Daisy's Dream

Daisy never thought her dream would come true, until Dr. Fion came with an offer she can't refuse.
Meanwhile, someone from her past surprised her with an unexpected confession..

1593. "You're.. small?" he blurted. "I mean, you're technically still big to me, but how?" he corrected himself.
"'How'd you get so small?" At this size he should be like a tiny doll she could hold in her hand, but apparently she was reduced to merely about twice his height. She still has to bend down to talk to him, but not big enough to grab him with her fingers.
"Oh. Right. It was Fion, wasn't it?" he answered himself, figuring it out.
"Well, yeah but there's more to that story.. Here, have a sit.." she said. "I've missed you so much lil guy.."

A little while ago..

(1) "Sure. I'll be right there."

Daisy had just arrived home when she got the call. Fion wouldn't summon her outside her working hours if it wasn't for something important. She quickly put on her favorite turquoise heels and rushed herself to the lab as fast as she could.

"Okay doc. I'm here. What's up?" Daisy asked curiously. Even with the added few inches of her black pumps, the five-foot-even doctor was no match to Daisy's towering six foot stature, plus her four-inch footwear.

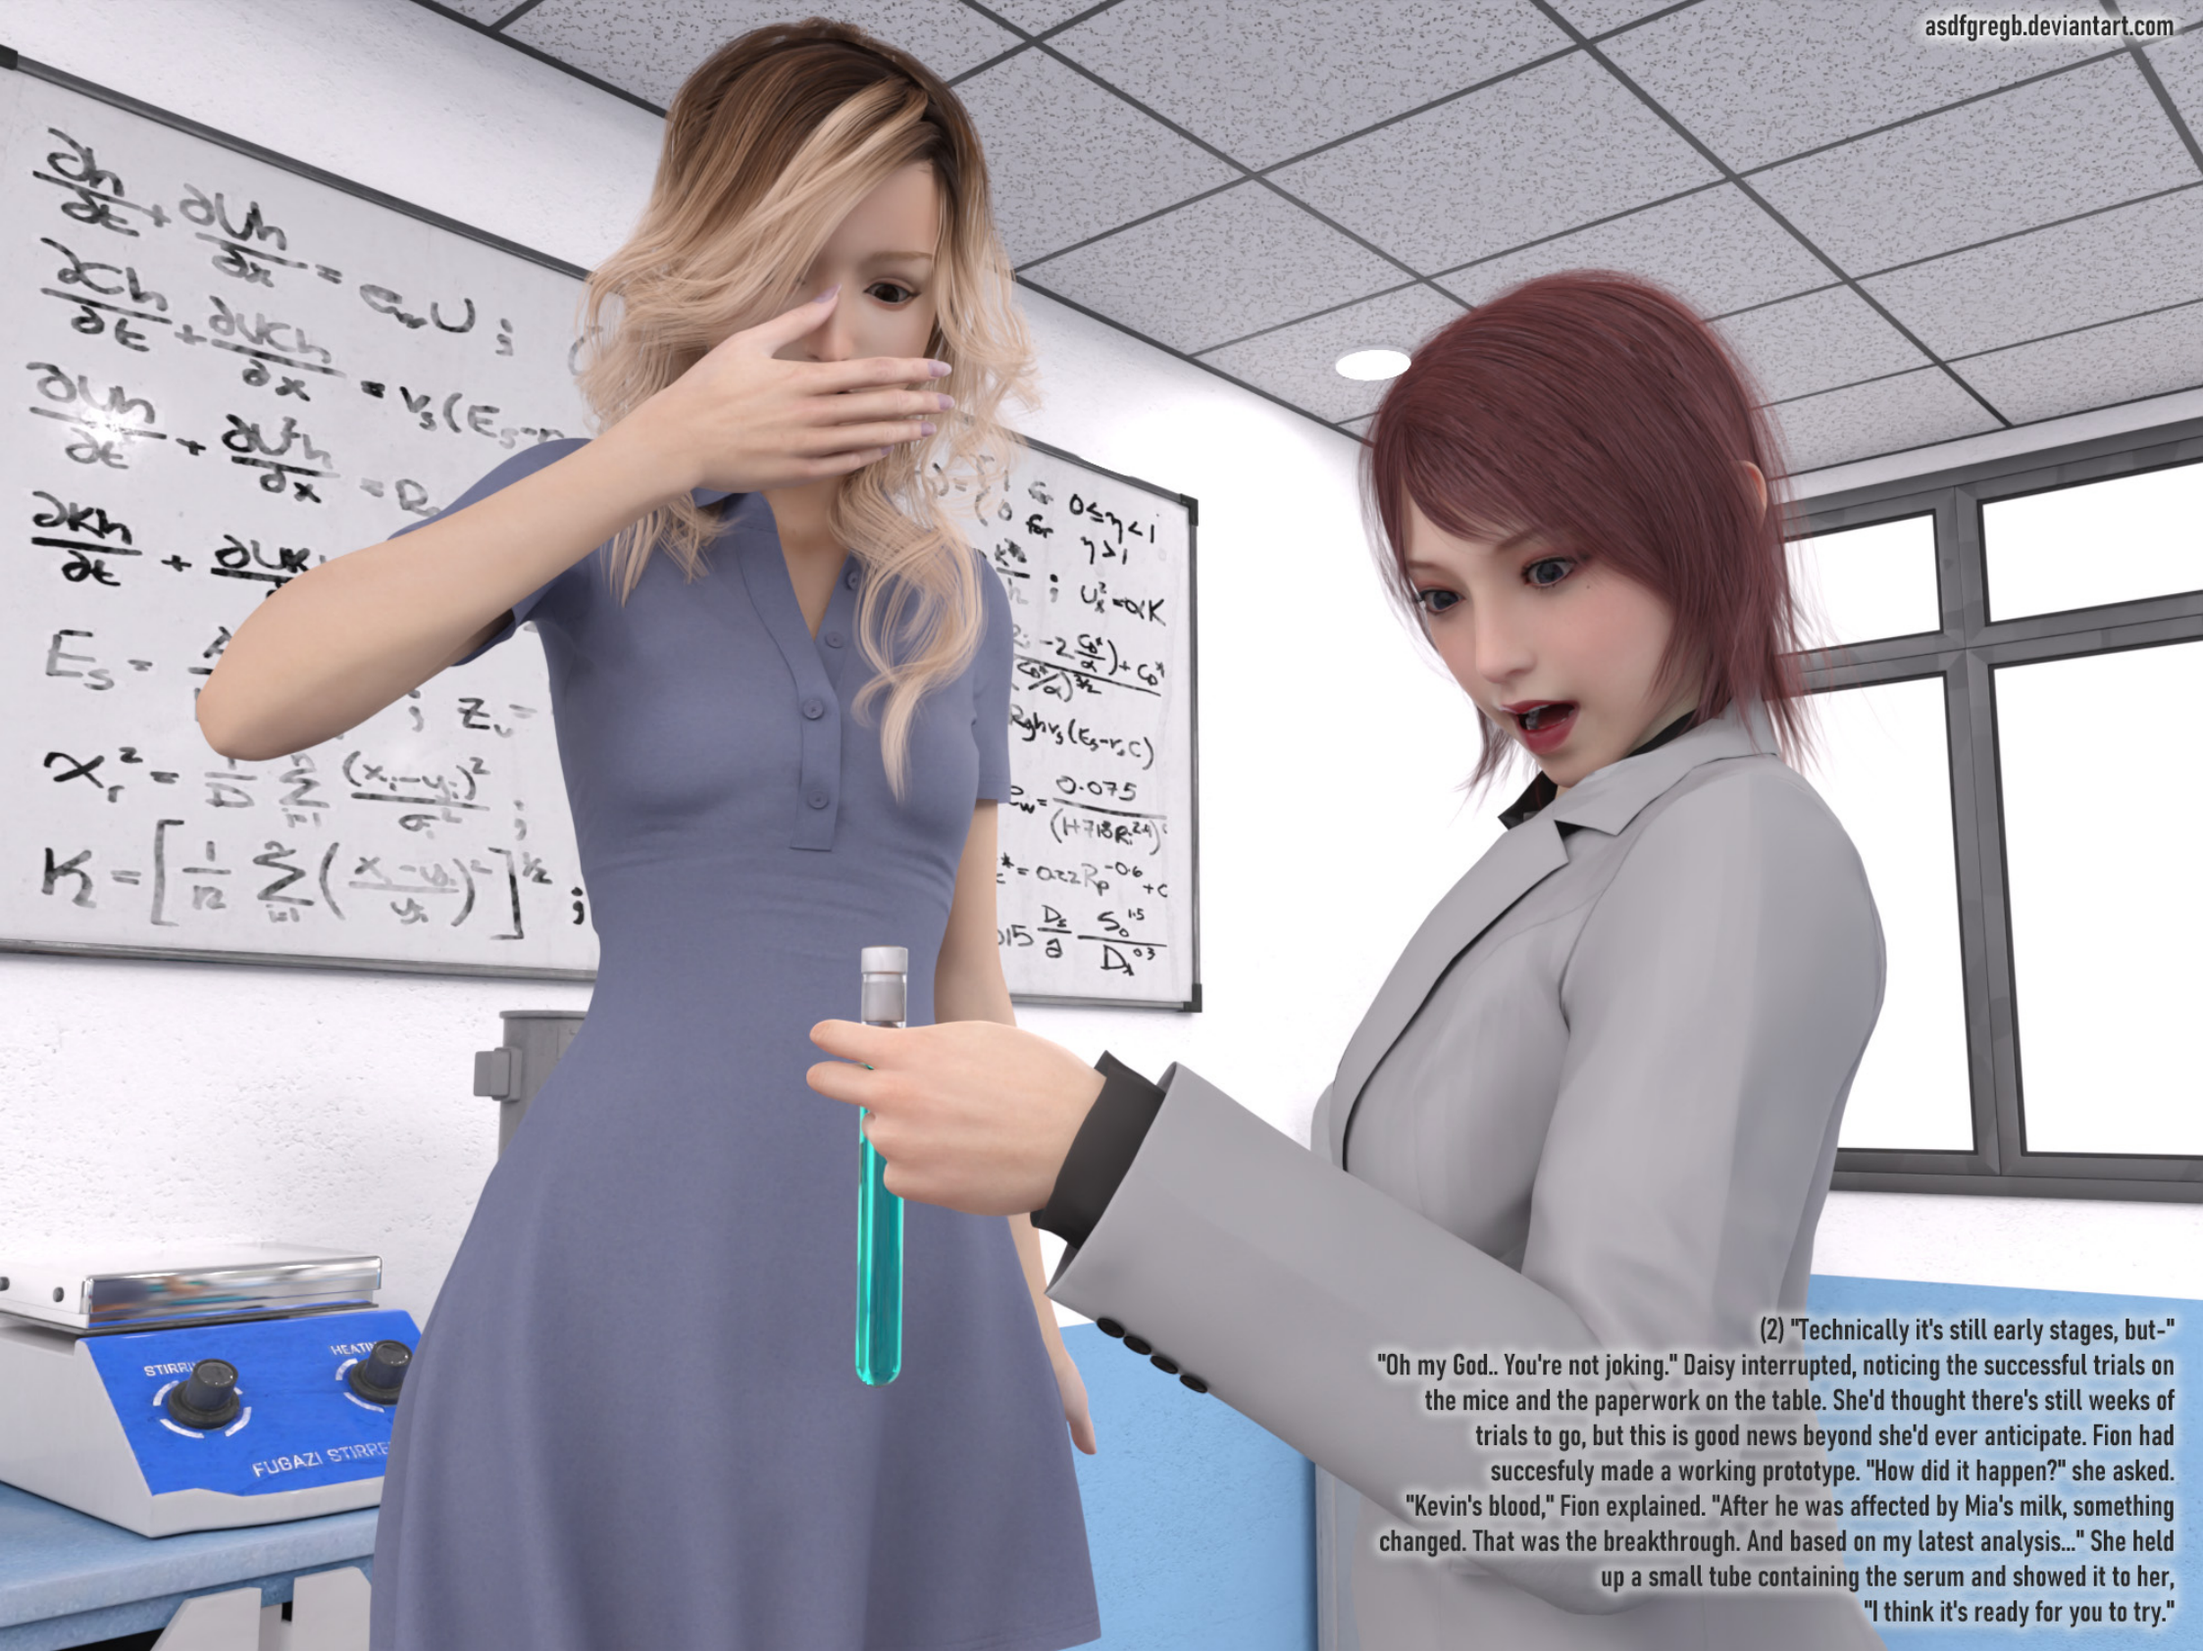

"Well.. It's ready." Fion revealed.

"Wait, you're saying.."

"Yes, Daisy. We did it." she replied with the widest smile.

Daisy couldn't believe what Dr. Fion was saying. This was the breakthrough they were waiting for. The right formula that could slow Kevin's shrinking, and grant her wish.

(2) "Technically it's still early stages, but-"
"Oh my God.. You're not joking." Daisy interrupted, noticing the successful trials on the mice and the paperwork on the table. She'd thought there's still weeks of trials to go, but this is good news beyond she'd ever anticipate. Fion had succesfuly made a working prototype. "How did it happen?" she asked.
"Kevin's blood," Fion explained. "After he was affected by Mia's milk, something changed. That was the breakthrough. And based on my latest analysis..." She held up a small tube containing the serum and showed it to her,
"I think it's ready for you to try."

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(3) "This is huge, doc. Thank you so much," she said, hugging the much smaller woman, "You really did it.."
"We did.." she corrected. "I wouldn't have been able to finish this if it wasn't for your help too.."
Daisy could barely contain her excitement. "So what do I do now?"
"Now, you take that home and drank it whenever you're ready. I'll check in on you tomorrow," she replied.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(4) Daisy was still in the lab when her phone rang once again.
"I see.. Of course.. I'll stop by right over.. Alright.. See you soon.. Buh-bye." she said, hanging up the phone call. Apparently Fion isn't the only one who's got important news to tell her..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(5) Her mind drifted as she made her way to the restaurant where Lizzy, her long lost friend, worked at. They had been inseparable once, bound by their strong friendship, or possibly something more. They just never had the time to put it into words. There had been moments, stolen glances, lingering touches— things Daisy had never been sure how to name. But life had pulled them in different directions before she ever had the chance to figure it out.
She hadn't seen her for years, until a few months ago, when fate decided to reunite them. Since then, they had been picking up where they left off.

Daisy pushed open the restaurant door, spotting Lizzy right away.
"Hey, Liz... Sorry for the wait," she said, slightly out of breath.
"Oh no that's okay, you actually got here quicker than I anticipated." the tiny girl replied, with a warm smile forming on her lips.
"Soo, what's up.."

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(6) At just two-foot-seven, she had stopped growing years ago, leaving her barely as tall as most adults' crotch. But next to Daisy, who stood a towering six feet, she barely even reached the hem of her mini-dress.
"I've missed you!" Lizzy said, wrapping her arms tightly around her friend's leg.
"Missed you too, Liz.." Daisy's smile reached down to her friend. She's trying so hard to be cool but she loved how comfortable Lizzy is around her..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(7) Lizzy quickly invited her to sit as her miniscule hand reaches out to bring Daisy towards the table she had set up. It wasn't a fancy menu or anything-- instead, it looked like it came from her own staff meal that she had set aside for them to eat.
There was something different though, the way she kept looking at her with her sweetest smile, it wasn't like any other time. This news she's bringing, it might be personal, Daisy thought.

“Daisy... I need to tell you something,” Lizzy said, looking up at her with a deep gaze. She took another deep breath..
“I’ve felt this way for so long, and when we lost each other, I thought I’d never get the chance to say it. But now that we’re here, I don’t want to waste any more time.”

"Okay, spill it Liz. The suspense is killing me here." Daisy's heart was pounding, but she was trying while trying so hard to hide it.

“I love you,” Lizzy whispered. “I always have. And I want us to be together. For real.”

(7b) “I’ve felt this way for so long, and when we lost each other, I thought I’d never get the chance to say it.
But now that we’re here, I don’t want to waste any more time.”

"Okay, spill it Liz. The suspense is killing me here." Daisy’s heart was pounding, but she was trying while trying so hard to hide it.

“I love you,” Lizzy whispered. “I always have. And I want us to be together. For real.”

For a moment, Daisy could only stare, trying to process the words, the ones she had once wished to hear but never thought she would.
And now, Lizzy was looking at her like she was the only thing that mattered.
A slow smile broke across Daisy’s face as warmth flooded through her.

“You have no idea how happy that makes me,” she said, curling her fingers around Lizzy’s smaller ones. “I’d love to give this a shot..”

(8) Lizzy was expecting the best but preparing for the worst. Still, she had to be sure.

"Wait.. Really?"

"Yes, really." The two broke a nervous laughter before Liz jumped on Daisy's legs as they locked lips, overflowing with joy. And thus began a sweet, gentle kiss, coming from two united hearts who couldn't physically be more different than each other.

Liz has her worries still though. She had never been in a relationship before, and that has something to do with her insecurity about her size. Even when she was still into boys, she was always afraid even the small ones could physically hurt her without realizing. She'd always fantasized to be the bigger, taller one in the relationship, but life had given her lemons.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(9) The pair walked together with full hearts, despite the differences they still agreed to try to make it work. But Lizzy didn't want to start the relationship with secrets. She decides to come clean about her fantasy, how she'd wanted to be the bigger, taller one. What Daisy said in response wasn't something she had expected..

"Actually, about that.." Daisy said, before explaining to her what happened before she came to the restaurant.

(10) Lizzy was thrilled. Not only she got the girl of her dreams, she also happen to share the other side of her fantasy.
"So she really made a working a prototype?" She asked after Daisy's recap.
"Yup. And I have it right now.." The tall blonde smiled on her lover, gently cradling her up on her arms..
Lizzy's eyes light up like sunrise. "I guess we both will make each other's dream come true.."
"Yeah.." Daisy chuckled. "Pretty soon you'd be the one holding me like this.."

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(11) Daisy sat on the bed, preparing to drink the serum, while Lizzy stood there making sure everything is in place.
"Are you sure you'd do this for me?" Lizzy asked.
"Of course, baby.. I'm doing this for myself too.." She replied, finally gulping the vial's content in one go.
"You good?"
"Yeah.. Taste like apple juice.." she commented.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(12) The two soulmates fell asleep in each other's arms, Daisy being the big spoon in her most comfortable fetal position, cuddling Lizzy warmly, ending their long but lovely day.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(13) The serum worked overnight, reducing Daisy's body to almost half her size in a few hours while they were fast asleep.. It was only in the morning when she woke she finally realized that everything is much bigger..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(14) "I can't believe it actually worked!" Lizzy shouted seeing her girlfriend standing before her with the pajamas hanging over her shrunken body..
"How do you feel, baby?"
"I feel fine," Daisy replied, "smaller, but fine."
"No pain or discomfort?" Lizzy asked. She still had to look up to meet her eyes but not nearly as much as before.
"Nope. Not at all.. It's just kind of disorienting seeing everything so big.."

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(15) Daisy let the fabric go and the oversized cloth fell onto the floor without any resistance. Lizzy couldn't help but immediately compare her height to Daisy's new shrunken body. Before, she felt like a doll next to her. Now, She's no longer more than twice her size.
"I can almost reach your shoulder now! This is amazing.. Is this your final size?"
"I don't know.. I have a feeling that I might shrink some more later.. Do you have anything I can wear?"

(16) "Hold on one sec.."
Lizzy disappeared for a minute and came back with a pair of crop top and a skirt.
"Here you can wear my clothes, its a bit tight on you but it'll do for now.." she offered.
The top ended a little higher than she would've liked, just barely holding onto her boobs. But granted, this was meant for someone more than a foot smaller than her.
The skirt also only covered a third of her legs, exposing some of her butt.
"Thanks sweetie. This is definitely better than naked."

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(17) Daisy adjusted the hem of her skirt, still getting used to how different everything felt at her new size. To think that yesterday, there'd have been no way she could fit in something this small. She leaned down as her hands gently cupping Lizzy's face.
"Okay.. I think I'm going back to the lab to report the progress," Daisy said. "I'll see you later?"

Lizzy smiled up at her, resting her hands around Daisy's thighs as she stood on her toes, hoping she would get the hint.
To her credit, Daisy did get it. She bent down, enough for Lizzy to rest on her heel once again. She then gently planted a soft kiss to her lips, wishing she didn't have to leave so soon. Lizzy's hands tightened slightly on her waist, as she felt the same.
"I miss you already.." Lizzy puckered.

(18) "How are you doing, little man?" Fion's face loomed, menacingly peeking down into the glass container.
"Let me out you bitch!" The tiny man screamed. Jack was shrunken down to barely half as tall as the container, completely at the mercy of the giantess doctor. But with his attitude, she wasn't exactly too keen to listen to anything he says, let alone a rude request.
"Now that's not a very nice thing to say, hmm?"
Her tone was calm, but coming from someone who is basically the size of a building to him, it definitely felt threatening. She could easily crush him with barely any effort, or throw him in the bin, and nobody would ever find out. Jack shivered a little, but his ego was too big for his tiny body.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(19) Being a rude asshole would be the least concerning trait that Jack posesses. He was sent to jail for multiple assault and abuse of his ex-girlfriend Mia, among other things. Basically he's just an all around, scum-of-the-society beyond redemption. Not the kind of guy anyone would want roaming around free in their neighborhood. Fion thought he'd be the perfect subject for her experiments, so she made a deal where he had basically sold his autonomy to her, in exchange for a few years off his sentence. After all, what could be worse than rotting in prison, he thought. Now, he's definitely rethinking his decision, but it appears to be a little too late.

"Stop squirming.." Fion commanded, holding the tiny guy between her fingers.

"W..What's that?" he said, the words almost failed to come out. Fion held the serum in her hand, ready to douse him with it..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(20) “You really should’ve been paying attention..” Fion said, before Jack felt the cold liquid from the tube poured all over him. Pretty quickly, his body starts becoming warm and he felt his mass evaporating away..
Within a few seconds, the world had gotten bigger.. Much bigger..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(21) Moments later, Fion was distracted by a phone call. Jack wasn't about to waste what was probably his only chance to escape.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(22) “Haha... YESSS.. I’m outta here..” Jack confidently runs toward the door in excitement. He might be tiny but at least he would be free, he thought to himself.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(23) Jack's euphoria was cut short when he realized that his field of vision was filled with the sole of a massive high heeled stiletto..
"HOLY SHIT.." he screamed..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(24) “FUCK.. I’m still alive..” Jack gasped, catching his breath after his near death experience of being crushed under her foot like an insignificant bug. He had swerved just in time for the heel to narrowly miss his puny body.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(25) “Uhh.. doc,” Daisy said, “I think I found one of your test subjects..
It’s squirming around down here on the floor, I might’ve almost crushed him..”
Her booming voice reached his ear and Jack was already making a run for himself, but the giantess in the red dress just casually bent down and plucked him up.
“Uh-uh.. You’re not going anywhere buddy..”

(26) “Boy, you are tiny..” Daisy said, dangling the flailing figure upside down. “Sorry for almost crushing you..”
She squinted, examining his face closer. She though he looked familiar.
“Hmm.. You kinda look like this asshole my best friend used to date..”

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(27) Daisy nonchalantly dropped the tiny guy to Fion's open palm. She doesn't even react. He was that unimportant in that moment.
"Wow.." The doctor was ecstatic. Her concoction clearly worked.. The six-feet tall blonde she had to look up to last time they met, now barely as tall as her shoulder.
"I know.. We really did it.." Daisy shared her joy as they quickly exchanged a hug.

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(28) Jack was unceremoniously dropped onto the cold ceramic tile of Fion's workstation as he contemplated his failed escape attempt.
Meanwhile, she gives Daisy another vial.
"Okay, now that we know your batch is stable, here's your next dose.."

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(29) “Bottoms up..” Daisy said, swallowing the next dose of Fion’s potion. Jack started to feel weird, but this time the world around him was compacting instead of expanding..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(30) “Four feet on the dot..” Fion measured the formerly tall blonde’s height on the device. Just then, Daisy felt a tingling sensation.. “Doc, think it’s happening now..”

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(31) The blonde started dwindling down until she stopped shrinking after losing another twelve inches.

"Scratch that- you're down to three feet, Daisy.." Fion corrected..

"Cool! I think my boobs look bigger too, now that i'm officially half sized.."

Daisy chuckled. Her dress had gotten looser after her shrinking, except for the chest area.

"You wanted this right?" The doctor asked. She wanted to make sure that her lab assistant-turned-volunteer isn't having second thoughts..

"Yes.. Of course! Are you kidding? I love this.."

"Good.. Listen, I need a favor.."

"Anything Doc.."

(32) Jack found himself being plucked off once again. Everything went dark until he's suddenly falling from one smooth palm to another.

"I need you to take care of this guy for me, just for a few days.." Fion explained, handing off the tiny man onto Daisy's hand.
"Not a problem, Doc.."

(33) Daisy walked home in her now oversized heels more excited than she's ever been.
Lizzy opened the door, and was greeted with an unexpected surprise. She's finally able to look at Daisy almost eye to eye!

asdfgregb.deviantart.com
(34) Jack found himself almost getting smushed between two pair of boobs colliding in front of him, if it wasn't for his box enclosure. But when Jack thought about it, it probably wouldn't be that bad..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(35) Soon after, when Jack looked around, he wasn't being attached to Daisy's neck anymore he was on a table somewhere..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(36) Turns out he wasn't on a table, but a bed. The enclosure was unlocked, he crawled up immediately and was greeted by the two girls, fully naked, about to pleasure to each other.
"Fuck.. I might just be dead and in heaven right now.." he said, soaking in the view.

(37) It didn't take long for Daisy to notice the tiny man marvelling at her feet, and quickly grabbed the uninvited guest up close to her face.
"Well well well.. What do we have here.."
The redheaded partner joined in, but he was too distracted by the two pairs of magnificent boobs..
"Who's this guy?" Lizzy asked.

"Well, his name is Jack. Who he is isn't important."

"Can we have some fun with him?"

"I think he wouldn't mind.."

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(38) Being used as a human dildo in a hot blonde lady's pussy was never on Jack's Christmas list, but he somehow ended up in this situation. He moaned along as her labia contracts and loosens around him, his tiny dick starts to feel wet too. "Oh God, I think it's happening again.." Daisy shouted..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(39) In just a matter of seconds, Daisy dwindles smaller and smaller, but so does Jack..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(40) “Oh my gosh.. This is unreal..”
Daisy couldn’t believe her eyes.. She was finally looking up at Lizzy who isn’t even 3 feet tall herself!

This is so strange.. But I could get used to it..” Lizzy replied, looking down at her girlfriend..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(41) “Looks like our little friend here got the same treatment..” Lizzy said to Jack who seemed to had gotten smaller with Daisy..

“He must’ve shrunk with me, cause he was inside me..” The blonde said, before descending her massive sole towards him..

“Hey.. What are you doing?!” he protested, but her foot was no match to his puny strength.

Before long, he was pinned down, her toes holding him hostage helplessly on the bed.

(42) “My turn..” Not wanting to miss out on the fun, Lizzy plucks the tiny man and dropped him onto her titties, but quickly his body started shaking..
A few moments later he shrank again to only a quarter of his previous size..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(43) Before he knew it, Daisy's massive open mouth filled his filled vision and started descending towards him..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(44) Jack's despreate plea was completely ignored and soon his body was almost completely engulfed by her mouth..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(45) Fion looks at the vial of potion in her hand. She had reverse engineered the shrinking formula from daisy's growth serum. What she hadn't told anyone was that her funding has been cut for a while. For all she knows, the research company could come and shut down her lab tomorrow..
She wasn't really sure if she could find a willing test subject in less than 24 hours, she had to act fast..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(46) After already getting ready to leave, Fion changed her mind.
"Ah, fuck it. I might never get another chance to test it.." Fion said, quickly gulping at the potion she had made for herself..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

(47) “Shit.. This wasn’t supposed to happen..” Fion panicked. The dosage she had set was only supposed to grow her a few inches, but in a few seconds she had grown over a foot, violently ripping out her clothes. That could only mean one thing..

asdfgregb.deviantart.com

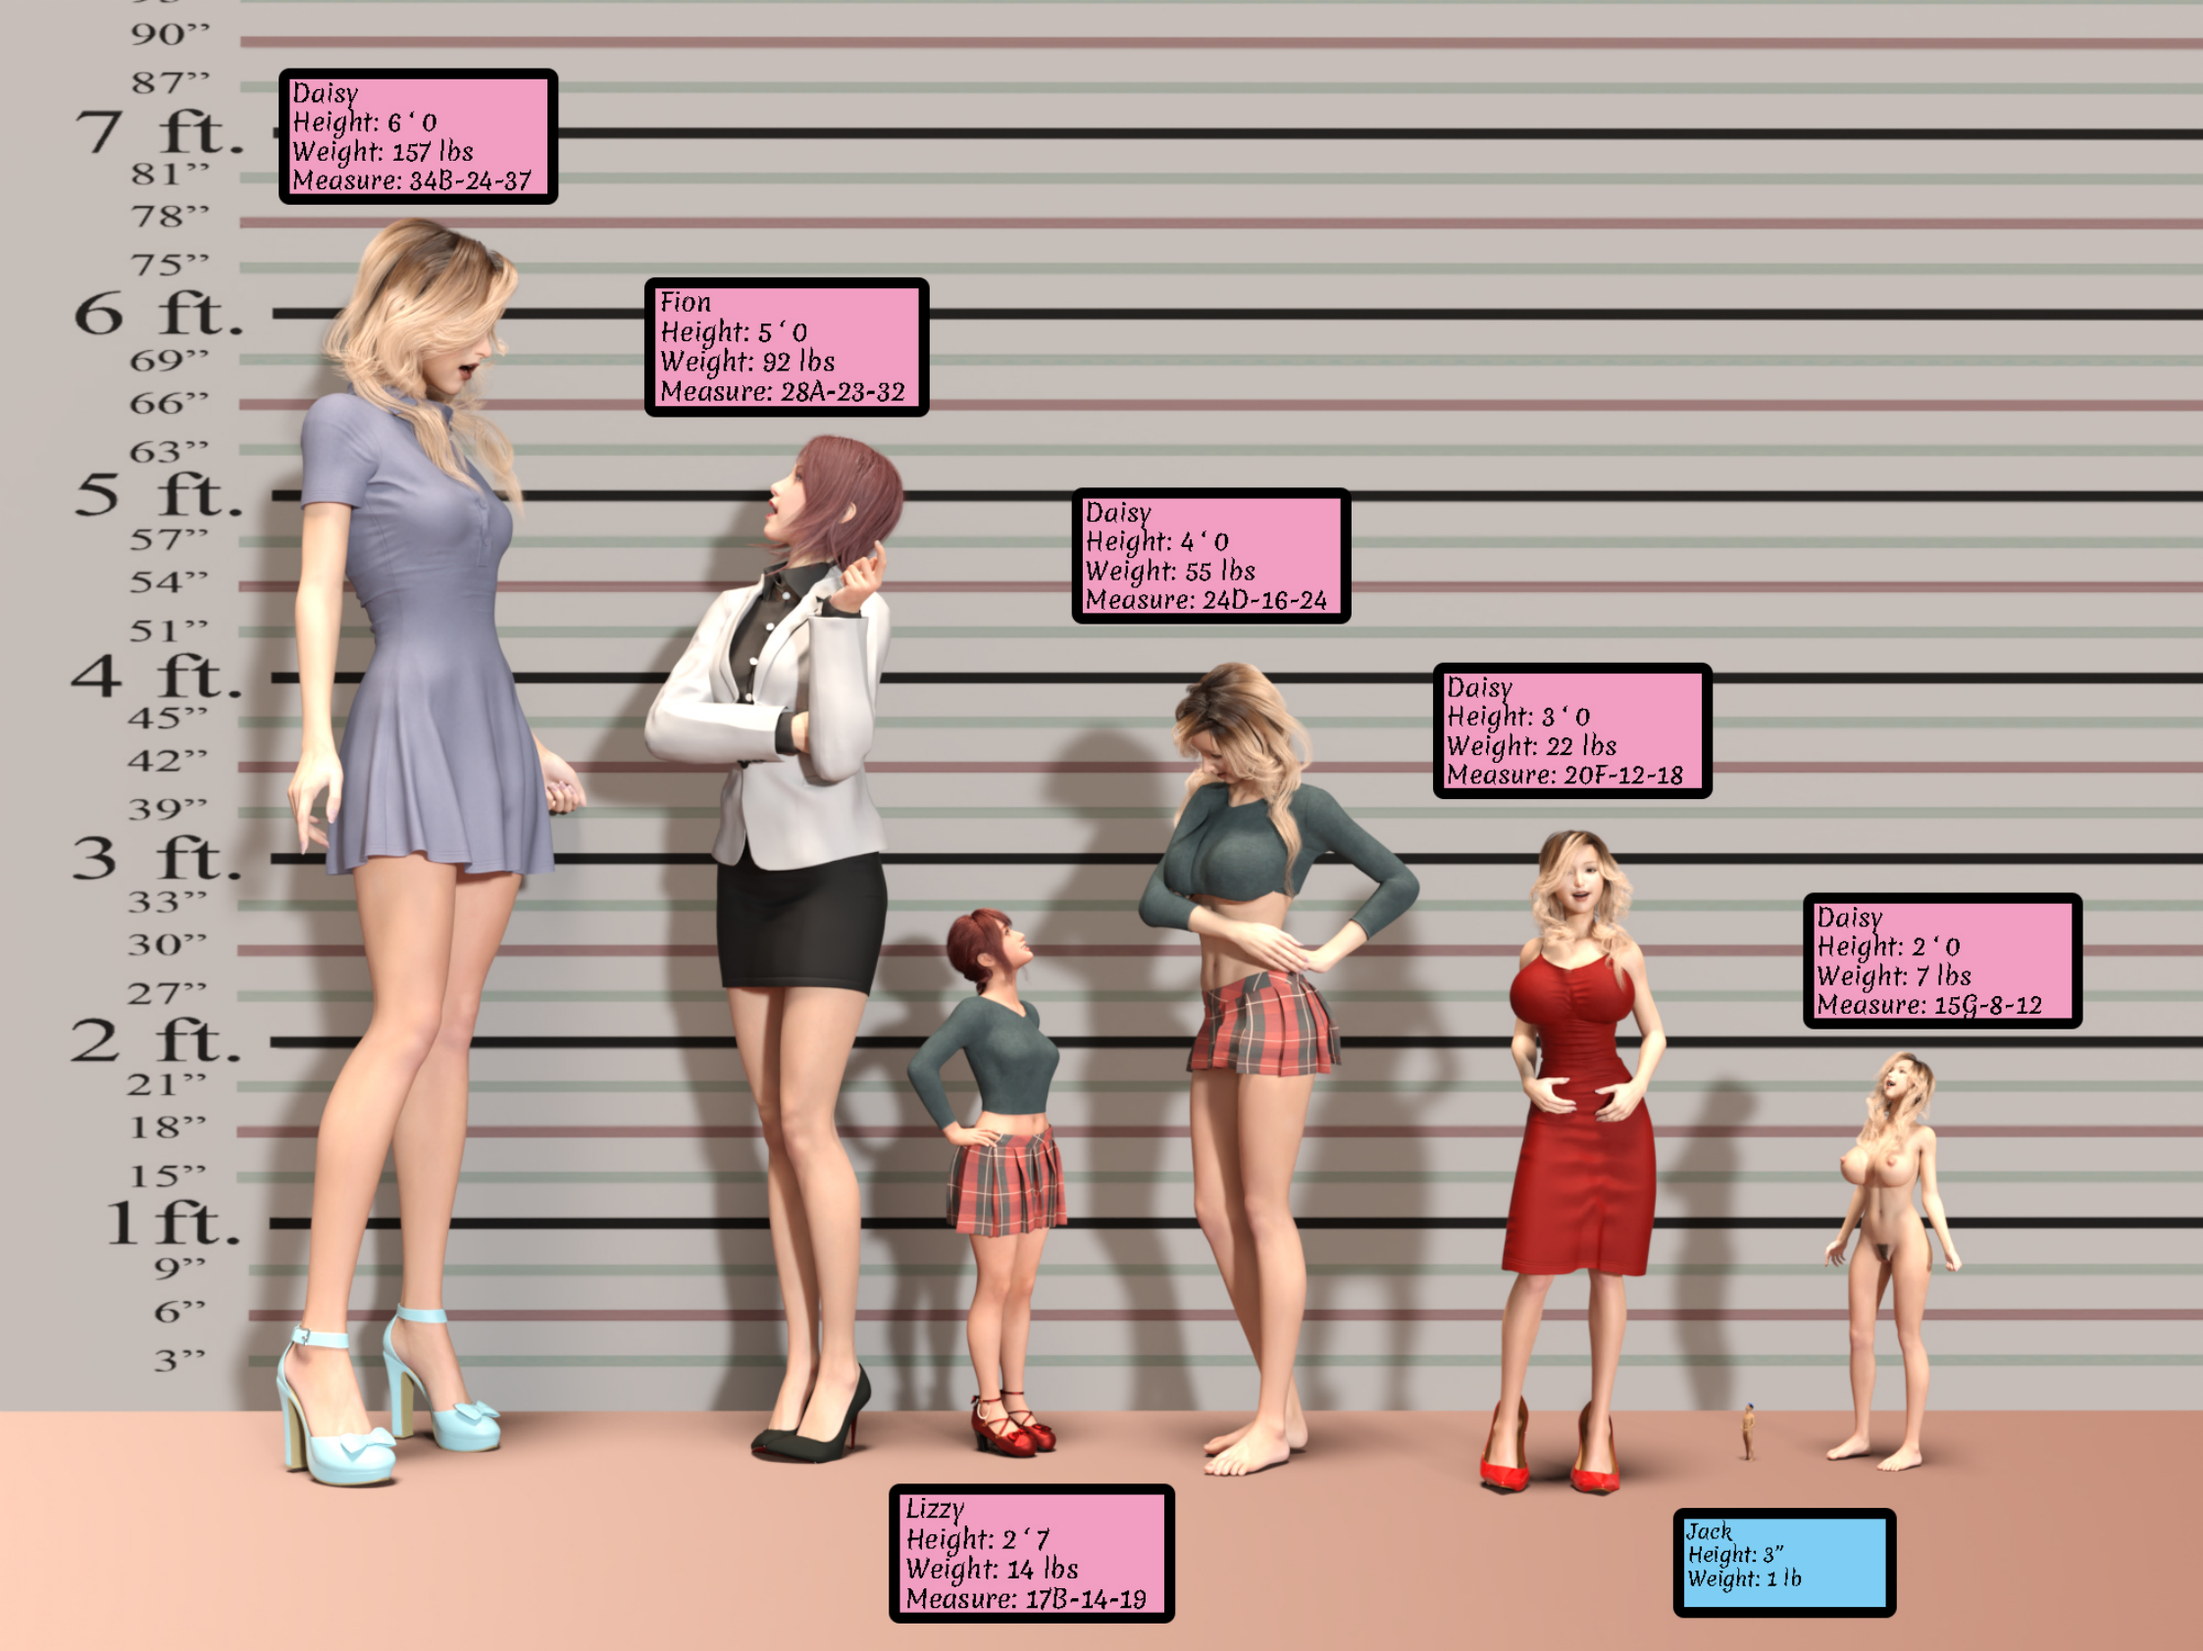

(48) Daisy's phone buzzed repeatedly. When she opened, there was a few exasperated voice message from Fion..
"Is something wrong?" Lizzy asked..

(49) Daisy pressed play and finally heard the message..
DAISY.. PLEASE C.. COME TO THE LAB IMMEDIATELY.. I.. I NEED HELP..”
