

After shrinking down the two girls that kept them tiny and captive, Libby and Amanda sat on the couch, ordering their new pets to get to work. They had taken a day to get back to their normal lives, but joined each other to torture Sara and Rachel. Now after a good workout at the gym, their feet reeked and were perfect to use for revenge. They plopped them up on the coffee table and told the girls to get to work. Reluctantly, they did without having any other choice.

So when do you think we should go deal with Pete? We should take care of it as soon as we can, because who knows if he is up to something like building another shrinking device. I got this little one to tell me where he's hiding, it's only about a five minute drive away.

You know, maybe I should go do that right now. Why don't you watch these girls and I'll bring him back so he can join them. I can't wait to give that tiny fuck what he deserves. We're going to punish him in ways he couldn't imagine.

Sara and Rachel could hear what the giantesses were talking about, but they knew there was nothing they could do to help right now. They feared for Pete, and Sara worried about her mom. She did not mention that she was as big as she was waiting back at her home. As they continued to worship their smelly feet, Amanda got up and put her shoes on so she could leave and go look for Pete.

You be careful Amanda, even if he is tiny, Pete might have some tricks up his sleeve. At least you have the device so you can shrink him more if you have to. Give me a call if you're not able to find him though. I told this little bitch that we would have a bigger punishment lined up for her if she lied to us. So either way I think it will be fun for us at least.

Sounds good, I hope I find him though. You have no idea how much anger I have towards him. All of this shit we've been through is all because of him. You tiny girls should think of that while I'm gone. If it weren't for Pete then neither of you would be in this mess right now. I'm sorry you got tied up in it all, but at the same time I'm not because of the way you treated us. Revenge feels great doesn't it Libby?

As Amanda began to walk off holding the shrink ray, Rachel's heart dropped. She was seriously worried about the situation now. The evil girls were the ones in control, and it seemed like they were out to get their revenge. It was scary to think about what they might do after hearing stories, and especially after torturing Amanda and Libby herself. Rachel knew they would be more eager to punish her.

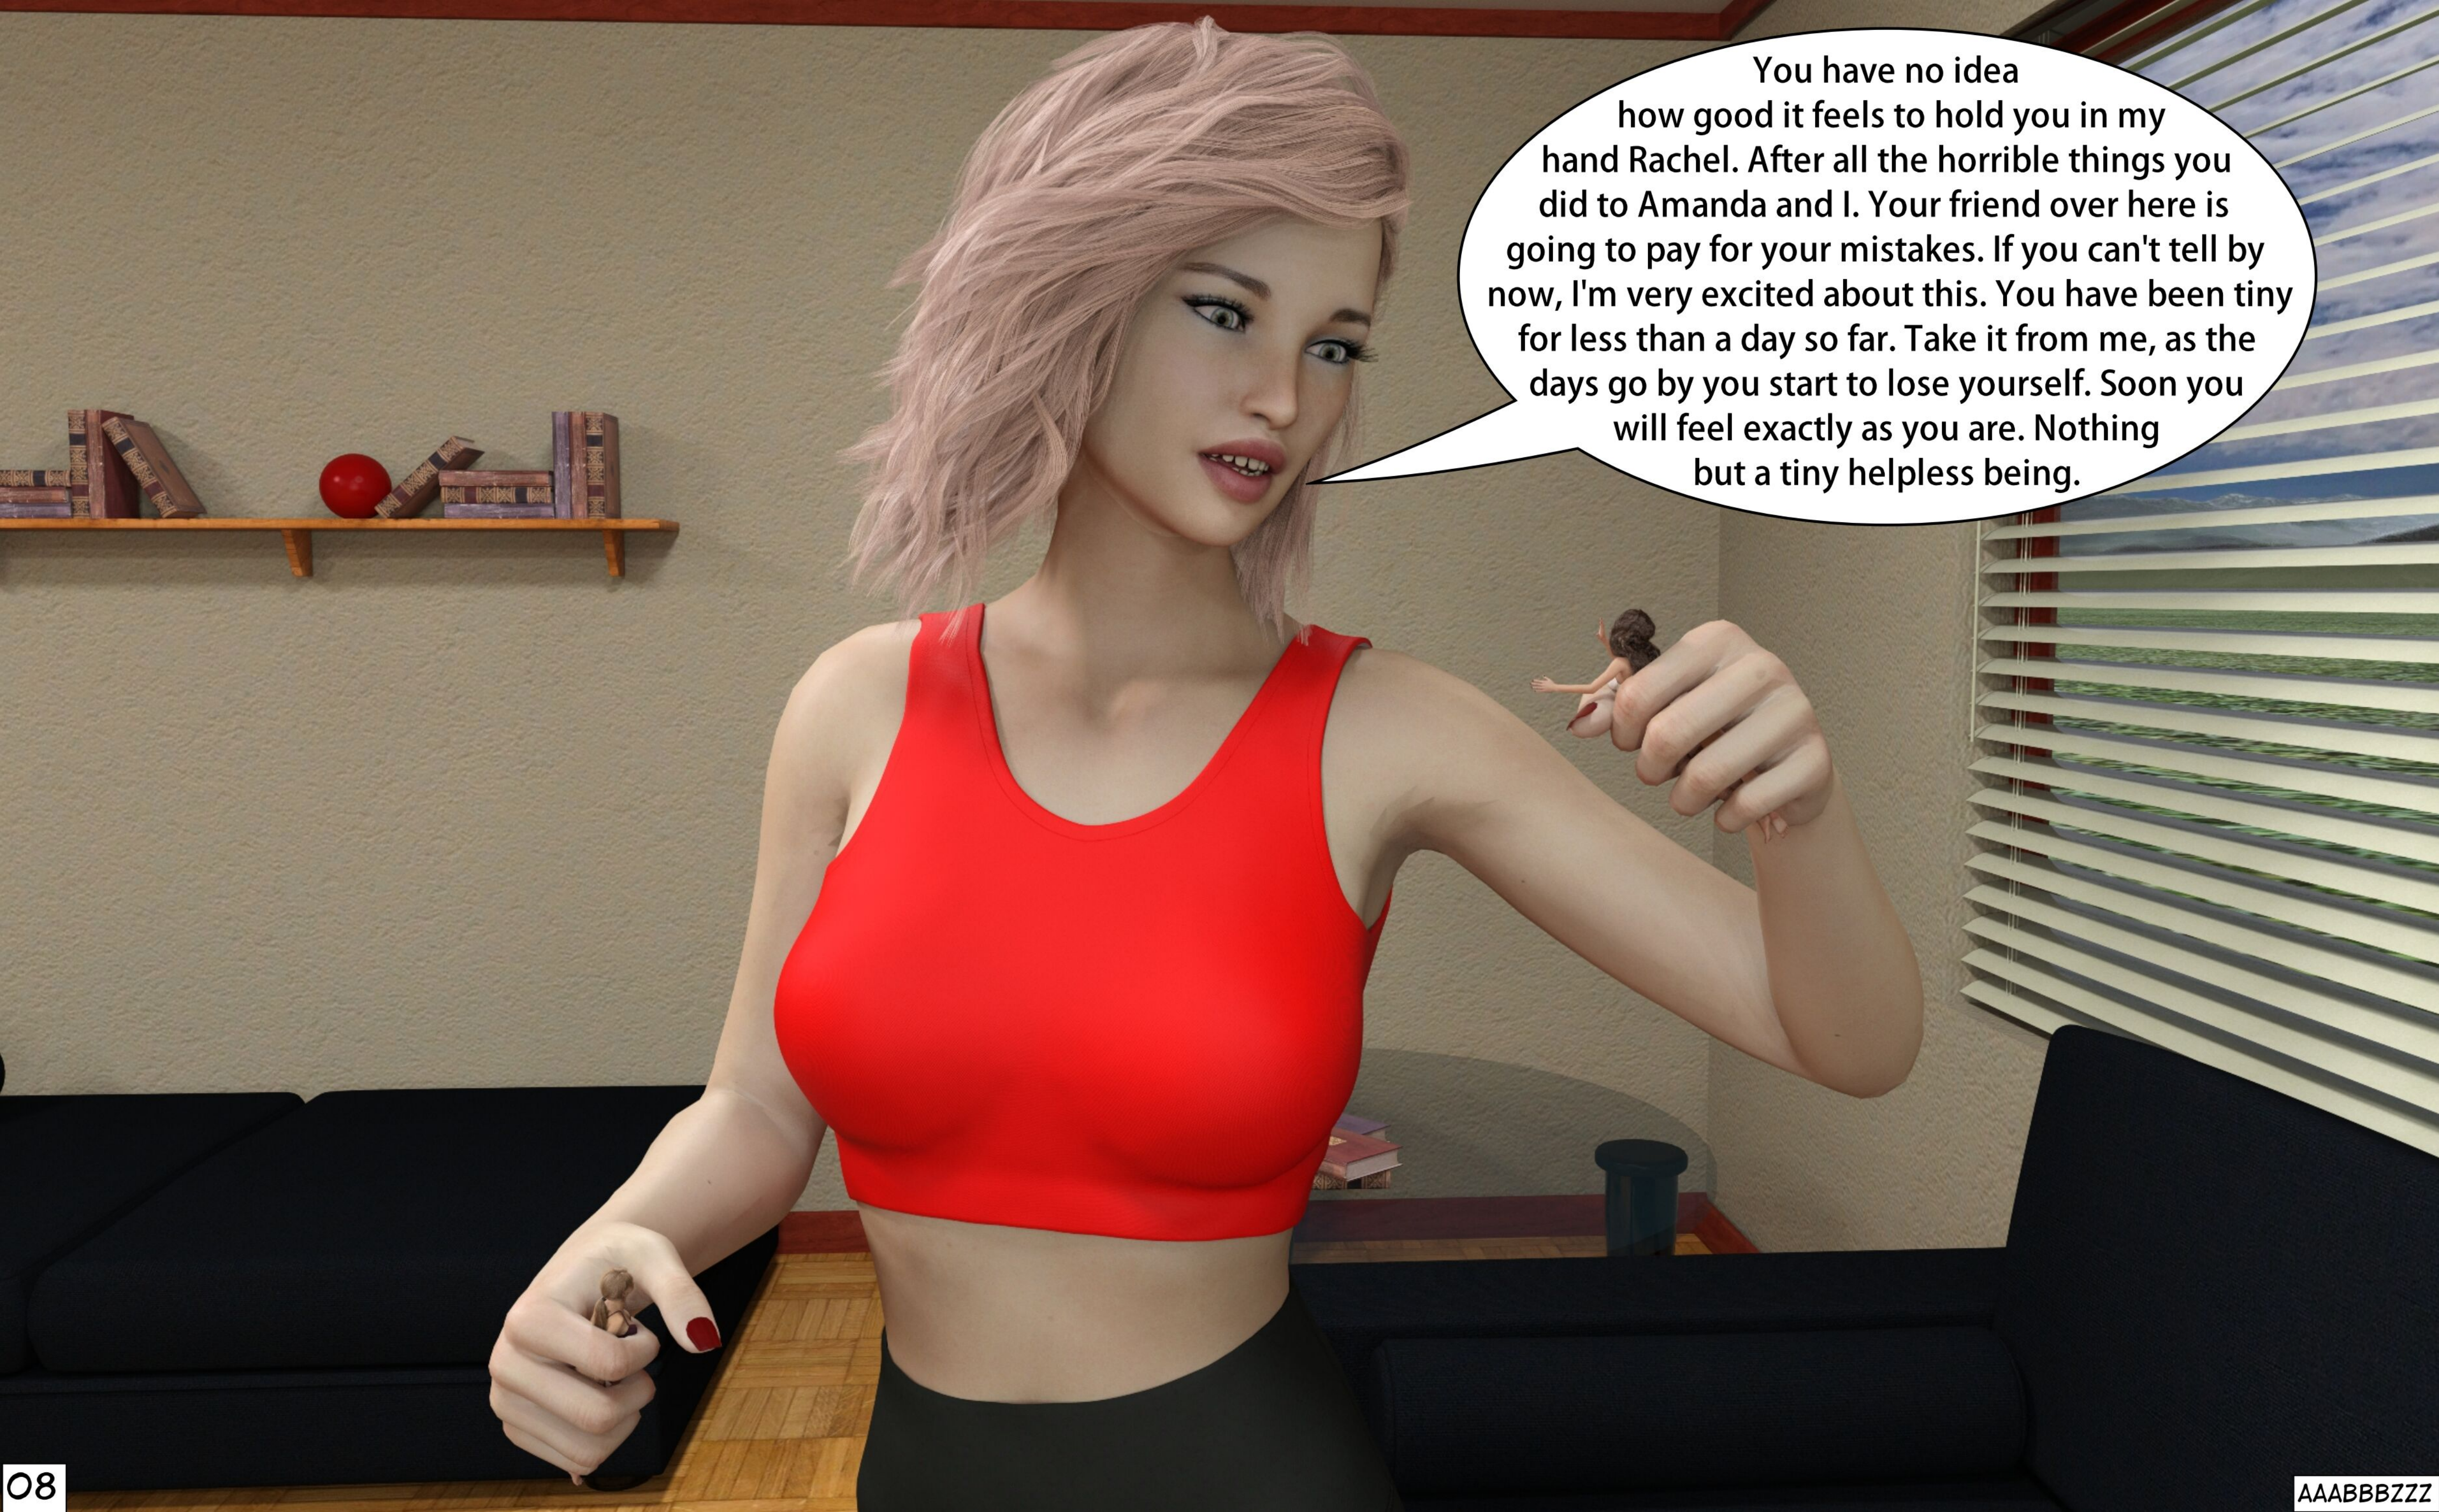

Now that she's gone, we can have some naughty alone time together. I've been waiting for this chance since we took back the power. You tiny girls are about to find out why you should of never trusted us. It was a mistake to treat us how you did after only hearing Pete's side of the story. It's true he wasn't lying when he told you two about what I've done with him. I'm going to repeat everything and more now with you shrunken dolls. It's going to be a lot of fun to play with some new toys.

Sara screamed as Libby reached towards her and slowly started to wrap her fingers around her tiny body. She didn't like being handled like a little doll, but now the tables had turned. This sweet girl who did not do anything to the giantess was now nothing but another toy to feel dominate. All Sara wanted to do was help Pete, and now here she was in the hands of evil Libby.

You have no idea how good it feels to hold you in my hand Rachel. After all the horrible things you did to Amanda and I. Your friend over here is going to pay for your mistakes. If you can't tell by now, I'm very excited about this. You have been tiny for less than a day so far. Take it from me, as the days go by you start to lose yourself. Soon you will feel exactly as you are. Nothing but a tiny helpless being.

With the two girls each in her hands, Libby walked into her bedroom for the first time not against her will in what seemed like a very long time. This time she was more than happy to be in charge. Especially with having Rachel at her mercy. Spending so much time with Amanda had changed her view on her. Yes, she did not forgive her for the things that she had done against her, but right now it felt good to work with her to punish these new tiny girls.

Libby quickly walked over to her bed and let go of her tiny captives. Sara and Rachel flew through the air towards the soft bed. It was a scary experience to be treated like they were. It was hard to think about what it would be like to be shrunken before it actually happened. This was what it was like to be at the mercy of a giantess. Both girls were really feeling that hopeless feeling, along with an anxiety of what was yet to come.

Rachel are you okay? I'm so sorry I got us into this situation. I thought I was doing the right thing. These girls are fucking crazy! If we ever get out of this I promise not to ever trust them again.

Let's try not to worry about that right now Sara. This is all my fault, I gave her a reason to get revenge on us. You have to look behind you! Oh my god, what is she planning to do with us?

When Sara turned around to look at what Rachel was talking about, she was presented with Libby's naked body. The giantess stood with her ass turned towards her shrunken pets as she slipped off the last piece of clothing on her body. After what Sara saw Rachel was doing when Libby and Amanda were tiny, she knew this was about to be bad. She couldn't imagine Pete's stories in her head, but now she was about to live through them.

Where do you think you're going Sara? I know this can be scary your first time, but running never helps anything. You're far too small to get away from me, even if I purposely gave you a head start. There is nobody that can help you now, and there is no escape. If you want what's best for you I would stop what you're doing and come back to beg me for forgiveness. I can let you off easy if you admit you're in the wrong.

Although Libby was giving Sara a reasonable offer for once, it did not stop the tiny girl. She continued to run, making her way to the side of the bed before jumping down to the soft carpet. She was in survival mode, like her life depended on it. Her instincts ignored the giantess, even though part of her knew that there was no escape. Libby took this as a chance to play with her new pet. She wanted to tease Sara by giving what might seem like a slight chance of getting away.

Here I come you tiny shit. Where did you end up after all this time, only a few feet away from where you started! All that effort only to be caught up to so easily. Still not going to stop aren't you? Well it looks like we have a game of cat and mouse then. Better kick up your pace a bit more my little pet. If you think you can out run me you don't understand your new size yet.

It didn't take much for Libby to get close to Sara. Not very entertained by the girl's efforts, she took her foot and used it to kick the tiny girl over. She lightly tapped on her back with her toes, causing Sara to fall towards the ground. Her escape attempt was coming to an end as Libby had her evil thoughts in her head. She was more than ready to get to the real reason why they were in her bedroom. But before doing that, she took this moment to smother Sara into the ground using her foot.

Maybe I should torture you under my foot for a bit longer and force you to inhale that pungent smell. But we might not have a long time before Amanda gets back so I do want to get to something else. You'll be begging to worship my feet instead by the end of this. You really wont have any idea what it's going to be like to be my personal sex toy until you are. If you think things have been bad so far then I have bad news for you. We're about to take things to the next

Libby loved to punish Sara under her foot, but right now she wanted more than that. She was alone with these two girls, and it had been awhile since she was able to have some fun herself. Being in control again was driving her crazy. She was incredibly horny and was very eager to get to play time. Using her two fingers, she scooped Sara up from the ground and lifted her into the air.

Before we get started though, I want to give you a warning you tiny bitch. Don't you dare try fucking with me. Your duty will be to obey my every command. If my little slaves can't behave then there will be harsh punishments. This already might be a challenge for you, but what I might need to do to you if you can't listen will be much much worse. Let's not think or talk about what that might be, we'll just hope that you heard me loud and clear.

When Libby turned around, she roughly through Sara down onto the bed. She wanted the tiny girl to understand that her threats were real, and that because she was the one in power that she would get her way. All Rachel could do was sit still and watch. She wanted to figure out a way to get Sara and her out of this mess, but it was obvious there was no escape at this moment. They would both have to endure the wrath of this vengeful giantess.

Are you okay Sara? She threw you down pretty hard just now. It's all going to be okay, we're going to make it through this and we will find a way to get back to normal. It might not be easy, but we can't give up right now. We have to hope your mom and Pete can stop Amanda when she shows up.

I hope that they can get the device from her and fix all of this. We're going to be at the mercy of this evil girl right now though. You know she's going to use us as her sex playthings. I don't know if I'm going to be able to do this. All I can do is think about it and I'm imagining it terribly.

Hey now, this is no time for comfort, we don't have all day. Let's see you tiny bitches undress for me. Strip those clothes off so we can get started. We wouldn't want to get your only pair of underwear in the way. I want to feel nothing but your bare bodies. Hurry it up or I'll rip them off myself.

Without any hesitation, Sara and Rachel removed the rest of their clothes and stood ready for the giantess. They each had fear in their eyes, worried about what Libby was about to do. Sara really had no clue, but Rachel knew things that she had just done would be used against her in the worst way possible. As they saw the giantess move, they knew she was ready to begin.

How about we start with you since you need to be punished for that little stunt you tried to pull a minute ago. You should of turned around when I told you to because I really wanted to start with your friend first. But that's okay, she can watch now at least. Let's get started by getting your body wet and ready. We want to get my spit all over you so you'll slide right in.

For a moment Libby dangled Sara's body above her mouth before finally lowering her in legs first. The tiny girl screamed for the giantess to stop, but this was only the beginning of her fun. Even though she knew things were about to get worse, it was already hard for her to be in this situation. She didn't want to be handled like this or to touch Libby's wet tongue. Being a tiny slave was something Sara was not meant to be.

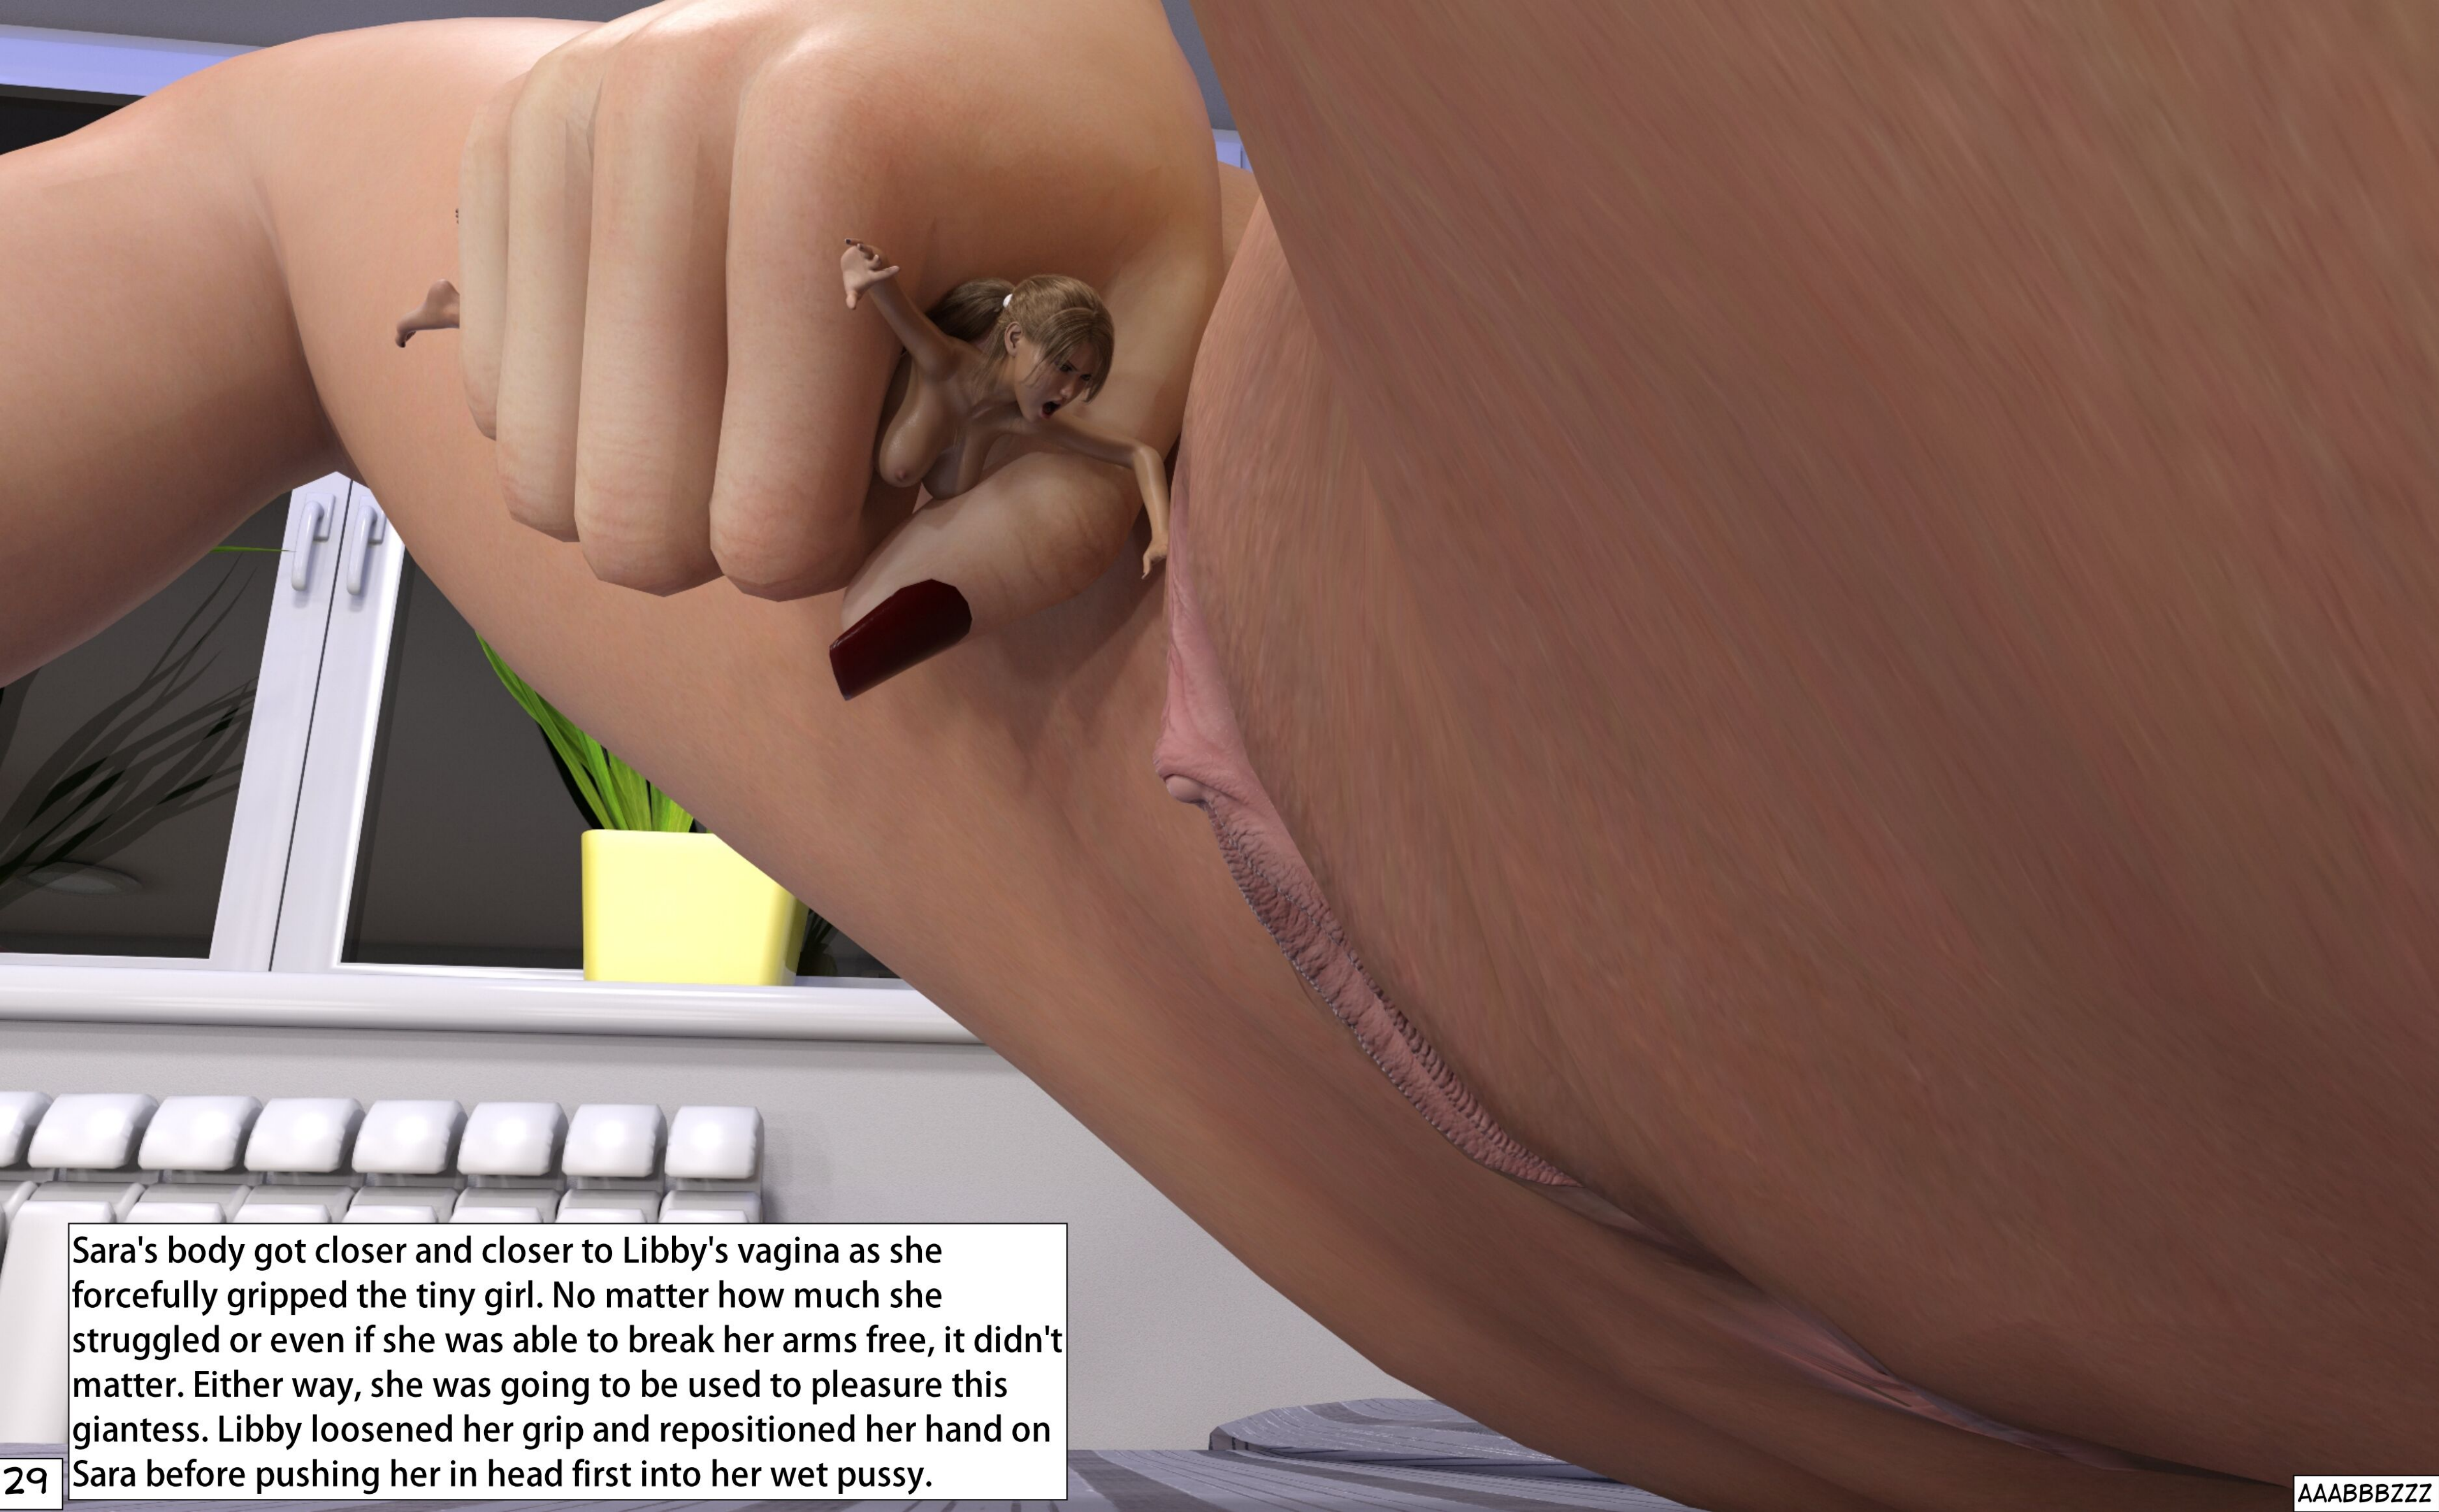

Still holding her by the arm, the tiny girl's body was dipped all the way inside Libby's mouth. She sucked on Sara's body and twirled her tongue around every inch of her. The shrunken pet screamed at the top of her lungs as she was violated by the gigantic tongue. It was a dark and moist place to be. What was the scariest part was how easy it seemed it would be to be eaten. If Libby wasn't interested in using her as a sex toy, she could imagine being swallowed alive without a second thought.

When Libby finally removed Sara from her mouth you could see how horrified the tiny girl was. Her body was drenched in her saliva from head to toe. The giantess made sure not to miss a single area. She was now ready for the fun to really begin. As Libby gripped Sara in her palm tightly, she started to lower her arm towards her vagina, showing the two girls exactly what was going to happen next.

I hope you're as ready as I am Sara, because we're not going to wait a second longer. My pussy has been waiting for one of you to please me. Take this time to think about what you've done Rachel. As you watch me use your friend as a sex toy, realize that things might not of been this way if you didn't treat us like you did. You had to abuse your power just like I am right now. I know it's a powerful feeling and it's hard to resist, but you gave me no reason to think about it. Why not have some fun, especially if part of it is for revenge.

Sara's body got closer and closer to Libby's vagina as she forcefully gripped the tiny girl. No matter how much she struggled or even if she was able to break her arms free, it didn't matter. Either way, she was going to be used to pleasure this giantess. Libby loosened her grip and repositioned her hand on Sara before pushing her in head first into her wet pussy.

Oh god, that feels so much better than how I remembered it. Maybe it's because it's been so long, but your body feels amazing down there Sara. Please continued to struggle as you are. I can feel your body squirming around down in there and it is amazing. You're the perfect size to become nothing but a sex toy for the rest of your life.

Please be okay Sara, I can't believe I'm watching what I'm watching right now.
Libby doesn't have a care in the world about what she might do to her. It's like her life doesn't matter unless she can pleasure her. Is she going to be hurt inside her? I hope she can breathe and that she isn't crushed. What a horrible place to be, Libby is on such a power trip.

Things were starting to get more intense as Libby furiously fingered herself, sending the tiny girl deep into her pussy. Sara was scared that this is where she would die. She was very claustrophobic already, so being trapped in such a tight space was like a nightmare. What added to her fear was the amount of liquid everywhere. Sara's body was rolling around in Libby's juices in the dark, it felt like air might become hard to acquire, making it seem like suffocation was a possibility. Fortunately she was able to survive, however it was still a horrible place to be.

I think I'm going to cum, this feeling is just too much. Oh fuck yes! Keep on making me scream Sara, I'm just about there. Get me to my climax if you want this to stop, we wont be done until then. Each second I just get closer and closer to this orgasm, I know it's going to be good. Fuck me, that feels so damn good. I can't believe I'm this close. I'm fucking cumming right now!

For a few moments things were intense, and then they died down. Libby had gone through one of the strongest orgasms of her life. She was not yet done though as she looked down at Rachel who stared up at her in fear. While Sara remained inside Libby's vagina, the giantess reached towards the other scared tiny girl. She had her fun with Sara, so now it was time to get her revenge.

Your friend did a good job for her first time. I can't wait to use her some more when I have the chance. Maybe I'll keep her to myself and give you up to Amanda, because I feel like you were worse to her. She hasn't even had the chance to give you what you deserve Rachel. But since she's not here right now you're stuck with me. I have just the place for you too. To give you a hint, you'll be very close to Sara.

Rachel was extra worried after hearing what Libby just said. It was obvious what would be close to where Sara was. She started screaming as her body was brought closer and closer. It was horrifying to look down and watch as her friend's feet stuck out from Libby's vagina, wiggling in a struggle. But Rachel had to focus on herself right now, as Libby brought her down to where she really wanted her.

Using her fingers, Libby pushed Rachel in head first right into her asshole. The tiny girl was dry so she didn't slide in very easily, but the giantess put some force on her body to make sure she would be inserted in just like Sara. Rachel tried to resist, but the force of just two fingers was more than her body could fight against. Forcefully, she was trapped in an anal prison. Libby loved torturing her two pets, it was exactly what she had been needing after being tiny and abused for so long.

Mhm.. you feel good in there too Rachel. Having both of you at my mercy is such a satisfying feeling. I feel like I could leave both of you inside me until Amanda gets back. Every struggle is just very pleasing. Life is going to be amazing now that you two are nothing but tiny slaves. It's an exciting thought to think about how much fun we're going to have together.

Sara and Rachel had no hope of escape. Each time one of them would wiggle towards the exit, Libby would use her fingers to push them right back in. She loved the feeling of having both tiny pets each in one of her holes. It seemed to be the perfect situation for her. She was once again powerful, with the opportunity to have as much fun as possible.

With complete power, Libby continued to enjoy the sensation of the two girls. She lost track of time, laying back with a smile on her face. Sara and Rachel served no other purpose in life at the moment other than to please this giant woman. They felt helpless and scared. Their only hope was for Pete and Amber to somehow get the device from Amanda when she would show up.

Back at the house Amber and Pete were starting to get worried. It felt like Sara had been gone longer than expected. The two were waiting patiently in the living room after having some exploration time with each other earlier. Pete just tried to tell Amber to not worry after she had brought him closer to her ear. He didn't know what was happening, but he never thought that Amanda and Libby would of taken the device back.

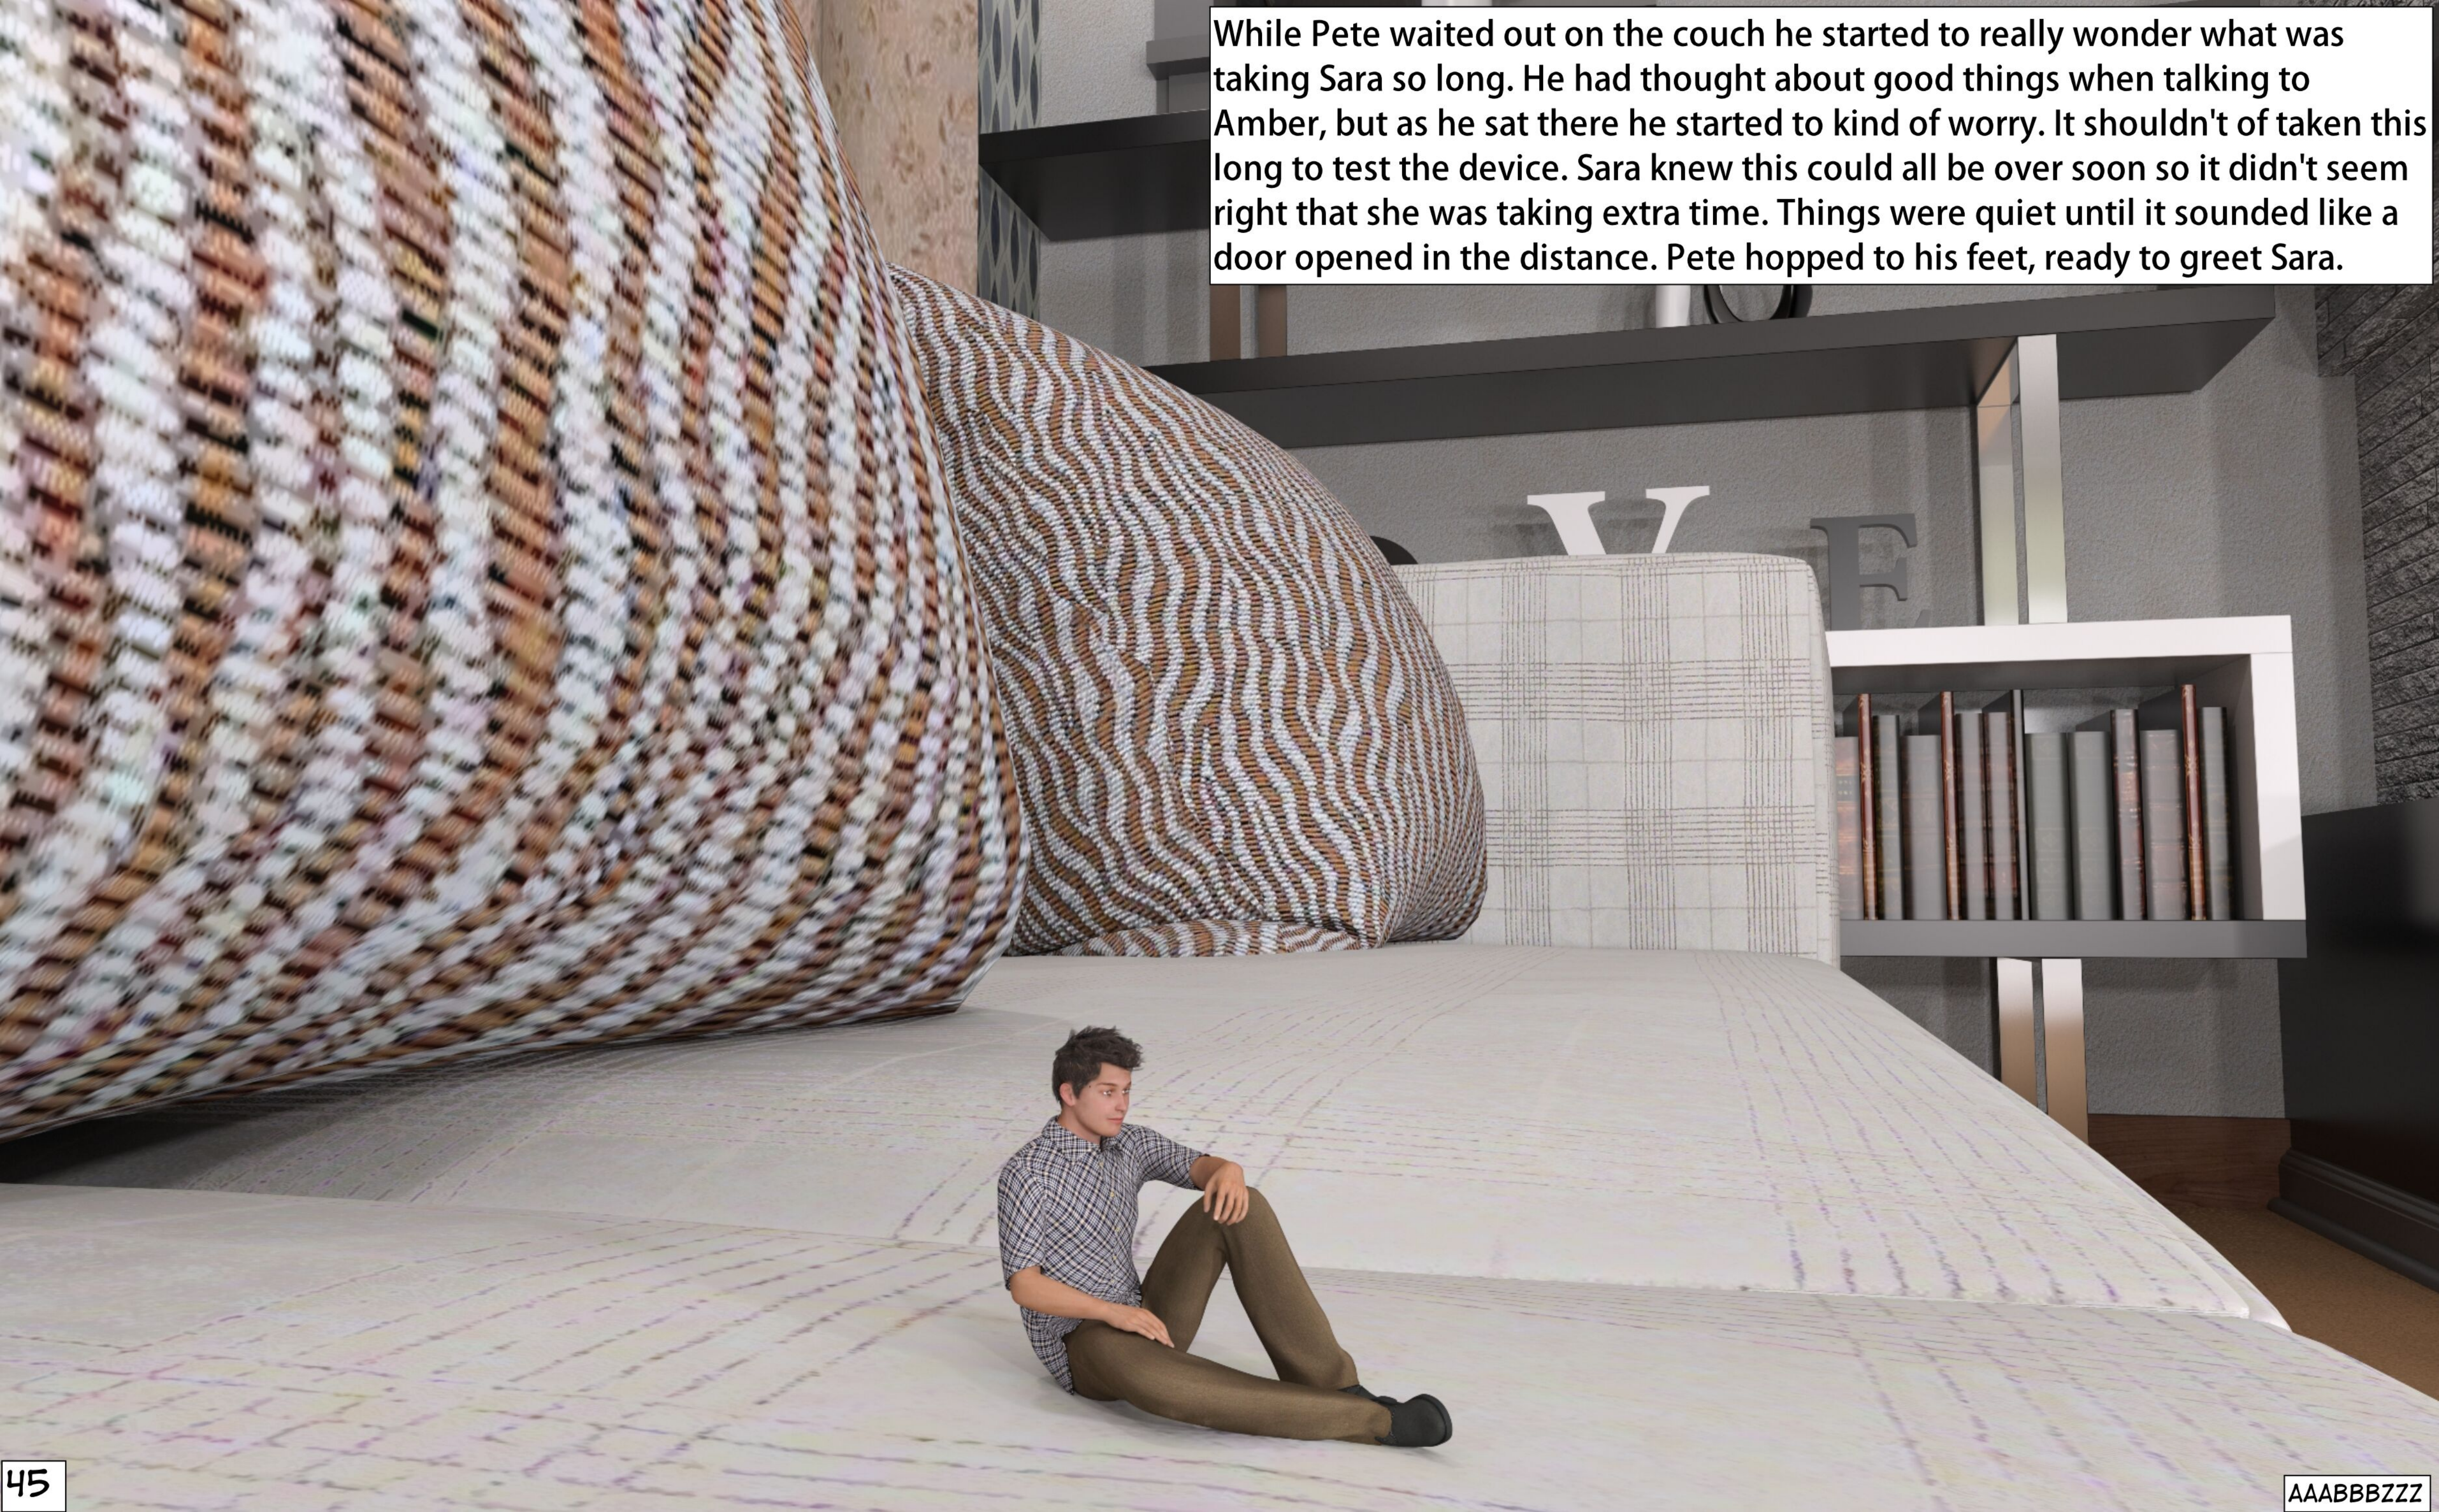

You're right Pete,
everything is probably going fine.
She might just be hanging out with Rachel like usual. I'm to go get some laundry started and a few other things. Do you mind waiting out here for her? It would be best if she didn't get home to walk in on us. I'll be only gone for a little bit.

Pete agreed and he was set down on the couch so Amber could leave him there for now. He loved being in the presence of such a gentle giantess. Their new size difference was also something Pete was very happy about. He found it strange since he was so much smaller now. But seeing how gigantic and sexy Amber was now, he was just amazed. His eyes followed her powerful body around as she moved around before getting up.

I still can't believe how gigantic she is now. Her ass is so huge, I'm glad that we get this time together. Amber has been very understanding of this entire situation, but I'm still mad at myself for getting her into this mess. At least she doesn't seem to be very bothered with things taking so long.

While Pete waited out on the couch he started to really wonder what was taking Sara so long. He had thought about good things when talking to Amber, but as he sat there he started to kind of worry. It shouldn't of taken this long to test the device. Sara knew this could all be over soon so it didn't seem right that she was taking extra time. Things were quiet until it sounded like a door opened in the distance. Pete hopped to his feet, ready to greet Sara.

But it wasn't Sara who was walking through the door. Amanda had used Sara's key to get in easily. She had a smile on face, and she was ready to get her revenge. Ever since Pete had taken the device back she had gone through a lot. Sitting in the bathroom naked for days felt like it was prison. And when Rachel started to take advantage of her she knew she would have to get back. Now here she was, on the hunt for Pete, the one who had chosen to leave her where she was at such a small size.

Oh Pete, I know you're here. Come out wherever you are. Sara told me I would find you here. She's back at Libby's place tiny with her friend Rachel. You really fucked up sending her over to use this device on us. We're going to make you pay for everything you have done to all of us. If you think you've gone through hell before, you have no idea. The rest of your life you will be nothing but a tiny worthless shit.

What the fuck? This isn't good! She has the device again and everybody is back at Libby's? Shit, I need to go hide. If she finds me now it's not going to be good. I wonder what the device is set to if she's that much bigger now. Maybe she remembers how to work it. Amber has no idea what's going on out here. If I could get to her I should. If Amanda shrunk her too we would be completely screwed.

Pete started to bolt across the floor, trying to find a good place to go as Amanda walked through the kitchen. He knew that she would look hard and long for him. The woman seemed like she was out to cause some pain. Especially with her having the device right in her hands, it was like hiding from a goddess. He could hear her powerful foot steps boom in the distance, making his heart race as fast as he would go.

I should try to get back to where she just was.
If I can make it across into the hallway I can get to the kitchen and maybe hide in a cabinet while she searches the living room. Now is my chance, if I don't go now I'll never have time.

After making some important decisions in his head, Pete decided to make a run for it. He sprinted in the opposite direction as Amanda, praying that she wouldn't turn around anytime soon. Each of her footsteps made his heart sink. He didn't know if it was the right choice, but it was too late now.

There you are! Thought you could hide from me? I don't know why you decided to run out in the open at such a time. Where are you going Pete? There's nowhere you can go, you should just stop. Do you see I have the shrink ray? I'm going to make you the size of a bug you little shit! It's time to get what you fucking deserve.

Amanda aimed the device at Pete and fired it at him even though he had stopped. She wanted the already tiny man to be smaller than ever. It didn't matter to make him a size he would be fun at. This was all about making Pete feel insignificant. Of course she would still be able to get a thrill out of dominating the helpless shrunken man.

When the shrinking had stopped Pete found himself smaller than he had ever been. Now he was less than an inch tall as Amanda looked down at him with a face that sent chills down his spine. She seemed like she was ready to punish him, and he knew there was nothing he could do.

No way, she is fucking huge! How much did she shrink me? She's looks bigger than Amber did to me at my previous size. What can I do against such a gigantic woman?

Pete's only instincts were to run as Amanda's gigantic hand reach towards him. It was obvious he couldn't get anywhere now, or even before. Gently, the giantess put him in her hand, trying not to accidentally squish his tiny

You have no idea how good it feels to have you so small in the palm of my hand. You're so fucked now Pete. I didn't think you would give me this chance again, but somehow you did. You know I could make a fist and crush the life out of you if I wanted to. But if I do that then we couldn't have any fun could we? Welcome back to your old life as personal slave. I've missed having you're tiny body attempt to entertain me.

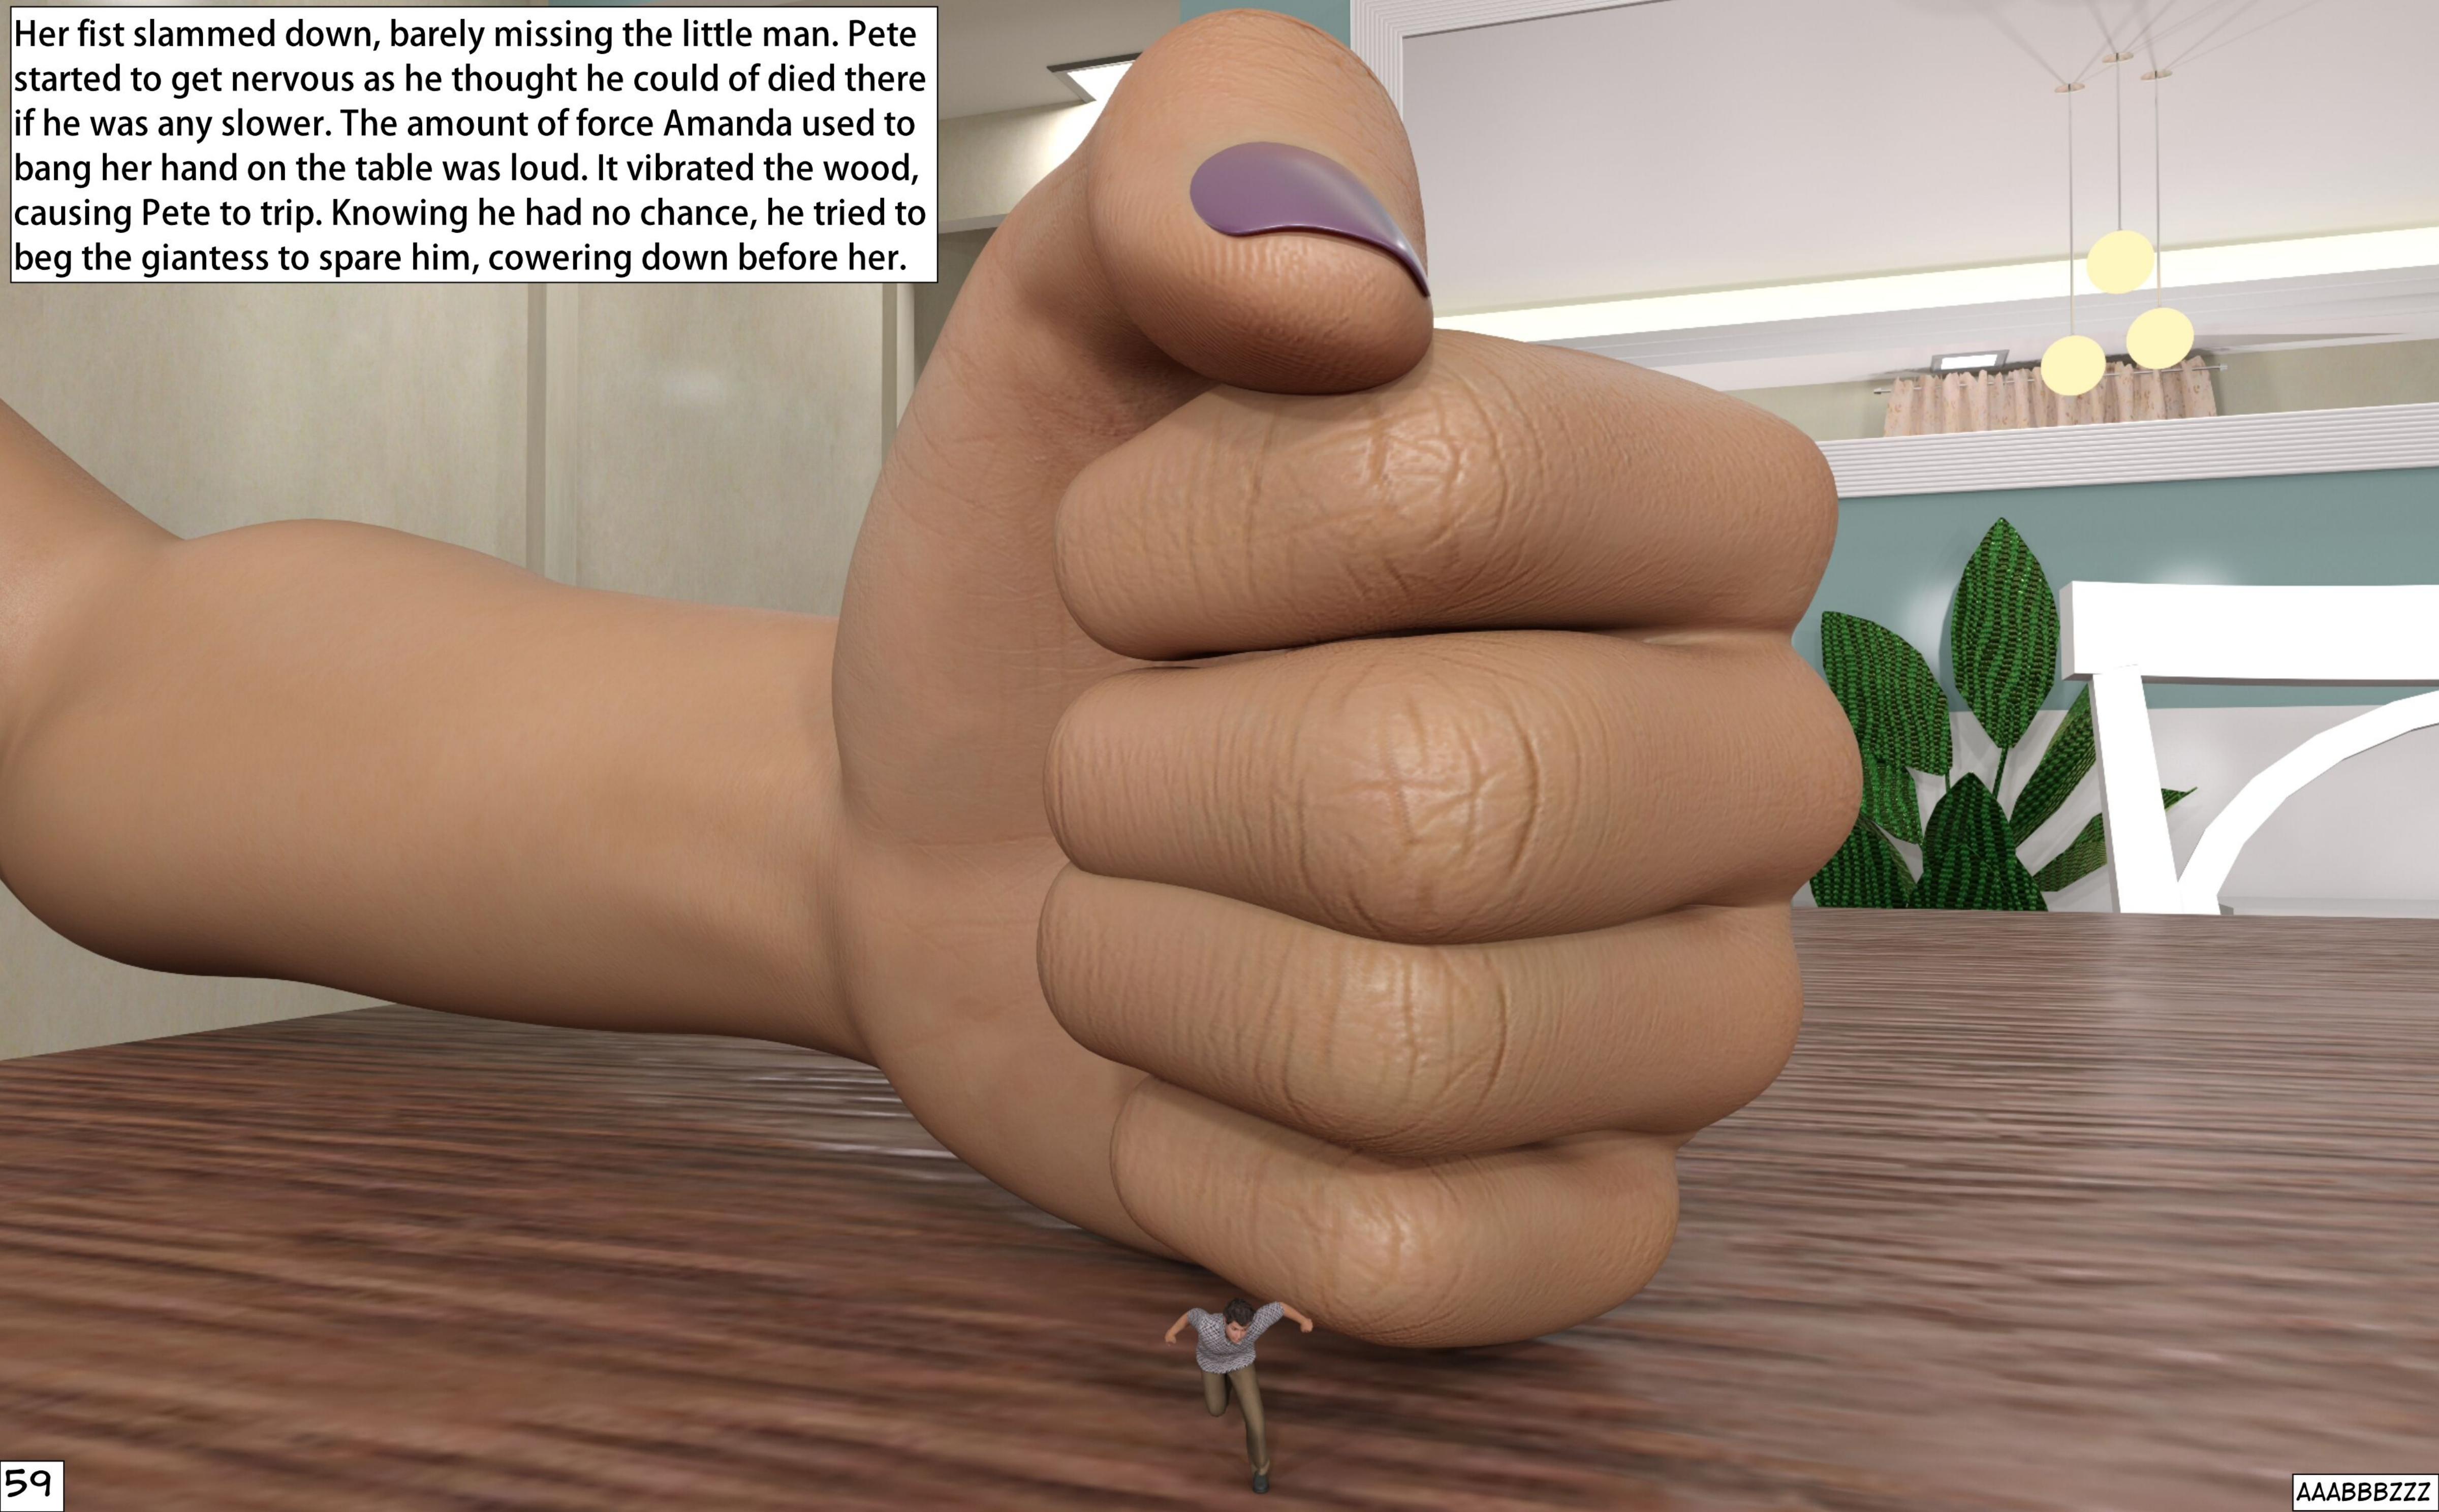

Amanda walked over to the table and flipped her hand to the side, causing Pete to fall roughly onto the wood. She was being careless, disregarding how much smaller the shrunken man was now. She then sat down and placed the device to the side so she could turn her attention towards Pete. Just looking down at him made her happy. Nothing had felt this satisfying in a long time.

I want you to know if you haven't realized it yet that I'm fucking pissed at you. While you were over here experimenting with this device I was locked in a concrete bathroom. I've had a lot of time to get angry at you for all of this. I don't think I can ever forgive you for all this trauma you put me through. You and those girls are going to suffer. I'm so mad that I might just crush you right here, right now.

It didn't seem like she was messing around when Pete heard her tone. As Amanda lifted her fist he started to worry. Like a scared bug, he tried to flee for his life, hoping not to be crushed. But Amanda was just playing around. Obviously if she was trying to kill him she would. But Pete wasn't taking any chances. If running had the chance of saving his life then he would run as fast as he could.

Her fist slammed down, barely missing the little man. Pete started to get nervous as he thought he could of died there if he was any slower. The amount of force Amanda used to bang her hand on the table was loud. It vibrated the wood, causing Pete to trip. Knowing he had no chance, he tried to beg the giantess to spare him, cowering down before her.

You're lucky to of dodged that, but I next time maybe you wont be so lucky. What's wrong little Pete, are you giving up? I can't hear you at all anymore. It's not worth the risk to grow you to a larger size to be useful. So I don't think you're going to be needed around here anymore. Since you're so tiny you have no use. It would be best if I got rid of you for real this time. This way you can't make any new friends to bail you out again.

Once again Amanda barely missed Pete as she slapped her hand down on the table. He tried to cover his head, finding it a relief that he was still alive. It was clear the giantess was just toying with him. Pete still felt like Amanda could end him at any moment though. She loved teasing the little man with these threats.

Do you remember being so close to these feet? Oh I bet the smell can bring you back to those times. I thought that I had killed you by keeping you in there for too long. Maybe next time I just wont ever let you out. You can live in my shoe until you can't go on living anymore. How about you come worship me Pete. Make me feel like the goddess who rules over your life.

A large, realistic-looking foot and leg of a giantess are the central focus of the image. The foot is positioned in the upper left, with the toes pointing towards the center. The leg extends from the foot down towards the bottom right. The skin is a natural tan color with visible texture and creases. In the background, a living room is visible, featuring a white chair on the left, a grey sofa in the middle, and a wooden floor. A tiny man, wearing a patterned shirt and brown pants, stands on the floor next to the leg, looking up at it with his hands raised. The scene is lit with soft, indoor lighting.

Even though she could barely feel him, Amanda loved to force Pete into doing this. He was about to gag on how smelly her feet were after being in those shoes without any socks. The giantess knew exactly how to torture the little guy. Memories came back to Pete from before Sara and Rachel had found him. He was starting to remember just how cruel Amanda and Libby were.

I don't even think you could do a good job if you were a master at this. You're just too small to even notice. If I didn't know you were down there this wouldn't feel good at all. But knowing you're over there suffocating in my foot scent makes me happy. I'm going to bring my toes down to you. Hop between them if you know what's best for you.

Pete dove between Amanda's big and second toe before he lost his chance. She felt him lodge between them and started to lift her toes off the table. From here Pete was swept through the air so he could be face to face with the giantess.

You should see the look on your face Pete. It's very tiny but I can see you are not enjoying yourself like I am. Do you want me to put you down? I bet that spot you're in must be extra sweaty. The area between my toes always are the worst! Are you able to breathe okay over there? I guess I'll put you down, I'm starting to get bored of you anyway.

Amanda held Pete between her toes before finally releasing him down on the ground. As he laid there momentarily, she wiggled her toes above his head, teasing him as she carelessly continued to force him to inhale her smelly foot. Afterwards she got up from her chair and towered above him. Pete was once again shocked by how big she was now.

Now don't just sit there Pete, this is your chance. If you're able to get away from me then maybe I wont just simply stomp on you. I want to see how desperate you are to live. Sprint as your life depends on it. You'll never know if I'm going to just crush the life out of you. It wouldn't take any effort to step on you like the tiny bug you are.

The little man was running for his life. Behind him was the colossal giantess who seemed to be just playing with her food. Amanda knew how much fear she was putting into Pete's head and loved every moment of it. She was the size of a skyscraper compared to him. Obviously there was nowhere he could go or get to.

This was all just a game for Amanda's amusement.

Your time is almost up Pete. This isn't any fun anymore. It's like watching a spec barely move. Just stop and turn around. I want you to look up at me before I crush you. The last thing you will see will be me glaring down at you and the bottom of my foot. Prepare to become a tiny stain that will be easily cleaned away. Goodbye Pete, it was fun while it lasted.

He knew it wasn't smart to keep running. Hoping she would be merciful, Pete got down and waved his arm. He looked up in terror to see Amanda's vengeful look. This felt like the end for real this time. Pete got more and more nervous the closer her foot seemed to get. Suddenly she started to lean herself forward, preparing to finally step on the scared little man.

Hey who are you?
Nobody told me anyone else would be here. You are so big!
Did Pete get you caught up in this mess too?

What the hell do you think you're doing in my house young lady? Are you one of the girls Pete was telling me about?
Where is my daughter Sara? I knew that something was up when she didn't came home, tell me what happened!

When Amber looked over to see the shrinking device on the table she knew something had happened to her daughter. It was obvious Amanda came here with it to find Pete. Amanda's heart dropped as she realized Amber was just as close to the device as she was. It felt like her power was about to be challenged. Before she could think of a plan she bolted over, trying to grab the shrink ray before the giantess could catch her.

Fuck you lady, I'm going to shrink you just like your daughter and Pete.
When I'm bigger than you you're going to regret using that tone with me!

Not if I have any say in it. Where is Pete? What did you do with him? I'm a lot bigger than you tiny girl, you have no chance!

With ease Amber was able to stop Amanda before she could reach the device and slam her down onto the ground. Amanda was pinned by the overwhelming force of the gigantic mom. Amber was not messing around with this girl. She demanded to know where Sara and Pete were. Scared about what the amazon might do, Amanda spilled everything. She told her where Sara was and that Pete was nearby on the floor.

Pete? Is that you down there? You're so tiny!
Please, come over here so I can get you off the ground. We could of crushed you on accident and I would of never known. I've never seen anyone so small before.

Okay will you get off me now? I told you everything you needed to know.
don't you have to go rescue your daughter?

Pete made his way over to Amber's hand, which was bigger than he could of ever imagined. It was difficult to get up her finger with how big she was compared to him now. He was no bigger than a bug from her perspective. She had to bring him closer to get a better look at him.

It was concerning to Amber about how small Pete was. If this is how he was, then how was Sara? But instead of falling into worry, Amber had faith. She knew if this was going on then Pete would have a chance to work with the device. Even if he was this tiny he was the brains in all of this. Her idea was that the two could work together to make this all right.

Don't worry
Pete, she can't get to you now that you're with me. Can you teach me how to work this device? She seems to have it working. We can use her as the experiment until we're comfortable to use it on ourselves. Then we can go get Sara back. I can't believe how tiny you are now, why is it so cute? Holding you is a powerful feeling.

Now that Amber was in control she kept Amanda pinned as she had a moment with Pete. She was starting to love the feeling of being a gentle giantess with him, but had to try and resist her urge to have some fun with Pete's new size. Getting Sara back was now the main concern. They knew where she was and who was there. However, neither of them were normal sizes. It was time to test the device on Amanda, hoping they could figure something out.
