

„Candy”

Dear DollProject!

I've just found this website and decided to share my story.

My name is Candy and I'm a bimbo. I have round fake boobs, butt implants and enhanced lips. I make sure my body's slim, tanned and shaved all the time. I have platinum blonde hair, long nail extensions and fake eyelashes. I wear a lot of make-up and slutty outfits.

But it hasn't always been that way...

A few years ago I used to be a shy student, dreaming of working as a history teacher. I spent most of my time at a library, avoiding parties and social life. I wore modest, dark and baggy clothes, had mousy coloured hair and never put on any make-up.

At the age of 23 I was still a virgin. I was not interested in sex and nobody really wanted to do it with me. I felt like I was missing something.

It has all changed one Saturday night. The only friend I had almost dragged me to a party. As I was not used to alcohol I was tipsy immediately. I met a guy. He took me home. Said something about "seeing potential in me". When I felt his penis inside me, I knew what I'd been longing for all those years.

Since then everything changed...

Now, my purpose in life is to be perfect fucktoy. I'm horny all the time and ready for sex. I love cocks and want to make them all hard. The best way of spending time is giving head... or anal. It's really difficult to decide. I'm into any kind of sex.

My favourite taste is the one of hot cum. I was told my throat is the best place for a man's cock and I'm proud of it.

I believe intelligence is overrated. I have no idea why I used to spend so much time reading and trying to remember all those boring historical dates. Now I'm into different kind of dates <giggle>, and read only magazines about fashion and looks (if they're not too long), with lots of pictures. I don't need to be smart. Men want me to have a perfect body and a hot, wet pussy. And I give it to them.

Yes, I'm a slut. I'd let almost anyone fuck me. It's nothing to be ashamed of. I'm obsessed about my looks. I want to make men desire me. I want them all to fuck me. And I'm really happy. I've finally found my place and purpose in life.

Candy :-*
