she could do whatever she wanted to him and it was fine.

“I think it's time we try and ask Vanessa if she can get this Chasity belt off of you.” She moaned, kissing the back of his shoulders before taking the dildo out of him slowly.

When she saw the head of her dildo come out of his ass she pouted, she wanted to have so much fun with him. She knew that she couldn't take too long in the shower because Vanessa would be looking for her.

She took the dildo off and stepped out of the shower, drying herself off. Kevin got out of the shower as well and dried himself off the best he could with the small, white, towel that she had offered him.

“I want you to wait in the front room for me. I'm going to go get dressed and find Vanessa so that we can get that thing off of you.” Lucy giggled, watching as he wrapped a towel around himself and followed her out of the bathroom.

Lucy went to her room and he went passed her bedroom as she pointed towards the living room. Kevin went through the kitchen and went through the living room in order to get to the front room.

In the front room there was a wooden bench that he could sit on. There was a bay window behind it as he turned his head and looked out the window he could see that it looked out onto the street and people were driving by in cars. He watched the cars go by as he waited for the girls to meet him in the front room.

Kevin thought he had been waiting fifteen minutes before he heard the girls enter the room. A little longer than he thought was necessary but when he saw them he could see why they had taken so long.

Standing just a few feet in front of him Kevin looked the girls up and down. He noticed that they were both wearing matching short, black, dresses and as he looked down at their legs he noticed that they were both wearing matching high heel shoes. They were the longest and sharpest high heels he had ever seen in his life. He couldn't believe how big they were as his eyes widened before bringing his eyes back up their legs and seeing that there was something hidden behind the skirt.

Kevin looked at it for a little while longer before he realized what it was, before he noticed that the girls were both wearing a strap-on as they walked closer and closer to him.

He knew what they wanted to do to him. He thought that Lucy had told Vanessa about what they had done in the shower and she was eager to see if he was going to submit to her too. He felt a smile come across his face as he thought about having both the girls pleasing themselves, using him and then allowing him to please them.

He watched as Lucy reached into the top of her dress. Her tits pushed tightly together making her tits look as if they wanted to come out of the dress. She reached between her tits and produced a key, looking down at his Chasity belt and then looking up at him, seeing the hope in his eyes. She gave him a wink.

“I told you I would find a way to get you unlocked, to get that hard cock of yours out of there didn't I?” She asked him, licking her lips as she stepped closer to him.

“You did.” He murmured, nodding his head at her. Glad that she had followed through with what she had told him.

Lucy bent down and put the key into the padlock, she turned it left and then turned it right as she heard the snap of the lock, letting them all know that it was okay to take the padlock off now. Lucy took her time as she slid the padlock off the Chasity belt. She pushed a button on the side and watched as the Chasity belt did the rest all on it's own.

Lucy saw the traces of blood on his cock from where the spikes came out of him. Lucy bit down on her lip hard and knew he was in a lot of pain. He looked as if he was going to cry when she reached out and touched his balls, squeezing them in her small hand.

“Jessica loves this. She loves it when I crush your balls and the ass domination.” Lucy whispered to him, watching Kevin as he opened his eyes wide at the name of his business partner.

He felt her squeezing his balls harder and harder as she talked to him about Jessica. She was enjoying the fact that he was just learning now that it was Jessica's doing. It was her order and they had followed it out.

“I want to send a little message along to you Kevin. She says that your balls are hers and your ass has been hers since the first day you went into business with her.” Lucy moaned to him, clenching her teeth together as she watched him wince in pain when it came to her squeezing his sore balls harder and harder.

Kevin groaned as he thought she was going to squeeze his balls until they popped in her hand. Wondering if she was going to let them go any time soon. This wasn't the same girl who had hopped into bed with him, who had allowed him to please her while they were in the shower, had even begged for him to please her while they were showering together.

Kevin was pissed at Jessica, he didn't understand why she was doing this to him. He had paid his debt to her. He was doing what she wanted at the self-defense class and she was still doing this to him. She had actually called on her girls to show him what she was made of instead of doing it herself.

Chapter 4 - Kevin Knows Its Jessica's Plan

Kevin wasn't surprised that it had been a set up when he really thought about it. He couldn't believe that he had been that stupid.

“I saved you girls from getting hurt last night. I took all the pain so that those men wouldn't hurt you.” He told them in a low voice and growled at them.

“Hey, it's all part of the game. We are told to do what needs to be done by our boss. We make sure whatever she wants done gets done.” Lucy shrugged her shoulders as she began yanking on his balls and digging her fingernails into them.

Lucy let go of his balls and she stopped on them hard with the heel of her shoe. She drove the sharp heel deep into his balls while Vanessa started working on his hard cock. He cried and yelped in pain as she hit the holes that the spikes had left behind on his cock from the Chasity belt.

“She told us that you really loved having your balls and cock played with.” Vanessa grinned at him, licking her lips as she kept driving her long heel into his cock. Pushing down harder and harder on it as if she was killing a bug with her shoe.

They kept slamming his balls and cock over and over again, they watched the pain come across his face as he was crying and pleading for them to stop hurting him. Kevin's face was white as he sat there and took the abuse. There was nothing he could do to make them stop. They had their orders just like he had when he played her games.

“Fuck you Jessica!” He threw his head back and screamed at the top of his lungs. He couldn't believe she would do this to him. He had never steered her wrong before, had always done as he was asked even if he failed he still tried showing her that he didn't fail for lack of trying.

She had over half the business and he thought she would be happy with that. None of this was part of the deal that they had made. It wasn't in the contract that he had signed. He knew it wasn't because he had looked over everything and nothing was in fine print. He had looked it over twice and signed the paper before he changed his mind.

“That's right, cry like a little bitch. She said you would do that too!” Vanessa hollered at him and laughed as she stomped as hard as she could on his cock.

Lucy laughed with her, looking in her eyes Kevin could see that she was really enjoying herself as she moved her heel back and forth over his balls to flatten them more as if she was putting out a cigarette with a shoe. She kept grinding harder and harder into his balls.

Kevin wasn't sure how much more he could take as he bent over and began protecting himself. There was nothing else he could do. He had to wait until they were done having their fun with him. He didn't know what else he could do. He couldn't fight back because he knew it would be worse if he did anything.

Kevin fell to the floor as they tried kicking him again. He curled up in a ball holding himself as he cried harder and harder. He knew he could stand a lot of pain but this was going too far. They were slow with him they were rough as hell with him. He knew that it was their job to cause him pain but they didn't have to enjoy doing it and that's why he was upset about it more than anything else. He didn't blame them for following Jessica's plan they just didn't have to tell Jessica that they did everything she wanted right down to the last detail.

Kevin didn't know where the girls were while he was lying on the floor. He didn't dare turn around and see if they were behind him but a few seconds later he knew what they were doing, he could feel it when one of the girls spread his ass cheeks.

He looked over his shoulder finally and saw that Lucy was staring at him, a grin on her face with her strap on around her, she had lifted her dress and was already poking the head of her cock inside of his ass.

“There's no way that we can do this at the same time unless he gets on all fours.” Vanessa stated, glaring at him as she made eye contact with him.

Kevin didn't dare talk to her, she looked like she was pissed at him for not being a mind reader. He shook his head back and forth quickly instead of telling her verbally that he didn't want anything to do with it he made the motions.

“You are going to do what we say or else I will call Jessica and she will straighten this out for you. She will make you pay for not cooperating with us!” Vanessa yelled at him, pointing a finger at him and warned him with the tone of her voice.

He closed his eyes tightly and bit his tongue. He didn't want to do what they told him to. He was tired of being played with and hurt because of Jessica's games or because someone just wanted to take advantage of him.

“Do it!” Vanessa screamed at him and got her cell phone ready to make the phone call if he didn't move.

“I would do as she says Kevin. You seem like a smart man, you really need to take her advice and do what you are told.” Lucy raised her eyebrows at him, her blue eyes begging him silently to do it. He could see that she didn't like it when Jessica was brought into a job that couldn't get done right the first time.

He nodded his head at her and slowly rolled over from his side to his stomach. He slowly got on his knees that were shaking and he got on his hands. He wished he had stayed with his car and waited for help, he knew that if he had stayed with his car come morning someone could have given him a ride to work and probably get some gas while they were at it, instead while he was walking home he felt bad for the girls thinking they were innocent and didn't know what was going on. He couldn't have that on his mind walking away and not doing anything and his was his payment for helping them out.

“I never should have rescued you girls! I wouldn't be here now!” He shouted at them, glaring at the both of them as they both stretched his ass cheeks together.

“We are just doing our job. You have a job and so do we. We get paid for this job.” Vanessa grunted to him.

“Are you ready Kevin? We are going to do this nice and slow for you.” Lucy laughed at him, nibbling on her lip she didn't want to hurt him she loved fucking men nice and slow.

Lucy at least warned him about it going inside of him, the one thing he wasn't warned about was that Vanessa was going to be fucking him too with hers.

He felt both the heads of their cocks going into him, he squeezed his eyes shut. His ass was already raw and he knew it was going to hurt this time. The more pressure they applied to his ass the more his balls hurt.

Feeling them slowly entering him and slowly sliding it out he whimpered in pain. He felt the tears forming in his eyes. When he felt the hard piece of rubber hitting the back of him he knew they were all the way in him. It was pressing harder and harder against his sore balls and he knew that even though his cock was free he couldn't make it cum.

From the damage that girls had done to him he couldn't get off. Looking down at his hard cock that was throbbing he saw that it was not only bleeding but it was bruised and it looked as if someone had taken their long fingernails to his hard cock scrapping down the side of it and drawing blood. It hurt to even look at it.

“You're not saying anything. You must like having a hard cock deep inside you. Your cock is nice and hard I can see that from here.” Vanessa laughed at him.

She reached down between his legs and squeezed his balls as hard as she could, tugging on them until she heard him cry out in pain for her.

“There you go, I thought for sure you fell asleep on me.” She laughed again, she was having a great time causing him pain.

Lucy was having fun but not to hurt him, it was all part of the job that they had taken on. She was doing what she was told so that she could get paid and pay the bills she had. The only reason she had joined Jessica's team anyways. There was nowhere else she could make the same amount of money in a day working anywhere else. For her it was all about the amount of money they were getting from Jessica that made her dominate men.

Lucy had fun of course, she had a lot of fun with the men that were sent to them. She couldn't deny that but she wasn't into making someone bleed and when she saw the blood coming out of Kevin's cock she felt bad, though she didn't show it on the outside. She couldn't have Vanessa thinking she had grown soft when it came to getting a job done.

Vanessa took her cock out of his ass before Lucy did. Lucy always waited for Vanessa to finish something so that she could follow suit. Always making sure she waited for Vanessa in case Jessica didn't like something it was blamed on Vanessa and not Lucy. Lucy always made sure she covered her ass.

“I think that's about enough.” Vanessa told her, taking the dildo off her and watching Lucy do the same thing.

“Roll over.” Vanessa told him in a growling voice. She didn't care too much for Kevin and she was glad it was almost over so that she could have her money. That was all she cared about, she didn't care about the pain that she had put him through or any victim she had. She did her job and sometimes she went overboard but Jessica didn't need to know that.

“I can't.” He cried out to her. Letting her know that he couldn't move from the position he was in.

“You have to!” Vanessa hollered at him this time.

When Kevin still didn't move she walked over to the side of him and kicked his legs out from under him so that his hands gave out and he fell face first on the floor. He cried out in surprise and pain when his hard cock hit the floor underneath him.

“I said roll the fuck over! You mean to tell me you are so much of a pussy that you can't roll over for me?” She asked him, laughing at him when he looked up at her.

Kevin didn't say anything to her as he rolled over slowly on his back. The girls were staring down at his cock as Lucy lifted the Chasity belt.

“I don't think this is going to fit.” Lucy looked at Vanessa and then back down at his hard cock.

“We are just going to have to make it fit. There's one simple way to do that.” Vanessa gave an evil grin as she looked at the heel of her shoe.

“Please don't god, please don't!” He cried out, raising his hands and shaking his head back and forth. He couldn't take anymore of his cock being stomped on.

“We are told to make sure that you are back in the Chasity belt when our fun was done.” Vanessa told him, placing her hands on her hips and shaking her head back and forth at him.

He knew that her pity for him was fake, he knew that she didn't care if she kept hurting him. Didn't care if she damaged him to the point where he might have to go get checked out. Jessica's dominate friends didn't care about anything as long as they were paid as soon as the job was done. That part he did know.

Chapter 5 - Kevin's Humiliation.

The room grew quiet as Kevin covered his hard cock. Just the touch of his soft palm was killing him when he accidentally touched the head of his cock. He winced in pain and closed his eyes for a brief moment and that's when Vanessa struck.

Without warning Vanessa brought her heel up and hit him on the back of the hand. Pushing his palm against the head of his cock so that he was screaming as she took the heel off him and did it again. Making she got his hand again, wondering how long it would take him to remove his hand from his cock.

When Kevin opened his eyes he noticed the heel coming down for a third time and he moved his hand quickly out of the way. She connected with the head of his cock and he cried out again.

“You're nothing but a pussy Kevin. I can't believe that Jessica admits to knowing you!” Vanessa hollered at him, calling him a coward and that he didn't know how to handle pain.

She stomped on his hard cock over and over again, making the marks on his cock bleed more. Lucy wanted to tell her it was enough and she was about to open her mouth when Vanessa glared over at her.

“This is our job! Either you're going to help me get this done or you are going to get less pay Lucy!” She screamed at her sister.

Lucy knew that they split their pay half and half when they got it from Jessica. She knew that she had bills that needed to be paid as well so she looked at Kevin. Kevin made eye contact with her, she could see him pleading with her not to do it but she didn't have a choice.

Lucy glared at Kevin and began stomping in time with Vanessa on his cock. She had to live too and she knew that Vanessa would rat her out in a minute if she thought Lucy wasn't pulling her own weight when it came to dominating and getting the job done.

They stomped on his cock at the same time over and over again while his tears streamed down his face. He closed his eyes a few times and tried his best to handle the pain without crying out and begging them to stop.

When they were finally done with him they were breathing heavily, his cock was no longer hard from excitement but it was hard from it swelling up so fast.

“If we keep doing this we are really going to hurt him.” Vanessa grunted, shaking her head. She couldn't believe this was happening.

Vanessa knew when to stop and she only stopped because his cock was swollen and there was no way they could get his cock smaller.

“We are going to have to force it inside the Chasity belt. I will push it in and you will close it shut.” Vanessa told her the plan.

They both got down on the floor between his legs and Lucy watched as Vanessa took charge. She grabbed a hold of his cock while Lucy was getting the Chasity belt open. When she had it opened all the way she brought it beneath his cock, right above his balls and she even winced thinking about the pain that Kevin was going through when Vanessa roughly pushed his cock inside of it. Making sure that every inch of it was in there so that none of his skin was pinched.

Vanessa knew that if his skin had been pinched and they locked him in the belt anyways Jessica would find out one way or another and all hell would break loose because it wasn't part of the plan. When they clipped it into place Vanessa had the pleasure of locking the padlock into place.

“I guess Jessica should have given us a bigger Chasity belt.” Vanessa grinned, seeing that his cock was pushing hard against the spikes and they would soon be making new puncture marks soon enough.

“Now we are going to go for a little ride.” Vanessa told him, looking up at the clock she noticed that it was almost noon time. They had until one o'clock to call Jessica and let her know that the job was done. Every hour after that they were going to lose money.

“Come on we don't have much time.” Lucy muttered, looking at the clock herself. She didn't want to be late when they called Jessica. They had been late one time and Jessica got very upset with them and didn't give them any work for over a week. It had killed them in the end for spending too much time pleasuring themselves.

“If you hadn't taken so long in the shower like you usually do we wouldn't have to worry about time.” Vanessa shot back at her, pointing a finger at Lucy.

Lucy sighed heavily and watched as Vanessa turned back towards Kevin. They both quickly reached for one of his arms to drag him up off the floor. They had him on his knees and almost lost their grip on him.

“You need to help us.” Lucy told him, shaking her head. She knew that it was the only way they were going to get him up on his feet.

“I don't need to help you. Look at what you girls have put me through since last night! I helped you girls out! All those people walking by must have known that you were horrible girls. They knew that you were out looking for a victim!” He screamed at her, his face red. He could feel the snots coming out of his nose when he talked to the girls. He couldn't even wipe them away.

“You either get up on your feet now or I call her!” Vanessa told him, grabbing a hold of her phone again and getting ready to press the number one button. She had Jessica on speed dial and it wouldn't take that long to get her on the phone.

Kevin brought one leg up and felt his foot go flat on the cold floor. He pushed off with his foot and brought himself up on his feet. The last thing he wanted was for Jessica to come in and finish the job for the girls. He knew she wouldn't think the game was over yet. And it wasn't over until Jessica told him it was.

The girls felt his arms go around each of their shoulders. Vanessa had a smile on her face as they helped him to the front door.

“You are such a good lap dog aren't you? I bet you get off from women ordering you around all the time. You are so stupid Kevin. Even going to a loan shark would have been better than going to Jessica. Jessica of all people!” Vanessa shouted at him, she winked at him as Lucy opened the front door.

They walked him outside and shut the door behind them. Kevin noticed there was no car around the flat. There was no car on the side of the street and even though there was a small garage they didn't help him towards it.

“I thought you said we were going for a drive?” He asked her, glaring at Vanessa. He knew now that she had tricked him.

“It was the only way to get you out of the house Kevin. The only way I knew that you were going to come out looking like this was if I told you we were going for a ride.” Vanessa sighed, showing him just how stupid he had been.

Kevin couldn't believe that they were walking him down the street on the sidewalk. There were people driving by and honking at them. Some people were cat calling at him as they walked by him. Checking him out and laughing when they noticed that he was locked in a Chasity belt.

“This is so much fun isn't it Kevin? You like it when people laugh at you, knowing that you were dumb helping us out like that last night.” Vanessa laughed, nodding at the people who were stopped on the sidewalk to help them go by.

Even older women were laughing at him. The older ladies Kevin thought would have a heart and shake their heads in sympathy but no they all stood there young and old laughing at him. Something he couldn't stand.

He felt his face growing warm, his heart was racing and his hands were sweating. He had never been this humiliated in his life.

“Where are we going?” He asked through gritted teeth knowing that he had to go to the hospital to get checked out. Just to see the damage they had done to him.

“You will see when we get there. I'm not going to ruin the surprise.” Vanessa laughed softly, she wasn't going to make a scene out in public that wasn't the way she handled things. She usually handled all of her business in her own home where no one else could see her.

The only reason she brought him out to begin with was because once again it was Jessica order, part of Jessica's plan that was put in place. Vanessa was just glad that they didn't have to carry him too far because he was already getting heavy putting all his weight on the both of them slowed them down, it was making them run out of time and she was wondering if he was weighing them down on purpose.

“Come on, speed up.” Vanessa muttered under her breath so that he was the only one who could hear her.

He knew that she was in a hurry and he hid a smile from his face. He knew that if they were late just like if he had been late during the meetings it would have pissed Jessica off. This was the same case now. Only he knew he was messing with their pay.

“I'm going as fast as I can. You have no idea how much you two have hurt me today.” He moaned to her, slowing down a little more.

Finally Kevin knew where he was when he saw the brick building. He remembered the spot even though he had seen it only in the dark. The alley way didn't look all that creepy now that he was looking at it during the day.

“Oh yeah, you know where you are now.” Lucy grinned at him, nodding her head when she took a look at his face.

They walked him into the alley way and set him up against the dumpster. They looked him over and knew that he was going to have to do something about his wounds. The markings that they had made on him.

“I guess you could say that you are lucky.” Vanessa told him, stepping away from him and watching him fall to his knees.

“How do you figure I'm lucky?” He asked her, glaring at her. He knew that they weren't going to do anything more to him. He knew they were running out of time the longer they stayed there with him.

“It's not cold, there's no snow and you don't have to worry about freezing to death.” Vanessa explained to him quickly as she turned her back on him.

He watched both the girls as they turned their backs on him and walked away from him. Vanessa looked over her shoulder at him when they were out on the sidewalk. She laughed and gave him a little wave before she looked at the time on the tower ahead of them. They had time to spare, they had to call Jessica in forty-five minutes on the dot. They were going to get paid and they didn't have to worry about Jessica getting pissed off at them.

Kevin was glad they were gone, he sat there by the dumpster for a little while. People were laughing and whispering as they walked by. No one was going to help him out, when the clock tower hit one he tried getting up off his knees but he knew he had been too weak.

Kevin vowed he wasn't going to help any girl out again. Looking around the alley way he knew he had set himself up the night before and he knew that helping could lead to him getting hurt. He decided to stay in the alley until he was strong enough to get up and walk away.
