(Special thanks to Rod Serling. Rock on in heaven! And Damon Knight, who wrote the original story.)

Penny had been employed by the United Nations to look into the motives of the generous aliens who had landed on Earth recently. Her job was to decipher the aliens' manual that their leader had left at the U.N.

Penny managed to decipher the book's title, which read 'To Serve Humans'. This seemed a relief, for the aliens had pledged to help man-kind and to put an end to hunger, war and disease..

But when Penny de-coded more of the book, she discovered that this guide was a COOKBOOK, full of recipes on how to cook and serve humans! She called for her friends to get off the alien ship as they, and several thousand humans a day, went to go live with the seemingly kind aliens. But it was too late for them...and too late for her!

This can't be...our whole world..all of us! We're all MEAT now!

The male aliens used Penny mercilessly for pleasure as she was transported to their planet to be processed.

The female aliens were more gentle, and made sure Penny was well-fed and cared for. But there was no pleading with them to let her go back home.

Please! You're FEMALE.. like me! Can't you see we are alike? You must let me go!

Hush up and eat all your human-food, dear. Be a good sow and I will give you a massage.

This one is fresh from Earth.. she is still somewhat feral but is still a beauty, as you can see!

Finally, resigned to her fate, Penny was brought onto alien soil to be sold like a prized cow!

Indeed! It still wears it's garb? I will take her for 500 since it is clear I must break her in some more.

Oh god! Um...Thank you, Mistress!

MMMM...wild but full of flavor!

Yes, Mistress...Does this mean I get spared as meat? Like if I win?

That merchant was a fool to sell you for so little. Once I shine you up, you will fetch me an even BETTER price..And maybe win me a place in the "Sector 48DG/45" Meat Fair.

At the Meat Fair, Penny won a place in the top five! But of course the prize went to her owner, and Penny was auctioned off with the rest of her fellow human cattle as food.

Oh no, my dear! That just means you will be worth more AS meat!

Sniff....this can't be happening! I was a PERSON with rights.. a career...and now I am just MEAT!

Don't cry, my little creature! You will be delicious!

Look at the HAMS on the one called 'Penny'! Yummy!

Ha! These humans and their funny names!

Such high quality meat! And it has a fine pair of SHANKS! GREAT for a slow roast!

That's right, Ladies! This one is TOP quality! Do I hear five-hundred? OK! Six? Anybody? Six?

Please! Just let me live!

Such tender, juicy breasts! SEVEN!

ONE THOUSAND!

I want the SPLIT filet between it's RUMP CHEEKS! EIGHT HUNDRED!

MMMMM! I cannot wait to taste this soft, sweet nether meat!

Penny was finally bought by two wealthy sisters for three thousand space bucks.

Unnn! OWWW!

It's amazing how deep these tight little woman-holes go! We can stuff her with moon roots and Jawa herbs! Can you believe their OFF-SPRING come out of these holes? What a CRUEL universe...

Chef has a spicy recipe from the Tatoonine Cookbook, 'To Serve Twi'lik'. He can try it on THIS one! We just need a nice, big spice root for this TIGHT receptacle!

We can have Chef spice THIS meaty thigh up your way.

Don't chop me up!
Don't COOK me! Please!
I'll make a GREAT pet!

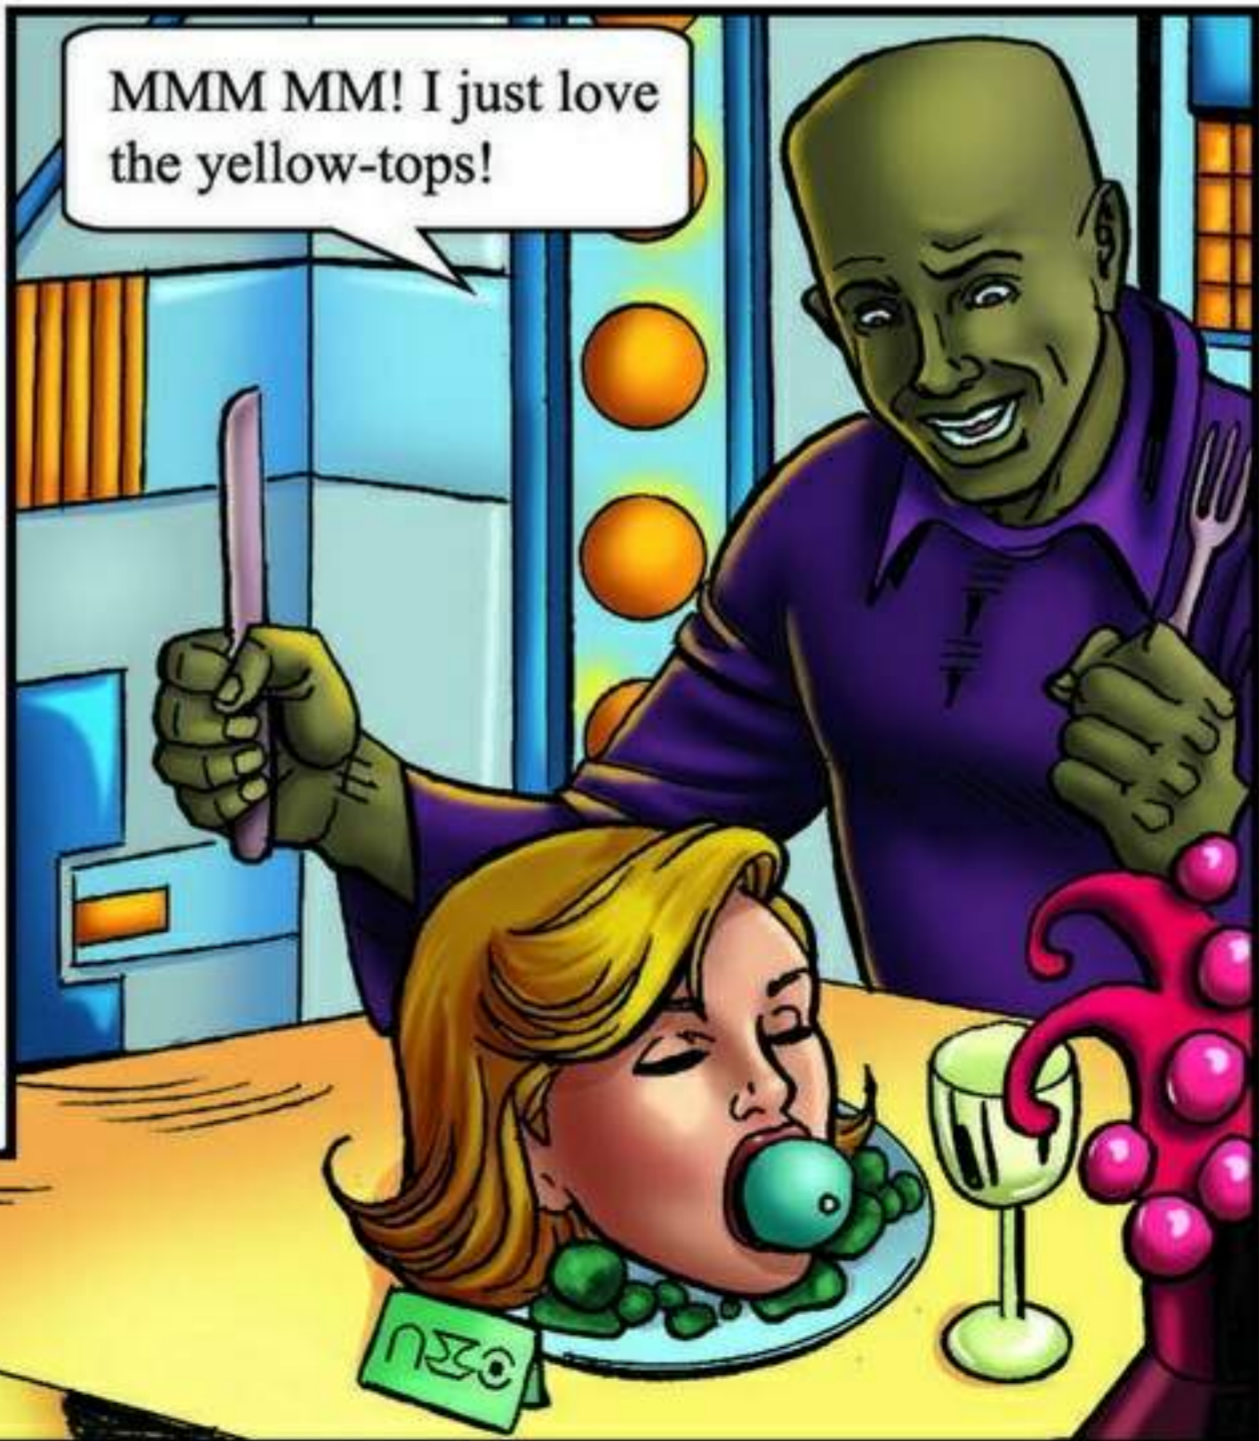

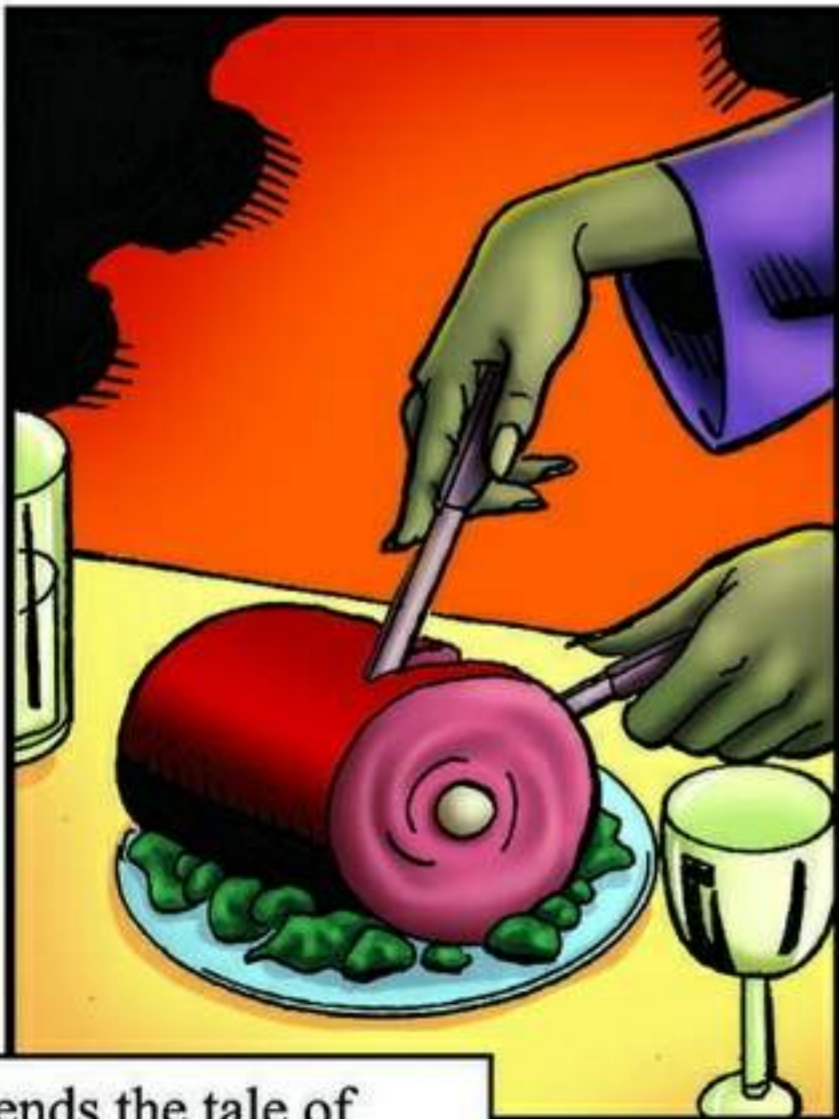

Thank you, Mistress!

Oh, silly human! Everybody knows humans make much better MEAT than pets!

Chef! You have done an excellent job! We will, of course, allow you to have the woman's HEAD!

MMM MM! I just love the yellow-tops!

And so ends the tale of Penny, who learned too much, too late, about the all too freindly aliens who invaded her planet to TAKE and SERVE her kind!

AND THAT'S HOW WE ESCAPED TOGETHER.
BUT OUR REAL ADVENTURE WAS JUST BEGINNING.

BUCKLE UP. THIS GALAXY AIN'T SEEN
NOTHIN' YET!

In the dark forest of a far off planet called ANDOR, a group of female space-troopers are captured by a tribe of hungry-looking Ewoks! Over-powered and out-numbered, these hotties are about to get a lot hotter! They cringe together awaiting their fate! They can only hope to be rescued or perhaps set free by these savages!

The survivors are taken to the Ewok camp as captives. They can only hope that their end will not be too cruel!

At the Camp, many captives are slaughtered like SPACE PIGS!

What do they DO with these poor girls?!

Oh no! They are gonna EAT us!

An Ewok exclaims to a delectable and unlucky blonde space trooper that her rump will be particularly exquisite.

Shng nug nug ishki bosh. Jawa jawa jawa!

Ugghh! Stop!
It hurts!

Once the blonde piece of meat has had her tight ass garnished with a big carrot, she is spit-tied for roasting.

Wait! You can't do this! The Empire will get you for this! I'm a sergeant not a shish kabob!

The chef says in Ewok-ese, "These squealy, fur-less pink things are always so delicious basted and roasted alive!"

OOOwww!
My titties!

Aki ata! Ik ronta mosh!

In praise to the goddess of meat, the Ewoks perform their traditional 'pot' dance. They also taunt their velvety victims with the heads of the eaten.

A young Ewok is reminded of a brown-haired princess from the planet Alderaan that he ate last week as he tests a tender brunette's delicious rump meat.

The Ewoks rejoice in this abundance of human girl-flesh. They praise the gods and make a toast to the most tender meat in the galaxy!
