1. Prospective new member thinks boys in dresses are funny!

From the Annual Membership Drive Open House of the Long Island Ladies Chapter. The young lady sitting on the couch can't contain herself when the brother of a member shows up dressed as a cheerleader.

2. Boy in panties holding Mommy's slip. From Lois of the Tri-State Crossover Chapter.

I've saved this picture for several years. I thought you'd enjoy showing to others. It was in Child or Parents magazine; I forget which. It was the illustration for an article about how toddler boys becoming attracted to silky things and developing fetishes. Yeah! Imagine in a major magazine like that. Cool!

3. Bare breasted and with panties peeking, girls ready to go on an emasculation boy hunt.

From Jen and Glenda of the River Woods Chapter. These girls can be dangerous!

4. Showing off their Sissymaker tattoos.

After Jennifer and Glenda each were awarded Sissymaker Five Star Awards for turning five different boyfriends into pantywaist sissy sluts, they got matching Sissymaker tattoos. Jennifer is in the black bra, and if you look closely at the photo, you'll see a photograph of Terry, her brother, hanging on the wall behind her. He was Jennifer's first victim!

5. & 6. Game Playing: New member gets her little brother and his friend into girlie fashions on first try!

Never underestimate the success of someone new to the organization. Immediately after her mother got her into the Society, Trista of the Girlie Guides Chapter in North Dakota made a game out of dressing up and got her brother Mike (the blonde) to put on panties and a dress (but he did keep on his T-shirt for some reason). While she wasn't able to get her brother's best friend, Cliff, into a dress on the first try, she did get him to put on a pair of panties and a big, well stuffed bra on under his boys' clothes. Look closely at the photos, especially #6, because you can see a bit of the bright purple panties with black waist elastic sticking out above the top of the boy's jeans!

7. Sissy cuckold husband, dressed up in his frills and waiting for his philandering wife to come home with one of her remale lovers.

Anonymous photo sent to us. I guess the guy was told by his wife to send us the photo, but he was too embarrassed to identify himself.

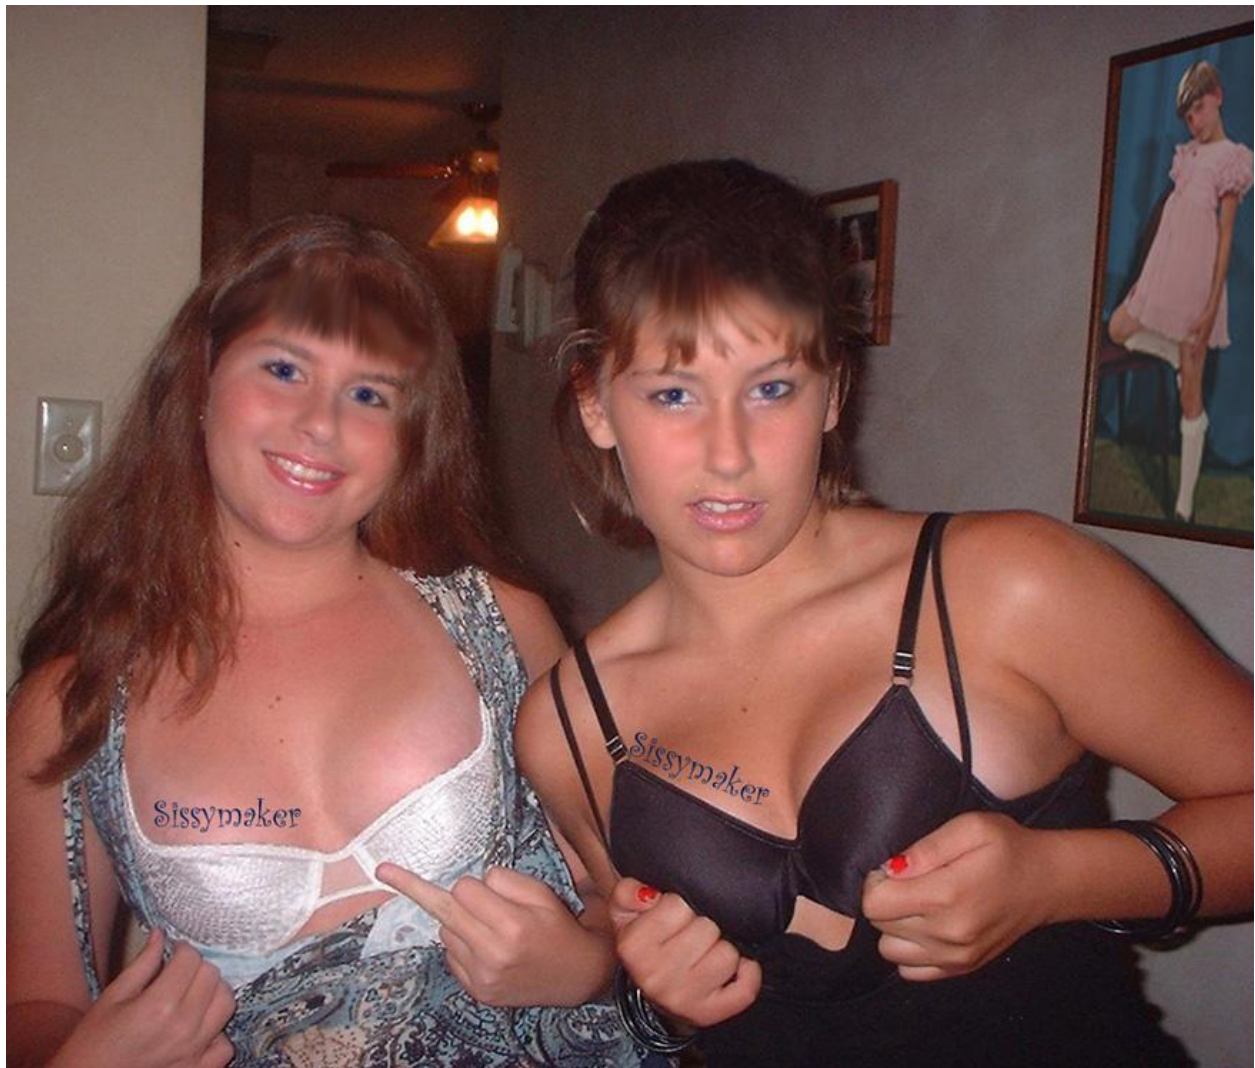

8. Son of a Society member has no problem taking the girl's part in a ballet recital at his dance school.

From Sonya of the Lonely Hards Club Chapter in London. As you can see a lot of boys like being sissies.

9. Dressed in his pretty girlie clothes and ready to service his remale brothers.

Another anonymous photo sent to us with a caption that read "Dressing up for my big brothers just before they fucked me and I sucked their cocks!" I guess that sums it up! The accompanying note explained: Our mother has been a Society member for almost thirty years. She raised my two older brothers and me to be strong, traditionally masculine males, but since I was the youngest, my big brother always picked on me and Mom soon realized that I wasn't cut out to be a remale, so she didn't hesitate to take me into her bedroom and teach me all about feminine things and being a sissy boy. My brothers, under Mom's direction, started to use me sexually like a female. Mom said they needed a lot of practice so they could learn how to sexually satisfy real females. I didn't mind. The best part was that I no longer had to try and compete with my bigger, stronger brothers. And I liked that way they'd look at me at times, and if I did most any little thing like accidentally exposed my panties or walked with a lot of swinging of my hips, they'd get a stiffie in their pants and then blame me and make me get rid of it for them!

for
You
Sissy
boys*

My name is Sondra. I'm a 22-year-old, bi-sexual, dominatrix. I'm not a pro domme; I don't do "sessions." I'm very selective of whom I acquire to honor and pray to me. Yes, I said 'pray' to me.

To become one of my submissives you must renounce your religion (a big fucking joke on the human race), bow down, pray to me and confess your sins to me. I give you penance to atone for your sins.

Female domination is a complete life-style with me, and I'm very serious about it, but I like to play games too.

I'm probably very different from other dominant females you have ever met. You see, I love to lick the cream out of my own panties --not your cream stupid! My cream. And I like to do it while one or more of my sissy submissives pray to me out loud while desperately trying to jack themselves off in their panties. (Jacking on your pantied cock is a required part of praying to me.) But I put tight cock rings on them so they stay erect but make it very difficult for them to cum. I watch them and laugh myself silly while bringing myself off with my "Big Daddy's Tongue" (my best vibrator). After a lot of orgasms and my cream has saturated my panties, I love to lick it up while my pathetic pantywaist slaves plead to have their tight cock rings off so they can cum in their panties! But I usually don't let them do that!

So here you go boys, a nice shot of my panty crotch and another pic of me eating out my sweet juice. I'm not there with you, so I can't put a ring on you and stop you from blowing out your sissy juice. So here's your chance to shoot your wad, my panting little panty boys!

Get Your School to Have a Turnabout Day

Hi Members!

It was so easy!
What was so easy?
At our local school council meeting, I proposed having a turnabout day in which the boys and girls dress as the opposite sex.
Hoping they wouldn't laugh me out of the room, I nervously explained that I thought it would foster better understanding between the sexes.

Guess what? Everybody loved my idea! Even the half dozen guys in the audience! It was adopted and here on the left is a picture of a few of the kids. The two girls as boys are on the left, and the two boys as girls are on the right! That's my thirteen-year-old son in the pink dress. Nice falsies, huh? Does he have panties on? You bet he does. I bought him the prettiest pair of pink panties I could find for this day!

I'm sure we got a lot of boys thinking a lot about girls' clothes and girls' issues after this day.

Sweden: The Feminization of a Society: Model for the Future

Swedish Regulation of the Family

Many Americans, especially those in sociology and related disciplines, maintain that Sweden's Welfare State is a model for all others to emulate. In Sweden, the State has control of all children -- not religion, special interests, or even parents or families.

In Sweden, the State, NOT parents and families, controls the raising of children. Parents and families are seen as perpetuating traditional values that the State has determined are NOT in the best interests of children. The Swedish government sees itself as the one to make all important decisions regarding a child's welfare, and through legislation, they have taken control of that nation's children. The government maintains that it alone is in the best position to anticipate the needs and desires of the country's children and to turn development into appropriate channels.

They have passed a barrage of legislation in which internal relations within the family and the role of the family within the society and vis-à-vis the government has undergone a radical change. Some of these are listed here:

(1) Subject the child to compulsory educational programs in sex education, socialization, and religion which are consciously and with ideological bias intended to counteract the child's values derived from parents within the family.

(2) Deny the parent the right to insight into or control over curricula and textbooks (which may not be brought home). This is particularly true for material which has proved to be effective in values clarification or similar experiments where secular humanism is a raison d'être.

(3) Deny the parent the right to exercise a choice over the education or the schooling of the child by forbidding private or denominationally run schools, this despite Sweden's being signatory to a UN

In gender-neutral Swedish preschools, it's difficult to tell the girls from the boys.

Declaration which provides the parents with the right to alone determine which schooling best fulfills the ethical and religious requirement the parents wish for their children.

(4) Provide a curricula which intentionally ridicules or attempts to change traditional masculine/feminine, boy-girl gender roles by forcing boys to take sewing and girls to take metalcraft. Boys and girls are encouraged to regularly experiment with clothing and roles of the opposite sex, and are told to wear whatever clothing or whatever mix of male/female clothing that most pleases them. Anyone (parents and family members especially) not permitting a child to cross-dress or caught ridiculing a cross-dressed child for his or her choice of clothing is subject to arrest and punishment. Males are singled out as less desirable than females, and therefore male-to-female cross-dressing is heavily promoted. Any child who refuses to cross-dress when told to do so by a teacher or other government-approved guardian, shall be forced to undergo intense gender sensitivity training, while being fully cross-dressed in the most stereotypical opposite sex clothing (i.e. boys forced to wear party dresses and fancy lingerie).

(5) Taxation legislation penalizes the woman who wishes to stay home and care for children and denies her tax deduction for child care as well as combined tax filings. Sweden has already removed deductions for children at home.

(6) Encourage the woman to leave the home although minors may be there by incessant propaganda on State controlled radio and TV against "parasitic mothers." In the interest of equality in the labor market, give cash bonuses to employers who give traditional female jobs to men and male jobs to women, like male secretaries, female bouncers, male models (of female clothes), and female heavy construction workers.

(7) Provide collective care for children between ages of six months to seven years, thus providing an opportunity for the state to assume the parental role and provide a neutral and ethically normless environment. The State declared that between those ages, children are gender-neutral, and since traditional female ideals are accepted as superior to male ideals, children in that age group are all strongly encouraged to dress in female clothes, play with dolls and female toys, and act in female-appropriate ways.

(8) Radicalize sexual instruction, making it available to increasingly younger age groups. Avoid moralizing, as it preserves prejudices and adheres to impossible prohibitions. Starting at elementary school age, teaching the proper use of contraceptives and all how to perform most every sort of sex act. Experimenting with sex is encouraged.

(9) The right of the "woman" to the "fruit of her body,"- even if it is a 14-year-old girl, should be maintained even if it means that a school nurse's decision in abortion can be performed without the knowledge of the parents or prospective father.

10) The state is the natural protector of the children's best interests. It has the right to determine social or ethical suitability of real parents to keep the children. It can deprive parents of their children without a court case or warrant. It can grant a "divorce" by a child from her family, for example.

(11) Legislation regarding marriage, divorce, and child custody shall be changed to take into, consideration shifting moral values. If a divorce is declared due to the adultery of one partner, this must, under no circumstances, have any effect on the courts' determination of who shall have primary right to the children.

(12) In the case of a father's (or mother's) failure to provide the cost of the child's care, this shall be assumed by the state.

(13) In Sweden the state now arrogates to itself the power to be the primary protector of the child. It can determine whether a single, mild incident of corporal punishment (spanking), verbal chastisement or temporary restriction of a child's activities, constitutes an infringement of the law, by which the parent becomes subject to a jail sentence.

Is Sweden becoming a model for other countries? In ten, twenty years or less from now will America adopt many or all of these reforms?

Comfortable with Being a Sissyboy

A lot of demaled boys want to be faggots, have a sex change, or masturbate themselves silly 24/7, but Brandon, my thirteen-year-old son, has learned to accept his role in life as a real sissy boy.

He loves to dress up in girly clothes, and as you can see, his favorite color is red, but he doesn't want to be a girl. He likes looking like and acting like a sweet little boy, a real sissy not a boy-girl. He doesn't want real long hair, go on female hormones, or have a sex change, but if he ever changes his mind that's OK.

When we go out in public, he never disguises himself as a girl. Still some people just assume he's a girl. But if they ask him, he doesn't hide the truth; he simply tells them he's a sissy and proud of it! Some people make fun of him and call him names, and they can be quite nasty, but he knows it's the price a sissy boy pays.

He loves his cock and frequently gives it a good panty polishing, but he always asks my permission before jacking off, and he likes to do it for the entertainment of me and my friends. We both know that masturbating too frequently depletes his energy and hampers his ability to serve me, and that's why we generally try to limit his panty pud pulling to a maximum of four times a week.

Once boys get used to being demaied, they're usually very happy and want to please their moms in every way. Jack here is a good example, and he's been duly rewarded with a new wig.

1. Inflating his breasts and balls! I love to give my sissy ex (he still lives with me as my maid) tummy inflation (to make him look pregnant), slow-mo enemas with and without a Bardex plug, and scrotum inflation with saline using a bag, needle and tubing. It is so wild to blow up his balls to ten times their size and then put him in a specially designed pair of silky bloomers. He wobbles around bowlegged with his giant-size balls hanging low and bouncing around in his panties. He can't even sit down in that condition. It's great to have him pull down his panties for guests too. His penis is a tiny thing anyway, but when I blow up his balls, his penis almost completely disappears. Wow, do the ladies and especially their little daughters get a laugh out of seeing him like that!

Another thing I do is inject saline water with pepper to enlarge his breasts (see photo) I make him go out with a thin shirt on so people can see his enlarged breasts and stretched-out nipples. If I'm in a good mood, I let him wear a wig so people think he's a female. Otherwise he just looks like a freaking asshole male with big tits! Sometimes I keep him in a tight bra over his water-filled tits as a long-term tit torture. Hope I've given some of you girls ideas for some new ways to have fun! Hey, ladies, if you haven't tried it, do so!

2. My son practicing for our church's annual Christmas show. My little Danny (seated on the far left) isn't too happy about wearing a purple satin gown (with matching purple satin panties of course!) as he and three girls are getting ready to rehearse a scene for our Mt. Lyons Unitarian Church annual Christmas show. I'm new to Demaling, and this is one of my first attempts at feminizing my boy. When our church was looking for someone to be in charge of costumes for the show, I volunteered. I'm pretty handy with my sewing machine, and I saw it as an excellent opportunity to introduce my boy to dresses, panties and sexy satin! If you just think about it, there are many opportunities that come along that are ideal for doing a little feminization!

3. Archive photo from 1963: A mom masturbating while reading her Demale Instruction Manual. Get a load of that huge vibrator!

4. My two brothers dressed like dancehall girls for Halloween. I know mom has been working on my two older brothers with the Demale lessons we've been studying, so when she told them they should dress up like girls for Halloween, they both agreed without a fuss. And here they are! Don't they make adorable dancehall girls?

5. From Hong Kong: Girl feminizing her boyfriend. She has him wearing nail polish, earrings and makeup while giving her a pedicure. What's next?

6. Sissyboy in tights and rhumba panties. Anonymous photo sent to us. I guess the guy was told by his wife to send

7. Girls dominate boys at sorority party at OSU. Anonymous photo sent to us. All the guys who showed up were promised free sex, but they had to agree to wear makeup to be admitted. Then the girls got the guys drunk and high and made them have sex with each other! Way to go girls!

8. Another photo from that OSU sorority party. Here the girls prepare for the night wearing their low-cut shorts and high-waisted silky panties in a rainbow of colors. Giving boys a big flash of panties makes them follow the girls like a pack of hound dogs!

9. Young Demale Sissyboy Maker holding the big pair of pink panties she's going to use to panty her father. Nice T-shirt! Go get him, girl!
