

DETENTION

BY AAABBBZZZ

Piper was 19 year old college student stuck in detention after failing to turn in her last assignment. Previously, she had gotten away with this many times, but for the first time she was surprised that her teacher actually had her stay after class. It would be safe to say that she was not happy about being here still.

Her teacher, Mrs. Garcia, was sitting at her desk waiting for Piper to finish up. She didn't seem to mind taking the time to discipline her student. However, she didn't think that Piper was taking this detention assignment serious enough.

I really hope that this should do. It's ridiculous that I have to still be here anyways. And what a stupid subject to quiz me on right now, it has nothing to do with our current subjects. It's as if she wants me to fail.

So you're finally finished? I hope you really put your mind to use because this extra assignment is going to determine your future in this class.

I did my best, the subject seemed to be confusing though since we haven't covered it yet. This was as much as I knew about it.

Mrs. Garcia examined her student's paper, quickly forming a disappointed look on her face as she read through the horrible attempt to do this assignment correctly. It was obvious that she was not happy with Piper.

Is this a joke? You know you're here for a reason and by the looks of this you were just trying to waste time. I don't find this acceptable for you to leave here.

You can't be serious, this isn't high school! I shouldn't of been forced to stay in the first place. There's no way I'm going to stay here any longer.

Unfortunately for Piper, her teacher had a special power that she planned on using to keep her here even longer. Out from her fingers radiated a bright magical light. Mrs. Garcia laughed in an evil manner, knowing that her student had no idea what was coming next.

Ahh what are you doing!
What is this feeling? It's like my body is pushing in on itself.

Don't worry, you'll find out soon enough. You've been disrespectful long enough and now you'll pay for your behavior.

What the hell was that? It felt so strange for a second and my head is pounding! But at least it feels like it's fading away. I didn't see anything in her hand, where did that bright light come from?

Things suddenly became more clear when Piper opened her eyes. At first she was very confused, but as her gigantic teacher started to walk towards her, the booming steps and her towering figure put her into disbelief. Somehow she had been shrunk and now she had no way of escaping.

Why just look at how small you are now. That look on your face is always my favorite part. You have no idea how this happened, but it doesn't really matter. The fact now is that you are tiny and helpless without anyway to defend yourself from me.

As Mrs. Garcia stood up, she lifted her foot above the tiny woman's head. Piper could feel the immense power the giantess had over her now as her heart sank with fear. Whatever was going on seemed impossible and she had no other reactions than to run away.

Trying to sprint away in her tiny form seemed useless as Mrs. Garcia simply moved her leg forward to continue hovering her foot over the shrunken student's head. Piper screamed out as loud as her tiny voice could, not fully realizing how helpless she was in this state yet.

Where do you think you're going? There's no running away at that size! I know you're freshly shrunk, but some things should be a bit more obvious. Perhaps a slight amount of pressure will help you realize how much control you have left over your life.

What was a tiny push for Mrs. Garcia was an immense amount of weight for the tiny girl. Piper felt as if she were about to be crushed alive as her teacher's boot slowly pressed down on her body. She didn't believe this was real and eventually passed out from shock before her teacher lifted her foot.

Whoops, I guess I must of scared the life out of her. That's fine, she'll wake up later when it will be time to fully show her the situation she is in now. For now get your rest tiny girl, because when you wake up the true detention will begin.

For a few hours Piper was in a dream. When she felt herself waking up she thought everything before was just part of it. However, as she opened her eyes the dark reality that she was in seemed to remain as she looked around the room in fear.

This cannot be. How in the world is this happening? And are those other students over on those other desks! There has to be some explanation, I don't believe any of this is right.

There seemed to be five other confused victims waking up around the same time. None of them knew what was in store for them, but they all figured it was part of Mrs. Garcia's detention. What they all had in common was that they failed the teacher somewhere down the line and now they were here shrunken only to a few inches tall.

Hey over there! Do you have any idea what's going on here? I was just in detention with Mrs. Garcia and she casted some sort of magical spell on me. I don't know how any of this is possible but we need to get out of here!

As the tiny students tried to make sense of the situation, they were interrupted as they heard a loud noise. The door to the classroom was opened and a gigantic figure started to walk in. She was dressed in a skimpy outfit and had a terrifying demeanor to her.

When Piper and the other shrunken victims realized who this was they were all in shock. It was clearly Mrs. Garcia and she had a playful grin on her face, one that gave them chills. Being in this helpless position made them worry for what the giantess teacher was planning to do with them.

Why hello down there little ones. I'm sure you all have a lot of questions to how you're so small and what's the reason behind that. You might be wondering why. Isn't it obvious though? Each of you have failed to take my class seriously and for that you'll finally learn a lesson.

As the gigantic figure began to pace around the room, each student had their own reaction. Some of them were in awe of her power, while some were scared to death. Being so tiny in the presence of the giantess made their next moments completely unpredictable.

We haven't even started to demonstrate what your punishments will be yet, but I bet all of you are already regretting your previous choices. Perhaps if I'm merciful and you're very good then there will be a chance of redemption.

One of the students, Connor, didn't like his chances. As the giantess was turned away from him and focused on another unlucky victim, he decided to try and make a run for it. However, he didn't comprehend yet how small he was and how far down the ground was from his desk.

Oh how cute, we already have our first volunteer! Like I said, you have the chance to behave properly for once, but if you think you can disobey me further then I wont hesitate to make a quick example of you.

Connor quickly had a huge regret about not staying still. He was too scared to jump down, despite the giantess towering over him with her attention focused on him. His heart started to race as he turned around to look up to Mrs. Garcia's judgmental grin.

You have no idea how wrong it was to try and escape from me little guy. First you tried to make a fool of me in the classroom and now you still think that there are no consequences to your actions. You're going to find out why it's important to respect your teachers.

Mrs. Garcia easily plucked the shrunken man from the table, feeling his tiny squirms between her finger as he flailed around uncontrollably. Connor didn't understand how his body could be lifted so easily by the giantess. It was just a good example of how powerless he was now at this reduced size.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a black, form-fitting, short-sleeved bodysuit, stands in a classroom. She is holding a small object in her right hand. In the foreground, three blue plastic chairs with wooden desks are arranged. On each desk, a tiny, dark, humanoid figure is standing. The classroom has wooden floors, a bookshelf in the background, and windows with blinds. A speech bubble points to the woman.

Alright class, I know a lot of you didn't pay much attention before, but I suggest you watch carefully this time. Here is our first lesson for what it's like to be shrunken in detention. The ones who try and disobey will be the first to go as I dispose of them without any remorse.

Nobody knew exactly what the giantess teacher was talking about except for herself. She had done this many times with other groups of tinies and loved to demonstrate to them who was in charge now. As she brought the tiny guy closer to her mouth she could feel his struggles start to intensify, unknown to what she was about to do with him.

Have a nice fall because in you go!
You thought there was an escape but there is nowhere and nothing you can do to get away from me little one. I'm the one who controls your life now at this tiny size and I wont hesitate to treat you as an inferior being compared to me.

Landing on her giant tongue, Connar was in complete shock. He didn't believe any of this was real and that it all might just be a dream. Mrs. Garcia was like a gigantic monster about to eat him. The thought of that seemed so insane though, but little did he know he was not the first to suffer this cruel fate.

For a few moments, the tiny man was tossed around inside his teacher's mouth. Mrs. Garcia loved to feel his fear as she teased his life so casually. It was obvious that the little guy was sorry for what he had done, but it was too late to turn back now as she slowly closed her lips on him.

Are you watching class?
You might not be able to tell from there, but this big strong man has turned into a puny cry baby. I guess he's realizing how wrong he was in the past now.
Unfortunately it's too late because I'm going to swallow him alive.

No way no way no way! She can't be serious can she? Oh my god she's actually eating him. This isn't right! Whatever we had done before in the past might of been disrespectful, but it definitely didn't warrant such a punishment like this. What are we all going to do?

Nobody thought that she would actually do it, but Mrs. Garcia was adamant to make an example of the little guy. After sucking him to the back of her throat, she swallowed and down went Connor into her stomach. He descended into her stomach acids where his tiny body began to slowly burn until he was no more.

Well now that he's gone, it's time we move onto our next victim. Don't you worry, I'll get to you all in time, the only question is who should I choose next? Are there any volunteers who wish to try and run away again? I'd be happy to continue to demonstrate how stupid that would be.

Looking around the room, the giantess turned her attention on a young man named Karl. He looked up at his teacher in terror, frozen without any idea what to do. Fortunately for him, she turned away and decided to pick someone else for now.

It's so hard to make a decision. None of you are giving me any reason to pick you or not. Perhaps we'll just go with you over here. I remember how you were talking on your phone during my class and it really infuriated me.

Mrs. Garcia made up her mind and started to reach down towards the shrunken woman named Cindy. She had turned away from the giantess and closed her eyes, hoping that this was just some nightmare she would wake up from. But that wasn't going to help her at all as her body was easily lifted from the desk between two gigantic fingers.

Oh wow you have quite the set of lungs on you. Even at that tiny size I can still hear your high pitch screams more than I'd expect. Go ahead and yell as much as you want. Nobody is going to save you from me now.

You know you're somewhat of an annoying little thing. I already can't stand those tiny noises coming from you so let's make this a quick one. After all, we have a number of students we still have to get to. Just like our friend before, you'll become just another snack for me to enjoy.

Cindy continued to scream at the top of her lungs as she was tossed into the mouth of the giantess. As the warm and wet tongue made contact with her body she started to panic. Just like the other little guy before her, she was about to be devoured by Mrs. Garcia without anything she could do to save herself.

Closing her mouth, the giantess teacher playfully tossed the tiny girl around in her mouth for a few seconds before eventually swallowing her whole. Everyone watched in fear from below as another one of their classmates disappeared into the abyss of Mrs. Garcia's stomach.

This can't be real, I'm just dreaming. She literally ate her like a monster! We're all going to die here aren't we? Please, there has to be something or someone that can save us. We're so helpless at this size with this crazy woman.

Oh my, that one is really sturring around down in there. It's kind of giving me a stomach ache. Perhaps I'll have to do something to wear them down first. Well let's see, who wants to be next to join my other little snacks?

Mrs. Garcia turned her attention towards a shrunken woman named Rachel, who began to freak out as soon as she made eye contact with the giantess. Instead of playing it cool and hoping that her teacher would switch targets, she panicked and thought that running away could somehow save her.

I need to get out of here! I have no idea why I didn't try to sneak down while she was distracted with someone else. Now she's focused in on me and I don't have the time! Let's go Rachel, there's no looking back now, we need to get going!

Rachel knew it was insane what she was doing, but she didn't want to just sit there and accept her fate. After dropping down onto the chair she got up and continued to try to run, despite the pain from the fall. However it didn't matter how much adrenaline she had right now as there was no way someone her size could get away from the giantess.

Seriously? Are you actually jumping all the way down to the floor! How amusing, go ahead little one. Don't you think I'd shrink you small enough to make that very difficult for you? That's going to hurt but at least you might not kick around inside my stomach as much anymore.

With terror being her main driving factor, the shrunken woman didn't even consider how bad a fall like that would be to her. She only had one thing on her mind and it was to escape from Mrs. Garcia. Now with a broken leg, she was even more helpless to flee from the giantess as she desperately tried to crawl away.

A 3D rendered scene depicting a giant, realistic human foot descending from the top of the frame, about to step on a small, dark-skinned person lying face down on a wooden floor. The person is wearing a light green bikini. The setting is a classroom with several wooden desks and blue plastic chairs. A speech bubble originates from the giant foot, containing a taunting message.

Wow I'm impressed you still have some will to keep going. But this is the end of the line for you little one. As you and the others can see, running it useless. I'm too powerful in your current state and nothing can be done to save you from your punishment.

Mrs. Garcia wanted to make an example of this one. Instead of eating her right away, she used her foot to toy around with Rachel's tiny body for now. Applying only slight bits of pressure, she was able to pound on her shrunken form and slowly wear her down.

A large, realistic-looking foot is stepping on a tiny person lying on the floor in a classroom. The foot is the central focus, with detailed skin texture. The tiny person is at the bottom of the frame, appearing very small in comparison to the foot. The background shows a classroom setting with a chalkboard, a chair, and a window with blinds.

Have you had enough yet? Judging from those little squirms down there, your body is starting to become very exhausted. Here, let me roll you onto your back so you can look up at me one last time before I step on you again and end you once and for all.

The shrunken woman's body had taken quite a beating so far, but it was nothing compared to what was about to happen next. Looking up at the sole of the giantess, she screamed out the loudest she could. Unfortunately though, it wasn't going to stop Mrs. Garcia from changing her mind at all.

Planting her sole right down on Rachel's body, the giantess teacher began to grind her foot on her. She could of easily turned her into a pulp in a moment, but Mrs. Garcia enjoyed the slow torture she was inflicting as she gradually felt the tiny woman's struggles begin to fade away.

You might think you're tough lasting this long, but remember I'm not even trying. It's just so fun to play around with you. With so little effort I can crush you like a bug, but if I did then I'd be out of a snack. It's always been my goal to keep you in one piece so I could eat you afterwards.

After the beating of her life, Rachel laid still and tired. She couldn't move anymore after being trampled by Mrs. Garcia's gigantic foot. The drive she had earlier to escape was all gone now and all she could do was wait for what her teacher had planned for her next.

How pathetic, are you all done trying to fight back now? I guess I don't blame you because it was so useless in the first place. At least now you wont squirm around like the first two treats I had earlier.

Look everybody, it was a great try, but after that attempt she didn't get anywhere. Maybe this demonstration will help you even further understand your helpless situation. And just like the others before her, I'm going to take her away from this world without a second thought.

Mrs. Garcia planted the shrunken woman on her tongue and began to lick her body for a few moments. The tiny girl almost didn't move as her body had already completely given up. Whatever was going to happen to Rachel was out of her control and she knew that.

It didn't take long for the giantess teacher to become bored with her prey. Instead of toying with her tiny body for any longer, she decided to toss her back with her tongue and swallow her whole just like the others. Without anything they could do, all the other students watched from below as another victim was taken away from them.

Mmmmm... that one went down a lot nicer. I already knew that, but sometimes it's so fun to eat you tiny things when you're struggling the most. Anyways, we need to choose our next tiny treat. How about you little guy? I was looking at you earlier.

When the giantess focused her attention on Karl for a second time, he knew that it was his turn. He yelled up, trying to plea for mercy. But Mrs. Garcia could barely hear him, and even if she could, she had no plans to be merciful with any of these shrunken students.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a black leather bodysuit and a blue beaded necklace, stands in a classroom. She is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The classroom has a chalkboard, desks, and a window with blinds. A red fire alarm pull station is visible on the wall.

I see you're trying to tell me something. Let's just get it out of the way that nothing you say is going to help you at all. I've already decided to punish you next. And why don't we start by perhaps giving you a better view of something I've noticed you've been staring at.

Mrs. Garcia turned around and backed up to get as close to the desk as possible. Karl couldn't believe the amazing view he was offered of his teacher's gigantic ass. It was undoubtedly something he wanted to look at, but as it came coming down he had no time to react.

A woman with a very large, exaggerated bust is sitting on a blue chair with a wooden seat. She is wearing a black, form-fitting latex bodysuit with a zipper down the front. Her legs are also very large and thick. She is looking towards the camera. A speech bubble is positioned above her head, containing text. The background shows a window with blinds on the left and a bookshelf on the right.

How is this view little guy? Isn't this something you dreamed of before you were shrunk? I know you've always stared at my booty in class so I thought it would be appropriate to give you what you've always desired.

Karl never realized that his teacher knew about him sneaking peaks of her when he could. Sometimes Mrs. Garcia would wear some revealing clothing and he loved to eye her. Although he was now tiny in a dire situation, it was impossible for him not to take a peak at her in this sexy outfit.

I must of landed right on you perfectly! I can feel your tiny body right between my cheeks. There's no way you'd handle all of this weight otherwise. Take it in while you can little man. This is your chance to enjoy my butt before I proceed to eat you next.

All of these words were just for teasing though as Karl was smothered underneath the giantess teacher's ass. His body had begun to suffocate and eventually gave into the shock. Mrs. Garcia noticed this and turned around to see if her shrunken victim was still in one peice.

It seemed like Karl wasn't moving. In just the few short moments underneath that massive booty, he had drifted off. This experience wasn't enjoyable at all, despite getting something Mrs. Garcia thought he would like. She reached down and picked him up to examine the damage that she inflicted.

Poor little thing. Was that too much butt for you? I guess it's exactly what you deserved for being such a little pervert. Not to mention the other things that brought you here to my detention. Well since there's nothing we can do now it's time we finish you off.

Mrs. Garcia lifted her tiny victim high into the air and released him as she tilted her head upwards. Karl was suddenly awakened as he came tumbling down towards his teacher's gigantic mouth. When his eyes opened he got a full but quick view of the monster who was about to devour him.

Suddenly the little man felt as if he had energy again to fight for his life. Unfortunately he was already in a position where it was too late. As he hung onto the giant lips, Mrs. Garcia started to close her mouth and suck him inside, leaving him completely hopeless.

Karl's only real chances would be if the giantess somehow changed her mind. That wasn't an option for Mrs. Garcia so she started to play around with her food for a couple seconds before using her tongue to pull him in. As she closed her mouth and swallowed, the little man was gone forever.

And just like that, we have ourselves another one down. They never fail to satisfy me, no matter what they taste like. It's just so empowering to eat you little things like it's nothing. You have no idea how many came before you and how many more there might be in the future.

With four of the students gone, only two remained. On the left was Piper and on the right was a male student named Dave. They each stared up at their giantess teacher with fear, knowing that their time would soon come and that right now it was only a fifty-fifty chance for them getting picked next.

Hmm... should you be my next treat little man? I've noticed how still you've remained this whole time. You must be scared to death with anticipation. Well I'll help you out and focus my attention on you now. Are you ready to join the others in my belly?

Instead of simply picking him up, Mrs. Garcia leaned into the desk and opened her mouth wide. Her breath washed over the little guy staring up at her in terror until he couldn't remain still anymore. He didn't know what he could do, so his natural instinct was to try and run away.

A large, close-up view of a woman's face and upper body. She has her mouth wide open, showing her teeth and tongue, as if she is shouting or laughing. She is wearing a necklace with blue, white, and red beads. In the background, a small man in blue briefs is running away from her. A speech bubble is positioned near the woman's mouth, containing text.

Come here my treat! There's no use in trying to escape from me. This is your fate and you'll become my snack no matter how fast you run. I know you must be afraid, but this is what you deserve. Maybe you shouldn't of disobeyed me in class in the first place!

It didn't take any effort for the giantess teacher to catch her prey. Dave was lifted into the air by the giant pair of lips as his little attempt was completely stopped. No matter how much he kicked his legs around or flailed around inside it didn't matter as Mrs. Garcia was not going to let go of him.

Unlike the others before, Mrs. Garcia wasn't trying to quickly swallow the little guy. This time around she enjoyed toying with him inside her mouth, sloshing him around with her tongue and pressing sucking him into her cheeks. It was a wild ride for the tiny Dave as he thought he could descend into her stomach at any time.

I still can't believe she's this cruel! I would of never guessed Mrs. Garcia had such a dark side of her. It's only been a few minutes and everyone else is already gone. I don't know how I got so lucky to be the last one here, but that just means I'll be joining them soon. What can I even do at all?

How's it going in there little guy? I bet you thought that you'd be dissolving in my acids by now. Well that will still come soon. For now I really do enjoy letting you feel like you have some sort of chance to delay things. Would you crawl out of here if I gave you the chance?

Dave knew there was nowhere to go, but he wasn't going to refuse this offer given to him by the giantess teacher. Being eaten alive was just too scary of a thought and he took his chances by pulling himself out of Mrs. Garcia's mouth while he could.

Oh my god you actually jumped out of there! Don't you know how far down it is from that height for you? I guess when you're afraid you don't assess the other dangers as well. Now down you go, hopefully you can catch onto something before you hit the floor.

Mrs. Garcia didn't want her student to splatter so she leaned forward and caught him between her breasts. Dave felt a bit of relief as he found himself between the two gigantic cushions. But this was only a temporary spot that he never got the chance to enjoy as the giantess quickly released him to fall downwards even more.

Dave found himself tumbling down towards the zipper of his teacher's suit. He knew that if he would fall to his death if he didn't manage to slip inside. Despite what he might find below, he did everything he could to survive and fell right into the bottom part of Mrs. Garcia's outfit.

Oh wow, I didn't expect you to end up down there at all. What a naughty shrunken man. You'd rather spend the rest of your time down there instead of in my stomach with the others? Well I guess we can arrange that. It'll be fun to have a little toy to have fun with afterwards, and once I'm done with you I'll eventually eat you like the rest.

Now that Dave was taken care of, Piper remained as the last student standing. She looked up at the giantess teacher in complete horror as she stared down at her puny form. It had become obvious that there would be no mercy shown as Mrs. Garcia bent down to scoop her up from the desk.

A woman with a slender build is shown from the waist up, wearing a dark, form-fitting, zippered bodysuit. She is holding a small, red, cylindrical object in her right hand. The background is a brightly lit room with a grid ceiling and a fire alarm pull station on the wall.

Alright, it looks like you're the lucky one that managed to make it this far. I know I didn't eat that other student yet, but he'll be gone later tonight anyways. For now we have to dispose of you and I can get heading home to relax for the night. It's been a pleasure punishing all you little useless things.

Piper was given no time at all as she was lifted high up into the air. Mrs. Garcia tilted her hand and forced the tiny woman to begin sliding downwards. As she opened her mouth she happily anticipated the last student as she came tumbling down to be eaten like the rest.

Goodbye my tiny snack. Say hello to the others in there for me. I'm sure they can still hear me as it hasn't been long enough for them to digest yet. Maybe all of you will finally learn something, being together in the darkness and agony of my belly.

Mrs. Garcia caught her prey, slowly sucking her body inwards as she tasted her tiny form. It amused her to toss her around and easily launch her towards the back of her throat. Just like nothing, Piper found herself at the edge of her life, about to be devoured by this evil giantess woman.

Please don't do this Mrs. Garcia! I promise I learned something, just let me out and I wont tell anybody a thing! I beg you, don't do this! I'll do whatever you say, please just let me out of here!

It didn't matter how much any student would beg her, they all ended up suffering the same fate. As Mrs. Garcia took one final swallow, her tiny student was dropped into her stomach where she would dissolve into nothing like everyone else before her.

Well that was delicious! Just like that all of them are all gone. I guess they wont be disrespecting any other teachers from now on. It's exactly what they deserved and I have no regrets. Now I can go home and play with this last one until the next time I have another group to punish.

And just like that detention was concluded. Mrs. Garcia walked out of the classroom with a belly full of tiny victims. This wasn't the first and wouldn't be the last time she would play this role of a cruel giantess devouring these students. So she went home thinking of who else was slacking off in her class, making mental notes of who might join in on the next detention session.

THE END
