Jewel was trying to get her computer to work. It was something she needed done fast for her classes. Jewel was five foot six inches tall. She had blonde hair and blue eyes. A nice figure, firm breasts and she wore very revealing clothing.

Sitting in her apartment with her roommate Larissa looking out the window it looked like it was going to rain. She needed someone who was educated in computers to fix it.

“So what are you going to do if you can't get it fixed tonight?” Larissa asked her, sitting down beside her.

Larissa was a little shorter than Jewel with light brown hair and brown eyes. A little less heavy on top. Her breasts didn't stick out like Jewel's did. Most evenings Jewel was out on dates, putting off her school work until the last minute. She could see that Jewel was upset with herself. She should have had the computer fixed months ago when it needed to be repaired instead of waiting until it crashed completely on her.

“I know someone who can help me.” Jewel grinned, picking up her cell-phone.

“Who would come over here on a school night?” Larissa asked, looking out the window herself and seeing that it was going to rain. No one would want to travel in the storm that was starting to brew out there slowly.

“Diego will. I've heard that he's really good at fixing computers. He's kind of a nerd but right now that's what I need right?” Jewel asked her, hoping Diego would come over even though it looked like the world was going to come to an end outside.

“How do you know his number?” Larissa teased her with a smile on her face.

“He gave it to me a few months ago. Invited me out with some of his friends and told me to call if I didn't have anything to do.” Jewel laughed at her.

Jewel punched in Diego's number and hit the send button. Putting a finger to her lip to tell Larissa to quiet down since she was laughing at the thought of hanging out with Diego in a group. Maybe one on one as a study partner but not to hang out with him in public with a bunch of friends. They both ignored him when they were in a group and he passed by.

“Hello?” Diego asked, picking up the phone just sitting in his small one bedroom apartment that his mother paid for each month.

Diego was a skinny kid, tall, and wore thick glasses on his face so that he could see what he was doing. He had dark black hair and dark blue eyes. He didn't have much to do that evening and was depressed about it. His friends wouldn't go out because they didn't know when it would start raining. So he was stuck inside watching movies that he had seen time and time again.

“Hi Diego this is Jewel Madison. I was wondering if you were busy tonight?” She asked, her sweet voice entering his ear.

“Actually you caught me on a slow night.” Diego laughed into the phone, blushing a little. Wondering why Jewel would be calling him.

“Great, would you be able to come over and fix my laptop for me? I have a lot of work that I need to get done and its due in two days. I went to go turn my computer on and it won't bring up anything for me.” Jewel whined into the phone.

“I can come over and see what I can do. I can't make any promises though.” Diego warned her. Though he was good at computers, he was practically a genius but there were some things that he couldn't fix.

“Great. I will see you in a half an hour or so.” Jewel replied, giving him the details to her apartment and told him to call if he got lost.

They both hung up, Diego went in search for his best clothes. He didn't want to look like a dork in front of Jewel. He had liked her since the beginning of the college year. Had always tried to get her to go out in a small group or even just grab her attention. Diego considered himself lucky that she had called him with a computer problem.

A half hour later before knocking on Jewel's door he checked himself over one more time. His white t-shirt and faded jeans with his dirty sneakers looked good to him. It was better then wearing white button up shirts, slacks and black loafers seven days a week. He had to talk to his mother about the way she bought clothes for him. It was time that he did it on his own.

Diego knocked on the door three times, thinking it was a joke when no one came to the door he started to turn away.

“Sorry, I was in the bathroom.” Jewel told him, when she finally opened the door for him to come into the apartment.

Diego smiled and nodded his head at her as she let him into the dim lit apartment and she closed the door behind him.

It took about an hour for Diego to fix the laptop. It was one of the hardest jobs that he had done in a long time. Looking out the window he saw that it was down pouring, the wind was picking up and making the trees sway back and forth violently. Hearing thunder in the distance he couldn't believe that he had to walk home in the bad weather.

“You should stay here until it slows down a bit.” Jewel told him, giving him an innocent smile seeing he was looking at the storm outside the window.

“That would be a good idea. I agree.” Larissa commented, giving Jewel a wink that Diego didn't catch.

“Thank you for the invite to stay.” He smiled back at Jewel. Knowing at that moment he was the luckiest guy on the planet hanging out with two of the hottest girls he had ever seen.

Jewel and Larissa had talked earlier about how horny they were. Hoping that the storm started before Diego finished working on the laptop. They wanted to have a good time since they couldn't go out. Staying at home and thinking up things that could be done to them and what they could do to Diego. No matter what the night led to if Diego said anything to anyone on campus no one would believe him anyways. They would just laugh in his face if he told them what kind of night he had with Jewel and Larissa.

“Thank you so much for fixing my laptop. Now I won't have to worry about my homework.” Jewel whispered in his ear and putting her hand on his shoulders.

“Not a problem, glad I could help.” Diego told her lightly, feeling his body change. He could feel his cock get hard inside his jeans when Jewel whispered in his ear.

“I don't know how I could ever repay you.” Jewel told him innocently as Larissa sat down on the comfy couch. Her jeans too tight so she unbuttoned them and pulled them down off her waist so that she was sitting on the couch in her panties and t-shirt she was wearing.

“You don't have to do anything.” Diego whispered, swallowing hard when he turned away from the window and saw that Larissa was almost half naked sitting on the couch with her legs spread.

“Well we would like to do something for you.” Jewel whispered, taking him by his hand and bringing him over to the couch to sit next to Larissa.

“If you want to, that's fine by me.” Diego blushed a little. He would do anything that the girls wanted him to do. He had fantasized about Jewel for a long time. He was willing to do anything to make her happy.

“That's good Diego.” Jewel whispered, kneeling down on the floor as she undid the button on his jeans and unzipped him. Seeing that he wore white underwear and could see that his cock was coming alive for her.

“I wasn't thinking something like this.” He chuckled nervously, stopping her hand with his own.

“You want to make us happy right? We want to show you how much we appreciate you fixing my laptop.” Jewel looked at him with a pouty look on her face, making eye contact with him.

Diego nodded his head, looking over at Larissa who gave him a cute smile and nodded her head at him. Diego took his hand away from Jewels so that she could reach inside his underwear to grab his cock, gripping it tightly in her hands.

“Have you ever had two women wanting you at the same time?” Jewel asked, whispering to him before sticking her tongue out and running it around the head of his cock.

“Mmmm, not like this.” He admitted, getting a little nervous. Though Jewel's tongue felt really good at the tip of his cock.

“Well then I guess tonight is your lucky night as well as ours. You see we are extremely horny tonight. I won't lie to you.” Larissa got up from her seat, standing up and taking her panties off, stepping out of them slowly and lifting her shirt up over her head so that she was completely naked in front of Diego which was making his cock rock hard just looking at her. Larissa laid down on the couch and put her hand in between the cushions of the couch until she found her favorite pink dildo. The head of it was really fat and she smiled coolly at Diego as she started rubbing her clit with it. Moaning softly once she knew that Diego's eyes were completely on her.

Larissa rubbed her dildo up and down her clit and then shoved it into her pussy deep and hard. Moving it in and out of her pussy as fast as she could, her moans getting louder and louder as she fucked herself with it right in front of Diego, whose cock was getting harder and he began moaning with her each time she shoved the dildo into her tight pussy.

Jewel brought her mouth down completely on his cock and began sucking it he moaned slightly, bringing out a hand to touch Larissa.

“No, no. You don't get to touch this pussy of mine unless I say you can. I know you want to but until I bring my pussy to you there's no chance you are going to touch it.” Larissa shook her head at him, teasing him as she spread her legs further apart, shaking her shaved pussy at him taking the dildo out of her so that he could see just how wet her pussy had become. Just out of arms reach. Denying him the luxury of touching her pussy.

“Oh my god Jewel, my cock feels so good in your mouth.” He moaned as he kept trying to reach out for Larissa's pussy with his hand.

Diego kept his eyes on Larissa, watching her touch herself and putting the dildo deep inside her pussy again as he could do nothing but wait for Larissa to come to him.

“Stop teasing him, let him have a lick of your pussy. Give me that dildo.” Jewel told her lightly, taking his cock out of her mouth, breathing heavily as her pussy was getting really wet.

“She doesn't have to if she doesn't want to.” Diego told Jewel lightly, though his body was shaking all over.

“Oh, I want to Diego. I want to shove my pussy in your face and feel your tongue go up inside of me. I just like playing and teasing first.” She threw her head back and laughed.

Larissa got up off the couch and made him lay down as she handed Jewel the dildo that she just had in her pussy. Jewel popped it in her mouth to get it really wet. She wasn't going to use it on her own pussy she was going to use it for something else. Something that Diego was going to get a charge out of himself.

“Ready for my pussy baby?” Larissa looked over at Diego and gave him a wink.

Diego just nodded his head as she got up on the couch and brought her pussy just above his mouth. He could reach out with his tongue and take a lick if he wanted to but he knew better, he knew that he had to wait for Larissa to bring her pussy down to his mouth.

“Now, before you lick my pussy baby there is one thing that would really turn Jewel on. Something that she wants to do so badly.” Larissa explained to him with a sassy smile on her face.

“What's that?” He whispered, his cock was going to cum if the girls waited too long to pleasure him as he brought his hand to his cock.

Jewel took his hand away from his cock so that he couldn't pleasure himself. She wanted him to wait until she told him it was okay.

“I'm going to stick this dildo into you, that would really make my night.” Jewel told him straight forwards as she took her clothes off and looked at him. Seeing his eyes grow wide from the idea that Jewel had.

“I don't think that's something I'm really into. I haven't had anything shoved up inside of me.” He shook his head no firmly, not understanding Jewel's way of thinking. That wouldn't feel good to him.

“You won't be able to have this pussy if you don't let her do it. I will get off and get dressed, you want to lick my pussy don't you?” Larissa whined at him.

“Of course I do.” He looked back at Larissa. Seeing that she was trying to convince him that it was going to be okay. He would get a reward for what Jewel did to him.

“Okay, but just for a few seconds.” He sighed heavily, caving in. He really couldn't say no when he wanted Larissa's pussy rubbing against his tongue. He didn't see any choice. He had to do something for Jewel in order to get what he wanted too.

Without hesitation and without warning Jewel took her dildo and rubbed it against Diego's ass as he laid there, his cock standing at attention. She shoved it in deep and pulled it out. Doing it repeatedly as fast as she could.

“Fuck that hurts!” He hollered out to her, he couldn't stand the pain anymore.

“You'll be alright. It will feel better the faster I do it. It looks so fucking hot.” Jewel moaned to him as she played with her pussy pushing the dildo in and out of ass. The more he called out in pain the more her pussy wanted to get off.

With a huge smile on her face she looked at Larissa and gave her a nod with her head. Diego was getting too loud, she didn't want someone to come knocking on the door. They had to muffle his noises somehow.

The next time that Diego screamed she shoved her shaved pussy into his mouth so that his tongue went straight up into her pussy. Feeling the wetness of his tongue she pressed down further with her pussy and began riding his tongue as she grabbed her tits and felt the hot breath from his nose against her clit.

The more Larissa squealed in delight over Diego's tongue the harder Jewel shoved the dildo deeper into his ass.

Finally putting the dildo down for a minute Jewel nodded her head once again at Larissa, she took her pussy away from his mouth as much she wanted to cum she just grunted and got off of his mouth the way she was told to do.

Jewel put her hand under the couch seeing that Diego's hand was back at his hard cock and seeing that he was going to get himself off. She couldn't count how many times she had taken his hand away from his cock. She wanted him to scream out, to call out that he wanted to cum even though she knew he wouldn't be able to with the contraption she was about to stick on his cock and lock it up.

“Thank you for stopping that. God, that hurt so much.” Diego admitted, knowing that he shouldn't have. He didn't want it getting around school that he loved having things shoved up his ass because he didn't. He didn't like it one bit, but the taste of Larissa's pussy tasted so good against his tongue and he knew that if he denied both the girls they would kick him out into the storm. He had to do what they wanted him to do. He got a prize each time so it worked out for the three of them, his mind telling him that it was okay for him to do things like this. He had never had a woman look at him the way Jewel and Larissa did when they were doing things to him, well while Jewel was doing things to him and Larissa pleased and pleased him with her pussy.

“I know you want to get off Diego, I see you playing with your cock. It aggravates me that you would bring your hand back to cock after I've taken your hand away time and time again.” Jewel glared at him.

“I'm sorry, I just can't help myself Jewel. You two are the hottest girls I've come across and never had two girls like you or any girl show me the time of day. You have to know how frustrating it is for me too.” He apologized quickly while giving her an explanation of his dirty deed that Jewel didn't like. He didn't want her to change her mind and kick him out before letting them finish.

“This will stop you from grabbing that hard cock of yours. You won't cum unless I tell you to cum no matter how much you want to.” She grinned evilly at him.

She held up the contraption that she was going to put on his cock. He looked at it and noticed it was in the shape of a penis. A place to put his balls as well, seeing that his cock was a little smaller than what the contraption was he saw that there was a pad lock on the outside of it. She held the key in her other hand.

“No, please don't do that. It looks like it hurts. I won't touch myself again. I won't.” He begged her with tears coming to his eyes.

Diego's heart was racing as he saw that she had complete control over the situation now. Thinking that she was a nice girl who he was interested in, he loved what Larissa was doing to him but his eyes saw that Jewel controlled what was going to happen. His mind told him that he wanted it, told him that as long as Jewel did what she wanted he would get a great surprise as well. He had to keep his eyes on the prize not the pain.

“Maybe next time Diego you will learn that when I tell you to do something you will do it.” She told him gently but the hint of control never left her voice.

She opened the contraption that was called a chastity cage for his cock. Shaped just like one. She made sure that she didn't clip any of his skin. Not his hard cock and not his balls. She knew that the pressure of the contraption was going to be uncomfortable for him as it was.

Jewel laughed when she snapped it in place and locked it with the key. She loved the look on Diego's face when he felt the pressure come down on his cock.

“That's a lot of pressure.” He complained to her.

“Where is there a lot of pressure?” Jewel asked him, pretending she didn't understand what he was talking about.

“Down there.” He muttered, closing his eyes briefly. When he opened them again he saw that she was staring at him.

“Down where? Where exactly?” She wanted him to say the words. She wanted him to tell her where the pressure was.

“The pressure on my cock.” He muttered, looking away from her. Embarrassed that he was whining to her about it. She knew what he was talking about but refused to understand until he told her right out what the problem was.

Diego prayed that the girls wouldn't open their mouth about the good time that they had with him. Laughing with their friends and each time he passed he would know they were snickering about him and how humiliated he would feel if it had gotten out around campus. Almost wishing that he had walked in the storm to go home. His mother had warned him about mean girls but he never thought that Jewel would have it in her to be mean.

“Don't turn away, you're not the first man we have does this to.” Jewel whispered to him, talking gently to him.

“Your really not. She's done this to plenty of men. No one ever found out about it because the men did as they were told.” Larissa backed up Jewel's statement.

“Why me?” He asked, looking Jewel in the eyes.

“When I called you to come over to fix my laptop we were both very horny and we know that none of our friends would come over. You make my pussy really wet Diego when you let me do things to do you like this. The dildo I shoved into you, you should have felt how wet my pussy was knowing that you allowed me to do it.” Jewel confessed biting down on her lip.

“Do you want her pussy Diego?” Larissa asked him sweetly.

Diego didn't answer her. He didn't even nod his head, knowing that he said yes then Jewel would get a bigger kick out of what she was doing to him.

“Diego I am sure you want my pussy. You can come out and say it. You are going to be so ready to cum by the time I take this off you that you are going to cum all over my couch before you can get your hand to your cock.” Jewel promised him, showing him the key, dangling it in her hand to show him that she was the one to take it off of him. He had to wait until she was done with what she wanted to do before she would take it off of him.

Larissa went to Jewel, she was so turned on from what Jewel was doing. The way she took control she couldn't help herself any longer.

Larissa put her arms around Jewel and began kissing her hard on the mouth. Shoving her tongue deep into Jewel's mouth.

As their tongues played together and teased each other Jewel looked over at Diego and saw that he was grinning from ear to ear, he went to go put his hand down to his cock and remembered that it was caged so that he couldn't touch himself as he watched the girls kissing.

Jewel's eyes remained on his as she brought her hands around to Larissa's ass, holding onto Larissa's ass cheeks and bringing her pussy closer to her own. They began rubbing pussies and moaning in each others mouth.

Jewel was putting on a show to make Diego's cock grow more, adding more pressure to his cock in the cage and even more pressure added to his balls knowing that the harder he got the more it was uncomfortable for him. Knowing that he wanted to get off and he couldn't she felt her pussy getting really wet. She loved watching a man in pain mixed with pleasure, knowing what he wanted to do and knowing that he couldn't when she was the one who had the power.

“Do you want to watch us lick each others pussies?” Jewel asked, tearing her mouth away from Larissa's mouth.

“I can't stand the pressure anymore. My cock feels like it's going to explode inside this thing. Please take it off.” He begged her, tears streaming down his face. Feeling completely humiliated right then and there begging for them to release his cock. He felt the tightness and wanted the contraction off of him.

“Trust me you won't cum. I know it probably feels like it's the end of the world right now but when I take it off of you it will feel awesome. You have to take the pain with the pleasure Diego.” Jewel whispered and blew a kiss to him. Loving the way he begged her.

“You will be rewarded well for doing this Diego. Jewel always makes sure that the men are rewarded at the very end. It will be worth every ounce of pressure and pain you are feeling right now.” Larissa assured him as she brought her mouth down to Jewel's tits and began sucking on them.

Jewel brought them closer to Diego so that he could see up close what they were doing.

“Kneel down with me Larissa.” Jewel moaned as she brought her hand to the back of Larissa's head so that she could whisper in her ear and bring her mouth closer to her tit. Moaning louder as Larissa bit down on her tit and sucked it. Licking and lapping just as quickly as she could.

They both knelt down in front of Diego. Jewel could see that his cock was pressed up against the cage, there wasn't much room left in there for his cock to get harder. His cock was getting harder each time the girls played with each other.

“Get off the couch baby and come suck on my other tit. I know you want to honey.” She whined at him, nodding her head at him.

“Take this thing off of me.” He told her softly.

“You will do what I say. Not the other way around. Come down here and kneel with us. Suck on this big tit of mine Diego.” She repeated what she wanted done.

Diego sighed, getting off the couch and kneeling down. Looking at his cock and not liking the way it felt knowing that he could rub his cock against her skin to skin. It was hard plastic and it wouldn't be good for him because he wouldn't be able to feel his cock rub against her.

Diego, even though she had put the cage on his cock he still wanted her tit in his mouth. He wanted to taste her soft skin and hard nipple running against his tongue.

Diego brought his mouth down to her tit and she quickly placed a hand on his forehead to stop him before his tongue touched her hard nipple.

“Ask me first Diego.” She told him roughly. She loved having control and knowing by now he would ask permission when she told him to. He would do anything she told him to if he wanted that cage off his cock.

When she didn't hear him ask her. He just knelt there and looked at her tit that he wanted his mouth.

“Remember who holds the key.” She whispered to him, taking the key that was behind her and bringing it to his face. Holding it tightly between her fingers.

Diego thought about trying to grab it from her fingers and unlocking it himself but he knew that he wasn't quick enough to do that. He was sure she had it in the back of her mind that he would try to grab for the key.

“Can I take your tit in my mouth?” He whispered to her.

“I couldn't hear you. Your voice is too low.” She grinned at him, taking the key away from his face. Putting it behind her once again only this time it was closer to Larissa so that he wouldn't try grabbing it while he was pleasuring her.

“Could I please suck on your tit.” He said louder this time. Knowing that even Larissa who was playing with her pussy and sucking harder at Jewels tit could hear him.

“Yes you can. I would love if you would take my tit in your mouth and suck on it. Bit and lick and my nipple.” She whispered to him, shoving her tit out for him. Inviting him to take it into his mouth.

Diego latched onto her tit quickly, hoping that she wouldn't change her mind.

Concentrating on her tit was better then concentrating on the pressure that kept building inside his cock. He could still feel the pain but it was a lot less when he took his mind off of it.

As Diego started biting down on her nipple he was surprised when Larissa took his hand and brought it to her pussy.

Larissa shoved his fingers deep inside her pussy until he started fingering her himself and she could concentrate on playing with Jewels pussy with her fingers. Shoving two of them deep inside Jewel as Jewel spread her knees further apart allowing Larissa to shove the fingers deep into her pussy as she began breathing heavily.

“That feels so fucking good Diego the way you suck my tit the way you are. The way you bite down on my nipple. The pressure is perfect. I love it so fucking much!” Jewel screamed out to him, keeping her eyes open so that she didn't miss anything.

Taking her hand and pushing Larissa's mouth away from her other tit she moved the key further away from Diego and sat down on her ass. Spreading her legs further apart as she laid down on the living room floor and taking Diego down with her so that he could continue sucking her tit she looked down at Larissa who was fingering her pussy.

“Rub your pussy against mine. Rub your clit on mine until I cum all over it.” Jewel begged her. Feeling Larissa's fingers come out of her pussy.

“I would love to suck your cock Diego but it looks like right now it's blocked from my mouth.” Larissa smiled as she brought her pussy to Jewels and heard her gasp as she felt how wet Larissa's pussy really was when they touched.

“Pretty soon my darling, after you make my pussy cum I will take it off of him and you can shove his cock in your mouth so that he can cum and you can taste the warmth going down your throat. It'll happen fast like it does with all of them.” Jewel explained to her soothingly as she felt Larissa's clit rub against hers harder and faster.

“Does this feel good, does it feel good with my clit rubbing against yours? Can you feel my clit baby?” Larissa asked her as she rotated her hips faster and putting more pressure down on Jewels clit. Loving how Jewel moaned out for her. She wanted to feel Jewel's pussy juices all over her own pussy.

“While I'm sucking on Diego's cock I want you to lick my pussy. I want to cum in your mouth.” Larissa moaned, closing her eyes. Knowing if she kept talking dirty to her then she was going to cum on Jewels pussy herself.

Jewel couldn't wait until she felt that hard plastic rub against her leg. She knew it was going to happen sooner or later. Trying to hold her laughter in.

“Look at him, look at him trying to rub his cock against my leg while he sucks my tit. He looks so funny doesn't he?” Jewel pointed at how desperate Diego had become wanting to touch his cock against something other than the hard plastic that was surrounding his cock.

Larissa stopped grinding her pussy against Jewels and looked to where she was pointing. Larissa and Jewel laughed and laughed as Diego's face got red from embarrassment once again.

Diego couldn't help himself as he rubbed the hard plastic faster against Jewel's leg. Moaning and wanting his cock released so badly from the damn contraption that she had put on him.

“He looks almost like a dog trying to hump someone's leg and not getting anywhere.” Larissa told her getting Jewel to laugh harder than she ever had before during a sexual encounter.

“Get off me Larissa. Since he's this worked up he can lick my pussy after all. I mean it must be hard not being able to touch or fuck with that on his cock huh?” Jewel pretended to feel bad for him, he was like a rabid dog humping her leg with no satisfaction.

Larissa got off of her knowing that they would have time by themselves later on when they were done toying with Diego. Larissa was glad that Jewel had called him to fix the laptop for her. It was a lot of fun making him feel humiliated with the chastity cage tightly secured around his cock.

“Take my tit out of your mouth now baby. I'm going to sit on your face so that you can lick my pussy. So you're going to have to lay down on your back for me. That poor, hard, cock of yours won't be able to rub against me. The plastic doesn't feel good on my leg anyways.” Jewel laughed at him as she sat up.

Diego took his mouth away from her tit as she pushed him down onto the floor as quickly as she could. She wanted to get her pussy off and she wanted to cum quickly.

“The faster you lick my pussy the better chance you have of that coming off your cock.” She whispered in his ear as she rubbed her pussy against his chest, inching her way up to his mouth with her shaved pussy.

“Yes, let me lick your pussy. I would love that.” He told her quickly, a smile spreading across his face. Just trying to make her happy.

She put her pussy to his mouth and began licking her clit at first until she moved her pussy up further into his mouth so that he could tongue fuck her. He felt her squirming around as he wiggled his tongue faster inside of her pussy. He tasted how wet she was and thought about getting cage off his cock while he was having fun licking the inside of her pussy over and over again.

“Fuck me, I'm cumming. It feels so fucking good. Drink my pussy juice baby, drink it!” She yelled at him as she rode his mouth faster and harder letting her pussy cum hard inside his mouth.

When she was done cumming she got off his face and saw that he had some pussy juice dribbling down the sides of his mouth.

“Very naughty, not what I wanted to see. You wasted some of my pussy juice. I guess I'm not going to unlock you after all.” She told him disappointingly.

“You said-” Diego was cut off from what he was going to say.

“That was until you wasted some of my pussy juice.” She glared at him.

“I didn't mean to.” He whined at her. He begged with his eyes to have her take it off of his cock.

“Now that my pussy came it's your turn. Do whatever you want to do with him.” Jewel threw her hands up and sat on the couch, not bothering to put her clothes on.

“Anything I want to do?” Larissa asked with a gleam in her eyes.

“Yes, anything.” Jewel told her, laughing, feeling a little better now that she could watch Larissa play with him.

Larissa took the dildo from the floor and saw Diego's eyes widen. Shaking his head, knowing what was coming he couldn't find the words to tell her no.

“You will let me do this. I wanted to take a turn earlier but Jewel hogged all your attention and got to watch it go in and out of your ass. You will learn to like it.” Larissa told him as calmly as she could.

Without saying another word she shoved the dildo deep inside his ass. Pushing in all the way, further than Jewel had done. He cried out with pain and embarrassment.

He watched as Jewel got off the couch and grabbed her cell phone. She began taking pictures of what was happening to him. He turned his face away from the camera so that he wouldn't have to watch her take the pictures of him with the dildo deep inside of him. He felt it sliding in and out him harder and faster as he began to cry from humiliation.

“Now, you will do what we want you to do whenever we want you to do it. If you don't we will make sure that everyone on campus sees these pictures that I just took of you.” Jewel warned him, there wasn't a smile on her face as she told him the news.

Diego shook his head as tears spilled from his eyes once again. He knew that he would be controlled by the two girls until they were done with college. Until he moved away and no one knew his name. He would end up doing everything they wanted when they called upon him.

“Do you understand what Jewel is telling you?” Larissa asked him.

Diego nodded his head but didn't look at the girls. Knowing that they were mean and cruel he didn't want to upset them. Knowing he had to play by their rules from now on.

Jewel went over and took the key off the floor.

“What are you doing?” Larissa asked her.

“I have pictures of that being on his cock too. Put your mouth down there the second I unlatch it and put your mouth on his cock.” Jewel told her calmly as she put the key into the padlock and turned the key to release Diego's cock.

Larissa put her mouth down on his cock and began running her mouth up and down his cock. This was the pleasure that he had wanted for so long.

“Oh my god, fuck yes. My cock.....my cock is going to cum. Please keep sucking my cock.” He moaned softly, he couldn't believe the way he was talking to her as he felt her tongue slide up and down the length of it and feeling the suction of her mouth.

His mind was telling him that it was worth all the pressure and pain in that chastity cage his cock had been in.

“Doesn't that feel so good now? It was worth everything you just went through huh?” Jewel bent down to his ear and whispered her questions in his ear.

“Yes, yes it was well worth it. That's right baby keep sucking my cock.” He moaned as his cum squirted out into her mouth and she kept right on sucking his cock over and over again until he couldn't cum anymore.

“Next time it will be better, I promise.” Jewel licked his ear and bit down on her earlobe and then got up, getting dressed. As soon as Diego left she would go to bed with Larissa and please her pussy.

The End.
