

Well, let's start this short story where, again, the main character of the story will be you. Are you ready?

The name of this story is: Flatshare

You are far from home and have run out of money.

You arrived with the promise of a job at a well-known pub in the city, only to discover that the place was closed for renovations for another three weeks. With your cash flow severely impaired, you are thrilled to discover an advert that could be the help you want.

You go to the address in the advert and after ringing the doorbell.

To your surprise, two beautiful women open the door. Georgina and Amanda.

After sitting down, you say you came because of the advertisement, and they tell you to come in. Then they look at each other with perverted smile.

You explain to the two girls that you came to work in a pub, but it was closed for refurbishment, and you don't have money to go back home or to rent a room.

They look at each other, and Geogina says: "We have a spare room, and luckily for you, you won't have to pay anything!"

You get excited, but the excitement becomes a chill down your spine when Amanda says: "But you'll have to do all the chores around the house... completely naked."

She continues: "You won't have access to your clothes, your wallet and your passport. We don't know you, and we don't know your real intentions. So the only way we can be sure you won't steal from us and leave when no one is looking is if we have all your belongings, including all your clothes."

Without having any options, you accept the offer.

Then Georgina and Amanda look at each other and say: "Your room is right there. Now Strip! Everything!"

You then take off your coat, t-shirt, boots, socks, and belt and hand them to Amanda, and when it's time to take off your jeans, you say to the girls: "Couldn't I at least keep my pants on?"

They respond: "A deal is a deal. Either take it all off, or you can leave now!"

Then you start to unbutton your jeans, a Levi's 501.

After taking it off, you hand it to Amanda.

Do you still try to negotiate by saying, "Let me just have my underwear on, please?"

Georgina takes the elastic of your underwear, taking it off you with a single pull and places it on top of the pile of clothes in Amanda's hands.

You try to hide your nudity with your hands, but you realize that you are naked and vulnerable at the mercy of these two girls that you don't even know!

Amanda puts all your clothes in plastic bags and calls a taxi.

The taxi arrives soon, and then Amanda says: "I'm going to send all your clothes to a friend who lives on the other side of town, Chrissie, so she can take care of your clothes while you're living here."

So you ask scared: "What if I have to go out on the street?"

Georgina responds: "One problem at a time. If it's urgent, you can go naked. This is a big city, nudity is common. So relax handsome. You won't need to leave this house."

She gives Chrissie's address to the taxi driver and then hands the plastic bag with all your clothes, boots, and backpack to the taxi driver.

Then you see all your clothes going away, out of your reach.

With your clothes far away, you are very alarmed.

Being in a new country, you are not used to the customs here. Maybe this CFNM lifestyle is an established thing here. You reason that you should follow the women's orders for now and keep your mouth shut. By giving you a place to live rent-free, these women really saved your ass after all...

Georgina takes you by the hand, takes you to the bathroom, and says that before you start your house chores, you need to be clean and showered.

You have been tricked into taking an apartment rent-free as long as he remains naked all the time for his two female flatmates.

Women make you do household chores completely naked every day.

All this work definitely turned you on.

After doing all the housework, you went to your room, but to your surprise, the door doesn't have a lock, and the bed doesn't have sheets or blankets, just a heater.

You ask the girls for a sheet and they tell you that you must be completely naked at all times, 24/7, including when you sleep.

After two days, Georgina and Amanda were not at the Flat, they had gone to work. I heard the door opening, it was a beautiful woman.

You put your hands in front of genitals and asked who she was, and she replied laughing: "You must be the guy who is living with the girls here. Nice to meet you, I'm Chrissie. I have the key to this Flat."

She reached out her hand to me, and I removed one of your hands from in front of your genitals and shook her hand.

You noticed that Chrissie was wearing your Levi's jeans.

So I asked: "Are these pants mine by any chance?"

She replied: "Yes, you noticed! I wanted to wear something different and exciting today. These jeans look great on me, don't they?"

I nodded my head in agreement.

That's when she said something insane: "How about we go for a walk?"

You replied: "Like this, naked. No chance"

Then she kisses your neck and says, "Please!"

You tell her that people will see her naked, but she says that her car has tinted windows and that you can't see who is inside.

Then she grabs your penis and starts pulling you towards the door.

After you leave, she locks the flat door, and you now have nothing else to do, if you don't get in the car with her, you'll be stuck outside until one of the girls arrives.

You run towards the car, hoping no one sees you.

During the car ride, the two of you talk a lot.

At one point, on a busy avenue, she rolls down the car windows, and you don't know how to hide your nakedness.

And to make matters worse, she stops at a crowded driveway.

Filming and photos are taken. in all of them, you are naked.

After showing you off, she takes you back away.

After entering the flat, Chrissie says she's leaving and tells you: "I like these jeans. Maybe I won't give them back to you."

After 3 weeks, the girls fulfill their end of the bargain, give you back your clothes and you start working at the Pub.

After 3 weeks, the pub owner calls your cell phone asking you to go to work, so you go to the girls and say you need your clothes back.

They say, "Here's what we're going to do. The Pub is close to Chrissie's house, so we'll go to Chrissie's house, get your stuff, and drop you off at the Pub."

You accept the idea because, after 3 weeks completely naked, you are starting to get used to being a nudist.

And it's also night.

You get in the car, and after a while the girls stop the car in front of the Pub, give you your passport and wallet, and tell you to get out.

You, without understanding what's happening, get out of the car, and they say: "All your clothes, boots and backpack will stay with us. Chrissie said she won't give back your Levi's 501. And this is a stripper pub. The owner won't mind having you like this, naked!"

So, completely naked, you run into the Pub and the girls leave in the car.
