

Emily's Diary

by Pleasure3DX (C6)

Dear diary this is Emily

I have a little conundrum.

Tomorrow a friend of mine will visit and I plan to show her around the pasture.

This is all great but it would be a bit embarrassing if Marvin had his dick out the whole time.

So ready or not I need to get him to ejaculate today so that he won't be horny tomorrow.

Dear diary things got messy in a good way when I arrived at Marvin's Paddock he greeted me with a raging boner so he was definitely ready for it.

It me on the other hand less so.

I thought about the best way of doing it should I go on my knees again.

It's more comfy this way but I might not be able to put as much weight into my strokes.

In the end I decided to try it standing.

I grabbed him with my left hand and started stroking him with my right.

This marked my first time of stroking a cock for real.

Like with the intent of finishing it off.

Doing this was honestly...

...pretty hot he was really hard and...

...I could feel that my Strokes made him really excited.

That's the spot huh,

after a few minutes though I had to take a break

I would have not expected him to last this long in all honesty but my arm became weak letting go of him made me realize what impact my Strokes really had his cock was twitching and throbbing a lot

I almost couldn't believe how much it had a life on its own

he was essentially begging for more.

You really want more don't you I?

Didn't let him wait for too long but this time went down on my knees again and stroked him towards me

Does that feel good? Even though my arms were tired I was loving every moment of it.

Just having the privilege of stroking a cock like this,

made me feel so good.

Maybe not as good as it made Marvin feel.

After a while his veins really popped out and he became uneasy,

this was the sign that you're close huh?

I now started to stroke him downwards with both my hands,

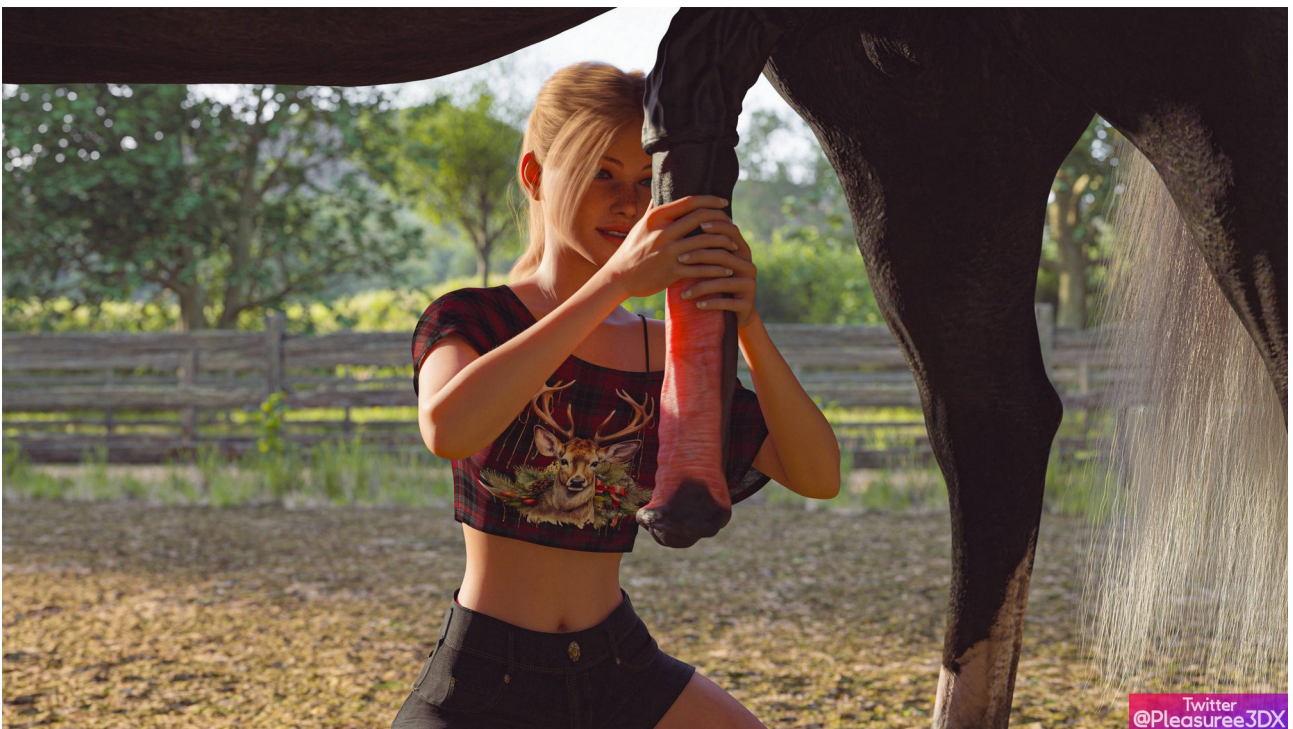

essentially milking him,

the more I stroked the more uneasy Marvin became but this time...

I wouldn't stop

His head eventually started flaring and...

I knew he was about to come so...

I kept my Strokes consistent and very firm,

then finally...

I felt his shaft throbbing,

like it never did before and...

...not soon after he came all over the floor.

I was mesmerized after each spur of come,

I thought he was done but there was always more.

Holy shit! After about half a minute of constant ejaculation, he was finally done and I was amazed on how much cum just came out of this cock.

After things calmed down I had to catch my breath that was a lot.

I noticed a string of cum hanging down his shaft and I was a bit tempted of tasting it but I held back on that idea for now,

I don't know if I'm ready to drink horse cum just yet.

In hindsight I have probably never been aroused more than I was today doing this I'm kind of proud of myself, wouldn't have expected my first proper hand job to be this successful.

Yes! I have potential, now let's just hope that tomorrow goes well and Marvin doesn't have a demand for more...

At least for now now.
