HI GUYYS! today I've prepared something very special... hihi. Most of it is going to be recorded by my friend Clara. Say hi Clara!

Hi, everyone!

You see that good boy over there? He belongs to Clara and is going to be my partner today. But I am not going to be a human when we do it. Some of you suggested I should try zoophication serum and well... here we are...

I've collected some of Spikes' fur, so that I turn into a dalmatian as well. See you guys in a few weeks!

Becca is fully aware of the serum's effect. She will turn back into a human, if she hasn't been pregnant for four weeks in a row. All puppies can be bought. Becca plans to donate 60% of the profit to shelters.

8 weeks later...

A little update for y'all.. well, Becca is due soon. She has still not shown any sign of her old self. I really miss her and I know, so do you. It's actually gotten really hard to seperate Spike and her. They... well they are fucking alot even though she's pregnant.

4 years later...

I'm sorry guys... it happened again. They just break out, even when I seperate them... the vet says she's ok, but I almost lost count how many puppies we've sold by now... The shelter says thank you btw, chat.
