Chapter 1 - Business Is Changing.

Kevin sat back in his chair one afternoon in his office. Thinking about how the business had changed over the last six months. Jessica wanted him to go out to lunch with her, she even offered to pay for it but he was still pissed about the set up between Vanessa and Lucy so he declined nicely.

Kevin hadn't gone to her as much as he once had and she didn't call him as much as she use to. She decided that it would be best if she went by herself. He didn't want to get into a pissing contest with her anyways knowing that she owned seventy-five percent of the company and she rubbed it in his face whenever she had the chance to.

For the past six months she had been recruiting women but not for the business. She was recruiting women to make it more a dominating business than the lumber merchant business he had thought of. He knew his hands were tied he couldn't tell her no on what she wanted to change about the business. It was basically hers, he was the guy behind the curtain now.

“I'm sorry dad, I must have disappointed you so many times by now.” He muttered, putting his hands behind his head and looking up at the ceiling.

Women were coming in left and right for interviews. They were told to wear their most revealing clothing and it was bad enough that Jessica was having the girls come in to be interviewed for dominating but it was worse when she used the men that worked for him as a lesson during the interview. That was how she knew the women were strong enough to take the job. He felt bad for his men even though they got paid extra for it. Even the married men were told that they had to participate if not they would lose their jobs working for the lumber business.

Kevin knew that the women were young, they had to be in their early twenties as he watched one of them walk by his office door.

He believed the young woman's name was Shirley, she had red frizzy hair and hazel blue eyes. She walked around with a shirt that had holes in the top of it to show off her tits he thought she might as well walk around topless. Her jeans had tears in them right below her ass cheeks and he could tell that she wasn't wearing any panties. He could see her birthmark on her right ass cheek as she turned around and bent down to get something out of one of the metal lockers that lined the wall. He shook his head in disgust.

He knew Shirley enough that even though she looked sweet and innocent and she would do anything anyone asked she was real mean and vicious when it came to her dominating men. She had asked him several times if he wanted a lesson, if he wanted to please her and his answer was always no. Just like all the rest she didn't know when to quit.

Kevin knew when Jessica was out of the office a lot of the women would sit in her office and just lounge around. Talking about the men that were actually working for a living. Talking about who their victim would be if they had a choice.

Though the girls worked for Jessica they weren't able to pick them men that they tortured. It was always up to Jessica and what she wanted from them. Sometimes they would dominate a man right in the office for everyone to see. One time Jessica had them dominating one of his best workers in front of the mail man when he came up to deliver the mail.

That day Kevin knew the mail man was embarrassed. He hadn't been back to the business to deliver mail without having someone with him. Kevin thought he was smart about that, never knowing if he was going to be pulled into their little games.

More and more Jessica was doing what she wanted with the business as he stood in the shadows and watched everything changing. He wanted to tell her that's not what the business was for but he already knew what her answer was going to be. He knew that she would tell him he didn't have any say. She made that perfectly clear to him once before by having her cronies dominate him. They had come back to him with a message from her. Letting him know that he would never be free of her unless he gave up the business entirely and that wasn't something that he was willing to do. He would rather have less of the company than to give it up altogether.

Aside from the dominating part of the company he would have to say the Lumber business was doing good. He was thinking about asking Jessica if he could buy back some of the business but he hadn't approached her about it yet. He knew that it would be a stupid move on her part if she did and she was a business woman he knew she would never fall for it so instead of asking her he kept convincing himself that having some of the business was better than having none of the business and being kicked out on his ass.

When Jessica came back from lunch she stopped by his office to see if there was anything he needed. When he saw her pull into the parking lot he pretended to be busy with the paperwork in front of him. They were orders that were already filled and shipped out but she didn't need to know that.

“What are you doing?” She asked him, leaning against the door frame of his office.

“I was just looking over some of the orders that need to be filled by this afternoon. I was thinking that the business is doing really good.” He looked up from the paper work and saw she had changed from her business uniform.

Jessica was dressed in a short, red, leather mini-skirt and a matching leather top that looked more like a bra than an actually top. Her red high heels looked good on her but he made sure not to look at her for too long, he had learned long ago with her because she always hurt the men she was with. He didn't want to be her victim yet again.

“Good, so the lumber business is going good.” He nodded his head at her, picking up a pen and getting ready to sign one of the shipping orders that hadn't been signed yet.

“Great, the dominating part is really good too. We are making triple the money we use to make.” Jessica told him softly.

“Nice.” He told her, giving her a small smile. He didn't see much of that money that came in to the dominating part of the business. She threw him some money now and again from that but since she had made the business bigger because of it she could do what she wanted and Kevin didn't dare say anything about it.

“It's going to be a really long night isn't it Kevin?” She asked him, standing up and getting ready to turn around to go to her office across hall from his.

“It sure looks like it. I won't be out of here until at least six.” He told her, wishing she would just go away now.

“So you don't want to go out with me and the girls tonight after work?” She asked, giving him a smile.

“No I can't. I'm going home and going to bed. I haven't been sleeping good lately.” He frowned at her when she laughed at him and finally turned away from his office door.

When Kevin saw her sit down in her own chair he made eye contact with her and got up from his chair. He closed the door with Jessica waving to him just as he closed the door behind him. Thankful that he had a solid wood door. He leaned against the door and closed his eyes for a moment. Taking a deep breath he opened his eyes and went back to work.

Chapter 2 - A Surprise At Home

Kevin looked at the clock before he decided to leave for the evening. It was a little after eight at night when he finally left the office. He wanted to make sure that Jessica was gone before he left for the night. He didn't need her still being there when he decided to go home in case she wanted to hang out. He didn't want to hang out with her and she should have known that since she had set him up a while back but he thought she did it just to mess with him, if he said yes he knew there would be a snide remark.

On the way home that evening Kevin thought about one thing and one thing only. Taking a hot shower and going to bed, maybe watching a little television and falling asleep under the covers.

However that was not to happen when he pulled into the driveway he saw that his living light was on. It meant only one thing when he got out of the car that someone had gone into his house. As he climbed the backstairs he walked slowly until he realized who it was.

Standing at the glass sliding door was a worker from the dominating group of Jessica's she was standing with her arms up over her head pressed against the glass and her legs were spread as far as she could get them. The only thing she was wearing was a pair of knickers. He could see her tits as she gave him a wink and pressed them up against the glass, her nipples were hard as he shook his head and gave her a small smile.

The girls name was Tammy she was in her early twenties with black, silk, hair that was put up in a ponytail. Her blue eyes were excited to see him as he looked up and down her body.

Tammy finally moved away from the glass door so that he could get into the house. When he opened the sliding glass door he shook his head again and closed the door behind him. Not turning around so that she could attack him if she felt the need to.

Keeping his eye on her he was getting very excited, his cock was getting hard for her in the thin slacks that he was wearing. Though he was tired he was waking up quickly as he looked her up and down from head to toe.

He knew that something was coming from her, he knew she was there for a reason when he put his brief case down. Standing straight again he didn't have any warning that she was going to hurt him until he felt a fist quickly move between his legs and make contact with his balls. Tammy was already on her knees pleasing herself.

Tammy unbuckled his belt from his pants and he watched as she lowered his pants to his legs. He wasn't wearing any boxers when his cock came out of his pants quickly. Showing just how hard he was.

Tammy began double punching his balls. Using one fist and than the other as fast as she could. Hearing him whimper and whine as she did so. He could feel that his cock was softening up a bit. Feeling it almost go completely soft.

He closed his eyes for a moment as he felt his balls jiggling as she continuously punched him harder and harder. He didn't bother to open his eyes until he felt something going around his cock. Opening his eyes wide he tried to struggle away from her but it was already too late. He felt the Chasity belt trap his cock inside. He groaned and rolled his eyes knowing that he was in a lot of trouble.

“You are going to like pleasing me tonight baby. I've had my eyes on you for a while now at the office. I couldn't wait any longer.” She grunted to him as she pushed him down on the floor.

Kevin was startled that she had pushed him so hard, he fell backwards and felt his ass hit the living room floor hard she quickly pushed him all the way down on the floor, his back hitting hard as he cried out in surprise.

“You are going to do such a good job licking my asshole and tonguing my ass.” Tammy moaned to him, sliding her pants all the way off and kicking her shoes off.

Tammy quickly straddled his face with her ass, feeling his hot breath between her ass cheeks as she moaned for him, grinding her ass against his mouth until she felt the tip of his tongue against her ass hole. She grabbed a hold of his legs and lifted her ass off his mouth just a few inches.

Kevin didn't need any prompting when she lifted her ass off his face. He began licking the outside of her ass hole and licking up and down her ass crack. Licking it as fast as he could. The faster he licked it the louder she got for him.

“Fuck Kevin, I heard that you were good but I didn't know that you were this good!” Tammy cried out to him, closing her eyes and enjoying his fast, hot, wet, tongue running around the outside of her ass.

Kevin moaned for her as he felt his cock getting harder and harder inside the locked Chasity belt. This was something he had been looking for. He wanted to please the women but they weren't always nice to their victims. He never knew that Tammy had been watching him and wanting him these past few weeks.

Tammy had just started working for Jessica not too long ago and she had never approached him, never gave him a wink or a smile to let him know that she was interested in him. Kevin also knew where he stood in life. The only thing that really happened in his life was being dominated by women. He never had a real relationship, Stacey was about dominating, the girl he had taken to the ski lodge. Once those girls got a hold of him at the bottom of the hill where he fell that was all Stacey wanted from him.

With Stacey it was just like all the other women who wanted him to please them but didn't want to please him. His place in life was to be controlled by women all the way around. He had given most of his business to Jessica, a woman and now the business was practically run by women now who were almost naked half the time.

Kevin found it hard to take to begin with, once he accepted what had happened to him and why he was put here it was easier to deal with. No matter what he knew that Jessica was never going to leave his life. Not even if he gave her all of the business. She liked dominating him, she liked controlling him and she knew that no matter how bad she hurt him he would come back for more because that's who he was. His life had changed around in so many ways. He was down on his luck a few times knowing he had to run to Jessica to help him out. Always it was about her in the end even after she cut him a check for the money he wanted. She had no problem giving it to him as long as she got what he wanted and what she wanted was to dominate him all the way around.

He licked and lapped at Tammy's asshole making sure that he could do the best he could for her. Eager to shove his tongue deep inside her mouth while his cock was hurting in the Chasity belt that he was getting use to every time he had a sexual encounter. He knew that his cock was no longer his, it was trapped until the women were done with him no matter which woman it was.

Kevin began sliding his tongue in and out of Tammy's ass. She was grinding against his tongue one second and than lifting her ass up and down on it, making it slide in and out of her so that she could help him please her.

“You're doing such a good job Kevin! Fuck I love how you work your tongue around my ass hole and inside of it!” She hollered at him, moaning and feeling her pussy getting wet for him.

He quickened the pace of his tongue, the words was like music to his ears that she gave him a compliment something that he wasn't use to getting.

His heart was racing for her, his face was sweating as he pulled her ass cheeks apart further with his hands. Wanting to make sure that he licked her asshole inside and out, not wanting to miss a single inch of it. He felt his heart pounding in his ears as he did everything she wanted him to. Hearing her whimpering louder and louder for him he felt the spikes of the Chasity belt digging into him, something that had become normal to him that he didn't even flinch when the sharp spikes penetrated his hard cock. He didn't think anything of it as Tammy rode his tongue like it was a cock in her ass.

When Tammy was done having her ass licked inside and out she got off of him and began punching his balls hard with one fist. After a few times of him crying out in pain she began squeezing them, digging her nails into his soft balls, she was getting excited from the pain she was creating. The more he cried out in pain the more her pussy was getting wetter and wetter. She couldn't believe how much pain he was taking from her. He wasn't begging her to stop only whimpering and moaning on the floor curled up in a fetal position as if he was a baby.

“I knew that you were going to like this. Jessica told me that you were working late tonight and I should welcome you home for a late night surprise.” She told him, licking her lips and laughing at him.

Getting up off the floor she walked around him and saw that his balls were between his legs. She couldn't kick him in the crotch because of the Chasity belt being in the way and she wasn't going to hurt her feet by hitting the Chasity belt with her toes.

When she saw his balls hanging out from the back of him she brought her foot all the way back and kicked him as hard as she could in the balls. Hearing him cry out in pain she could see that his balls were already red and swollen from being abused over and over again.

Tammy laughed out loud when she realized just how much pain and suffering he could take from the women. She wasn't going to compliment him but she could see just how tough he was taking it from her. She had to go back and tell Jessica that he was tougher than what she really thought he was in the back of her mind.

“Jessica will be happy with what I have to tell her about tonight. Make sure you rest up because you have more fun coming your way.” Tammy sneered at him as she took a piece of paper out of her shirt pocket and put it on the glass coffee table before she left through the sliding glass doors, not even bothering to shut it behind her.

Kevin laid there for a while on the floor. The only thing he wanted to do that night was to take a shower and then he saw Tammy there. He felt his balls aching, he felt his cock throbbing against the Chasity belt that Tammy never took off of them.

“Fuck.” He moaned to himself as he tried sitting up slowly. It took him a half hour to sit up and when he got to his feet he saw the note on the glass table where Tammy had left it.

He didn't know what she was talking about but he was sure that he was going to find out when he opened the note that Tammy left behind.

He sat on the couch and after his breathing went back to normal he reached for the note that was folded. He sat back against the couch trying to relax as he opened the note. He shook his head as he read what was typed on the piece of paper.

You are invited to a Senior Management meeting tomorrow morning at 8:30 am. We are looking forward to seeing you.

Jessica.

It was only a few lines that he read two or three times over and over again. He tore the letter in half and let the pieces fall to the floor. He watched them fall to his feet before he slowly got up to head to bed, seeing it was already past midnight and he didn't really want to be getting into the office late. He knew that he was going to be in for a long day the next day.

Once Kevin got in bed that night he was shaking all over. The Chasity belt wasn't comfortable to sleep in and he had a feeling that Tammy knew that he was going to have a hard time sleeping. He slept on his back all night so that he didn't accidentally rub the Chasity belt against the blankets.

Chapter 3 - Board Room Meeting.

Kevin got out of his car the next morning looking at the office. It was the first time he wanted to just walk away and call in sick. He had thought about calling in sick numerous times but knew that Jessica would just come to his house. He was sure that she had sent Tammy to break into the house and abuse him the night before.

With his cock still sore he got out of his car, grimacing from the pain as he shut and locked his car up for the morning. He limped slowly to the office doors. The closer he got the more he wanted to turn around and leave. Thinking about going home and locking the doors so one could get it sounded like a good idea. Or maybe not even going home but just out driving all day.

“I have to get this done and see what she wants. There's no use in hiding she will find me.” Kevin muttered to himself.

Holding his breath and letting it out slowly as he stood in front of the board room door he opened it with his head held high and he tried not to limp into the board room as he looked at the women sitting around the oval table in the middle of the room.

He could see that all the women were smiling at him, he thought he heard a few of them giggling at him. He paid no attention to them as he took his seat at one of the ends of the table. He looked down the oval table and saw that the chair was meant for Jessica. Since they both owned the company they were the two who had the head chairs during a meeting.

He groaned as he sat down, trying to find a comfortable position. He looked around as his cock was throbbing from the pain, sitting on his bruised balls hurt more than he could have ever imagined.

As Kevin looked around the room he noticed that there were a lot of video camera's up on the wall. He hadn't noticed them before during any other meeting and he felt himself sweating. He felt his legs shaking and prayed to god that his hands didn't begin to shake because they would know he was scared of them. Wiping his forehead he wiped the sweat on his slacks. He knew his face was pale when he looked in a small mirror hanging on the back of the door.

Kevin checked out the women around the table. There were a handful of them, they were all dressed in revealing clothing. Some of them were in short dresses, the top of their dresses revealed their hard nipples when they bent over the table, he figured it was for his view.

There was a young woman who was sitting beside him, she had her chair pushed back and he could see that she was wearing a long, spandex shirt that she wore as a dress. He could see that she wasn't wearing any panties when she stretched her arms over her head and her "Dress" came up over her hips to reveal her shaved pussy.

None of it was out of ordinary for him, it was every day routine around the office so he didn't think anything of it. Looking around he knew that the girls were waiting on Jessica just the same as he was.

Kevin knew she was running late and that they were all going to wait for her. She didn't really like it when someone was late for a meeting but it was okay for her to be because she was one of the boss's.

About a half hour of silence she finally walked into the board room. She had folders that she set out in the middle of the table.

“Good morning Kevin, I'm glad that you showed up this morning.” Jessica smiled at him, greeting everyone else as she slowly made her way over to her chair on the other end of the table.

The girls greeted her back as Kevin kept his mouth shut. He knew that she wanted something from him and he was on edge as it was.

“I said good morning Kevin.” Jessica told him, raising her eyebrows at him standing beside his chair.

Kevin looked over at Jessica, seeing she was wearing a black dress that came only past her hips. She wore a silver, glittering belt with a matching scarf hanging around her neck. She wore enough eye shadow he thought to share with all the women around the table.

“Good morning.” He moaned to her, shaking his head as he felt the pain of his balls again. Thinking about the torture that he had endured last night.

Tammy was sitting beside Jessica with a smile on her face, she knew he was in immense pain when she looked at him. There was no way he didn't feel any pain that morning after the night she had with him.

“This morning we are going to talk about finance's when it comes to the company. There are going to be a few changes that I wanted to bring to everyone's attention.” Jessica told him, putting on a serious face.

Kevin was the only one seemed surprised by this. She was suppose to run meetings through him first before just going ahead and doing it on her own. He shook his head in disagreement as he made eye contact with Jessica.

“Times are changing as we all know and we know that the lumber business is slowly dwindling. I want to make sure that we keep the business going at a high rate so that everyone is happy. I think that we need to find more time for the dominating side of the business. It seems as if that's taking off better than expecting. If you would all please grab a binder from the middle of the table we can all get started.” Jessica nodded her head at all the women and gave Kevin a smirk when she made eye contact with him again.

“What are you talking about new changes Jessica? I didn't know anything about this until just now. With the both of us running the company you would think we would be on the same page.” He glared at her, watching as the girls all looked at Jessica, her face was slightly red as she kept the smile on her face.

“Kevin you were running what I thought was a lumber company. I am the one running the dominating part of the company. I really didn't think I had to run this meeting by you.” She grinned at him, her blue eyes wanting to kill him and he knew it.

He looked down at the table and knew that he had embarrassed her, he knew that it was going to be worse for him in the end when she called him to her office after the meeting was over. He still had no idea why he was there except to talk about the company. He had a feeling that Jessica was getting ready to yell at him but she kept it in, for some reason she didn't want to scream at him in front of the girls that morning when any other time she had no problem talking to him in a harsh tone of voice.

“Now, could you all please grab the binders in the middle of the table like I had asked?” Jessica looked at all the girls.

There was no hint of a smile and as if the women in the room were a bunch of robots they were nodding their heads and getting up from the table.

Kevin watched as all the women reached their arms across to the middle of the table. They opened up the binders looking over everything that Jessica had listed, she was going to go over everything on the list in great detail.

Kevin was the last one, he had to get out of his chair and lean over the table in order to grab his binder. As he leaned his body over the table he groaned from the pain of his cock, the Chasity belt had hit the edge of the table driving the spikes deeper into his cock.

Kevin wasn't prepared for what was going to happen next. It was like he had been ambushed. When he grabbed the binder from the middle of the table two of the girls closest to him grabbed his arms and pinned him down.

“What the hell!” He grunted, feeling his face being shoved down on to the cold table. He felt his cheek push further against the table as he watched the women get up from the table slowly.

He glared at Jessica when she was the last one to get up and slowly make her way over to him. She was laughing loudly at him. The girls who had pinned him to the table now had his arms behind his back so he couldn't struggle with them.

“As I was saying just a few minutes ago, the company is going to be making a change. A change where women are running the company completely Kevin and I hate to tell you this part.....” Jessica's voice trailed off and the room grew silent.

“Hate to tell me what?” He asked her in a deep voice. He was getting tired of Jessica treating him like he was dirt under her feet.

“Your services are no longer needed. We have weeded out the men who work for you in the lumber department. I got rid of them last night, giving them a good chunk of change to stop what they were doing and just leave. I even told them I would pick up the mess. Did you see any of your workers out there this morning when you pulled in?” Jessica asked him, shrugging her shoulders when he didn't answer her.

He thought it was funny that the parking lot was empty, his workers were usually there before he was getting orders filled and saying good morning to him when he saw them, he knew he should have thought of that when he noticed that none of the machines were running.

“I can't believe you're doing this Jessica!” He screamed at her, glaring at her as his face got beat red he was pissed.

“Well you should know me by now that when I want something I really go for it. IF you are a good boy during these last few hours of working for me you will be paid handsomely for your time. If not you walk away with nothing. No job of course, that's a given but no money to make sure that you can survive.” She pointed out to him, showing him that she meant business and she was the one in control not him.

Kevin closed his eyes and felt the tears slowly sliding down his cheeks. He was the one who had started the business, yes Jessica had funded it but he had done favors for her. He knew it was going to fuck him in the ass giving away some of his business to her because she wanted more and more from him until she got it all. It took a few years to swindle him out of his business but he knew she was doing it now and there was nothing he could do about it.

“Come on Kevin, don't cry. I saw the way you took my torture last night. I even told Jessica about it this morning.” Tammy told him softly, grinning at him as he made contact with her.

“I figured since you could stand the abuse that Tammy had put you through than you could stand what I have planned for you.” Jessica leaned down and whispered in his ear.

Jessica turned away from him and went to the closet door that was in the board room. He knew what was in there as he felt his pants being pulled down roughly all the way down to his ankles. He was relieved when someone took the Chasity belt off of him. He didn't know who had done it but he was thankful for that.

“Fuck!” He cried out when the spikes came out of his cock. He felt the pain of the spikes coming out of his hard cock fast.

“I bet you slept good with that didn't you baby?” Jessica laughed, looking around the room and seeing the other women laughing at him as well.

She lifted her dress up over her hips and put a big strap on around her. She tossed one of the strap-on over to Tammy and one to the girl Shirley that he had seen yesterday afternoon. He knew she was one of the most vicious girls he had seen in the company so far.

Chapter 4 - Kevin Experiences The New Changes

Kevin knew what was going to happen to him and he feared Shirley most of all. Jessica he already knew what she was capable of doing but he had seen grown ass man walk out of the office after being tortured by Shirley and he knew it wasn't any fun just looking at the men who walked out with tear stained faces.

“Get him on the floor!” Jessica shouted to the two women who were holding him against the table.

They quickly moved him away from the table, kicking his chair half way across the room and seeing that they meant business he felt his cock sway from side to side as they roughly got him down to the floor.

“You are so weak Kevin, it's so funny how the company use to be yours and now it's all mine.” Jessica giggled, he heard the other girls laughing at him as well. He bit his tongue so that he wouldn't say something snide to her, knowing it was only going to hurt him in the end.

“I want you to feel everything today Kevin. This is how the new management is going to go, this is the new road we are taking. I wanted you to get a feel for it before you leave today.” Jessica moaned to him, getting down on her knees behind him as she spread his ass cheeks wide.

Kevin didn't say anything, he closed his eyes knowing that he had lost the business years ago when he asked her for the loan to start it up. Shaking his head in shame and disappointment in himself for not going to someone else. He was just glad that he wasn't going to have to deal with Jessica's torture after that final day of work.

“You have such a nice ass Kevin. I think that I've enjoyed your ass more than any victim I've had.” She laughed, licking her lips as she had Tammy come down beside her so that they could share him.

“I know, last night he pleased me very well. I was impressed when he gave me a rim job and licked the inside of my ass. He loved it, didn't you?” Tammy asked, getting on her knees beside Jessica.

“She asked you a question!” Jessica hollered at him, spanking his ass hard with her hand.

“Yes!” He screamed out to them, hearing the girls laugh at him as Shirley stood in front of him with her big, black, cock attached to her.

“I am really going to enjoy this. I've seen you in your office and wondered how it would be to dominate you. Now I'm going to get my chance today.” Shirley teased him.

Kevin looked up into her hazel eyes and saw that her red, frizzy, hair was put up in a tight bun that morning. He saw that she had put the bun up so tight that her eyebrows were raised when he walked in that morning.

Kevin bit down on his lip until he tasted blood in his mouth. Thinking at least he had caused himself to bleed first before the women did.

“I'm really going to enjoy this ass of yours.” Jessica moaned as she pushed her cock inside of him, not wanting to share with Tammy just yet. She wanted to have her time with him.

The women were circled around him and laughing at him as he gasped and winced in pain. They loved watching Jessica dominate him, loved to see him in pain from what she was doing to him. There was no place they'd rather be than right there.

“Look at his cock!” Shirley laughed, looking down at it. Seeing that it was nice and hard. She could also see that it was swollen.

“I bet your cock is ready to cum for me isn't it? Feeling this nice cock deep inside your ass, feeling me pushing it in nice and slow for you baby.” Jessica teased him softly as she rubbed his ass cheeks with her hands.

He was glad he knew where her hands were. He wasn't sure if he could handle it if she began causing pain to his balls. He hoped and prayed that she was going to leave his balls alone but he was sure that god wasn't listening to him that morning.

“I know you love the feel of my cock going in and out of you, your asshole stretching and shrinking to the size of my cock.” Jessica continued teasing him softly as she bit down on her lip gently, she was getting turned on.

One thing that Jessica liked was an audience when she played with her victim's it turned her on knowing that the other women were taking mental notes. Knowing what they were to do with the men that they controlled. Knowing that it was going to become an all women business.

“This is what I want you girls to think about when we have interviews. These are the things that I want you to concentrate hard on. If they can't stand the pain than they aren't worth our time. I have so many ideas to make this business bigger than ever before but we need men who are going to be able to at least handle the pain that I'm giving to Kevin right now.” Jessica pointed out to the girls as if Kevin was the lesson she all wanted them to learn.

She looked up to see if they were paying attention to her. They all nodded their heads at her to let her know that they head every word she said to them.

“I'm not saying that they have to pass every test we give them. Not all of them are going to be as strong as Kevin and we need some pussy ass men to practice on, to make them tough, but if they can't handle what I'm doing to Kevin right this second than we throw them to the curb because they are never going to be able to satisfy us.” She told them, thinking that she would have to toughen some of the men up.

When Jessica had enough of fucking his ass with just one dildo, she nodded her head at Tammy and Tammy gave her a wink, letting her know exactly what Jessica was telling her to do. She was waiting her turn patiently knowing if she got ahead of herself that Jessica would get mad at her, something she had learned in the past not to jump the gun when it came to having her turn.

Tammy watched as Jessica took the dildo out of his ass and they compared the size of one another. Tammy's cock was bigger and wider than Jessica's. Jessica had planned it that way knowing that it would be uncomfortable for Kevin when they fucked him together.

“You ready for this Kevin?” She asked him softly, watching as Kevin looked over his shoulder to see what they were doing to him.

He didn't say anything to her, he knew what was going on before he even turned his head to see what she was talking about. He knew that sooner or later he was going to have two cocks inside of him but when they both stood up his eyes grew wide.

Kevin knew all too well that the size of the dildos mattered when it came to having double penetration. He knew that if they weren't the same size and the same thickness than it was going to hurt him and his ass hurt enough already.

He faced forward again as he squeezed his eyes tight. His ass cheeks were already hurting when he felt Tammy dig her nails into one of them to stretch it as far as she could. Feeling Jessica spreading the other ass cheek. He was hoping that his ass would go numb and he wouldn't feel anything when they entered him together.

Tammy giggled when she watched Jessica get back down on her knees, she did the same quickly as they pushed the heads of their cocks together.

Tammy could see that it was going to be a tight fit when she saw his ass hole. It was red and sore from times before. She knew that Jessica had put him in pain over the past few days from having other women dominating him outside of work.

Jessica went to her daily and laughed about what she had her cronies do to him outside of the office. Prepping him for the real thing, the real torture right there inside the board room.

“I have thought about this for the past few weeks Kevin. You think that you were really going to keep the business? I own seventy-five percent of this company and you know it. I was just waiting to catch you off guard.” She giggled, nodding her head at Tammy letting her know that it was time.

“You have such a nice fucking ass Kevin.” She grunted as her and Tammy both pushed their cock's inside of his ass.

Kevin screamed out at the top of his lungs when he felt the both of them inside of him. Tammy's eyes grew wide when she saw just how far his ass hole could stretch to let them inside of him. She had never seen anything like it in her life.

“Stop! God please stop!” He screamed at them, shaking his head back and forth. He knew he couldn't stand much more of Jessica hurting him.

“Now be a good boy Kevin or this would have been all for nothing. You want that money I'm going to give to you right? You want to be set for life don't you?” Jessica asked him, reminding him that she was going to give him a big chunk of money when she was done with him.

He quickly shut up, tears were burning his cheeks as they left his eyes. Shaking his head back and forth as they went deep inside of him.

“God, I didn't think he would be able to take both of them together like this. This is really turning me on!” Tammy hollered out, her eyes getting bigger and bigger when she saw that both of their cocks were deep inside of him now. They couldn't push any further.

“Fuck yeah, I knew they would fit.” Jessica turned to her with a big smile on her face when they slowly took the dildos out and pushed them back inside of him quickly.

Kevin whimpered out his pain, he pounded the floor with his fist as hard as he could. Even the pain that he was causing to his hand couldn't take the pain away from what Jessica and Tammy were doing to him. Nothing compared to that.

“What's the matter Kevin, you can't handle all this pain now?” Jessica teased him in a harsh voice, glaring down at his ass.

Hearing the way Jessica was talking to him he didn't answer her. He was afraid that he wouldn't get paid if he admitted he couldn't handle the pain that the girls were putting him through, he didn't know how much money she was going to give him but he knew it was a high amount. He couldn't just tell her that he was done, he couldn't knowing that his rent had to be paid, he had bills up the ass that he had to get paid off and he had to make a living somehow.

“You are going to get so much money Kevin that I'm sure you could start a business somewhere else and you won't need to come to me for anymore loans.” Jessica giggled, as if she could read his mind. He was wondering just how he was going to survive life.

Kevin still refused to talk to her, refused to show her that he was pissed off. He wasn't going to waste his breath on her.

Jessica had other plans though, she was going to make him cry out in pain, she was going to show him that she was the boss and what she said went no matter who she was dealing with.

Jessica didn't fore warn him when she reached between his legs and yanked on balls, pulling them towards her. She didn't stop yanking on them until he cried out in pain, she had an evil smile on her face when she stretched his balls just a little further, making his voice sound squeaking and high like a girl.

“There you go, that's what I wanted to hear from you.” Jessica laughed at him, she loved it when she could get the high pitched squeals out of her victims and she was thrilled to hear it come from Kevin, she had never heard it from Kevin before.

Jessica looked at Shirley and nodded her head. Shirley smiled at her and got down on her knees. She reached for his hard cock and began squeezing it hard in her hand, digging her nails into his hard cock making he cry out louder in pain.

“Your cock is so hard that I thought by now you would be able to cum for us Kevin. Are you the type of man who has a hard time cumming?” She asked him in a softly voice as she licked the side of his neck.

He didn't say anything to her, he knew it was in his best interest not to. His heart was racing and his body was shaking. He was scared of her, that's what he realized. It had nothing to do with his body being weak. He didn't know exactly what Shirley was capable of.

She grabbed the head of his cock and began pinching it between her fingernails. She didn't stop pinching him until she drew blood with her sharp nails.

He could see that all the girls were wearing high heels and he knew they were sharp as hell, he knew from experience that it never felt good when the heels connected with his cock or balls.

“There you go, look at you being spoiled by us. All the attention that you're getting.” Jessica told him softly, keeping her voice calm.

“You love all of it, I can tell.” Shirley added, giving him a wink as she scrapped her nails down the side of his hard cock.

She could tell that his cock was very swollen from all the abuse he had taken in the recent past. She saw that Jessica never gave him the time to heal like he should have.

“I love all this fun we are having.” Tammy giggled, as her and Jessica slammed their cocks deep inside Kevin again.

Jessica finally let go of his balls when she saw the red irritation that she was causing him, it was no fun when she saw that his balls seemed to be shrinking.

Kevin was relieved when she felt her let go of his balls. They swung back and forth for a few seconds, causing him slight pain but not as much pain as Shirley was creating to his hard cock.

“You might want to think about letting your cock go limp Kevin. We are going to shove that hard cock of yours back into the Chasity belt when we are done, just to let you know. Either you make your cock go soft or we do it for you.” Jessica was nice enough to let him know what they were going to do to him.

“I can't!” He screamed out in pain.

“The only reason we let your cock go free was to give it some time to breathe. I know that you don't like having those spikes inside your hard cock. I figured I would relieve you of some pain but if you can't get your cock to go soft before this session is over than I guess you are going to let us have some fun doing it for you.” Jessica told him as calmly as she could, she wanted to scream and holler at him like she had done in the past but she knew he was expecting that, she wanted him to expect the unexpected this last go around.

While Tammy and Jessica were fucking him with two dildos Jessica could hear Kevin screaming louder and louder. He was doing exactly what she wanted him to do. She was happy with what was going on around her.

She watched as Shirley slammed her dildo deep inside Kevin's mouth without asking permission. Jessica respected Shirley, always taking charge and never caring what anyone thought of her. Even if it meant she went head to head with Jessica herself. She proved to Jessica that she wasn't scared of anyone and nine times out of ten she ran the show. The reason why so many men were scared of her after the first time of being dominated by her. She wanted to train all the girls the same way she had Shirley.

Shirley rammed the cock in and out of Kevin's mouth, hearing him gag and choke on his own snots. Jessica laughed when she heard him gagging louder and louder instead of screaming. She loved hearing a man gag for them, Kevin was the by far the loudest one they had come across.

“Keep up with the good job girls. All of this is going to teach you how to dominate men who are bigger and stronger than Kevin is. Poor guy is so weak he's shaking all over!” Jessica shouted out to them as she heard them cheering, clapping and laughing encouraging them to keep going with Kevin.

“Switch out with Sadie.” Jessica leaned over and whispered to Tammy.

Tammy took her dildo out of Kevin and watched as Jessica leaned further into him so that hers didn't come out when Tammy's did.

Tammy saw that Sadie was already standing there waiting for her turn. Sadie had long brown hair that was put up in a ponytail, her brown eyes were filled with excitement seeing that Jessica had turned to her to help her out. She felt as if she had moved up the ladder in helping Jessica, knowing she was in Jessica's good graces.

Sadie was wearing a red dress that she had to pull up over her hips, there wasn't much to pull up and her dress was made of lace, it was see through so that everyone could see everything she had. Her high heels were made special for the meeting. It had a small spike on the end of the heels, she had paid a lot of money for that.

Jessica noticed the spikes on her heels and slowly slid her dildo out of Kevin. She thought it was neat, never in her life had she seen something like that and she moved out of the way. She heard Kevin sigh with relief for just a moment.

Everyone was quiet and felt the head of Shirley's cock deep inside his throat. She had left it there and he knew that something was going to happen, he couldn't turn around and see what was going on because the cock that Shirley was wearing was slammed tight into his mouth. He had all he could do not to puke on it.

Jessica laughed as Shirley teased his mouth with the thick dildo sliding in and out of his mouth harder and faster. She couldn't believe how fast she was ramming it into his mouth, hitting the back of his throat she knew that Shirley was pushing just as hard as she could when she couldn't push it any further.

Jessica watched as Kevin's shoulders heaved forward when he choked on it, she could see his body shaking and shuttering as Shirley slid the dildo out of his mouth until she saw the head of it and again slammed it back into his mouth.

“You are doing a fantastic job Shirley, I'm so proud of you that you don't even have to do what I tell you. You just know what to do and you do it.” Jessica grinned up at her.

Jessica slid her cock out of Kevin's ass and made her way to the front of him. She hadn't had a chance to concentrate on his facial expressions. It was something she wanted to see before she just let him go on with his day.

When she stood in front of him she saw Kevin make eye contact with her, she could see that he was begging her with his eyes to let him go. To make Shirley stop what she was doing to him.

“What's the matter Kevin you don't like a cock rammed down your throat?” She asked him sarcastically giving him a pouting look.

He shook his head back and forth firmly as he gave her a dirty look. Jessica knew that she was going to get everything she could out of him before letting him go, if she was even going to let him go. She had decided yet.

“You are going to stay there. You don't have to like what is happening to you, I never told you that you had to like it Kevin. You are going to like the money that is thrown your way.” She reminded him again of the money that he was going to be making once it was all said and done.

He raised his eyebrows at her as Shirley slammed the dildo into his mouth again, this time he felt as if he had chipped a tooth and he felt the pain the second she took the cock out of his mouth. Jessica held up her hand to have Shirley stop what she was doing. Jessica had seen a horrible look come across his face when she had rammed it in the last time.

She knew how to read Kevin's facial expressions she had known him that long that she knew that something was wrong with him.

“What's your problem Kevin?” She asked him, not giving him a worried glance when he made eye contact with him yet again.

Kevin didn't answer her at all, he didn't think that she deserved to know what the matter was with him. Instead he spit out a piece of his tooth and it hit the carpet. It was half of one of this teeth from the back of his mouth. That was when Jessica had seen the blood coming from his mouth.

“Open your mouth for me Kevin. Open your mouth wide.” Jessica told him, watching him as he did just what she wanted.

Kevin knew she was checking on the damage that had been done to his mouth. Looking all way back she nodded her head and before he could shut his mouth Shirley rammed the cock back in there, she had a feeling he was going to give her a hard time if she shut his mouth all the way.

“I will have to pay extra for that chipped tooth. I know you don't have insurance Kevin.” She grumbled, giving Shirley a dirty look.

Shirley looked slightly worried, Jessica could see it in her eyes when she made eye contact with her. She could see that Shirley recovered quickly from being worried about what Jessica might do to her.

“Go easier, if any more teeth chip I'm going to bust you in the mouth.” Jessica moved closer to Shirley as she muttered her threat in her ear.

Before she turned to go back behind Kevin she saw that Shirley was going easier with him as she popped the cock in and out of his mouth. Watching more blood wipe off on the dildo before it disappeared into his mouth.

The more she stuck the cock in his mouth the more she aggravated the back of his mouth causing his new wound to bleed more.

“That's what I'm talking about right there.” Jessica pointed down at the cock that was sliding in and out of Kevin's mouth and she was getting more upset about it because she hadn't told Shirley to work him so hard that she made his mouth bleed.

When Jessica was finally behind him again she shook her head at Shirley. She liked Shirley most times but she knew in order to cause Kevin pain she didn't need to take a tooth out in the process of doing so. She wanted all of her girls to have fun but that was taking it a little overboard she thought, knowing she couldn't yell at Shirley in front of Kevin because he would find a way to play the card in order to get Shirley and Jessica fighting.

Jessica rubbed his ass cheeks gently as she whispered in Sadie's ear. Sadie giggled when she realized what Jessica wanted to do and nodded her head at her.

Jessica's hands came off his ass cheeks and she took a few steps back from him as she watched Sadie focusing on his ass. It was something that Jessica just had to see to believe.

Sadie took her high heel off so that she wouldn't miss the target. She got down on her knees, brought her hand backwards and when she brought her hand forward she had done so with all her might. Hitting his Kevin's balls they all heard him cry out in pain.

They all watched him as he squirmed about like a fish out of water, they heard him whimpering and even though they couldn't hear what he was saying they knew that Sadie had caused him a lot of pain.

Sadie let go of the heel and saw that the spike had driven into his balls and stayed there. She heard Jessica laughing as she felt Jessica wrap her in a warm hug.

“A job well done I would have to say!” Jessica hollered out to her, letting the girls each take their time seeing the job that Sadie had done to him.

All the girls circled around him slowly, they were laughing and pointing knowing that when the spike came out he was going to be bleeding and feeling more pain than he was feeling right that second.

“A nice, spiked, shoe in your balls and a hard cock deep inside your throat. Now I would have to say Kevin you really impress me.” Jessica spanked his ass and watched his balls move up and down repeatedly as she continued to spank him over and over again.

“Nice job indeed.” Tammy nodded her head when she saw the heel stuck to his balls before she turned to him and saw the tears were dripping on to the blue, carpeted floor.

Chapter 5 - Kevin Gets Handsomely Rewarded.

Kevin was hoping that it was almost over, hoping that Jessica would leave him alone forever after the domination session. He couldn't take much more of the abuse that the girls were giving to him. He just wanted to go home and sleep the rest of his life away. Wanting to forget everything that was going on and live the rest of his life alone.

Jessica finally took the heel out of his balls and when he felt Shirley take the dildo out of his mouth he saw there was a little bit of blood on the head of it. He knew that his balls were already bleeding when he heard Jessica gasp in surprise.

“Roll him over!” Jessica shouted to Tammy and Shirley, she didn't want to see his balls anymore, knowing that this was the last go around with Kevin she wanted to make him crawl out of the board room on his hands and knees. She wanted to watch him crawl to the parking lot on his hands and knees towards his car.

Jessica knew he was going to remember it for the rest of his life, he would remember all the abuse and pain that she sent coursing through him and she knew that she would never hear from him again. He would never go to her for a loan and she knew this was why. She wanted to make the ending an everlasting memory.

Tammy and Shirley finally got him on his back and Jessica produced a blindfold. She was going to show him some sympathy.

“You can say that I'm weak all you want to Kevin, this is the first time I've ever done this to you. All the other times you've seen what was going on. Trust me, you don't want to see this Kevin. I'm doing you a favor.” Jessica told him when he looked down at the red blindfold that she had in her hand.

He didn't say anything to her, he knew she was being sarcastic. It was all part of her twisted game that was soon going to be over.

“Your almost done Kevin. You are making me very happy, I might just give you a little extra in your pay for allowing me to do this to you.” Jessica winked at him and handed Tammy the blindfold.

Tammy got down next to him and lifted his head so that she could cover his eyes with the blindfold. Everything went dark for Kevin as he felt her tie it around to the back of his head tightly, he thought she had tied it too tightly but he wasn't complaining. Hearing about the extra money made him feel as if all the pain and torture they were creating for him was well worth it. Thinking about what he was going to do with the money as he saw nothing but blackness behind the blindfold.

Kevin felt someone pressing their ass against his mouth and he knew what he had to do. Willingly he felt around for her ass cheeks and spread them wide, he began licking the woman's ass hole, not having a clue who it was.

“It's Tammy's ass on your face. I know how much she loved having you lick her ass last night. I will be on top of you as well soon.” Jessica called out to him, letting him know what was going on.

All the girls sat back and nodded their heads, letting Tammy have her fun with him. She felt his wet tongue licking up and down her asshole. He went slow at first and then faster as he heard her whimpering from the pleasure he was giving her.

He began licking the inside of her ass eagerly when she pushed against his tongue, he felt Tammy grinding her ass against his tongue harder and harder so that the length of his tongue was deep inside her ass.

“Fuck yes, god I missed this from last night!” Tammy cried out to him, grabbing a hold of his cock and she heard his muffled cries as she began stroking his cock as fast as she could.

Kevin knew that he wouldn't be able to make his cock go soft even though he so desperately wanted it to. Not with Tammy teasing it and playing with it. He was silently thankful that the spiked high heel was out of his balls already.

“Okay Tammy, you are making wet just knowing how good he is licking your ass baby. I want a turn, it's my turn.” Jessica giggled, raising her hand.

Jessica's pussy was wet but she wasn't going to let it cum, not in front of all the girls. She wanted to show them just how strong she was, showing how weak he was she had to put on a show for her girls.

Tammy quickly got off his mouth, she got off his mouth so fast that he was still licking the air when she moved away from him. The girls laughed at him and clapped, letting him know that the show was exactly what they expected.

Jessica quickly took her position when it was her turn, she couldn't wait to have her ass pleased. She needed him to lick her ass. He hadn't done it since the first session she had with him back at the coffee shop. She really enjoyed it and wanted to feel it just one more time.

Jessica began running her ass over his face, spreading her ass cheeks as far as they would so that she could rub his nose between her ass cheeks and have him smell her asshole. She had taken a shower that morning and she wanted him to smell the scent that was in her ass. Licking her lips she finally brought her asshole to his hot mouth.

“Lick me Kevin, please lick my ass like you did the very first time we met in the coffee shop for a meeting. Remember that night? You had failed at getting me the memory stick that I so badly needed. I want to feel your tongue.” Jessica moaned to him, going down memory lane with him.

Kevin quickly gave into her, this was something that he enjoyed doing, his cock was throbbing from the pain and from being turned on all at the same time. He couldn't believe that she was being so nice to him, he knew in the back of his mind that something was wrong, he knew that Jessica didn't do anything nice for anyone unless something was in it for her.

Kevin didn't hear anyone talking, he didn't hear anyone laughing, the board room was quiet but he knew the girls were still there.

As he put his tongue deep inside her sweet ass he could taste a fruity, soapy, taste in his mouth and knew that she had washed extra hard for him. He whimpered as he felt his wet tongue going into her ass deeper and deeper.

Kevin was feeling more and more relaxed which was a dumb move on his part. He knew that he never should have felt relaxed around Jessica, no one should when they were in her presence.

She nodded her head at Tammy and Shirley and then looked at his hard cock, pointing at it as she reached for the Chasity belt that was just a few inches away from her. She had to stretch to get it, letting the girls know silently that she was ready to put his cock back in the Chasity belt but Kevin's cock was just too hard for the belt. She knew it was never going to fit him if he didn't have his cock soften at least a little bit.

Tammy and Shirley without any warning began stomping on his cock and balls. He cried out and his legs went up in the air because of the pain. Tammy stomped on his cock with the spiked high heels that Sadie had been wearing and Shirley was stomping on his balls as he squirmed around and trying kicking out at them.

Kevin was trying with all his might to get the girls to stop stomping on his cock and balls. Two of the girls had to come out of the group to control his legs. He almost caught Tammy in the leg with his foot and even though he was kicking and thrashing around without seeing what was going on he wanted to show them that he wasn't going to take anymore of their bullshit and torture. He wanted to show Jessica that he wasn't one of her puppets and that he had a mind of his own.

He was about to bring his fists up and punch at the air, not caring who he hit now. He was getting upset with them. He knew that Jessica always had fun with him, always teasing him but he knew when enough was enough and he had been through enough pain for the day.

“I told you that this wasn't going to be easy, I told you that you had to make your cock soft or we were going to do it for you Kevin. Don't mess this up now, don't you dare mess this up for yourself Kevin! I have faith that you are going to let us do this so that you get the money that you so well deserve right now! A few more times of you fighting me and I'm going to lose my patience with you and you are going to go home with no money.” She warned him, she growled at him, pushing her ass against his tongue harder and harder.

Kevin had stopped kicking when he thought about the money, he knew that if he even messed up once and Jessica had to scream at him again he would lose whatever money she was thinking of giving to him.

Kevin saw the money that he so badly needed and wanted going down the drain quickly, he saw himself with nothing and all because Jessica wasn't getting her own way. He had to keep her happy and he knew that the only way he could was to make sure he stayed still and took the abuse that the girls were giving to him.

Jessica didn't really care what happened to him, she didn't care if he had to go get checked out for any real damage, not that he would because he knew that hospitals asked a lot of questions but that wasn't the point. The point was that Jessica had known him along time and he had given her more than anyone else had when it came to getting what she wanted and she should have stuck up for him. She should have told them that it was enough. And he never heard those words come out of her mouth.

The girls were both slamming their heels as hard as they could over and over again. Jessica was laughing as she felt his muffled voice vibrate her ass. She knew that he was screaming out to them. She knew that he was screaming out in pain but he had stopped kicking out at them and that was her main concern.

Jessica didn't care if he cried out in pain, she enjoyed it the louder he cried out for them. The one thing she didn't want was for him to struggle against them knowing that it was going to be harder for them to get what they wanted done.

“That's right Kevin, we are almost done with you. Keep up the good work baby. You are going to get through this.” Jessica moaned as he licked the inside of her ass faster and faster trying to keep the pain out of his mind.

“Mm, I love your hot tongue teasing and playing with the inside of my ass. You are a great at licking ass. Maybe I will pay you just for that when I really need a rim job knowing what a great job you do.” Jessica teased him, he heard the girls laughing at her, laughing at him as he did what he had to in order to get out of the game she was playing with him.

Jessica finally nodded her head at the girls after about a half hour of ball busting him. She knew that his cock was going to just fit inside the Chasity belt that she had waiting for him.

Jessica slowly brought the Chasity belt under his cock that was limp but still slightly swollen from weeks of abuse done to it. There was no doubt in her mind that the girls she had hired and paid did the job and they did the job well. Knowing she could trust her cronies made her feel good inside, she was proud of them. Each and every one of them for following her orders and doing what she wanted down to every last detail.

She had to push the head of his cock into the Chasity belt hard and she heard him cry out as he continued licking her ass as he cried out against her ass.

Finally Jessica got his cock inside the Chasity belt that he had worn the night before. This time there was no long on it so that he could get it off himself when he got home from the office. She knew in the back of her mind that he wasn't going to come back to the building not even to clean out his office of the things that he might need.

She was already thinking about turning his office into her own. She loved the fish tank he had built inside the wall and she loved the desk he had carved out with the lumber he had used. He was very artistic and she knew that he could build a bigger and better business with the money she was giving him. She didn't feel bad because she wasn't leaving him high and dry.

Jessica knew the money she was going to give him was just enough to pay off whatever bills he had and to start from the ground up with the company. Once word got out that he was working on his own she knew that his old clients would go back to him to order lumber and anything else they may need to build their own creations. She had faith in Kevin that he was going to do just fine on his own and he was going to make sure that he made his quota each month so that he didn't have to go back to her, if he had to she wanted him crawling back to her on his hands and knees. She wanted to make him grovel for help if he ever went to her again.

Jessica had a feeling that he wasn't going to go back to her, that she wasn't even going to see him ever again after that day.

“Now that we are almost done I want to make sure that you girls know this is what I'm expecting of you guys. I am expecting more domination, I'm expecting more pain drawn out to our clients. We are going to make sure that we are satisfied just like we were today. We are going to make this company grow bigger than it's ever been before.” She told the girls, continuing her meeting now that the fun was almost over.

The girls all nodded their heads at her, they knew the fun and games were over with Kevin and even though they were sad about it they knew that the future was bright for them. The harder they were on the other men the happier Jessica was going to be.

“It doesn't matter if the guy is married, engaged, single, or has a girlfriend. At this point it doesn't even matter if the man is homeless. If one comes in for an application and we decided to interview them we have to be prepared. We have to make them as tough as Kevin before they leave here.” Jessica told him, pointing at each and everyone of them.

“This is going to be so much fun.” Sadie clapped her hands together and began rubbing them against each other.

“It's not always going to be fun and games though, as you see it was really hard for me to get Kevin to this point in his life. There are going to be times we have men who don't know who the boss is and sometimes there are going to be men who struggle against us. It's our job to show them whose in charge. Every single one of you from here on out will have their own office. Each one of you will have a new client daily to do whatever you want to them. You can't always come to me to find out if you are doing it right. I may not always be here.” Jessica stated, letting them know they were on their own.

Jessica knew that it was going to be tough, she knew that it was going to be really hard for the girls but she had faith in them and believed that they could conquer any man that walked through the door.

“With the married men who come in here. It's easy to get them to submit to what you want. To submit to your demands all you have to do is threaten to call their wives or to meet up with their wives. Once you interview a man you have to find out what he cherishes the most and use it against him. So you have a lot of homework over the next few days to find out how to do research on the man that you are seeing. Every day there's foot work before you drag in the man that you want, there are late hours and even though we are working most of our lives away I promise you that you will be happy with the money that is given to you.” Jessica nodded her head firmly, letting them know that everything they did mattered and all the hard work was going to pay off for them.

“If we have any problem handling the men on our own what we do?” One of the new girls asked from behind Sadie.

“Jennifer.” The girl murmured.

Jennifer stepped out from behind Sadie. She had strawberry blonde hair and light blue eyes. Her face was pale when she saw that Jessica wasn't smiling at her.

“No, that's a very good question. For the new girls it would be hard to keep the domination of a male going. We are going to have the buddy system for one week. Each new girl in training will have a girl that is experienced. If at any time you feel as if you are in danger or you don't like the looks of one of the men after getting him into the room. There will always be a small red button under your desks. I will be having them install when we all go home. First thing tomorrow morning we will test them out but each time you press the red button it will go off in my office. I may not be there all the time but someone will be and that is the signal that one of you needs help. It will state on the buzzer on my desk which door number it is and you will get the help you need.” Jessica explained to all of them.

Jennifer nodded her head at her, glad that Jessica wasn't mad at her for asking such a question but she had to know.

“Jennifer, I don't expect the new girls to get it all in one day. That's not how it works and I know that. I do however expect everyone to be at their best performance before the first month is out. If not than I am going to have cut my staff down and weed out the weak women who can't seem to dominate a man if their life depended on it.” Jessica smiled at her. Getting a small smile back.

Jessica had to make sure that her women know that she wasn't expecting a miracle over night. She knew that wasn't how it worked at all. She had patience most of the time and she was going to use that patience but there was a time limit of when the girls had to be at their best.

Chapter 6 - Kevin Passes Out.

By the time Jessica stopped talking to them about what they were expected to do and how she was going to make her rounds as much as she could throughout each day to make sure that they were doing it right she realized that Kevin was no longer licking her ass hole. She noticed that he hadn't been moving for a while.

Jessica quickly got off his face and looked at him, she got down on her hands and knees and brought her ear to his open mouth. She sighed with relief when she realized that she was still breathing, the last thing she wanted to do was kill him, it would be more paper work for her and that was something that couldn't happen at that moment in time.

Jessica was ashamed of herself when she realized just how worried she was when it came to checking on Kevin. Out of the corner of her eye she saw the women around her giving her a strange look, wondering what the hell she was doing.

As the boss of the company she knew she had to show them how to brave and how not to care about hurting a man. That's what dominating was all about and she knew that, feeling her face growing hot and feeling her temper rising she blamed Kevin for making her look so worried and weak when he didn't respond her.

She clenched one of her hands into a fist and knew she had to do this, even if it was just for show the girls didn't know that. She brought her arm back and punched Kevin hard in the nose, she watched as some blood came out of his nose and splattered on the floor, she knew that she had broken his nose and even though she didn't mean to break his nose she had heard something crack in there.

Jessica got back to her feet and gave the girls a smile when they began clapping for her. She knew that she had won their respect on that alone. Had she tried waking him up or calling out his name they would think that she really cared about him and she didn't. She didn't need them labeling her and looking down on her because of this incident.

“Like I said we are going to work as a team, I have no problem with you girls coming to me when you need something or if you want my advice but by the end of the week I don't want you girls coming to me with the same questions over and over again. You should know the answer the first time of coming to me.” Jessica looked at them, giving her full attention back to the girls since Kevin was breathing.

“I think he's passed out.” Tammy pointed down at him, seeing that Kevin wasn't moving at all.

“Yes he is, we are closing the meeting shortly. All of you can go home and do some homework. I have a stack of interviews already to send home with you guys. Each man who has put in an application should have some kind of information you look up on line so that you are prepared to come to work tomorrow morning and make the phone calls that you need to make. Now getting back to making sure you listen to me. If any of your girls, and I mean any of you come to me with the same question I am going to think that you aren't listening to what I have to say to you and you will be punished. You will be tortured worse than Kevin was and you will probably be out of a job. If you keep me happy you girls will be happy, I can promise you that right now.” Jessica told him, giving them one warning and one warning only.

The girls all nodded their heads firmly at the same time, letting her know that they were all listening to her. They all knew that Jessica was being completely serious with them. They knew how Jessica worked and they felt bad for the new girl, if there were any new girls coming into the business that dared to question anything that Jessica had to say to them.

As Jessica let the girls go home one by one she did ask Sadie and Tammy to stay a while longer so that they could help her with Kevin. She couldn't just leave him there on the office floor like she had planned to do in the beginning. She knew Kevin deserved more than that since all the hell she had put him through had made him pass out.

Jessica had known Kevin for years and she knew it wasn't right. She had already taken his business away, she was making him start from scratch, there was no way she could make him limp home. She was leaving the Chasity belt on him and that was the worst part of all. She knew this herself.

When Kevin woke up he looked around, he expected to be in the board room where they had the meeting earlier. He was surprised that he was back in the comfort of his own home. Wondering who had put him there. He knew that it had to of been Jessica and some of her crew, those were the only people who knew where he had been all day.

Looking outside he saw that it was dark and wondered just how long he had been out. Sitting up quickly he groaned in pain as he felt the punishment still lingering from Jessica and her crew of dominating girls.

His felt the pain in his nose and knew that it was broken, wondering if he should go to the hospital he thought better of it. He didn't know how he was going to explain it to the doctors of what had happened to him and he knew better not to have Jessica's name come out of his mouth. That would be the worst thing that he could do.

It took him a while to sit up on the couch and when he did he noticed all the photo's of that morning and what had happened. They were scattered on the floor and on the coffee table in front of the couch. He shook his head and felt his face growing red. He couldn't believe he had survived all of what they had done to him. Feeling bad for the poor men who would have to deal with them now, he was out and that was all that mattered to him, he was never going to go back there no matter what. He wasn't even sure if his car was out front but he wasn't going to worry about that at the moment. He had to worry about getting better and having the pain go away.

When he sat up on the couch he noticed that there was a pile of money at the end of the couch. His eyes grew wide and he didn't know how much was there but he knew it was going to take some time to count it all. He made an estimation of maybe a hundred thousand dollars being in the pile of money.

A small smile came across his face, he felt his body go numb for a while and knew that Jessica had paid him his severance pay. He was going to be just fine. There was nothing left for him to do now for her. He had done everything she had asked of him and there was his reward, he didn't care that he had left the company to her now. She could have all the headaches that went with it. She didn't know about all the payments that had gone out and he was sure that she hadn't checked the business's bank account yet. Knowing she would have to put some of her own money into it. That she wasn't going to be happy about.

Kevin ran a hand through his hair and that was when he had found a note attached to his wrist. He broke the string off his wrist and unfolded the piece of paper that had been attached to it. Seeing that it was from Jessica.

Dear Kevin,

I wanted you to know that since you came to me from the beginning for that very first loan to start your business the hundred thousand dollars I gave you I owned you from there on out. I owned your business when you agreed to put up a piece of it when it was part of the deal. I own your ass and balls no matter which way you look at it Kevin. You will always be mine.

Jessica.

Kevin read the message a few times over and knew that she was right. He had gone to her all the times to get loans and the money that he needed to keep the business alive. He had to admit that he was the one who went to her for help and she had to get something out of the deal.

Kevin tossed the note on the coffee table and thought about what happened. He knew that Jessica wasn't going to leave him alone. He knew that he would always be her play toy so he had to get use to it one way or another.

He reached for his phone as he groaned in pain. What didn't kill him would only make him stronger as he looked through his contacts. When he got to Jessica's name he pushed down on the screen of his phone and went to go send her a text message. Something he thought he would never do again was to message her, he had told himself it was the last time in the office and that he would never have to see her again. She was right, she owned him whether he was part of the company now or not. He always had to have some kind of money coming in or else he wasn't going to build his own business and keep it above water. There would always be a problem with the company and he didn't have the extra money to fix it if something went drastically wrong, putting himself in the same boat with Jessica regardless.

Come over to my house Jessica. I'm awake, I want you to bring your sharpest ball busting shoes and your largest strap-on.

Kevin hit the send button and closed his eyes, shaking his head he couldn't believe that he was asking for more torture. She had hurt him so much that he had passed out that morning and here he was asking her to come over, actually inviting her into his home. There was a beep on his phone and he saw that it was a text message from Jessica. She had left a smiley face for a response and he knew that she was going to be over soon. He knew that she was happy he was awake. It meant that he had found the money, that he had seen the pictures and that he had read the note. He knew that he was doomed for life when it came to Jessica and it was all because she had more money than anyone he knew. Money always meant power and Jessica would always be in control of things no matter what was done. He would always have to rely on her now. He should have known that from the very beginning when he first asked her for the loan.

Kevin knew it had been a bad idea from the start but he was stuck and he was an easy target for her. Fifteen minutes later he heard the doorbell ringing and he knew it had to be her. He knew that it was the only one he was expecting as he slowly got off the couch and felt his body throbbing in pain, he looked down at the Chasity belt and hoped that she would finally let him out of it. That she would finally let him cum for all the things he had let her done to him.

Finally making it to the door he saw that not only was Jessica prepared to dominate him but she had a few friends with her as well. He rolled his eyes and shook his head at her. He couldn't believe that she couldn't just come over alone, he didn't understand why she had to bring someone with her at all times as if she couldn't dominate him herself. He knew that she could dominate him while they were alone he had learned that the first deal he had made with her in the office of the Coffee shop that they had gone to.

“I thought you were coming here alone. I thought that was what you wanted. So I messaged you.” Kevin told her, opening the door slowly.

“Come on Kevin, you should know me by now. You should know that I'm going to teach my girls about domination any chance I get. Besides it's always fun when there is more than one person don't you think?” Jessica asked him, carrying her toy back in as she brushed passed him.

The girls were all new to him. They weren't the same ones at the office and he knew that she was recruiting more girls just as fast as she could to make her business grow. So that she could make more money.

He watched as five more girls came into the house before he shut the door behind them. Looking at the clock in the kitchen he saw that it was only eight o'clock at night. It was going to be a night of hourly torture and he knew that he had brought it upon himself when he went for help. If he could have turned back time he would have gone with the loan sharks at least they would have left him alone when they got their payment back that they had loaned him.

He walked out of the kitchen to see the girls circled around the glass coffee table. They were picking up the pictures that had been scattered on the floor, they were laughing and shaking their heads back and forth.

Kevin noticed that some of them were even blushing, he felt a smile come across his face and knew by the time that Jessica was done with them that they wouldn't be embarrassed any longer. He knew that they would be just as mean as she was in a few months, laughing at the new girls themselves when they walked in through the door.

“I see you got my note.” Jessica laughed at him, seeing it on the glass coffee table. Picking it up and reading what she had wrote to him.

“That's the only reason I messaged you Jessica. You are the boss aren't you?” He asked her, raising his eye brows at her as the girls looked at her, waiting on an answer.

“Before this night is over Kevin they will know who the boss is. They will know that I'm not playing around when it comes to dominating you.” Jessica nodded her head at him, he girls could tell that she was completely serious about everything that was taking place in the living room at that moment.

Kevin looked at the girls and saw the fear in their eyes. He knew that they respected her already and that was a good thing. They should respect her if they knew what was good for them. He had a feeling as much as they respected her that one of them would get out of line and would be sitting beside him being punished as well.

The End.
