

Family Roots - Part 2

by abimboleb

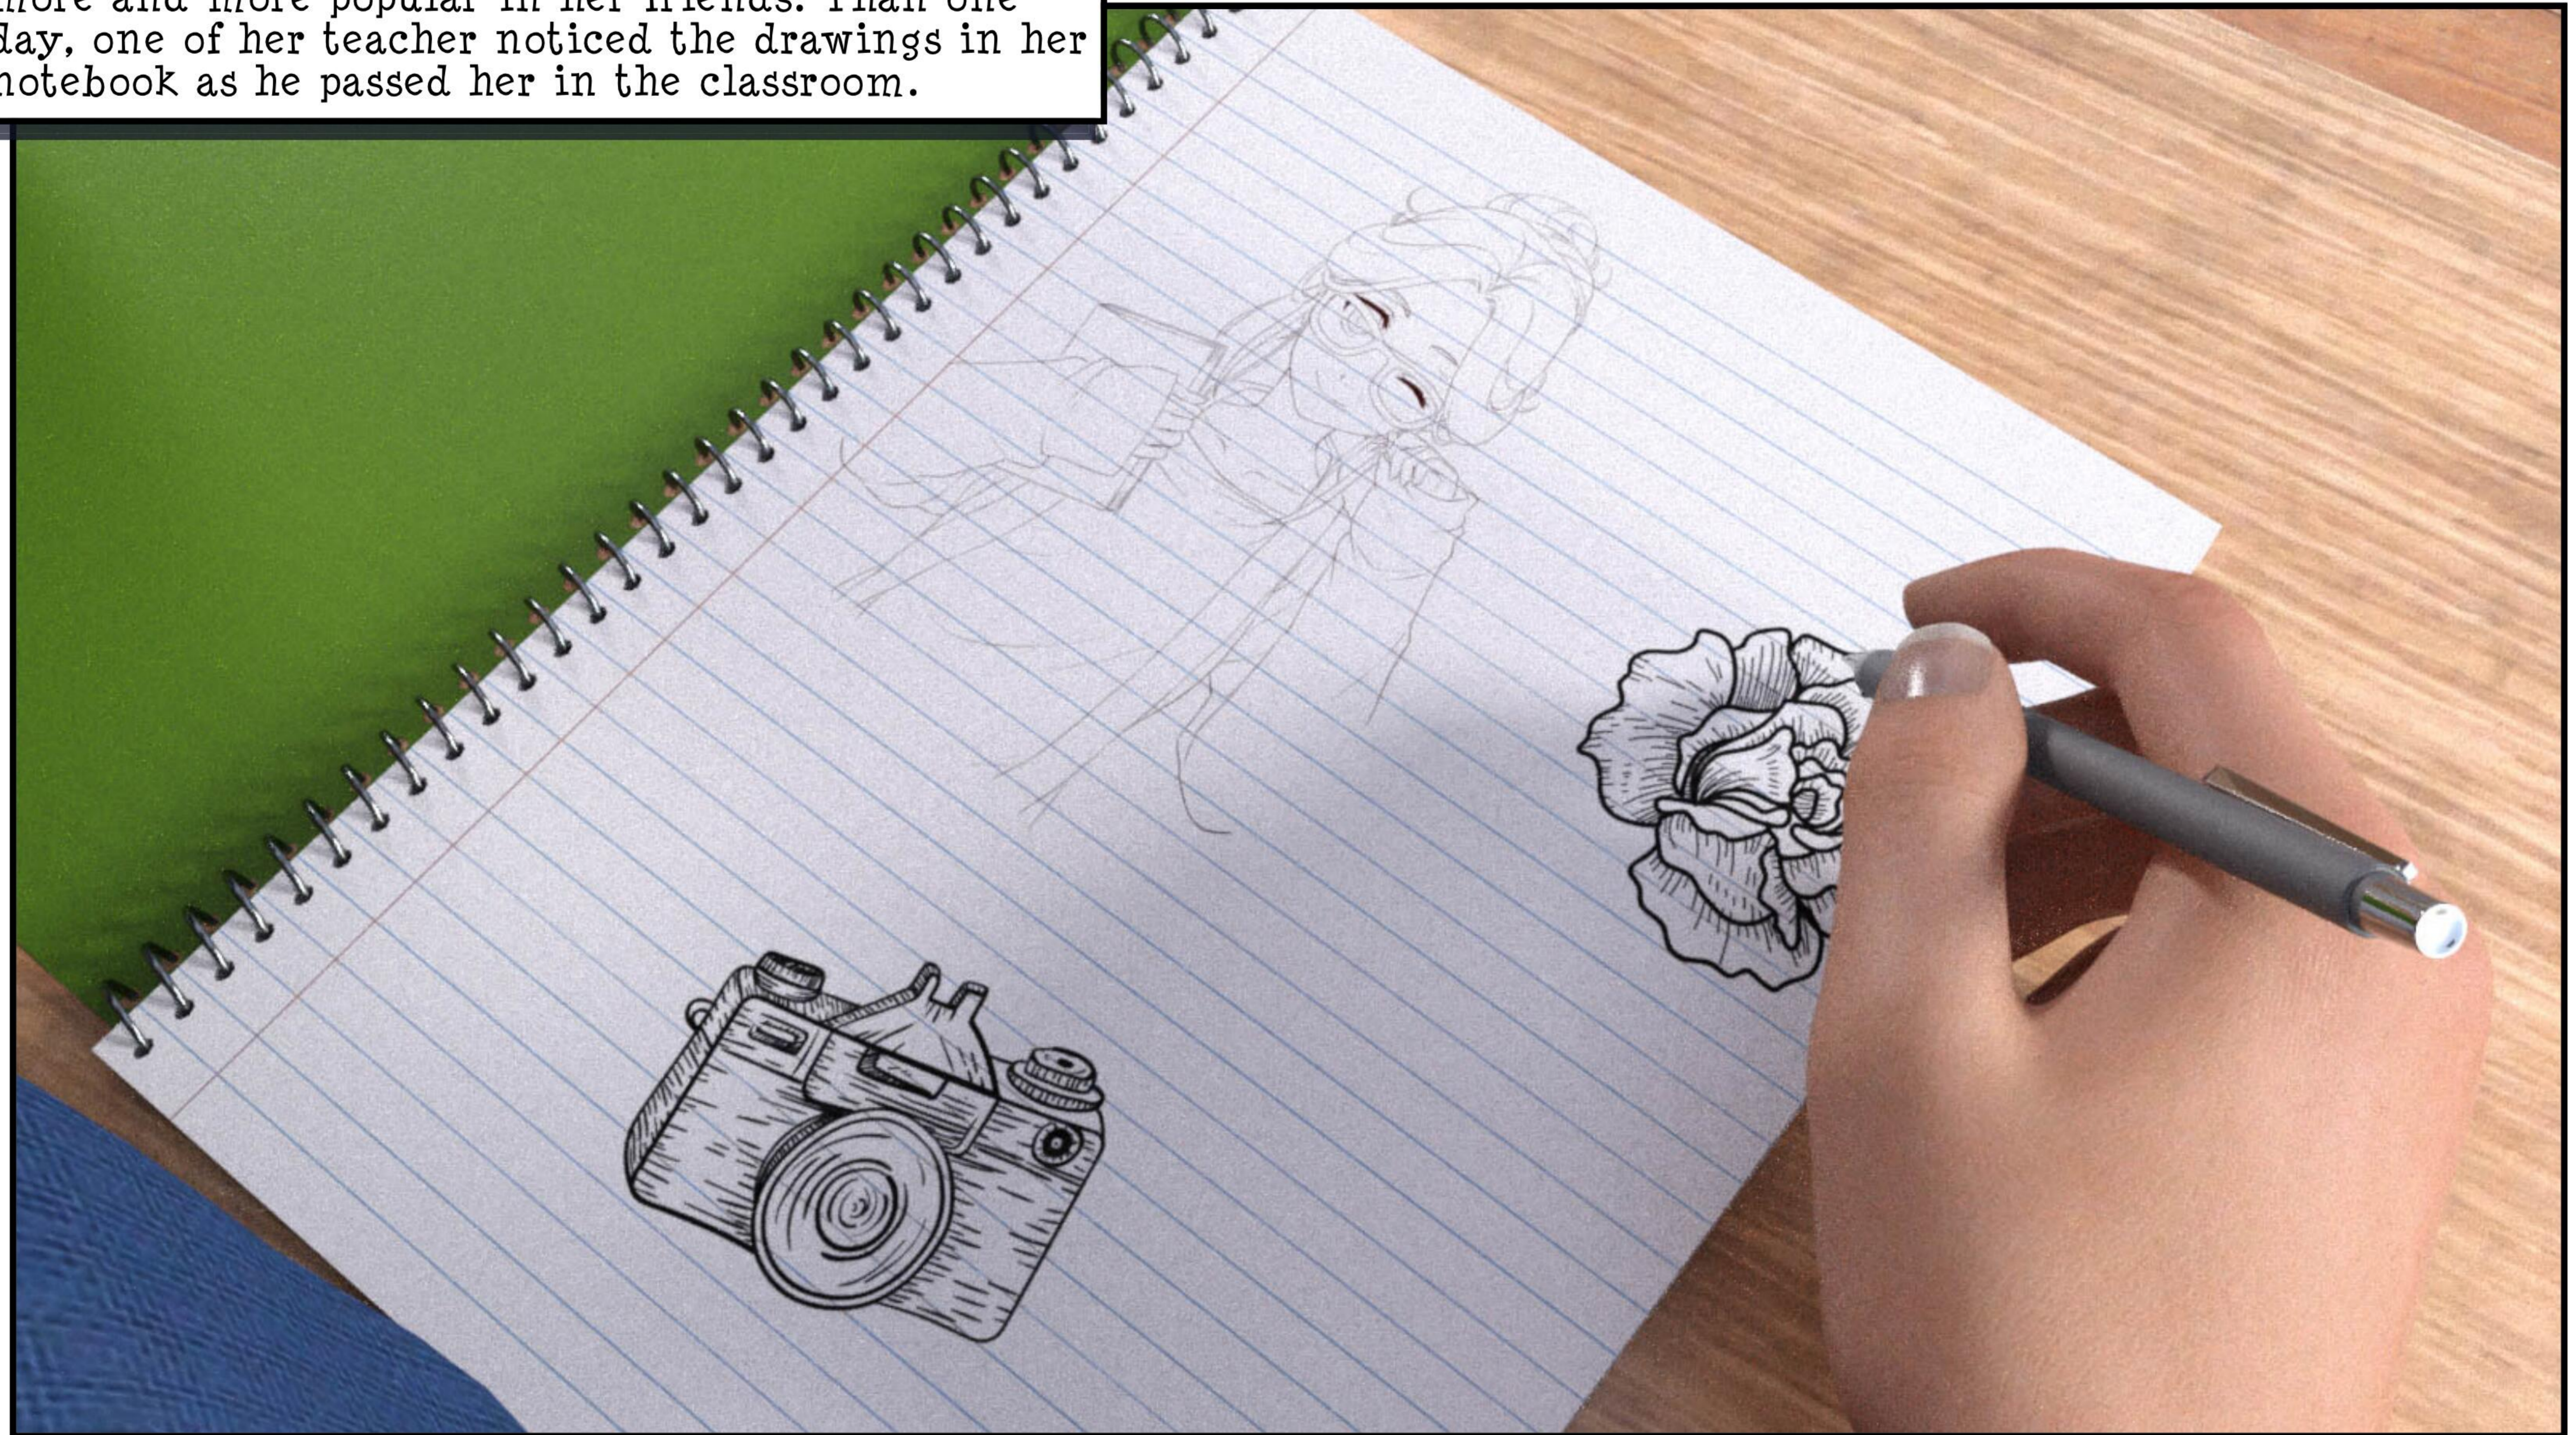

Meanwhile on the other side of the town, Rae-Rae's youngest daughter were taking her extra class. Just as her mother and her sisters, she had a special talent. It wasn't about math or anything left-brainer but she's got a talent for drawing.

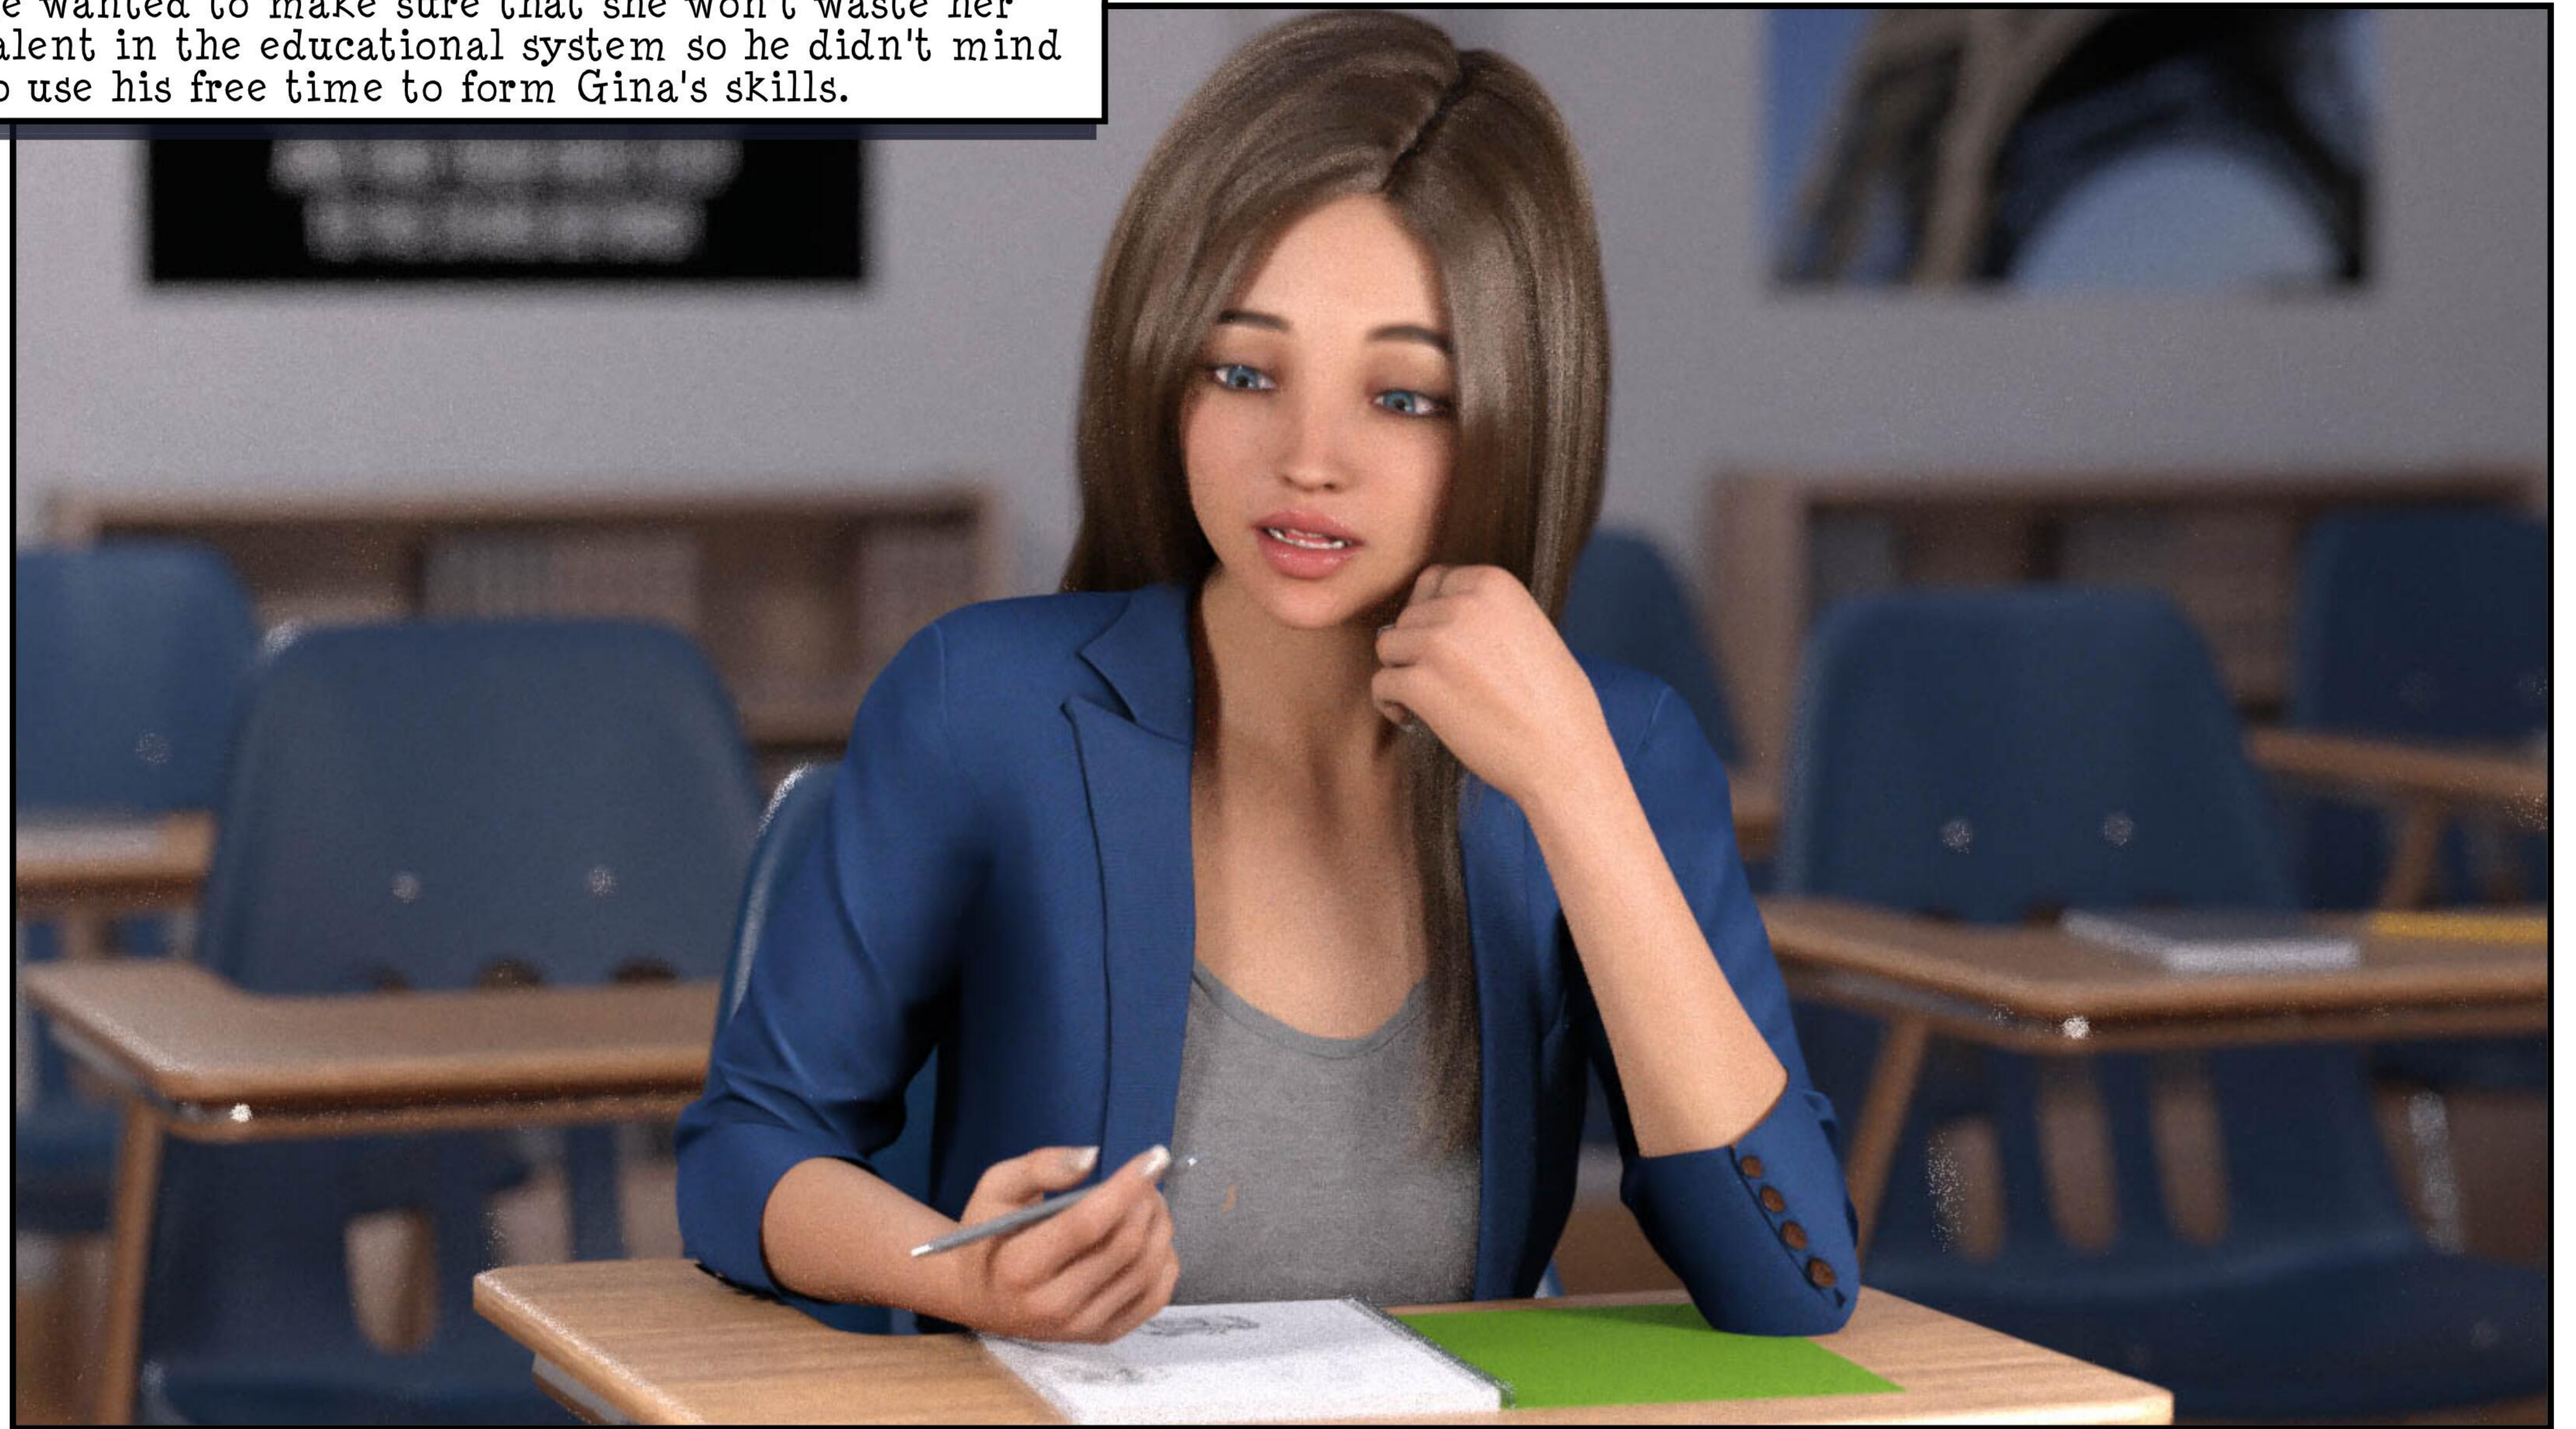

It was natural for just for us to drink water.
Sometimes she just sat down and draw for hours.
First, she was nothing more than just a little girl, who's skills are above the avarage.

But as the years passed, her unique view become more and more popular in her friends. Than one day, one of her teacher noticed the drawings in her notebook as he passed her in the classroom.

Since then, Gina was under his wings. His teacher know exactly how to take care with artist like her. He wanted to make sure that she won't waste her talent in the educational system so he didn't mind to use his free time to form Gina's skills.

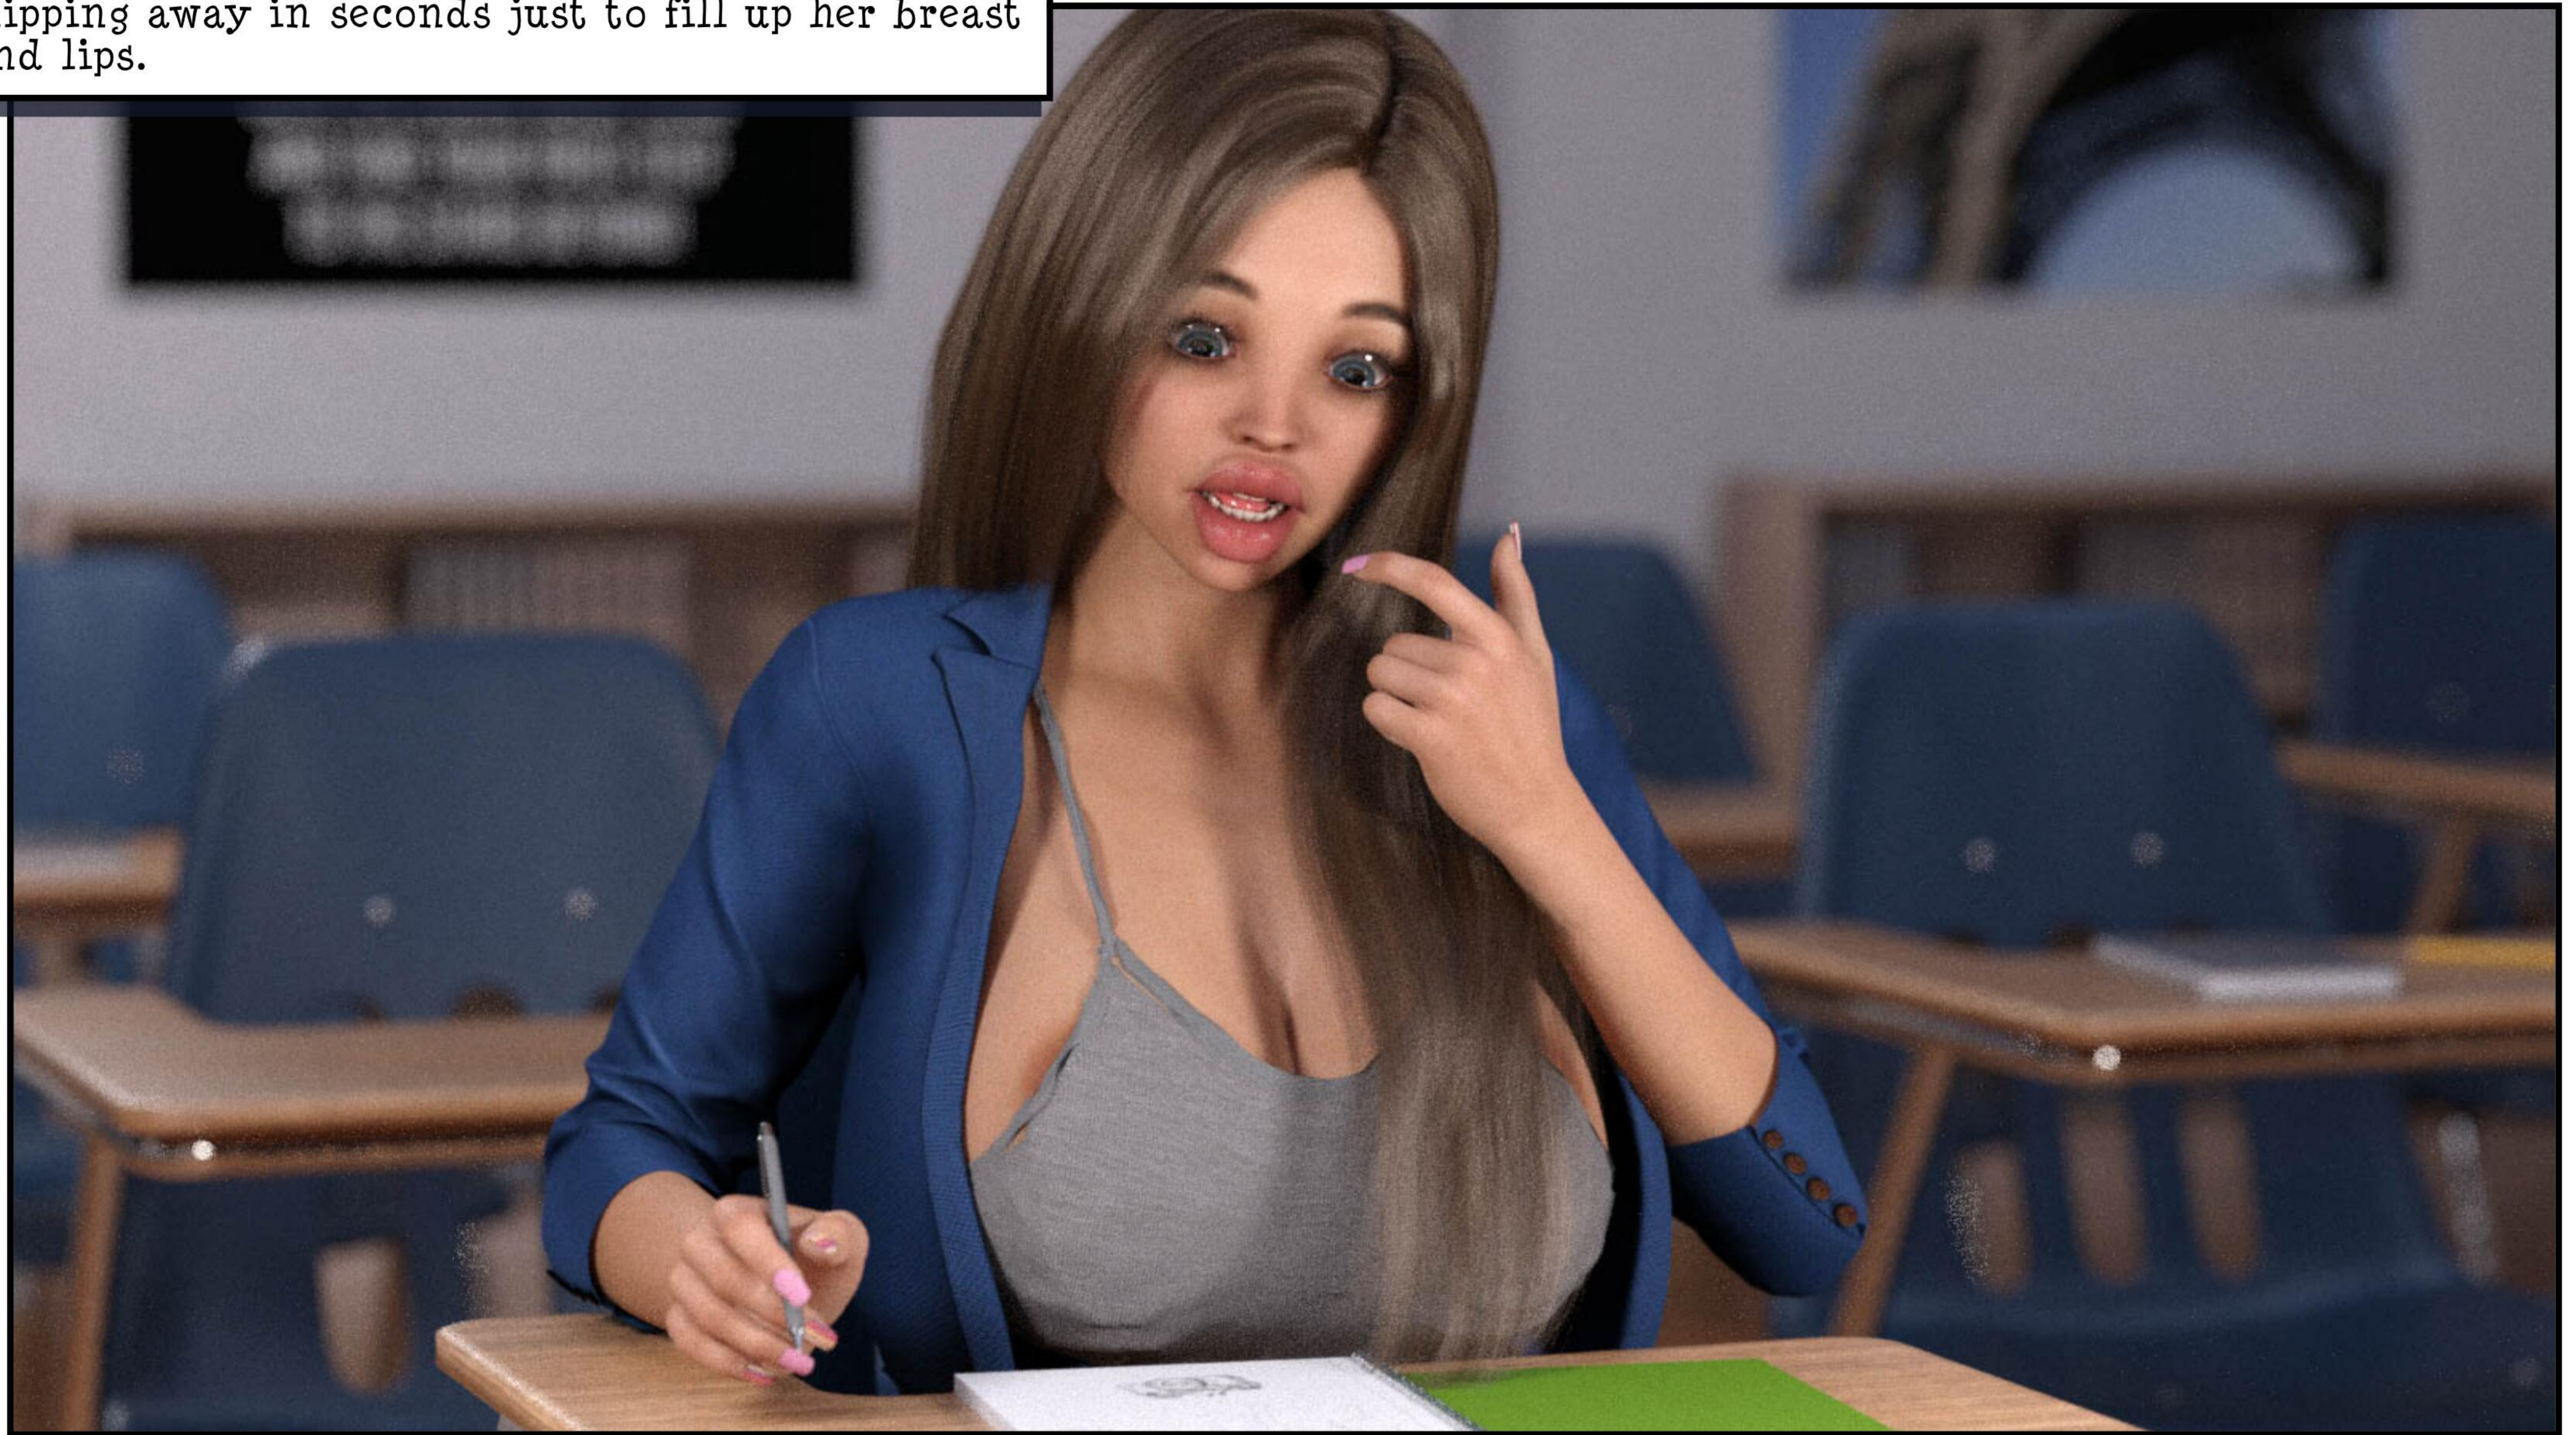

But unfortunately, it was all a waste. Since Rae-Rae was changed into a stupid bimbo who's only skill in art was cock-sucking, Gina's destiny was about to change as well.

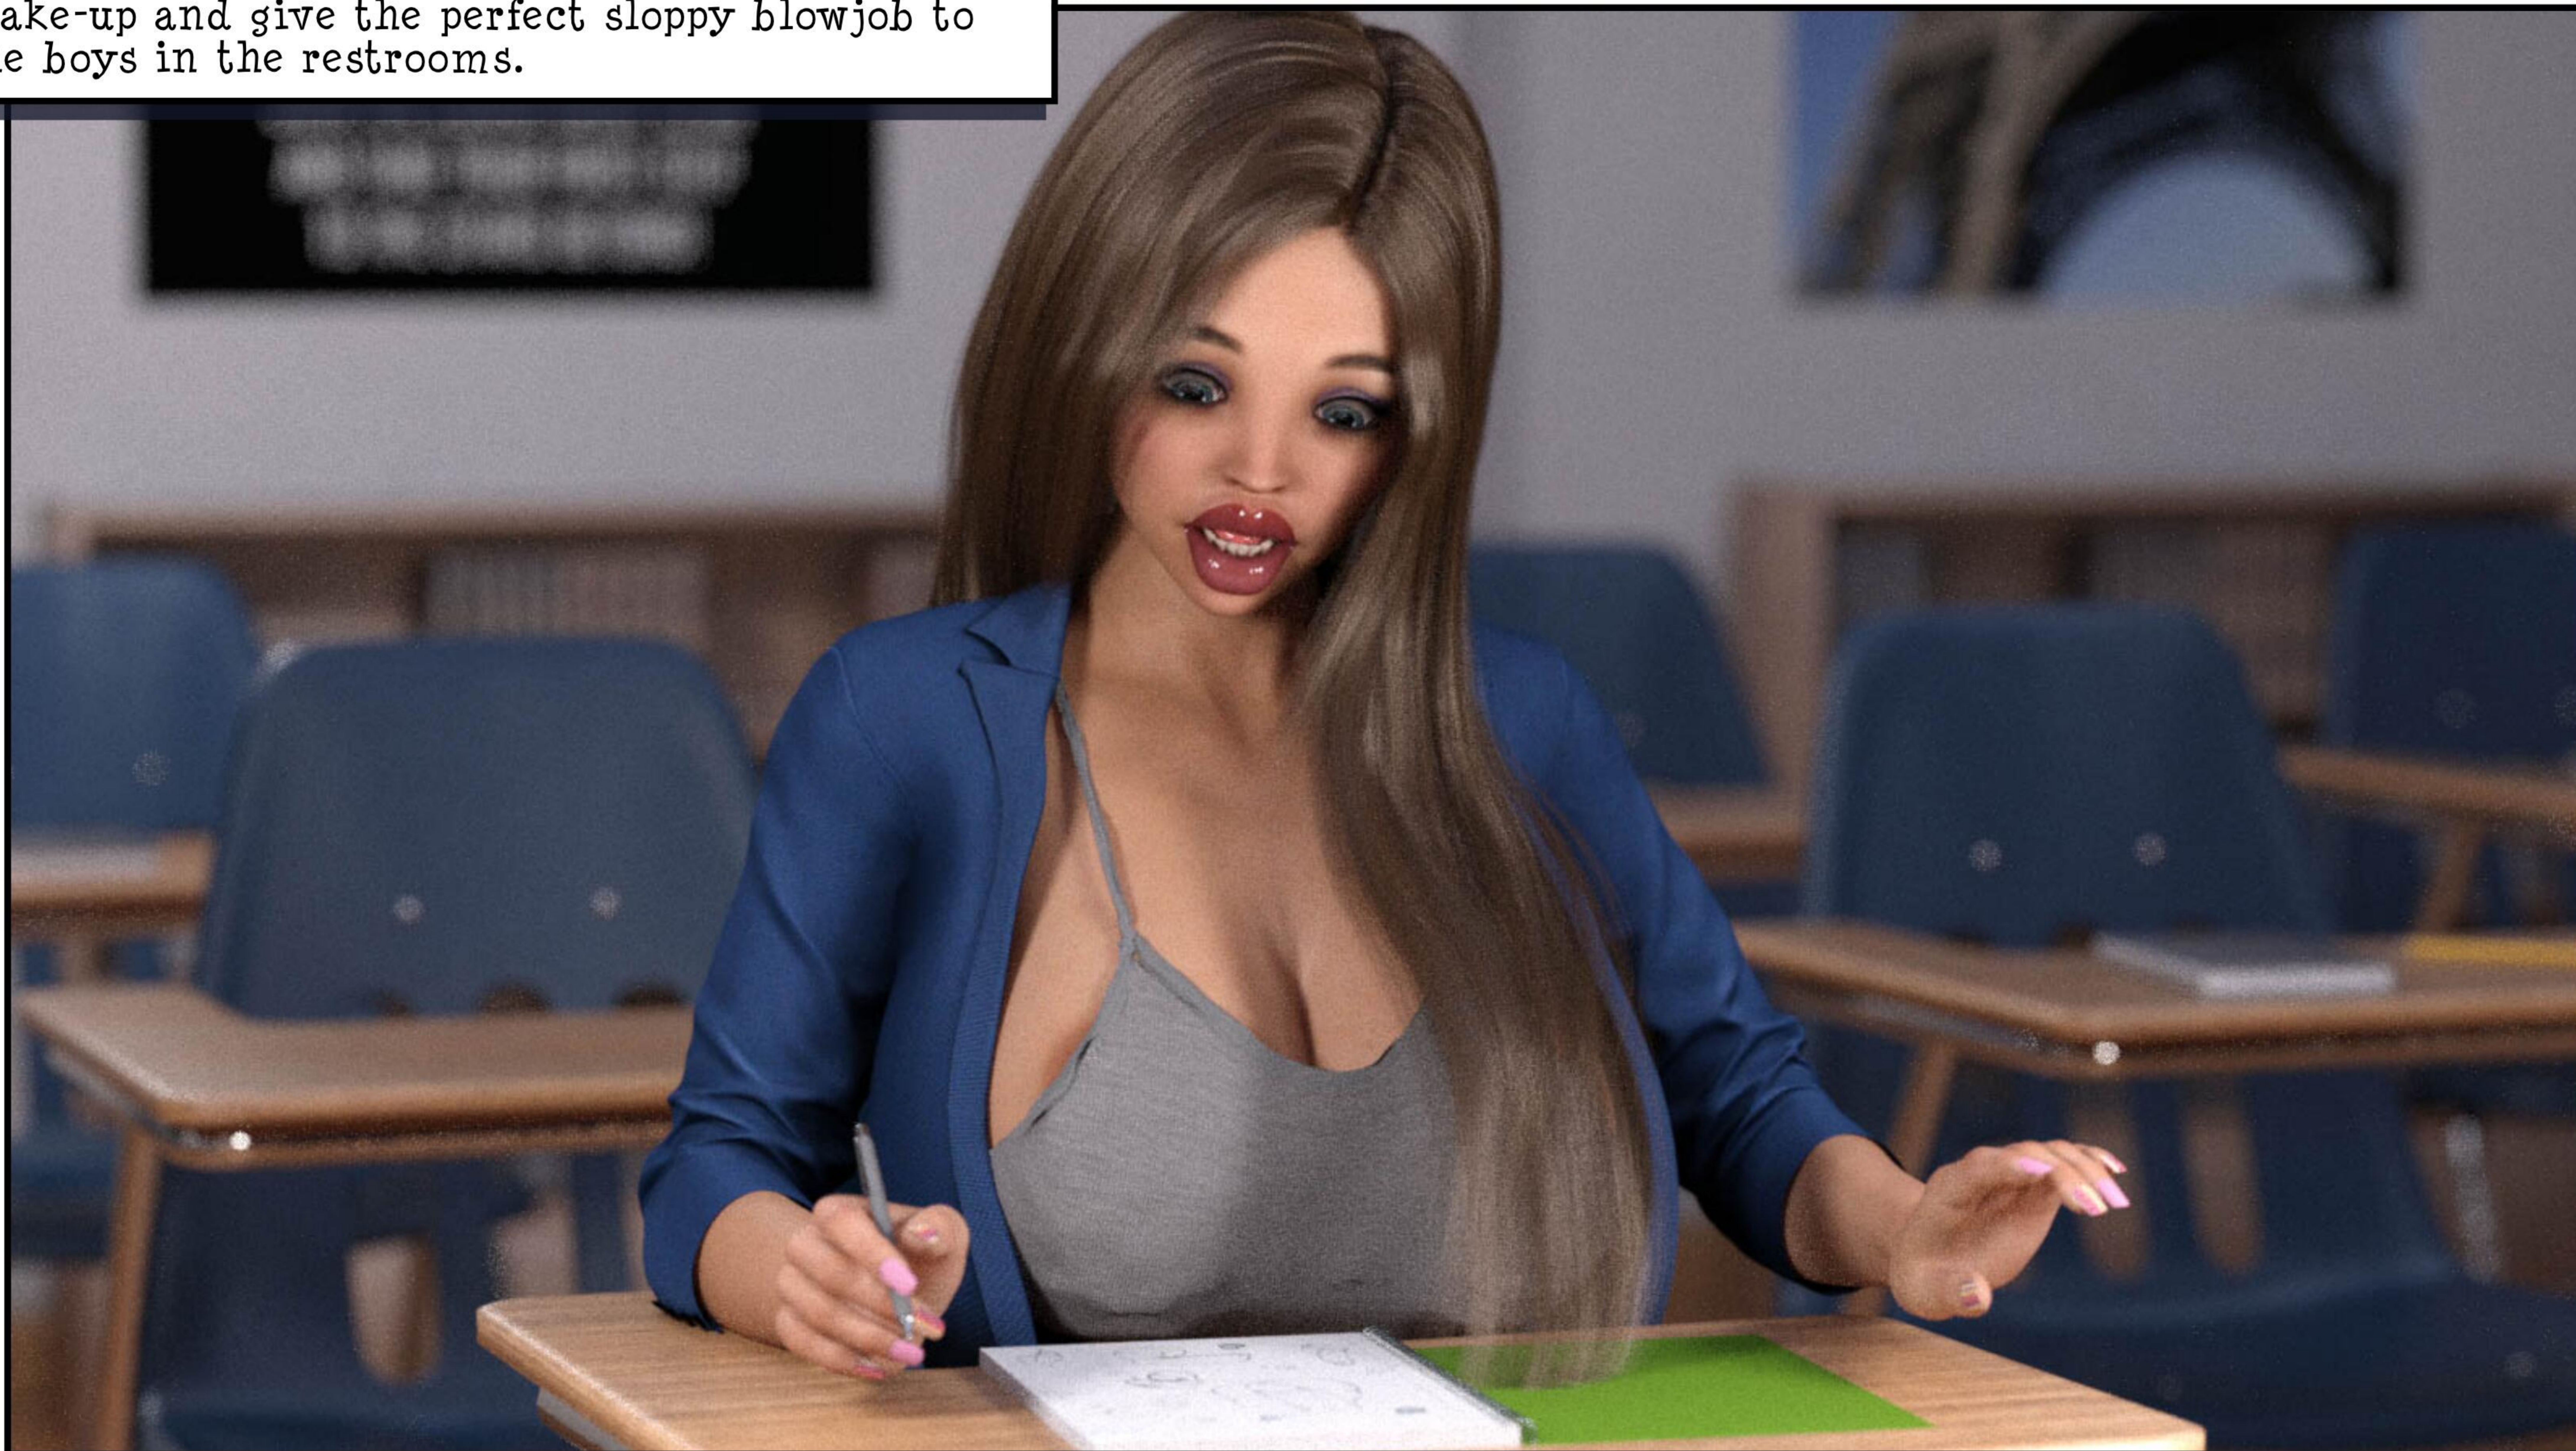

Gina was always a girl who wasn't a popular one in school but she wasn't a dork either. She was somewhere in the middle. A cute shy girl with a lovely face.

But that was about to change. And the shift was so sudden, that her dumbing mind couldn't even follow the changes. Most of her knowledge was slipping away in seconds just to fill up her breast and lips.

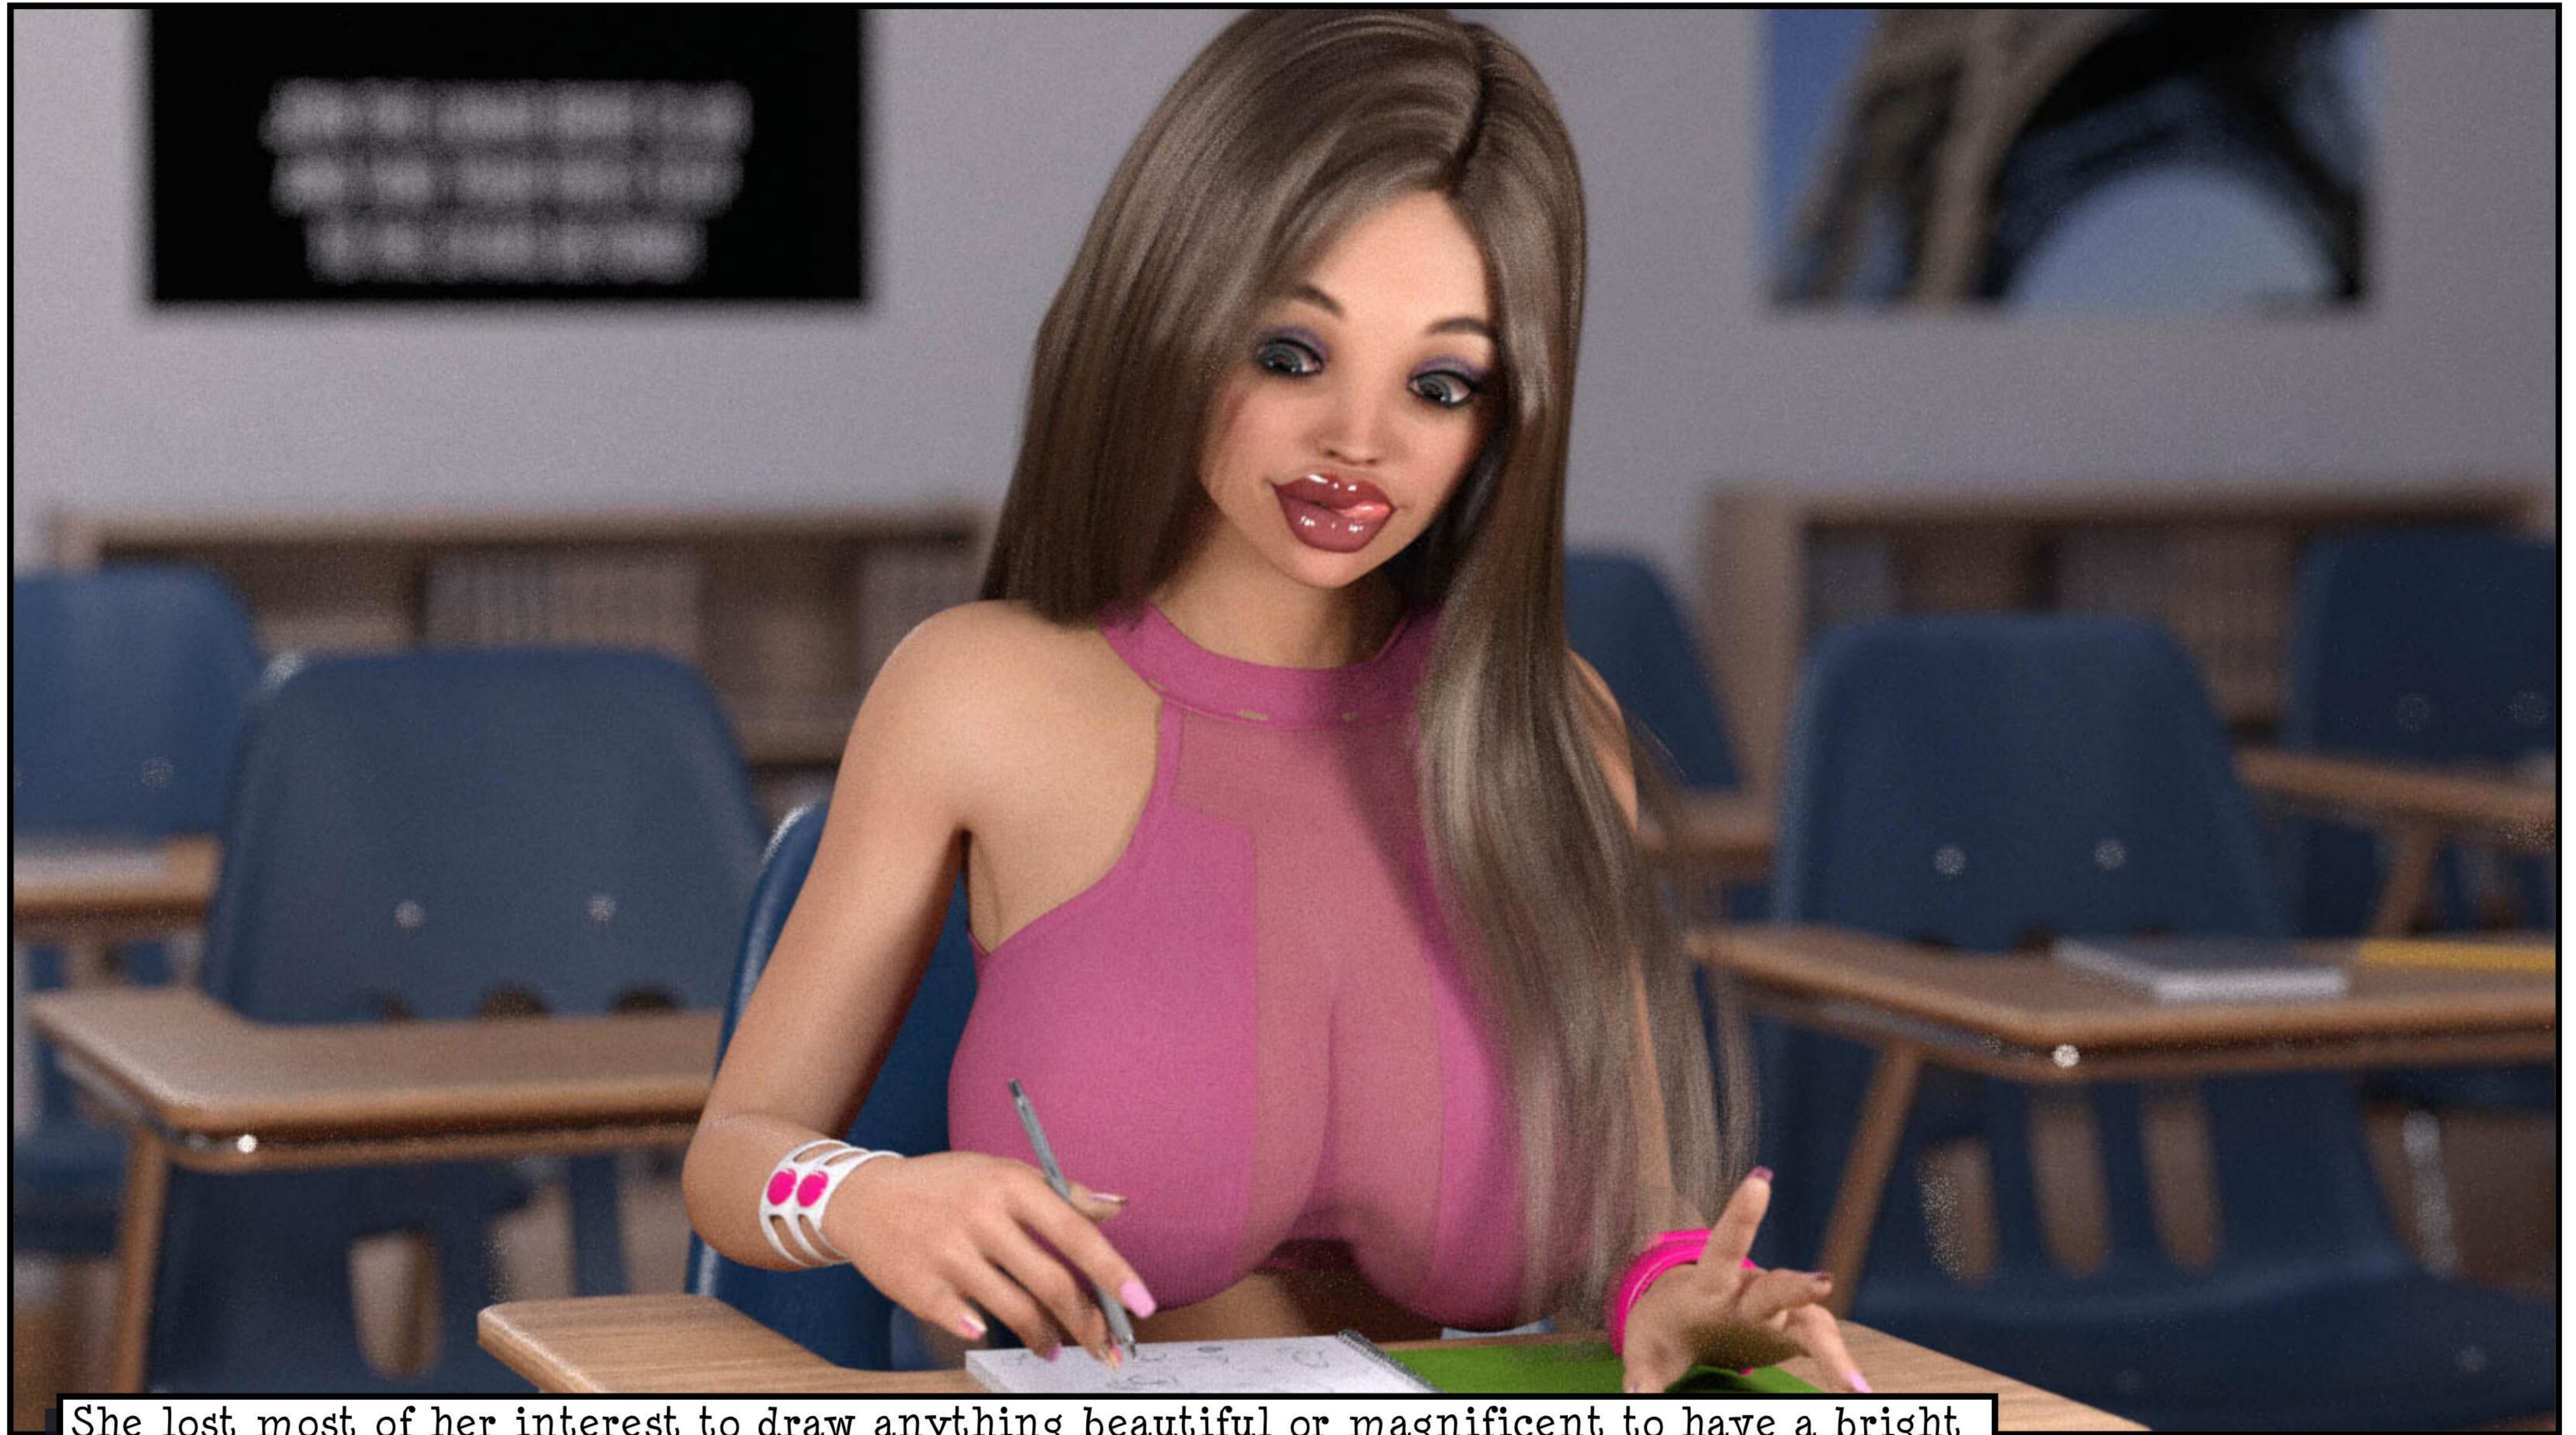

In just the matter of seconds, her talent and basic skills to draw were vanished just to replace it with the knowledge of how to do a slutty make-up and give the perfect sloppy blowjob to the boys in the restrooms.

The once shy girl, become the dumbest bimbo in the whole school with a high chance to be a drop out soon enough. But she didn't care since her big boobs and huge lips were a step-in to fulfill her biggest dream: To become the most famous porn star in the state.

She lost most of her interest to draw anything beautiful or magnificent to have a bright future as a famous artist. Now the only time when she draw was during the boring classes in school. Mostly those drawings were just juicy dicks what she was lusting for.

As her new destiny was placed, many details of her life were adjust as well. Her interest, her carrier, her thinking, her friends, her status...

She was more like the "Daddy's girl", only went to school with outrageous clothes, she didn't really cared about the rules.

All she wanted was just to show off her body, in any way she can do it. If she could wear an inch shorter skirt with the result of only spending one extra hour in detention, than she took it.

Spending her afternoons in the Detention Room become a daily routine for her. She always got into trouble thanks to her low intelligence and by constantly breaking the school's ethical and dress code.

The Principal was considering her dismissal after the numerous incident when she was caught in the boy's locker room, giving blow-jobs for money.
