Amber, known as Black Rose, was the best assassin in the city. She hated any kind of defiance. Therefore, when Jewel - her extremely modified toy - was kidnapped, Amber went furious like never before.

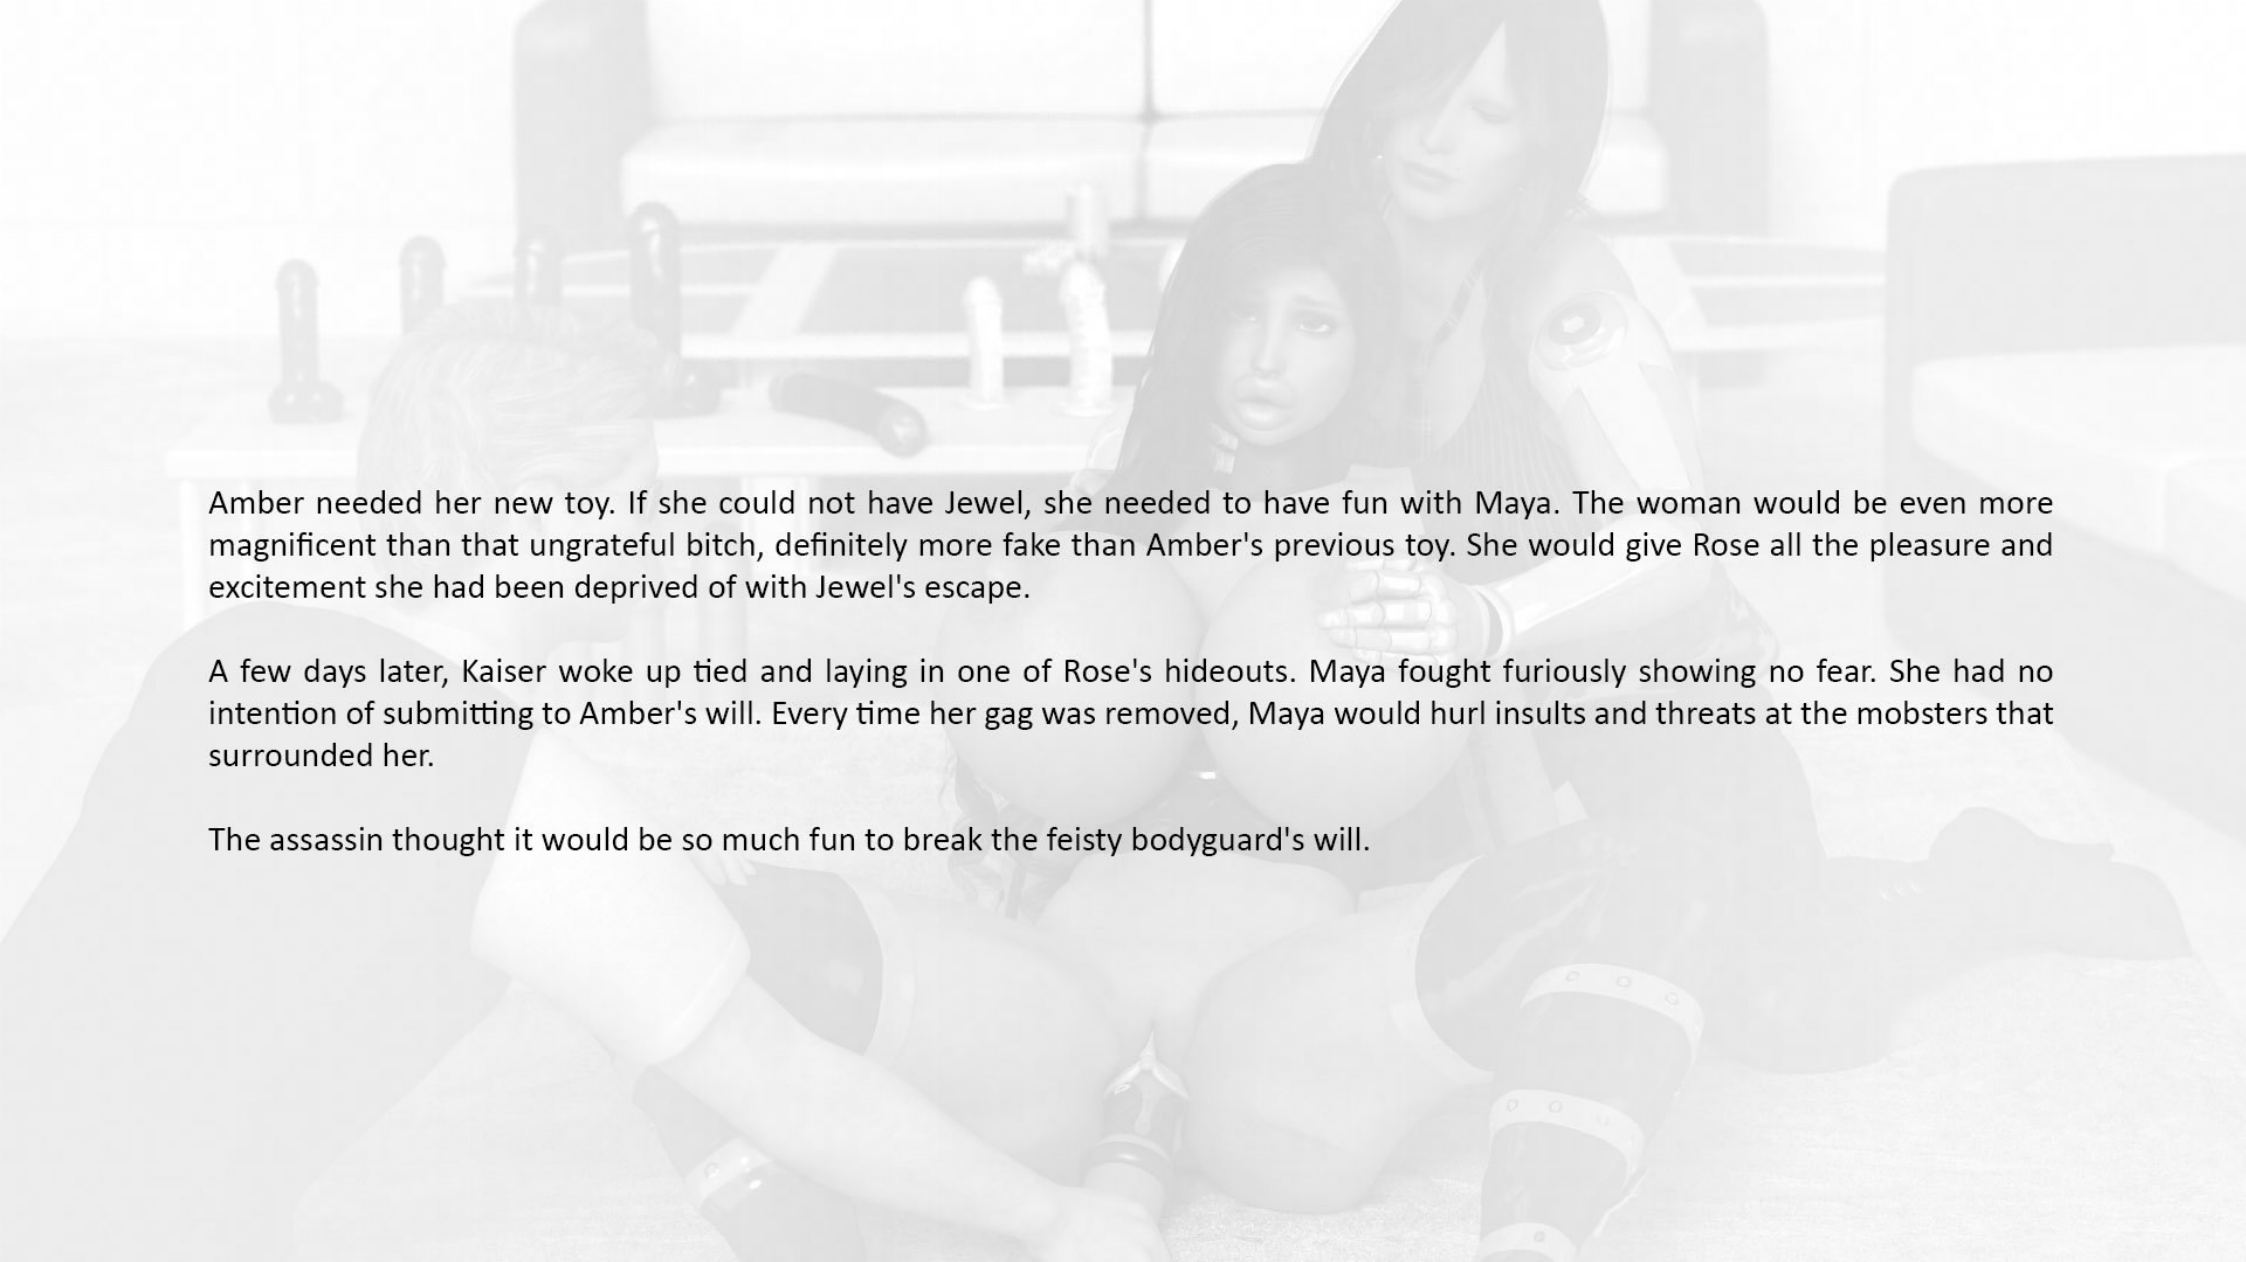

She decided to vent her anger at her next target.

Maya Kaiser was an attractive, very fit woman who worked as a security guard of a certain VIP. The businessman was dealing with some shady business and was soon to be assassinated.

Maya was fiercely resistant when Amber's men attacked their target. Efficient, ruthless and precise, she proved a worthy adversary. In the end, after a long and cruel struggle, Rose managed to overpower her.

Amber needed her new toy. If she could not have Jewel, she needed to have fun with Maya. The woman would be even more magnificent than that ungrateful bitch, definitely more fake than Amber's previous toy. She would give Rose all the pleasure and excitement she had been deprived of with Jewel's escape.

A few days later, Kaiser woke up tied and laying in one of Rose's hideouts. Maya fought furiously showing no fear. She had no intention of submitting to Amber's will. Every time her gag was removed, Maya would hurl insults and threats at the mobsters that surrounded her.

The assassin thought it would be so much fun to break the feisty bodyguard's will.

She spend long hours pondering all the extreme modifications that Wesler told her about. Monstrous implants that he showed her were really intriguing. Maya was well-muscled and agile and it was tempting to transform her into an immobilized doll. Gradual injecting of nanotissue in various areas of her body also seemed interesting. Amber had been playing like that before, but she hadn't been bored with this kind of pleasure at all. Maya would have to witness how her nimble, lithe body slowly yet inevitably turned into that of a sex toy. Amber was also tempted with modifications of the skin into an synthetic one that was similar to latex. It was Wesler's latest invention and the doctor wanted to use it on a proper subject. Maya's body would permanently fuse with the synthetic coating turning her into an object. Rose felt jolts of excitement rushing through her body at the mere thought of this perverse enhancement.

She had been considering all the possibilities for a few days and excitedly describing them in detail to her prisoner. Amber noted with satisfaction that Maya seemed to be very concerned. When the assassin showed her captive the images of Dr Wesler's achievements, Maya momentarily held her breath and her eyes widened in horror and shock.

In the end, Rose decided that the first thing to do was to break her prisoner's resistance and test the woman's stamina. She kept wondering how much would Kaiser endure - she had impressive muscles and her slender body had to go through long hours of incessant orgies. Rose decided to check Maya's stamina thoroughly.

That very same evening Amber invited her friends and minions to her place. Maya was meant to be the highlight of the evening. It was nice to see how she opposed, screamed and kept insulting all the people around. She resembled a wild animal held in a cage. Of course, she had no chance of escaping the ordeal and would only lose her strength.

Two men grabbed her muscular arms while Amber came up from behind. Maya fought, she was struggling and throwing angry glances. The woman had some unbridled primary energy and Rose was delighted with her showcase. She was strong, unlike this slut, Jewel.

"Calm down, bitch," Rose stroked her captive's hair. Maya turned sharply and bared her white teeth as if she wanted to bite the assassin. "I know you're awfully horny, but you have to wait for the pleasure."

The men laughed, and the captive pulled with all her strength.

"Maya is our special guest today," Amber said, turning to her guests. "Take advantage of her holes. Test her. She looks very tough, just look at those muscles. So, I suggest to go all in. This girl will endure a lot," Rose beamed and squeezed Maya's nipple. "Fuck her in the most imaginative ways you want. Later on we will decide whether she is good enough and we'll choose how to improve her."

Amber brutally shoved a finger in the girl's anus. Maya screamed and arched at the sudden intrusion. Rose grabbed the girl's hair forcefully, pinning her even more, and started to expand her hole with slow, rhythmic movements.

Maya was breathing faster and faster. Her eyes filled with tears, and the muscles on her body trembled and strained.

"Don't be so feisty or you'll quickly drain out of energy," Amber reminded her captive. "This is just the beginning. I'm only prepping your ass for some real fun."

"You'll regret this, you filthy bitch!" Maya hissed. "You're gonna regret we've ever met! You'll be on your knees begging for mercy, you fucking slut!"

"I doubt it," Rose replied. "Mmm, please, keep the insults going. Your feisty defiance amuses me."

She picked up Maya, restraining the girl's arms with one hand, while the other shoved a strap-on in her captive's anus. Rose was pushing forward with her hips, stretching the helpless girl's asshole. Kaiser struggled and moaned, breathing rapidly as every centimeter of the toy disappeared slowly inside her. In the end, Amber lifted the girl up and the dildo slid all the way inside her under her own weight. Maya screamed and her body shivered. Rose kept pushing in, increasingly loosening the girl's anus.

Kaiser felt pleasure and pain. Her butt hurt incredibly, same with her tied hands and sore muscles. However, the stretching itself gave her a lot of pleasure. She always had a high libido and liked sex, but never like that. She was furious that someone used her body so brutally and had no intention to give up.

"You're beginning to like it, aren't you?" Amber asked from behind. "In that case, I give her to you guys," she announced and made room for her guests.

Maya went into the arms of men who were shamelessly groping her smooth, flexible body and kept talking about her and her body.

The girl kicked one of the men and blew a precise punch at the other one's face. It caused a bit of turmoil and confusion. Some people even shouted a few things. In the end, they managed to bend Maya's wrists so that it was impossible for her to resist any further.

"She's dangerous," someone said. "I'd love to collar and muzzle her."

"She's a bodyguard, after all. You can see she knows her trade."

"How wild and feisty! She jumps and hisses like an animal."

The men managed to bend her over - one entered her already wet pussy, while the other shoved his rigid member deep between her lips.

"Hurt me and you'll regret it," the man warned Maya. "You'll regret it a lot. So, suck as best as you can. Please me well."

The girl's body moved to the rhythm of the men's thrusts. She felt one penis penetrating deep in her vagina and another one sliding in and out of her throat. Soon her aching body was covered with sweat. One of the men reached his orgasm, flooding her body with hot sticky sperm.

She did not even catch her breath, because immediately someone else grabbed her hair and shoved his pulsating hard member down her throat.

Meanwhile, Amber was enjoying a very active discussion regarding Maya's body modifications. Together with her guests, the assassin tried to make decisions about her toy's further enhancements and changes in her appearance.

"I like that she is so athletic," noticed one of the men. "She'd be able to fuck for hours. On the other hand, I like my women are more delicate."

"She is definitely not womanly enough," Amber smirked. "You remember how Jewel, my last toy, looked like, right?"

"Oh, yeah," the man rubbed his hands and licked his lips. "She was a sexy pussy, indeed."

"This one is going to be even better," Rose announced proudly. "Still, in a different kind of style. She has some temper."

"Aggressive and wild." the man agreed with Amber.

"I enjoy it this way. It is going to be such a pleasure to play with such a wild, untamed animal. I already have many ideas about the ways we could train her.

"Do you think you could handle her?" One of the women expressed her doubts.

"Even lions and tigers perform circus tricks and entertain the audience, right?" Amber smiled a bit threateningly. "Let's think for a while what could be done with her almost flat chest and this small ass."

Absolutely horrified, Maya listened to Rose and her guests exchanging their kinkiest and exotic ideas. She did not know whether such radical body modifications were even possible. However, if one considered the images of Wesler's enhancements...

Kaiser felt her pussy filled with sperm, she heard a man moaning loudly behind her. The moment he finished, another one grabbed her by the wrists and she felt another rigid penis pressing against her anus. He was shoving deeper and deeper inside her ass hole while she was panicking listening Amber's wildest fantasies.

"I've decided what to do with you," Amber suddenly announced and went into the details describing her most fetishistic ideas to Maya.

With each word, the captive girl's dark eyes widened more and more.

Men who were fucking her, were also listening to Amber Rose's words and evidently got extremely excited, since they began to move their hips even faster. After a few seconds Maya felt their orgasms exploding inside her sensitive body once again. Her holes and jaw muscles were hurting her terribly. Surprisingly that wasn't bothering her at all and she stopped paying attention to the pain. What if Amber wasn't bluffing? Maya would be in serious problems then.

"Apart from that I'm going to train you intensively every day," Rose wasn't done with the subject. "I want you to have a lot of sexual energy. I like that about you. You have to have a lot of stamina and energy. Your holes will soon be penetrated at all times, by those who express their wish to fuck you."

Rose WAS NOT bluffing. She was extremely excited by the vision of having her wild slave full of perverse sexual energy. Every time someone wanted to fuck her, they'd have to subdue and tame the slave.

Since then, Maya was regularly trained by volunteers from the gang. Mobsters enthusiastically fucked her holes whenever they had an opportunity. Kaiser had to endure hours of orgies and withstand numerous uncomfortable positions, often with her legs tied and mouth gagged. Amber set up a schedule according to which the girl had to be trained in fuck sessions. She approached the training incredibly methodically and systematically. Maya spent most of the time fucked by some strangers who first had to tame her furious protests.

Amber liked to watch when Kaiser was fucked. Sometimes she'd join the orgies. Other times she'd stretch the slave's holes an one-on-one sessions and force Maya to lick her hungry, always horny and wet pussy.

Usually Maya defended herself very furiously, but sometimes she also took pleasure from sex. In the end, her body reacted to prolonged training and constant penetration.

It quickly became clear that the most vulnerable were Maya's sensitive holes. They had quickly become swollen, red and painful after a few days of her training. It didn't look nice and Dr Wesler warned that it could even be life threatening. He proposed a solution to the problem – synthetic skin covering Maya's genitals. He also told Rose about possible sensitization of these areas. Everything he said sounded very tempting and Amber felt immediately felt sizzling excitement at the very idea.

Later that evening, they gagged and put her in shackles and Maya was taken to the clinic. Dr Wesler attentively listened to Amber's orders. After all, she was one of his best clients. When it came to their cooperation, there were no limits and the girls she sent him to work on provided him with so many delightful and exciting challenges.

The doctor announced Maya needed some rest and peaceful recovery - after the last few days filled with full-on sex she was clearly too exhausted for surgery. Wesler would take care of her as soon as possible. He couldn't wait till he started her enhancements.

First, the doctor modified the girl's sexual organs. Her pussy and anus were covered with a special substance, which fused with her skin. Sex holes were modified to become more tough and at the same time provide a new kind of sexual experience.

Rose also ordered for her pet to be endowed with enhanced breast implants. Heavy, natural looking breasts that she gave her previous mascot, Jewel, did not suit Maya's fit body. The girl had to be equipped with perfectly round, spherical implants. Nanotissue would not give such effect, so Wesler decided to insert in Maya traditional implants. Their new generation was extremely light and bouncy, giving a spectacular effect of fakeness.

Kaiser's toned body changed dramatically, but she was not aware of it, kept under sedation until the initial tissue regeneration.

Two days later, Amber watched with satisfaction as Maya took a first look at her new body.

The girl examined her enlarged, now synthetic genitals, with horror and disgust. The pussy was inflated and plump. What's more, around her anus was a thick ring, like some sort of perverse decoration. Maya knew that this was synthetic skin that fused permanently with her own one. Slowly and warily she touched the labia. They were pleasantly warm and extra smooth. As soon she ran her finger along them, a previously unknown powerful pleasure pierced her body and she could not help moaning. The experience was new, strange but absolutely exciting. The sensation of touch did not seem more intense... It was simply more accurate. Maya closed her eyes. When she focused, she could feel the incredible laser-like precision of how and where she touched herself, as if the skin suddenly had more receptors, and her senses reached totally new, amazing heights. She imagined that if she touched herself meticulously and with dexterity she could achieve the most intense pleasure ever.

Maya opened her legs to look more closely at her modifications, but the view was obscured by her huge breasts. They seemed to be monstrous, far too big for her, and had the shape of plastic basketballs that stretched her supple skin. Her body - always efficient and kept in regimen - changed into something alien she could no longer control. Maya was under the impression that these were simply two fake rubber balloons attached to her body disturbing her movements at all times. They protruded far beyond the flat line of her toned stomach. When she slept on the side they would simply lay in neat line in front of her - two inflated rubberlike balls. When she turned to lay on her back, her ribs felt the pressure of a previously unknown weight, and the cover would bulge in front of her eyes in the most disturbing way.

If only she could, she would get rid of all these modifications immediately. However, she couldn't. The decision wasn't up to her. Not anymore.

A few days later, Dr Wesler decided that Maya was already ok to leave the clinic, so Rose took her back to the apartment. She dressed the girl in a sexy latex outfit that emphasized her new sexified shapes. From that moment on she would have to wear it almost permanently. Round, fake breasts and modified genitals were exposed and easily accessible. The gloves were designed in such a way you could also easily tie them and additionally hamper the girl's grip. Rose decided that Maya no longer needed this ability. From that moment on, she was only meant to be a synthetic pussy with big tits. Amber's new, wild toy to train and enslave.

Before & After

"You've already discovered how your new body works," Amber smirked. "Now you have big rubbery tits and latex sex holes through which you are going to experience new orgasmic sensations no one has ever felt before. I bet that this time I will give you a myriad of well-measured climaxes. You won't resist at all. Instead, my doll, you will squirm with delight and beg your Mistress for more."

Maya's face remained cryptic and empty.

"You want to play hard?" Rose commented. "Great, I'll have even more fun with you. I am gonna have fun watching you break down. Trust me, you will, I am sure of it."

Amber shoved her hand between the girl's legs and began to caress her with precise, skillful movements, touching exactly those places where the irritation caused the greatest pleasure.

Maya gritted her teeth and her cheeks got rosy. She started breathing fast, but did not utter a sound.

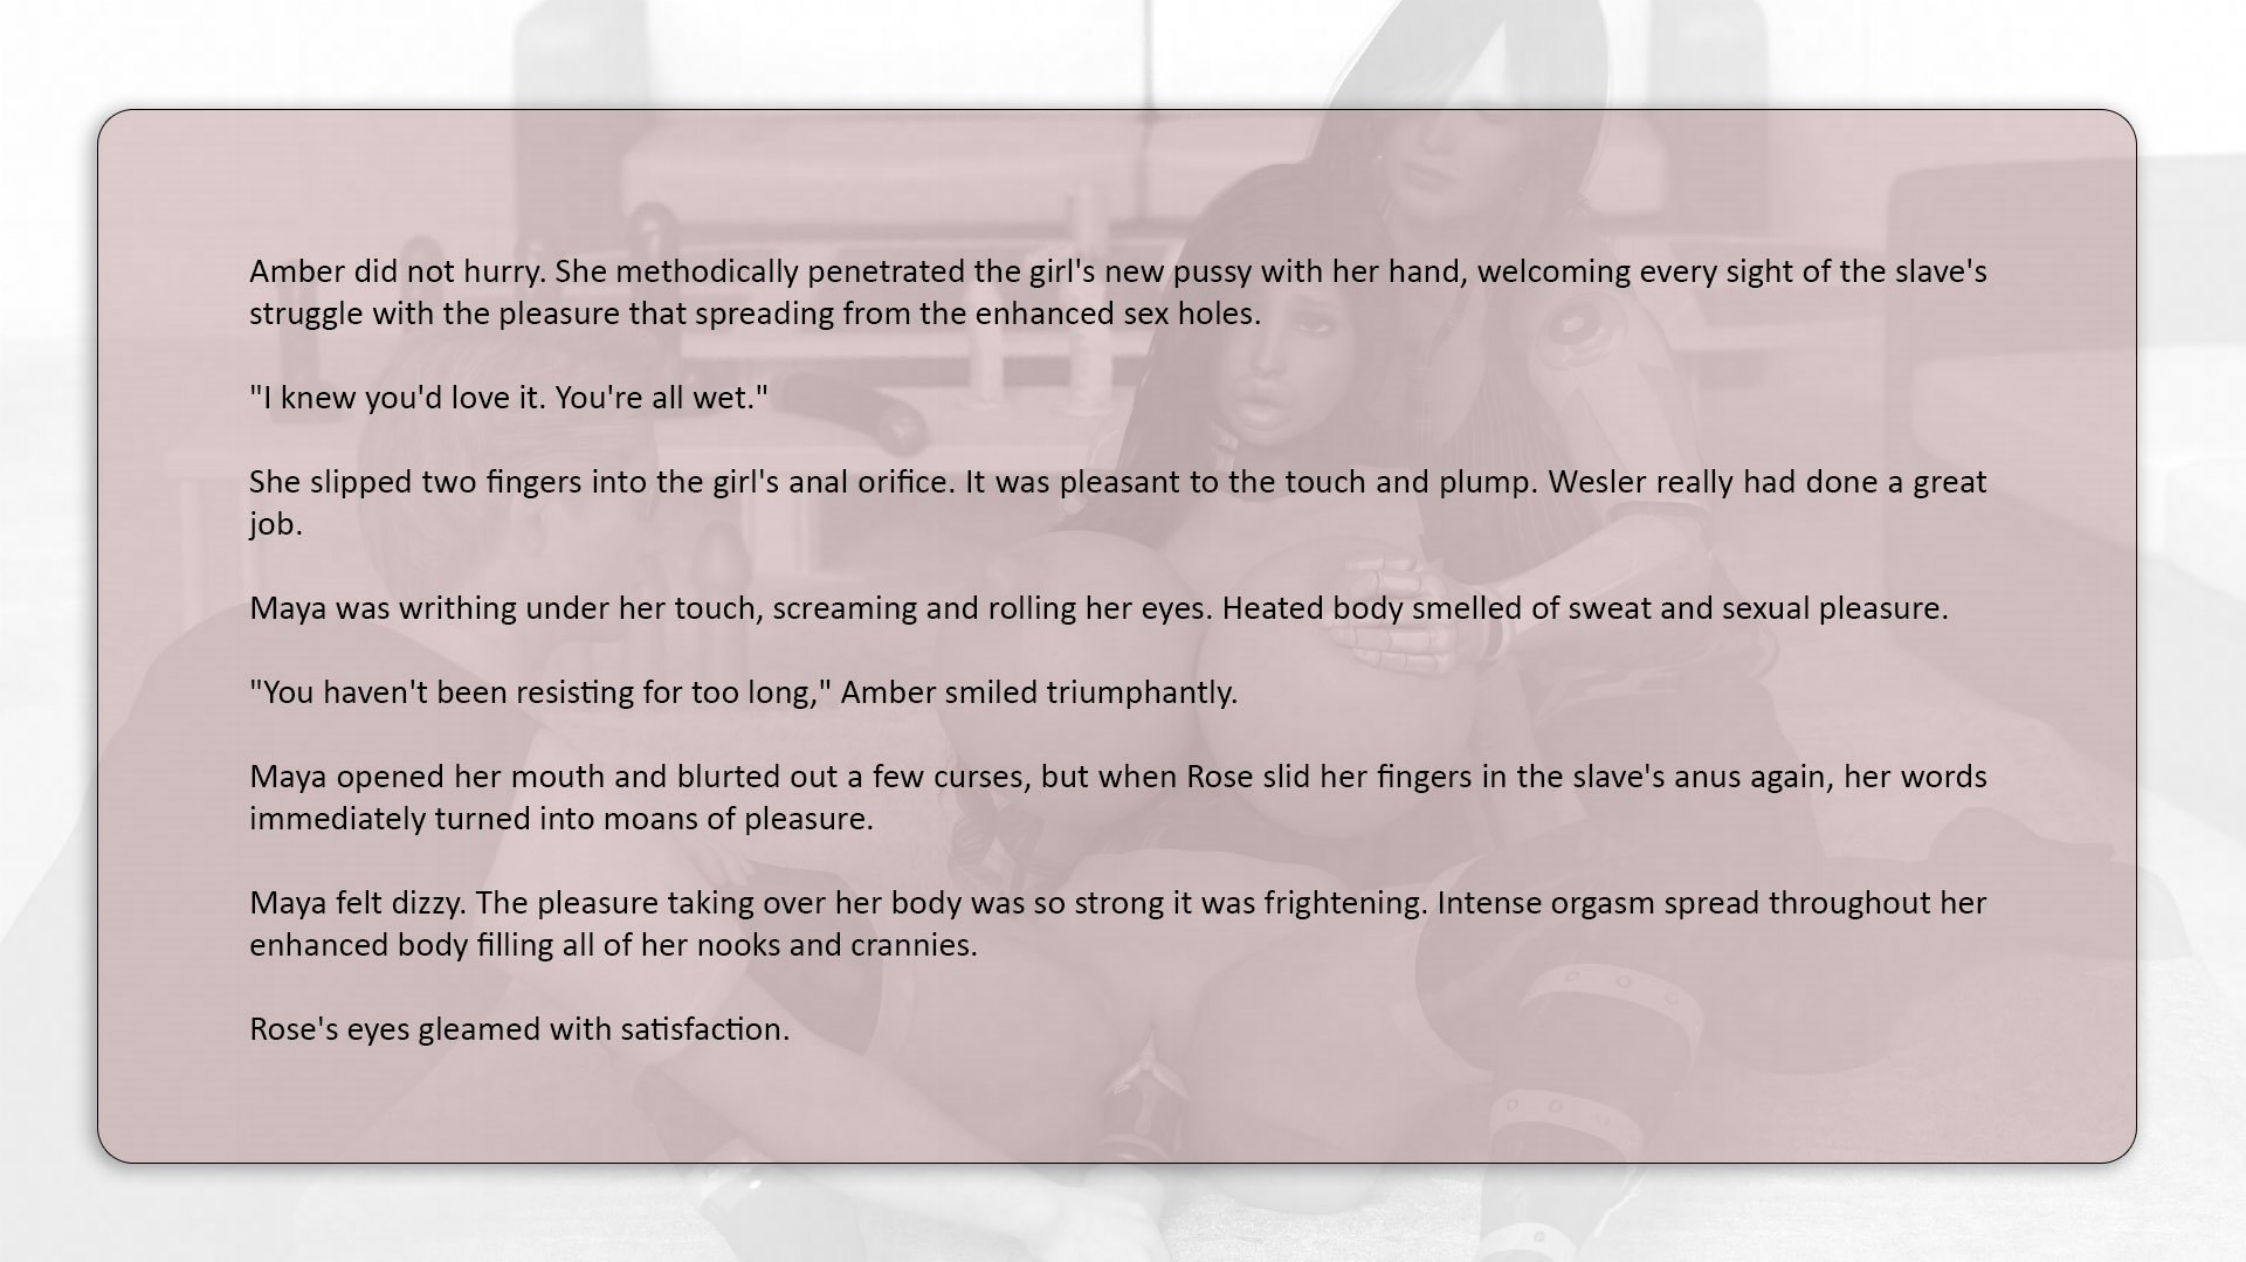

"So much pleasure, isn't it?"

Rose slid her fingers in the doll's wet pussy and watched with satisfaction as the girl fought with pleasure. Amber's hand went deeper. She was examining the inside of Maya's new pussy, purposefully stopping at those spots where her touch provoked the strongest erotic reactions of the girl. Kaiser hands and knees trembled slightly and her forehead covered with sweat, yet all the time she remained silent. Rose rubbed Maya's latex clitoris with a thumb, while her forefinger caressed the rugged G-spot which was growing under the touch of her fingertips. Sex juices started flowing down Amber's fingers. The slave felt betrayed, she clearly was unable to control the reaction.

A droplet of sweat ran down Maya's forehead. She closed her eyes and tried at all costs to remain focused. All of her modified zones gave her incredible pleasure and sensation she had never experienced before.

They were hard to describe - precise and meticulous, as if her own perception had been magnified allowing her to suddenly discover a new world of orgasmic twists and subtleties. Rose used these spots very. She was observing every single one of Maya's reactions, reading her like an enhanced sensitive map, petting the most pleasurable spots the most. Maya felt dizzy and let out a long, deep moan.

Amber did not hurry. She methodically penetrated the girl's new pussy with her hand, welcoming every sight of the slave's struggle with the pleasure that spreading from the enhanced sex holes.

"I knew you'd love it. You're all wet."

She slipped two fingers into the girl's anal orifice. It was pleasant to the touch and plump. Wesler really had done a great job.

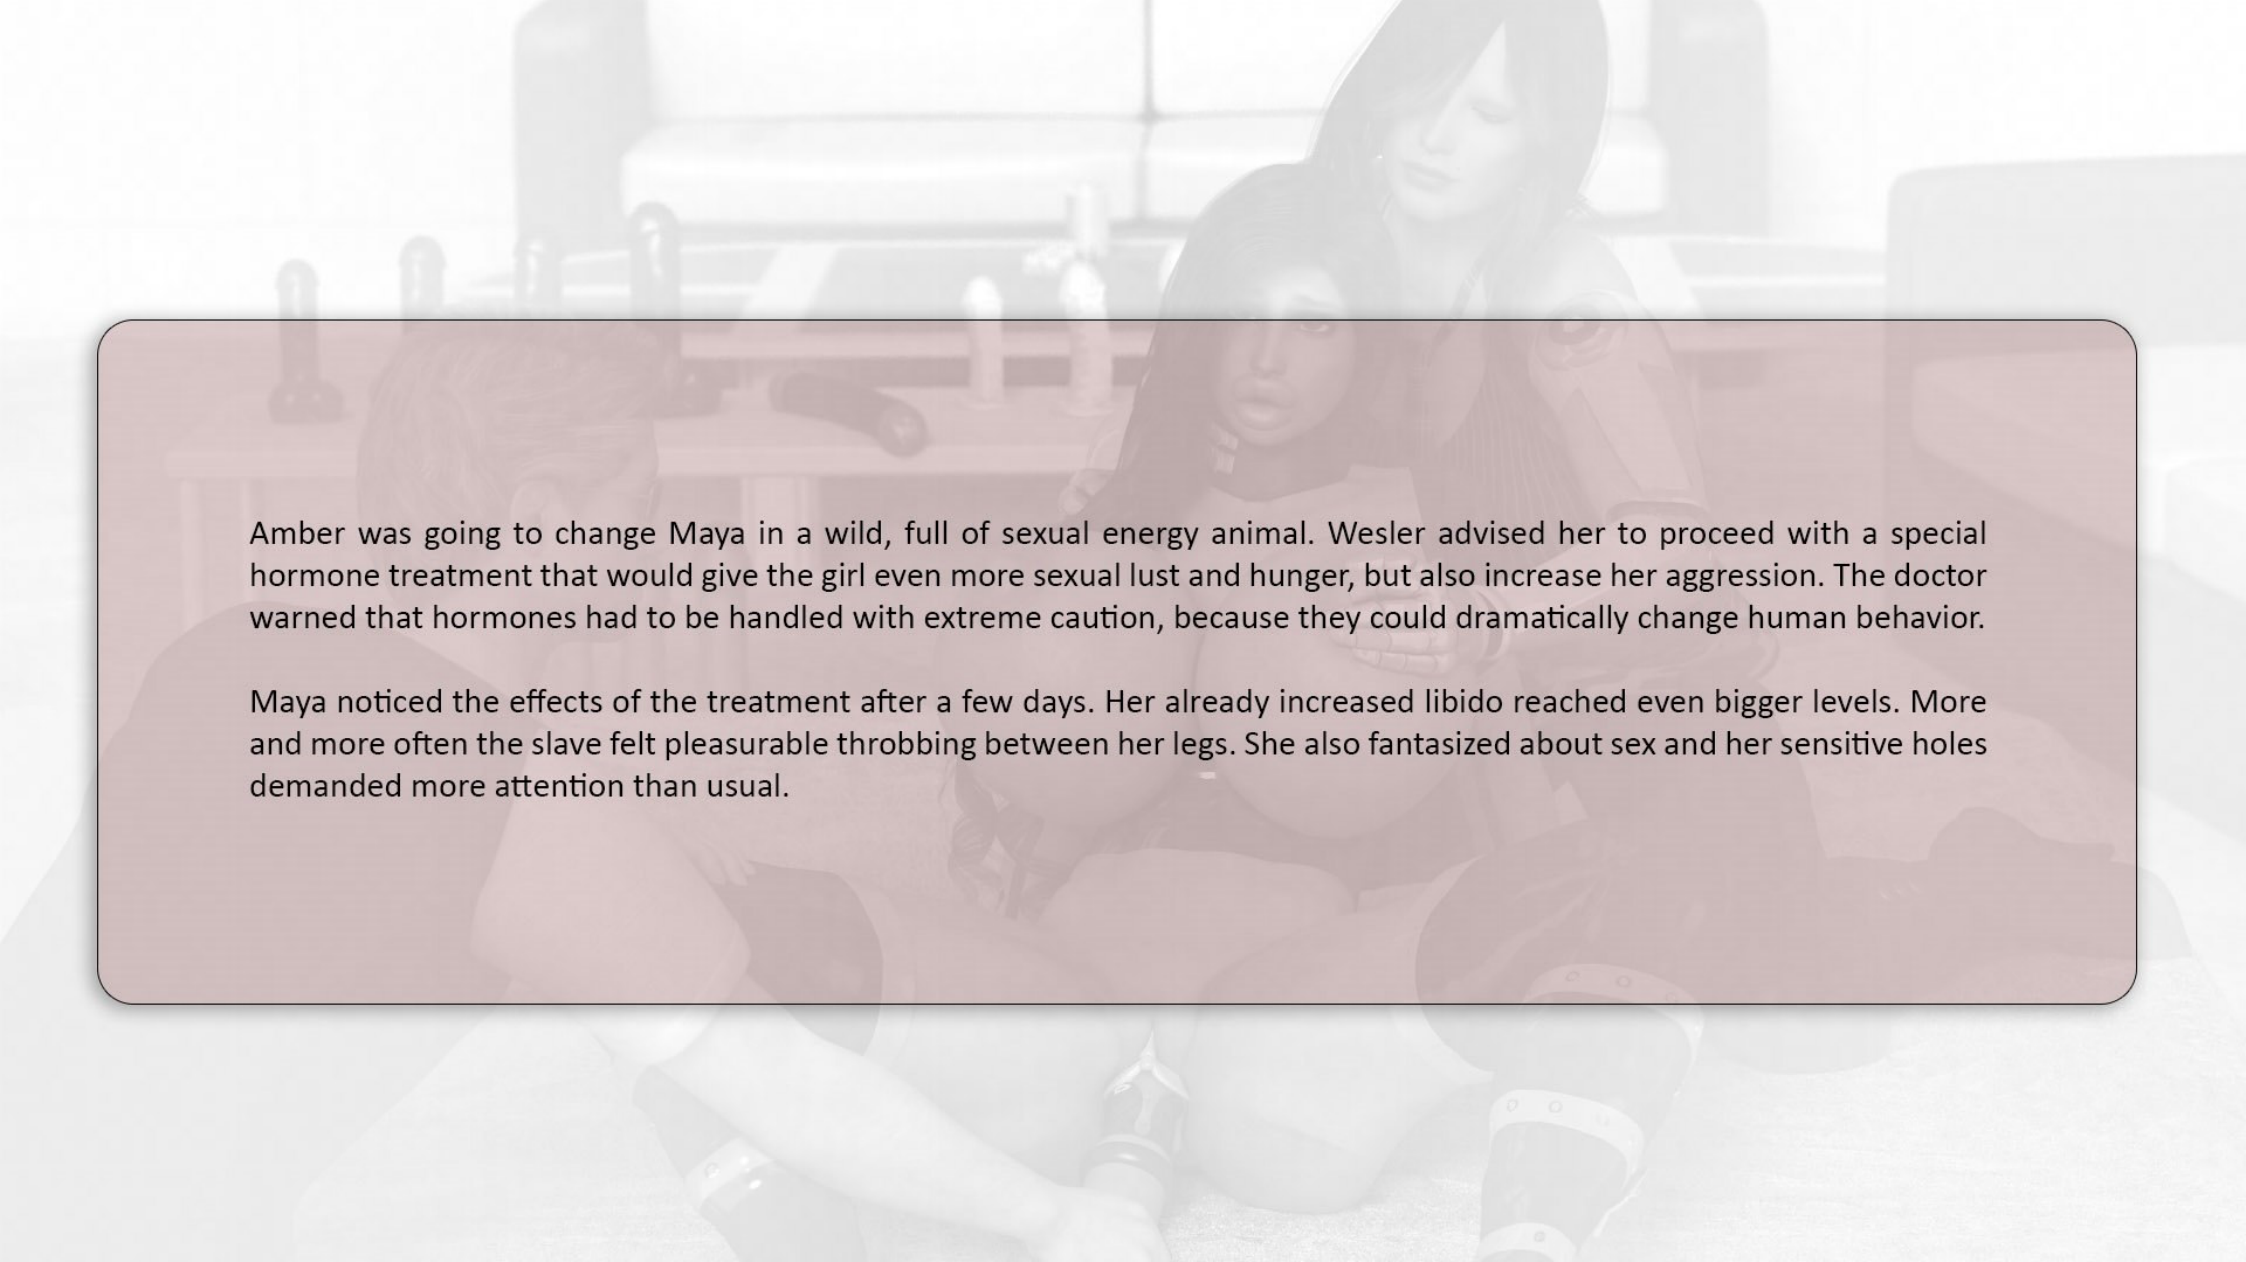

Maya was writhing under her touch, screaming and rolling her eyes. Heated body smelled of sweat and sexual pleasure.

"You haven't been resisting for too long," Amber smiled triumphantly.

Maya opened her mouth and blurted out a few curses, but when Rose slid her fingers in the slave's anus again, her words immediately turned into moans of pleasure.

Maya felt dizzy. The pleasure taking over her body was so strong it was frightening. Intense orgasm spread throughout her enhanced body filling all of her nooks and crannies.

Rose's eyes gleamed with satisfaction.

Amber was going to change Maya in a wild, full of sexual energy animal. Wesler advised her to proceed with a special hormone treatment that would give the girl even more sexual lust and hunger, but also increase her aggression. The doctor warned that hormones had to be handled with extreme caution, because they could dramatically change human behavior.

Maya noticed the effects of the treatment after a few days. Her already increased libido reached even bigger levels. More and more often the slave felt pleasurable throbbing between her legs. She also fantasized about sex and her sensitive holes demanded more attention than usual.

Sometimes she felt grateful that Rose came up with new ways of bringing her to orgasm. Maya penetrated her latex covered pussy on a daily basis, caressing her sensitive clit and playing with bigger and bigger toys.

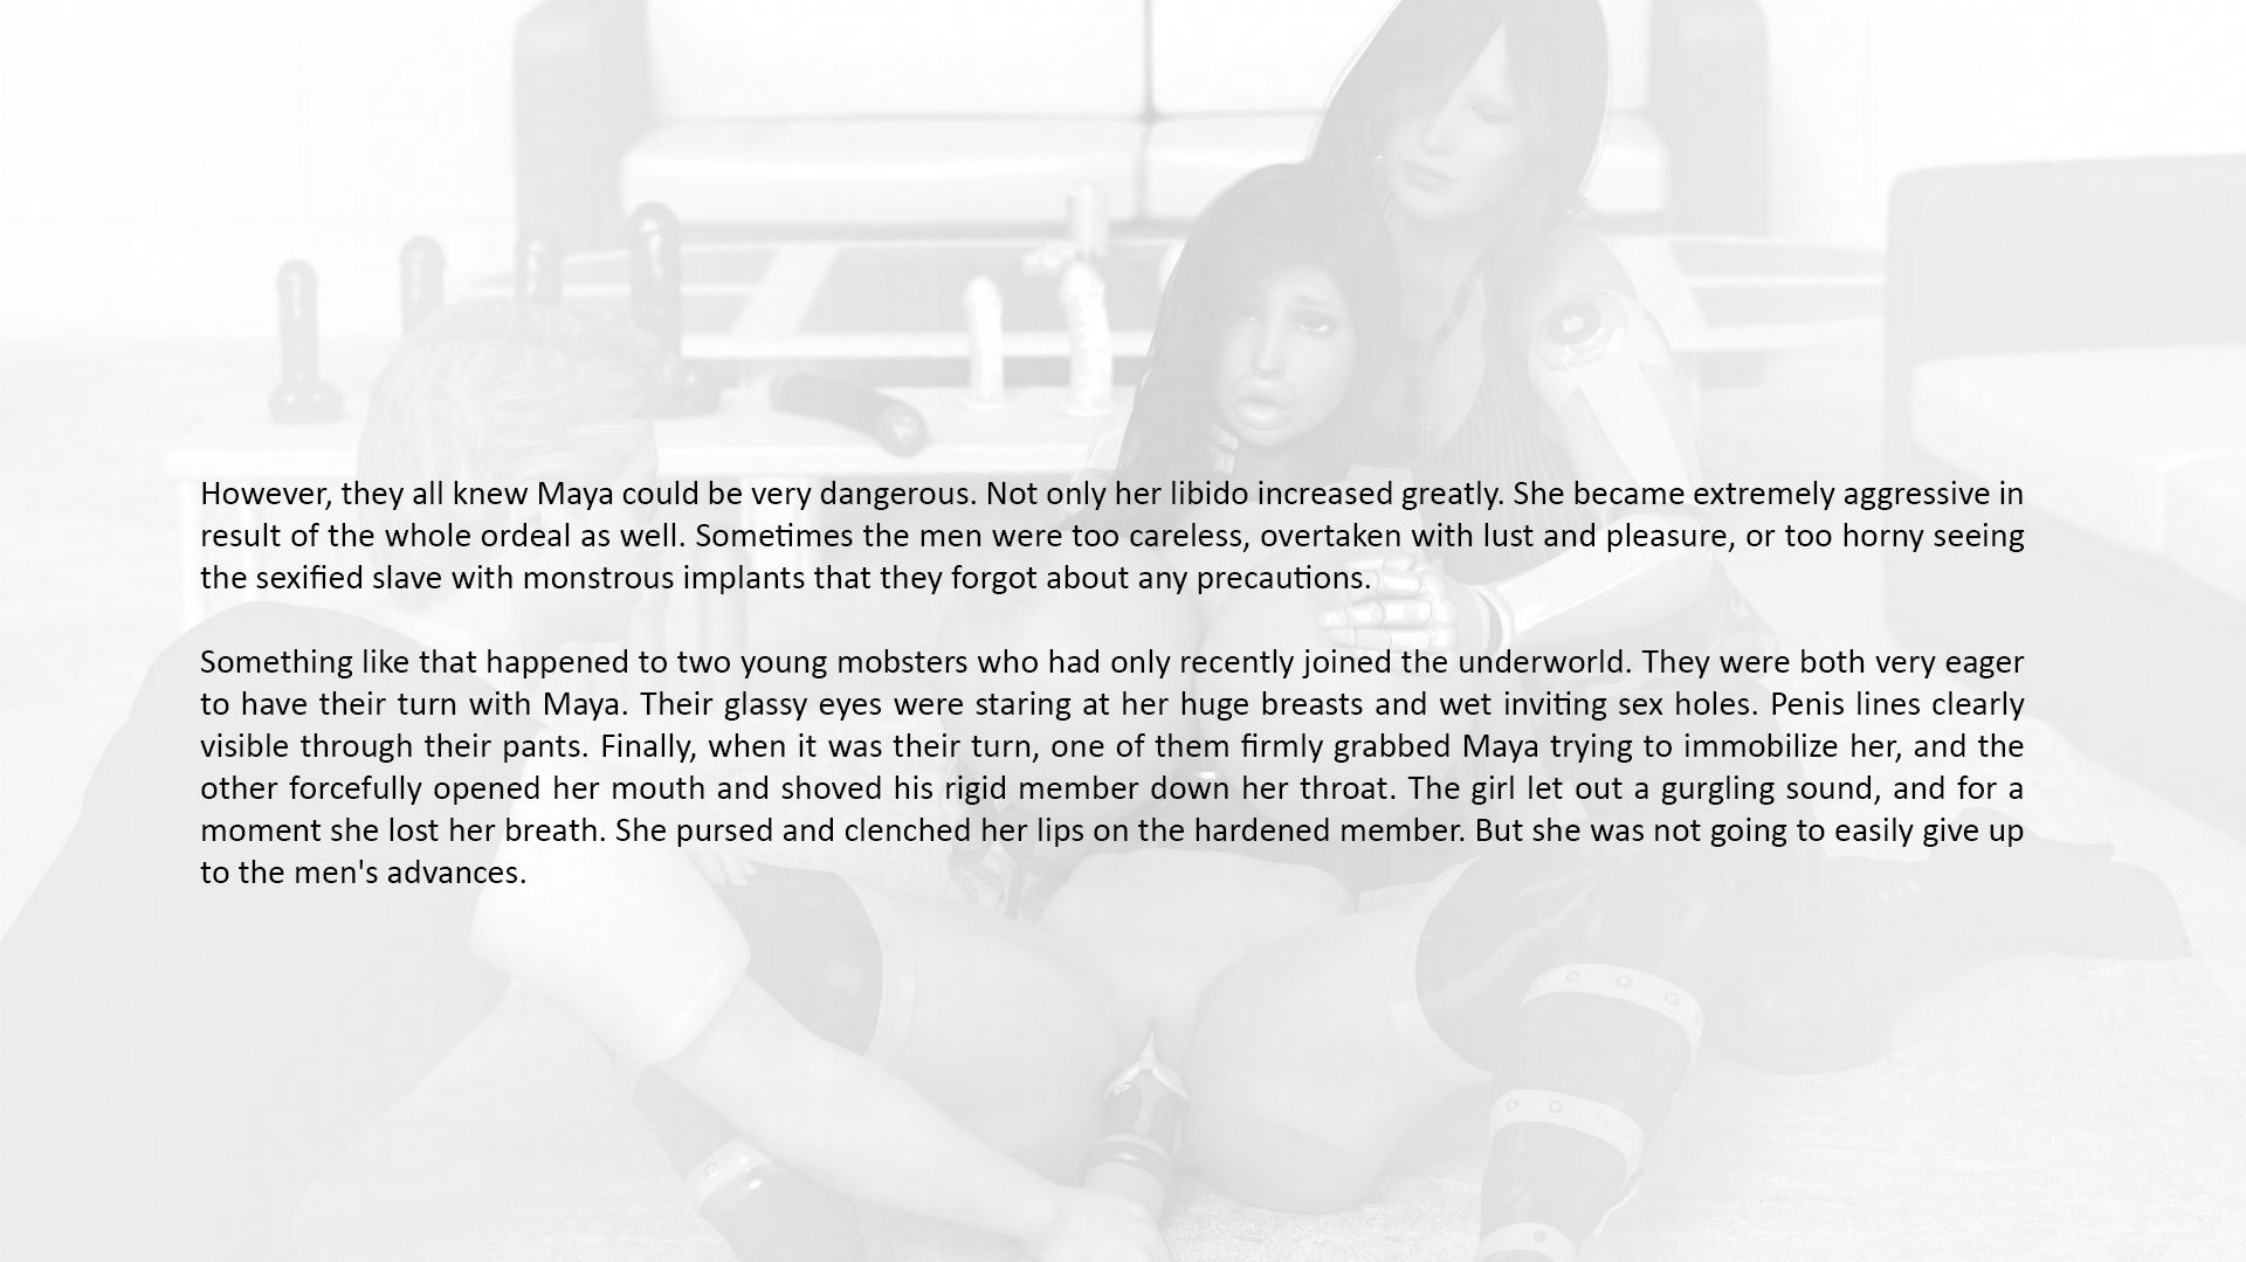

She was furious, but first and foremost incredibly horny. These two, somehow contradictory feelings were constantly fighting inside her. When anger dominated her thoughts and body, the girl would fight and defend herself with all her strength. When the enhanced excitement took over, she immersed themselves totally in sex. Nothing else mattered.

Rose was not going to stop Maya's training. Anyone who wanted to could have sex with her slave. Gangsters fucked the girl in all the ways one could imagine. Her enhanced sex holes were extremely pleasant for their cocks, so there was always a long queue of willing and hard members waiting to be satisfied.

However, they all knew Maya could be very dangerous. Not only her libido increased greatly. She became extremely aggressive in result of the whole ordeal as well. Sometimes the men were too careless, overtaken with lust and pleasure, or too horny seeing the sexified slave with monstrous implants that they forgot about any precautions.

Something like that happened to two young mobsters who had only recently joined the underworld. They were both very eager to have their turn with Maya. Their glassy eyes were staring at her huge breasts and wet inviting sex holes. Penis lines clearly visible through their pants. Finally, when it was their turn, one of them firmly grabbed Maya trying to immobilize her, and the other forcefully opened her mouth and shoved his rigid member down her throat. The girl let out a gurgling sound, and for a moment she lost her breath. She pursed and clenched her lips on the hardened member. But she was not going to easily give up to the men's advances.

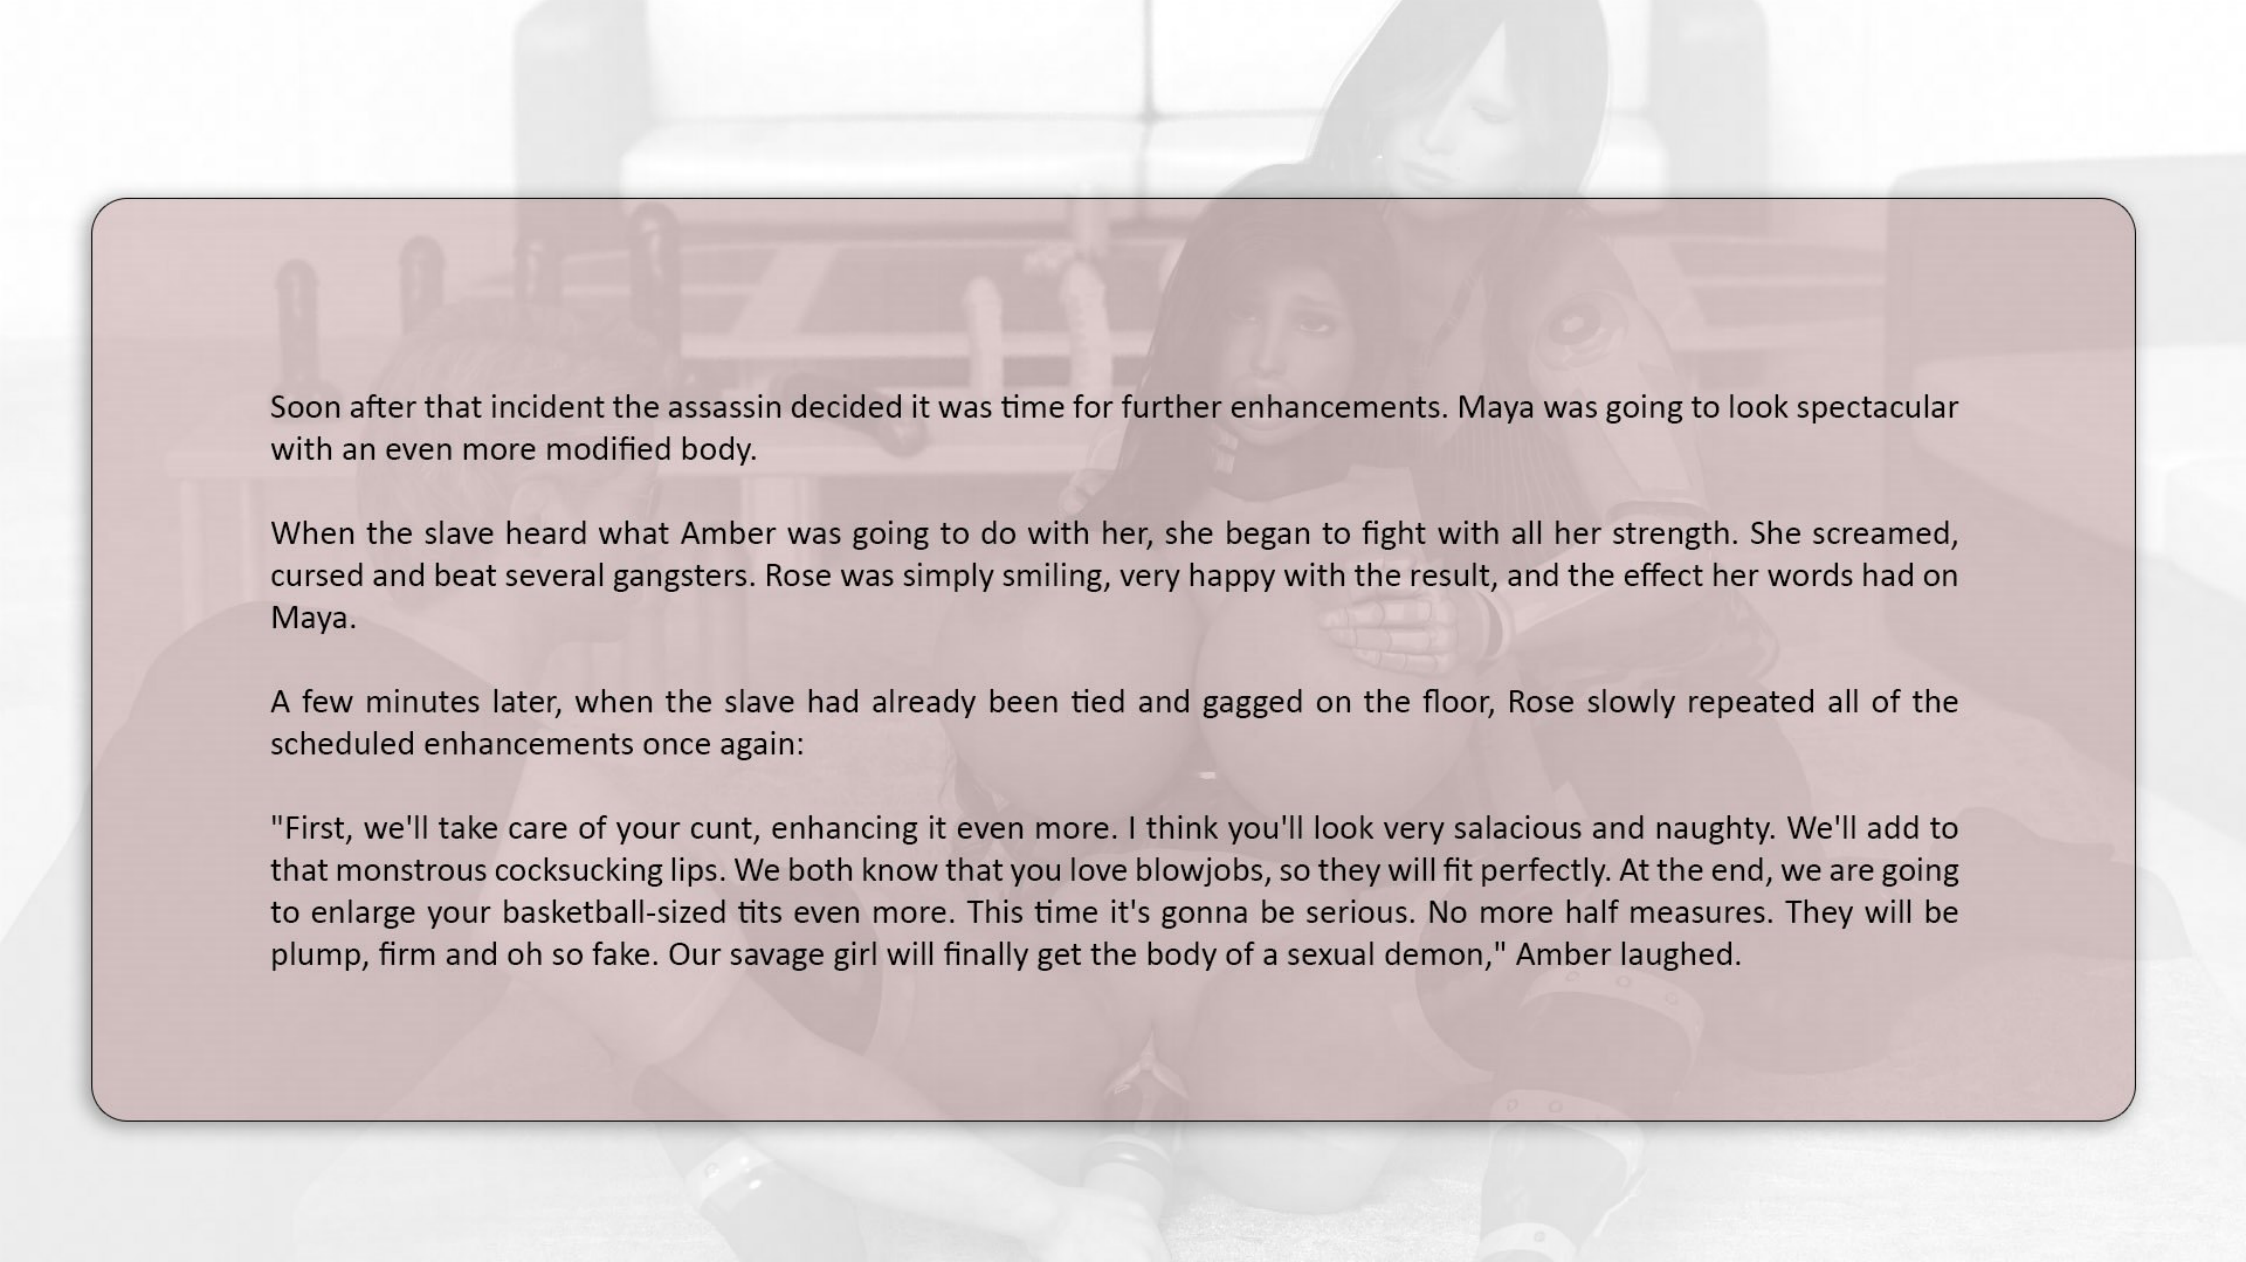

She jerked, tightened all of her muscles and suddenly escaped from the grip. One of the men got kicked in the jaw and lost consciousness. Everyone around froze, terrified. Someone grabbed his gun, many people turned their eyes to Amber, who was clearly amused with the whole scene. Maya shrieked and lunged at the second man who just seconds ago had his penis between her lips. She knocked him to the ground and swiftly sat on his fully erect cock. Then she started moving her hips quickly and uncontrollably, effectively pinning the man to the ground. Her eyes started moving rapidly and she clenched her hands on the man's shoulders. Her round breasts bounced and her muscles danced under the skin.

The other man regained consciousness, rubbed his jaw and kept staring with his mouth wide-open at Maya fucking his pal frantically. He quickly shook off the initial confusion, approached the couple in front of him and slid his cock in the other of the girl's specified fuck holes. It was pleasantly smooth to slide in, very flexible and radiating with lustful heat. Maya moved wildly, screaming in pleasure and seemed to have completely lost control of herself. In moments of extremely intense pleasure she was biting the men and slapping them hard across their faces. However, she still wanted more and more sex.

Amber could not hide her smile. Hormonal treatment worked perfectly. Maya changed into a wild beast, an animal to tame, and that was what Rose had always wanted.

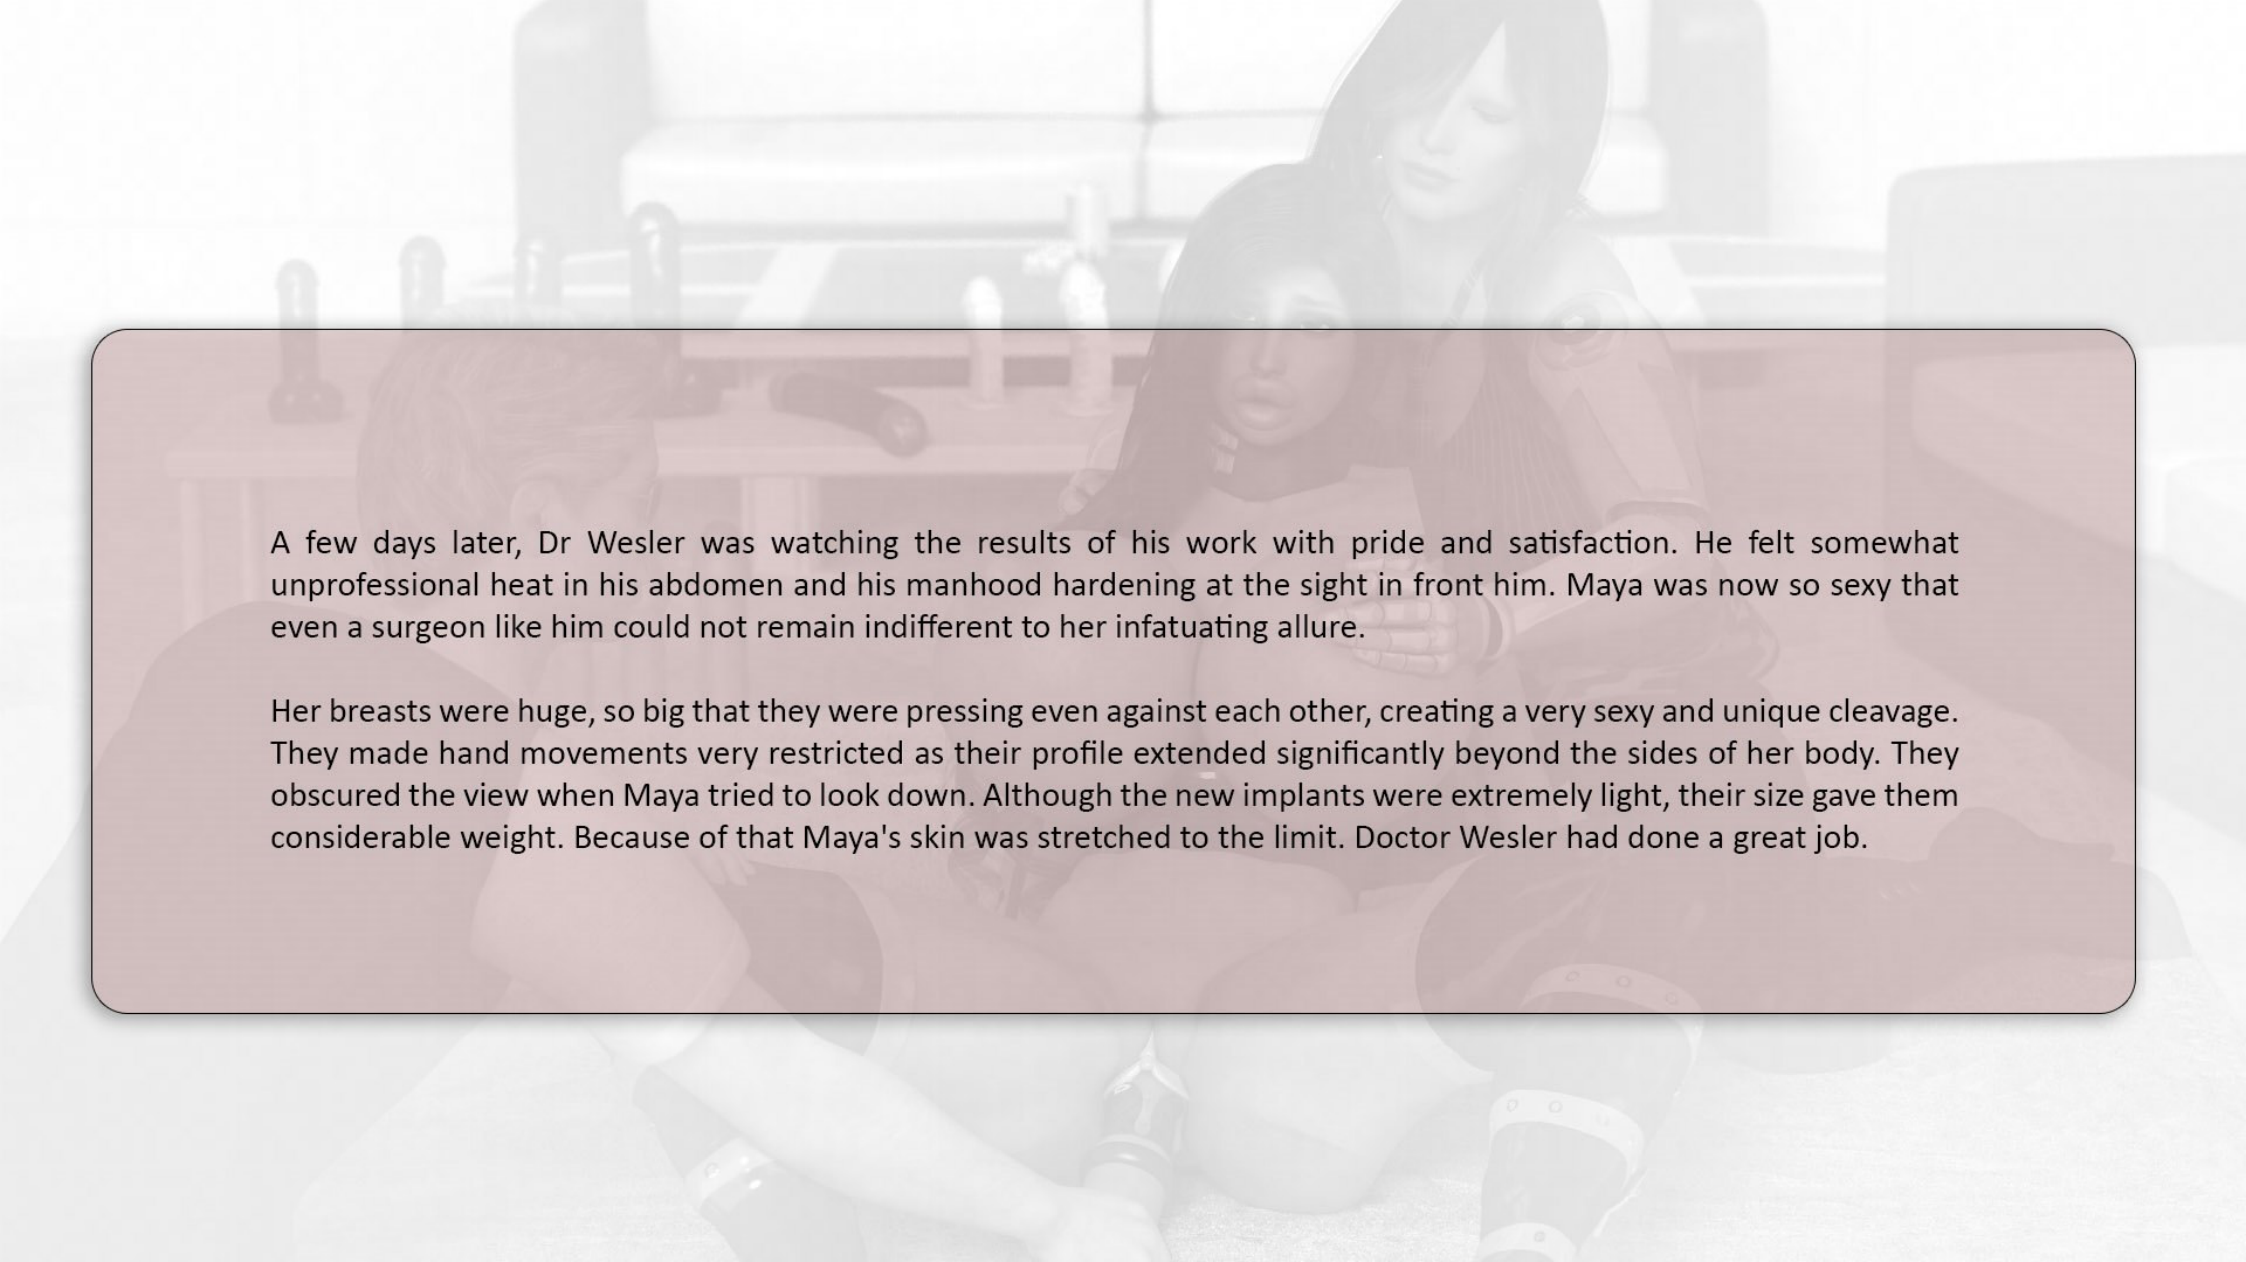

Soon after that incident the assassin decided it was time for further enhancements. Maya was going to look spectacular with an even more modified body.

When the slave heard what Amber was going to do with her, she began to fight with all her strength. She screamed, cursed and beat several gangsters. Rose was simply smiling, very happy with the result, and the effect her words had on Maya.

A few minutes later, when the slave had already been tied and gagged on the floor, Rose slowly repeated all of the scheduled enhancements once again:

"First, we'll take care of your cunt, enhancing it even more. I think you'll look very salacious and naughty. We'll add to that monstrous cocksucking lips. We both know that you love blowjobs, so they will fit perfectly. At the end, we are going to enlarge your basketball-sized tits even more. This time it's gonna be serious. No more half measures. They will be plump, firm and oh so fake. Our savage girl will finally get the body of a sexual demon," Amber laughed.

A few days later, Dr Wesler was watching the results of his work with pride and satisfaction. He felt somewhat unprofessional heat in his abdomen and his manhood hardening at the sight in front him. Maya was now so sexy that even a surgeon like him could not remain indifferent to her infatuating allure.

Her breasts were huge, so big that they were pressing even against each other, creating a very sexy and unique cleavage. They made hand movements very restricted as their profile extended significantly beyond the sides of her body. They obscured the view when Maya tried to look down. Although the new implants were extremely light, their size gave them considerable weight. Because of that Maya's skin was stretched to the limit. Doctor Wesler had done a great job.

There were also other changes that gave his patient a very vulgar, provocative look - voluminous lips dominating her face, arranged naturally in a slightly parted, infatuating way. They were like one big shiny invitation for cocks and pussies. Wesler realized she would need some extra time to get used to them.

Maya's genital had become even larger. Bright color of her latex orifices immediately drew attention. Pussy flakes were sticking out between her legs, the enlarged clitoris had become permanently swollen. Maya's anus had been modified and formed in a magnificent perfectly round and smooth circle of seductive lust.

Wesler also continued hormonal treatment, so the girl was extremely horny, she really had a lot of energy and stamina as a result. Anger was still struggling with the constant need to fuck. The girl was more and more like a wild tigress, full of passions, strength and lustful instincts.

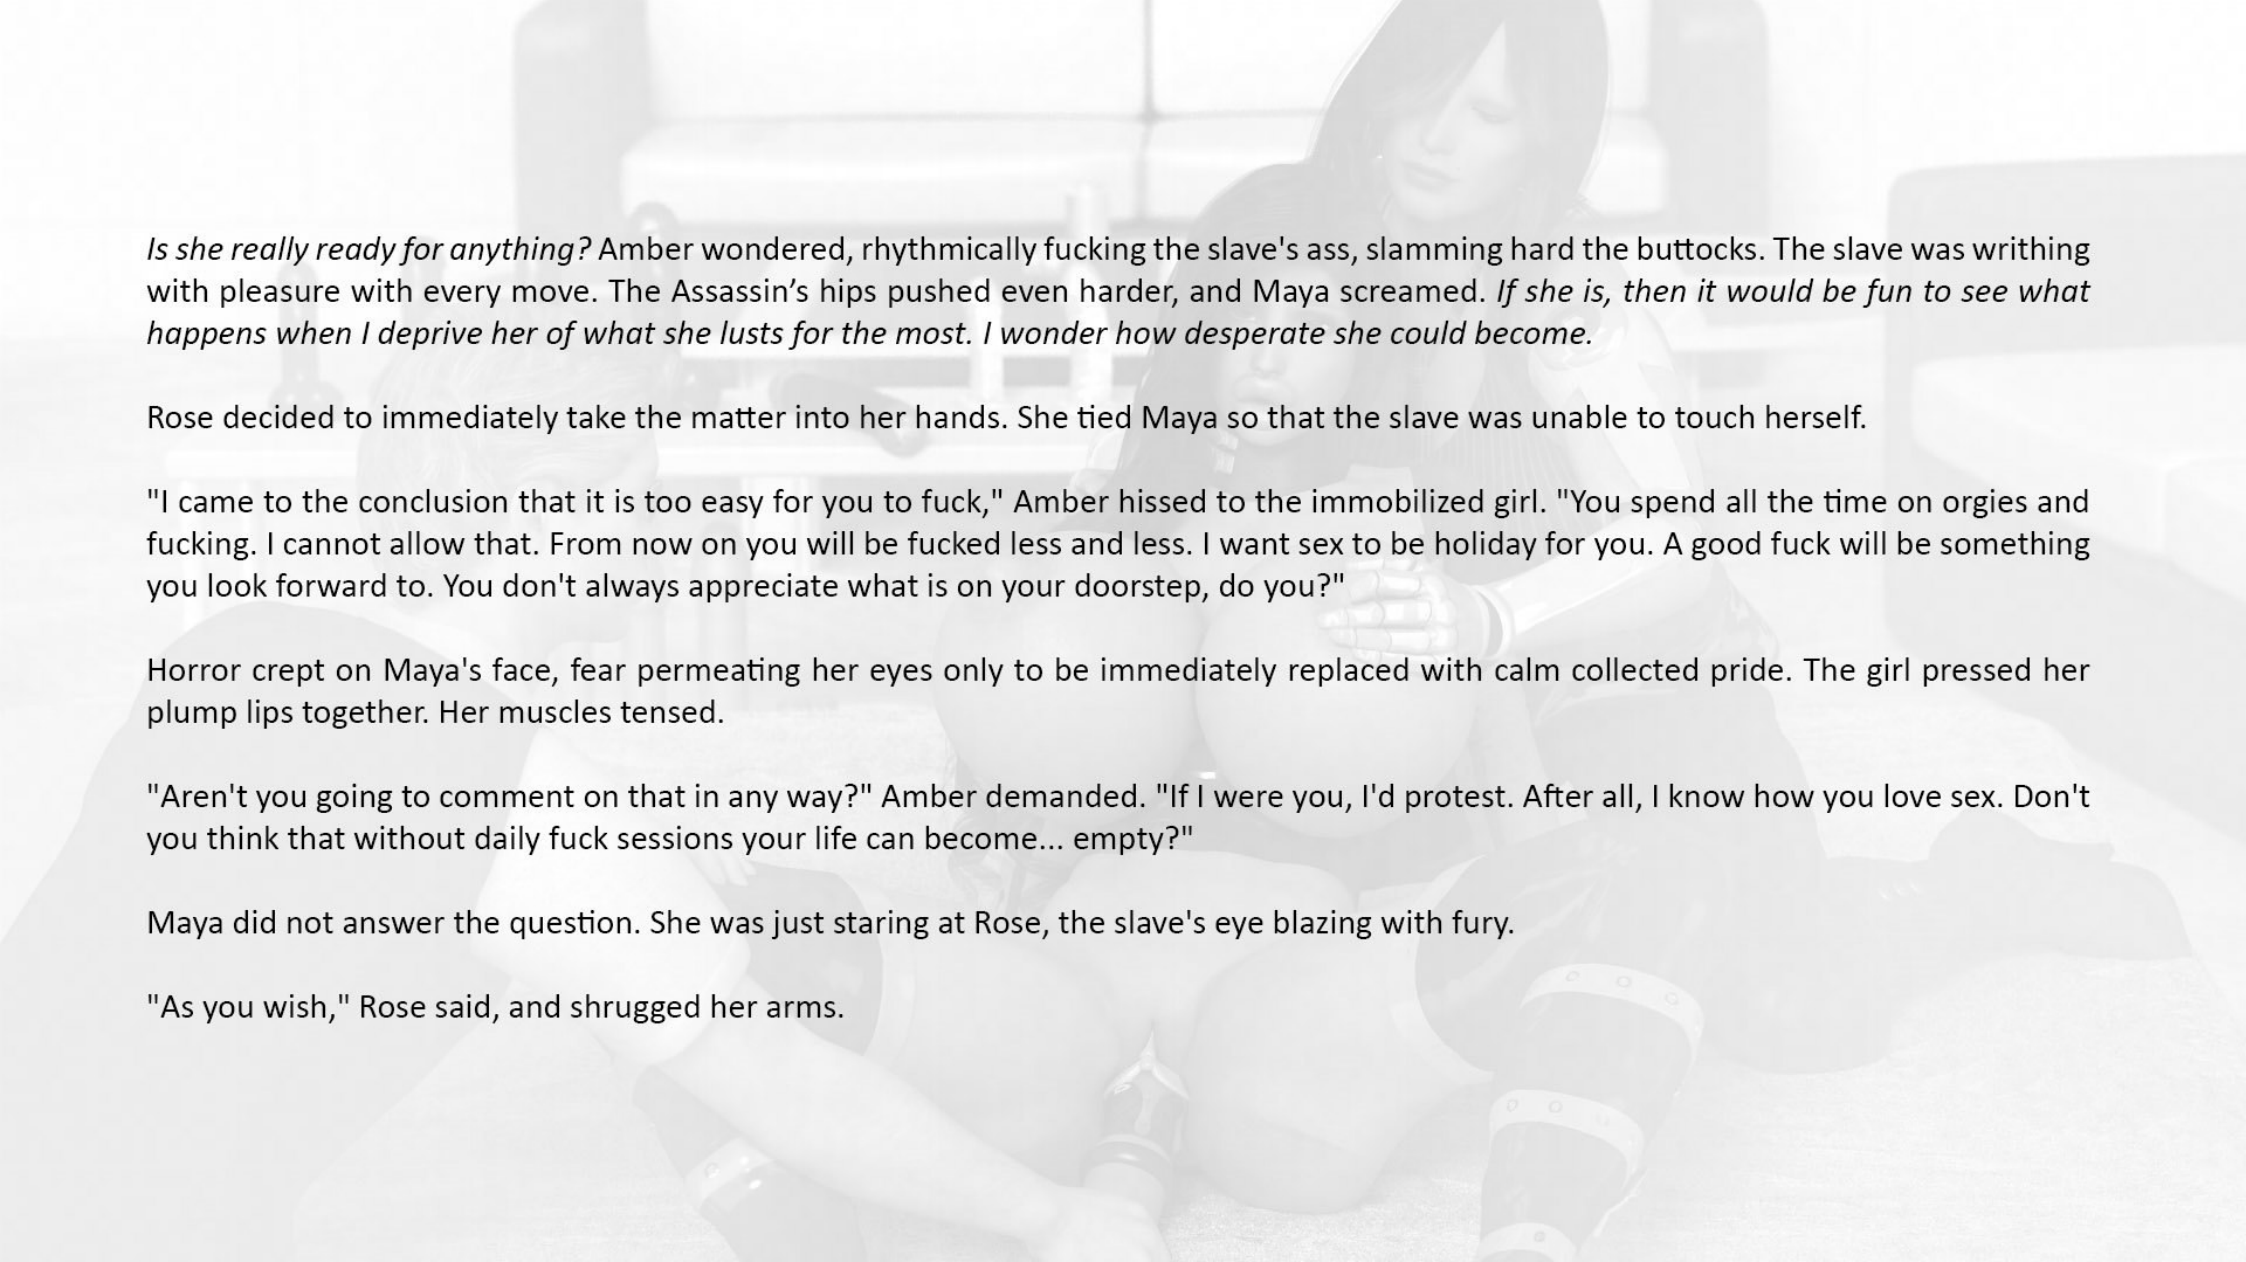

Once Maya fully recovered, Rose resumed her training sessions. The gangsters returned to playing with the girl's modified body with even more enthusiasm and excitement. Despite endless orgies and constant fucking, Kaiser still feel totally horny. She had a lot of energy, so when she was fucked she screamed loudly and rapidly moved her hips, needing to immediately experience as great sexual pleasure as possible. When there was no one to fuck her, she'd masturbate enthusiastically.

Amber regularly fucked the girl with the strap-on. It was her favorite relaxation. Maya's enthusiasm was amazing, all the time she needed more and more and it was very hard to wear her out. The slave's modified sex holes were extremely fixed and firm and even constant fucking could not do them any harm. Kaiser became a machine to fuck, perpetually unsatisfied and ready to do anything to get her pleasure.

Is she really ready for anything? Amber wondered, rhythmically fucking the slave's ass, slamming hard the buttocks. The slave was writhing with pleasure with every move. The Assassin's hips pushed even harder, and Maya screamed. If she is, then it would be fun to see what happens when I deprive her of what she lusts for the most. I wonder how desperate she could become.

Rose decided to immediately take the matter into her hands. She tied Maya so that the slave was unable to touch herself.

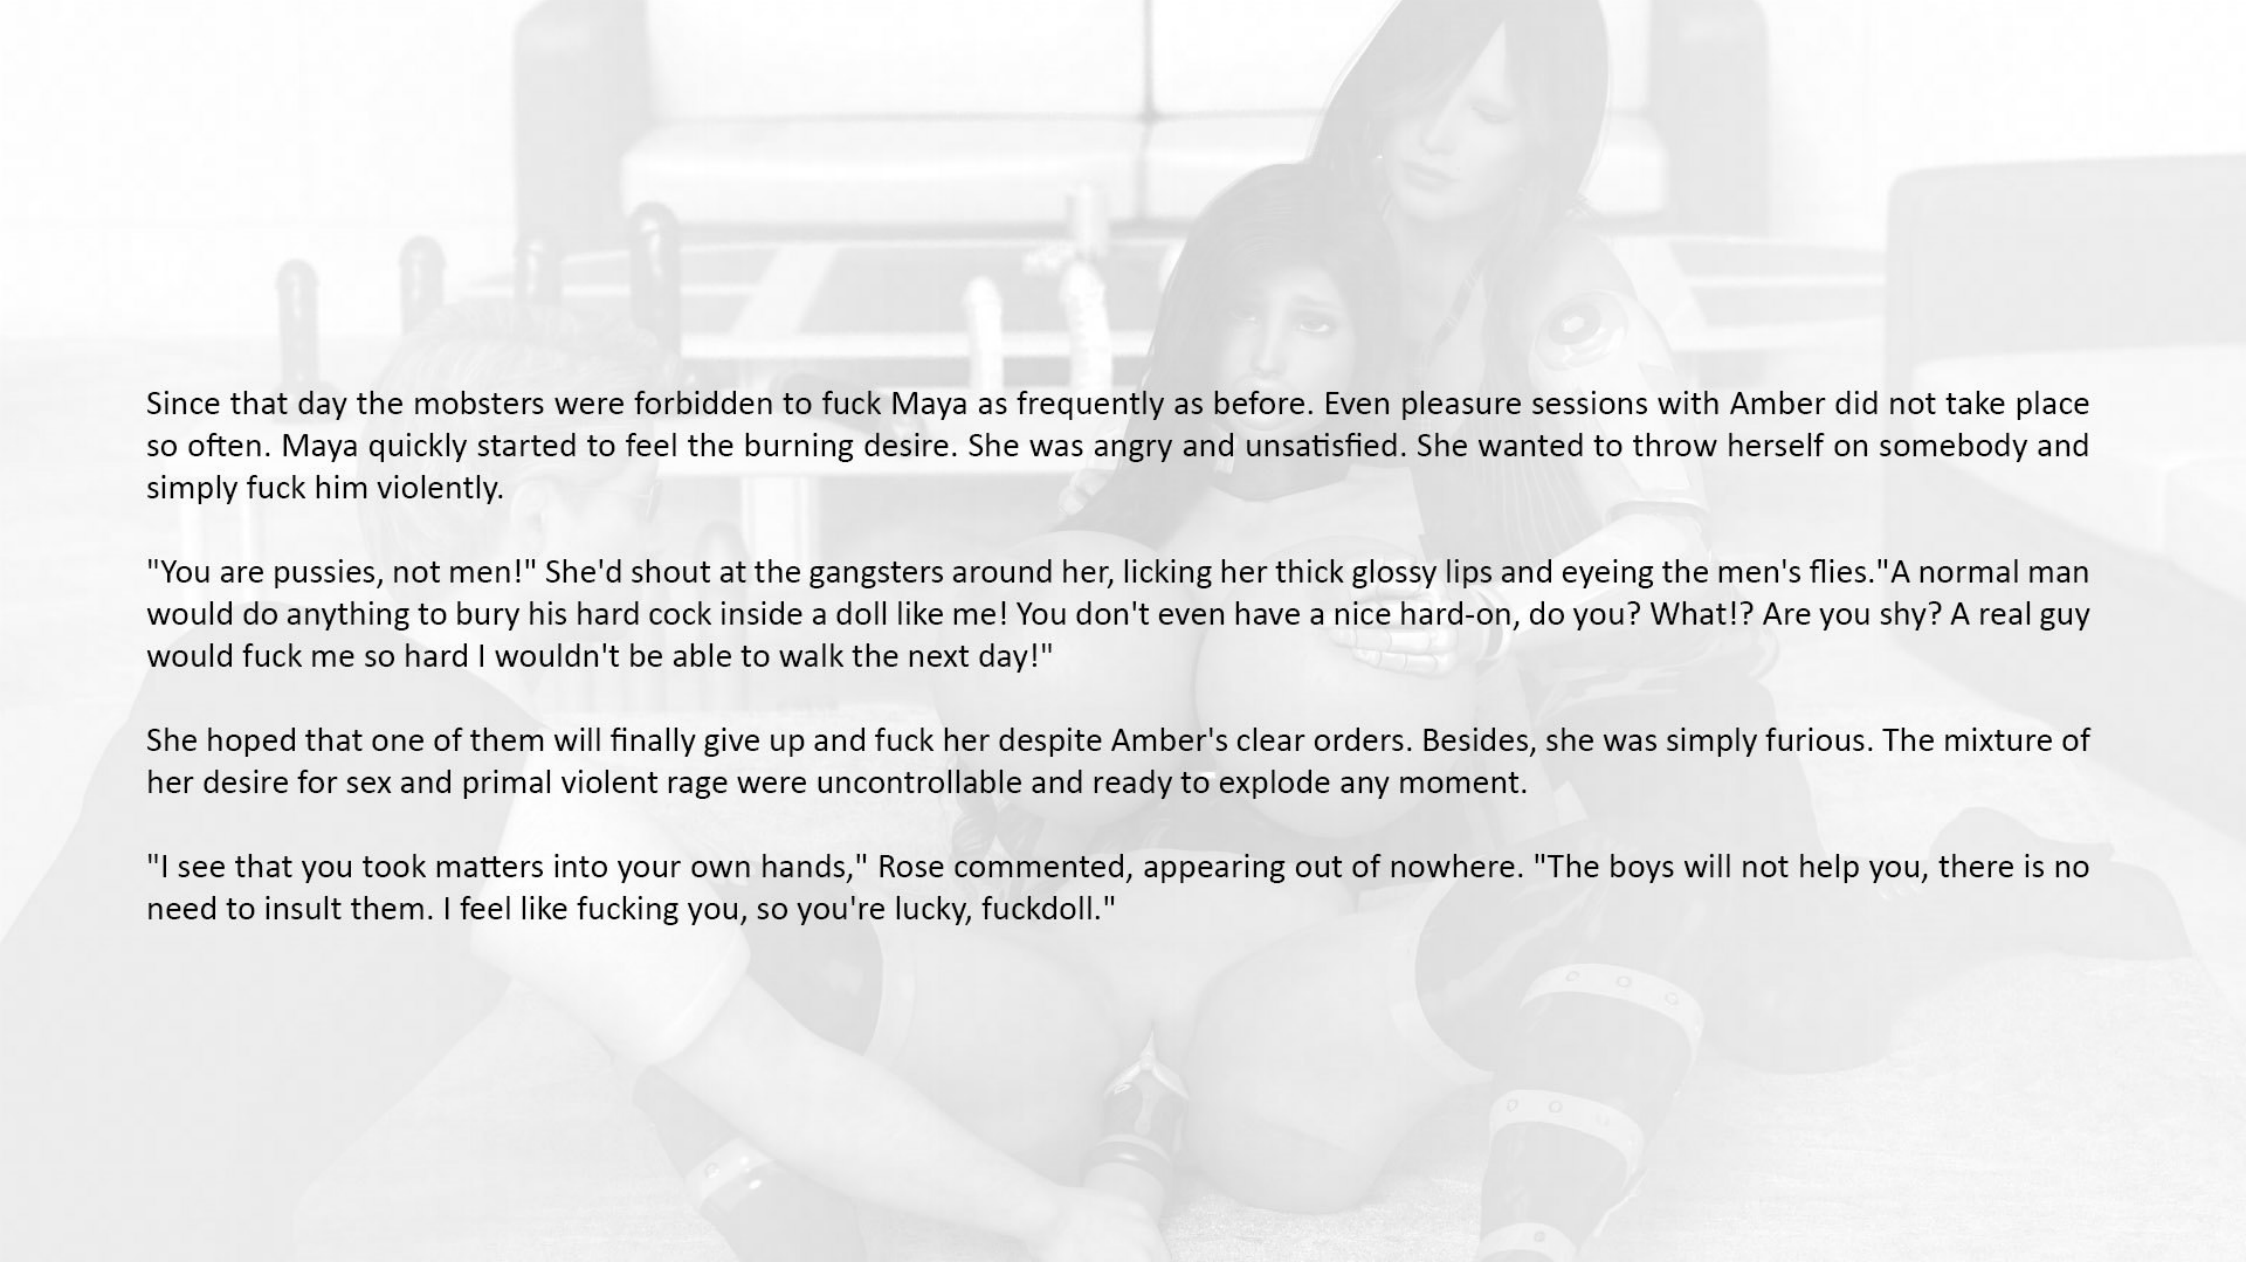

"I came to the conclusion that it is too easy for you to fuck," Amber hissed to the immobilized girl. "You spend all the time on orgies and fucking. I cannot allow that. From now on you will be fucked less and less. I want sex to be holiday for you. A good fuck will be something you look forward to. You don't always appreciate what is on your doorstep, do you?"

Horror crept on Maya's face, fear permeating her eyes only to be immediately replaced with calm collected pride. The girl pressed her plump lips together. Her muscles tensed.

"Aren't you going to comment on that in any way?" Amber demanded. "If I were you, I'd protest. After all, I know how you love sex. Don't you think that without daily fuck sessions your life can become... empty?"

Maya did not answer the question. She was just staring at Rose, the slave's eye blazing with fury.

"As you wish," Rose said, and shrugged her arms.

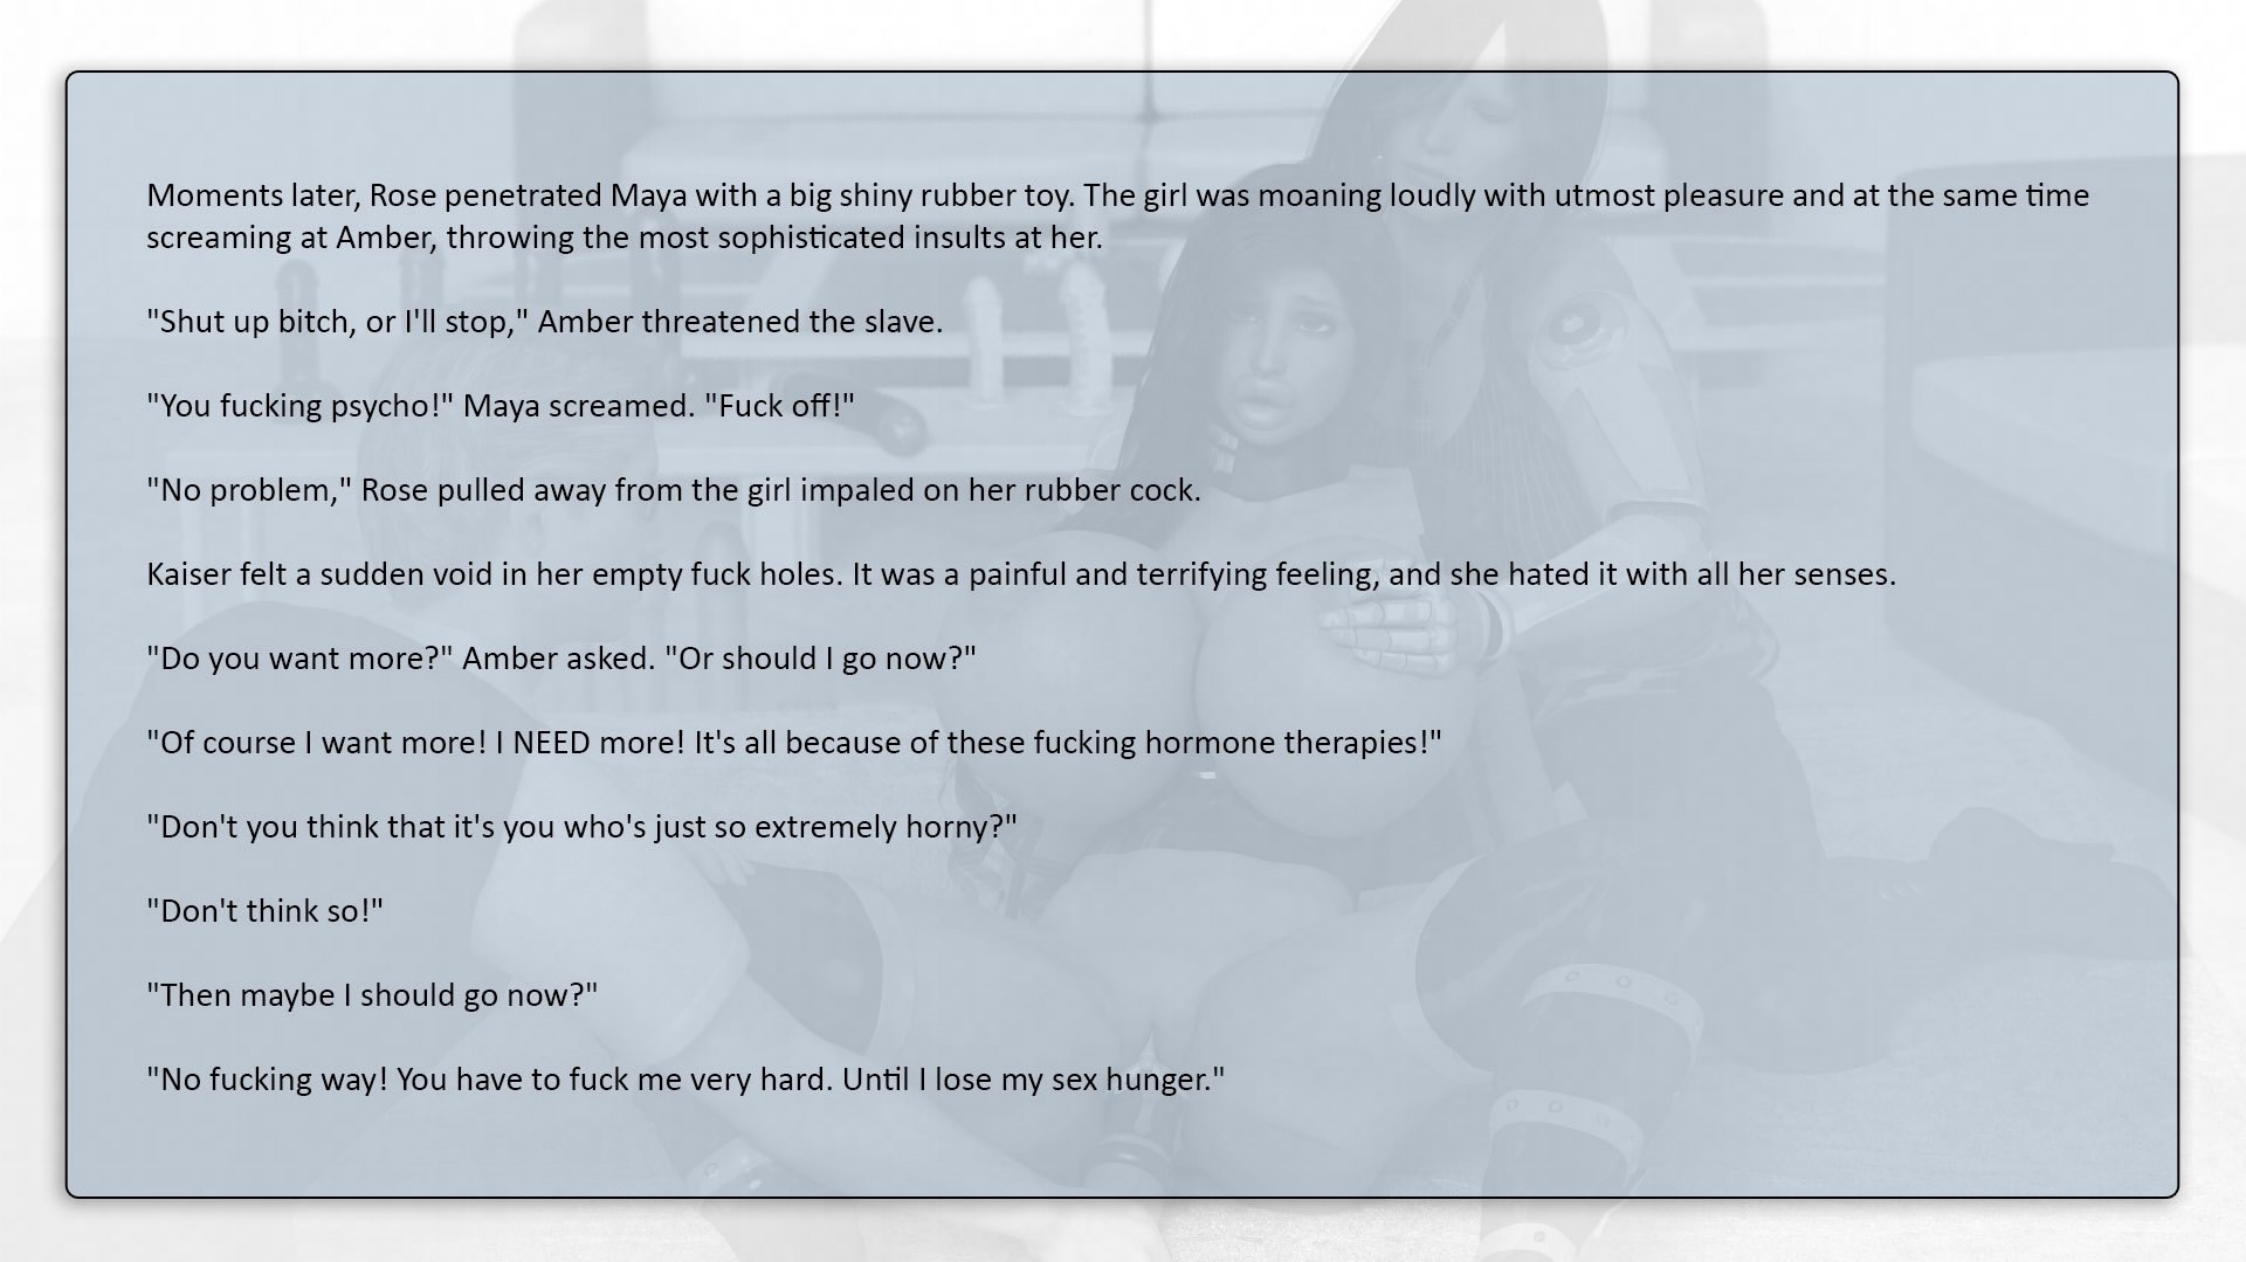

Since that day the mobsters were forbidden to fuck Maya as frequently as before. Even pleasure sessions with Amber did not take place so often. Maya quickly started to feel the burning desire. She was angry and unsatisfied. She wanted to throw herself on somebody and simply fuck him violently.

"You are pussies, not men!" She'd shout at the gangsters around her, licking her thick glossy lips and eyeing the men's flies. "A normal man would do anything to bury his hard cock inside a doll like me! You don't even have a nice hard-on, do you? What!? Are you shy? A real guy would fuck me so hard I wouldn't be able to walk the next day!"

She hoped that one of them will finally give up and fuck her despite Amber's clear orders. Besides, she was simply furious. The mixture of her desire for sex and primal violent rage were uncontrollable and ready to explode any moment.

"I see that you took matters into your own hands," Rose commented, appearing out of nowhere. "The boys will not help you, there is no need to insult them. I feel like fucking you, so you're lucky, fuckdoll."

Moments later, Rose penetrated Maya with a big shiny rubber toy. The girl was moaning loudly with utmost pleasure and at the same time screaming at Amber, throwing the most sophisticated insults at her.

"Shut up bitch, or I'll stop," Amber threatened the slave.

"You fucking psycho!" Maya screamed. "Fuck off!"

"No problem," Rose pulled away from the girl impaled on her rubber cock.

Kaiser felt a sudden void in her empty fuck holes. It was a painful and terrifying feeling, and she hated it with all her senses.

"Do you want more?" Amber asked. "Or should I go now?"

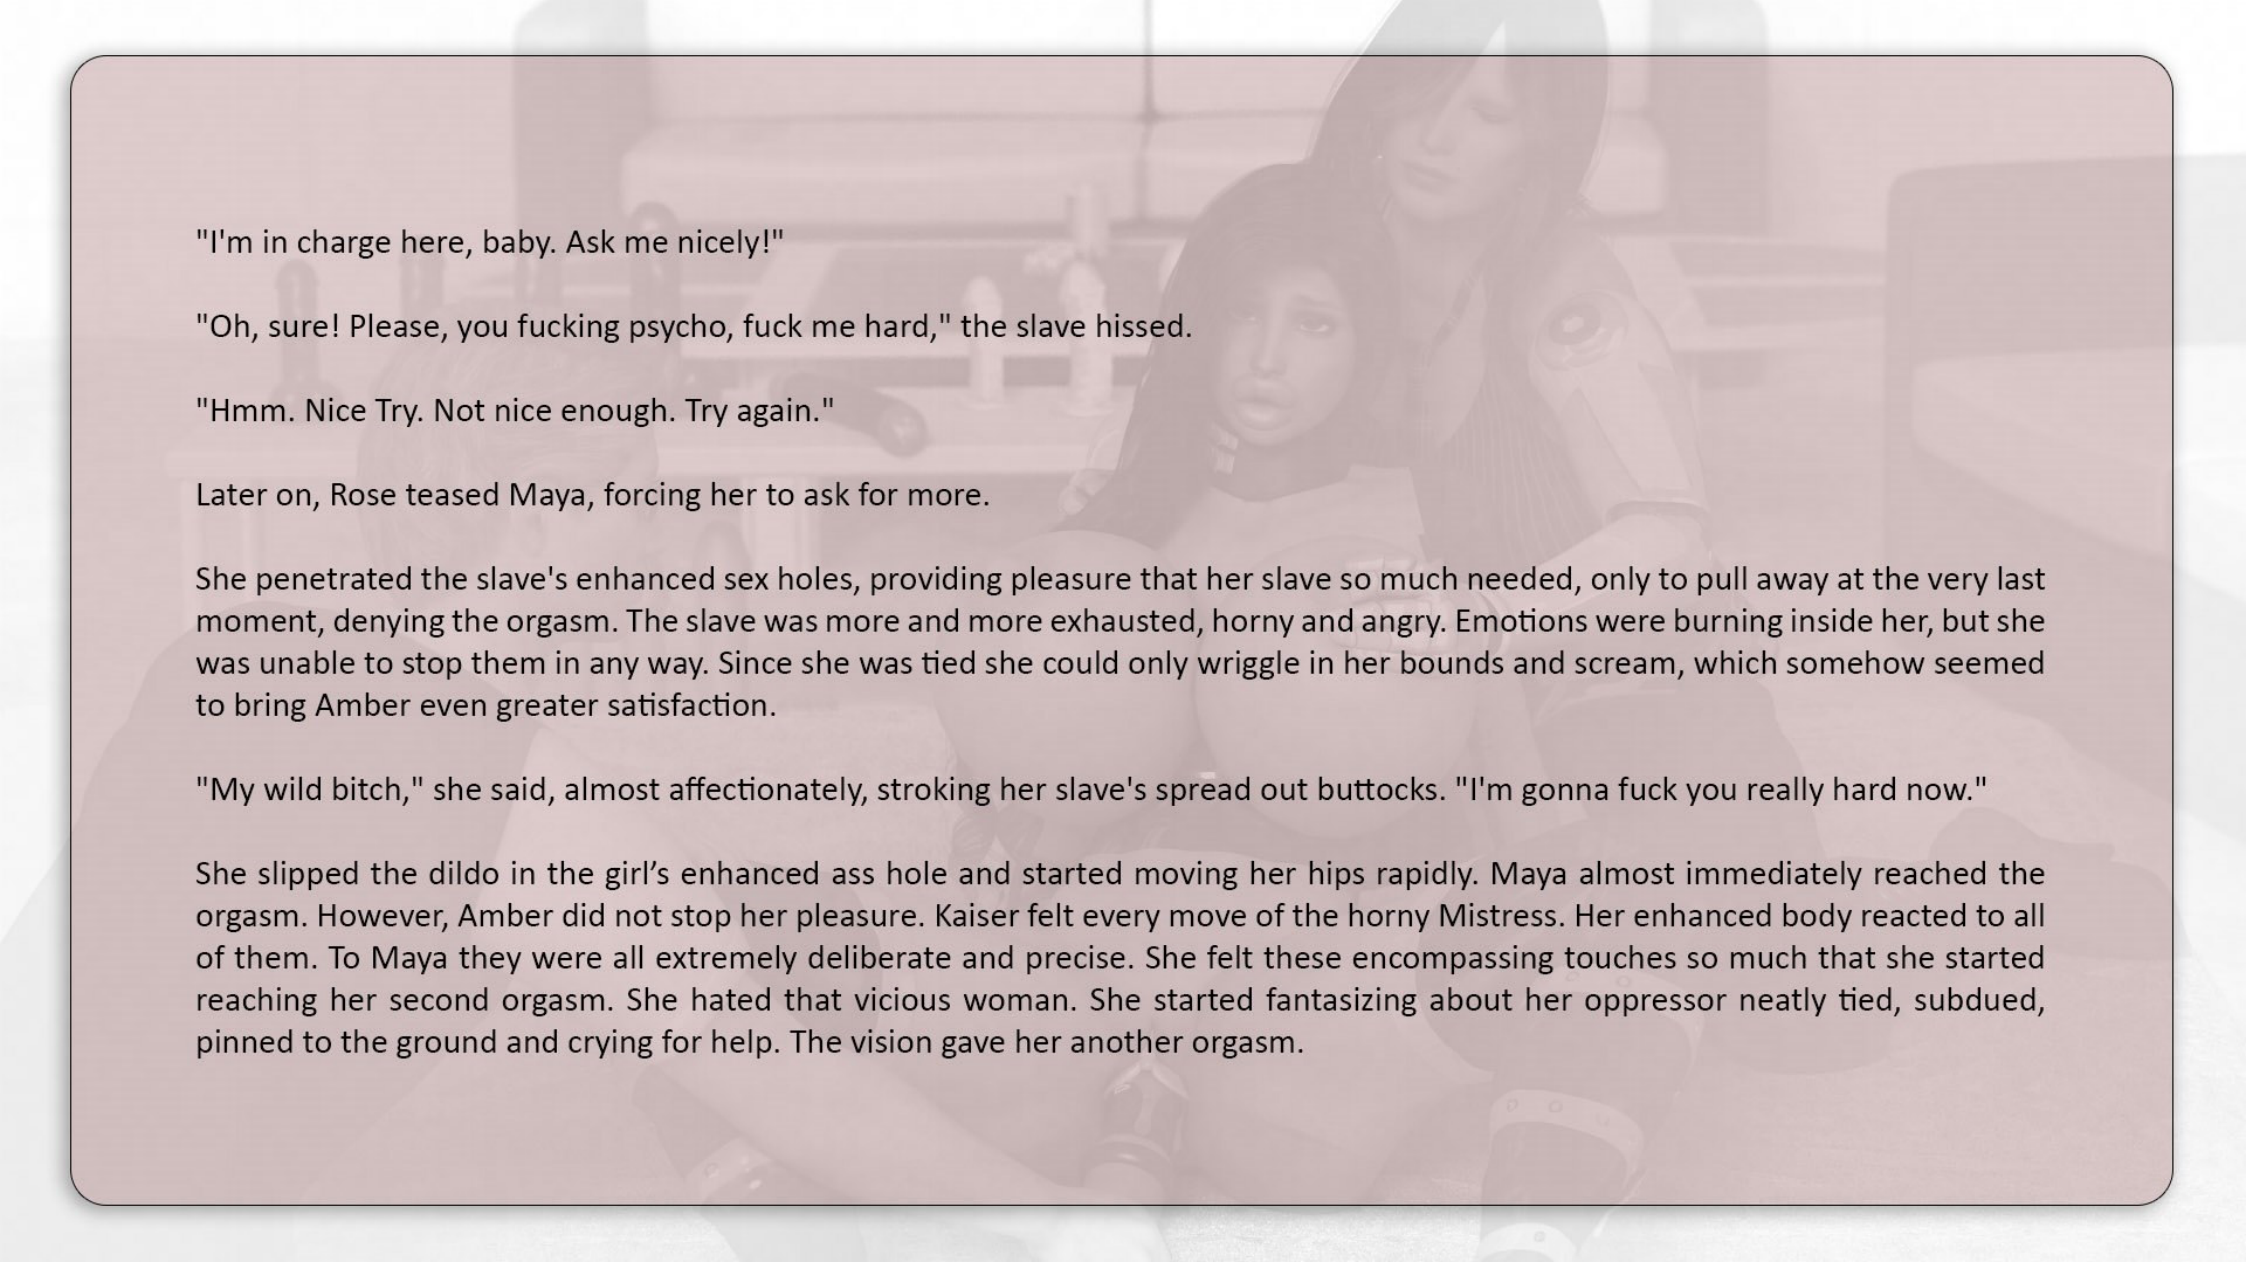

"Of course I want more! I NEED more! It's all because of these fucking hormone therapies!"

"Don't you think that it's you who's just so extremely horny?"

"Don't think so!"

"Then maybe I should go now?"

"No fucking way! You have to fuck me very hard. Until I lose my sex hunger."

"I'm in charge here, baby. Ask me nicely!"

"Oh, sure! Please, you fucking psycho, fuck me hard," the slave hissed.

"Hmm. Nice Try. Not nice enough. Try again."

Later on, Rose teased Maya, forcing her to ask for more.

She penetrated the slave's enhanced sex holes, providing pleasure that her slave so much needed, only to pull away at the very last moment, denying the orgasm. The slave was more and more exhausted, horny and angry. Emotions were burning inside her, but she was unable to stop them in any way. Since she was tied she could only wriggle in her bounds and scream, which somehow seemed to bring Amber even greater satisfaction.

"My wild bitch," she said, almost affectionately, stroking her slave's spread out buttocks. "I'm gonna fuck you really hard now."

She slipped the dildo in the girl's enhanced ass hole and started moving her hips rapidly. Maya almost immediately reached the orgasm. However, Amber did not stop her pleasure. Kaiser felt every move of the horny Mistress. Her enhanced body reacted to all of them. To Maya they were all extremely deliberate and precise. She felt these encompassing touches so much that she started reaching her second orgasm. She hated that vicious woman. She started fantasizing about her oppressor neatly tied, subdued, pinned to the ground and crying for help. The vision gave her another orgasm.

Rose was not the one to let it go. If Maya craved sex so desperately, her Mistress was going to basically shove it inside her, fuck the woman in her enhanced sex holes until she passes out senseless.

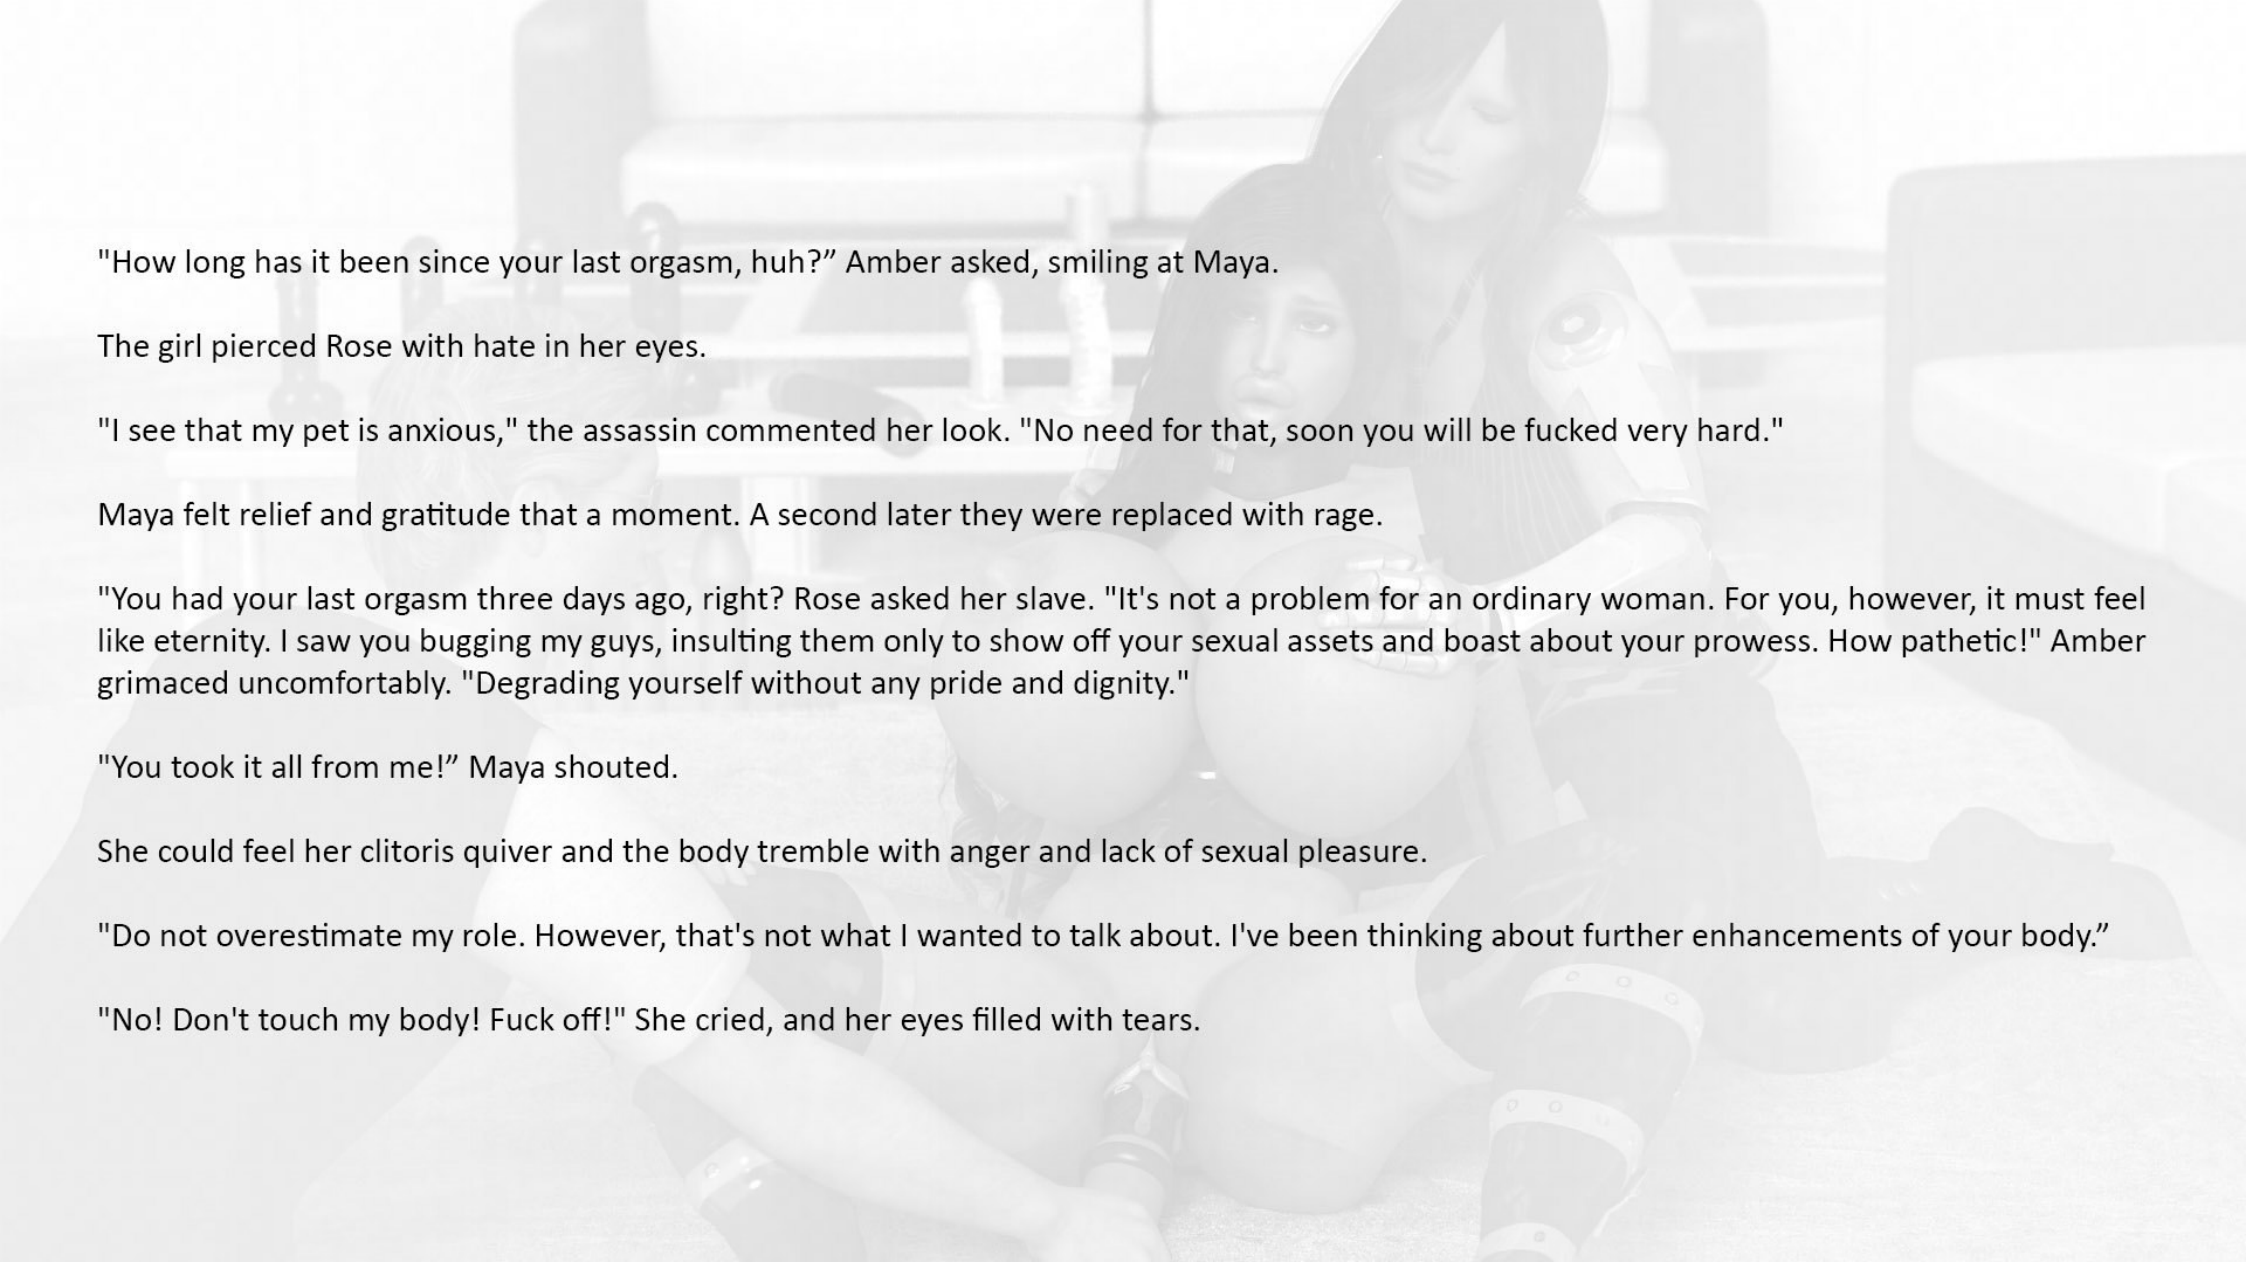

Maya reached her third powerful orgasm and felt it almost satisfied her initial lustful desire. The tension in her body, however, began building up again and another orgasm was needed to take the edge off her sex-permeated body and mind. Amber put her hand between the slave's legs, caressed Maya's pussy and rubbed her latex-covered clitoris. Animal moans escaped Maya's thick lips when she climaxed once again.

After some time, Amber became bored with fucking Maya. Still, she was not going to leave the girl all to herself. She called a few willing mobsters, who took turns fucking Maya's sex holes. The girl was getting extremely exhausted, her body was covered with sweat, and her muscles were trembling with fatigue. She went weak at the knees. Therefore, she shyly asked to be released, but no one paid the slightest attention to her words. In the end, despite her extraordinary stamina, she collapsed.

Similar situations repeated many times afterwards. Amber mercilessly toyed with her slave, using Maya's weakest spot - her unbridled libido. The girl struggled with the lack of fucking and her unsatisfied sexual hunger.

"How long has it been since your last orgasm, huh?" Amber asked, smiling at Maya.

The girl pierced Rose with hate in her eyes.

"I see that my pet is anxious," the assassin commented her look. "No need for that, soon you will be fucked very hard."

Maya felt relief and gratitude that a moment. A second later they were replaced with rage.

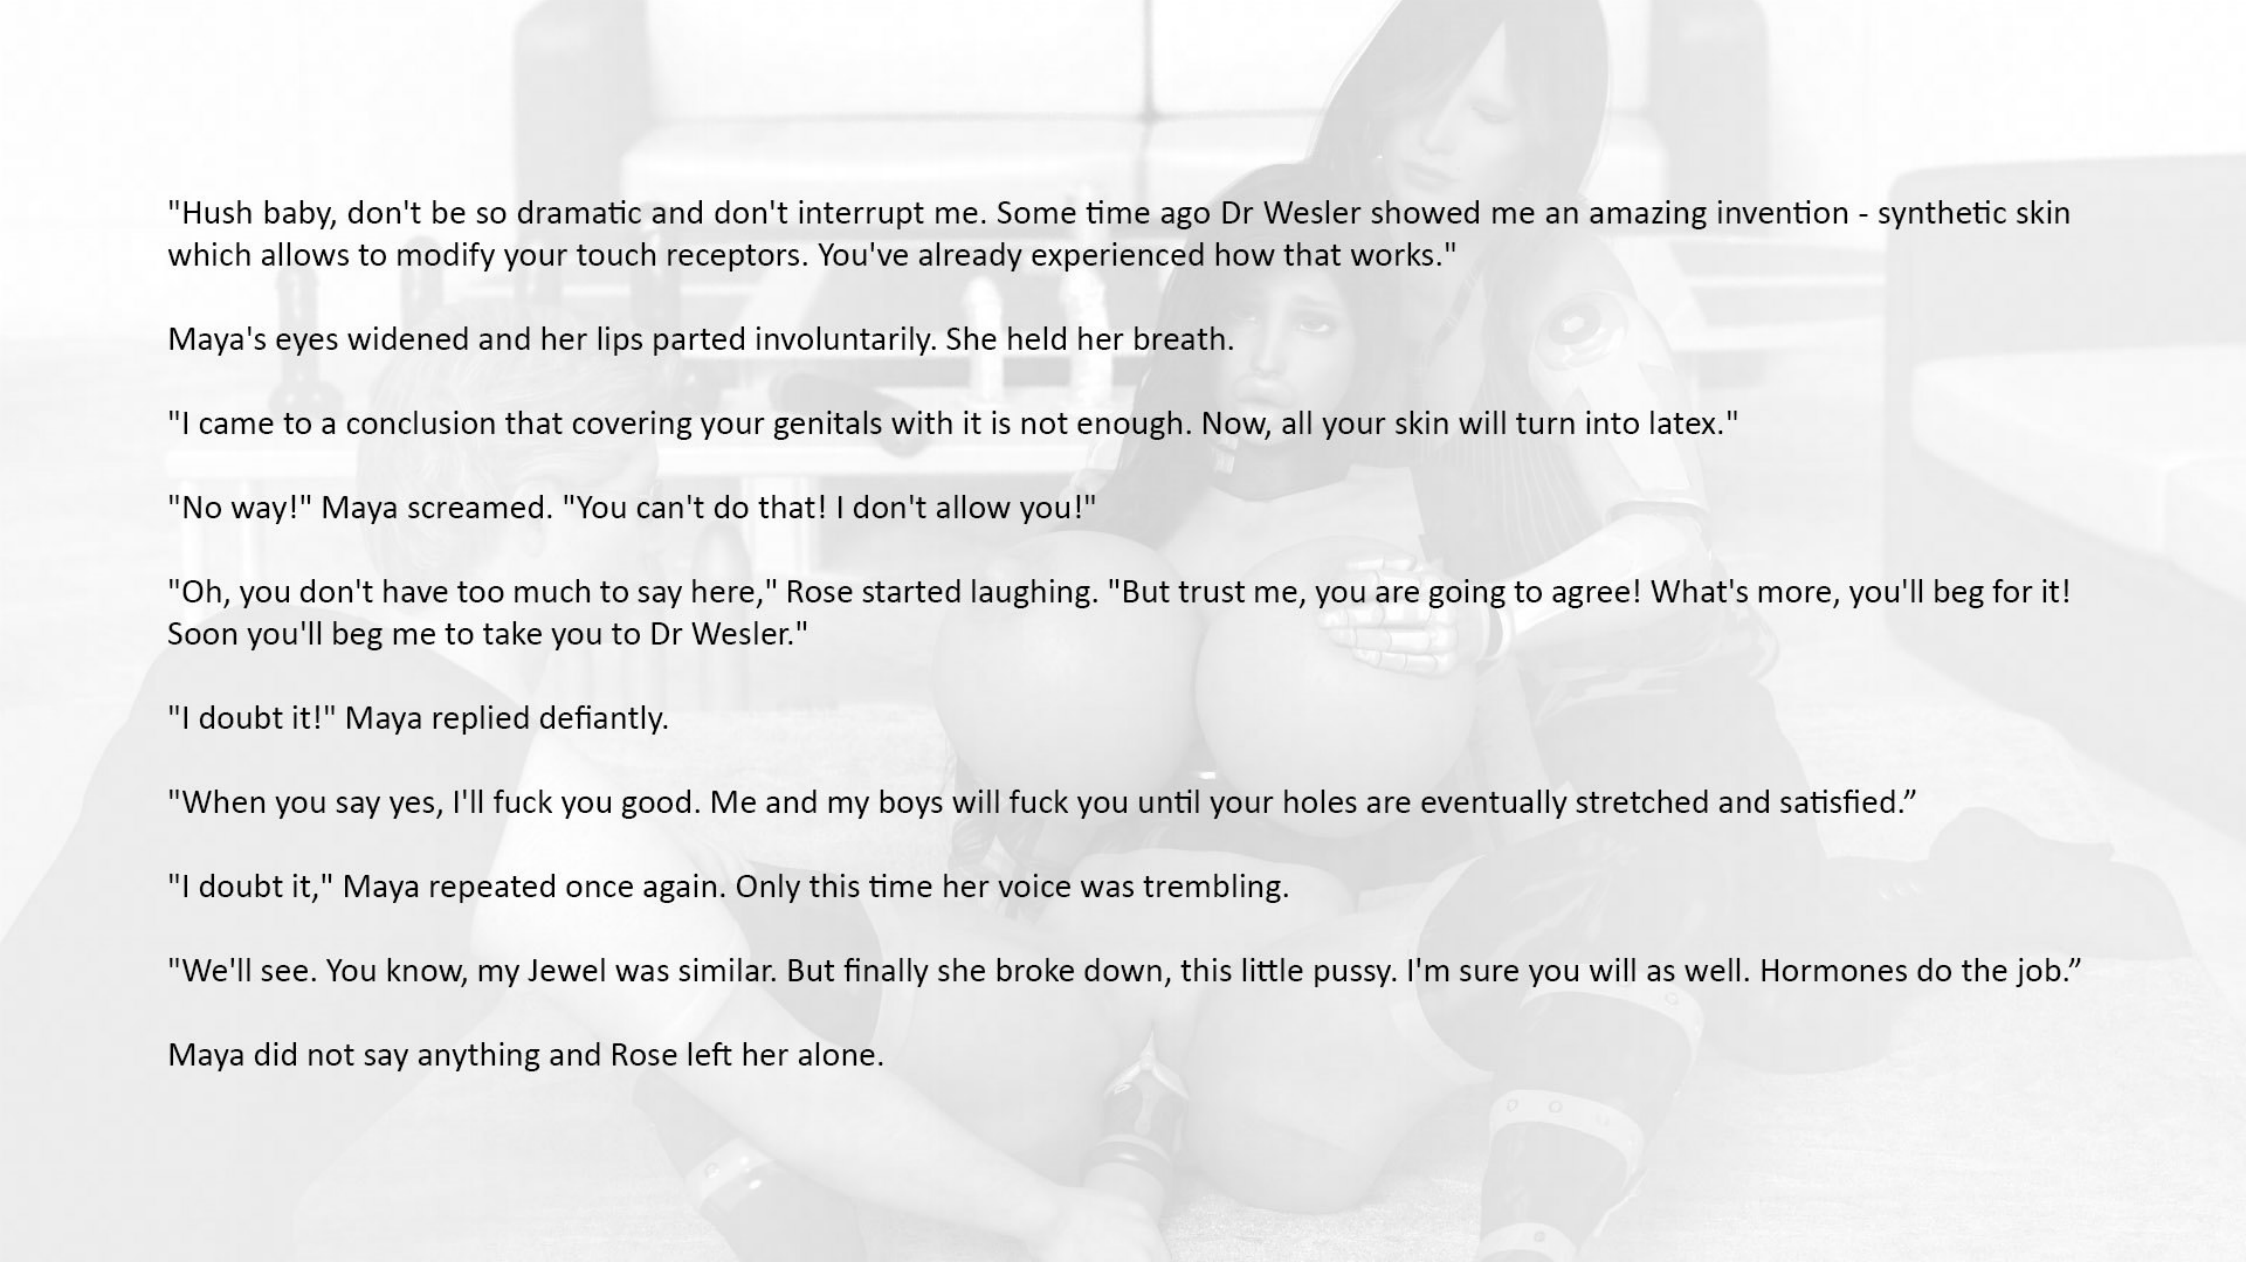

"You had your last orgasm three days ago, right? Rose asked her slave. "It's not a problem for an ordinary woman. For you, however, it must feel like eternity. I saw you bugging my guys, insulting them only to show off your sexual assets and boast about your prowess. How pathetic!" Amber grimaced uncomfortably. "Degrading yourself without any pride and dignity."

"You took it all from me!" Maya shouted.

She could feel her clitoris quiver and the body tremble with anger and lack of sexual pleasure.

"Do not overestimate my role. However, that's not what I wanted to talk about. I've been thinking about further enhancements of your body."

"No! Don't touch my body! Fuck off!" She cried, and her eyes filled with tears.

"Hush baby, don't be so dramatic and don't interrupt me. Some time ago Dr Wesler showed me an amazing invention - synthetic skin which allows to modify your touch receptors. You've already experienced how that works."

Maya's eyes widened and her lips parted involuntarily. She held her breath.

"I came to a conclusion that covering your genitals with it is not enough. Now, all your skin will turn into latex."

"No way!" Maya screamed. "You can't do that! I don't allow you!"

"Oh, you don't have too much to say here," Rose started laughing. "But trust me, you are going to agree! What's more, you'll beg for it! Soon you'll beg me to take you to Dr Wesler."

"I doubt it!" Maya replied defiantly.

"When you say yes, I'll fuck you good. Me and my boys will fuck you until your holes are eventually stretched and satisfied."

"I doubt it," Maya repeated once again. Only this time her voice was trembling.

"We'll see. You know, my Jewel was similar. But finally she broke down, this little pussy. I'm sure you will as well. Hormones do the job."

Maya did not say anything and Rose left her alone.

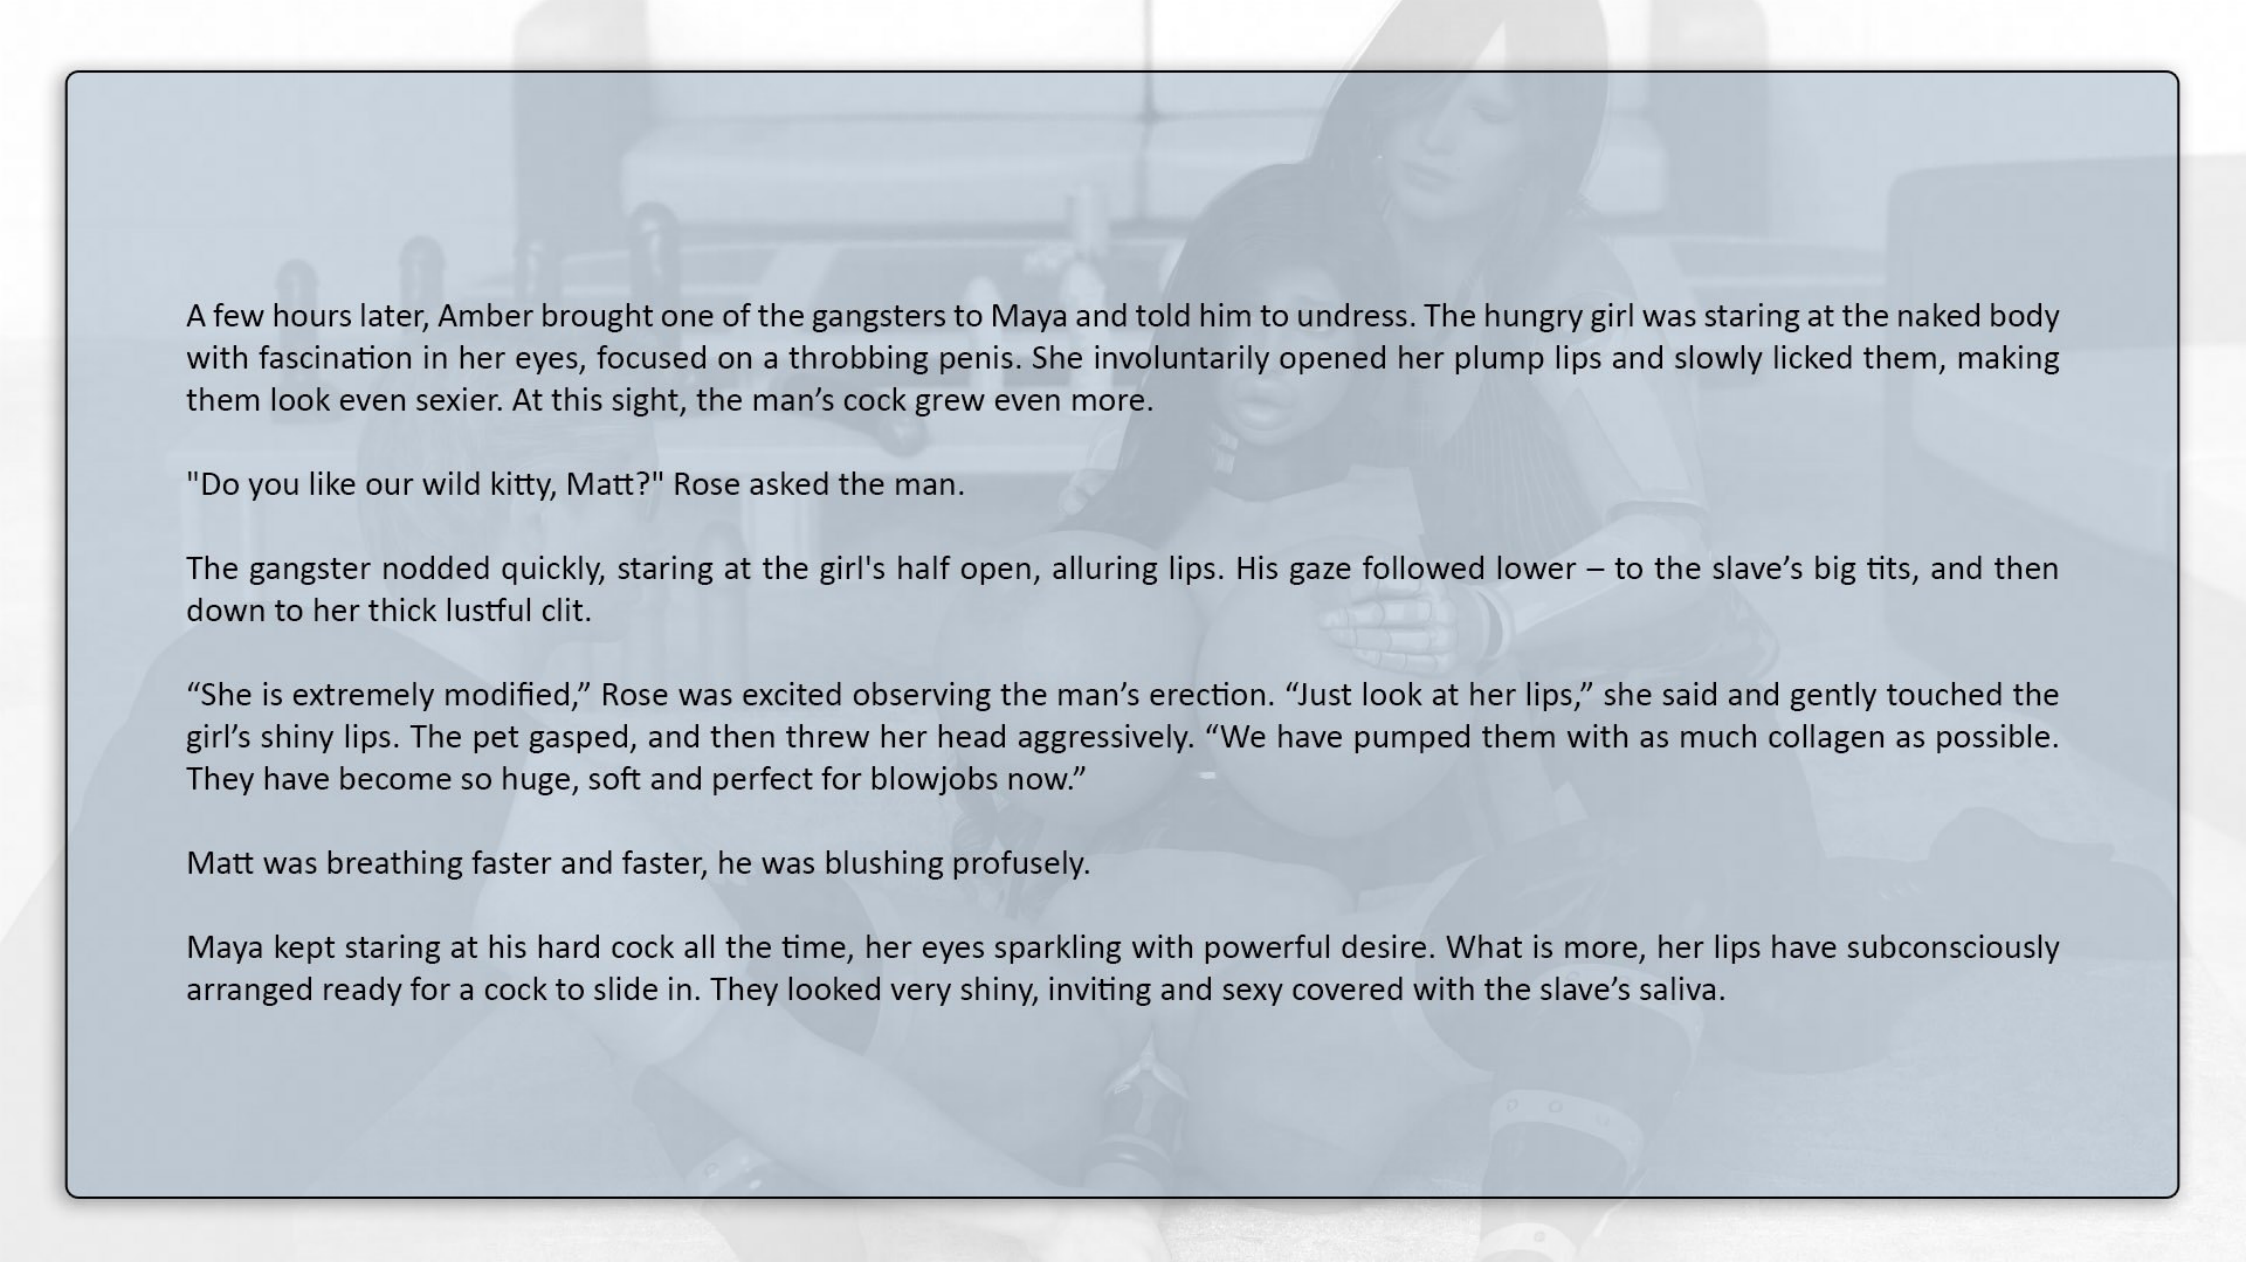

Every few hours Amber visited her slave and tormented Maya with tales of synthetic rubber skin and visions of kinky sexual orgies that await her slave whenever she asks. Maya was still resisting her, despite all the sexual tension that was increasingly difficult to bear. Her body seemed to be electrified, in heat and in need of satisfying it with an orgasm. Maya felt immense anger that made it difficult for her to think. She was afraid she was going crazy.

Slowly, her head became populated with thoughts filled with doubt. Maybe she should submit to Rose's will? What exactly did she have to lose, besides her foolish pride? Amber would do to her whatever she wanted, forcefully or not. The slave was about to give up, but when she looked up and saw Rose, who at that moment walked in and stopped in front of her slave, the first thing she saw was Rose's mocking smile, which caused her anger, so she started insulting and cursing her Mistress.

The need for sex, however, was becoming much stronger. Maya started imagining herself with her latex skin and the prospect seemed to her absolutely appalling. Her body would turn into something alien and bizarre.

However, with each passing minute, with her ever growing sexual desire and frustration, the prospect of such insane modification became less terrible in Maya's eyes. She was struggling with her ties and moaning. Extremely excited, she could feel her body sweating and eyes moving rapidly from all the accumulated arousal.

The bitch is turning me into some sort of an animal. She thought. A real wild beast.

A few hours later, Amber brought one of the gangsters to Maya and told him to undress. The hungry girl was staring at the naked body with fascination in her eyes, focused on a throbbing penis. She involuntarily opened her plump lips and slowly licked them, making them look even sexier. At this sight, the man's cock grew even more.

"Do you like our wild kitty, Matt?" Rose asked the man.

The gangster nodded quickly, staring at the girl's half open, alluring lips. His gaze followed lower – to the slave's big tits, and then down to her thick lustful clit.

"She is extremely modified," Rose was excited observing the man's erection. "Just look at her lips," she said and gently touched the girl's shiny lips. The pet gasped, and then threw her head aggressively. "We have pumped them with as much collagen as possible. They have become so huge, soft and perfect for blowjobs now."

Matt was breathing faster and faster, he was blushing profusely.

Maya kept staring at his hard cock all the time, her eyes sparkling with powerful desire. What is more, her lips have subconsciously arranged ready for a cock to slide in. They looked very shiny, inviting and sexy covered with the slave's saliva.

“She has boob implants. Very light, latest technology. They give her an exceptionally round, very fake looking shape. Despite their enormous size, they also keep her nipples high and protruding at all times. Courtesy of Dr Wesler, who as usual has created a work of art,” she said and squeezed Maya's nipple. The slave closed her eyes and shuddered with passion. “She was subjected to a special hormonal treatment, which made her constantly horny. All she can think of is sex. She looks at your penis, as if it was the greatest, most wonderful thing in the world,” she laughed.

Indeed, Maya's eyes were fixed on the man's cock, the look of extreme fascination and excitement never leaving her hot face.

"Her sexual organs have been transformed so that they would not wear out and get damaged after many hours of constant hard penetration. Besides, they are larger now and modified so that the pet felt incredible arousal with laser like precision even at the slightest touch. Just look," she said, and touched the girl's clitoris girl with one swift move.

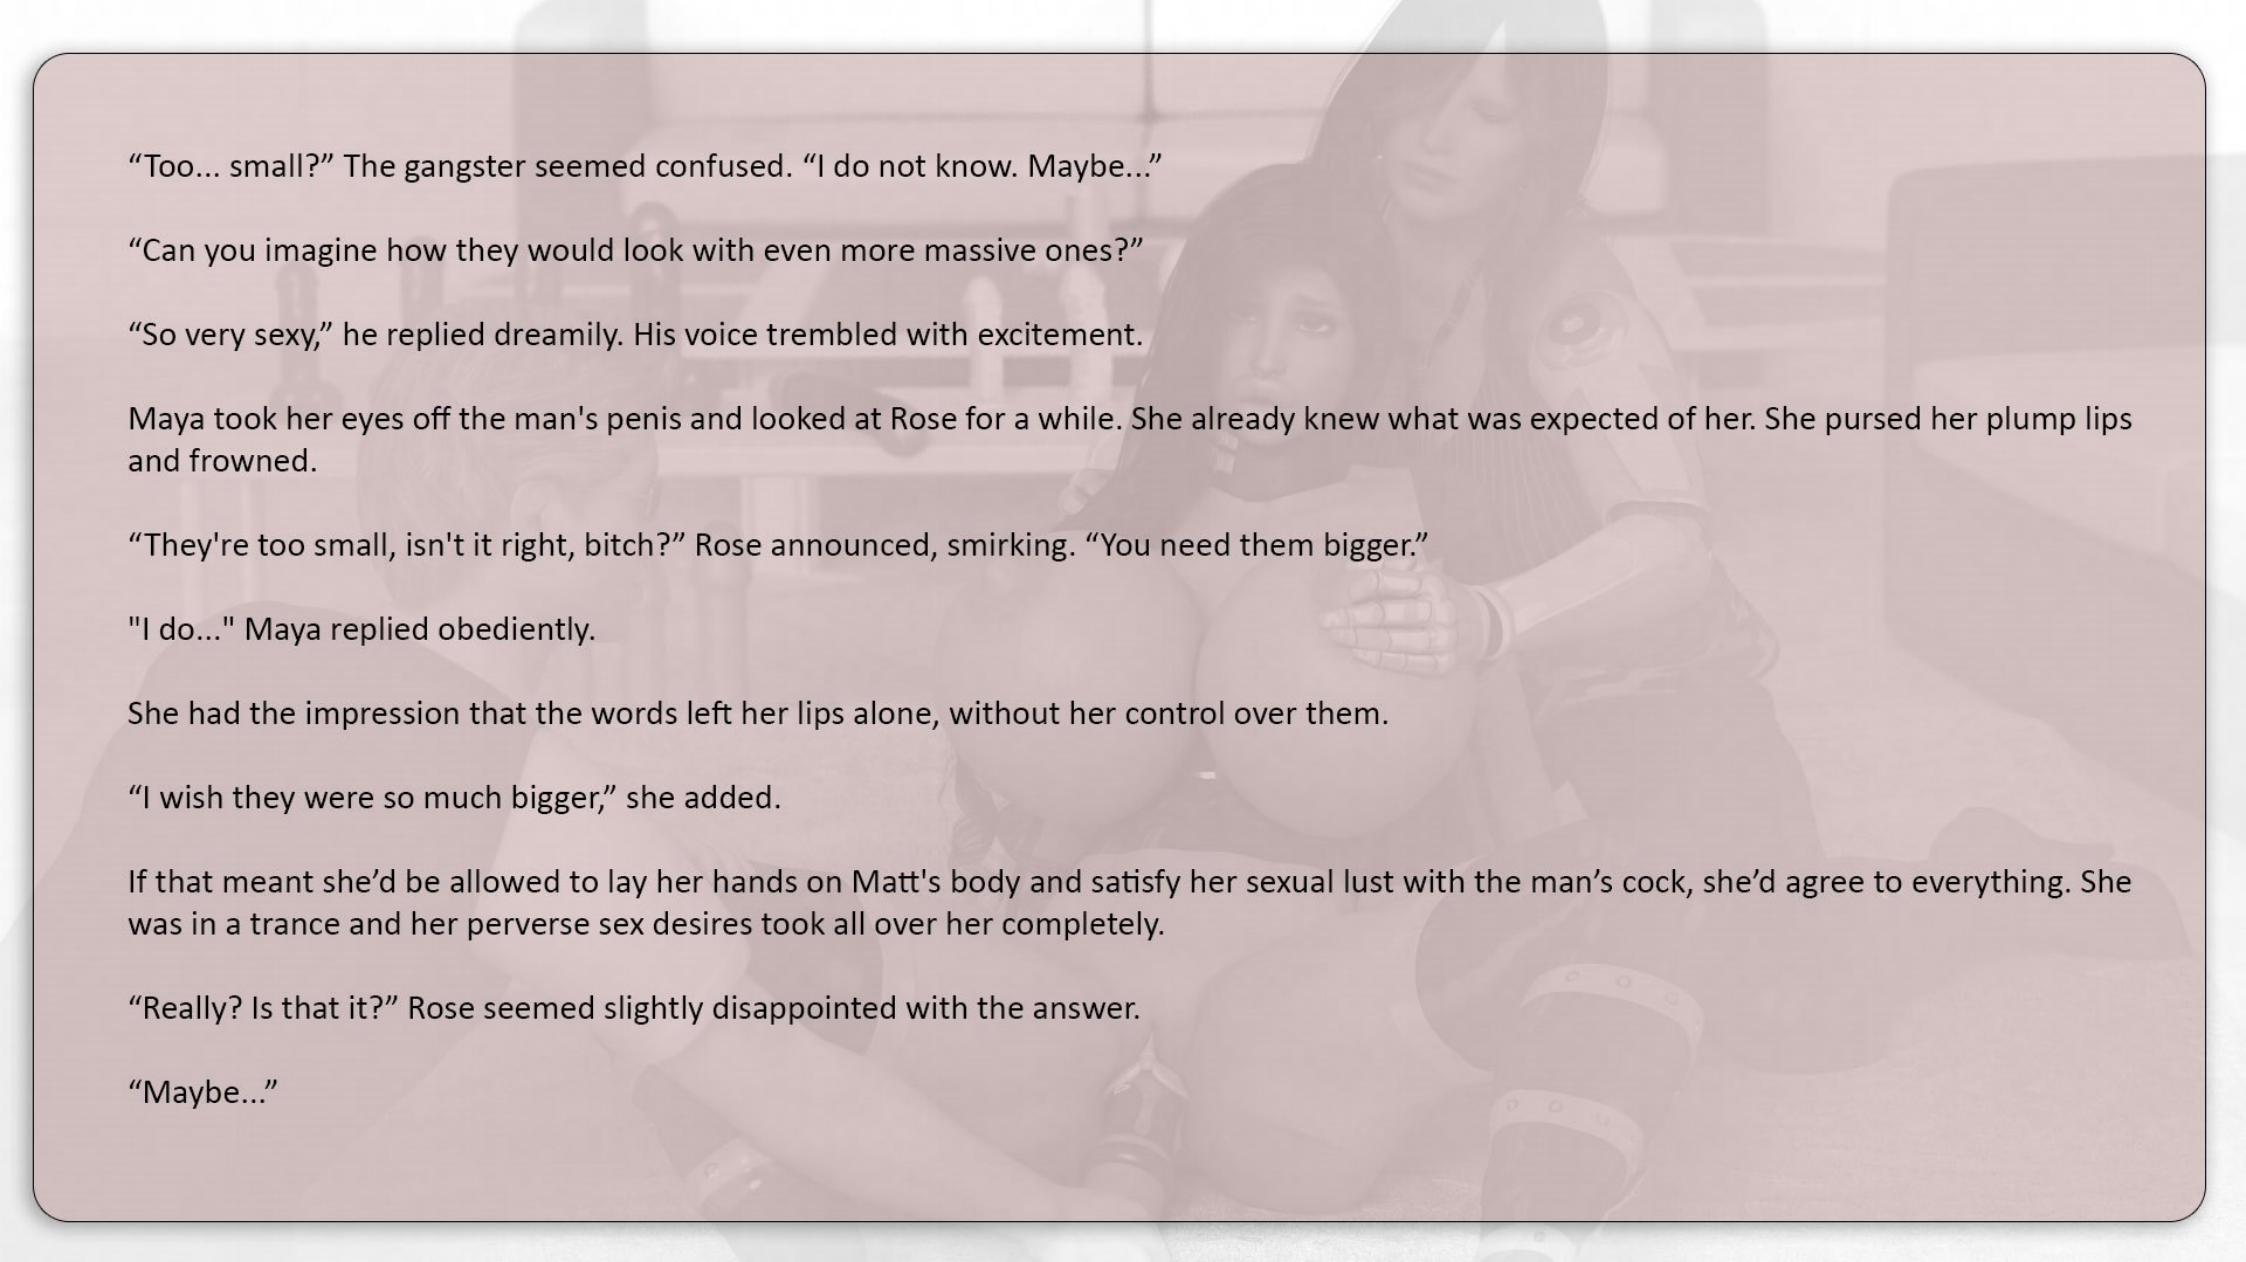

Maya screamed and flexed all her body muscles. There was an immediate flush on her face and her eyes got misty.

Matt was trying as hard as he could not to grab his throbbing cock with his hand. The sex slave's look and Amber's words almost made him cum.

"You know what you have to do to get this big dick, right?" Amber turned to Maya.

The pet was extremely tired and filled with intense lust and emotions so much she was losing touch with reality. She was nervously licking her plump lips, sticking out her pink tongue ready to suck on anything within her reach. Her nipples had hardened like never before, and goose bumps of extreme anticipation appeared all over her sultry body.

"Matt, don't you think that her boobs are still too small?" Rose asked the naked man.

“Too... small?” The gangster seemed confused. “I do not know. Maybe...”

“Can you imagine how they would look with even more massive ones?”

“So very sexy,” he replied dreamily. His voice trembled with excitement.

Maya took her eyes off the man's penis and looked at Rose for a while. She already knew what was expected of her. She pursed her plump lips and frowned.

“They're too small, isn't it right, bitch?” Rose announced, smirking. “You need them bigger.”

“I do...” Maya replied obediently.

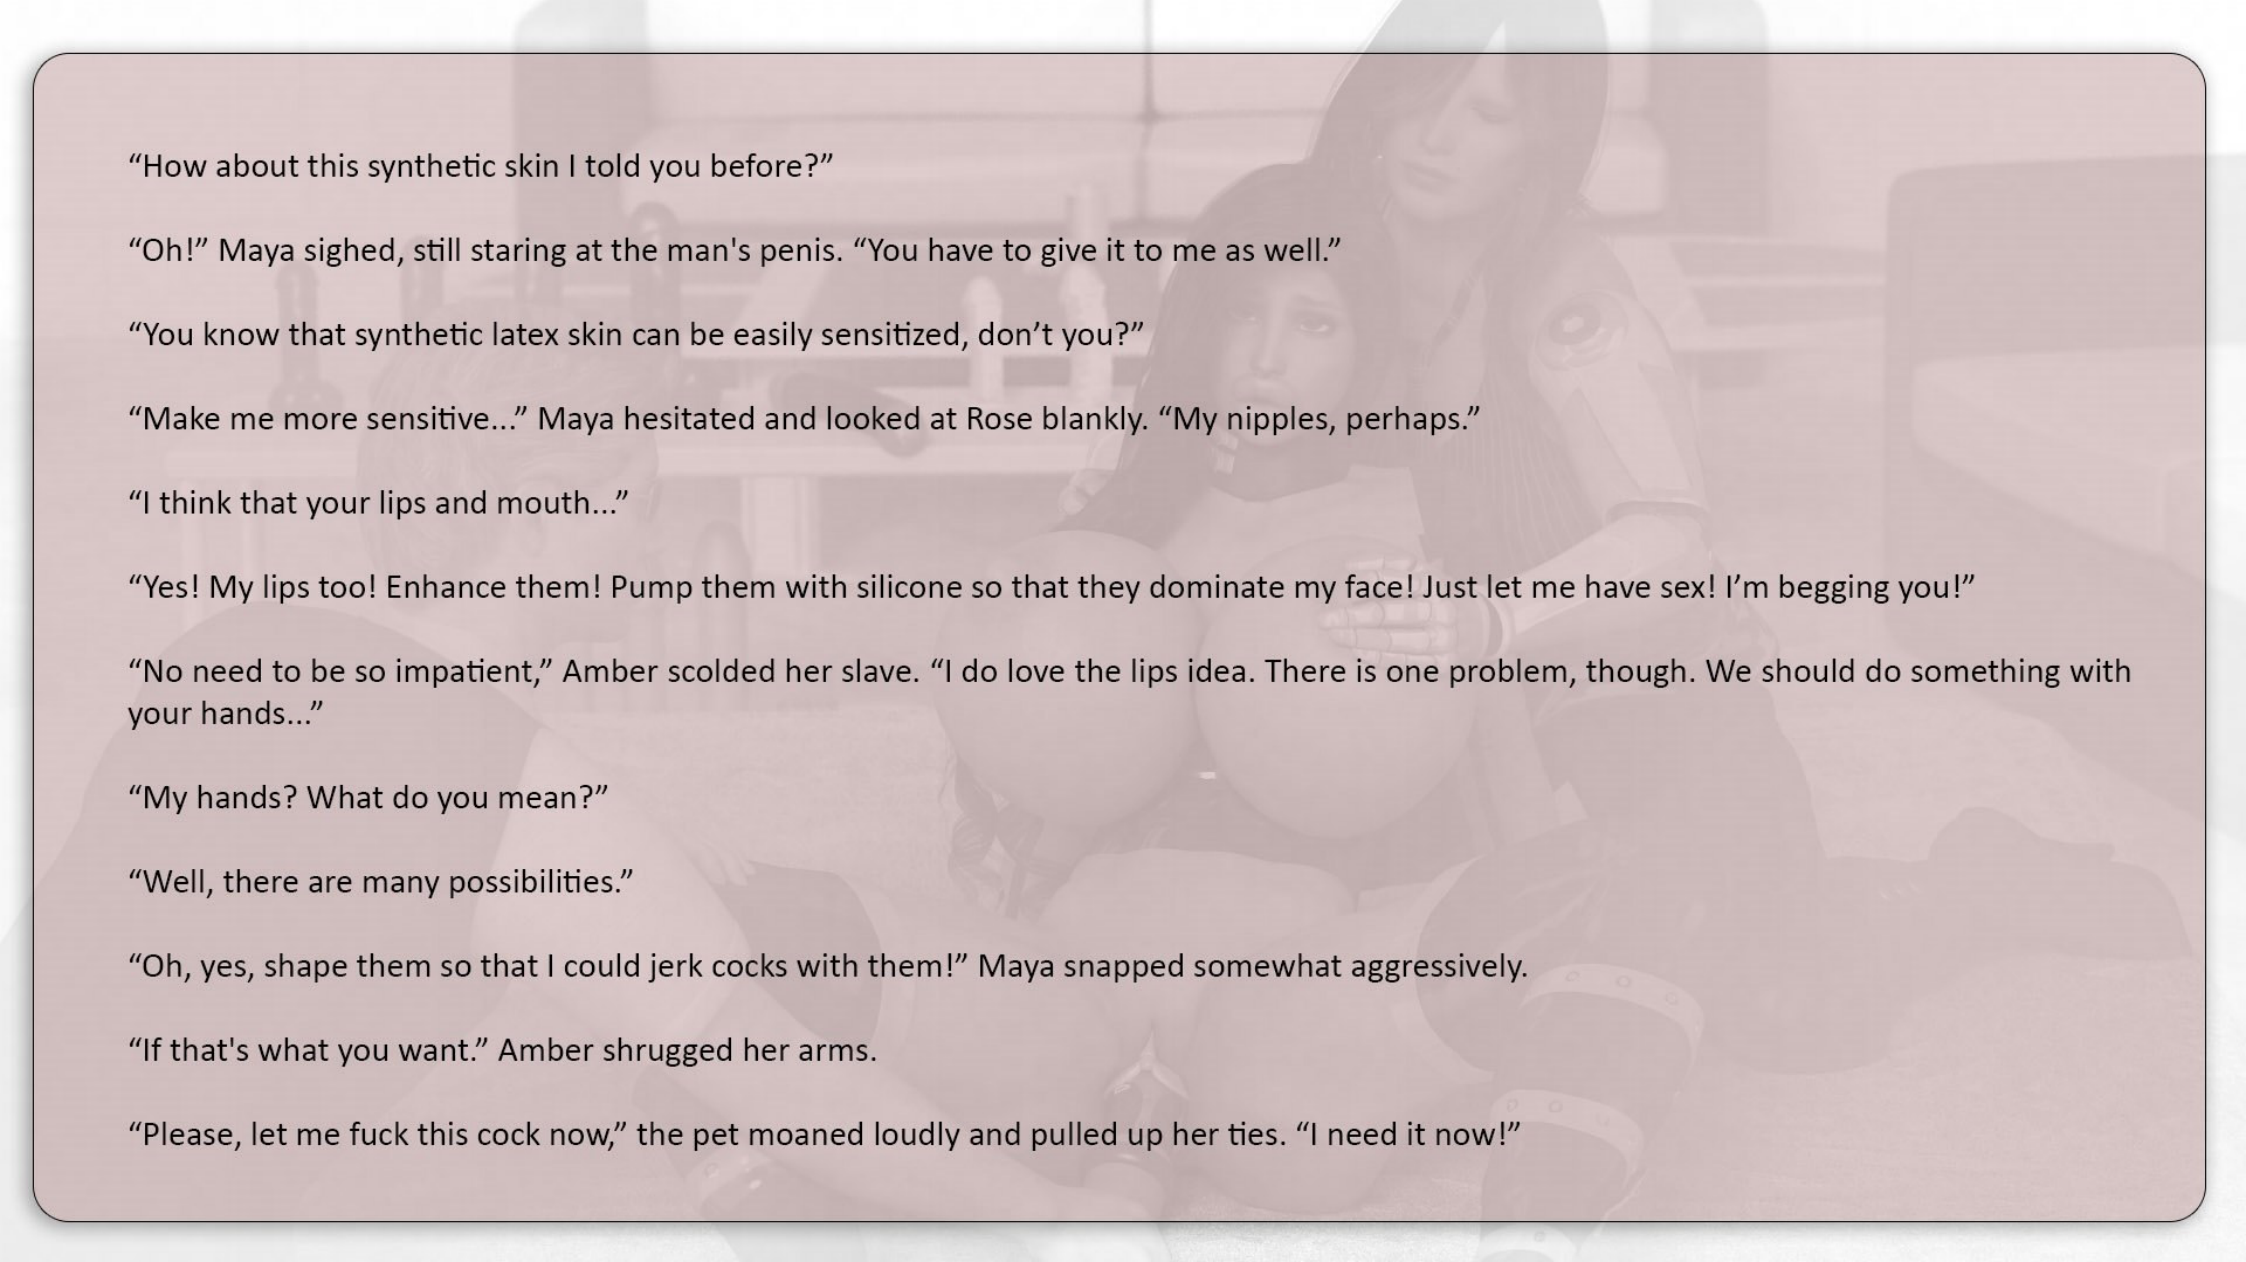

She had the impression that the words left her lips alone, without her control over them.

“I wish they were so much bigger,” she added.

If that meant she'd be allowed to lay her hands on Matt's body and satisfy her sexual lust with the man's cock, she'd agree to everything. She was in a trance and her perverse sex desires took all over her completely.

“Really? Is that it?” Rose seemed slightly disappointed with the answer.

“Maybe...”

“How about this synthetic skin I told you before?”

“Oh!” Maya sighed, still staring at the man's penis. “You have to give it to me as well.”

“You know that synthetic latex skin can be easily sensitized, don't you?”

“Make me more sensitive...” Maya hesitated and looked at Rose blankly. “My nipples, perhaps.”

“I think that your lips and mouth...”

“Yes! My lips too! Enhance them! Pump them with silicone so that they dominate my face! Just let me have sex! I'm begging you!”

“No need to be so impatient,” Amber scolded her slave. “I do love the lips idea. There is one problem, though. We should do something with your hands...”

“My hands? What do you mean?”

“Well, there are many possibilities.”

“Oh, yes, shape them so that I could jerk cocks with them!” Maya snapped somewhat aggressively.

“If that's what you want.” Amber shrugged her arms.

“Please, let me fuck this cock now,” the pet moaned loudly and pulled up her ties. “I need it now!”

Maya's body was covered with sweat and very hot. Her skin glowed and her half-open lips slightly grew and wet rosy with all the excitement. She strained her muscles, trying to free herself from the ties.

“Do you really think that we should enlarge your tits?” Rose asked, and winced staring at the slave’s big boobs.

“Yes! They must be bigger.” There was a pause. “So much bigger.”

“They are already huge, you slut. I think you're exaggerating...”

“Not at all! Make them as large as possible!” Maya moaned, still fighting with her ties and trying to get to Matt’s shiny throbbing cock.

“You surely know they will restrict your normal daily activities, and yet you still insist. How silly! Think more practical, my little slut. What do you think, Matt?”

“They would look ... amazing... and this latex skin... is it really possible?”

“Oh yes! It is also very extreme. Our wild cat has kinky, perverted ideas. I'm not sure if we should go that far with her enhancement...”

“We have to!” Maya cried. “Modify my body with latex! Please! My boobs have to be huge... enormously big... as big as possible. Just let me have sex! Let me fuck with this cock!” She moaned and hung her head.

“Oh, I’ll let you fuck. You just have to be patient and I need to make sure that I understood you perfectly well,” Rose was playing with her toy. “You really want me to cover your body with latex-like, synthetic skin, give you gigantic, beach ball-sized tits and even modify your hands so that you could give handjobs as well?”

Maya vigorously nodded, and her eyes glistened with hope and anticipation.

“How perverse!” Amber pretended to be shocked. “You have one helluva imagination, slut! You really acquired insatiable taste in modifying your body, didn’t you? Well, if you insist, I’ll talk to Wesler about hand modifications. Your lips however... You were kidding, right?”

“What?!”

“You said you want to have them inflated with collagen once again, if I heard correctly. That would make them really plump.”

“That’s exactly what I want!”

“You’ll look so vulgar. I did not think you were capable of such perverse fantasies! You know, that your lips will look like a large thick... cunt. These plump, red, swollen lips of yours will make everyone around think about a soft cock hungry vagina.”

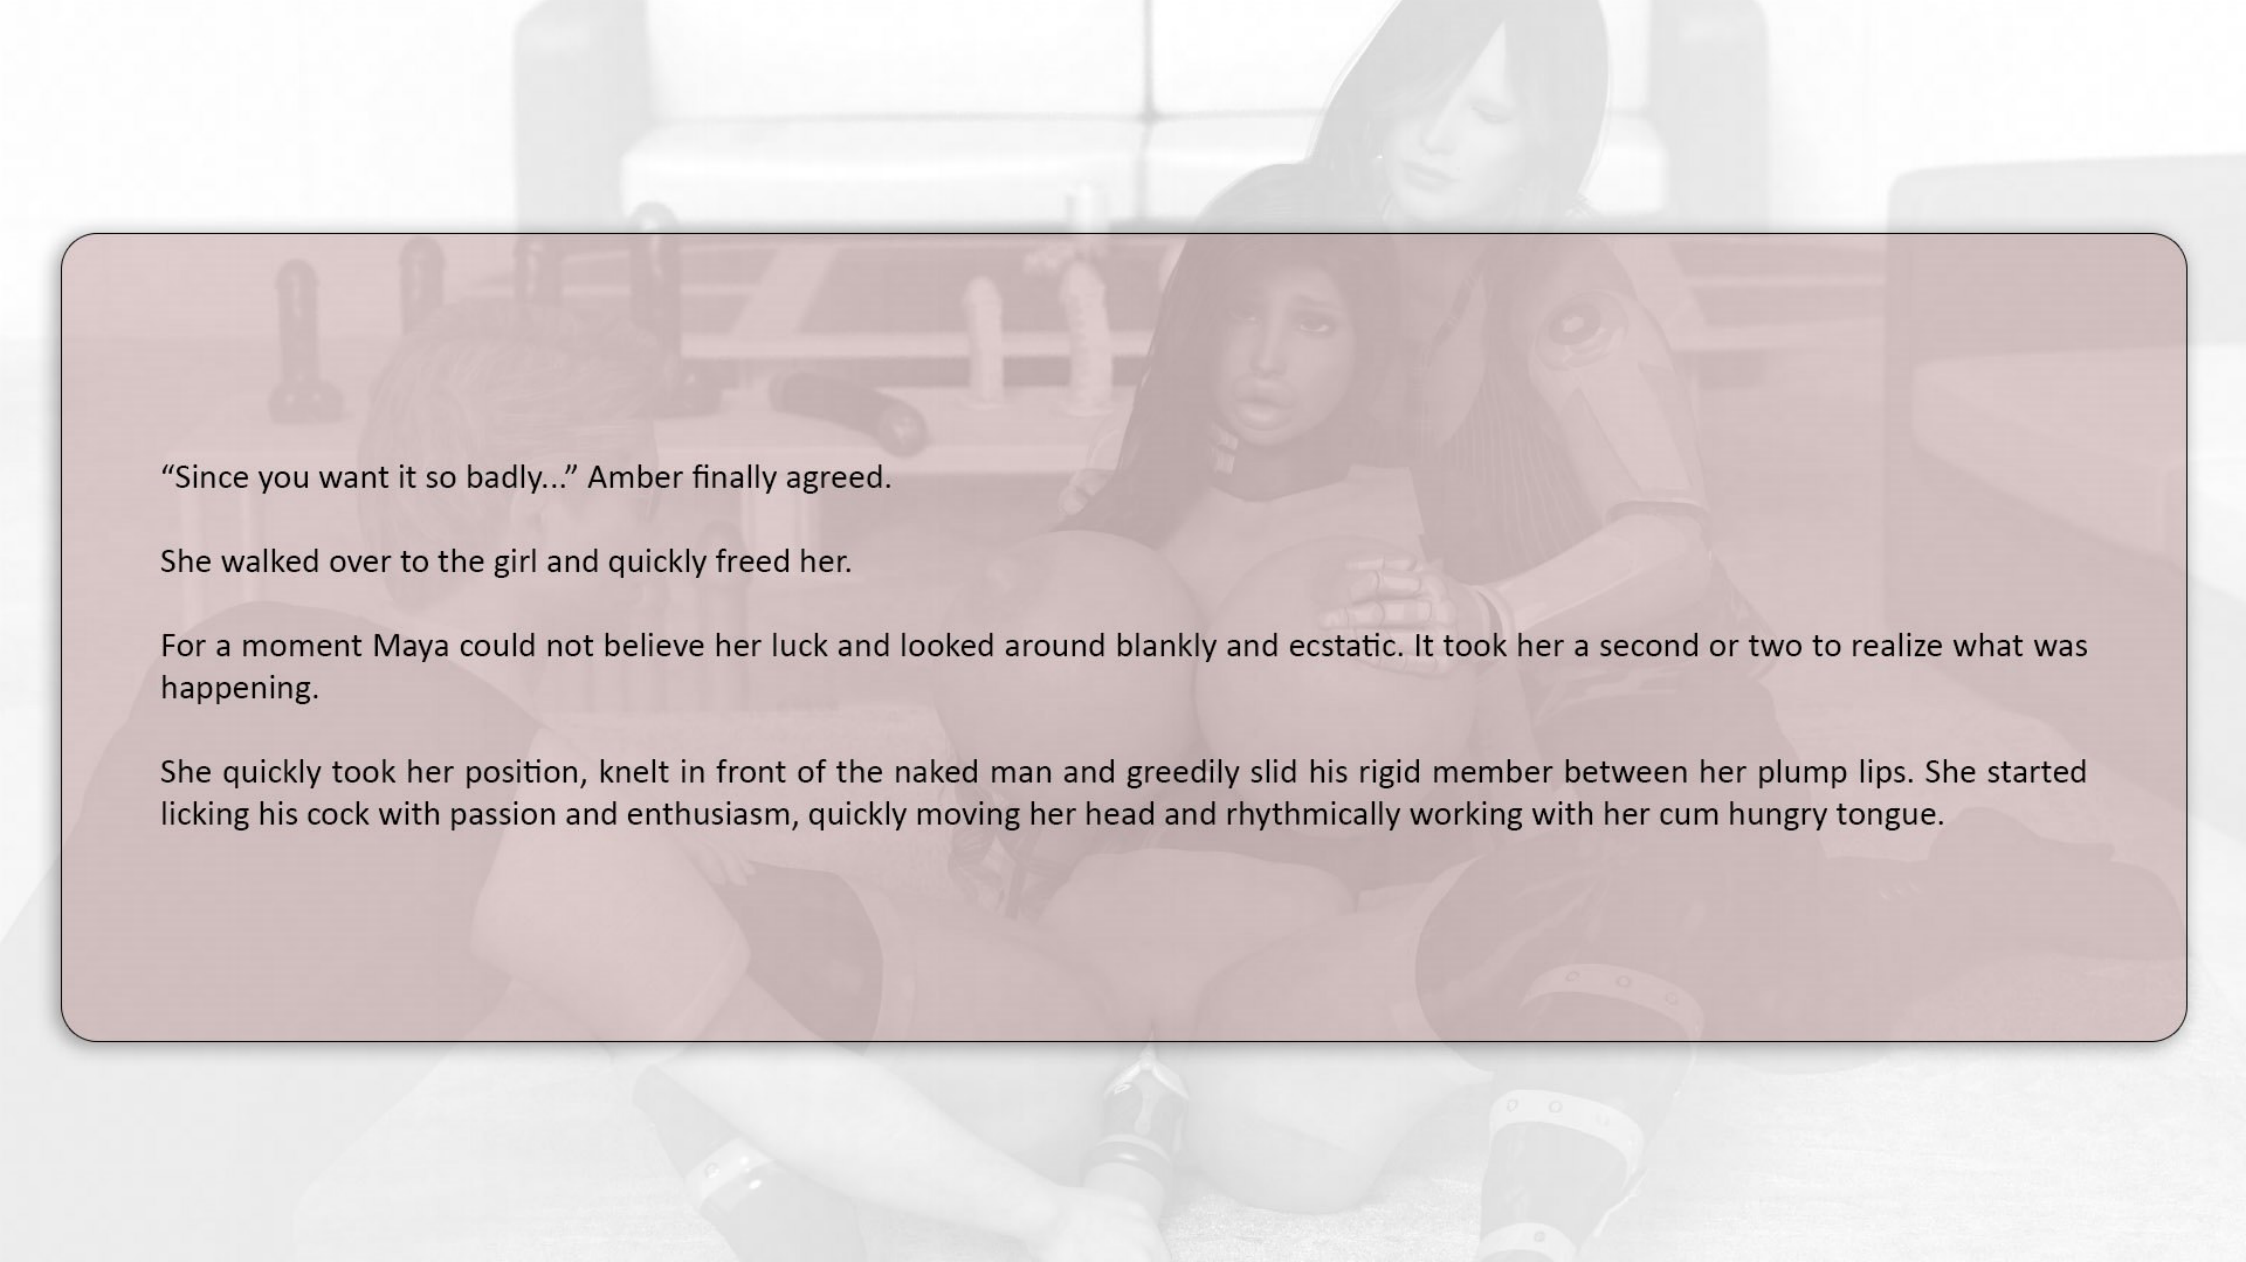

“Oh, yes! Pleeese!” Maya groaned and struggled.

“Please what!?”

“Enhance my skin, enlarge my lips and tits, modify my hands, give me super sensitive nipples, just...”

“Exactly!” Amber interrupted her slave. “Don’t you think that your body already has too many erogenous zones? Isn’t it enough? That’s why you’re constantly horny, my pet slut. Why do you need even more sensitive nipples?”

“I’m begging you,” Maya sighed, though she did not fully realize what she was asking for. She looked at Matt’s hard cock and imagined taking it in her needy mouth, feeling its radiant warmth on her lips, enjoying its’ pulsating veins, playing with his balls...

“Since you want it so badly...” Amber finally agreed.

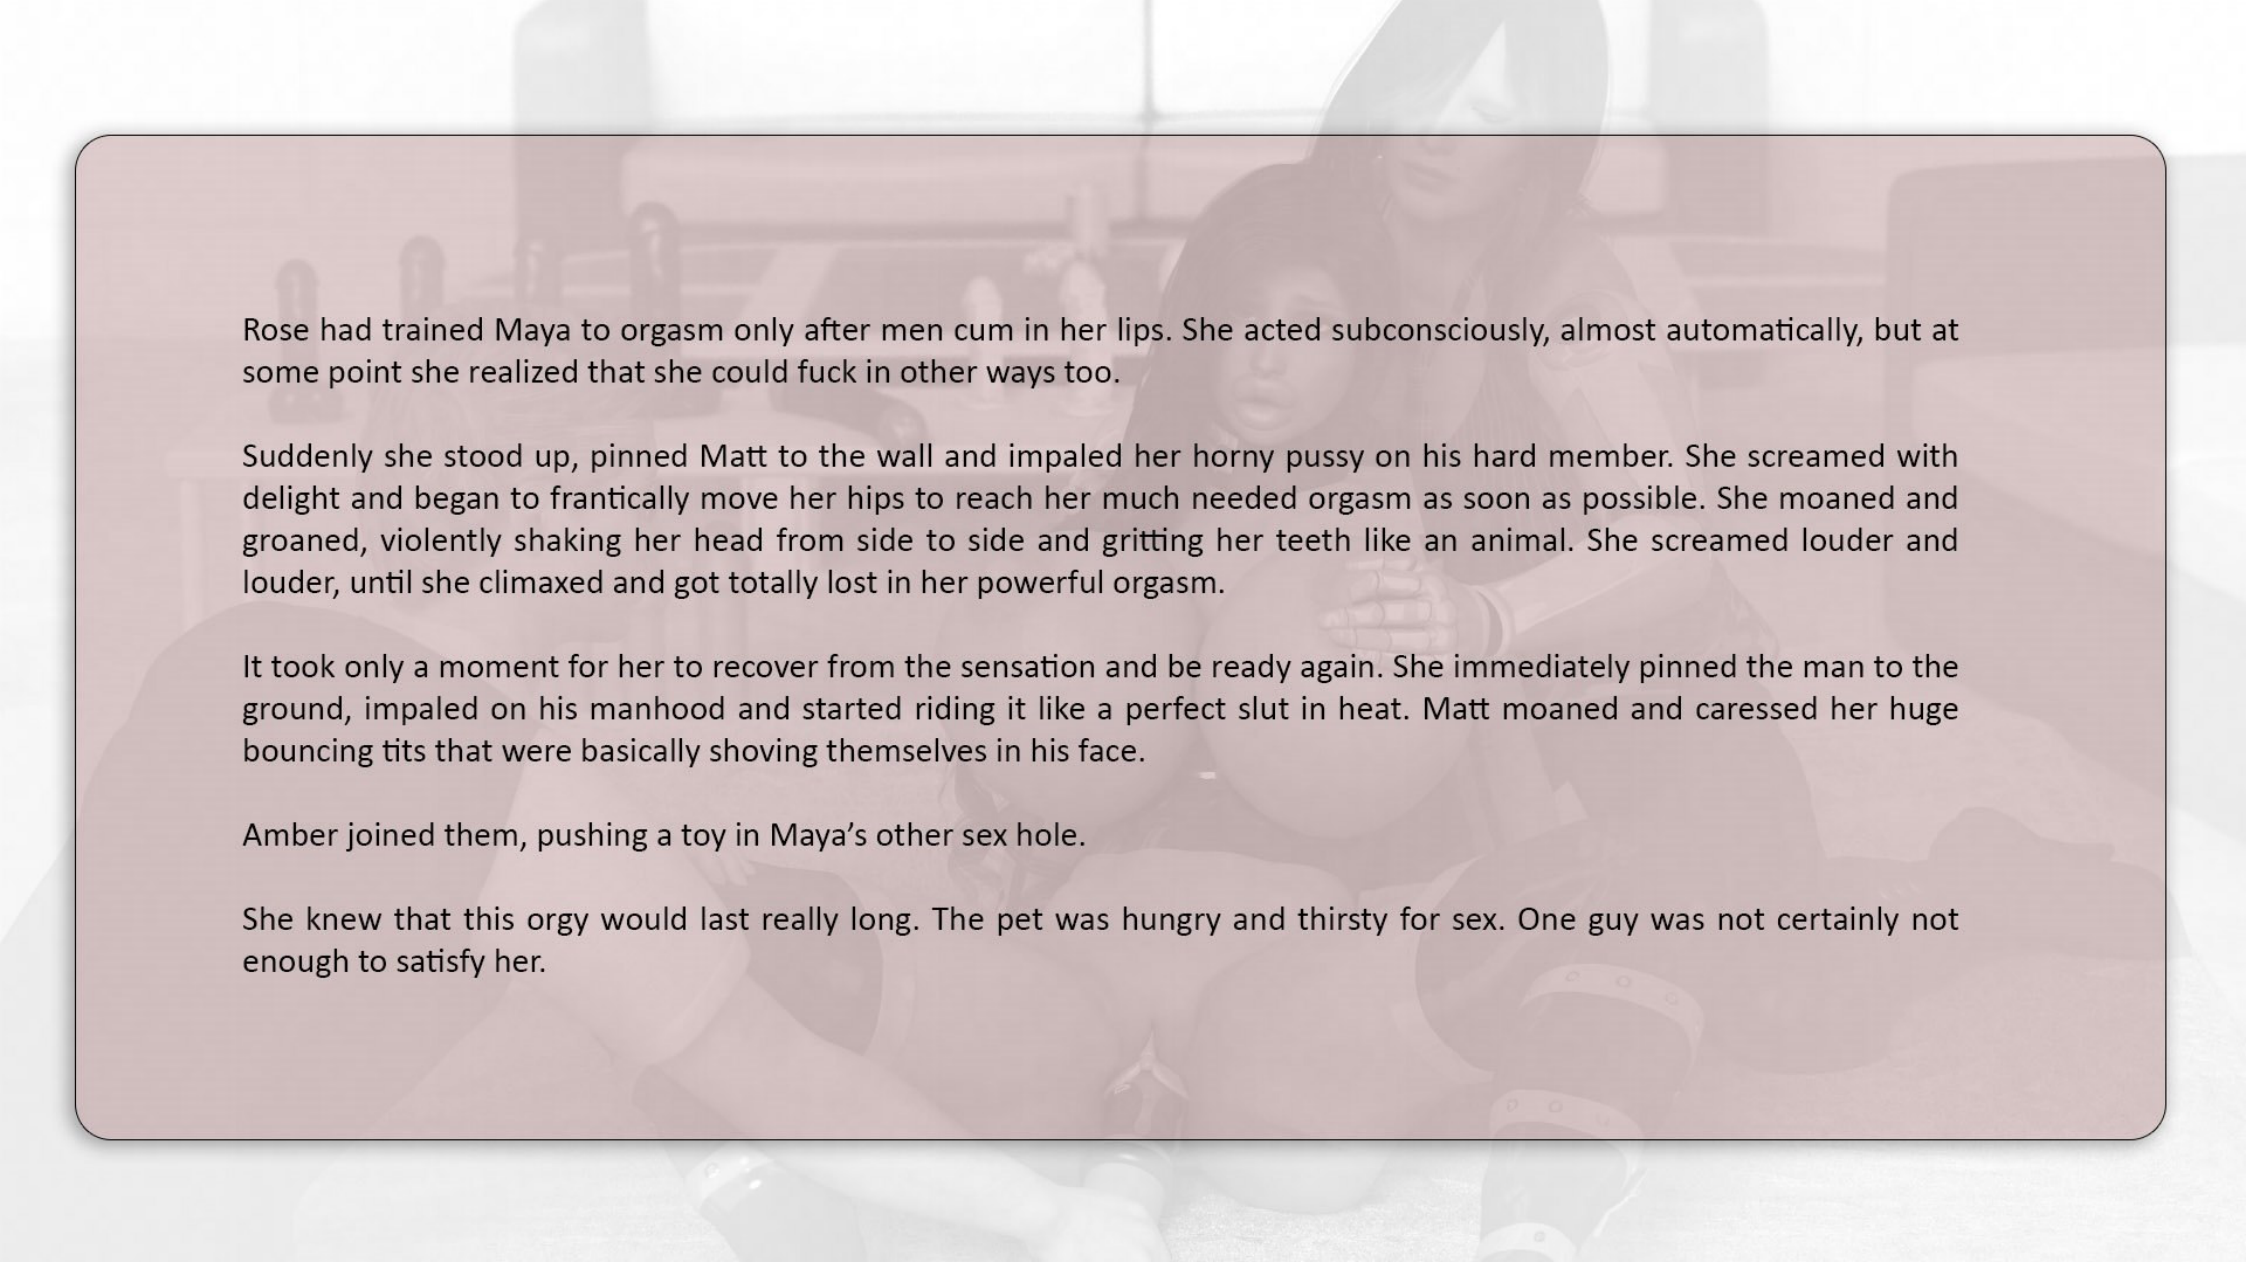

She walked over to the girl and quickly freed her.

For a moment Maya could not believe her luck and looked around blankly and ecstatic. It took her a second or two to realize what was happening.

She quickly took her position, knelt in front of the naked man and greedily slid his rigid member between her plump lips. She started licking his cock with passion and enthusiasm, quickly moving her head and rhythmically working with her cum hungry tongue.

Matt was stunned with the intensity of the divine pleasure. He moaned loudly and almost lost his balance. After a moment, he synchronized his hip movement with Maya's fuckdoll body. His cock was sliding deep in her mouth, down to the very base, while his swollen balls brushed the girl's chin.

Rose had trained Maya to orgasm only after men cum in her lips. She acted subconsciously, almost automatically, but at some point she realized that she could fuck in other ways too.

Suddenly she stood up, pinned Matt to the wall and impaled her horny pussy on his hard member. She screamed with delight and began to frantically move her hips to reach her much needed orgasm as soon as possible. She moaned and groaned, violently shaking her head from side to side and gritting her teeth like an animal. She screamed louder and louder, until she climaxed and got totally lost in her powerful orgasm.

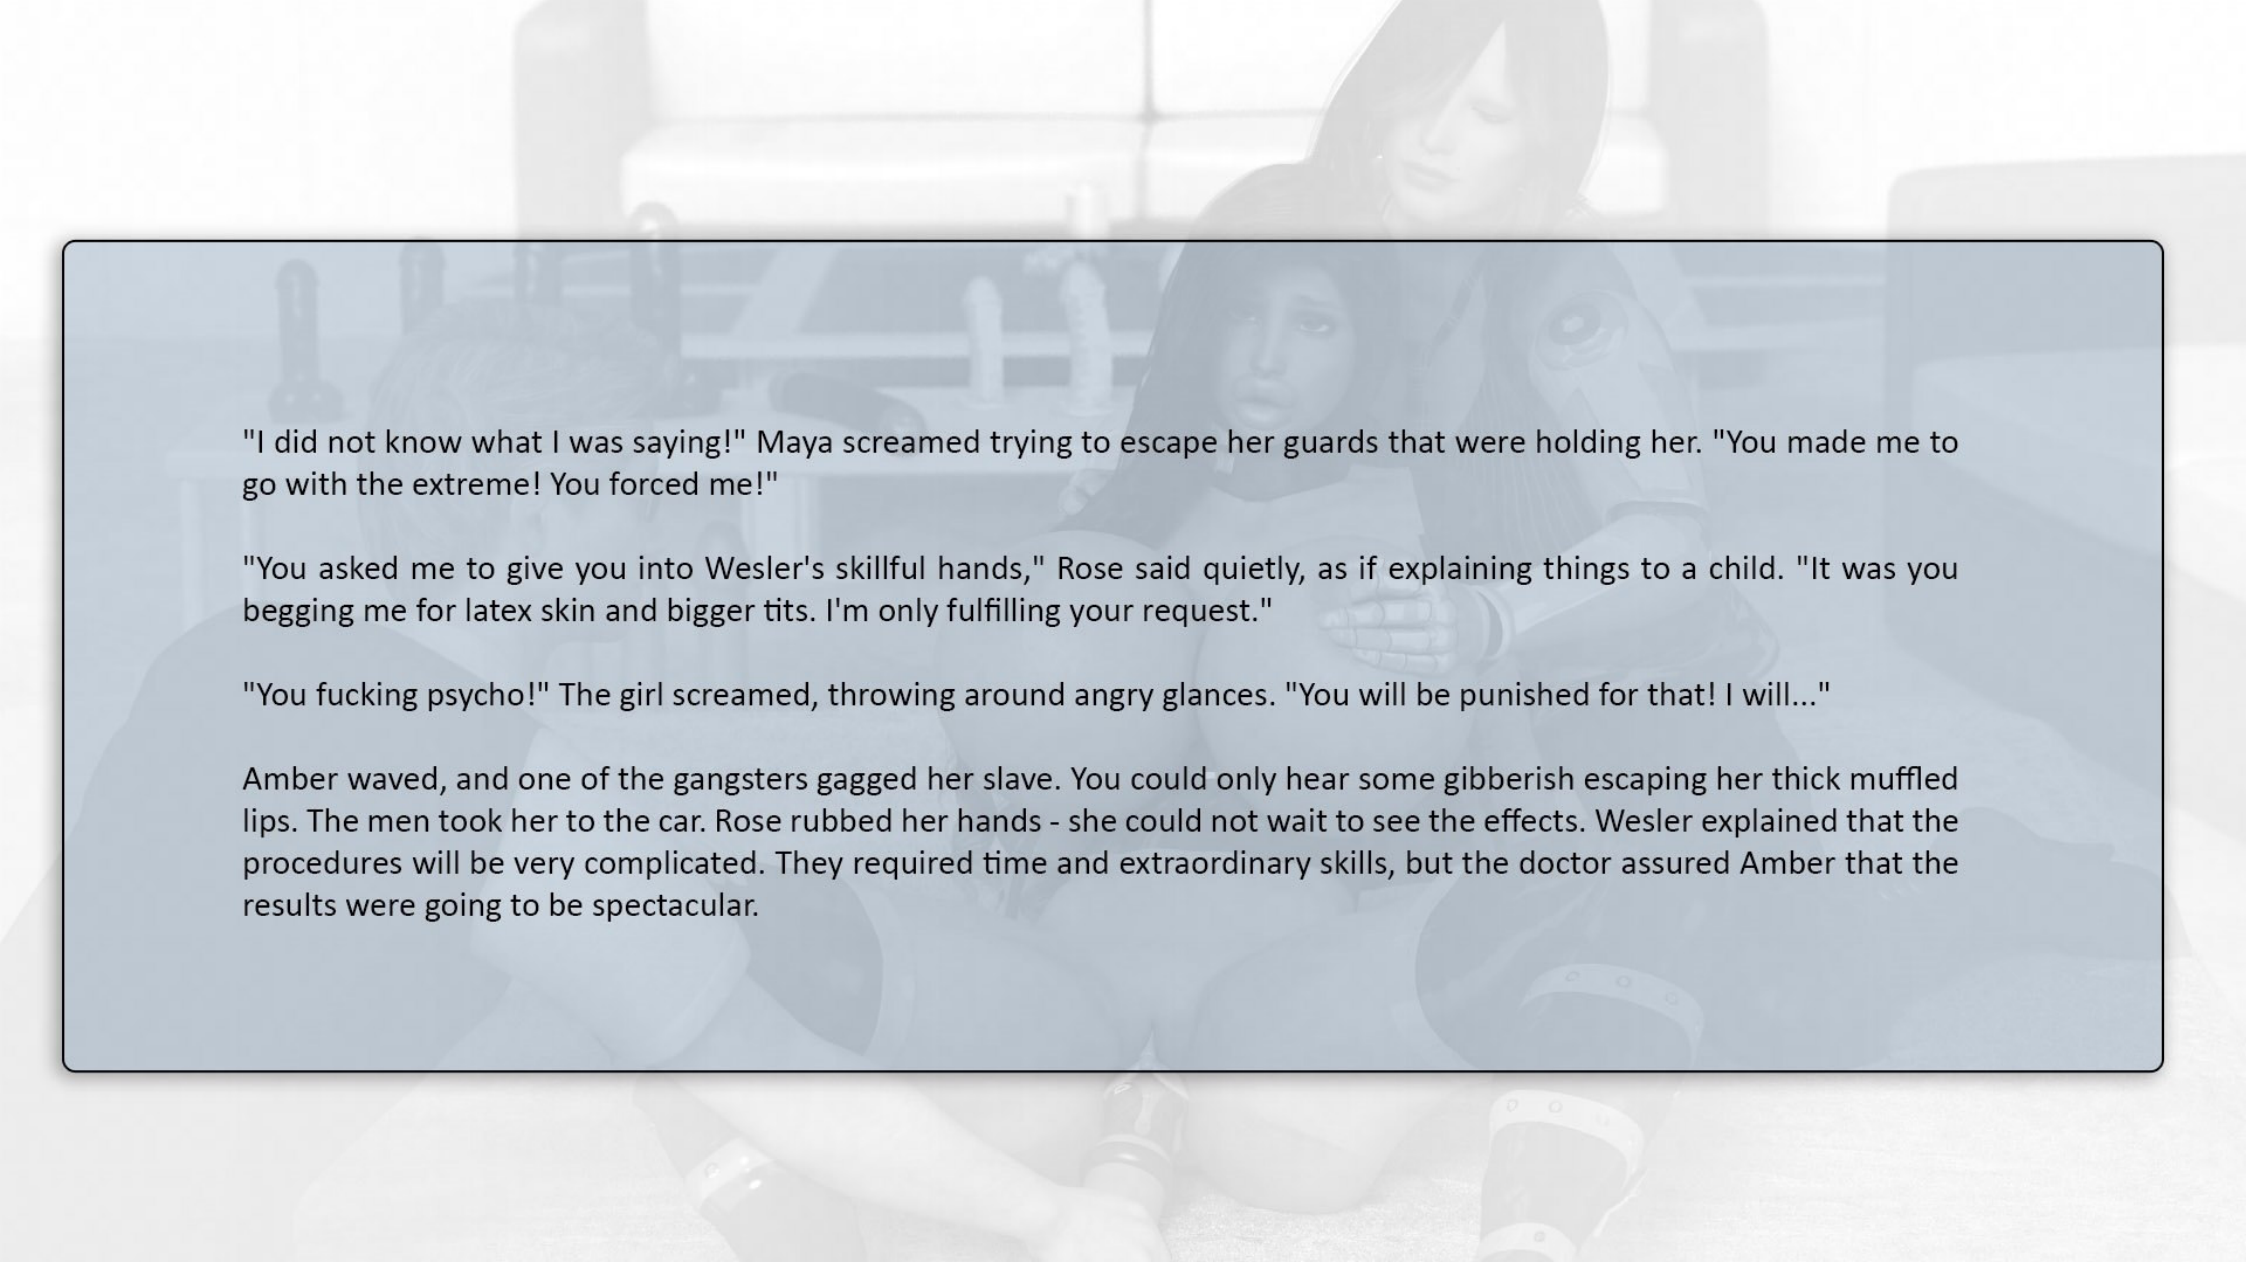

It took only a moment for her to recover from the sensation and be ready again. She immediately pinned the man to the ground, impaled on his manhood and started riding it like a perfect slut in heat. Matt moaned and caressed her huge bouncing tits that were basically shoving themselves in his face.

Amber joined them, pushing a toy in Maya's other sex hole.

She knew that this orgy would last really long. The pet was hungry and thirsty for sex. One guy was not certainly not enough to satisfy her.

Before & After

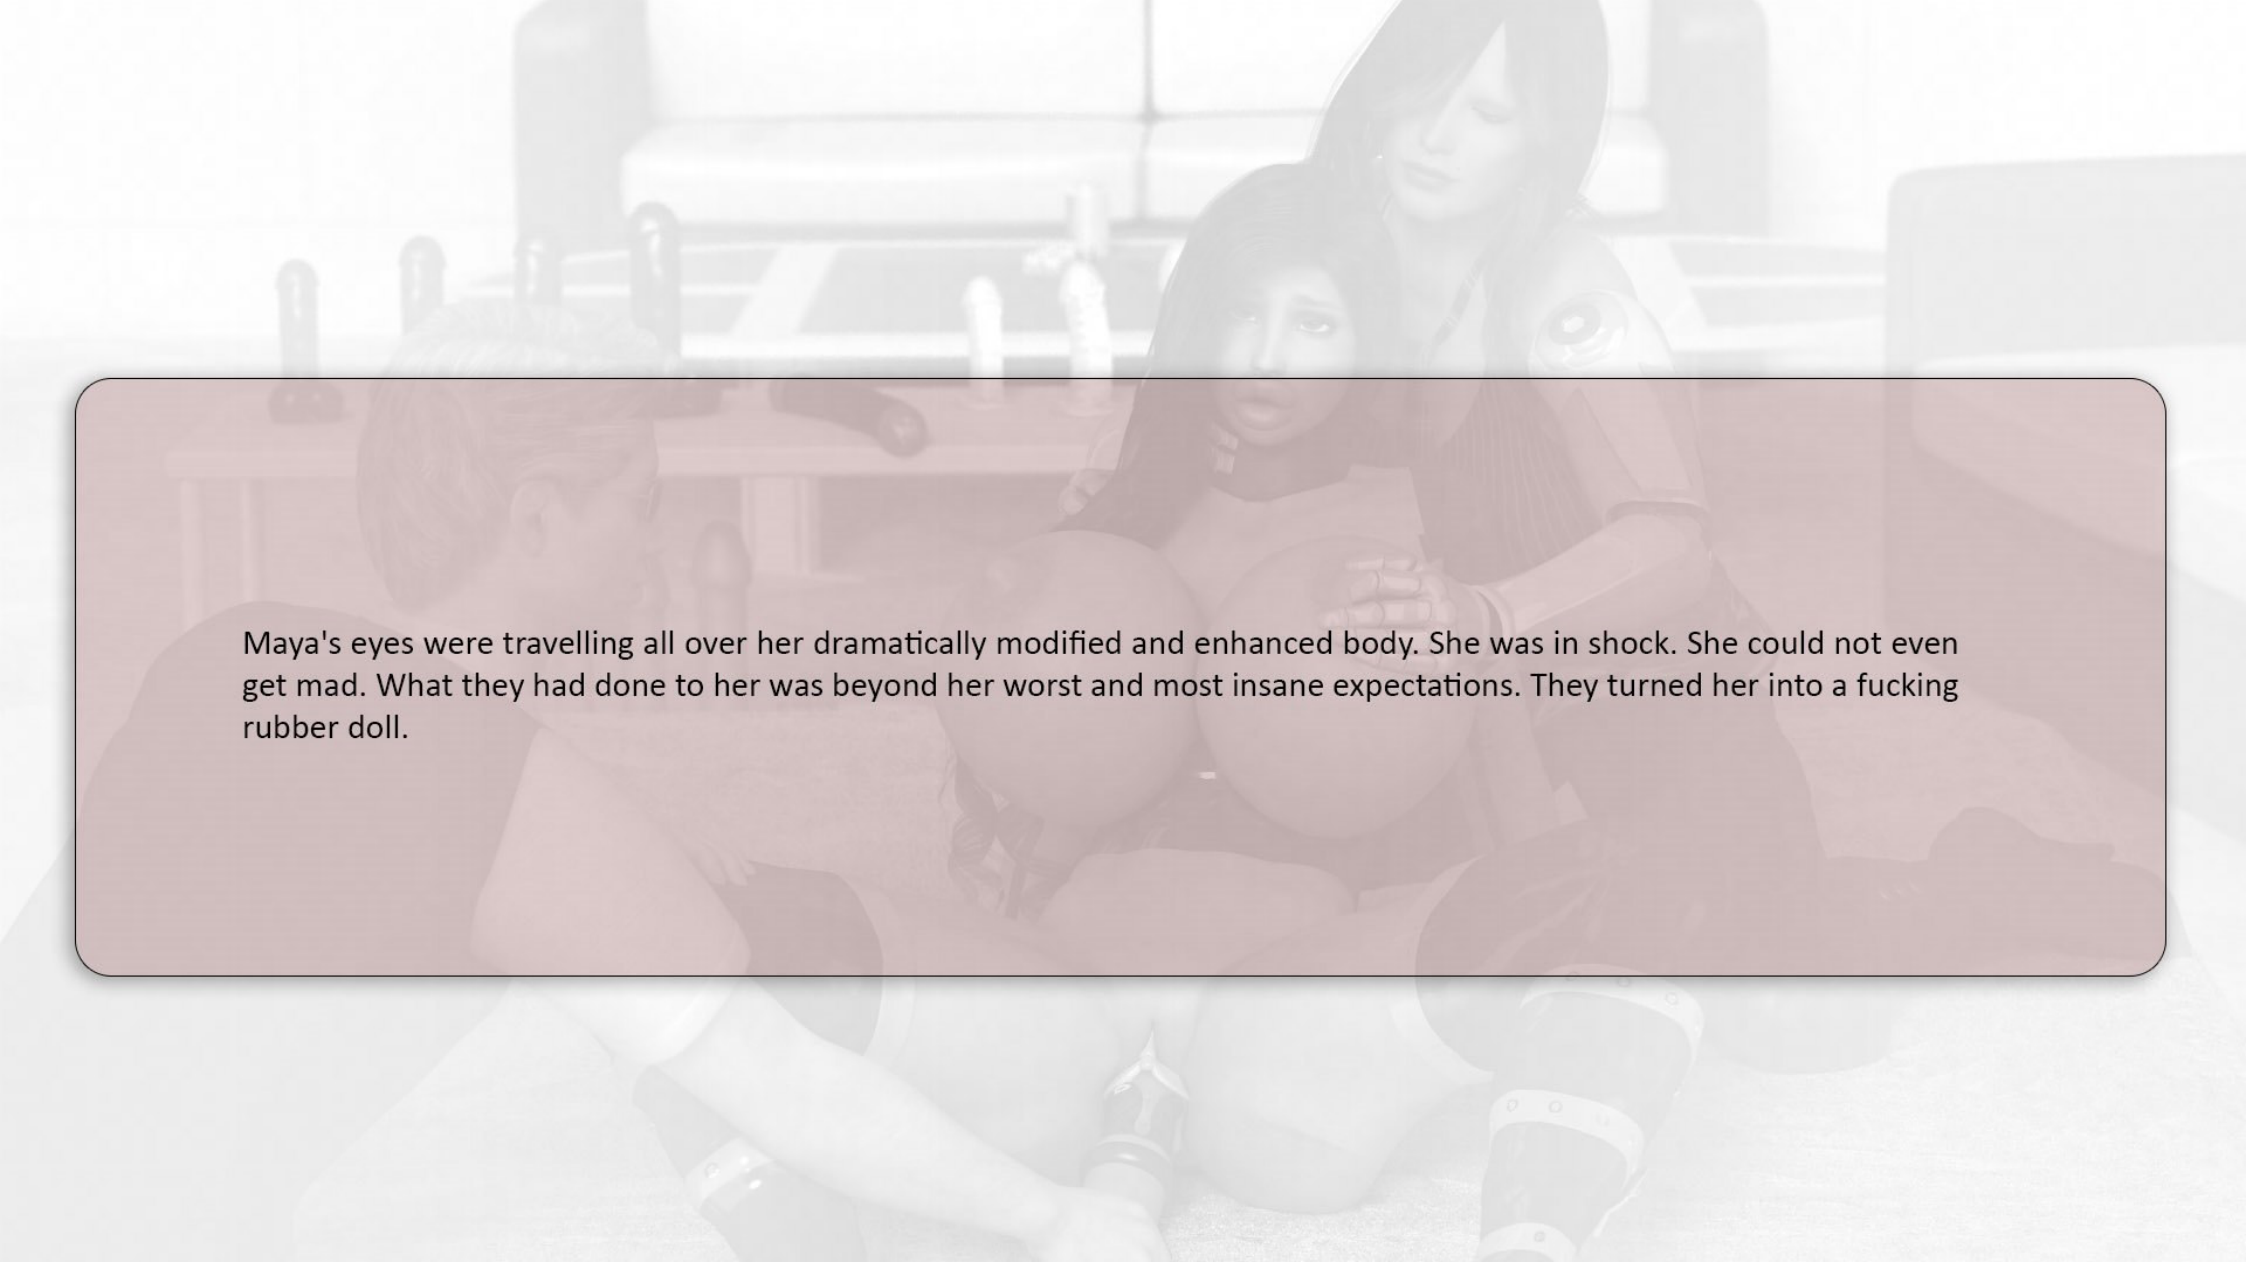

"I did not know what I was saying!" Maya screamed trying to escape her guards that were holding her. "You made me to go with the extreme! You forced me!"

"You asked me to give you into Wesler's skillful hands," Rose said quietly, as if explaining things to a child. "It was you begging me for latex skin and bigger tits. I'm only fulfilling your request."

"You fucking psycho!" The girl screamed, throwing around angry glances. "You will be punished for that! I will..."

Amber waved, and one of the gangsters gagged her slave. You could only hear some gibberish escaping her thick muffled lips. The men took her to the car. Rose rubbed her hands - she could not wait to see the effects. Wesler explained that the procedures will be very complicated. They required time and extraordinary skills, but the doctor assured Amber that the results were going to be spectacular.

Maya's eyes were travelling all over her dramatically modified and enhanced body. She was in shock. She could not even get mad. What they had done to her was beyond her worst and most insane expectations. They turned her into a fucking rubber doll.

The whole body was now covered with synthetic skin - shiny and smooth, very latex-like. Her hands were hidden in a pair of gloves, which could be pumped inside making it impossible for her to grip things. They could also be reshaped in two tubes wide enough to please cocks. Maya's lips and tits became even bigger than before. She looked like some sort of cartoon character of her former self, a fetish latex doll, with only one sexual purpose. As if that was not enough, she quickly discovered that her nipples had become much more sensitive and responsive to caresses. Touching them gave her immeasurable, almost orgasmic pleasure. They were another way in which you could play with this rubber doll.

Maya had no idea how to react. She felt totally helpless and completely didn't know what to expect. She was afraid to think what new humiliations and torments Rose prepared for her.

Amber did not give Maya too much time to ponder on that. As soon as the girl felt better, and Wesler agreed, she took her doll back to her apartment and began to fuck her regularly.

Sex was meant to become a reward for Kaiser, something that she had to look forward. That's why everyone around could fuck her thick sex doll lips or cum in the doll's latex hands, but they were not allowed to touch her sex holes or sensitive nipples. Maya would spend days tied and fucked by men and women, usually surrounded by three pulsating cocks at the same time - one sliding in and out of her sexdoll lips, while the others were rubbed by her equally doll-like hands. She swallowed cum and immediately replaced one cock with another, already ready as it was teased by her hands just seconds before. She was an incredible fuck machine made for pleasuring many cocks at once. However, since she was just a fuck doll, Maya was denied any kind of pleasure and orgasms. The girl begged everyone around that to make her cum, but Amber's orders were clear, and no one wanted to oppose the assassin.

"You have to deserve an orgasm," Amber said. "If you give blowjob s to ten more guys, I'll let you have one. How about that? Fair, isn't it?"

In response Maya let out a prolonged moan.

"So? Shall we start the countdown now? " Rose demanded.

The girl nodded. She would do anything to have someone finally fuck her. She opened her mouth to encourage mobsters to cum in them.

That was how Maya spent her days. Amber forced her to swallow huge amounts of semen and give pleasure to everyone around in different ways, and she agreed, because that was the only way to receive what she desired the most - her much needed orgasm.

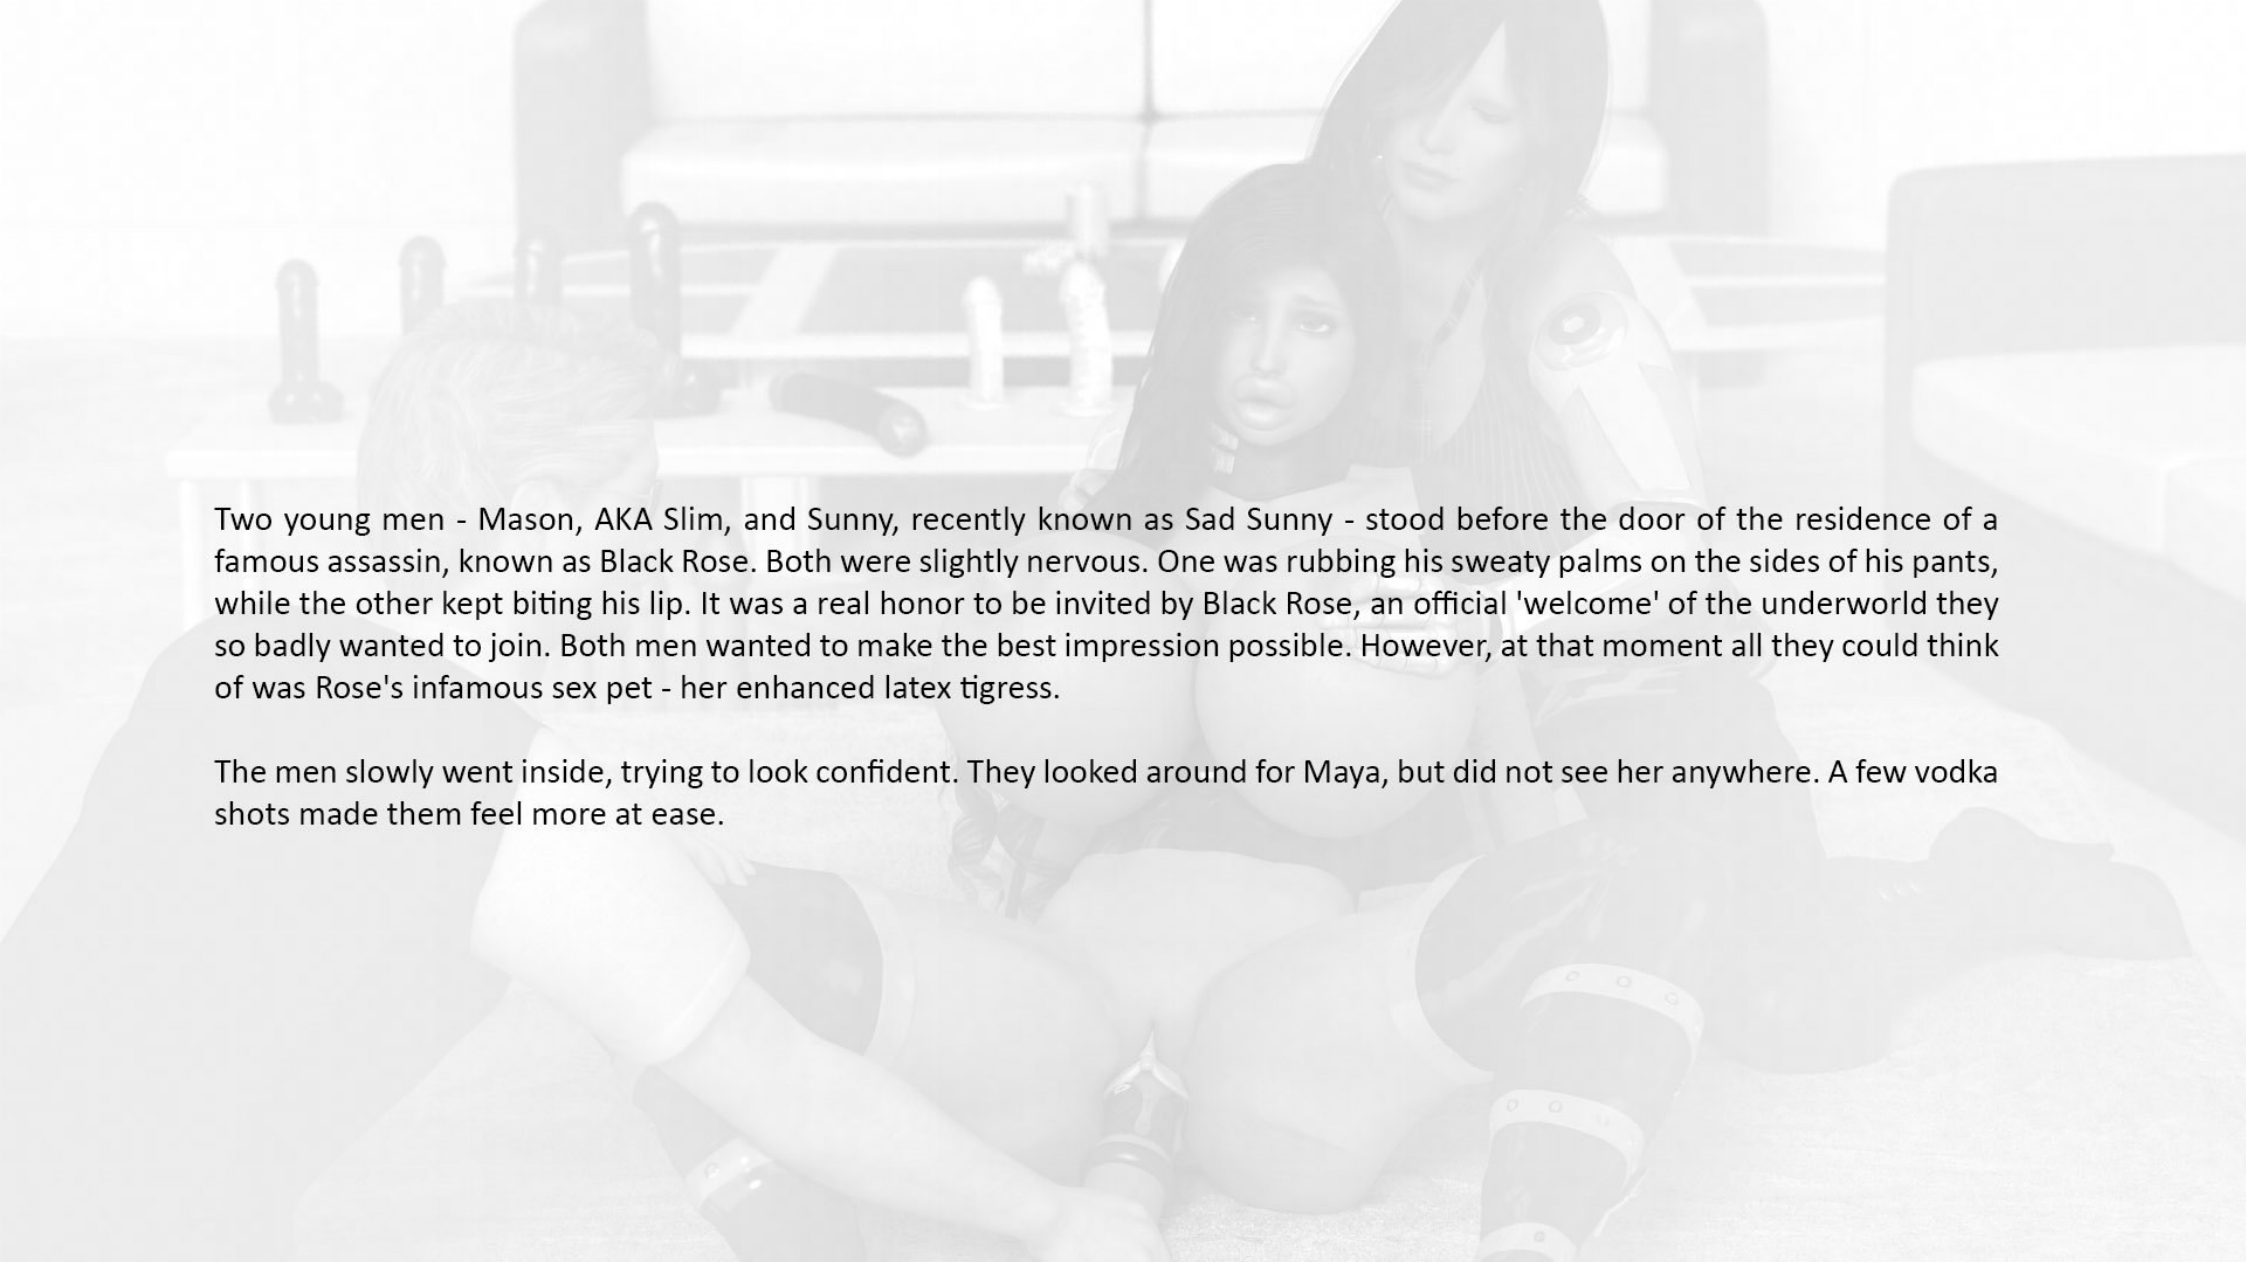

Amber was playing with her in different ways. If Maya behaved nicely, she caressed her latex nipples. She would attach nipple clamps, twist and suck these hyper sensitive wonders of her latex doll. The girl could sometimes reach orgasm that way, but in most cases it would only make her even more horny.

Intense fucking that Maya would get as a reward was very hard, kinky and exhausting. It was like a marathon that even for her was hard to endure. Gangsters fucked her with large, fancy toys and stretched her sex holes. Sometimes they would aggressively shove their whole hands in the doll's latex anus and pussy. Maya experienced intense orgasms - one after another. Moreover, these made her fall into some kind of trance. Her sexual trance could last for hours, since when everyone was exhausted she was strapped to a fuck machine that continued fucking and stretching her sex holes. As a result, the orgies ended only when she lost consciousness.

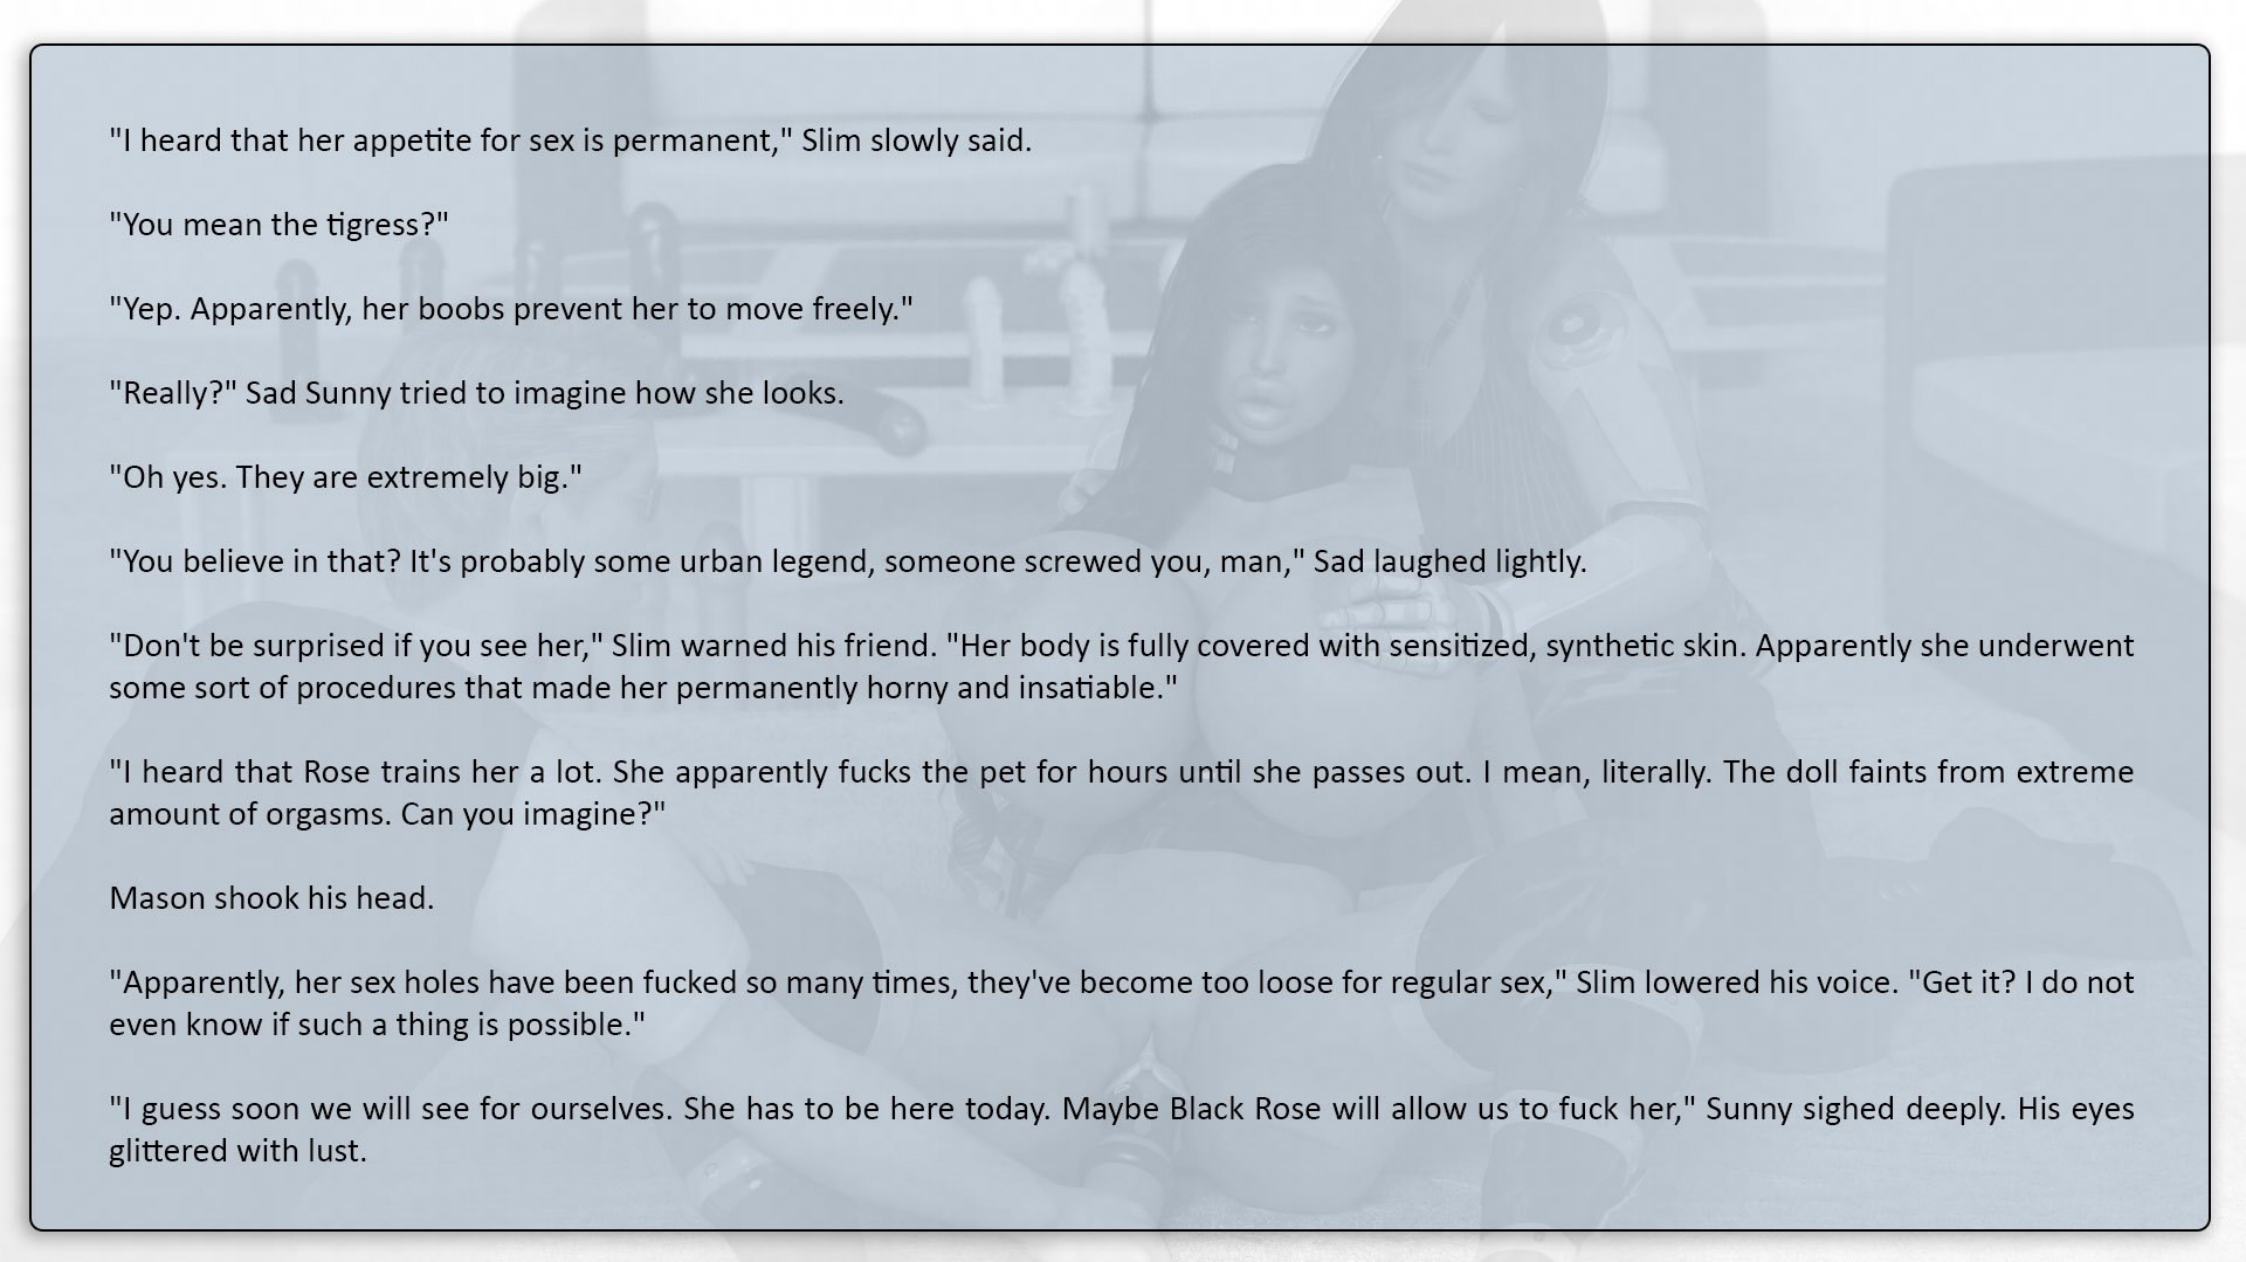

Before & After

Two young men - Mason, AKA Slim, and Sunny, recently known as Sad Sunny - stood before the door of the residence of a famous assassin, known as Black Rose. Both were slightly nervous. One was rubbing his sweaty palms on the sides of his pants, while the other kept biting his lip. It was a real honor to be invited by Black Rose, an official 'welcome' of the underworld they so badly wanted to join. Both men wanted to make the best impression possible. However, at that moment all they could think of was Rose's infamous sex pet - her enhanced latex tigress.

The men slowly went inside, trying to look confident. They looked around for Maya, but did not see her anywhere. A few vodka shots made them feel more at ease.

"I heard that her appetite for sex is permanent," Slim slowly said.

"You mean the tigress?"

"Yep. Apparently, her boobs prevent her to move freely."

"Really?" Sad Sunny tried to imagine how she looks.

"Oh yes. They are extremely big."

"You believe in that? It's probably some urban legend, someone screwed you, man," Sad laughed lightly.

"Don't be surprised if you see her," Slim warned his friend. "Her body is fully covered with sensitized, synthetic skin. Apparently she underwent some sort of procedures that made her permanently horny and insatiable."

"I heard that Rose trains her a lot. She apparently fucks the pet for hours until she passes out. I mean, literally. The doll faints from extreme amount of orgasms. Can you imagine?"

Mason shook his head.

"Apparently, her sex holes have been fucked so many times, they've become too loose for regular sex," Slim lowered his voice. "Get it? I do not even know if such a thing is possible."

"I guess soon we will see for ourselves. She has to be here today. Maybe Black Rose will allow us to fuck her," Sunny sighed deeply. His eyes glittered with lust.

Shortly after their conversation Black Rose turned to her guests for attention and announced the entrance of her wild pet.

Maya walked on all fours into the room. There was silence, everyone kept staring at her ravishing shapes. She had sensationally massive buttocks and breasts. Her ass was protruding far up in a very arousing manner, her tits were rubbing against the floor as she moved. Her slightly parted tremendous lips looked like an invitation for hard cocks. The most striking, however, was her skin. Her whole body was covered with a tight and shiny layer of latex, which in fact, was her new synthetic skin. Slim and Sunny let out a deep breath at the same time, their eyes never leaving the girl in front of them. She was even more enhanced than they could ever imagine.

"Come on," Rose encouraged her guests. "Who would want to taste her? This insatiable pet never has enough."

Maya's sexy face showed impatience and lust. Her cock hungry eyes followed the guests as she was flexing her toned muscles.

One of the men got up and went to the sex pet taking slow steps. The moment he moved she laid her eyes on him and kept staring at his fly, all the time licking her shiny plump lips in excitement. She let out a an animal-like moan, shifting from leg to leg impatiently. The mobster pulled down his pants and revealed his rigid member. At the sight Maya jumped at him ferociously. For a moment she really resembled a tigress.

The crowd gasped in horror and surprise. Several people approached the enhanced girl and tried to overpower her. Maya pinned her prey to the ground and pressed her hand on the man's throat. She gave a jab in the ribs of one of the women with impressive power and speed and easily pushed another man who tried to tame the sex pet. She was hissing, growling and frantically looking around. The situation became dangerous.

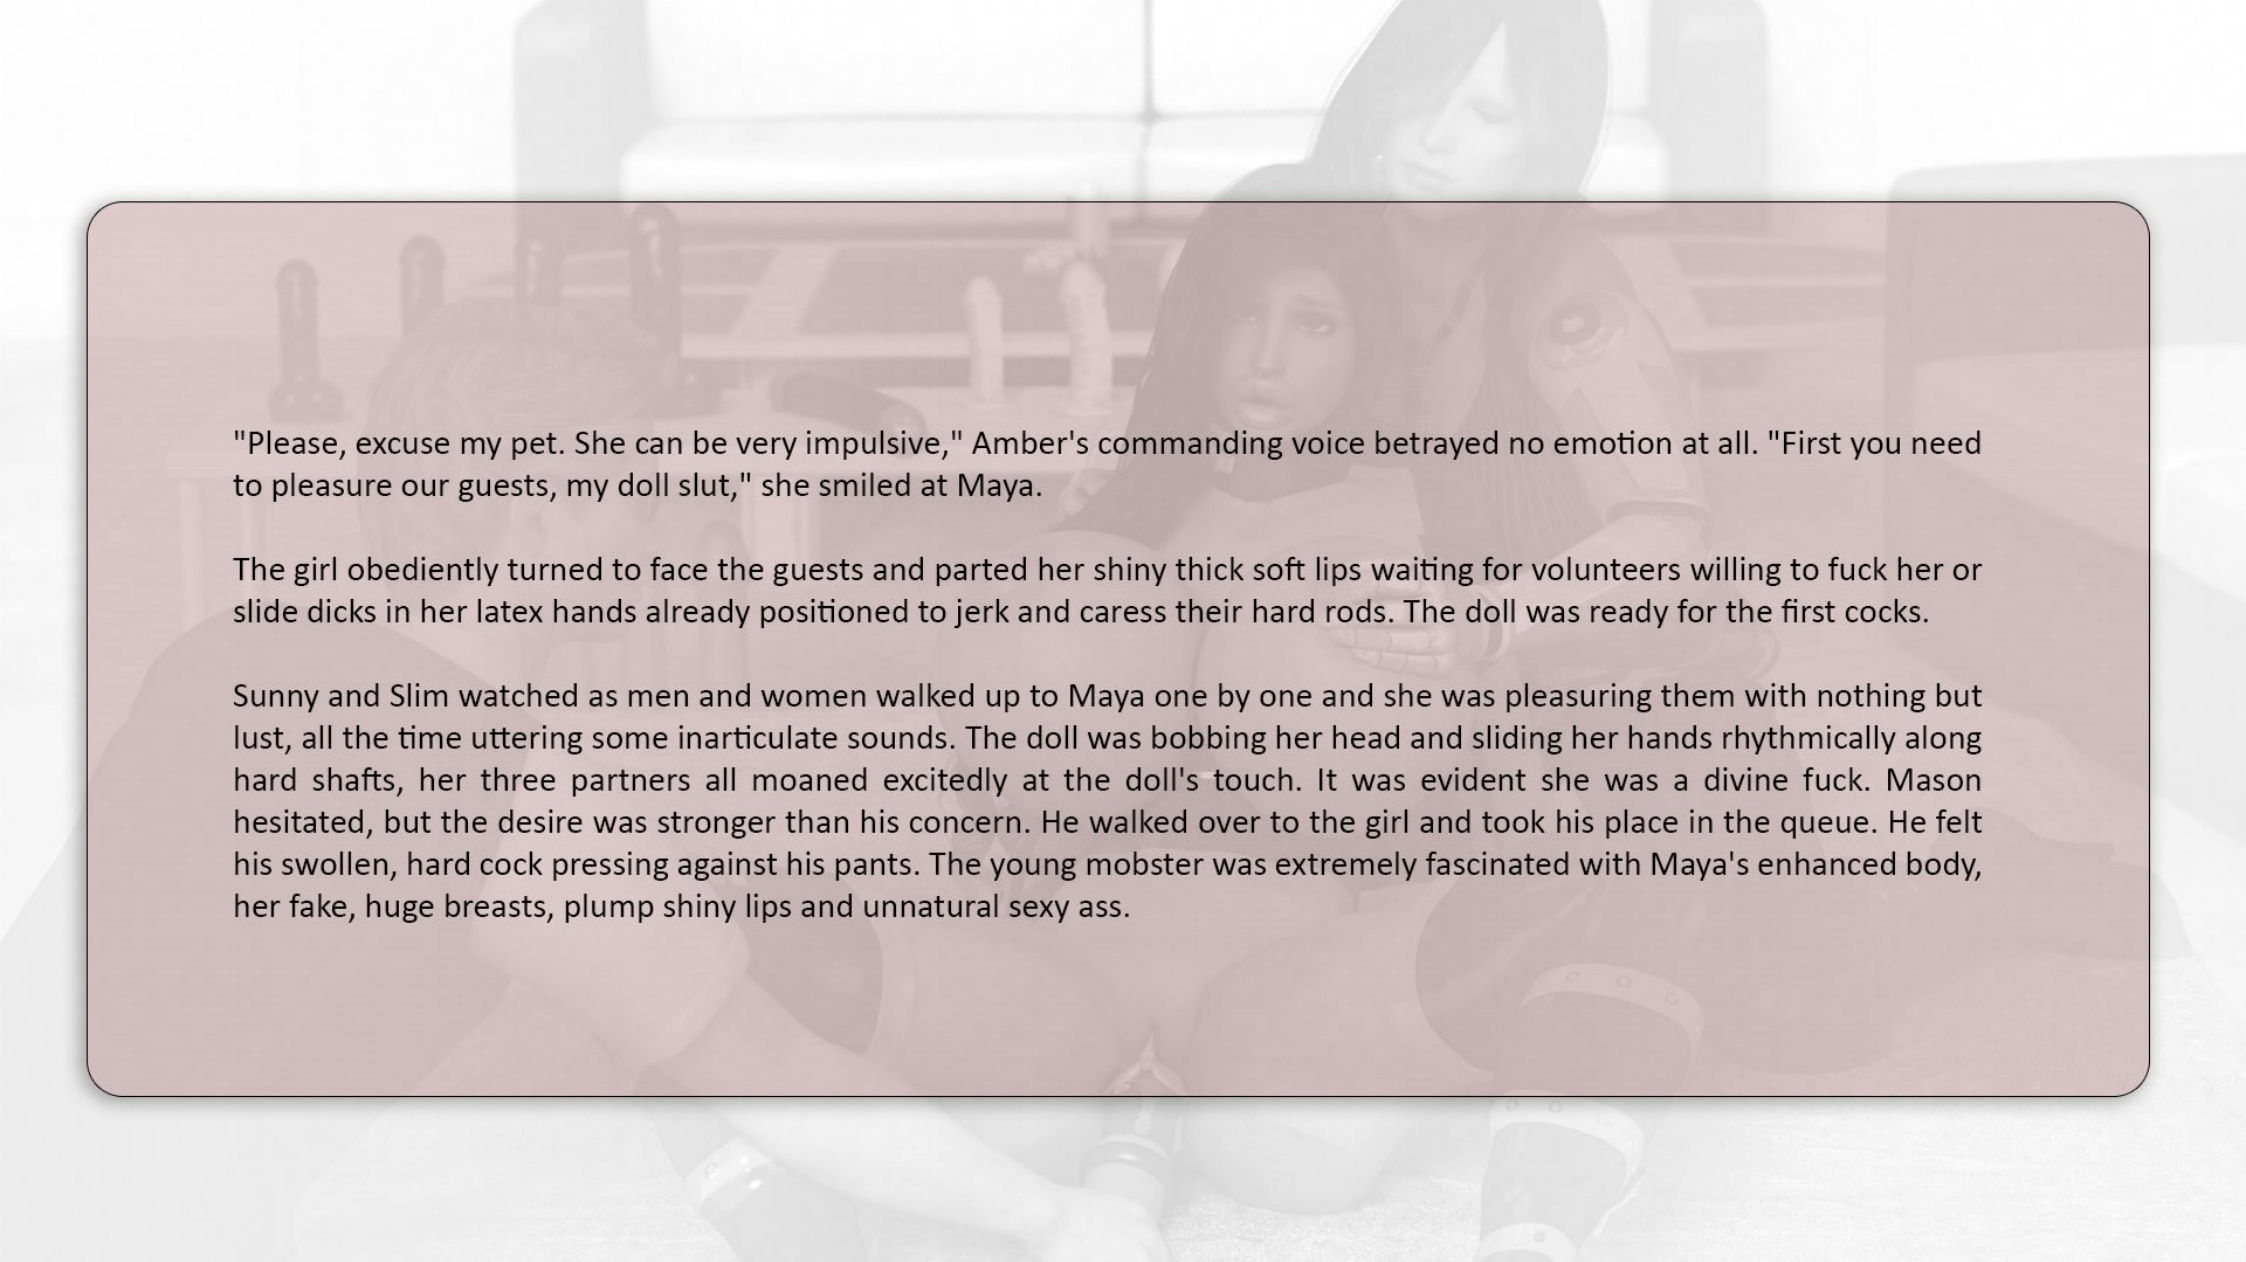

"Hush!" Rose shouted out.

At the sound of her Mistress's voice Maya immediately cringed and let go of the man. The mobster breathed a sigh of relief and rubbed his sore neck, while the woman who received Maya's painful blow started massaging her ribs.

The slave suddenly became meek and obedient. She moaned softly and flaunted her lustful sex holes, presenting her glossy enhanced doll assets to the people around.

Sunny wondered what Rose had to do to achieve such obedience. These training sessions clearly could not be an urban legend.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a red dress, is sitting on a table in a restaurant. She is looking towards the camera with a neutral expression. The background shows other tables and chairs, suggesting a dining area. The lighting is soft and indoor.

"Please, excuse my pet. She can be very impulsive," Amber's commanding voice betrayed no emotion at all. "First you need to pleasure our guests, my doll slut," she smiled at Maya.

The girl obediently turned to face the guests and parted her shiny thick soft lips waiting for volunteers willing to fuck her or slide dicks in her latex hands already positioned to jerk and caress their hard rods. The doll was ready for the first cocks.

Sunny and Slim watched as men and women walked up to Maya one by one and she was pleasuring them with nothing but lust, all the time uttering some inarticulate sounds. The doll was bobbing her head and sliding her hands rhythmically along hard shafts, her three partners all moaned excitedly at the doll's touch. It was evident she was a divine fuck. Mason hesitated, but the desire was stronger than his concern. He walked over to the girl and took his place in the queue. He felt his swollen, hard cock pressing against his pants. The young mobster was extremely fascinated with Maya's enhanced body, her fake, huge breasts, plump shiny lips and unnatural sexy ass.

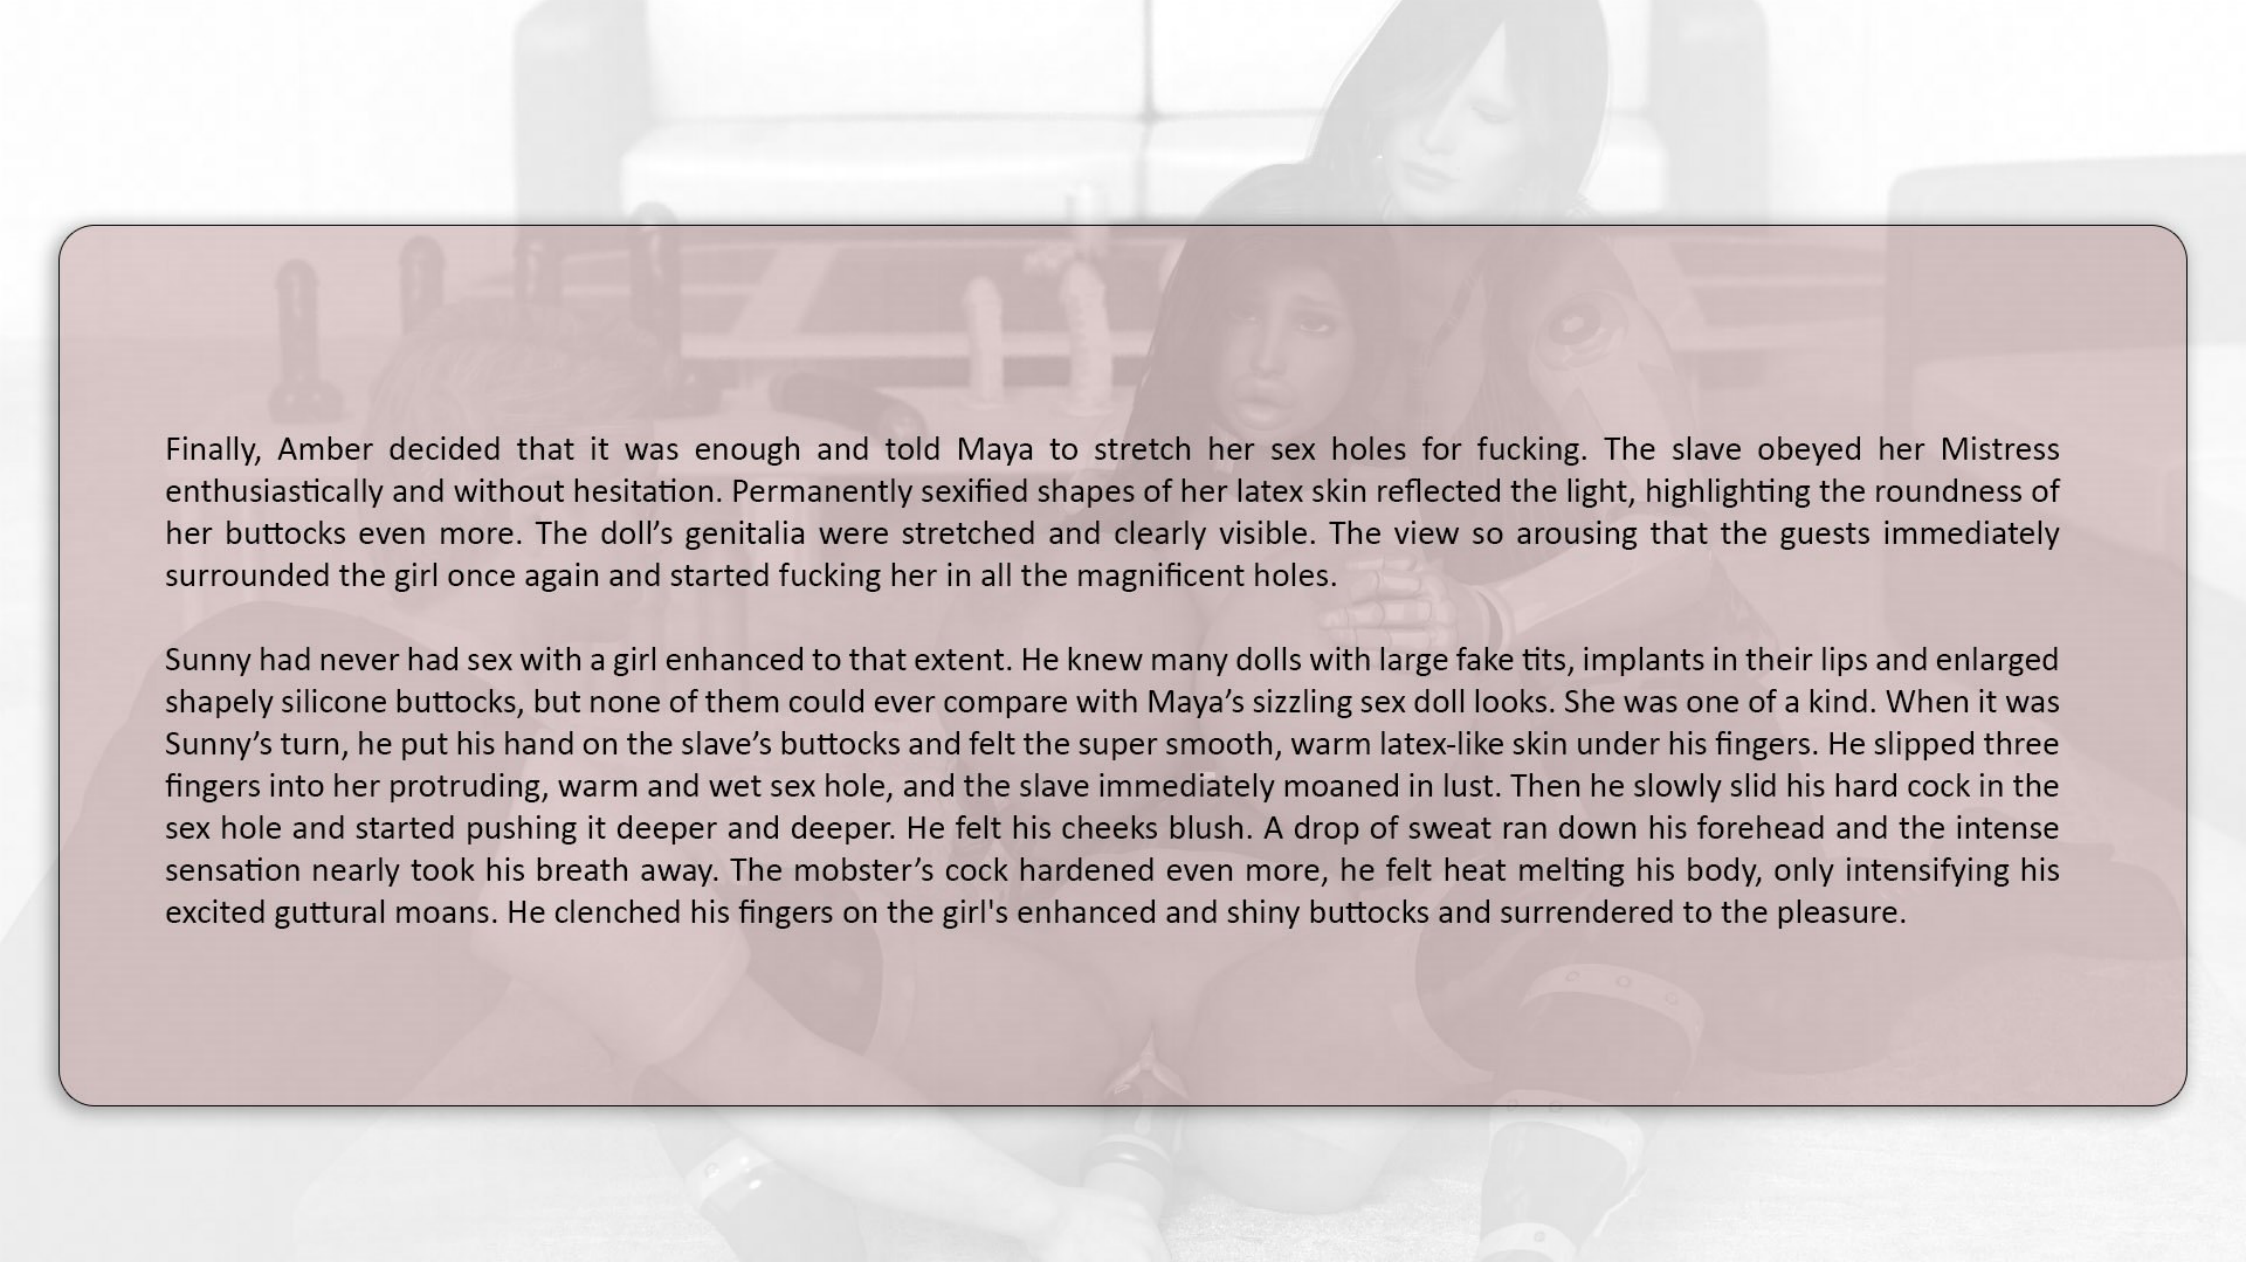

He watched as her shiny hands clenched on hard cock and jerked the other men, and he wondered how it felt to slide a penis in her pink shiny softness.

When it was finally his turn, Maya's hand tightened on his erect manhood, and Mason instantly let out a big heavy sigh. The feeling was wonderful and overwhelming. The inside of her perfectly round sex hole was infatuating - wet, warm and super tight on his cock. The girl moved exactly as he liked, slowly at first, gradually increasing the pace, changing it from time to time, surprising the man with a sudden change of cock-living rhythm.

The man that was in the middle came first, and warm sticky sperm cascaded into Maya's throat.

The sex doll looked at Mason with extreme excitement in her eyes and threw herself at his cock. For a split second Slim was afraid that she would really hurt him. She tightened her plump fake shiny lips on his penis and the feeling of divine pleasure immediately shot all over the man's body. She was vigorously bobbing her head, and Mason felt his still member touching the deep end of her throat. Her mouth was extremely soft, warm and lubricated. Never before had he experienced such an extreme sexual pleasure from any other woman. He wanted the moment to last forever and tried to keep hard as long as literally could, but he reached an orgasm in the doll's luscious lips very quickly. The sensation made him weak at the knees he almost fell down. He moaned with absolute bliss and excitement. Maya licked his cock with her teasing tongue and swallowed his sperm enthusiastically.

The pet pleased one guy after another, always servicing three cocks at the same time, and it was impossible to tell how many of them she had already satisfied. She basically had to swallow tons of sperm. Kneeling on the floor must have been exhausting for her. Not to mention the constant movement of her head and hands. Still, she did not seem to be tired even a tiny bit. She would look at Amber from time to time, as if checking whether her Mistress was happy with her latex doll. When Black Rose was around she'd immediately change from an aggressive wild animal into a shiny submissive sex bitch.

Finally, Amber decided that it was enough and told Maya to stretch her sex holes for fucking. The slave obeyed her Mistress enthusiastically and without hesitation. Permanently sexified shapes of her latex skin reflected the light, highlighting the roundness of her buttocks even more. The doll's genitalia were stretched and clearly visible. The view so arousing that the guests immediately surrounded the girl once again and started fucking her in all the magnificent holes.

Sunny had never had sex with a girl enhanced to that extent. He knew many dolls with large fake tits, implants in their lips and enlarged shapely silicone buttocks, but none of them could ever compare with Maya's sizzling sex doll looks. She was one of a kind. When it was Sunny's turn, he put his hand on the slave's buttocks and felt the super smooth, warm latex-like skin under his fingers. He slipped three fingers into her protruding, warm and wet sex hole, and the slave immediately moaned in lust. Then he slowly slid his hard cock in the sex hole and started pushing it deeper and deeper. He felt his cheeks blush. A drop of sweat ran down his forehead and the intense sensation nearly took his breath away. The mobster's cock hardened even more, he felt heat melting his body, only intensifying his excited guttural moans. He clenched his fingers on the girl's enhanced and shiny buttocks and surrendered to the pleasure.

The desire to reach an orgasm and satisfy his encompassing sexual lust was so big that, despite the exertion, he pushed harder into the lustful doll and increased the thrusts that would bring him closer to a wonderful climax. He felt pleasantly warm, smooth latex skin rubbing excitedly against his penis. His pleasure piled up and suddenly exploded with great intensity, filling the magnificent sex hole with his cum.

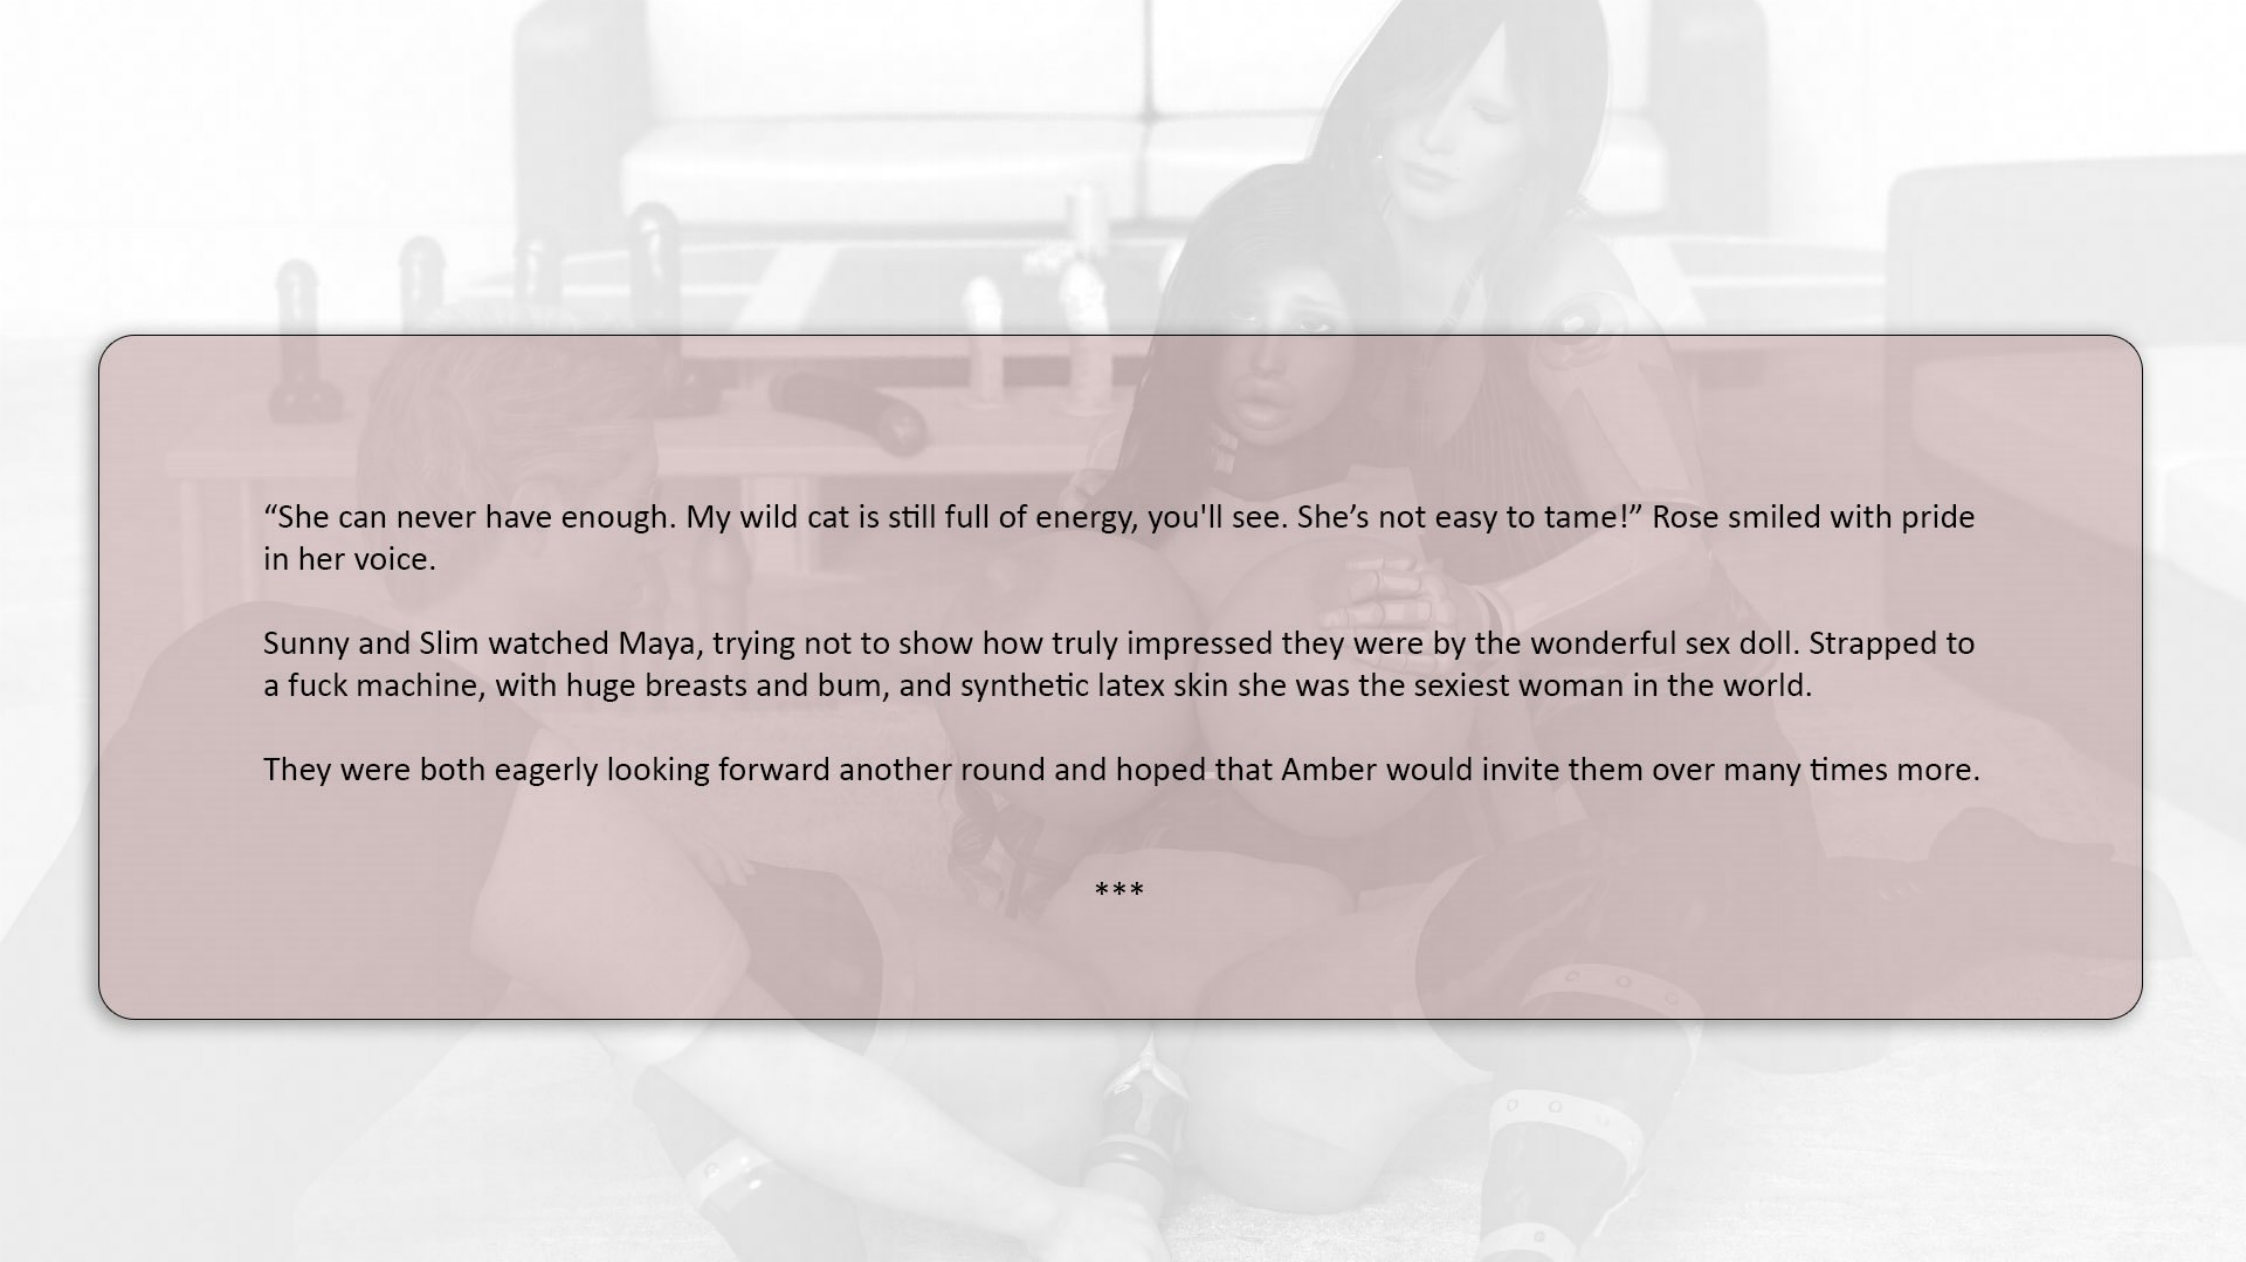

Maya was writhing and moaning like a wild shiny sex beast in heat. She still did not seem to have enough, her sexual energy was at insane levels. Every now and then she reached a powerful orgasm, screaming with pleasure at the top of her lungs and trembling like crazy, only to come back to fucking in need of more pleasure.

Even though there were so many of them that night, Black Rose's guests were actually the first ones to have enough. When everyone had their pleasure with the doll, Amber simply strapped her sex pet to a fuck machine, which kept to penetrate the latex doll's sex holes rhythmically and incessantly. Maya was moaning, clearly satisfied, her eyes were moving rapidly and her shiny muscles kept flexing from the sheer intensity of the sensation. Amber's guests could not stop staring at the scene. All of them were totally fascinated and aroused by the doll like never before. They were sipping drinks and exchanging opinion about the fantastic fuck toy Maya had become.

"Let's have a break!" Amber announced. "Let the machine keep my sex pet occupied! Help yourselves with drinks and food. Soon we will start the second round of total doll fucking," she smiled.

"Is she..?" One of the female guests was clearly worried, pointing toward the shiny sex slave strapped to the pumping fuck machine. "Doesn't she have enough? Maybe she should rest for a while?"

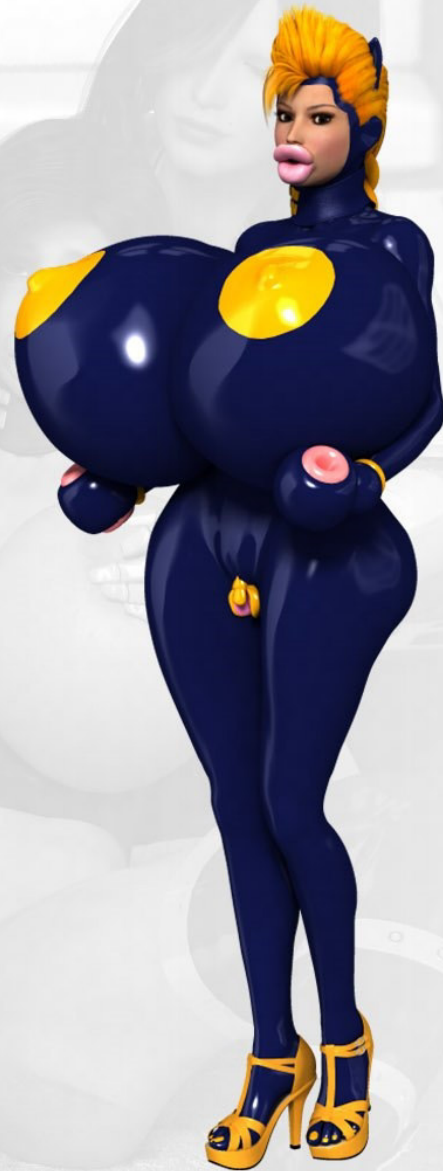

“She can never have enough. My wild cat is still full of energy, you'll see. She's not easy to tame!” Rose smiled with pride in her voice.

Sunny and Slim watched Maya, trying not to show how truly impressed they were by the wonderful sex doll. Strapped to a fuck machine, with huge breasts and bum, and synthetic latex skin she was the sexiest woman in the world.

They were both eagerly looking forward another round and hoped that Amber would invite them over many times more.
