

Emily's Diary by Pleasure3DX (C3)

Dear diary this is Emily it's day three and Marvin still drops his penis in front of me at every chance he gets.

It's way too obvious to be a coincidence by now he's doing it on purpose the question remains...

Why my theory still stands? I think he's not used to be around girls and gets a bit too easily excited, but this can't keep happening what if I have visitors he can't have his dick Out Swinging about all the time.

I'd be kind of curious to see what would happen if I touch it...

...his penis. ...his penis. How would he react would that make him pull it back in.

Maybe that's worth a try.

Dear diary we need to talk I didn't think I'd ever say this but...

I just touched a horse's penis.

Marvin was doing his thing again and...

dropped it the second I arrived, but this time without hesitation... I simply grabbed a hold of it, what followed were the most awkward 20 seconds of my life.

He stared at me and I stared right back with his dick in my hand awaiting any kind of response.

but he didn't mind at all he just kept staring at me.

So... I let go, so yeah that didn't really solve my problem did it.

Dear diary I will probably throw this page away later but I just have to write something off my mind.

Touching Marvin's penis today was weird but kind of in a good way.

Wrapping my hand around it I was honestly surprised how nice it felt it felt like.

I held something so powerful so masculine I wish I held it longer but.

I shouldn't even though I think he liked it.

I don't know this is making my head spin.

I should probably go to sleep and see how I feel about that whole thing tomorrow...
