Kiara squeezed her hands into fists to hide their shaking. She tried not to look straight into cameras, as she had been told before the show. She concentrated on the wide cheerful smile of the host who clearly felt like a fish in the water as he was dancing his way around the TV studio.

"Kiara, you've just been chosen from among hundreds of candidates for our reality show. We all want to know how you feel now."

"Bewildered."

"Entry event is the first time you've ever been on TV, right?"

Kiara nodded.

"Most of the candidates have some experience in the erotic industry," the presenter continued. "You were one of the few that had nothing to do with it. Let me ask you this question once again, just to make sure," he made a theatrical gesture and cheered at the viewers. "You know what the show is about, don't you? Good girls shouldn't play this game."

"Of course," Kiara chuckled.

"There are certain procedures waiting for you... The viewers will choose from a selection of these and in the end they will be the ones who decide who will win - you or the other participant!"

Kiara nodded and smiled.

"Previous editions of our show were full of exciting, sometimes very perverse scenes." he closed his eyes lollygagging in a dreamland. "The girls did things that would embarrass a lot of porn stars."

Kiara blushed and clenched her fists more tightly.

"I'm aware of that," she replied. "I'm ready for it."

The host of the show raised his eyebrows and clapped.

"Wonderful! Let me remind you that the surgeries of our contestants changed them beyond recognition. I was shocked how these beautiful women turned into pre sex-goddesses. Are you sure you've taken into consideration all the consequences of taking part in our show?" He looked at her with visible concern.

"Of course," she said, but her voice was a bit shaky, as if not sure.

Suddenly she was full of doubts and wanted to leave the TV studio as soon as possible.

"The rules of our show say that you will not know which procedure you will be subjected to until the day of a surgery. It's very exciting, but at the same time very terrifying, isn't it?"

"Oh, yes," Kiara replied immediately. "So many surprises waiting for me!"

"What interests me the most is what motivates a girl like you, without any connection with the porn industry, to take part in our special show?"

Kiara smiled shyly.

"I felt stuck, I wanted to move and needed a change."

"So radical?" The host was visibly surprised. "Most people would go on holiday to an exotic place or find themselves a new hobby to start with!"

"I wanted to do something special and crazy," Kiara explained. "I have always been quite shy and socially inhibited."

"This show is definitely going to be your big break!" The man laughed.

A moment later, the show was interrupted, with a commercial break, and for the first time in a few minutes Kiara took a deep breath.

When she left the studio, she saw a make-up artist preparing her competitor for the entrance after the break.

Lexi, Kiara's competitor, noticed the girl and assessed her chances of winning as very high. It was not about the look - the other girl was attractive, and the surgeries that they were both going to have would make Kiara supersexy. Her attention was more focused on the frightened look in Kiara's eyes. The girl had her inhibitions, while Lexi was ready for anything and she really needed this win - she had debts to pay and the financial prize and recognition, she could easily build her brand on, would help her pay back everything and she would still have a lot of money left. After all, retirement came in her profession rather quickly.

She stood in front of the camera and winked at the host.

"Welcome, Lexi!" The man exclaimed, cheering once again. "Is it your real name or your nickname?"

The girl giggled a little too loud.

"That is my real name!"

"Unlike Kiara, you already have experience in showing your charms to the viewers," the host announced to the audience.

"I work as a camgirl."

"However, you have never filmed with another person, and our viewers will probably expect that from you."

"It's very exciting that in the end I will try that and so many people are going to see it."

"Really? You don't seem nervous. In fact, you look very relaxed."

The girl threw her hair back and crossed her legs.

"I must admit that the prospect of a radical change in my appearance and all the upcoming surgeries is quite stressful, but I really want to do that. Many of my friends in the industry decide to improve their looks, you know, fake breasts, filled-out lips, sometimes buttocks implants... I admire them because I was never brave enough to do the same."

"Here's where all the emotions come in! You will not even know what changes our viewers will decide on. What if you don't like the results?"

Lexi smiled slightly artificially and adjusted herself in her chair.

"I'm sure I'm gonna love them."

"I don't want to discourage you... I will be happy to see you undergo a metamorphosis, but you must know that in our previous editions the participants experienced pretty astonishing transformations. Some had to change their everyday life drastically just because the new shapes became shockingly.. prominent. I know that you workout a lot, do you think that at some point it will have to change?"

"Hope not! I am sure that I will be able to hit the gym even when my body shape is improved."

The host nodded.

"You already know that the first enhancements will take place in two weeks time. How do you feel about that?"

"I am very excited and I still wonder what's waiting for me."

"Do you have any predictions or preferences?"

Lexi thought for a brief moment.

"My lips could be more plump," she said hesitantly. "I think I'd look very sexy with succulent lips."

"You think that the viewers will start with such a small improvement?"

"I have no idea! Maybe it will be something much more significant," Lexi laughed nervously. "Butt implants? It would be nice to have a big sexy bottom."

"What will you do if it turns out that the change will be very extreme starting with the first surgery? We've had situations like that before. Would you leave the show?"

"Oh, no, definitely not," Lexi assured the man. "I'm sure I will make it to the end and, I hope, I will win the prize."

"Excellent! In that case, I'm taking you to the surgeon right away!"

Lexi frowned and bit her lower lip, uncertainty lurking in her eyes.

"Right.. now?!"

"Of course! Don't keep the audience waiting!"

The camera accompanied her at the doctor's office, and Lexi tried to figure out what the procedure would be, but the doctors and the team did not give her any hints. They carefully examined every part of her body, so she could not exactly guess what sort of procedure was waiting for her.

Two weeks later, both girls went to the clinic, each of them had a surgery chosen by the viewers. Both were very determined, but also extremely anxious. The competition has begun.

Kiara took a deep breath and hit the record button. She knew that if she did not want to be voted out of the show, she had to finally show her viewers a little bit more skin.

Several weeks have passed since the visit to the clinic. When it turned out that she would not undergo any major surgery, she felt a wave of conflicting emotions, mostly relief and disappointment at the same time. The doctor stuck a needle in her arm and explained that in the following days he might experience some side effects, like mood swings or fatigue, but he did not want to reveal how the mysterious substance would affect her appearance.

The next morning she felt quite ok. She made herself a rich breakfast - she always liked to eat, tasty meals were one of the greatest pleasures in her life, but they were also associated with constant guilt. She managed to keep her slim figure with great difficulty and had to run for hours to burn all the calories. That morning she decided that she should be rewarded. Almost an hour after she ate, she felt extremely hungry and very dizzy. Also her stomach hurt painfully, while the only thought she had was of having another breakfast. She made two large cheesy veg sandwiches and ate them so greedily, as if she had had nothing in her mouth for a few days.

"I'm still hungry," she complained to the camera. "I think it's what I've been injected with and I'm quite afraid of what my body will look like. It would be nice if all this went into the bust," she laughed nervously and touched her breasts.

Kiara was still craving lots of food and the effects were visible after a few days - her thighs became larger, her breasts fuller, she felt heavier and she had the impression that she was gaining more weight than she should, even despite her rather unhealthy diet. She did a lot of workouts, but there was no change. What's more, all her physical exercises only made her crave for food even more.

She stood in front of the camera and smiled at the audience. She wanted to get the viewers and knew exactly what they expected from her. She thought of all those people who would see her body and blushed. After all, it was what she had wanted...

Slowly she slid her pants down, turned round, and took off her blouse. She moved her hands over her curvy body, then unbuttoned her bra. Her nipples instantly hardened - she did not know whether from cold or sheer excitement. It was frightening, but also arousing. Finally, she got rid of her panties.

She stroked her thighs and buttocks, turned around so that everyone could see every curve of her body. She knew that the viewers were counting on a very erotic performance from her, but she had never done it before and did not feel ready for it.

She froze for a few seconds, then ran to the webcam and turned it off.

Lexi spent a few seconds, with wide grin of a satisfied cat on her face, presenting her new, firm breasts to the viewers.

She invited the entire TV crew and the host to her place. The man was now off camera, since he did not want to distract the viewers from seeing Lexi's newly improved body.

"They are really big," he commented. "So, what do you think, Lexi?"

"Oh, I fell in love with them at first sight," said the girl, playfully circling her swollen nipples.

She had been pretty aware what to expect from a breast enhancement surgery, and yet, when she looked down for the first time after the procedure and realized how huge they were, her head was spinning.

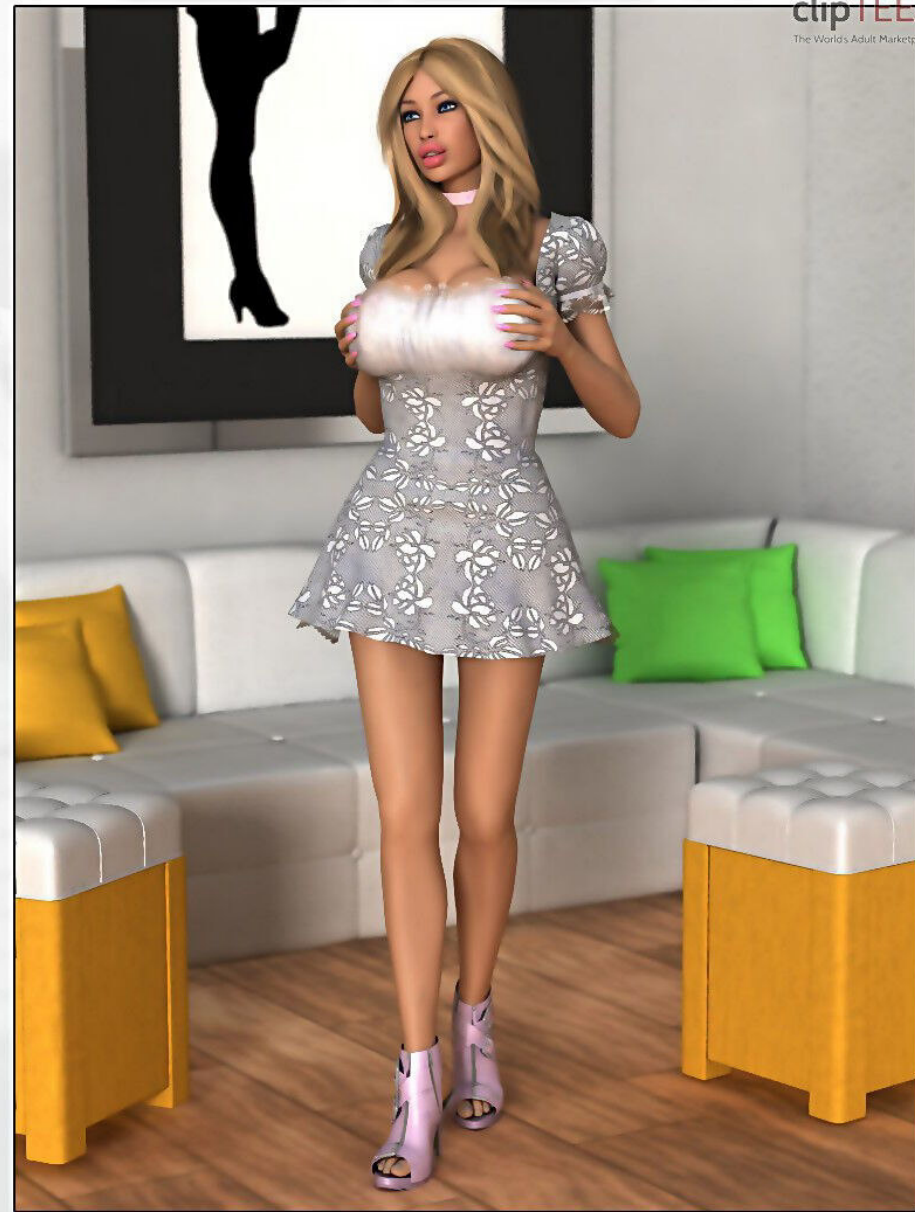

"They must be heavy," the host continued.

"I'm slowly getting used to that," she smiled. "I must admit that I am still in a bit of a shock. I feel like a completely new woman!"

"Well, you do know that this is just the beginning, and our viewers can decide on further, more radical changes to your body. Still, are you willing to stay in the show?"

Lexi squeezed her breasts with her well-groomed hands and shook her head, letting her shiny hair fall around her radiant face.

"Of course! I am very curious what other sexy thing people will come up with! I want to show how exciting my body can be... and I want to play with these new beauties now," she giggled and shook her implants.

Lexi smiled encouragingly, she had done it hundreds of times, although never before such a large audience and never in the presence of a TV crew. She caressed her naked body, focusing on the big bust, the size of which still terrified her. Of course, she had known it would be like that, but to feel the new tits being a part of her body... it was something completely different. At the same time, it excited her that she had become so sexy, she liked to look at her reflection in the mirror and put on new outfits with deep cleavage.

She spread her legs and slowly licked her slender fingers, sliding them a bit between her lips. She was aware of how attractive she was and knew how to make use of it. She tilted her head back, closed her eyes and touched her pussy. She moaned, loud enough for the viewers to hear it clearly.

After a few minutes she knew it was time to pretend a powerful orgasm. She never felt that in front of the camera - she had a lot of experience as a cam girl, but giving in to a wonderful pleasure with so many people watching her was still too difficult.

Now the audience was even bigger and Lexi suddenly felt that she was overcome with genuine excitement. She tightly clenched her hands on the prominent bust, sighed and slipped her fingers into her suddenly hot and juicy pussy. A sheer thrill of passion jolted through Lexi, her pleasure grew, and a moment later she was no longer in control of the body and climaxed intensely, looking directly into the camera.

Once her orgasm eased off, she felt satisfaction, but also embarrassment, because she had never showed herself so much.

Before & After

Kiara once again sat on the couch in the studio, She noticed she sank deeper into the comfy piece of furniture than during her previous visit. The clothes she wore were a few sizes larger, and they could hardly fit her ever-growing shapes. Kiara fanned herself with a hand and felt she was hungry again.

She had just received a second injection, which increased her appetite even more tightly and made her gain more weight. She got heavier every day and had no idea when it would end. She had always liked eating, but that very moment she could not recognize herself. All her thoughts circled around food and more food, even at night her dreams were filled with sweets and pizzas.

"Wow, you're much bigger than when I saw you for the first time!" The host turned to his guest. "Do you like your new looks?"

Kiara grimaced slightly and ran her hands over the rounding body subconsciously.

"I gained a lot of weight, " she said. "Honestly, I did not expect changes in my body to go in this direction. Extra kilos give me a hard time, not to mention that I want to eat all the time," she laughed.

"Even now?"

Kiara nodded her head vigorously. Corners of her lips were salivating at the mere thought about food.

"I thought that I would change the way Lexi did," she added.

"Many of our viewers think you are so much sexier than her."

"Really?"

The man read a few comments from social media praising Kiara's new looks. The girl straightened up proudly and smiled cheerfully. She had never received so many compliments before!

Later, the host read what the viewers would like in subsequent episodes and Kiara turned pale. She knew that they wanted her to behave more perversely, but she didn't have enough courage for that.

"When will you show us something more?" The host asked Kiara. "We're anxious to see your sexy show. Especially since Lexi is so into it!"

"It was difficult for me to show myself naked in front of such a large audience," Kiara said warily. "I find my new body slightly intimidating."

Before & After

"There's nothing to be ashamed of, girl! Our viewers are counting on you!" The man encouraged her. "You haven't seen Lexi's new body yet. It's refined with subsequent surgeries. How do you like your competitor's looks?"

Lexi appeared on the screen, her breasts had become even larger and fuller. Expanders were filled with an extra volume of saline, the girl's skin tensed, and the implants changed shape to a more round, basketball-like one. In addition, her lips had become large and prominent, they were so succulent they had basically changed her entire face.

Kiara sighed awestruck and kept staring at the strikingly sexy body of her rival.

"She is... extremely attractive,"

"Lexi went all the way during her latest show," the host laughed. "She had sex on camera for the first time. Amazing that she broke up so quickly! She seemed to really enjoy it. Matt, what do you think?"

Kiara bit her lip. She felt that there was no chance to win with this hot girl.

A man's face appeared on the screen.

"I think everyone would just love to be in your place," the host of the show turned to Matt. "You had the opportunity to caress this incredibly sexy body."

"Lexi was amazing," Matt was smiling smugly. "Very enthusiastic and full of initiative. She gives wonderful blowjobs! Her lips are so soft and so sensitive that I could barely restrain myself from cumming just after a few seconds!"

The host nodded his head with delight.

"I liked her tits the most," Matt added after a meaningful pause. "I could play with them for hours, they are very big, especially considering her slim figure."

"Would you like Lexi's tits to be enlarged even more?"

A dreamy expression appeared on Matt's face.

"Definitely! I know that girls in this show reach gigantic proportions and I hope that it will be the same with Lexi and Kiara. I love to watch girls change into super sexy goddesses. I think I would like her lips to become really plump the most. So large and luscious that she would hardly speak. Such lips look very exciting and really make a difference when it comes to oral sex. I believe that Kiara will go all the way, too! You have nothing to be ashamed of, we all want to see you!"

Kiara blushed and lowered her eyes.

The host said goodbye to Matt, then turned to Kiara:

"Hmm, what do you think? What changes have our viewers chosen for you?"

"Oh, I have no idea, it's always a complete surprise, but I'd like to go a bit different this time."

"What do you mean?"

"I was thinking about enlarging my lips, or improving my face. You see, I'm a bit jealous of Lexi," she laughed.

"The decision belongs to our viewers. Are you ready to discover what they have prepared for you this time?"

Kiara swallowed, took a deep breath and nodded.

"It can be virtually anything, you know that, right? Giant breast implants that will prevent you from squeezing into any of the dresses you own, huge breasts, nose surgery, and even more unusual treatments such as labia enhancements."

Kiara smiled shyly.

"Such things already happened in our show. Some of the girls were subjected to sophisticated procedures that changed their appearance forever. One of them underwent a cosmetic feet surgery and they became smaller. Our viewers liked the new look very much, but for her it turned out to be rather embarrassing. Another one was pierced and beautified with lots of piercing and tattoos. I remember especially a woman whose breasts became so large that she had to always hold onto someone when she walked."

Kiara breathed faster and tried to look relaxed, though deep inside her heart was pounding like crazy.

"I would like to know what is there for me this time," she said in an unnaturally shrill voice.

"I can't tell you everything - rules of the show! But I can say that we've decided to give you a private maid."

"Why? After all, I am fully capable of doing all by myself!"

The host was silent for a moment to build the tension.

"It's going to change soon," he said in a stage-whisper.

Kiara went pale, and the visions that appeared in her head in reaction to the man's words made her feel weak. Will they do something to reduce her mobility? Just like that other girl, her tits will be so huge that she will not be able to dress herself or prepare herself something to eat?

"In addition, a new set of outfits is waiting for you in your wardrobe!" The host cheered once again. "The ones you're wearing now may soon stop fitting you. You're probably thinking whether you should surrender and withdraw from the show now?"

"No," she lied after a moment's hesitation. "I am very determined and I am going to go through all the treatments. I am going to win!"

Her words surprised her.

"In that case, I advise you to meet our viewer's expectations and show something sexy. You do not want Lexi to lead in the game!"

When Kiara found out she was about to get another injection, she felt a sudden rush of pure adrenalin - she was going to become even fatter and heavier. Confused and aroused, she really did not know what to think about that, as other options were equally terrifying: filling her breast with gigantic implants, inflating her buttocks to great sizes, perfecting and enhancing her feet or pussy... After all, the viewers could have chosen any of these options! Still, they decided on an injection. Kiara was about to put on even more weight, although it seemed almost impossible and unrealistic.

In addition, her lips were to be filled and Kiara hoped they would not appear to be too fat. At first they seemed too large, plump and kinky. She was embarrassed that they were so huge and artificial. Her breasts and buttocks were growing with each day, their size frightened her more and more. Skin folds appeared on her belly and the thighs grew so much that she had no chance to fit into any pants. She still had to learn her new body, sleep in a completely different position and be careful not to hit anything, because she often forgot how corpulent her body had become.

She exercised every day, trying to burn extra kilos, but there were no results. Personal trainers encouraged her to continue with the workout and emphasized the importance of having strong muscles to support the weight to which her joints and bones were not accustomed to. Her workouts became much harder and more exhausting than they had used to be.

The maid turned out to be extremely helpful, especially with cooking, as Kiara ate extraordinary amounts of food. At that point eating took her several hours a day.

Before & After

She seriously thought about giving up the program. She lost her enthusiasm and was more and more convinced that all that TV show idea was a big mistake. Why did she decide to take part in the show in the first place? It was a porn show for girls like Lexi, determined and devoid of all inhibitions, while Kiara could not even force herself to spread her legs in front of the camera.

She was surprised that she had so many fans - it turned out that many people were pretty excited with her constantly increasing weight. Even though she did not show much nudity, she was still popular and people were hoping that eventually she would go naked.

Lexi struggled to remain calm and composed.

"Please, tell me what procedure is waiting for me this time," she told the nurse and the doctor, who were collecting her blood sample and examining her at the same time... "I know it's against the rules, but I really need to know!"

The nurse patted her on the shoulder, but did not say a word. The doctor stated that he has no right to disclose such information and added that Lexi could, of course, give up the surgery and thus end her participation in the show.

"No way," she mumbled and lay down on the hospital bed.

When Lexi was already in the operating room, a surgeon was invited to the studio to explain what surgeries were performed on her.

"Lexi's appearance will change drastically and it will probably be a huge shock for her," said the doctor. "It is also a significant exertion her body, usually we do not carry out several surgical procedures at the same time, as it is in Lexi's case right now. A few weeks of recovery will be absolutely necessary."

"How will Lexi feel after the procedure?" The TV show host asked the surgeon.

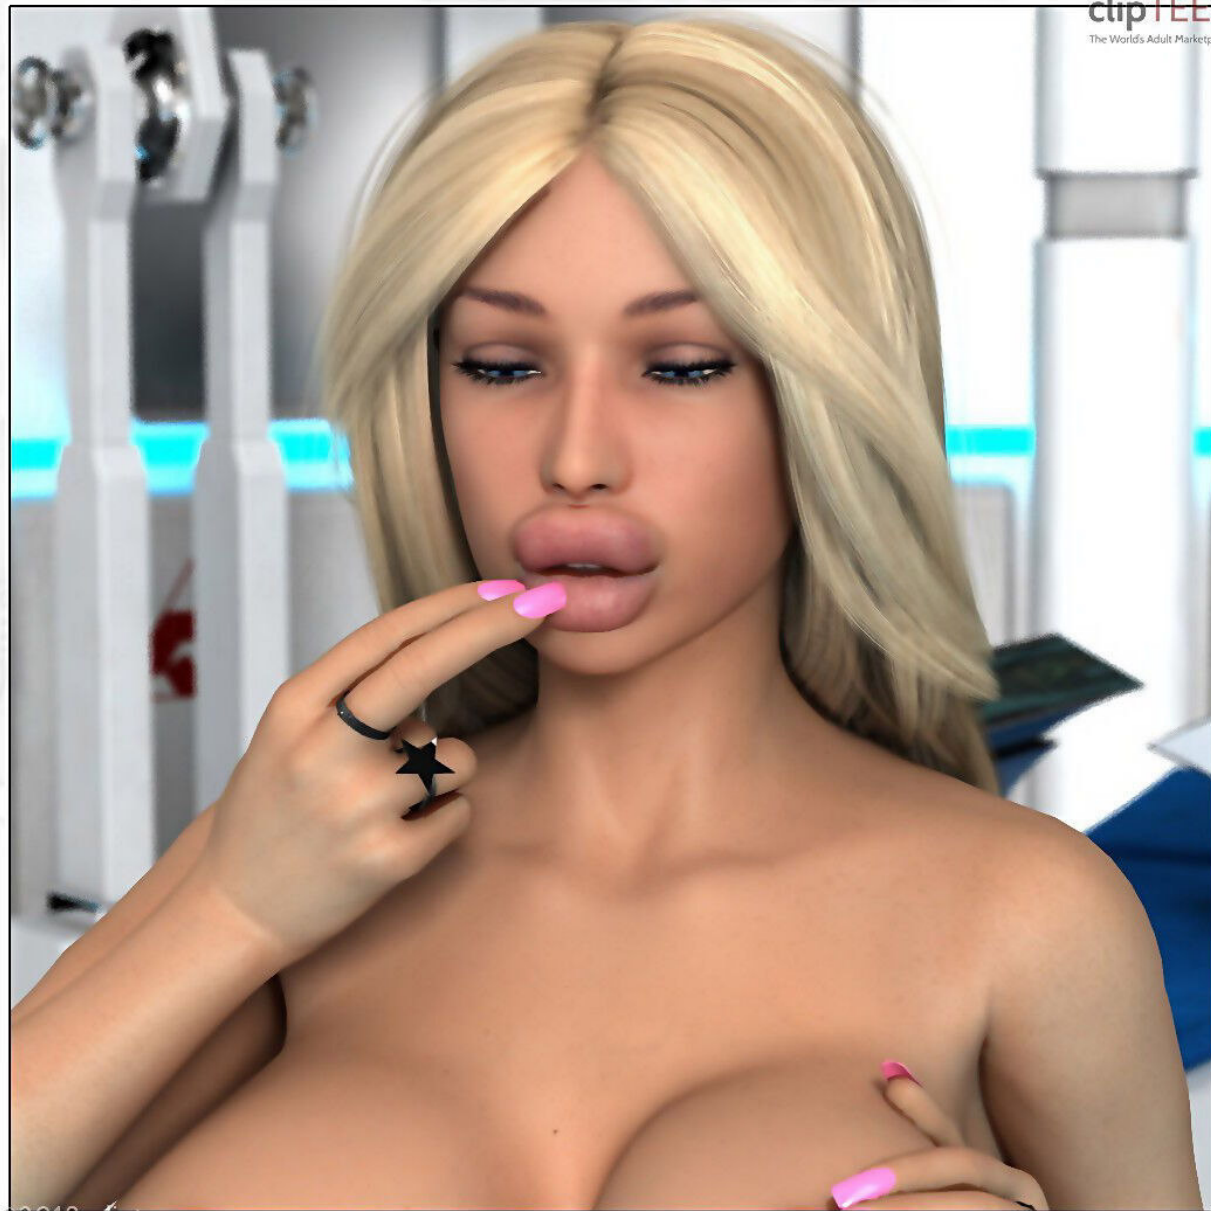

"Physically? She will be very weak and will require the help of nurses in the first few days after the surgery. When it comes to her mental state...." the doctor hesitated. "...it is difficult to predict, but she probably does not expect so many changes, so she may need time to accept her new improved body. In previous editions of the show there were cases of participants experiencing huge shock after the operation and they required a long term supervision of our psychologists. Lexi will feel that her body shapes are different and that any kind of movement in her enhanced body requires a bit more effort. It may happen that people who knew her earlier will start treating her differently, too. She will have to deal with all these consequences once she is awake."

"Thank you, doctor," the host turned to the audience. "I just got word that Lexi has returned to the post-surgery room and is doing well. Right now she probably sees her new body for the first time."

Lexi got up with the help of a nurse and looked in the mirror. She was silent for a long while, staring at her own reflection looking back at her.

"Oh..." she moaned. "Is this really happening?"

First she paid attention to the lips - plump and very prominent. They made the face salacious. She gently licked her lips and felt how big they really were.

Her gaze went lower, to gigantic breasts, once again filled with huge amounts of saline. She touched them with her hand - they were hard and strained, it seemed to her that they were bursting her skin from the inside.

Her buttocks became protruding and large, seductive shapes sticking out. They truly contrasted with her slim waist and legs. Her silhouette now looked like an hourglass, full of sexy curves and nooks.

Lexi thought that she would be getting all the attention with her new looks, especially in her sexy tight outfits. The new shapes seemed too provocative, perverse and ostentatious. Dozens of thoughts ran through her head, and she felt too lost amidst all of the bombarding emotions.

The nurse asked her to lie back down. She had to rest.

Before & After

Lexi was slowly getting stronger and recovering nicely after the surgeries. She watched with reluctance the growing popularity of her rival. Kiara took on weight all the time, her shapes rounded up every week, her buttocks and thighs were big and soft, her belly and breasts bouncing when that fat woman moved. She would get up with increasing difficulty. Even a few steps on the stairs would hasten her breathing. Lexi could not believe that the slim girl in such a short time took up so many kilos. She was known as the princess or the pig online and people constantly praised her alluring shapes.

Lexi felt threatened and she did not like it at all. She was going to win at all costs, and her new shapes would help her reach her goals. She looked more and more artificial, her breasts and buttocks were still hard and unnaturally round, as if the rules of physics did not apply to them. She decided to go all the way. Kiara would not be a match for her.

Every time Lexi went out she felt lusty looks of other people. Today she put on extremely tight and sexy clothes, and people were turning their heads in her direction simply unable to look away from her captivating looks. Her breasts were bouncing with every move, and the buttocks showed off lasciviously from under her skirt. Men simply did not know what to focus on: her plump lips, which made them immediately super horny and their minds full of perverse sex scenes, her full breasts barely covered by a blouse or her protruding buttocks so round and inviting.

Lexi entered the studio and soon appeared on the screens of thousands of people.

"You look stunning," the host greeted Lexi.

She thanked him and put her plump lips into a smile.

"How did you feel when you saw the surgeries you had been subjected to?"

"I froze... and then, for a long time, I felt confused and uneasy. Can you imagine waking up after a few hours under anesthesia and finding out your body looks completely transformed? It was as if I had become a completely different person!"

"Hope you like the new you, cause we like it very much!"

Lexi laughed and threw her hair back.

"I love the new Lexi so much! She is much more confident and perverse. I feel that I can do everything and I have the power to make my every fantasy come true. It's as if these surgeries have brought a naughty girl out of me!"

"Even more than before?"

"Oh yes! It excites me when I think about how much I've changed just to be more alluring to you," she said and ran her hands over her big breasts. "It's not easy to go through all these procedures and experience their result you know?"

"I can only imagine! Surely, you know that there are even more procedures waiting for you? As with the previous ones, you will not know what surgeries are there in store for you."

"It's even more exciting! I will change exactly as the viewers want."

"You said you have more courage to bring to life your fantasies. Surely we all want to hear about your dreams."

Lexi bit her lower lip. Hardened nipples appeared under her top.

"I would very much like to take a few members of the audience to a more private place."

Her reply was met with an explosion of excited voices and whistles.

A few seconds later, Lexi was walking among the rows of the audience and choosing the men she fancied. The looks, full of hope, lust and anticipation excited her immensely. Some guys called her by her name and encouraged animatedly to choose them. There was chaos, and the emotions reached their peak when she finally took a few chosen men and a cameraman with her.

"Which one of you wants to be first?" She asked.

Her voice was lower than usual, slightly hoarse. She carefully sized the men up. Her eyes were sparkling with excitement. Suddenly, all the men lost their confidence was shy, as if they had just realized what was about to happen.

One of the men stepped forward and smiled encouragingly at her. Without a word, she unbuckled his belt, knelt in front of him, and took off his pants in a one swift and passionate move. She smiled when hardened masculinity sprung out right in front of her face. Other men stared at her with hungry eyes. Any feelings of shame they felt were losing to complete lust. They will probably never have the opportunity to fondle such an exciting, perfect woman as her. Hardly any other beauty could compare with her and she was absolutely aware of that.

She looked straight at the man, and then, without taking her eyes off his face, she stuck out her tongue and moistened his erect member. It was very hard and hot, and Lexi took it as a compliment. She embraced the tip of the man's penis with her full lips and sucked it slowly as if it were a candy. The man staggered and let out a strangled moan. His body was shivering.

Lexi realized how many people had been watching her. Out of the corner of her eye she saw a camera guy recording her every move. She felt like a whore and it made her even more aroused.

Another man came closer and took off his pants. Lexi turned to him, her hand still caressing the first member. It's owner's eyes were glassy and his cheeks were already red. She licked the testicles of the second man, inhaled his scent, and then slid his cock down her throat - as deeply as she could, until her eyes filled with tears as she choked.

She had never done such a thing before, group sex was a complete novelty for her, and there she was - pleasuring two men in front of the whole country.

She imagined that she was watching one of her high school friends. At school, she was shy and modest - a diligent A-grade student. No one would ever expect her to become a cam girl. Or that she would enlarge her breasts by a few sizes, fill her buttocks with implants and inflate her lips to a perversely large volume. No, a good student like her would never be able to do that. Lexi smiled to herself and then took another member in her thick lips.

She pleased them in turns with her hands and mouth, the excitement grew in her body with every second. One of the men screamed and came in her mouth, and Lexi swallowed his hot sperm. She felt her clitoris pulsating more and more intensively, and the moisture gathered between her thighs.

She rubbed her pussy with her hand and a thrill of pleasure passed through her body. The fingers slid on Lexi's wet labia - she moved them fast and hard, dreaming of orgasm. The men were more and more excited, and used her plump lips and caresses of her hand in turns. Someone grabbed her by the tits, someone was holding her head. She could hear their moans, feel the scent of their hot bodies, and imagined what she looked like that very moment - on her knees, giving blowjob to several men at the same time. The orgasm came a second later, intense and piercing. She had to support her body with a hand against the floor so as not to fall. At the same moment another man climaxed and splashed her with his cum.

Thousands of viewers could not take their eyes off her.

"We haven't seen anything like that yet!" The host was ecstatic.

Lexi breathed heavily, she felt dizziness after orgasm, her body covered with goosebumps. She smiled at the man who was still hard and hadn't cummed yet, and then embraced his manhood with her plump lips.

Before & After

"Tell me Kiara, what do you think our viewers have chosen for you this time?" The host asked the girl.

"I expect another injection that will make me even bigger," she said. "It's hard for me to actually imagine..."

"You've had a very big appetite over the last few weeks."

Kiara nodded and smiled shyly.

"I wanted to eat all the time," she said. "The worst thing is that I craved high-calorie, fattening food. I tried to eat vegetables and salads, but that did not quench my hunger. Not at all. I felt really bad if I didn't consume a large slice of pizza or a sizeable portion of pasta. I've never had it before! Sometimes I ate sweets to cheer myself up, but now I completely lost control. I have no idea how it all fits in my stomach at all. For example, yesterday I had two burgers and fries for dinner, a few donuts for dessert, then I drank it all with a sweet XL chocolate shake."

"No wonder you are still putting on weight."

"The outfits I got as a surprise gift with my last injection fit me now - they seemed so large before!"

She felt sluggish and lazy, her soft folds were swaying as she moved. She could barely fit her buttocks on the chairs and the belt would painfully pierce her belly, emphasizing its protruding size as she sat. The breasts grew to shocking proportions and laid softly on her large stomach.

"I'm ashamed to eat with someone watching," she confessed. "What would they think about me? Such a fat gal should be on a diet, rather than devour all those sandwiches and biscuits. When I meet with my friends, they can't believe that I've gained so much weight. Some of them are watching the show, but even they say that live my body seems even bigger and fatter!"

"Kiara, we will now move to the second room, where you'll get another injection," the host announced in a loud voice.

Kiara froze for a moment. It was against the rules of the show, he shouldn't disclose what the next procedure was going to be!

Kiara stood up with difficulty, leaning against the back of the couch. Her legs felt wobbly - as if they were made of cotton wool - she would gain even more weight? Could she allow something like that to happen? What would her life look like when she becomes so heavy that she won't manage without help of other people? Even now the maid was a great help for her - she did the shopping, took care of the house, and sometimes even helped Kiara dress up. A few days earlier, in a fit of panic, Kiara googled the fattest people in the world and read about their life. Would she also have a similar one?

Despite all the doubts and fears, she was not going to give up so easily. For the first time in her life, she felt extremely sexy. The audience's interest was immensely flattering. All the compliments and encouragement gave her a lot of energy. They obviously hoped that she would show them more, and yet they supported her despite her shyness. She felt beautiful and desirable and it was a completely new and utterly addictive feeling.

Soon after, the doctor pushed the needle into her arm and Kiara was left with no choice but to surrender. She knew that the next days would be filled with hunger, which would not be easy to satiate with bits of fried chicken, fries or pasta with lots of sauce... not even numerous cakes would do the trick. She would be empty, and will need to be filled with lots of food, until she is unable to swallow or bite a chunk more. All these calories will later add to her ever-increasing weight.

She had lost herself in eating a few times before, completely gave up control and surrendered to that pure bliss. Later, she would recline on the sofa with her hand on her growing belly and felt something akin to a drug-induced high.

Two hours after the injection, she was invited back to the studio. She had already become hungry, felt pangs of hunger and dreamed of a hearty meal, so her eyes immediately turned to the table, full of junk food. Kiara felt saliva collating in the corners of her mouth and her stomach started growling.

"Care for some?" The host teased Kiara.

She did not want to eat in front of the audience, as it really had become a very intimate thing for her since the first injection. It was almost like having sex. On the other hand, everything seemed so tasty, speaking to her...

"Just a tiny bit," she said.

Kiara sat down heavily in the chair and immediately reached for a large slice of pizza. A blissful expression appeared on her face as she chewed on the pizza.

"Tasty?" The host asked Kiara.

The woman could not answer, since her mouth was already full, so she just managed to utter a faint murmur of satisfaction.

"Mhhmmmm..."

She felt it a second later - it was something new that she had not yet experienced, her eyes widened, and her hand holding the pizza froze halfway - right in front of her mouth. She swallowed a bite and a violent wave of excitement spread over her body.

"Everything OK?" The host asked clearly concerned, although he perfectly knew what was happening.

Kiara's nipples suddenly hardened, and she felt a delightful contraction of pleasure between her legs. She put down the slice of pizza, but then she immediately regretted it. She wanted to eat and she did not feel like taking a break.

She reached for a cake, took a deep breath, and as soon as she chewed on the first bite she felt another wave of intense pleasure, as if someone caressed her body exactly the way she loved. Kiara blushed with shame and lowered her eyes. She felt the moisture between her soft thighs, her pussy was warming up and quickly becoming wet and throbbing. Erotic images flashed under Kiara's eyelids, and she had the impression that everyone who was watching could tell what she was thinking about.

"Go on, eat. In the meantime we will show you what has happened to Lexi," the host interrupted her train of thoughts.

Kiara devoured more food, and her excitement grew with every second. Meanwhile, Lexi appeared on the screen. When Kiara saw her, she was so stunned that for a moment she broke away from the food and forgot about her unusual growing lust.

Lexi was so transformed that it was hard to believe.

"The doctors replaced her butt and breast implants with even bigger ones," the host started. "She looks like a fake, silicone-filled princess. Additionally, she had another lip enlargement. Men have some very kinky and spicy fantasies about these newly enhanced beauties," he laughed.

"What happened to her waist?" Kiara asked. "It's so narrow, it seems that you wrap your hands around it!

Instinctively, she looked down at her soft, protruding belly.

"Rib removal and a very tight corset," the host explained a bit off-handedly. "We all love her new, artificial look."

Kiara took another portion of food into her mouth and shuddered with pleasure. She stared at Lexi's sexy, extraordinary body and admired the woman's round, almost bolt-on breasts, sexy buttocks, Lexi's petite, delicate waistline, and perversely large lips. Kiara moaned, swallowing a large bite of the cake and hoping no one heard it.

"Lexi doesn't waste time... sex in front of the audience... she must have really loved that," the host informed Kiara.

A scene appeared on the screen that made Kiara hold her breath and instinctively tighten her heated thighs more firmly. It showed Lexi in a very kinky outfit in an embrace with a man who caressed her gigantic breasts as her body arched out of sheer pleasure.

"Many of you suspected that we gave Lexi something to increase her libido, because she's constantly horny since the last enhancements," the host explained. "I assure you that her lust is not induced by any means! It must have been deep inside her for a long time, but it was only when she became so sexy that she allowed herself to fully let it go and embrace who she really is."

Kiara went on eating, she did not want to stop. She was trembling with excitement, and her pussy was throbbing rhythmically, demanding to be touched. The delicious feeling went from Kiara's mouth down to her legs. For one crazy moment she imagined Lexi asking someone from the audience to fuck her. She felt she was ready and her sexual desire became unbearable.

Before & After

"Kiara? Are you OK?" The host turned to her.

"I'm terribly horny," she moaned before she realized what she'd just said.

There was silence in the audience for two or more seconds... Then people started cheering and whistling.

Two sexy women entered the studio. Kiara watched their bodies lustfully. They stood on her both sides and took off her top slowly to present her naked body. Kiara sank into pleasure when the women touched her breasts and began massaging them. She immediately slid another bite of cake into her mouth.

"The injection you received a few hours ago was slightly different from the previous ones," the host announced to the audience. "It contained a substance that merged signals flowing from your digestive system with those that the brain interprets as sexual triggers, which is why food gives you such unusual carnal pleasure.

Kiara imagined how her everyday life would look like. She would still devour lots of food, and she'd feel horny every time she had a bite of something. Will she masturbate for hours? Or maybe she'll completely lose control over herself and - just like Lexi - have gang bangs live on TV?

At that exact moment, Lexi appeared again on the screen, surrounded by men pleasuring her sexified fake sexdoll body. The woman's eyes flipped with excitement as all her sexholes were filled with hardened cocks. Kiara could see Lexi's full lips wrapping around a man's erect penis and she immediately wanted to be in her place, exposed in front of the viewers, deprived of all inhibitions, fulfilling her wildest, sexiest fantasies.

Kiara felt the women's hands on her soft bust. She put a bite of muffin in her mouth and reached for another one, but soon let it out of her hands, because her excitement reached its climax and ecstatic pleasure took control over her changed body. She let out a long moan, threw her head back and let everyone see her orgasm.

She heard cheers and applause from the audience, and when the orgasm ended, she remained breathless, leaning against the table. A moment later she found that even though her stomach was full she still felt the urge to eat something.

Before & After

Kiara ate dinner in front of the camera, put another bit of food into her mouth, chewed it thoroughly and swallowed it, which made her pussy urge fondling more and more with every passing second. The excitement could not be ignored, it became increasingly intense. It happened every time she ate and really was very pleasant, but at the same time, also pretty embarrassing. She was excited for several hours a day and had to masturbate. Quite frequently, she was simply playing with her pussy and eating at the same time, but never before in front of the camera. Her weight made her tired very quickly, so all the strong orgasms she had would take away all the remnants of her energy. The maid had a lot of work, she had to deal with the house, and sometimes also help Kiara dress, do her make-up or comb her hair, because the girl was eating and masturbating almost all the time, unable to do anything else. Lost without any supervision she'd simply stay in her own world.

The excitement was getting too strong and Kiara moaned, putting a piece of French fries in her mouth. She threw off her clothes, spread her legs, and touched her hot pussy with her finger. She shivered and her soft body waded. Only then did she realize that she did not turn off the cameras and the viewers were watching her pleasurable touch. She blushed and reached to turn the cam off, but changed her mind at the very last moment. Let them see what happened to her!

She took out her erotic toys from the drawer of a nearby cabinet. They became an inseparable part of her everyday life, she sat on the larger one, pushing her labia from side to side and filling her pussy with its hardness. She sighed and smiled when she felt the toy finding its way inside. Then she took her favourite one, turned it on and pushed onto her clitty. The pleasure became so intense that she lost interest in everyone around her, and she even forgot that she was being watched by hundreds of people. She greedily moved her hips, masturbation was like eating for her - she wanted more and more... to the point that even when she felt that she could not bear more pleasure, she was unable to stop. Enormous breasts and buttocks bounced softly, while she was panting with pleasure and because of the toll it took on her obese body. Her warm, corpulent body stretched and arched, in anticipation of an orgasm, and when it came, Kiara shrieked, not caring that any of her neighbors or all those people watching her that moment on their computer and smartphone could hear her. As soon as the orgasm ceased, she felt she needed another one. She was insatiable, and her appetite could not be easily satisfied. Not with her craving. She began to touch herself again, fondle her pleasure bud, even though she was extremely exhausted. She was breathing heavily, her body slipper, sweaty and shivering uncontrollably.

She had no idea how long she had masturbated, reaching the new heights of pleasure. She stopped only when the hunger became stronger than her sexual desire. Only then she returned to the interrupted meal.

Lexi stared in disbelief at Kiara's popularity. The girl had finally decided to show something more, and the viewers went crazy about her. Lexi knew she had act quickly.

She turned on her cam and announced to the viewers that it was high time to give her even bigger tits. This was against all the rules of the show – the treatments were to take place at specific times - but perhaps they would be willing to make this one small exception for her.

“Lexi, you do realize that another breast augmentation may bring significant changes in your everyday life?” The host asked Lexi.

"They will be even heavier, their projection will be insane," Lexi replied excitedly. "So big, it's almost hard to imagine! I will definitely have a lot of trouble with them, but I'm sure their enhancement will pay off eventually."

“Excellent! I admire your determination.”

“I want to become as sexy as possible. My breasts are supposed to be gigantic, very heavy, but their shape still supremely round. I will do everything to achieve this look.”

A few days later, Lexi's implants were filled once again. The doctor said that if they were to be even bigger, she would have to undergo a surgery under anesthesia, and it was too early for her to have one. The only thing he could do for her was to inject saline into her present implants. Lexi was a bit impatient and tried to convince the doctors to undergo the procedure after all, but they immediately refused performing such risky procedure.

The final result, however, turned out to be spectacular: Lexi's implants became harder and very protruding, they really took on a round, sexy beachball-like shape. Lexi liked to watch them in front of the mirror, fondle and squeeze them them, constantly checking how they look and feel. All her clothes stretched and squeezed the new breasts immensely, while the new tops she bought seemed purely gigantic. The weight of the new breasts made her move with more difficulty and she had to balance on her high heels. She saw that more and more activities were a problem for her, Surprisingly, she was quickly getting tired too, just like Kiara. Her workout routine had to be changed to include exercises that would fit her enhanced body's capabilities and take into account the limitations caused by the now-monstrous breasts. She always wore a corset that not only significantly narrowed her waist, but also helped to keep her figure straight, supporting it nicely.

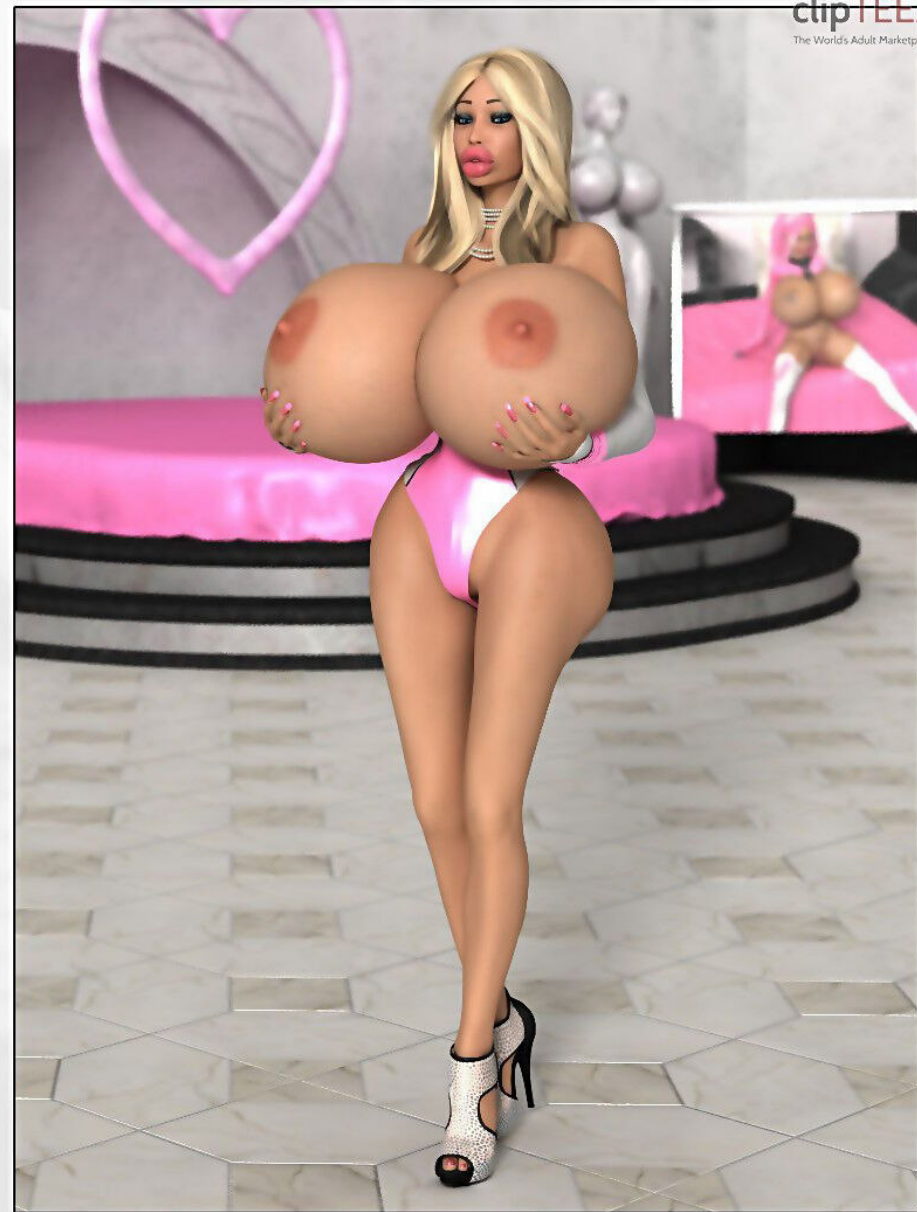

She appeared in the studio for the first time since the surgery and she knew that her fans were waiting for her. She entered the hall almost naked, with her obscenely exposed breasts and a smile on her beautiful plum doll lips.

"You look..." The host was clearly speechless. He could only stare at Lexi's new tits in awe.

"Sexy?" Lexi finished for him and winked flirtatiously.

"More than sexy, you're... divine."

"I like how special I've become," said Lexi and squeezed her breasts seductively.

"Let me introduce you to some of your most die-hard fans."

Five men entered the studio and each one of them immediately froze halfway at the sight of Lexi. They were unable to move a single step, instead they stared at her supremely round, protruding breasts.

Lexi knelt in front of them and started to unzip the men's pants. They were so excited and shocked with her looks that they did not even protest, but let her take the initiative. Lexi began to caress their hardened members with her slender fingers and took to sucking and fucking them with her prominent lips. Each of them had a perfect view of her big fake breasts.

"Your tits are so big," one of the men moaned.

"Big?" Lexi was surprised. "They are very, very big. You've probably never seen such a big set of tits in your entire life..."

The man nodded vigorously, then groaned as she tightened her grip on his hard protruding member.

"I wanted them to be even bigger, but the doctors wouldn't let me. Still, they are huge, protruding and very heavy. My implants were filled to the limit, if they were even bigger, they would surely explode. Can you imagine how much my skin had to stretch to accommodate the new gigantic size?"

The man did not answer, only moaned with pleasure and began to thrust his hips even more rapidly.

"It excites me that they are so big," Lexi teased him. "You're all getting hard just looking at my tits, and I know you'll cum soon... looking at my huge, disproportionately large breasts perfectly round fake tits.

A second later, one of the men groaned, his eyes fluttered, and the stream of sperm exploded from his rigid cock, flooding Lexi's sexdoll face. Another one orgasmed right after him, perplexed by Lexi's round, shapely breasts.

Lexi opened her mouth and pulled out her tongue to swallow as much hot thick cum as possible. She moved her hands rhythmically, caressing two men simultaneously. She felt they were about to cum pretty soon.

When she finished, she was splashed with their sex juices, very sweaty and still extremely horny. She ran her hand over her insane cleavage full of the men's hot sperm, then licked it off her fingers lustfully, tasting her sexual victory. Her popularity grew at a mind-blowing pace.

Kiara knew that the time had come for another change, but she was not ready for that. She felt that the effects of the last injection had dropped slightly, she wasn't feeling so hungry anymore, and her weight slowly stabilized. She felt overwhelmed by how much she had changed - each of her outfits was gigantic, yet she could barely fit her large, soft body, full of folds and nooks into them. Every morning she rose from the bed with increasing difficulty, and each of slightly more abrupt moves made her whole body wave. She decided to hit the gym a few times and was horrified to discover how weak she was and that her body was in a really poor condition. It seemed to her that all the people in the gym were looking at her and wondering how she had become so fat. There was a slim girl running effortlessly for fifty minutes on a treadmill next to her, while Kiara already felt out of breath after three minutes and had to take a long break immediately. Even her home was no longer comfortable for Kiara's new body, for example the bathtub was too small and the chairs could not fit her huge fat buttocks.

She was not ready for another injection. Of course, she was not sure it was actually going to be an injection, but she knew it had always been that way. The viewers wanted her to grow so that she would not be able to refrain from eating.

She complained about it in the studio, and the host looked at her almost compassionately.

"I really can't become even fatter!" Kiara said, tears in her eyes. "Please, let it be something else, I need longer time to adjust... I have to get used to my weight. Now I can't do anything but eat and... masturbate," she blushed profusely, remembering her orgasm in the TV studio and her caresses in front of the camera. "What if I am unable to move and become immobile because of my fat body?"

To her horror, Kiara realized that she was only interested in who would feed her with tasty food in such terrifying situation.

"I understand, Kiara, but you know the rules of our show," the host sighed. "I can't bend them."

The girl moaned, resigned and thought about a chocolate bar - it would certainly cheer her up right there and then.

She just begged the presenter for more time, until finally he said that he could possibly agree to it, if Kiara showed some strength and willpower.

A few seconds later, someone offered her a plate full of fragrant, appetizing spaghetti. Kiara felt that her plump stomach started mumbling and a large drop of saliva almost escaped her mouth. She had not eaten for over an hour and badly needed to fill her stomach with something tasty.

"We will abstain from changes if you prove worthy and will not touch any of this food for thirty minutes. You must sit right here, next to this delicious food, but cannot, by any means, eat it."

How simple, Kiara thought looking at the food, but a few seconds later it turned out that she was completely wrong. The cookies on the plates tempted her, she could not stop imagining how tasty they were, how they melted in her mouth and filled the stomach, giving her the bliss she needed that very moment. Of course she'd probably be horny right away and forget about all her worries.

"You feel like you want to try it, I know it," the host encouraged Kiara.

"No, I don't," Kiara lied, her excited eyes never leaving all the sweet pastry, pasta and hamburgers next to her.

It looked so tasty, so sweet ... Kiara tried to think about something else and gather all the willpower she could. Her hand moved toward the cookies subconsciously, but at the last moment she managed to stop it.

"All you need to do, Kiara, is leave the sweets as they are, and the next changes will happen much later. Are you sure you are this strong?"

"These injections keep me hungry," she moaned. "You know I have to eat all the time!"

"Even though you gain weight and become heavier and heavier?"

"I really need more time, it's all so overwhelming," she sighed.

A few minutes later, Kiara's hands were shaking, and she was on edge. She grabbed a cookie quickly.

"You do understand that if you eat it, we will perform your next procedure today? You can only blame your uncontrollable hunger for this situation."

Kiara hesitated.

"You will continue to gain weight, getting heavier and fatter with each day."

She put the cookie in her mouth, swallowed it and let out a moan. Finally! She felt extreme bliss and relief and everything else no longer mattered. She devoured all the sweets, ignoring the consequences, focusing on the pleasant feeling that spread all over her flatulent body.

A few seconds later her body was pierced with a wave of excitement. Kiara grabbed the edge of the table and moaned in utter bliss.

"Behind these doors there are people who will gladly satisfy your desire," the host pointed to the doors.

"Don't tempt me," she mumbled with full lips.

Each subsequent bite made her more and more horny. She felt as if the food was some sort of a drug, intensifying her libido and after a few minutes her lust became stronger than this unbearable hunger.

Without a word, she headed for the door and opened it, inviting two women and one man into the studio. She did not want to control herself or suppress her desires, not anymore. She would become even fatter and heavier. She could not help it.

Kiara hesitated for a moment, she still had a chance to pull back. A second later she made a decision - she threw off her clothes, spread her legs wide, and gestured to the man. Kiara was ready and wet, she did not need foreplay... she did not want to wait.

The man lay down on her soft, warm body and entered her with his stiff cock. It was wonderful to have him inside, so rigid and hot. Kiara pushed her hips to let him in even deeper. The man lay down on her huge bust, crushed her soft body, and she wrapped her thighs around him.

The women started fondling the parts of her breasts that were sticking out from under the man's heated body.

"They're so big," one of them sighed. "I can't believe that she's gained so much weight in such a short time."

Kiara clenched her fingers on the man's back, arched her back and gave in to encompassing pleasure. Every cell in her body seemed bursting with pleasure and desire. Orgasm gave her relief - albeit temporary, because she knew she needed even more.

The man got up and masturbated looking at her plump body.

"You're so sexy," he moaned.

A stream of sticky sperm landed on her breasts, and Kiara's body arched from a sheer thrill of excitement. It was so kinky - she had just had sex with a total stranger... right in front of thousands of viewers.

One of the women massaged her breasts, and the other slid a vibrator into her insatiable pussy. Kiara was tired, but the body reacted immediately. She gripped and embraced her breasts and gave in to the growing pleasure.

Thousands of people watched with fascination as this girl - who was once slim and shy, but now had become perverse and fat - had another earth shattering orgasm running through her changed body.

In the meantime, the host informed the audience that Kiara would not only receive another injection to whet her appetite, but that her mouth would also change. They were supposed to become plump and soft, perfect for blowjobs and swallowing high calorie food.

"Kiara has no idea, but soon her lips will be plump just like the rest of her body. Imagine how sexy she will look eating her meals..."

Meanwhile, Kiara did not think about anything anymore, she wasn't even afraid of another change - she was enjoying wonderful sexual pleasure and that was the only thing that mattered.

Before & After

Lexi was convinced that her buttocks would be enlarged this time. They still remained relatively small, although they were very bounteous according to normal standards. Her breasts and lips could no longer be enlarged, at least Lexi kept saying that to herself. The host reminded her that some of the previous participants of the show underwent even more dramatic transformations, but that seemed unbelievable.

After all, her breasts were quite problematic as they were! Every activity she was doing was difficult because of them and she often found herself out her breath because her fake tits were so heavy.

She liked the fact that everyone around her was attracted to her and immediately got aroused when they saw her. She was the center of everyone's desire and attention, and even truly gorgeous women suddenly seemed bland once people saw her.

Those were her thoughts when she was on the way to the clinic... Camera followed all of her reactions. She became very anxious once she arrived at the clinic and once again tried to convince the doctors to tell her what was going to happen, but they did not say a word. She wondered if she was ready to undergo another surgery or maybe whether she should resign.

She thought about her life from before the show, and remembered how light and swift her moves were, how she could freely run or ride her bicycle the very moment when the nurse put her under anesthesia.

The first thing that caught Lexi's attention when she woke up was the fact that she was lying on her back, which clearly meant that her buttocks probably had not been enhanced at all. She held her breath, then slowly looked down and saw two gigantic breasts, bigger than she had ever imagined. She started panicking, racing thoughts were invading her mind as she imagined what her everyday life would look like - constant attention to gigantic tits, supersized tops, backache and restricted movement. Why had she agreed to all of that? Was winning the show worth it?

Before & After

A few weeks later, Lexi went to the studio. She felt really exhausted because of the weight and size of her insanely large round tits. She still could not believe that it was really happening, that they were so enormous.

Showers and dressing up took her a lot of time. It was quite a challenge to pull a top over her newly enhanced gigantic breasts. She had to wear special corsets that supported her waist, but at the same time severely limited her movement. She became a perverse doll with sexy, unreal lustful shapes. There were day that it excited her immensely, while on other occasions it absolutely terrified her.

Even as she was leaving for the studio, she felt very tired and out of breath. Her high heels made her wobbly and she had to hold onto the doorframe, not to fall. Her insanely big and heavy tits kept dragging her down, extremely disturbing her balance. She sobbed softly and started toward the limo, which was waiting for her.

Lexi gasped and entered the studio. She immediately felt a wave of much needed comfort as she sat on the couch. She rubbed her back down and sighed loudly with relief.

"Lexi, are you ready for further enhancements?" The host was his usual self.

The girl burst out laughing which put her fake breasts in motion. The top tightened, and the stitching of the fabric stretched dangerously.

"Did I say something funny?" The man was surprised.

"It was a joke..right? I have just had my breast augmentation surgery, there is no way to have another one so quickly. According to the schedule..."

"Lexi, I think there's some sort of misunderstanding on your part. You see, this procedure has not been finalized yet."

"W..what? I do not understand!"

"Our viewers demanded that this time your breast enlargement surgery should be the most radical one in the history of our show."

"They are gigantic now!" Lexi pointed to her bust. "See? They are not big, they are not even huge, they are massive, unimaginably packed!"

"You think so?" The host was surprised. "Let me remind you that women have already reached similar sizes in our show. Some even went with their enhancements further than you."

"But... Doesn't it mean they shouldn't get much bigger than they already are?" Lexi said. "Am I right?"

"I can't tell you that. And I already told you so much when I said your implants will be injected with another volume of saline."

"Please, I need to know how big they will become..."

"No, Lexi, you know I can't."

"But do they really have to be even bigger? You have no idea what it's like to live with such a huge, heavy set of tits!"

"That's what our viewers desired. If quitting right now is what you want..." The host of the show threw his hands up. "The procedure was divided into two phases, because the doctors decided that it would be safer. You see, they did not want to risk giving you larger implants in the previous surgery."

Lexi fell silent. She remembered all the moments when her fake breasts hindered her life - when she poured herself some tea and had to stretch out her hands because they took too much space or during a meeting with her friends, when literally all the people at the café were staring at her, and she heard them whispering... gigantic... you saw this woman with monstrous tits... how can you do something like that to yourself... it's probably one of those porn shows. Now she would no longer be anyone else but a supremely big titted woman. She was frequently called a woman with plump labia-like lips or the one with gigantic buttocks and a wasp-like waist. She had turned into a living sex doll, the ultimate fantasy of many men, still enhancing, her attributes... bigger and bigger.

Now it turned out that this was not the end.

Even when she was alone at home, she could not forget her voluptuous basketball-like tits for a single moment. She loved sitting on the couch in the evenings watching TV shows with her legs pulled up to the chest, but now there was no space to curl them up. She carefully planned her workouts so that the exercises would not require jumping or moving the arms in front of her new body. The additional weight made crunches several times more difficult than before. When she went to bed, the bust fell slightly to the side basically crushing her. However, the core of her back felt immediate relief.

Did she want to let her breasts be filled once again, make them even heavier, stretch her skin to the limit, fill even the most loose tops, lean against her abs and arms, squeezed together right where her sternum was? Was she ready for that to happen?

Kiara took a deep breath and stepped on the scales. She was really heavy, she's put on even more weight recently. The last injection made her think only about food and sex, and she could not control herself in any way.

She sat down, her buttocks no longer fit into the seat and stuck out, and her stomach and breasts made it impossible to sit closer to the counter. She felt heavy, slow and dull.

The maid put a rich lunch in front of her, and Kiara's eyes lit up at the sight of pasta, meat, crunchy toasts and chocolate biscuits. As soon as she put the first bite in her mouth, she felt great bliss and contentment. Nothing more mattered, it was like a perfect drug.

She devoured pasta, meat and mashed potatoes, and she knew that all of them would turn into extra kilos. If someone had told her a few months earlier that she would get fat, she would simply laugh at him. After a while, she felt her excitement rushing all over her body - as it was always the case when she ate nowadays. She knew that in a few minutes she would have to masturbate. Maybe she'll ask the maid to help her? She liked to eat and experience sheer erotic delight, at the same time, she could not imagine anything more perfect and encompassing.

She heard the doorbell and remembered that today the doctor would come and take care of another enhancement. She did not know what it was going to be, she had already received her injection...

The maid rushed to the door and opened it. Kiara was not going to interrupt her meal. Also, it would take her a few minutes to reach the door from her spot.

The doctor greeted Kiara, and she answered, with her mouth full of biscuits.

"You have to stop eating for a few minutes," the doctor said.

The girl stuffed some more biscuits into her mouth, swallowed them slowly, and then stopped her meal. All the delicious things on the table were getting more attention from Kiara than the doctor who opened the suitcase and took out a needle filled with some unknown liquid.

"Now... don't move... it will only take a moment," he ordered Kiara.

The doctor smeared Kiara's lips with some anesthetic, and then brought the needle closer to her lips and finally injected the strange-looking liquid. Kiara finally understood what was happening, but she did not care, she wanted to go back to eating as soon as possible. The doctor injected the liquid in small, perfectly measured doses, evenly enlarging her lips.

After only a few minutes, they became full and large. Kiara touched them with her fingertips, examined their curvature, and wondered if they would disturb her during the meal.

"Can I go back to eating now?"

"It is advised to wait a few hours after the injection."

"A few hours?!" Kiara got angry. "No way!"

She reached for the bread, spread it with a thick layer of peanut butter and slid it hungrily in her mouth. Her lips were sore, swollen, and she had no control over them, but she still did not stop eating. The doctor was saying something about the treatment, but she did not listen to him, and when he was on his way out, she was already sliding her hand between her thighs to satisfy the growing desire.

Lexi touched her breasts, once again filled with an extra portion of saline. After the first shock she decided to go all the way and have the surgery. She knew that only a few weeks remained until the end of the show, and these gigantic breasts would allow her to win easily.

Since the surgery, each day was filled with Lexi's struggle with her new, massive breasts, the size of which exceeded all imagination. Wearing such large implants on the chest was quite a challenge.

It was easy to get exhausted now and in the evening, when she went to bed, she felt a great relief, and the whole body relaxed instinctively as she was lying down. The breasts were so huge that she could not put her arms around them, they blocked her view while she was working at the computer, bouncing while she was slowly climbing the stairs, or pulling her down when she was bending over. They were on her mind all the time.

Before & After

On the day the results were announced, both women appeared in the studio. They were about to learn which one of them won the show and took the prize.

"Girls, you both changed a lot, not only physically!" The host started and pointed to the screen with Kiara and Lexi's spectacular metamorphosis, comparing their current looks with the ones they had before the show. "Each of you has crossed many borders, you showed your bodies to vast numbers of viewers, you had sex in front of the camera, and most of all you changed physically. Now your everyday life looks completely different. Are you ready to know the results?"

The women nodded. Kiara improved on the couch, which was falling deep and quiet under her, and Lexi held her impressive tits with her hands to ease off the pain in her back. Both women froze in anticipation of the host's verdict.

Kiara heard what the man was saying, but somehow his words did not reach her. She smiled stiffly and felt that she was very, very hungry, that she had to put something in her mouth, eat something. She lost and wanted to lose herself in eating.

Lexi was bouncing with joy, her giant breasts bouncing excitedly, rising so high that they reached her chin.

Kiara remembered the remaining part of the show as if in a haze. She only knew that she was becoming more and more hungry and was all the time fantasizing about a rich, fat meal. When she came back home, she threw herself on the food, began to eat greedily, and as soon as her stomach filled up a little, she felt lust growing with every bite. She fell into some sort of blissful rush and wanted to stay in this state for as long as possible, because it made her forget about her loss.

Her body grew bigger and heavier every day, and she hardly noticed the change. Getting up was even harder, and her huge body almost did not fit in the door, she had to let the maid replace the shower cubicle with a larger one and order even larger outfits.

Days and weeks were merging into one, and her only desire was to eat, to have her belly full the whole time. She would wake up at night more often than before, get up with extreme difficulty and slowly stumble into the kitchen, where she could finally take whatever there was out of the fridge and simply swallow the food not even bothering to use plates or utensils.

One evening, when she devoured a huge pizza, fries and dozens of biscuits, lying in bed, she felt the desire - the urge so strong that she had to satiate it immediately. Her hot pussy was throbbing between her large thighs, and the bed sheets covered with her wet juices. She moaned and tried to get up to reach for the dildo, but she couldn't get up - her body became too heavy. She raised herself to the elbows, and the folds on her stomach became even more prominent in this position, while the bust overwhelmed her chest. She felt full, slightly bemused and lazy. She needed her dildo, she had to cum, so she called the maid, but no one answered her. She began to panic, tried to reach between her legs, but her stomach and breasts were too broad. She shouted loudly so that the maid could hear her, but to no avail.

After some time, which for Kiara seemed to be long hours of nothing but torment, she heard the maid come into the house with the shopping and finally manage to call her attention. The girl looked panicked and began to apologize that she had not been there for so long. Kiara did not listen to her, she just wanted to get her toy and eat more food. The maid handed her the dildo, but Kiara still couldn't reach her pussy. The maid understood that she needs to help her mistress. As the toy touched her pussy Kiara sighed loudly, drowning in pleasure...

After a few days it became clear that Kiara needed more help than a few weeks earlier. She could not wash herself, get out of bed, get dressed, or even leave the house. She did not know when, if at all, the injection would stop working.

The servant wiped sweat from Kiara's forehead, helping her to sit at the table. Kiara began to eat greedily and almost did not listen to the girl who was talking about some man.

"He is fascinated by you and wants you to live with him, he is ready to provide you with the support you need," she said.

"Mhmm," said Kiara with her mouth full.

"Should I invite him over?" The maid asked Kiara.

In response, Kiara only waved her hand.

Lexi was severely affected by the weight and size of her huge bust. Her tits became the most important part of the body and she had to take care of them all the time. Once, during her cam girl days, she could simply dress modestly and turn back into an ordinary girl. Nowadays, it was not possible, because even in loose outfits without a cleavage, she looked dirty and obscenely fake.

The prize guaranteed her financial security and she did not have to work anymore for at least a few years to come. She decided to take a break, give several interviews to various media, but after a week she felt that she lacked the adrenaline and satisfaction that her performances in front of the camera gave her. She fantasized about the fact that thousands of people were watching her naked body and were unable to resist the temptation of her divine shapes. She was not interested in the fans, she missed the desperate requests of men trying to get her attention. All she wanted was to feel again that they could do anything, would go to great lengths just to look at her.

She turned on the camera and promised herself that she was doing it for the last time, though in her heart she felt she needed more attention than she wanted to admit. A large group of viewers logged in immediately, flooding her with compliments, begging her to undress. Lexi smiled and started taking off her clothes slowly and nonchalantly and when she was completely naked, she could not stop herself and began to caress her fake sex doll body. The thought that so many people were watching her was too exciting. She lifted one of her breasts to her plump lips and licked it. She immediately received a massive amount of comments full of admiration and excitement. Every single one of them gave her the satisfaction she had longed for.

Soon afterwards, she felt that she wanted something more. She wanted to use all her potential, and for that she needed men who would perform with her in front of the camera. There were plenty of volunteers and when Lexi announced that she was looking for a partner to make a porn video, thousands of men volunteered, and every single one begged her to choose him. That was what she needed, finally she felt desirable and infatuating. She took lots of pleasure going through all the pictures that were included in the messages she got and wondering which cock she liked best.

Kiara decided to move to Andre's house. The man had assured her that he would look after her, if she let him admire her plump, soft body. The girl was happy that she did not have to worry about anything anymore and her new guardian would take great care of her. She saw how big the lust in his eyes was as he stared at her body and his hands were trembling all the time. Kiara noticed how his breathing became even more rapid as she helped her up. His eyes lit up with desire whenever she was eating and her body was getting bigger and fatter.

She knew that Andre was expecting something more, but he did not force her to do anything. She loved to observe him struggle to look away from her with great difficulty. He kept feeding her, buying her numerous sex toys and telling her how big her body was and how much he loved it. He wanted her to become even heavier, so that she would have more and more folds... to make her buttocks and bust grow to gigantic proportions.

One day, Kiara felt she wanted to fuck him and since she was not used to saying no to herself, she told him to undress quickly. She was very pleased to see that his manhood was already very hard and protruding. She smiled with her plump chubby lips.

"Would you like me to give you a blow job?" she asked.

In response, the man moaned and closed his eyes, as if her words themselves gave him immense pleasure.

"My lips are so big and plump now, it will definitely be very gratifying and pleasant," she added.

She ran her hands over her soft breasts, stomach and thighs, then asked Andre to help her kneel in front of him. She felt that his body was hot and already covered with sweat. She licked her lips and wrapped them around his member. The man moaned long and loud as her soft lips tightened on the hardened masculinity.

Kiara started bobbing her head faster and faster, the move set the folds all over her body in motion. She did not want him cumming so fast and slowed down the pace a bit, as she saw how extremely hard and on the verge of exploding his cock was. She pulled her head away and started caressing his thighs with hands to give him a bit of air. He felt dizzy and had to wait a few seconds to catch his balance once again.

Kiara wanted to feel his sperm in her throat - she imagined how very tasty it was. She licked the tip of his manhood, then put it in her mouth as deeply as she could. The man tensed all his muscles, pressed her head against him until his cock reached her throat, and then exploded in orgasm. Sperm poured straight into her esophagus, as if it were another portion of food, and Kiara became even more horny and excited.

Since then, Andre satisfied her lust and it often happened that ordinary activities such as dressing up ended with sex, because none of them was able to control themselves.

Kiara had everything she needed, and her days were spent on eating and fucking. After a few months it seemed to her that it had always been this way. She could not remember how her life had been before when she had not yet taken part in the program, and when she sometimes came across her old photographs she could hardly recognize herself. Had she really been that thin, average girl back then?

Before & After

Lexi took off her top and the man who stood in front of her froze speechless.

"They're so big," the girl moaned, circling her breasts with her hands. "More than big, they're monstrous... gigantic... they're the biggest breasts you've ever seen in your entire life, and I know that what you desire the most in the world is to touch them... right... now."

"Mm...may I?" the man asked, his voice unnatural.

He was breathing heavily and his eyes were fixed on Lexi's perfectly round fake tits all the time.

The girl smiled and beckoned with her hand.

The man slid his trembling fingers over the perfect curvature of her gigantic breasts.

"Squeeze them," Lexi ordered him.

The man squeezed the sides of her bust, until a long, sexy crevice formed between them. He immediately thought it was perfect to slide a cock in.

"Now get naked and stroke your hard cock looking at them," Lexi said. "I am so exciting that you do not even have to touch me to experience the greatest pleasure in life."

The stranger undressed quickly and began to vigorously slide his hand over his erect cock throbbing with lustful desire.

Lexi pinched her hardened nipples and was watching with fascination and total pleasure as the man was approaching an extremely orgasm, all the time staring at her amazing figure, admiring her insanely sexy doll body. He glanced over the round buttocks, the narrow waist and the unimaginably large fake tits, fantasizing how it would be if she let him fondle her body for much longer. If he had such a girlfriend, he would quit his job just to fuck this divine doll all day. He would admire her perfect body, treat her like a princess, and take care of her needs. He looked at her parted, plump lips. Their insanely alluring curves were accentuated with lipstick. His eyes turned to her perfect enhanced tits once again and he felt he could no longer hold it. He stroked his cock vigorously a few times and felt the piercing, overwhelming flood of orgasmic ecstasy hitting him.

Lexi moaned as the man's sperm shot from his cock and splashed on the floor in front of her. She liked the fact that he came so quickly and took it as a compliment, a sign of adoration of how attractive she was... Still, she needed more.

She called another man who was already waiting outside the door. She told him to lie down, then she embraced his member with her huge, perfectly round breasts. She knew that he would not last too long, his face turned red and his breathing was quick and jerky. Soon after, his cum landed all over her infatuating cleavage.

Lexi was in her element and she was going to spend all day having sex with these men. The comments she received in her chat window gave her great satisfaction and she was already wondering what else she could show her devoted fans. Many of the fans begged Lexi to enhance and transform her body even more. They fantasized about her with larger breast implants, fuller lips and more arousing buttocks. All these suggestions were hard to imagine for Lexi, but she began to consider them more and more. She wanted her fans to always be fascinated with her, never lose interest in her living lovedoll body. She probably would need help at home, not to mention even bigger, custom made and reinforced outfits...

She still had to think about that. In the meantime, she invited another man in the room and asked him how he would like to fuck her.
