EMMA'S ORDEAL

It's been six months since Emma's virginity was taken live on national television. Since then, she has become the most demanded slave girl across the European continent. The Slavery Bureau, of course, would not disappoint its patron's requests. For the past few months, she has been shipped from one wealthy estate to another, performing filthy deeds in order to please her customers. Emma's popularity soon caught the attention of the higher-ups of The Slavery Bureau, and they have something special planned for her...

"What do we have here, agents?"

"Sir, apparently these men were playing a new game called Aim for the Cum; first you cum all over a slave girl's body, then you throw cigarette butts on the cum and see who can get the most cigarette stuck on her body. The winner gets to take the slave girl home and keep her until a new guy wins the game."

"Very interesting. look how filthy she is... we will have to work extra hard to clean her up. No worry; we have seen worse..."

When a slave girl spends most of her time fucking, many needs would go neglected. Emma' armpits and pubic area were covered with hair. The Bureau didn't like this.

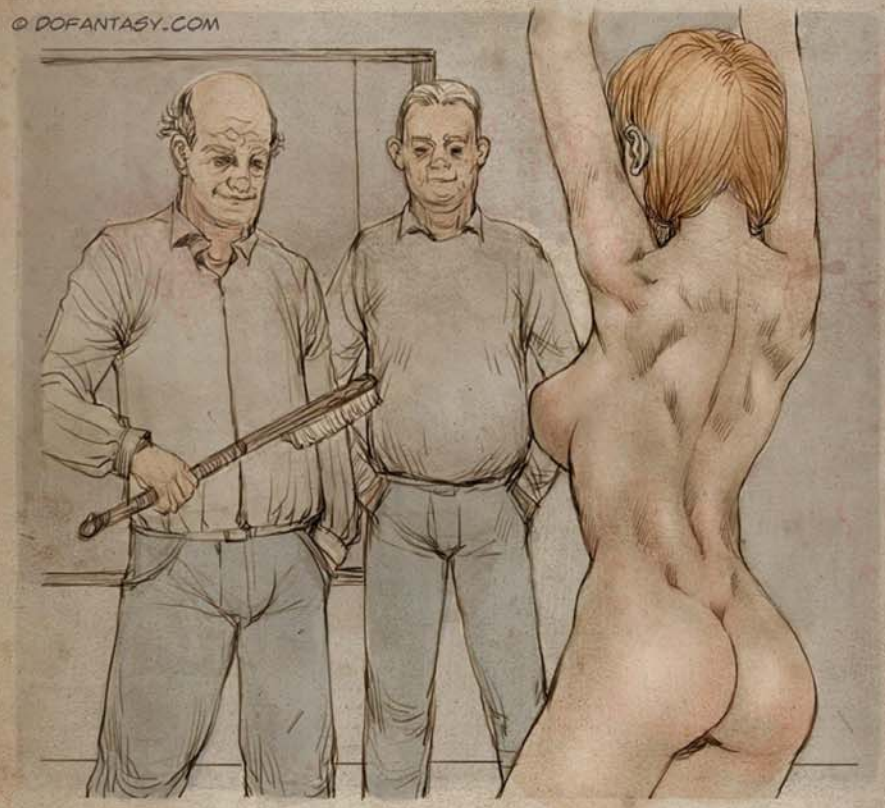

"We will have to take care of this wild bush of yours, slave. We want to see your pussy completely exposed instead of hiding beneath some nasty pubic hair. But who knows... maybe some people like this sort of stuff. Maybe we will collect your shaved hair into a jar, and sell it to your customer as some sort of souvenir? Might fetch a high price, too!"

Shaving cream mixed with deep pore cleansing solution was applied to Emma's pubic area and the worker pressed the sharp razor against Emma's skin; the shaving was done clearly by a pair of experience hands and before long, Emma's pussy was smooth and clean again.

"Now this is the sweet, young pussy everyone loves to see...!"

Upon arriving at the new facility, Emma, like many other slave girls already there, is thoroughly cleaned so the inspectors may have a better look at her. Though degrading and extremely humiliating, this was actually the first real shower Emma has had for months. She might actually have enjoyed it if the hair on the brush wasn't so coarse. Naturally, the inspectors brushed the girls with total disregard of comfort... to them, it's a fun job and an excellent form of entertainment.

Each slave girl selected for the advanced program is then very carefully inspected to ensure there is no physical flaw or imperfection that might otherwise distract the customers from a completely satisfactory experience. With her big tits and fat vagina lips, the inspectors gave Emma their seal of approval without much hesitation.

After the physical inspection was completed, the girls are given a male subject to assess their oral sex skills. On top of that, each slave girl's obedience level is also tested by a special feature the male subjects present: The Slave Bureau purposely not let these men clean their penis for weeks, so layers of thick, foul smegma has been built up on their penises.

A properly trained slave girl would lick off the disgusting smegma without protest or hesitation. Emma, however, simply wasn't able to bring herself to this act... the smell was simply unbearable and she had to turn her head away.

She might not know it yet, but the inspectors have observed her lack of obedience level. It would be included in the reports and a rigorous training schedule would be developed to address this condition.

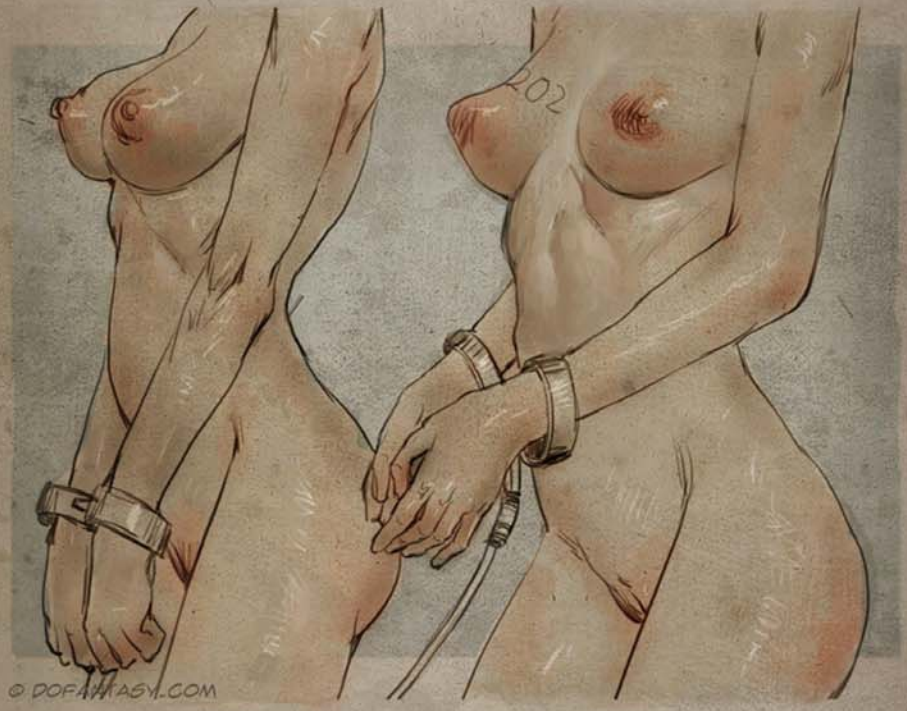

"Be a stupid cunt and turn your head away all you want... what we're gonna do to you later will be so much worse, when we're done with you, you will be swallowing galleons of cum at a snap of our fingers. You will even beg us to let you swallow it."

The terrible new slave training program would test Emma's body and spirit to the limits, but she was not alone; hundreds of young girls from every part of the continent went through the same ordeal. They were told how lucky they were because only the most popular sex slaves were selected for the program. Not a single girl was smiling, however.

As usual, they aren't allowed any kind of clothing to cover themselves except the handcuffs around our wrists. It didn't take much to remind them that they were no loner human beings, but livestocks and properties.

Like Emma, every girl's family's locked up somewhere in one of the many labor camps. The girls must remember to do well here or their family could face starvation or be physically punished. If a girl is kicked out of the program, her entire family would be executed. Emma now must work hard to be an obedient slave to keep her family alive for another day...

ETERNAL SUFFERING

SOLITARY CONFINEMENT

Immediately after completing the gruesome sex slave training program at the House of Tears, Emma was purchased by a wealthy and powerful government official. Her service was supposed to spare her family from the worst conditions at the labor camp, and to keep her younger sister, Sara, from also becoming a sex slave.

Things quickly took a very bad turn when Emma foolishly refused a particularly disgusting command Her master, a prominent political figure used to having everything his way, became extremely furious, forcing the facility to take back Emma and refund the purchase.

Emma, who had brought great shame to the state-sanctioned slave training facility, faced the worst fate imaginable: a life of permanent solitary confinement in a dirty water cell.

Standing thigh-deep in a pool of disgustingly stale water, wrists tightly restrained behind her back, She was kept alive with moldy bread crumbs, and the occasional supply of fresh water when the guards decided to take a piss into her cell.

Because of her failure, her sister was to become a sex slave as well, and her family's workload at the labor camp was tripled...

THE ETERNAL SUFFERING

Eventually, Emma's previous owner had a change of heart, and had her released from the confinement.

"It appears that your fat tits saved your life, 2579."

"Your former master took pity on your huge tits and didn't wanted to see them rot in a stinky hole in the ground. We were asked to throw you back into the slave training program and turn you into a proper dick-sucking, ass-licking whore."

"Ever since your dismal performance, we have been hard at work on a new program designed to turn even the most resilient bitch into a proper slave. After we're done testing it on you, we'll implement it into the regular training program."

"From now on, every second of your life will be filled with pain. We will torture you endlessly and continuously. We will make you forget what it's like not living with pain, and when you are near your absolute limit... then we will begin fucking you. We will fuck your ass, your cunt, and we will make you cum like crazy. You will beg us to fuck you again and again because that sweet orgasm will be your only relief."

"Welcome to the Eternal Suffering,

COLLATERAL

"I believe you recognize her? That's your sister, Say your farewell, 2579. You will never see her again after today. She will become a sex slave just like you, and there is nothing you can do to change that."

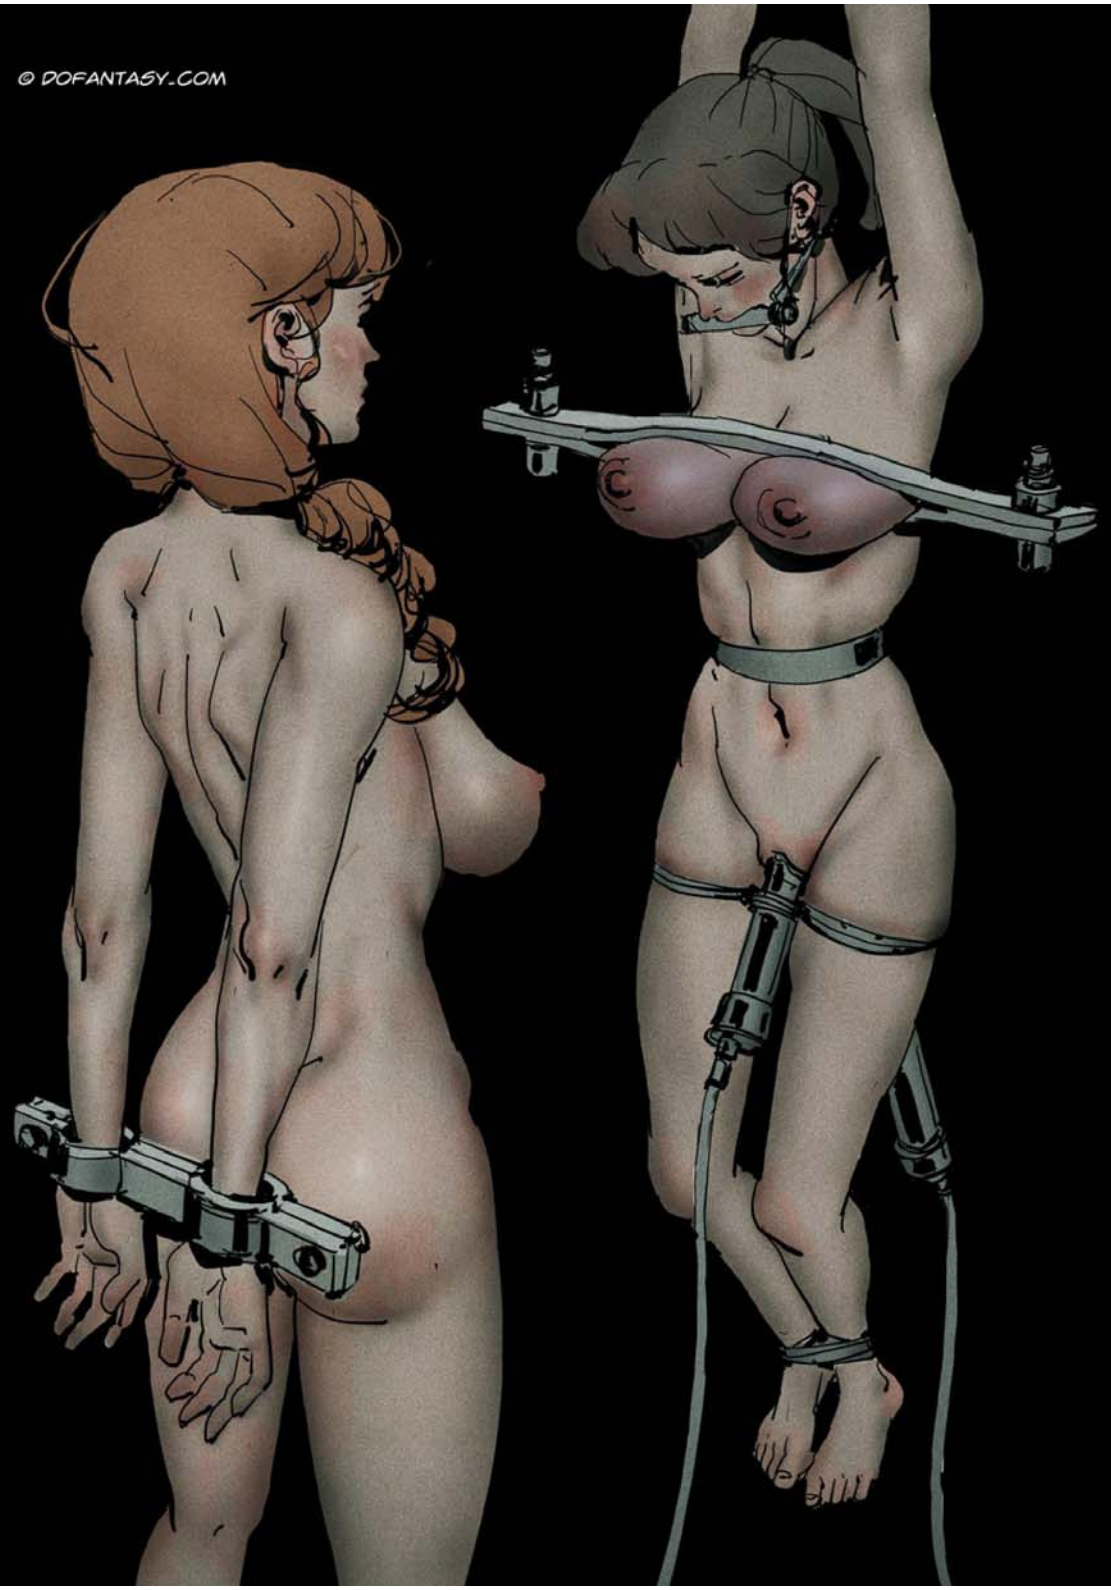

"There are many buyers in Asia lining up to purchase her. We have sold many girls to these guys in the past, and judging by the photos they sent back to us, trust me... being sold to these men is a fate much worse than death. If it is of any reassurance, we will find you an equally sadistic master, so your sister won't be the only one living out the rest of her life in unimaginable misery."

"Every day while you are in the program, your sister will be suspended in midair like this, with a huge vice cutting off blood circulation to her tits. Once they've turned completely blue, we will loosen the vise, let those tits rest for a few minutes, then we'll clamp it back on again."

"If you perform well in the program, we will do our best to ensure that your sister will be treated well for at least two weeks after she begins her service... If you fuck up, though... we will make sure your sister is treated ten times worse at the hands of her new master."

GETTING CLEANED UP

Key areas of Emma's body, such as her pussy and asshole, were scrubbed with industrial-grade brushes; the specially designed material of the brush was flexible enough not to break the skin, but still tough enough to scrub off months worth of filth. Her pubic hair, which obstructed our view to her pussy, was completely shaved off as well.

Even after Emma's body had been thoroughly cleaned, the scrubbing did not stop for another two hours. The guards performed the cleaning routines in a robotic fashion, ignoring Emma's tearful plea. Then, they decided to make things more interesting.

"Having your cunt scrubbed like this... must feel really good, am I right? Rumor has it that you were one of the horniest girls we ever had... I bet you thought about men fucking you all the time while you were down there. You must be really glad that you are gonna become a sex slave again."

"Tell you what, why don't we be the good guys for once and make you happy? We are gonna scrub your wet twat until you cum 50 times. Then, we will scrub each of your nipples with the same brush until you cum 50 times. Finally, we will shove this brush deep into your asshole, and make you cum

THE NEW UNIFORM

The new slave program took the idea of constant suffering seriously.

Emma's new slave uniform was made from an air-tight fabric coated with an organic compound that, once it came into contact with skin, would function as a form of adhesive, making it incredibly difficult to remove. The fabric was also lined with tiny metal spikes designed to cause great discomfort to the wearer.

To make matters worse for Emma, the guards applied an exotic skin ointment within the fabric. The balm's main component was derived from a compound commonly found in crab meat. Within seconds, signs of allergic reaction appeared on Emma's skin.

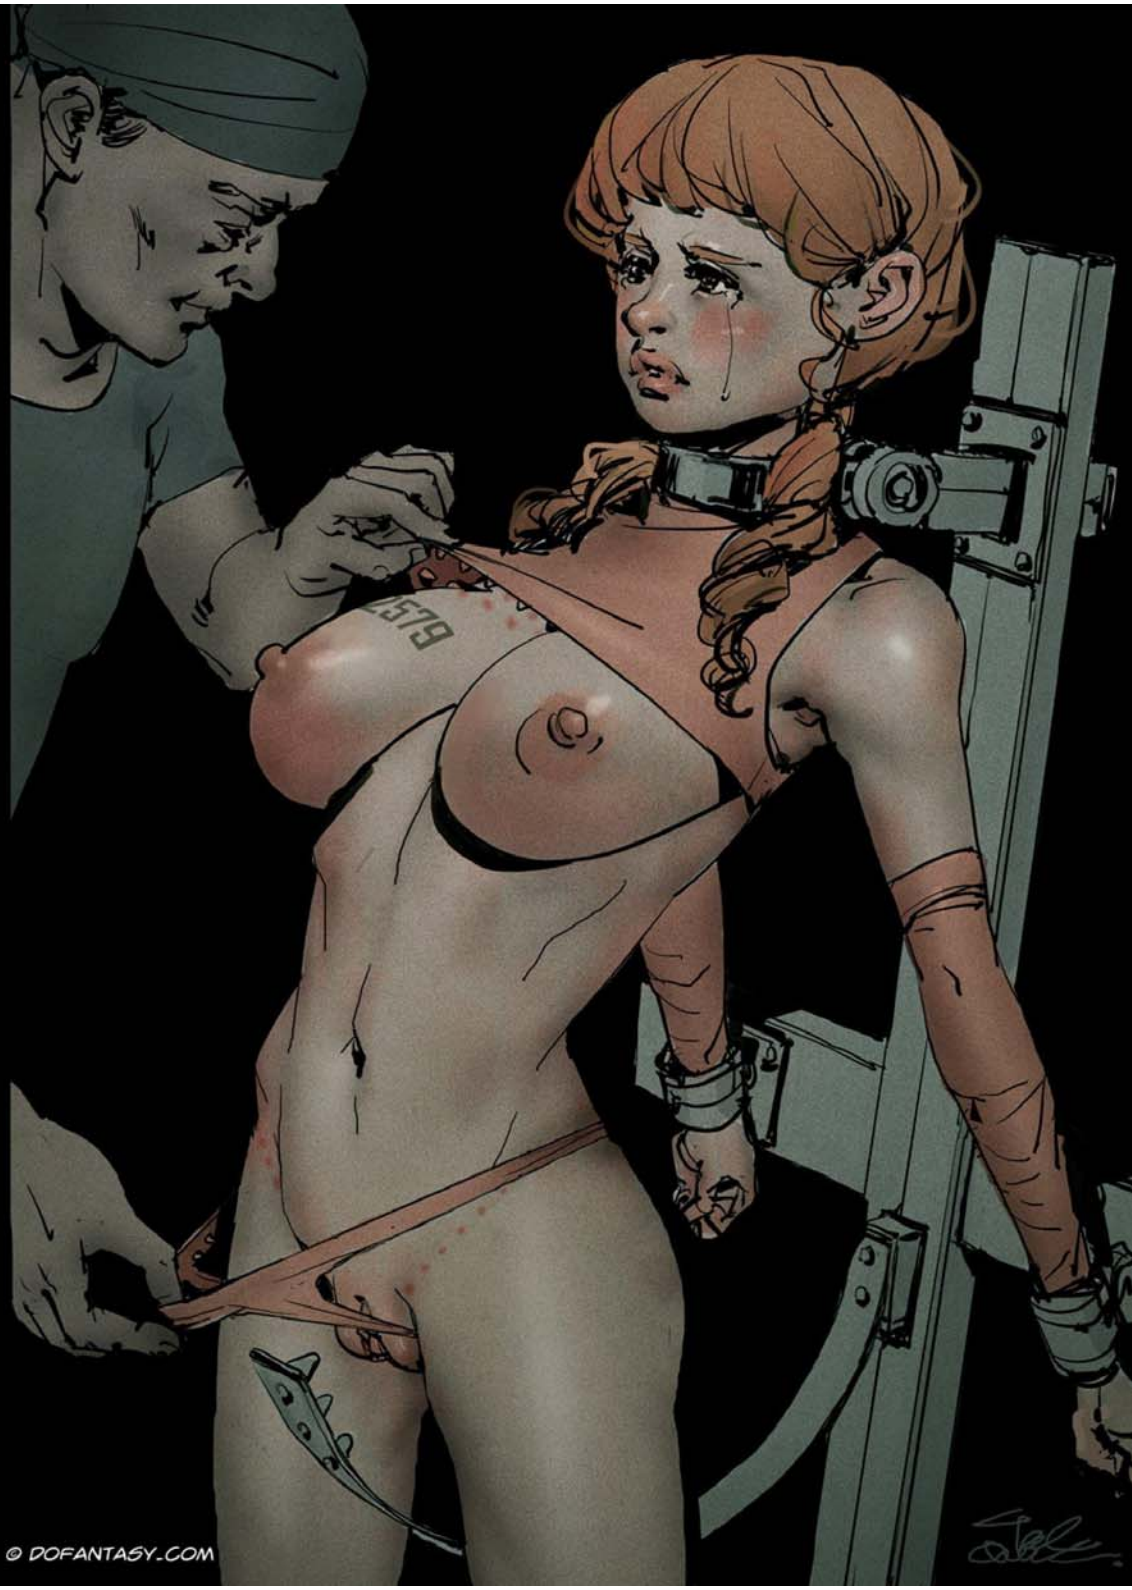

Even though she knew her plea for mercy would be ignored, Emma had to try...

"Please... sir, I haven't had any real food for months, and I haven't been allowed to rest... "

"Food? Rest? Listen to yourself... still thinking that you are a human being? Just for asking that, you deserved additional punishment!"

Another terrible mistake from Emma... for that, the guards slapped her pussy until it became completely swollen.

URINARY CONTROL

"From now on, pissing is a luxury only afforded you when you have performed well in the program. Get used to carrying your own piss for days... from now on you will be allowed to piss only once a week. And that is assuming you don't fuck up that week!

"We will control your pissing by shoving this big metal rod into your piss hole. It is quite thick, so trust me when I tell you that not a single drop of piss is gonna escape your pathetic bladder once this baby goes inside. We've also made a special modification to the rod just for you, Miss Mandel...

"We've attached a small balloon on the interior end of the rod. After getting it inside of your bladder, we will inflate it with a special pump. Once inflated, it will decrease your bladder's capacity by ninety percent.

"See these tiny barbs at the end of the rod? They will act as one of the several punishment methods available to us. Should we deem it necessary, we will push the rod and let the barbs scrape your bladder wall. It is really gonna hurt. Trust me... doing this just once will make you scream so much that you will permanently lose your voice. And I can't wait to see it happen."

AN UNPLEASANT GIFT

Since the rod needed to be extracted in order for her to pee, Emma would need to go through the same process every week just to keep her bladder from rupturing from excessive accumulation of her own piss.

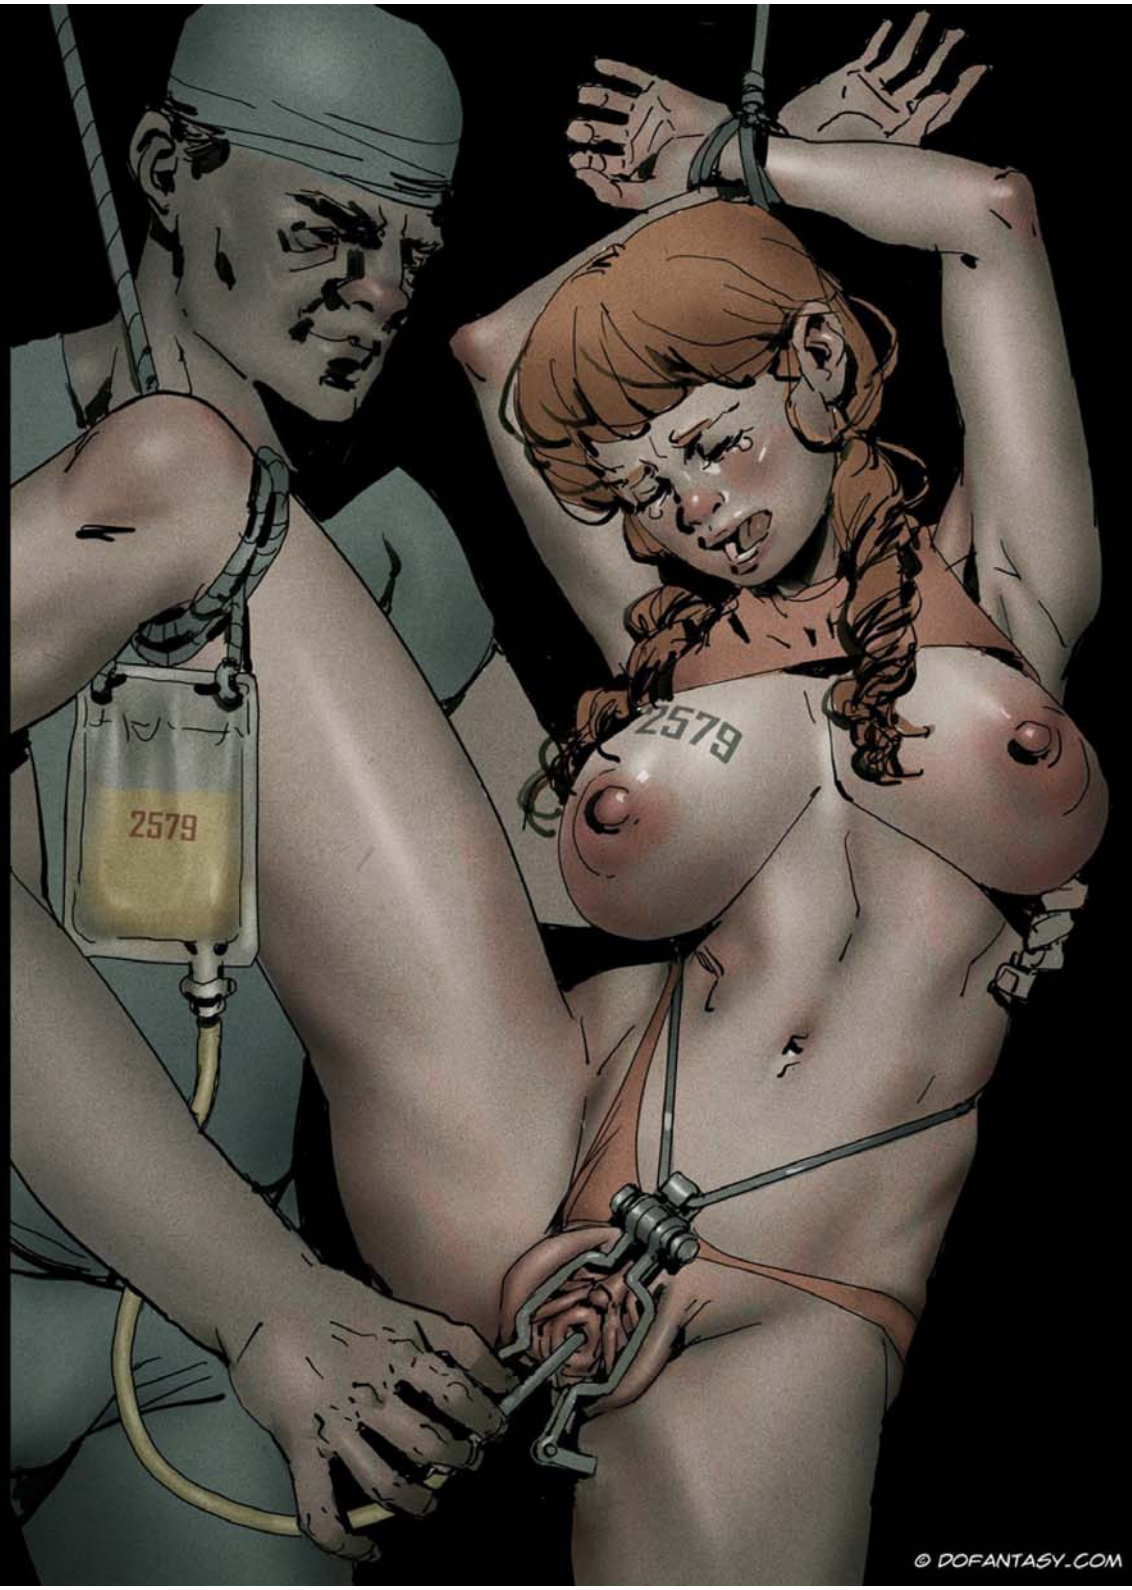

Occasionally, Emma's previous owner, who was still mad at her disobedience, would send in a few bags his own piss, so the guards could inject them into Emma's bladder.

"You were supposed to treat every drop of precious bodily fluid from a man as a sacred gift from heaven anyway, since our piss had been the only thing you were allowed to drink since the day you became a slave...

"By the way, you were expected to express your most sincere appreciation for receiving your old master's warm and nutritious urine at the end of each session. Last week, however, you passed out before you could utter a single word of gratitude... this fuck-up would not go unpunished.

"This is why we are adding a healthy dose of coagulant into the urine this time, so when you finally get to piss it out next week, it will come out like snot. The piss in your bladder will become so thick that it will take you at least two hours to expel it all."

HORRIBLE TOYS

"A good slave's cunt should be able to handle anything thrown at it. And we have a large selection of tools for that purpose.

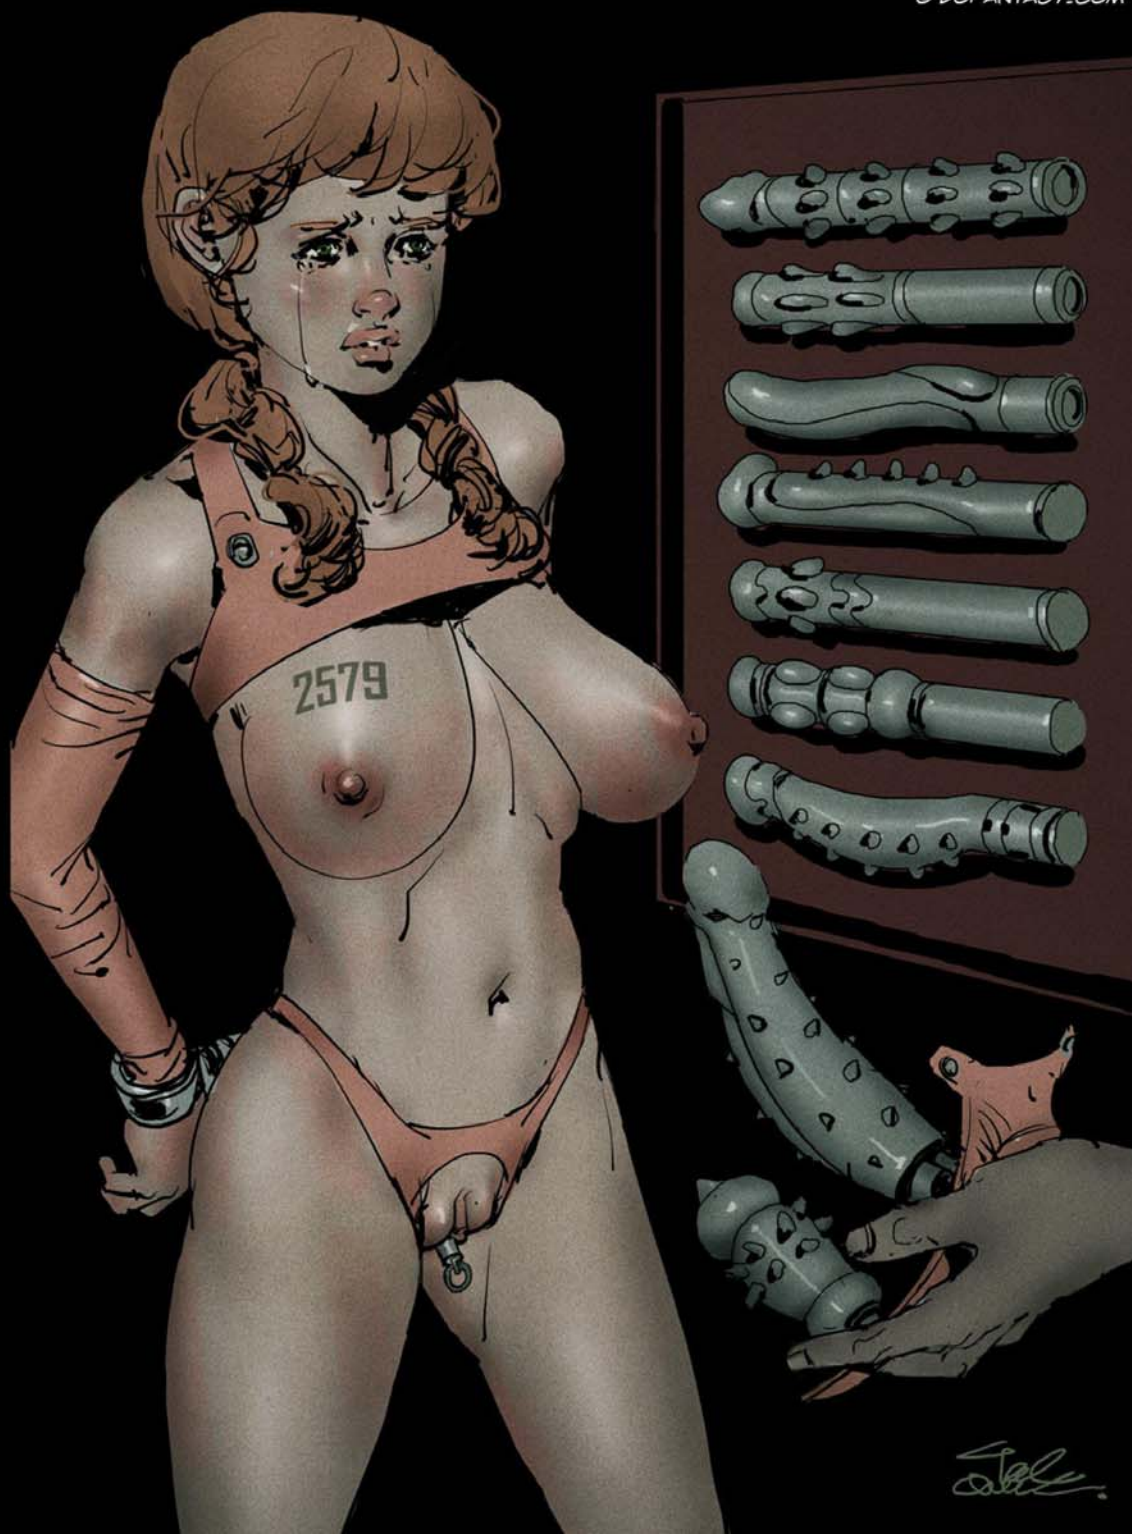

"Since you are no longer a virgin, you don't have virginity to sell... and that means we can do whatever we want to your worthless twat.

"When your pussy isn't getting fucked, we will stuff it with at least one dildo at all times. Don't worry about your stupid cunt becoming too loose from excessive amount of penetration. Our surgeons will perform a reconstruction surgery on your pussy to restore its firmness before you are returned to your old master.

"If you think you might actually enjoy us ramming your pussy with these oversized sex toys, you couldn't be more wrong. These magnificent monstrosities were designed to hurt, not to please. I think you've already figured that out by the way they look... yes?

"Finally, we wouldn't call ourselves professional slave trainers if we neglected your rear end. For now, enjoy this delicious butt plug. But rest assured, we have something much sweeter planned for your colon in the near future..."

DEEP PENETRATION

A typical vaginal penetration training session would last about three to four hours. During the session, a wide variety of dildos were used so the slave could become accustomed to the size and feel of each. Vaginal training such as this was vital to the success of a slave girl, who would definitely be required to serve many of her master's guests and friends with all types of penises surgically enhanced penises

After months of training, a slave girl's pussy would inevitably become loose and it was very possible for her to actually derive pleasure from the training process. Therefore, starting last year, all vaginal training instruments were fitted with The Wicked Arrows. These arrowhead-shaped devices were designed to penetrate the cervix, causing such pain that no orgasm was possible during the training. With enough pressure, the arrow could easily touch the wall of the uterus, causing additional pain.

"Don't be scared, 2579. Even though you are just a worthless slave, we still need your womb intact so it could store your master's cum. Now, stop wasting time and give these dildos a good thrust like we instructed. We have about a dozen of these to go through this morning!"

FUN WITH THE PILLOWS

"For the new training program to work, we must first identify the roots of your disobedience. Did those jugs drive men around you crazy? Did you enjoy the attention? That was definitely the source of your sense of entitlement. In that case, we will do everything we can to make you hate your big tits instead.

"Let's start with the Pillow Crushers. These babies were designed specifically for girls with huge tits. As the metal plates are being pressed down, the corners of the plate would dig into your fat tits, making you feel very uncomfortable in the first few minutes, and extremely painful after a few hours.

"Since the plates are made of metal, we could also run electricity through them, giving you the kind of unimaginable pain would make any girl piss herself. But you know that we have complete control over your urinary function, so that won't be a problem.

"The excessive pressure from the plates really accentuates your nipples. Look how hard and erect they have become. I think now is the perfect time for some additional nipple training, with some very special tools..."
