BY AAABBBZZZ

After a catastrophic event caused by the shrinking device, a few city blocks within range of the giantesses saw itself reduced down in size. Now, a tiny population found themselves inside a gigantic bedroom, unaware of what had happened and what this might mean for them going forward.

The shrunken inhabitants were in a panic, hiding themselves inside whatever building they could get into. Most thought it would be best to wait it out until they could figure things out, but a few ventured outside the city. When the bedroom door opened though, in came a gigantic girl that would make things clear for them.

I can't believe we shrunk down a huge portion of the city like this. They must be so afraid, they're helpless unless we fix this. Let's just hope we can stop any chaos before it's too late.

Sara strolled into her bedroom, making her way towards the city as she almost stepped on a couple in her path. Narrowly, the tiny ones avoided her foot as the giantess went over to introduce herself, trying her best to explain the situation.

Hello everyone, my name is Sara. Don't worry, I don't mean any harm to any of you. I know it must seem strange, but all of you were reduced to the size of bugs when our shrinking device went haywire. There's nothing we can do at the moment, but I wanted to reassure you that we're working very hard to find a way to restore everything back to normal.

A low-angle shot of a city courtyard. A giant woman with blonde hair, wearing a pink crop top and shorts, stands on the roof of a brick building with yellow balconies. She has her hands on her hips and a concerned expression. In the foreground, a small woman in a white shirt and black skirt stands near a bench. To the right is a modern building with a glass facade. A speech bubble from the giant woman contains the text.

I'm sure it's a scary place to be, especially seeing me so big. But I'm not even my full size either. For now though let's try to remain calm, we have someone working on the device. Unfortunately until he's done you'll all have to stay here for your safety.

This message from the giantess was one that made many people's hearts drop. But at least everyone felt like there was no threat from her. Many watched Sara from a afar, keeping their distance as she had asked and returning to their homes to wait out this nightmare.

After delivering the news, Sara made her way out of her bedroom, leaving the tiny city to itself. What she didn't notice just yet though, was that same couple from earlier that she almost stepped on. Right in her path now was a little man named Jason, running for his life.

Unfortunately for the tiny man, he couldn't avoid the giantess. Taking a step down, Sara didn't have time to react until she pressed down almost all of her weight. In an instant, Jason was knocked over and smothered underneath the socked foot with immense pressure.

Sara leaned down and plucked the shrunken guy from the rug, gentling holding him between her fingers. She was relieved to see that he was still moving and seemingly unhurt. What Jason and the others of the city would now find out was that their bodies were much more durable at this tiny size.

Thank god you're okay!
You might be a bit winded and in shock after being under my giant foot, but at least you're not hurt.
I guess I should tell you all that this is a normal side-effect of the shrinking device.

Once Sara returned the little guy back to the city, she quickly got up and left. Jason watched in surprised confusion as the gentle giantess walked away from him. Despite being squished underneath her socked foot he felt completely fine. Instead of fearing something so gigantic, he found himself intrigued by her.

Back in the main living space of the house, Pete was working hard on fixing the device. After the last activation, Rachel found herself shrunk down to almost the same size as him, only slightly bigger. She had a lot of regret about how she let her urges get out of control. It was because of her that they were now in a situation unlike none before.

I'm so sorry about everything Pete. I should of controlled myself better. Now I know you have a lot of work to do, but please ask me if there's anything I can do to help. I want to make it up to everyone.

There's nothing we can do now. I'm not sure if I can teach anyone else how to work on this thing. I forgive you, but if you do anything like that ever again I'm not sure if we can trust you.

Returning from her bedroom, Sara had a bit of guilt as well. Although she was just trying to stop her friend in the first place, she felt like there was more that she could of done. However, it was too late for any of that and they would just have to move forward given the circumstances.

Hey guys, I finally told them all what's going on. Hopefully the city doesn't start a riot or anything. How's it going with the device, have you discovered anything helpful just yet?

Well the only good news I have is that it isn't completely destroyed. Other than that, it's going to take an unknown amount of energy to restore all of those city blocks back to normal. I'm not sure how we'll ever be able to do it.

So what do you think is our next step? We can't keep them shrunk in my room forever! Not to mention we're all too small to go out into the normal world right now. That is, except for my mom.

I guess we should work towards getting ourselves back to size first. Then we'll be able to gather as much energy as possible. When Amber gets back maybe I can go with her back to the science lab.

As their discussion went on, Amber arrived home. Unlike the others, she was actually slightly larger than her normal size. Standing at over six feet tall now, she was at least able to venture out. Her taller height didn't seem to bother her either as it gave her that sense of power that she enjoyed so much.

Well it might be a lot,
but I'm sure our little genius will figure it all out. If it did all of that without adding anything special, then I'm sure you'll find a way to activate it the at the same scale but with the opposite effect of course.

Shouldn't that be possible?
I'm not the developer of this thing, but it makes sense to me. Somehow we've be able to get out of every problem before so I have no doubt we can again.

Yes maybe, but there is a lot of risk with that. We almost destroyed it last time, so I think we need to be extra careful not to make things any worse.

We were just discussing about getting ourselves back to normal first, but then I just remembered we still have Libby and Amanda to deal with. What should we do with the two of them?

I completely forgot! I shouldn't feel bad for them, but those two girls have had enough. If we ever want them to forgive us then we should start treating them better.

Why don't we just shrink them a little bit more and put them in the city? I know getting smaller sounds terrible, but then they would at least have a place to go with others, and if they were any bigger they would cause all sorts of problems.

That's actually a great idea! At their size we should be able to do something like that without worrying consuming too much energy. Could you go get them for us then?

My pleasure! I should probably go introduce myself to that little city while I have a second too. I bet they would be afraid of seeing me, especially since I am almost twice Sara's size. But I'll make sure they know I'm not planning on hurting any of them.

Okay but be careful walking around in there mom. I accidentally stepped on one when I was leaving. I put him back and hopefully they'll listen and stay in the city, but there could be others that are trying to escape as well.

With a new current plan, Amber happily strolled out of the main living area, making her way towards her daughter's bedroom where the shrunk population was held. Meanwhile, Pete got back to work, hoping to make a breakthrough with the recent adjustments he was making on the size device.

In the expansive room, the city stood quiet. The streets were empty besides the occasional runs to stock up on certain items while they could. As Sara had requested, most residents took shelter and waited patiently. There was nothing they could do but wonder when someone would enter and if they would be coming to restore things back to normal.

Staring at his window was the little man that got stepped on by Sara earlier. Jason wanted something like that to happen to him again, but as the room stayed silent, he could only think. He couldn't stop but run that moment through his head over and over.

What are you still doing up Jason? Why don't you just come to bed. It's getting late and there's nothing we can do. You should feel lucky that our little escape attempt didn't end with you being a stain underneath that girl's foot!

Lindsey! I thought you were out for the night. I'm sorry, but I just can't sleep. I should be tired, but this whole situation has me so anxious. I'm not sure if I can calm down just yet.

As the shrunken couple talked amongst each other, the door in the distance opened. Walking into the room, Amber's heels slammed against the floor, making quakes and noises that seemed like the world could be ended. Her more powerful form was obvious from the beginning and the tiny population braced themselves for her approach.

Well hello everybody. Since all of you will be staying in my house until we solve this problem I thought that I'd come to introduce myself. I'm Amber, Sara's mother. Just like her, I wanted to ensure you I also don't mean any harm. But unlike my daughter, I'd like to examine you all a bit closer.

Slowly, the giantess stepped down the main street of the shrunken city. She took great efforts to make sure she wouldn't crush anything by accident, as she didn't want the others to know that she couldn't be trusted in here. So she watched out carefully, taking in the sights while presenting herself to the shrunken citizens.

Holy shit, she so much bigger than that other girl! And why is she walking into the city now? Each step feels like an earthquake!

I don't know but this is crazy! Shouldn't she be more careful than this? I'm not liking these vibes, she could destroy these buildings without even trying!

Wow this is so surreal. Being so big and powerful compared to you insects. I know it might be a sensitive subject right now, but it's only the truth. For your sakes, I hope that you'll eventually return to normal, but until then why don't we have some fun with this new dynamic?

Onlookers were in complete shock as they saw just how large this giantess was. Her heels stood above many buildings with so much power and dominance that it was impossible not to be afraid. Despite all of this, some residents were also in awe, as they watched to see what Amber would do next.

Let me also introduce you all to my little friend Andrew. I've had to keep him a secret for some time now, but now that we have a place for him, I think it's about time I let him go. He's been lucky to be with me up to this point, but I know how badly he wants to also get away from me.

Andrew screamed at the top of his lungs, finally being able to see some light after being stuffed inside Amber's heels for so long. He was held tightly between her sweaty toes, completely at their mercy. Fortunately for him though, he would get his wish of being released from the giantess.

Alright Andrew, out you go! I hope you enjoyed your time while you could with me. But now I'm going to give somebody else the chance to replace you. As much as I'd like to keep you to myself longer, I think it's only fair we find someone else who would rather willingly have me play with them.

A giant red high-heeled shoe is shown from a high angle, stepping onto a city street. The shoe is a vibrant red with a glossy finish and a thick platform sole. In the background, there are several multi-story buildings with many windows and balconies. A small, nude figure is lying on the street near the shoe's heel. A speech bubble originates from the shoe, containing a monologue. The scene is set in a city environment with a paved street and some parked cars.

Now go on little one, you're free to find a place to shelter yourself from me now. But perhaps I'll give you another opportunity in the future. Maybe you'll realize how lucky you were in the first place. If anyone asks, you better tell them the truth, how many times I satisfied you and how I did it.

Taking cover, Andrew didn't even watch as the giantess began to take steps away from him. Although he now had his freedom, it was not the feeling he thought that he'd have when Amber finally let him go. There was something about being her little pet that he couldn't deny was amazing.

Well it was nice to meet you all! I'm not sure when I'll be back, but when that happens I'll be in the mood for something naughty. Think about it while you can. It's not every day that you get to have a chance with a woman like me, and with our size differences, it will be an experience like no other.

44 Jason could feel his heart start to beat faster as he fantasized about what the giantess could of been talking about. He knew she was right, nothing could match what could be possible with her. It was truly a temptation that would never occur in the real world.

What the fuck Jason, could you be anymore discreet? You were staring at that gigantic ass like you were hoping she'd let you run out to her right now! Isn't this weird, you've had a fetish for giant women and now here we are.

I'm sorry babe, I'll try to control myself better. I have dreamed of that before, but being here now makes it so strange. I don't know what to do.

Meanwhile in the other room, Amanda and Libby found themselves resting on a bench next to Amber's bed. The two shrunken girls had been through a lot recently, being played with by the giantess in many ways that were fitting punishments for the things they did in the past. But what they didn't know was that they would soon be freed from this nightmare.

Amber busted through her door, not trying to reduce the noise at all as she suddenly woke up the resting ladies. She looked upon them with a careless expression, immediately putting them on guard. Neither of them thought they were about to catch a break and figured she was here to use them once again.

Wake up sleep heads!
Did you have a good rest? I'm sure you're not excited to see me, but I have some good news for you girls. As much fun as I've had with you, we all agreed on putting you somewhere else since there's a bigger problem on our hands now.

Oh come on, you should be happy. I promise it's not a silly trick. If I wanted to scare you I'd just do it. You're lucky my daughter isn't the same as me otherwise I'd keep the both of you here for the rest of your lives.

Instead of interacting with the tiny women, Amber simply ignored their cries and began to walk out of her room holding them tightly in her grip. They each didn't trust what the giantess was up to, but neither of them had a choice in the matter anyways. Soon they would see though that Amber for once wasn't taking fully advantage of them.

Back in the living area, Pete was making the final fixes on the device that would allow them to use it again. He programmed it to hopefully be able to restore Sara back to her normal size. But after the recent catastrophe, it was impossible to know what would actually happen when they would use it next.

Alright it should be ready now if you want to give it a try. I wish I was more sure of what might happen, but I went through every possibility in my head and think this setting should work.

Okay don't worry I trust you Pete. What's the worst that could happen? You've made mistakes before, but eventually you always fix them. So let's give it our best shot!

Pete prepped the device for activation, facing it at Sara as he checked everything one more time. Everyone watched in anticipation, hoping that this would be just the start to fixing everything. Eventually he started to reach down towards the trigger, pulling it backwards with his tiny arms until it started to fire.

Like all other times before, things seemed normal as a beam hit Sara's body. At first she thought that she was feeling herself grow, the sensation they had all hoped for. But then things took a turn for the worse, as the effect seemed to only shrink her further instead.

Sara's jaw dropped as she found herself slightly smaller than before. At least she wasn't that tiny, but it was a shock to see that the device didn't do what it was intended to. Now they were left with the uncertainty of finding a way to restore their sizes.

Suddenly Amber returned, holding the two shrunken women tightly in her grip still. She immediately noticed her daughter's new size, now smaller than before. It was clear that something had gone wrong, but at least this was the extent of it.

Oh my god what happened Sara? I thought you guys were supposed to shrink these girls, not yourself. Is everything alright with the device?

I don't know mom. Pete was sure it was configured properly, but these things have happened before in the past. I'm just glad it didn't make me any smaller than this.

Amber didn't seem to have much worry as Sara wasn't much different than just a moment before. Although they wanted her to grow, she was excited to see that the device actually worked and could still shrink things. After dumping the tiny girls onto the floor, she turned her attention back towards the table.

So the growth function must be busted or something it looks like. That's happened before hasn't it? I trust that Pete will be able to eventually figure it out. But what do you guys think, shouldn't it be safe to use on Libby and Amanda?

I'm sure that he'll be able to too. Maybe we should take advantage of it right now before we adjust it though. Go ahead, make them a bit smaller so they can live in the city while we work on it.

The shrunken women on the floor were just barely recovering as their fates were decided without their input. Libby looked over to face the giantess looking down at her. When she saw her holding the shrinking device her heart dropped. Already being so helpless, neither of them wanted to get any tinier.

A large, blonde woman with a friendly expression is shown from the waist up. She is wearing a red, short-sleeved, textured top and white pants. She is holding a large, white, futuristic-looking gun with a circular, ribbed barrel. The background is a modern interior with a white ceiling, yellow pendant lights, and a doorway in the distance.

Sorry girls, you might not like it, but it's probably the best option for you two. Just think about it, you'll be around others your size instead of being stuck in that gigantic bedroom. Now hold still, you wouldn't want me to accidentally make you bug-sized compared to them.

Despite hearing that this might be a blessing for them, Amanda couldn't help herself. Unable to trust any of these words, she started to make a run for it. However, she didn't get too far as Amber fired the device straight at her, shrinking her down to the size of one of the city's residents.

What the fuck, she is so tiny now! I don't care if they think this is good for us, it's so cruel. We're not going to have any chance at living a normal life if we get stuck like that.

Libby couldn't even finish her thoughts as she was hit next by the beam of light. Just like Amanda right before her, she was also shrunk down to a much smaller size. Sara watched in the distance until the effect wore off, climbing down from her chair to recover them once things were safe.

Not wanting to accept this new circumstance, Amanda made a run for it as the smaller giantess slowly walked towards her. It was completely useless to try and escape from them, but her body knew nothing else, thinking this was the best way to survive.

However, her short attempt to flee was ended quickly as Amber stopped her in her tracks. With just a minimal effort on her part, the giantess knocked over the tiny girl with just the tip of her shoe. Using a slight bit of pressure, she was able to pin her down and hold her until Sara was able to catch up.

Where did she think she was even going? I have no idea why these little ones think running was an option at all. Sorry Amanda, but you're going where we want you to. Would you like to deal with them Sara?

Sure I don't mind. Even though I'm quite small, they are still really easy to manage. You and Pete should probably get ready to get going soon anyways.

After grabbing Amanda, Sara reached down towards the other shrunk woman on the floor. Libby flinched and started to scream as the much smaller giantess wrapped her fingers around her. It was hard to imagine what it must be like in Amber's grip in this new tinier form.

Alright you two, like we said before this will be for the best. I know you probably don't agree with that right now since you're a lot smaller. But when I bring you to the shrunken city you'll fit right in. It'll be the most normal thing you can experience at this size.

Don't worry mom, I can handle them. It's still not too late in the day so you guys should have time to get out there and find some of the energy we need for the device. Hopefully we'll have a way to at least get the growth setting to work on one of us.

Sounds good, I'll see you later then. I'll have my phone if you need to contact me, so let's hope nothing goes wrong. If me and Pete get in trouble breaking into the science lab again I don't know what we'll do.

With the tiny girls secured in her hand, Sara went off towards her bedroom. At her new size the doors were starting to almost become impossible to open. With a little hop though, she was able to reach the handle and continue her way into the hallway.

Okay guys, let's get to work then. Since you're so small I think you should just stay behind Rachel. It would just be a lot less risky with just Pete, and he knows what he's looking for. Don't worry though, once we find a way to increase sizes again we'll get you in a position where you can be useful.

Amber reached down and allowed the little guy to climb into her palm, closing her fingers in around him to keep him safe. He didn't experience the same helpless feeling that others might encounter with her. Instead, he could tell that the giantess was taking things serious and wanted to help get things back to normal.

So let's not waste anytime, shall we Pete? You know exactly what you're looking for, so just give me the instructions on where we need to go. I'm going to be your "little" helper for the evening.

Sounds great! Let's head on over to the science lab at the college. There shouldn't be many others there around this time so hopefully we get away with raiding it again.

Rachel watched with hope as Amber left the house with the device and Pete. She still felt responsible for everything and didn't know if they would ever trust her with the device again. But at least they didn't shrink her to a smaller size like Libby and Amanda just to put her in the tiny city.

Meanwhile, Sara made her way into her bedroom, carrying Libby and Amanda carefully in her palm. She didn't show any signs of wanting to get revenge on them, despite them deserving for the things they had previously put her through. Instead, she simply strolled over to the city, wanting to give them a peaceful place to go.

Sara stood up and allowed the shrunken girls to run off into the city, escaping from her dominating grasp. She felt a sense of relief, feeling as if they didn't need to watch over them as carefully as before. However, the bigger problem still was keeping this population calm. She'd need to inform them on what was happening, hoping the updates would keep them from falling into anarchy.

So I actually have a bit of news for you all. Unfortunately we tested the device out and it only seems to be shrinking things smaller at the moment. Don't worry though, that's no reason to freak out or anything, as we'll work hard to fix that. I just wanted to let everybody know where we're at.

After delivering the bad news, Sara decided to climb into her bed. It was quite a struggle at this new size, but she was still able to pull herself up at least. Today had been a very long day, and nobody had got the chance to rest at all. Crawling up to her pillow, she laid out, wanting to try and relax even if it was for just a moment.

Jeez I'm so tired.
I can't believe everything that has happened today. We really have a lot of things to worry about, but I really think it's all going to work out eventually. Hopefully this will just be a memory in time and we'll all get back to our normal lives in no time.

As the giantess laid in her bed, Jason once again crept out of his apartment. Seeing Sara again ignited the memory from before and he thought that he could take his chances to be close with her once again. Seeing that she was staying put for now prompted him to approach her.

Jason made his way across the massive expanse of the bedroom floor, eventually reaching the base of the gigantic bed. Looking up, he knew there was no other way to get up to Sara besides scaling the enormous structure. Without any hesitation, he began his climb, dreaming of being closer to the giantess.

This has been such a difficult climb!
But I'm almost there. Reaching the mattress at the end has made this whole experience a lot easier. Now I just need to pull myself up there and hope that she doesn't move just yet.

The little man crept closer, carefully tiptoeing towards Sara as she peacefully started to close her eyes. Being so exhausted from this big day, she didn't even think to consider that laying down in her bedroom could of been a bad idea. She didn't realize and was unaware of her inviting presence towards Jason.

When he was finally up and close, Jason took some time to admire the beautiful view he had of the giantess. He watched her breathing shift her gigantic body slowly, feeling her immense power over him. It was hard to know what to do next, whether or not he should go further, or get out of here before something might happen.

I just can't help it, I might not ever get a chance like this again in my life. Since it seems like she couldn't accidentally squish me, maybe I should explore her. She could be asleep so she might not even notice me.

As he crawled up Sara's leg, the little man had no clue what would happen next. He didn't know if the giantess was napping or if she would immediately feel him. Luckily, as Jason made it towards her thigh, it seemed like his presence was completely unknown.

Jason continued his journey, relishing in every moment of this experience that should of been impossible. It was like a dream, being so close to the giantess as he felt the warmth of her beautiful gigantic body. Although Sara wasn't even half her normal size, she was till a massive giantess to this shrunken man.

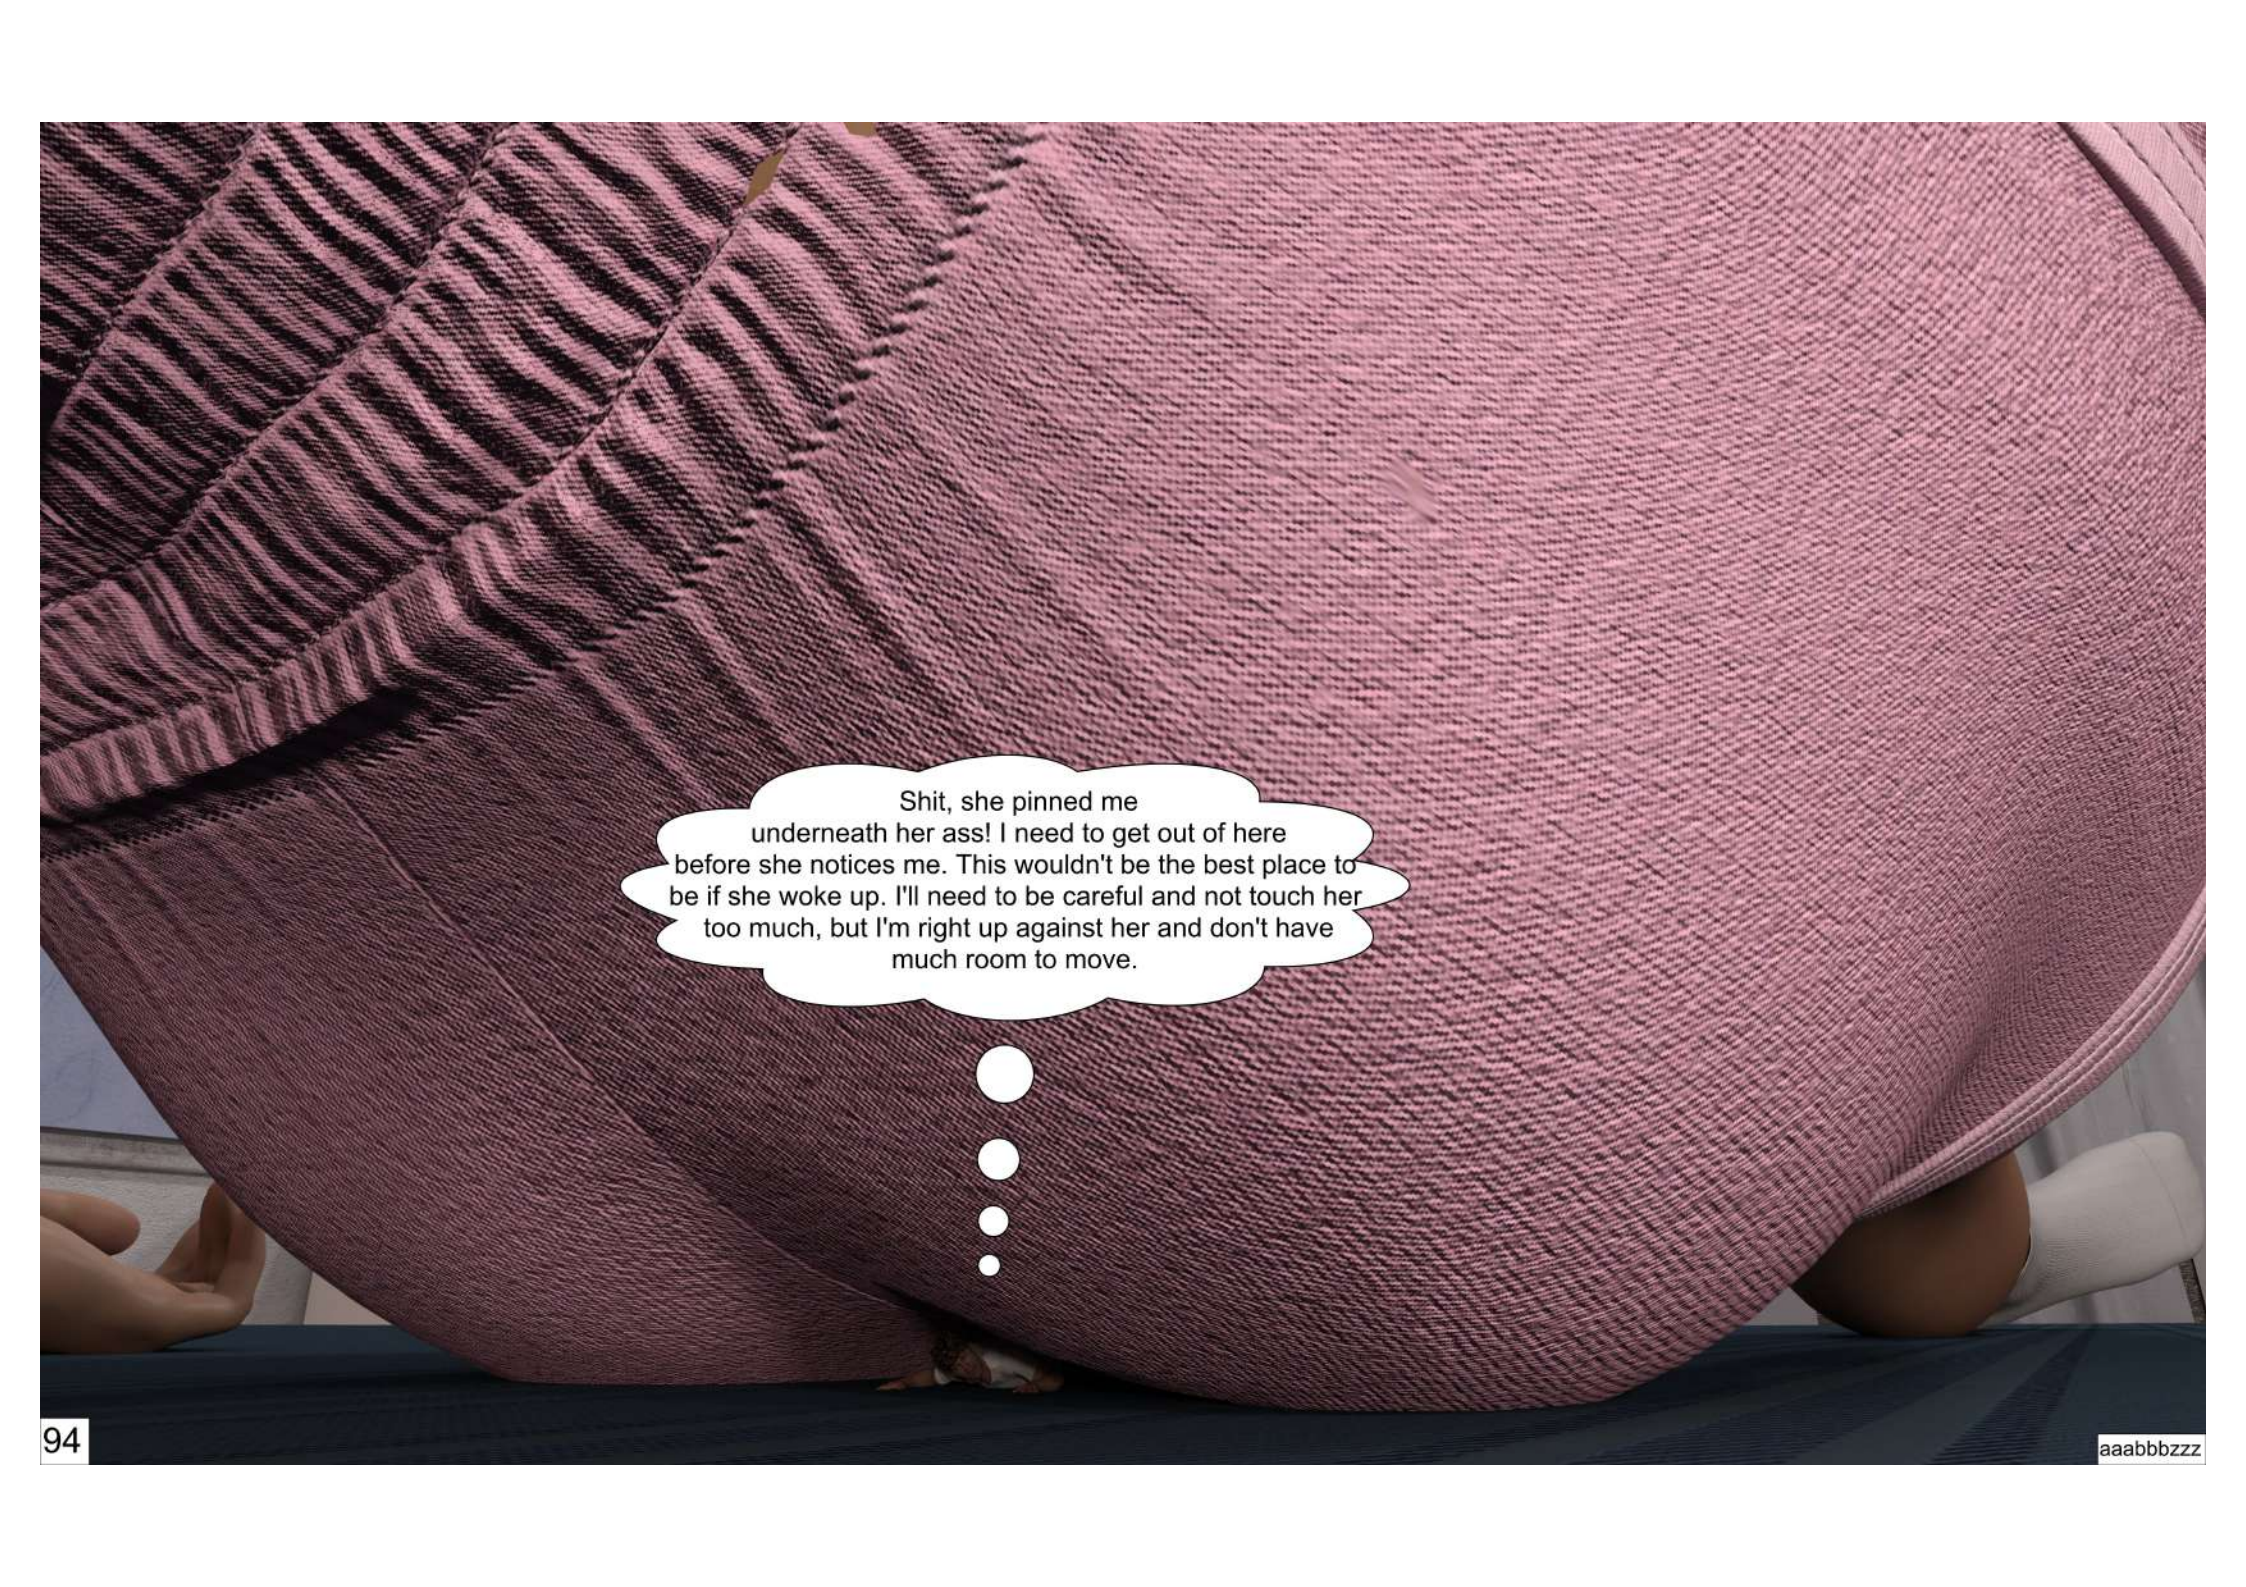

Oh my god this is so surreal.
I wouldn't think for a second to devote myself to her if I had the chance to. She's a real goddess and I can't believe I'm lucky enough to be this close to her. I wonder what she would do if she caught me though.

Suddenly in the moment as the tiny man was lost in thought, Sara started to move. She yawned and shifted her body, knocking the little guy she was unaware off her body. Jason felt panic for the first time as his whole world was flipped.

A person wearing a pink, textured sweater is lying on their back on a blue surface. A speech bubble is positioned over their midsection, and four white dots are arranged vertically below it. The person's legs are visible at the bottom right, wearing white socks and brown shoes. A hand is visible on the left side, near the person's waist.

Shit, she pinned me underneath her ass! I need to get out of here before she notices me. This wouldn't be the best place to be if she woke up. I'll need to be careful and not touch her too much, but I'm right up against her and don't have much room to move.

Although he needed to watch himself, Jason started to squirm uncontrollably as the giantess shifted her weight down on him as she adjusted herself. The little guy struggled to escape as Sara unawarely continued to close her eyes for now.

What the hell is that, is someone down by my shorts? I thought for sure that I felt something. Oh no, did I fall asleep? I shouldn't of got in my bed when I was so tired, I just wanted to rest my eyes and lay for a short minute.

Sara quickly rolled over onto her stomach, not giving the tiny man a chance to get away from her. Immediately she noticed him, gasping in surprise as it was just as she feared. Jason knew that this might make him look like a pervert so he hoped to be able to escape the giantess while she was still in shock.

Hey! Where are you going little one? What were you doing in my bed so close to me? You're not going anywhere, come back here before I need to have to catch you!

It didn't take any effort for Jason's escape to end as the giantess wrapped her soles around him. He struggled between her socked feet, screaming in a way as if it were all a misunderstanding. But Sara knew that nobody should of been as close as he was to her and wasn't happy about it.

No way, aren't you the same guy I stepped on earlier? It is! You better have a good explanation as to why you were on my bed while I was trying to rest. It feels so violating, especially because you had to make your way all the way over here at that size.

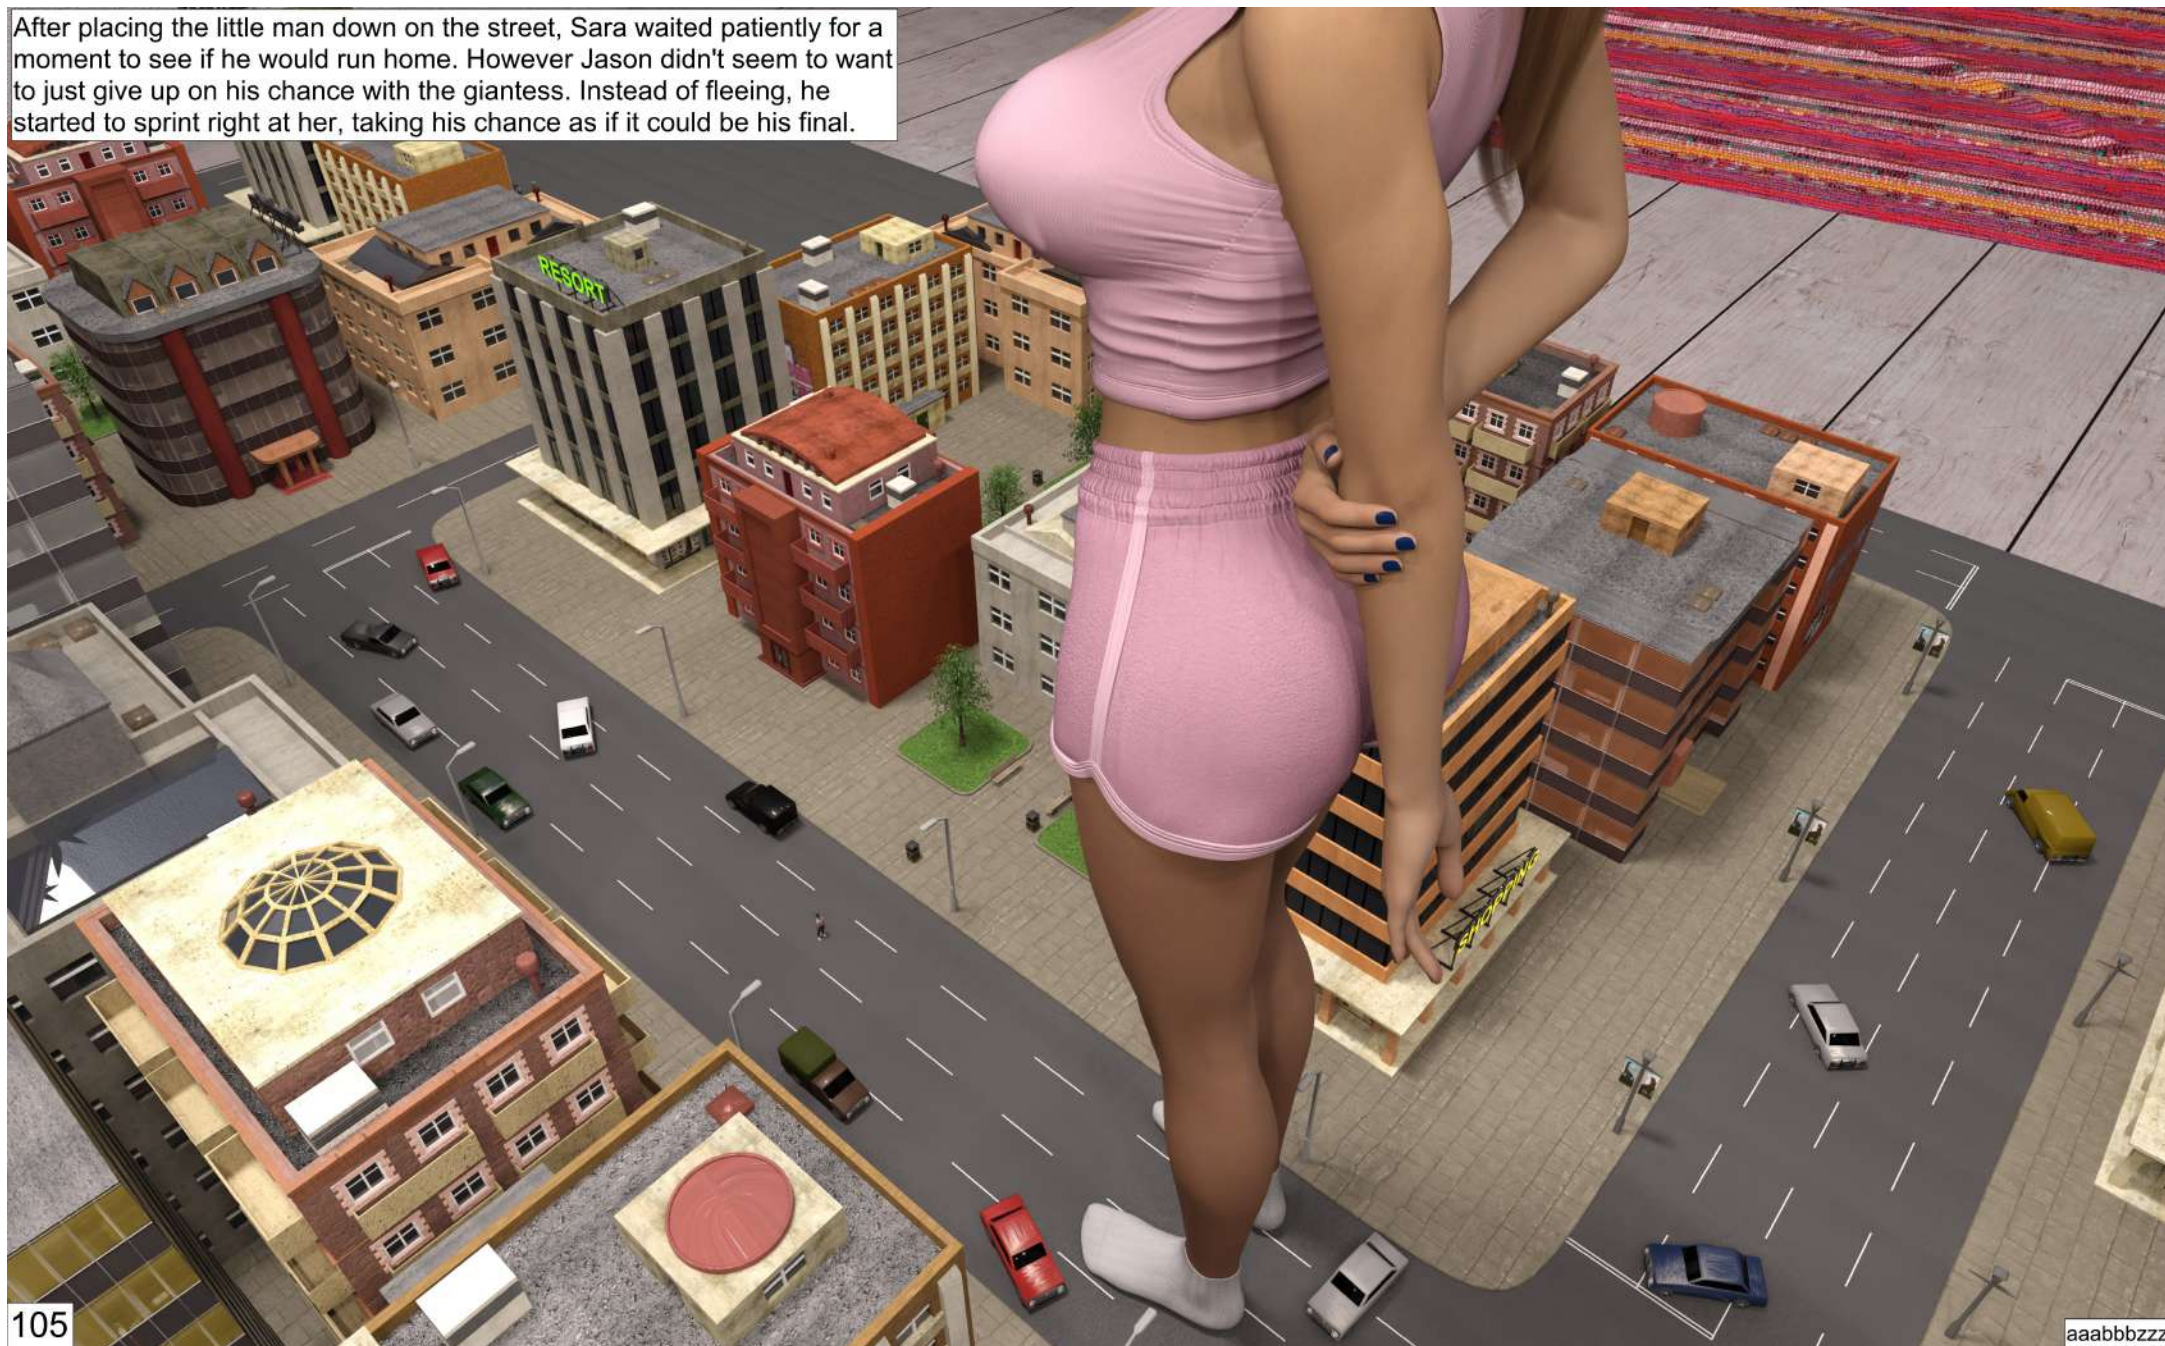

Upset with the shrunken man's response, Sara decided to just ignore the rest of his cries and bring him back to his home. She strolled down the street to bring him as far into the city as possible to drop him near the center, encouraging him not to leave again.

After placing the little man down on the street, Sara waited patiently for a moment to see if he would run home. However Jason didn't seem to want to just give up on his chance with the giantess. Instead of fleeing, he started to sprint right at her, taking his chance as if it could be his final.

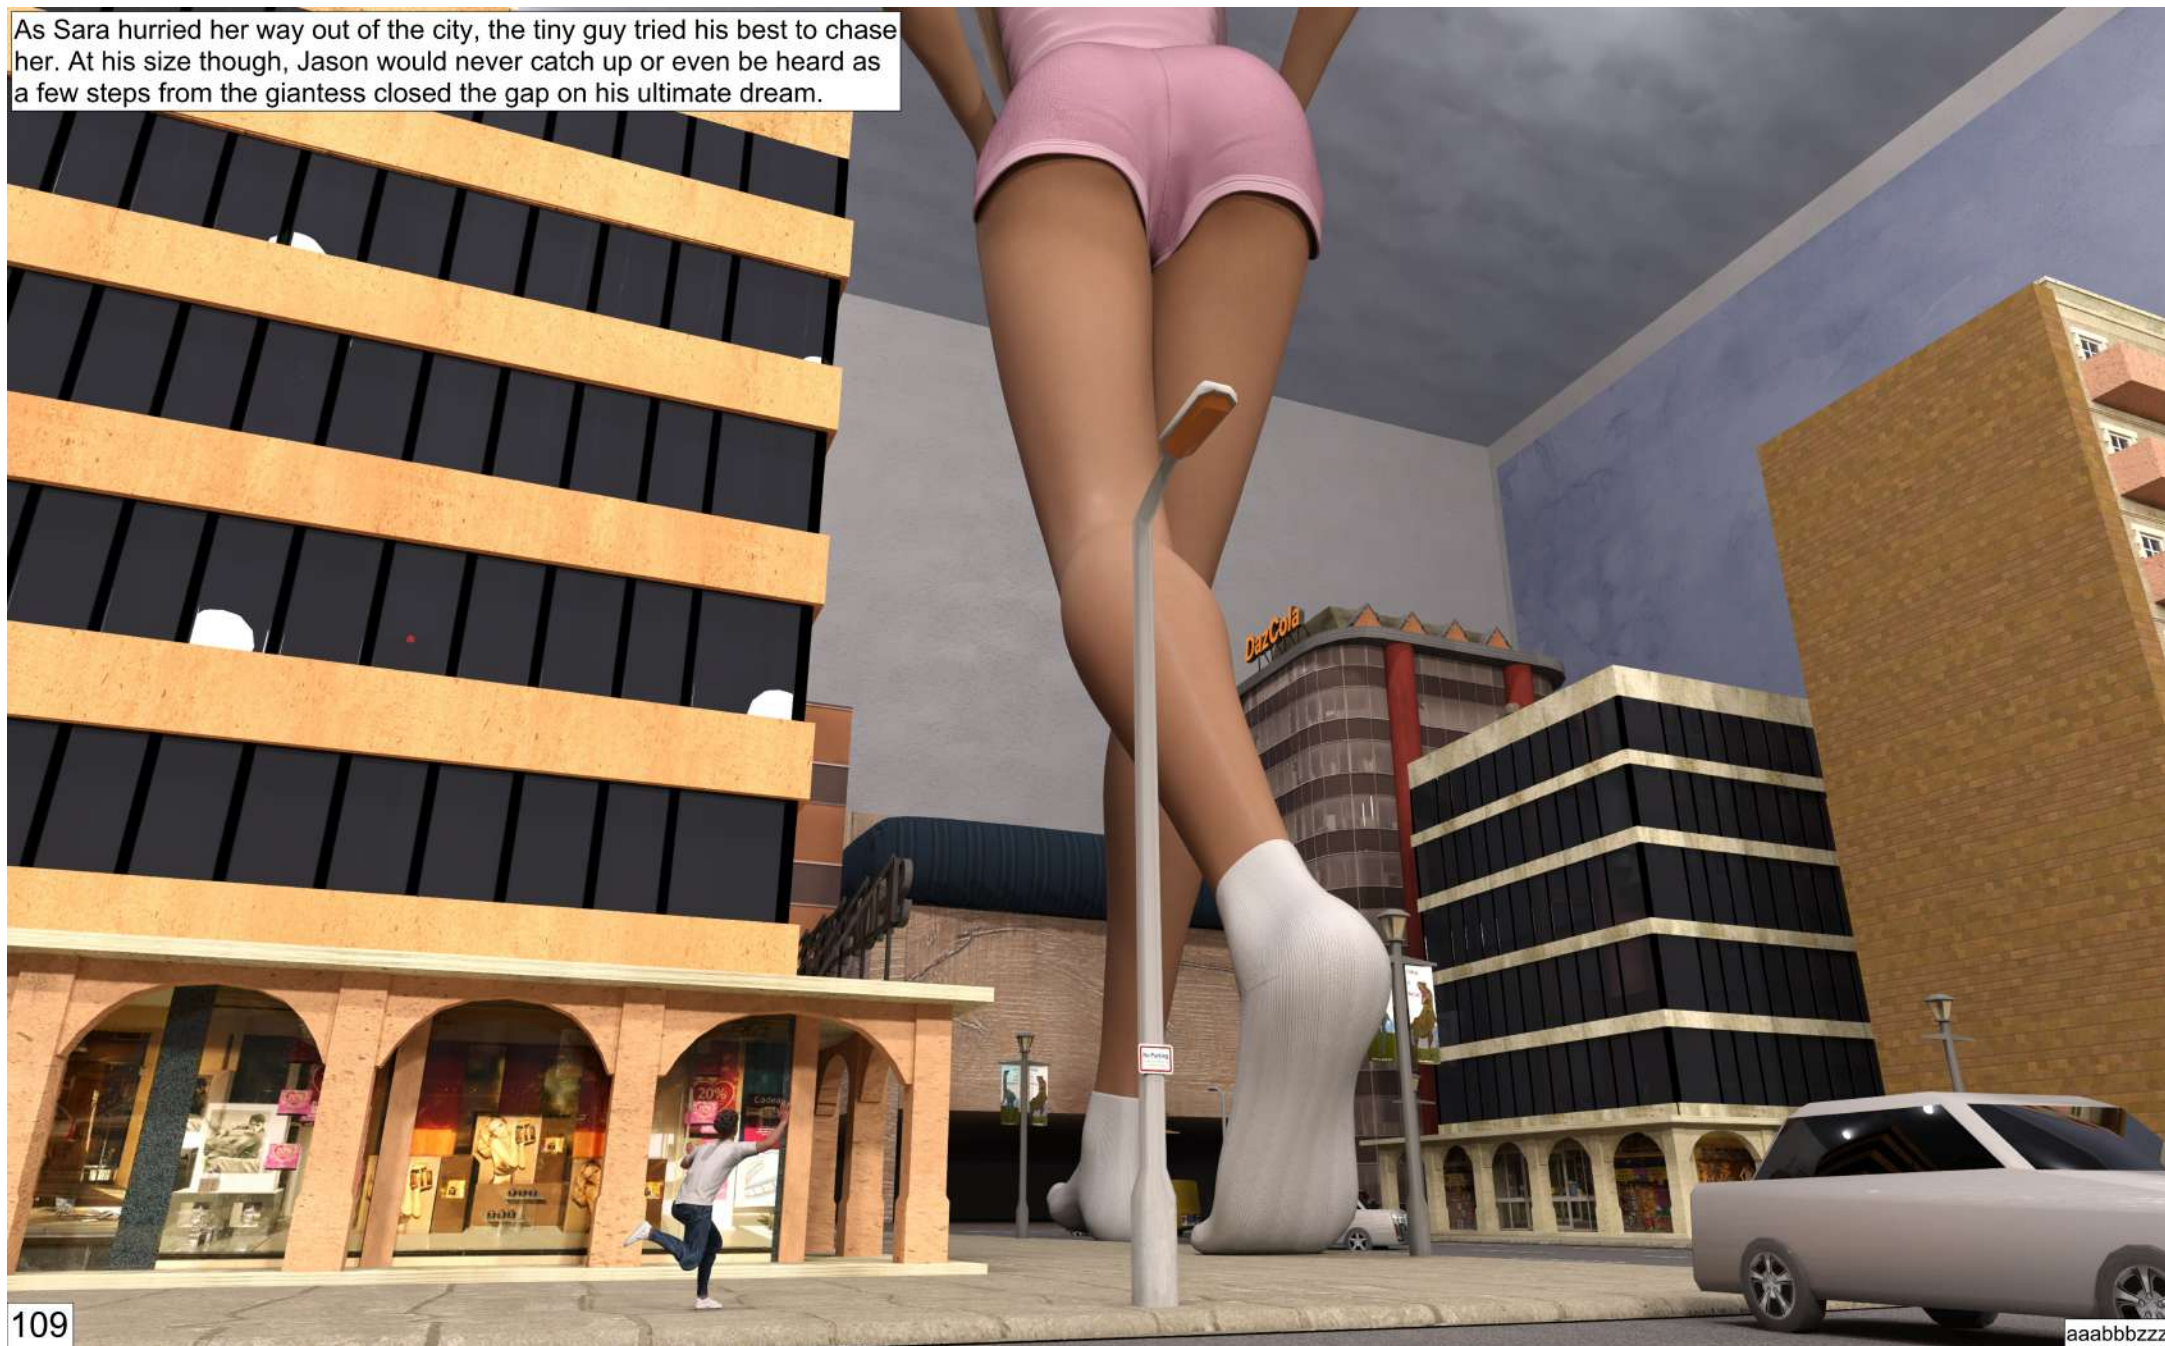

Quickly, Jason made it up to the gigantic socked foot and nuzzled his face against the smelly toe section. He didn't care about how humiliating it might look in front of the whole city, this was his chance to beg Sara to just give him an opportunity. Unfortunately for him though, she did not act how he had hoped.

Eww get away from me!
Don't you understand boundaries at all?
Just because you're so small doesn't give you a free pass to be such a desperate pervert! Stay away from me or I'll have to find a way to keep you seperate.

As Sara hurried her way out of the city, the tiny guy tried his best to chase her. At his size though, Jason would never catch up or even be heard as a few steps from the giantess closed the gap on his ultimate dream.

That was such a brave but stupid move on his part. I can't believe that a little guy like him would actually do such a thing. I guess there are a lot of people shrunken down in that city so there had to be someone who was a bit more curious for their own good.

Once she left her bedroom, Sara went out to the living room and laid down on the couch next to her shrunken friend Rachel. A few hours passed as the two slept peacefully, hoping that tomorrow would bring some progress on restoring everything to the way it should be.

At a late hour of the night, Amber finally made her return. She didn't expect to be gone as long as she was, but there were a few complications at the lab. At least the trouble didn't end with them being stuck there and they eventually were able to make it home safely.

Hello sleepyheads, I'm back!
Sorry for the delay, but we had a little problem finding what we needed. Fortunately we ended up getting something, but it might not be enough to fix everything just yet.

Mom! What time is it even? We fell asleep waiting for you guys but were hoping nothing was wrong since you didn't call. Well that's some good news at least, what's our next step then?

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a red sleeveless top and white pants, is holding a large, black, multi-pocketed bag with brass-colored buckles and straps. She is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The background shows a living room with a stone fireplace, a bookshelf, and a television. A speech bubble is positioned above her head.

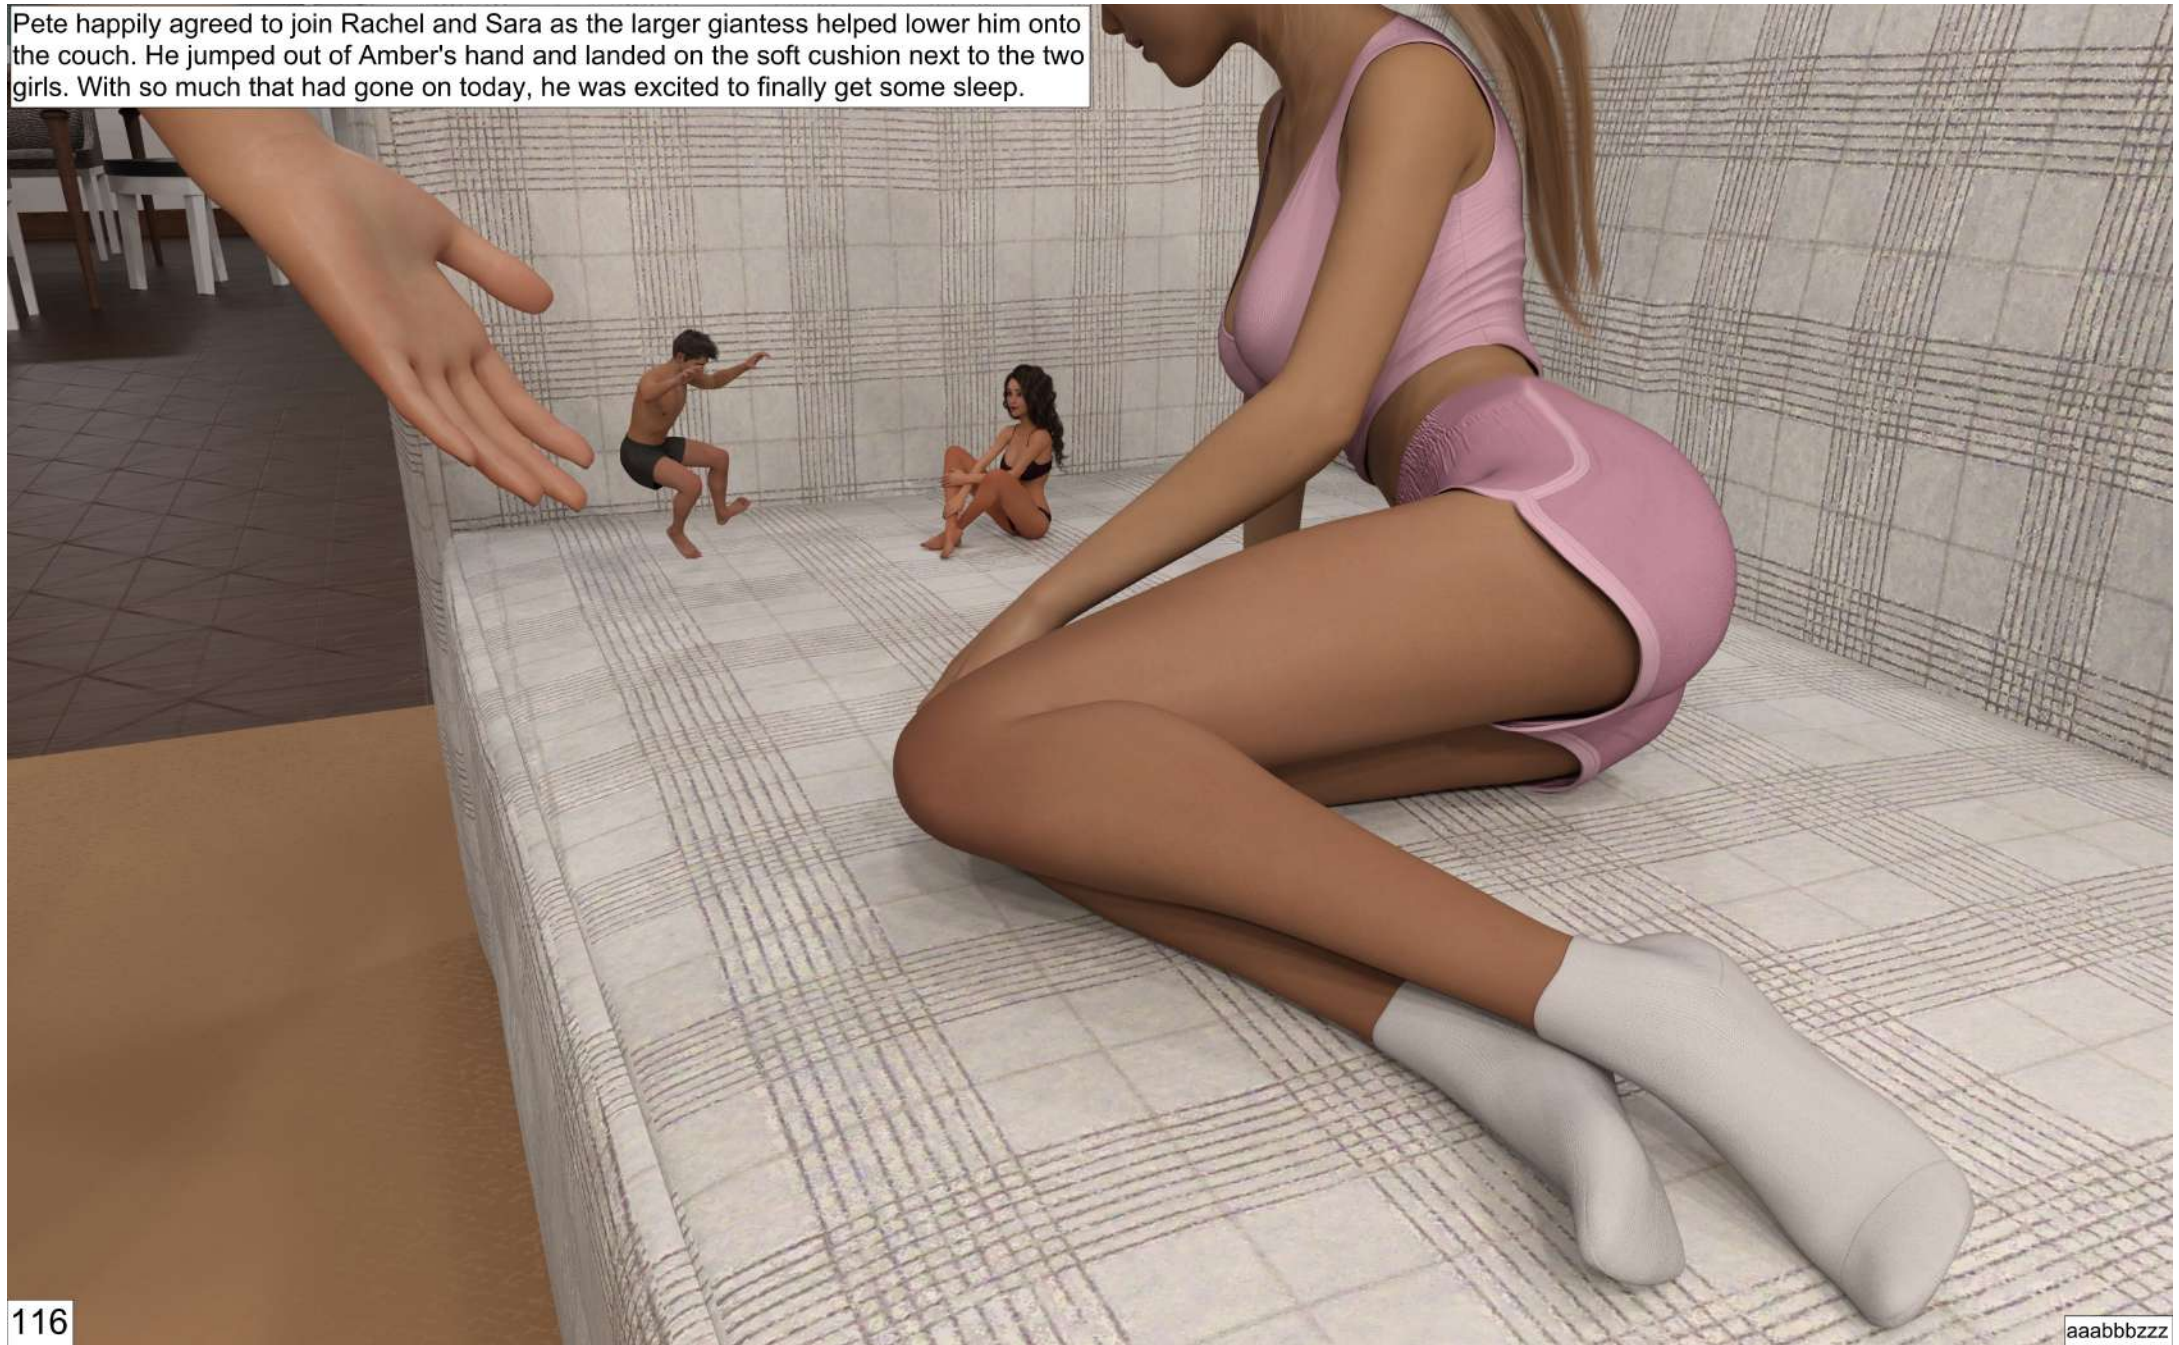

It's just past midnight. I think the next step right now is to just get some rest. We can't work all day and all night. Here, let me get Pete out of here too, he must be ready to finally be home after the bumpy way back.

Hey girls! I'll explain everything if you'd really like to right now, but I'm quite tired. Could we wait until the morning? There's no urgent news so I think it would be better to talk once we all get some rest.

Ya that's fine, we can just take it easy for the rest of the night. I'm just glad that nothing went wrong over there. It's been such a long and exhausting day. You're welcome to sleep next to us if you'd like to.

Pete happily agreed to join Rachel and Sara as the larger giantess helped lower him onto the couch. He jumped out of Amber's hand and landed on the soft cushion next to the two girls. With so much that had gone on today, he was excited to finally get some sleep.

Well I hope all of you have a great night. I'm so tired too so I'm going to head back to my bedroom and wind down.
We'll discuss our plans all together tomorrow.
Until then I'll see you later.

With all three smaller ones on the couch, Amber left for her bedroom. Although she hadn't been through the same craziness as everyone else, she was also quite exhausted. It was past her normal bedtime, but there was something still on her mind. She had naughty thoughts all day and never had a great time to act on them just yet.

Back in the shrunken city things were quiet. Being the late hour of the night, nobody seemed to be out or trying anything that they shouldn't of been. Instead, everyone stayed in their apartments, trying their best to get some sleep and hoping that tomorrow would bring them some good news.

But the silence came to an end as a giantess walked through the door. Creeping into the bedroom wearing nothing but her underwear was Amber. She mentioned coming back to the city earlier in the day and was thinking about it up until now.

Why hello there little ones. Like I promised, I'm back, and you know what that means! One of you is going to become my lucky guest tonight. But who will it be? Do we have any volunteers to join me for some naughty time alone in my room?

Taking small steps to make sure she wouldn't crush anything and leave evidence of her return, Amber searched the city streets to see if anyone was crazy enough to take her offer. Being more than twice the size of Sara, she was a different type of giantess, one with much more power than anybody could comprehend.

Hearing the booming voice and the quaking steps, Jason was quick to get up and look out of his window. Seeing the giantess walk through his street had him mesmerized. He had lost his chance with Sara earlier, but now he had an even more appealing offer with Amber. That is if he was able to get to her first.

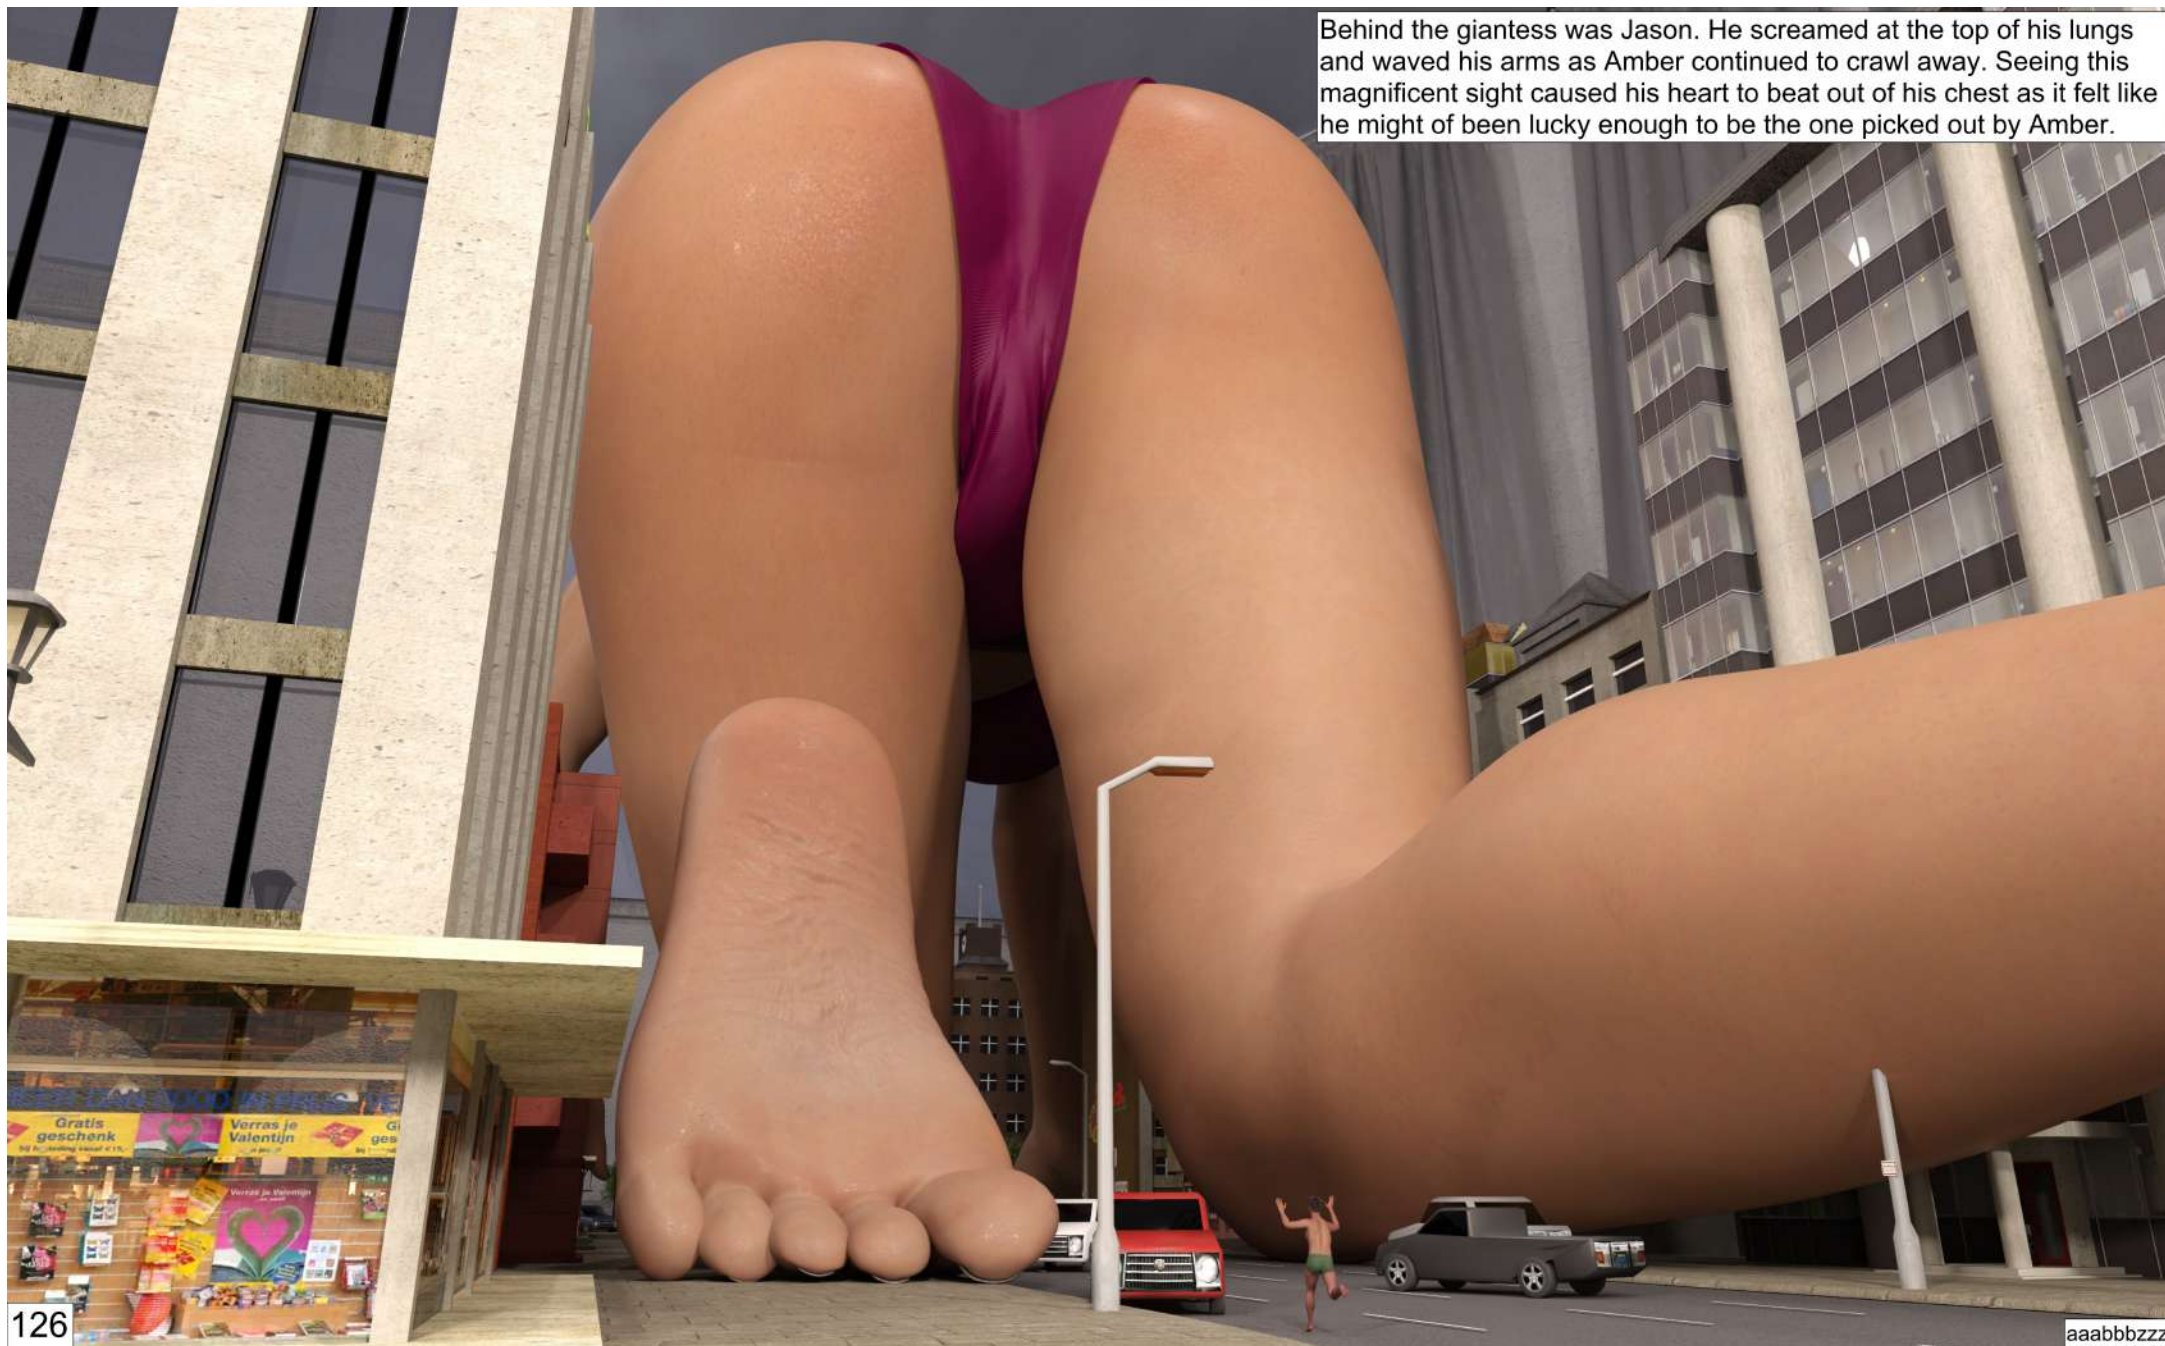

I don't see anyone yet!
Are you all really that afraid? Trust me, whoever ends up coming with me, they won't be hurt at all. I promise to only make it the best night of their life. Come on now, where are you little ones? Don't make me get impatient.

Amber then got onto her hands and knees, allowing herself to get a better view in case she had missed anyone trying to get her attention. She made sure to move slowly, giving the tiny population an opportunity to catch up with her, but also to admire her gigantic body as she teased it so playfully.

Behind the giantess was Jason. He screamed at the top of his lungs and waved his arms as Amber continued to crawl away. Seeing this magnificent sight caused his heart to beat out of his chest as it felt like he might of been lucky enough to be the one picked out by Amber.

Hmm... I'm surprised I don't see any of you yet. Perhaps nobody wants to come back with me? Maybe I haven't given you guys enough time to come out and present yourselves. I'll wait here until I see or feel our fortunate winner.

After having an argument with her boyfriend earlier, Lindsey had separated herself from Jason, sleeping in the other room after seeing what he had done with Sara. But when Amber came in and tempted the shrunken city with an offer like this, she knew that Jason wouldn't of been able to resist and had to go out to stop him.

However it was already too late to stop Jason. Making his way up to Amber's foot, he banged his hands against her sensitive toe, hoping the slight tickle might make the giantess feel him. Suddenly though his excitement grew, as he saw Amber react and begin to acknowledge his existence.

Oh my god, was that what I thought it was?
Yes it was! A little bug down by my feet. It looks like we have our lucky one. Stay put for a moment, I'm going to readjust myself so I can get a better look at you.

Shifting her body to face the eager little man, Amber looked down with a smile on her face. She saw who she knew was the one who had reached her first, despite seeing another girl in the distance. Lindsey had a scared look on her face, but the giantess paid no attention to her. Just as she had promised, Amber locked in on Jason who had made the first contact.

Unknown to Amber was another contender who had just missed his chance. Staring at her massive ass from behind was Andrew. After being dropped in the city he didn't know where he should of gone. When the giantess returned with her offer, he had flashbacks of how amazing the time was with her and took it upon himself to offer his tiny body to her once again. However it was too late now and Amber had a new little guy to focus on.

Once he was examined for a short moment, Jason found himself being lifted into the air as the giantess plucked him up between her two fingers. The unknown had made this position a terrifying one to be in as he had no chance to reverse his decision now. But being in Amber's gigantic hands excited him and made him optimistic for the future.

Why aren't you the cutest little thing! Tell me tiny man, what led you to this decision? I guess that doesn't really matter, I'm just happy one of you decided to come out. I promise you won't regret this decision. I'm going to show you what a mature woman like me can offer a small young man like yourself.

Standing to her feet, Amber focused her attention on the little guy in her hand, unable to notice his tiny girlfriend flailing her arms around and running towards her. Even if she would though, the giantess had her mind set. Jason was her lucky winner and it would be him going back to her bedroom alone.

Lindsey tried to pursue the giantess as she walked off, not realizing it was far too late at this moment. As Amber began to take steps out of the city, she quickly outpaced the shrunken woman, leaving her behind and alone while her boyfriend was taken away in the hands of this dominate woman.

Damn it, she's too big to catch. And now Jason is gone, with that gigantic bitch! I can't believe him, he knows nothing of her but he's willing to do something like this for that disgusting fetish of his. We're fucking done, I hope it's worth it for you Jason, because you're not coming back to me after this.

Not more than a minute later, Amber arrived back in her bedroom, eager to finally have some naughty time with the little guy in her palm. Everything about this was starting to excite Jason. Hearing how playful the giantess was sounding made him feel like he won the lottery being picked to by her.

A close-up shot of a woman with long, wavy blonde hair and bright red lipstick. She is looking down with a slight smile at a tiny man sitting on her bare chest. The man is seen from behind, wearing green briefs. The background is a dark grey wall with diagonal light grey lines.

Well it's just us now little guy. There's nobody that can hear or witness the things we'll be doing together, so don't be afraid to embrace this opportunity. I want you to enjoy yourself as much as you can, especially because that's what I'll be doing.

Amber didn't waste any time before dumping her shrunk boy onto her bed. Jason fell from her palm, landing down on the soft surface without being harmed. He could already tell how dominate the giantess was going to be with him, despite her promises of being gentle caretaker.

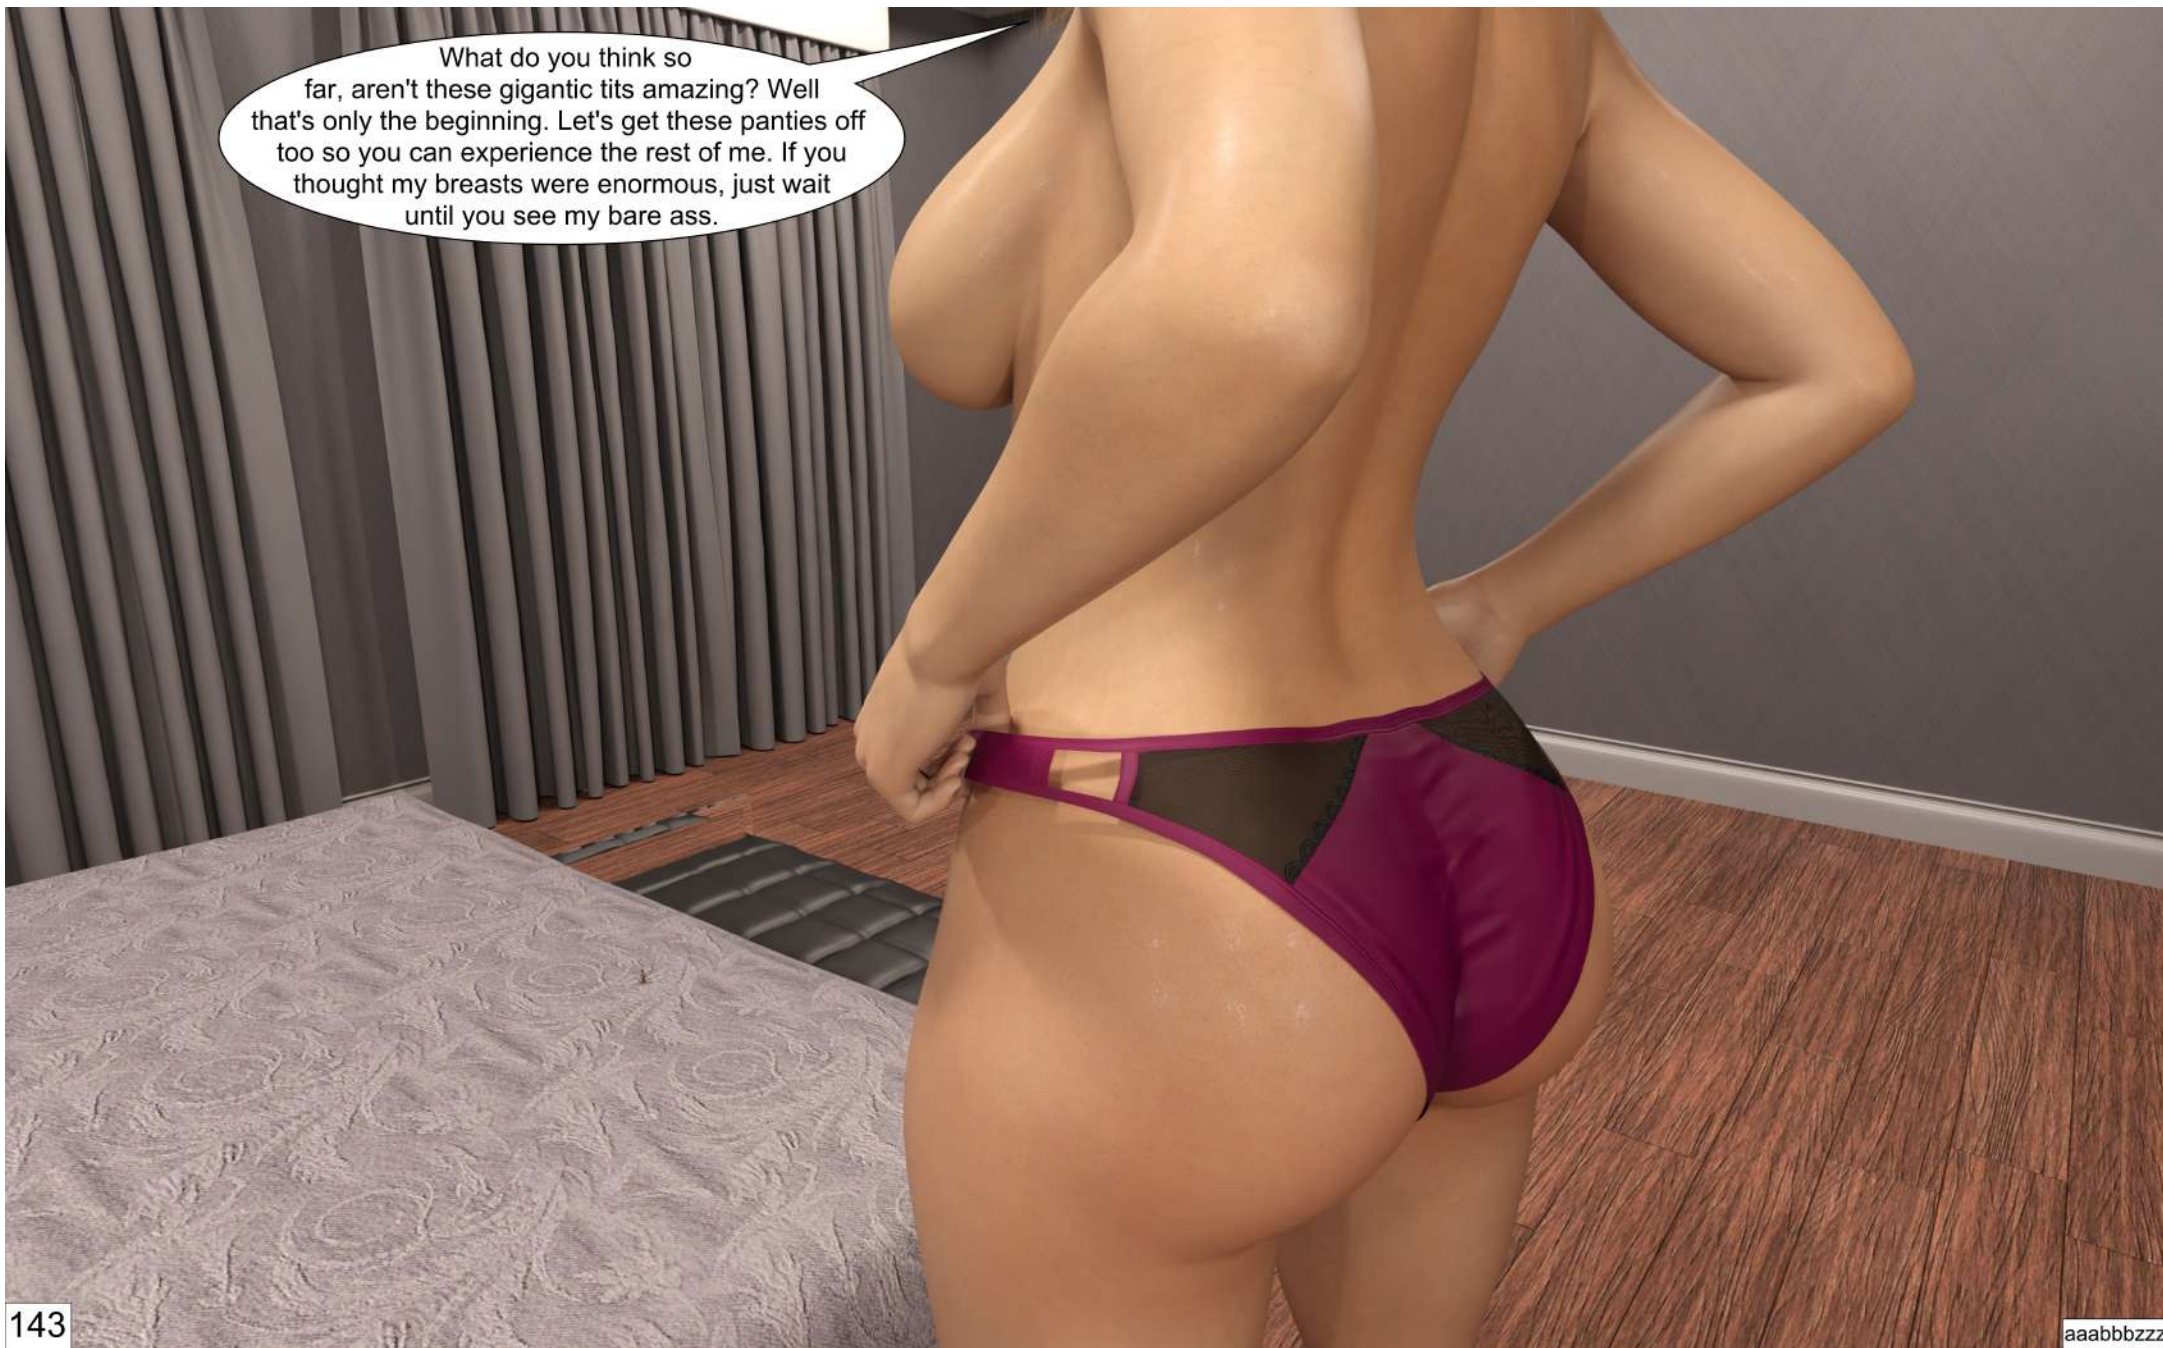

Now enjoy the show my tiny pet. We're not going to wait around, let's get straight to it. First let me get a bit more comfortable. I bet your jaw will drop when you see a woman my size strip down and reveal herself to you. Look all you wish, take in the sight of the goddess you'll be spending time with tonight.

In a teasing manner, the giantess ripped off her bra and did a little twirl as Jason looked up in disbelief. He couldn't comprehend just how huge Amber's boobs were now in his shrunken state, and seeing them bounce free above him started to make his heart beat faster. This was really happening and he couldn't wait for it to go further.

What do you think so far, aren't these gigantic tits amazing? Well that's only the beginning. Let's get these panties off too so you can experience the rest of me. If you thought my breasts were enormous, just wait until you see my bare ass.

Jason's eyes locked on the astonishing sight of the giantess as she removed her last piece of clothing, revealing her fully naked body. Amber giggled as she watched the little guy below staring up at her with excitement. It was quite obvious he wasn't thinking of changing his mind at all.

Did you enjoy that tease?
This body is going to be all for you little one.
You have no idea how lucky you are. I could of brought dozens of residents from the city to enjoy all at once, but there's something about the intimate connection of having a one-on-one with somebody. You're going to get my full attention all night long.

Suddenly the shrunken man's world began to shake as Amber crawled into the bed. Jason was now able to get even better views of his naked goddess as she purposely moved slowly to display every inch of her perfect body to him. Eventually she positioned herself and looked down at him, ready to start their adventure together.

So are you ready to get started tiny man? I'd like it if you were able to admire every bit of this body. So let's have you begin down at my feet. If you want to make it up to my upper half then you'll climb up my toes and make your way up my leg. Come on now, you're not having second thoughts about this are you?

Amber smiled wickedly as she watched the conflicting look on her shrunken guy's face. This wasn't what Jason was hoping for or even expecting. But he knew it was only just the start and he didn't want to upset the giantess already. So he willingly obeyed and made his way over to perform his first task.

Good boy, I had no doubt you'd be a good pet when I found you. Sorry about the smell down there though. My feet do get quite stinky, but if you're quick, you can get out of there before it gets unbearable on that little nose of yours.

Struggling to breathe with the toxic air filling his lungs, Jason tried his best to hurry up the gigantic toes. He could hear Amber giggle in the background and the slight shakes of her body almost made him loose his grip. But he somehow was able to move on, climbing up the sticky toes towards his goal.

Great job so far little one. You're making more progress than I thought you would at this point. To be honest I expected some protests from you after giving you this task, but I can see that you're either a tiny pervert, or just determined to please me.

Wow! You made it to the top of my toes already. At least for you that part is over.
You wont need to be sniffing that terrible odor as much anymore, but you still have a long way to go. Making it up my leg will be like climbing a mountain, so I hope you still have plenty of energy left.

Jason continued his climb, gripping onto the warm flesh as he moved up the gigantic leg. Amber casually just continued to watch from a distance, loving how quick her tiny guy was being. It was quite a challenge to scale the giantess, but Jason had the motivation to put him in gear to do this in a timely manner.

Eventually the little guy made it up to Amber's thigh, feeling sweaty as the heat increased with every inch that he crawled further. He also witnessed Amber's fingers starting to touch her intimate region, telling him that she was already getting aroused with the idea of playing with him.

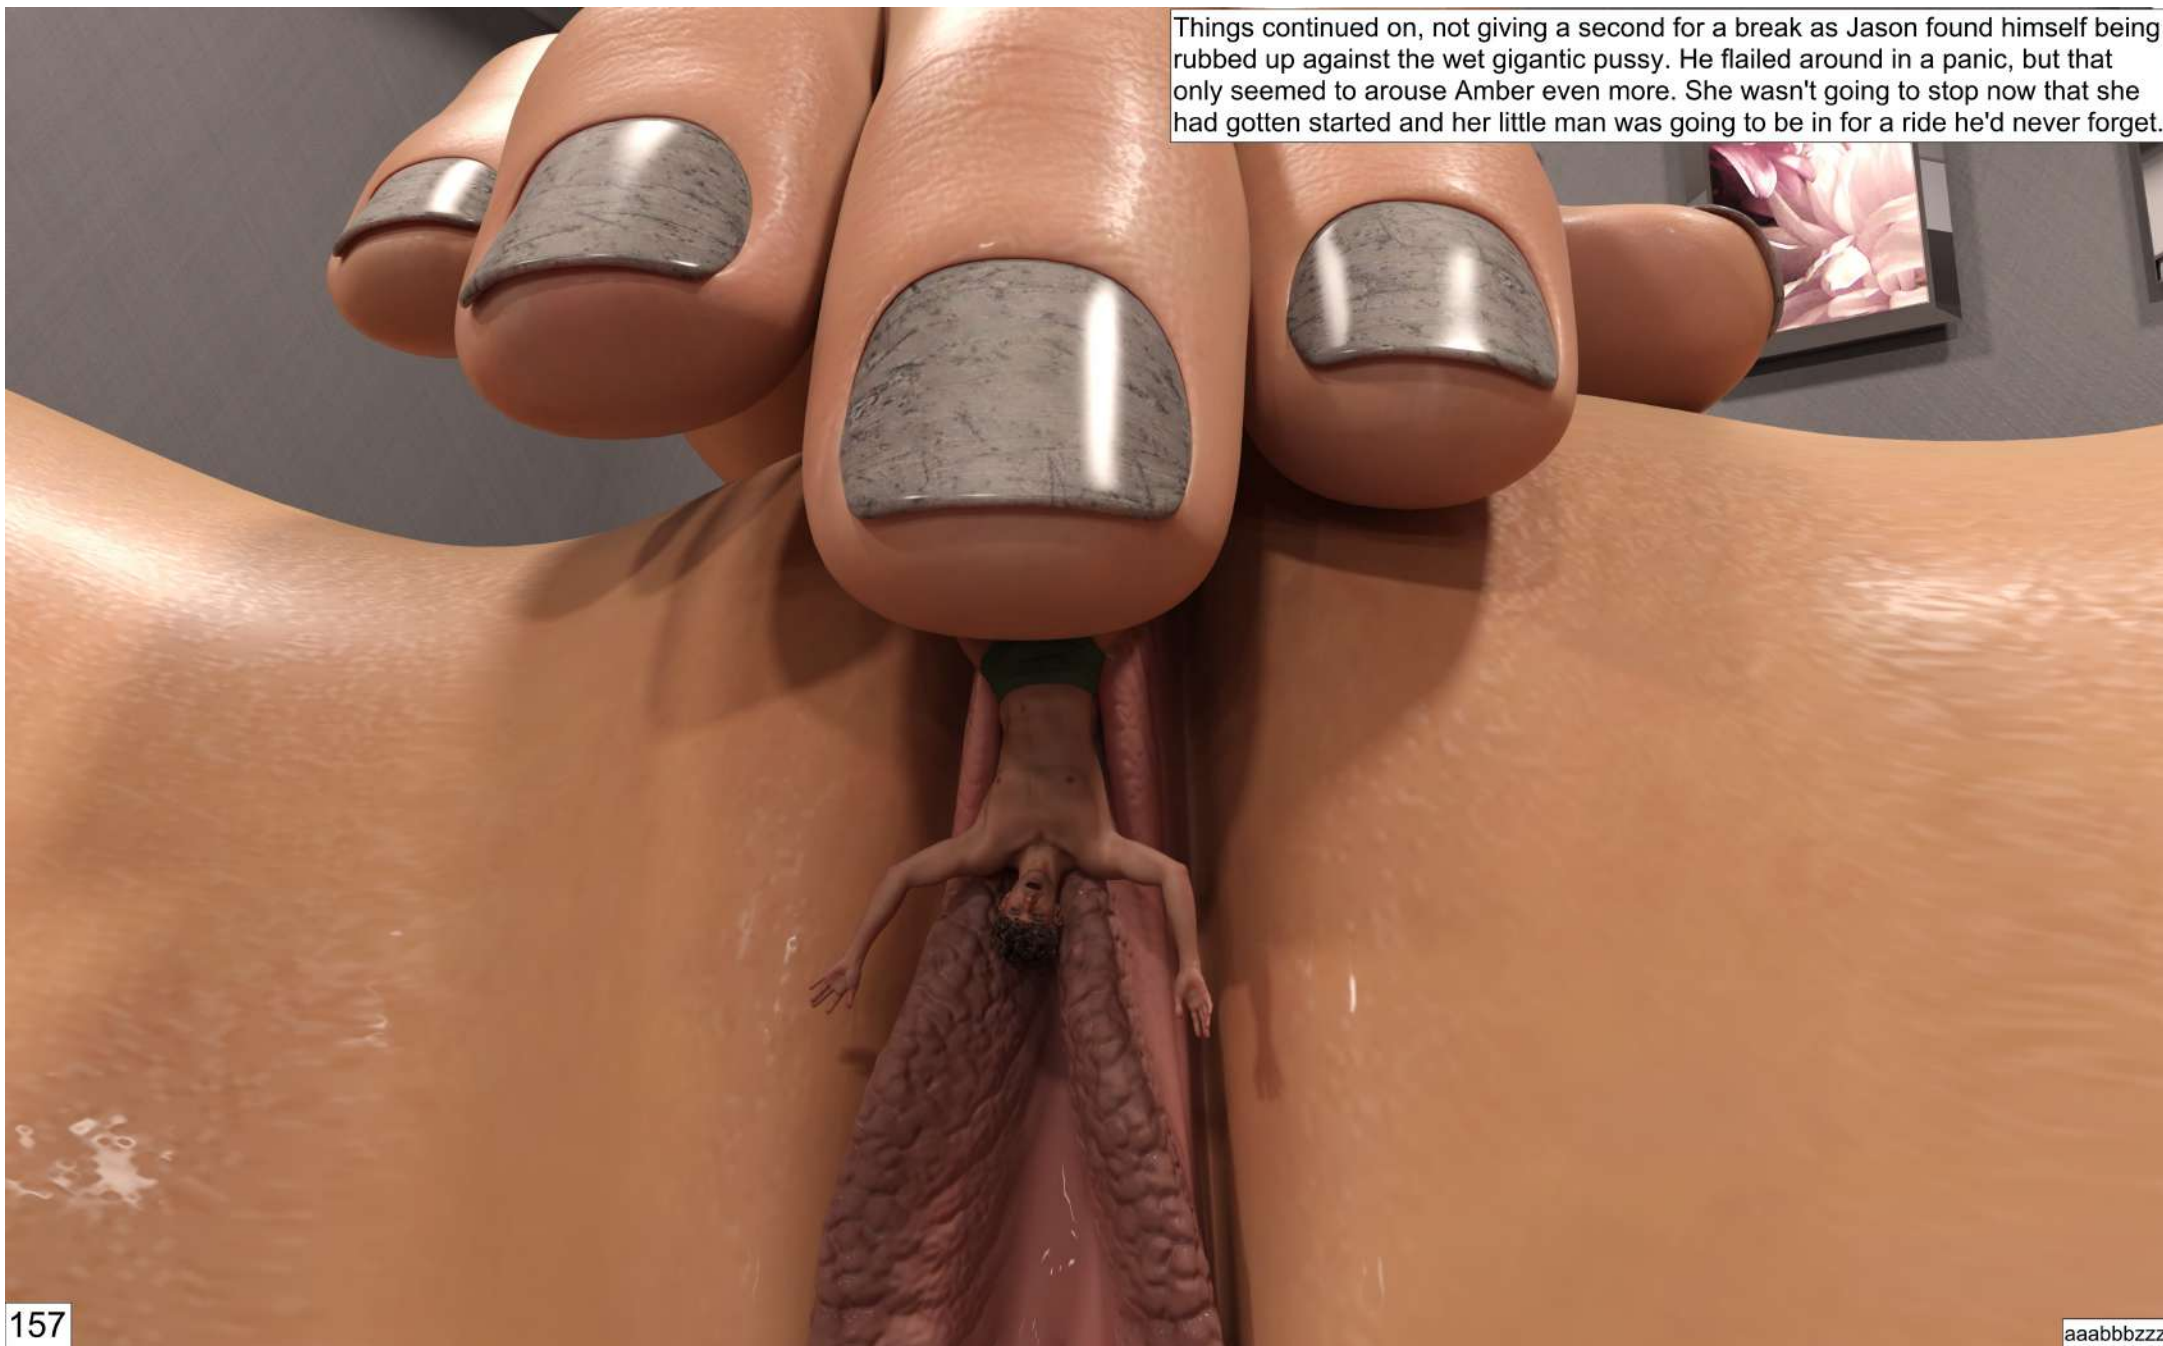

Oh you're getting so close now, I can almost taste it. I don't know if I can control myself, the excitement has been hard to contain. You better be ready for what's to come next tiny one. Because what I do next will require more effort on your part compared to that little climb.

Without any warning, Amber took complete control of the situation as she pinned the shrunken man's body to hers and dragged him towards her vagina. This took minimal effort as each of her fingers were gigantic compared to Jason. He started to scream out, wondering for the first time whether this could of been a bad idea.

Things continued on, not giving a second for a break as Jason found himself being rubbed up against the wet gigantic pussy. He flailed around in a panic, but that only seemed to arouse Amber even more. She wasn't going to stop now that she had gotten started and her little man was going to be in for a ride he'd never forget.

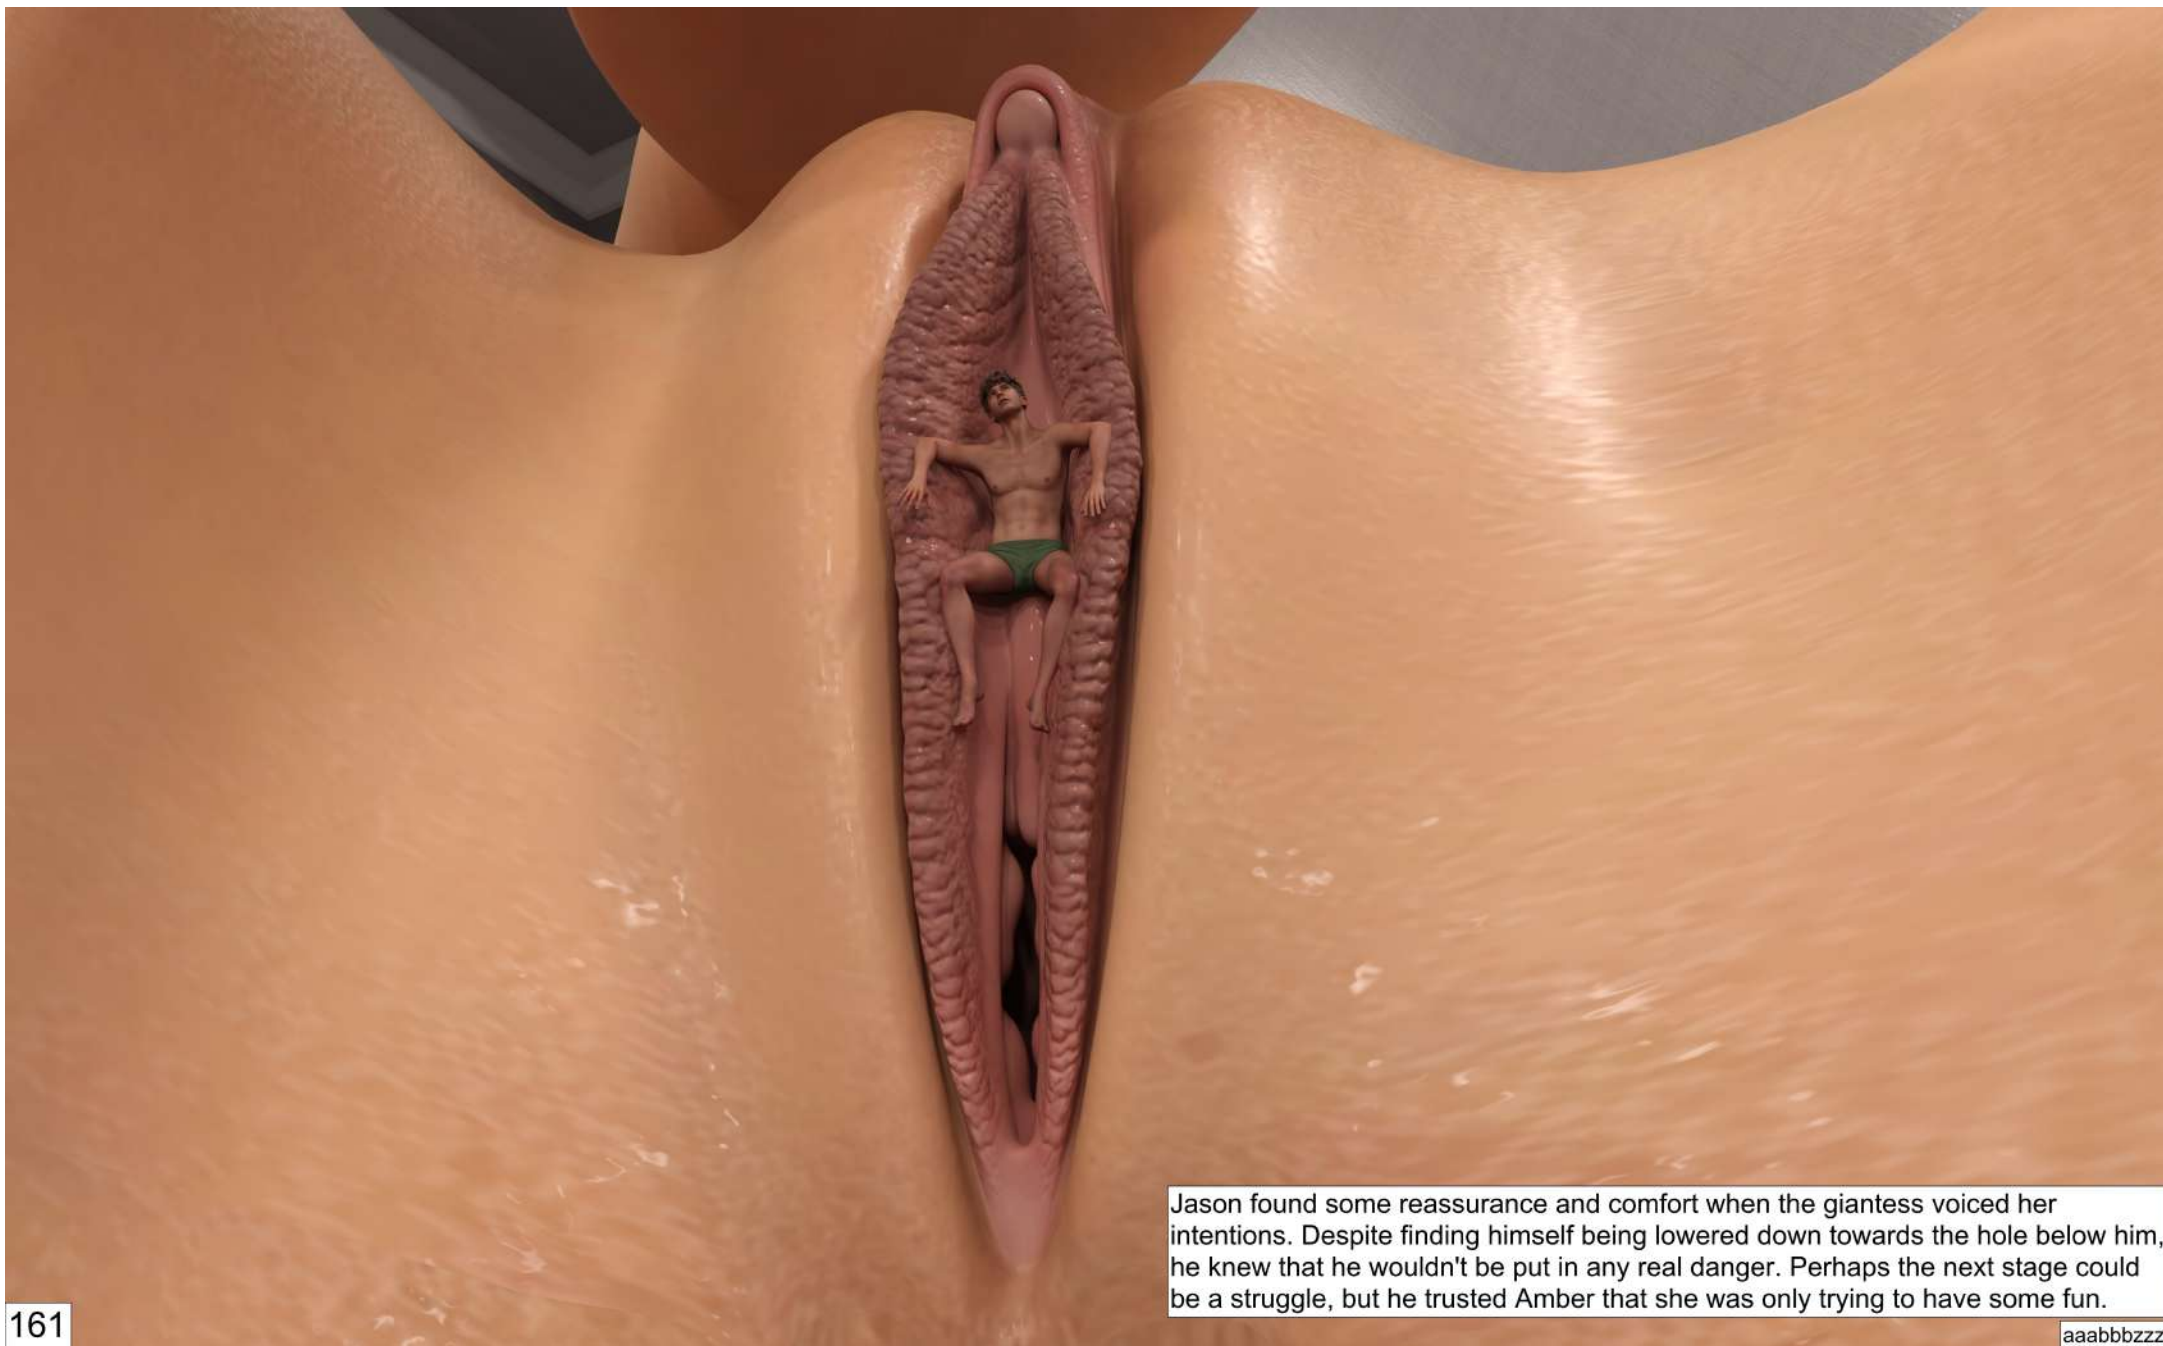

Oh my god fuck yes! Feeling your little body squirm down there is what I've been waiting for. The sensation is so amazing and I can't wait to see how far you'll push my body. Luckily I'll be assisting you because I know it would be impossible to satisfy a woman my size in your current state.

The little guy held on tightly to the slick surface, rubbing her clit with his tiny hands as Amber's fingers pulled away for a moment. He was now realizing how much of a task he was taking on. Being so up close and personal with the giantess showed their size differences in a way he didn't understand until he was in this position.

Are you enjoying yourself down there my tiny pet? This is probably not what you expected when I offered to bring you back to my room.
But I'm still going to keep my promise. I'll be gentle and you'll be fine. That doesn't mean it could get a bit scary down there though.

Jason found some reassurance and comfort when the giantess voiced her intentions. Despite finding himself being lowered down towards the hole below him, he knew that he wouldn't be put in any real danger. Perhaps the next stage could be a struggle, but he trusted Amber that she was only trying to have some fun.

Okay now the real fun begins, in you go little one. I want you to dive inside me and squirm as if your life depends on it. Only that will be what it takes to pleasure me with that tiny body of yours. Roll around and stimulate me in whatever creative way you got, now is your chance to show me your worth.

Being pushed in without a chance, the shrunken man had no choice but to do what might make Amber happy. The dark interior instilled fear into him as he listened to her advice and flailed around as if he might die in here. Although he was quite small, the giantess felt every touch he gave her.

Amber let off her fingers for a moment, allowing the little man to take over. She wanted to see what he could do all by himself as he kicked and banged around inside her vagina. Somehow Jason was able to have some luck. His determination was enough to cause pleasure and drive the giantess further into a dreamlike state.

Yes that's it my little plaything, keep that up! I don't know how it's even possible for someone that size to do this, but it is unreal! Don't you dare start to slack or else, this is what I need. Stay down there and squirm harder for me while I touch myself some more.

Nothing could of ever prepared Jason for this experience as he found himself getting tossed around inside the gigantic vagina. Despite his desire to satisfy Amber, he didn't know how much more of this he could take. The humid environment almost seemed to suffocate him and the ways her walls contracted and squeezed his tiny body made him feel like his well-being was forgotten about.

Fuck me! This is going to make me cum!
Can't you feel it in there? Whatever you're doing it's working, so now is the time to take it even further. Push me over the edge and make me scream, I'm almost there and can't stop myself from reaching it now.

Finally after what seemed like an eternity of bliss, Amber reached the peak of her excitement. Her full body shuddered as a powerful climax vibrated throughout every inch of her. It was astounding that Jason could make her feel this certain type of way, bringing her to an orgasm that other unwilling little ones couldn't. This seemed like a dream come true and she rode out the feeling, savoring it until it was eventually gone.

A surreal illustration of a tiny man with dark skin and curly hair, wearing a small white loincloth, standing inside a giant, realistic-looking vagina. The vaginal walls are pink and fleshy, with visible folds and a moist texture. The surrounding skin is a light tan color. A speech bubble from the top left contains text.

That was nothing short of amazing. I can't believe someone so tiny could make me feel so fucking good. Now I think you've earned yourself a reward for being such a good boy. Come on out now little guy, you're free to get out of there.

Lifting her hips to assist the tiny man, Amber could feel his body tumble out onto the mattress. As much as she wanted another round of that amazing pleasure, she wanted to show her appreciation. Jason had accomplished an impossible task and now it was time to get what he earned.

Jason looked up in awe as the giantess repositioned herself in a way that displayed her body perfectly. Her massive tits pointed out towards him as Amber gave him a minute to allow him to admire this sight. Knowing that he had completed the task of satisfying her made him beyond excited for what she would do with him next.

Well just look at you now, drenched in my juices and breathing so heavily. That was quite a performance, I bet you didn't know you had it in you didn't you? Maybe if you'd like you can stay with me instead of going back to that little city of yours.
Doesn't that sound like a fun idea?

But I'm not going to let you decide on that just yet. First I want you to have a taste of the ultimate pleasure that I can bring you. How about it little guy, are you ready for it? You've been waiting patiently for this moment so far, so let's not play around and get right to it.

Hearing these words brought quite a bit of excitement to the shrunk man, but at the same time he had no idea what Amber actually would do. As he dangled from her fingertips his body started to become aroused in anticipation for what the giantess might do to bring his fantasy to life.

The night so far must of been an experience to remember forever, but I'm going to take that to the next level by sucking you off with this gigantic mouth of mine. That's right, I'm going to make you explode over and over until you can't take it anymore.
When we finally go to sleep you'll be drained of every drop of cum.

Immediately there was a rush of blood heading towards Jason's private area as he learned of what the giantess intended to do with him. This isn't what his first thoughts were of what Amber might do, but he loved the thought of it so much that by the time when he made contact with her lips he was as hard as a rock.

Although he was so small, Amber knew exactly how to work her little guy's body. Things started off a little slow, but she could tell that he was already enjoying himself. This was a moment of time beyond Jason's wildest dreams and he couldn't believe it was actually happening.

Now don't be afraid, I know it seems like I could swallow you so easily, but that's only part of the fun. What I really want from you though is to just enjoy yourself. If you need to pop in a few seconds you do it, it's your orgasm. But if you are able to ride it out, I bet you'll find it worth resisting just a bit to build it up.

Using just her tongue from this point on, Amber pulled her shrunken man into the dark environment of her mouth. The air around Jason was incredibly warm and humid, but that wasn't what was important. How the giantess played with him was what brought the most excitement. She started to suck on his tiny body like a piece of candy, stimulating him in ways that he never thought were possible.

From here there was no going back as Jason found himself trapped. Amber's lips toyed with him, pulling him in and out while flicking her tongue all over his minuscule body. Just as he thought, being dominated by such a playful giantess felt amazing. Even after she caused him to blow his load once, Amber didn't stop. She continued to suck on him, bringing him pleasure that never stopped. It would be some time before she would be done having her way with him and so the two continued their fun together as the night went on.
