Dear Reader

If you're reading this, it probably means you've read the rest of my visual novel. Thank you for your interest. As I've written before, the time it takes to complete each chapter with quite high and the more characters we meet, the longer it takes. I am not asking for financial support, and I even closed my patreon page. However, I would really appreciate any feedback from you guys, be it commenting here on fap-nation or on my twitter profile. Feedback can also give me ideas for new content.

Cheers
