

Emily's Diary by Pleasure3DX (C5)

1- Dear diary, I'm Emily, Marvin has been more relaxed

...than ever when I'm around I think it helped a little that I stroked him last time, but I still think he needs some getting used to that feeling so I don't want to drive him over the edge just yet.

Today I plan to wash his cock and getting it cleaned up.

I know it's something horse owners have to do anyway and maybe this will help him bond with me some more.

Besides it wouldn't be the worst to know that I'm dealing with a dick that's clean.

So I grabbed a bucket with some warm water and headed to his stable.

Needless to say he was happy to see me now but, I'm no expert in cleaning dick.

Although I don't have a dick, I imagine it will be easy. I just grabbed his cock and rubbed it with soap.

I won't lie it felt great holding him in my hand again this might sound cringe. I won't lie, it felt great to have it in my hand again, although this may sound embarrassing.

But it's so arousing to know that each touch of my little hands gives him pleasure and that I can make him feel very good with something as simple as a caress.

In any case after he was all soaked up I started to rub his shaft and clean it up thoroughly.

As you would expect it.

It didn't take long for him to harden a bit.

Now that he was clean,

some other thoughts also entered my mind.

I've never given a blowjob before but I was honestly, always curious how it it be.

I didn't expect the horse stick to be my first and I doubt I could even fit it in my mouth but I could try, right.

It was admittedly awkward but after a bit of pandering and after his dick grew softer again

I gained some courage and got closer

I started with some licks.

Considering I just cleaned him it didn't taste like anything really.

I followed up with some smooches on his side and honestly enjoyed doing this way more than I expected I would.

Having my face so close to his washed penis made me feel very calm and excited.

I ended up pressing and rubbing it against my cheeks, essentially cuddling with it.

I felt like I was in a trance.

I was in a trance.

When I snapped out of it he was almost hard again.

Even though I loved it I was thinking about leaving it alone for today but I still wanted to give him atleast an attempt of a blowjob.

So I brought his head towards my mouth and gently sucked on its side, there was no way I was going to fit it all in my mouth while he was hard but at least.

I could do this the more I sucked however the more uneasy Marvin became again and

I stopped after a bit even though

I didn't want to.

42- I feel like Marvin was more calm today than he was the last time

43- Yes he still became uneasy after a while but it was less intense, perhaps next time I can give him some sweet release.

44- I'd honestly love to.

45- Can't believe I gave my first blowjob to a horse.

46- This will stay between you and I, dear diary
