

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 3)

...Someone may say that only full losers can be a virgin at 21 ... Maybe there is something in it ... But not every virgin begins his sexual way with a juicy blowjob ... Especially since this blowjob does chic bimbo ...

- Mr. Impey, what can you say? Will Danny help us to beat the Wasp?

- Hmm, Annie, just look at him ... Not only a wasp ... I think now he is ready to climb naked into a beehive to get honey ... Honey for you, Miss Heels ... Ha-ha...

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 4)

...- Miss Swanson, I'll honestly tell you - I really didn't expect such a great result... The implants found their home place, as if your body was born for them!... The wound heals faster than one could imagine ... So I hope that the scar will soon become completely invisible... I don't like to brag, but this time I am really proud of my work ...

...The baby winced, as the doctor's cold hands touched her renewed backside ... Up to this point Anna's thoughts were far from this room ... She did not hear this doctor's winning speech at all... The poor thing tried to escape from the annoying mother's voice inside, which for some reason came back to her again immediately after the surgery ... So strange ... She was sure that she had long ago got rid of this madness ... But a small splinter of doubt still sat somewhere deep ... very very deep inside her... This splinter didn't let her enjoy her new plastic life ... It made the little slut feel guilty ... But why? !!!

... "What am I doing wrong? Mom, I'm already an adult girl! And my body is MY BODY!!! What is wrong with trying to be a little better ?! ... "A Little"? Just look at yourself! There is nothing of yours left in you ... only fake, fake, fake!!!! You're a fake doll, just a fake doll!!"

- Miss Swanson! Are you all right?

- A FAKE DOLL! I'm a fake doll! Mr. Malkovich could you hear it?

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 5)

...These sculpted cheekbones definitely made Anna's face a few years older ... But at the same time, this face now looked much more attractive and even aristocratic ... Step by step ... less and less remained in this face from a little innocent girl who left her homeland in search of a better life ... Like it was a new human constructed by the will of fate and the achievements of modern cosmetology and plastic surgery...

... Annie looked at herself and immediately fell silent ... in one second her whole vocabulary evaporated from the smart brains... (and all this despite the fact that a couple of minutes ago, the baby excitedly discussed with Dr. Malkovich the influence of Victor Hugo on the development of literature in the second half of the 19th century)...

- Miss Swanson, as you can see, the swelling and bruises still remain, but this is pretty normal ... Just one week and everything would be perfect, trust me, young lady...

"A whole week????!!! Oh Lord!" - it was absolutely unbearable for the plastic princess to wait another week ... her rested body already required another adventures...

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 6 (1/3))

...Danny was completely confused again... All the time when he was next to Anna, he just did not know how to behave... Although when she was in the hospital, he developed real strategic operations, every step that needs to be done to put the naughty baby in place ... But all his plans collapsed in one second, when he saw her next to him ...

...Now the unfortunate boy could only watch as his beloved women was going crazy. He felt his utter impotence. He could not stop her, he could not influence her, he could not do anything at all ... This intelligent, promising girl was turning into a slut right before his eyes... But on the other hand, everything was burning inside Danny... He was constantly reiving his first blowjob ... it was too cool to forget ... he wanted to repeat, but such thoughts only scared him... The poor boy realized that he was completely uninteresting for Anna as a man...

- Danny, say a word! Tell me that my booty was born for these leggings!
Danny! My butts were made for shaking! He-he...

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 6 (part2/3))

...Someone may say that only full losers can be a virgin at 21 ... Maybe there is something in it ... But not every virgin begins his sexual way with a juicy blowjob ... Especially since this blowjob does chic bimbo ...

- Mr. Impey, what can you say? Will Danny help us to beat the Wasp?

- Hmm, Annie, just look at him ... Not only a wasp ... I think now he is ready to climb naked into a beehive to get honey ... Honey for you, Miss Heels ... Ha-ha...

Chapter X "Bad'ass" Part 6 (part3/3)

....- Wow! Danny! How did you find it? AAAHHHHH!!! I need my credit card! Urgently!

...Danny couldn't help but smile... he was sure beforehand that Anna would like these slutty pants ... It seems that in order to get to the heart of this crazy thing, you first had to start thinking like this crazy thing ... Now the enamored boy understood what his only chance was.

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 7)

...Anna continued her experiments with the slutty-gothic style ... Definitely the regular visitors of the nightclub enjoyed the previous version of this look ...

But after last upgrades and orders Miss Heels had the right to count on a great success ... (so much nerves, money and health was spent last weeks for this)...

- Mr. Impey, I absolutely didn't expect Danny to get involved in our battle against this damn city ... I feel he really understands my thoughts and needs...

- Oh, Annie, I myself didn't expect this from him ... Damn it... I'm still shocked by these slutty pants! I have a feeling that today we won't leave here without a pair of rolls of ever green paper!

(Just a few sips of Cola and Anna had already started talking to herself ... it could look funny from the outside ... but nevertheless, this strange conversation with a fictional friend always calmed the impressionable baby...)

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 8)

...Despite the fact that Anna had a pretty impressive collection of shoes&heels (she had to confirm her nickname), the little one could not restrain herself from buying a new pair (18 cm!!!) ...

It cost really crazy money - about $ 1000 ... But she was ready to spend the last to satisfy her passion ... The baby just could not live in peace after seeing them ... After all, these heels could really complement her gothic outfit ...

It was only one problem - moving in them was too hard ... too hard even for Miss Heels ... It was another obstacle in her bimbo stripper path, but Annie could not afford to step back ... Only forward! Always forward! GO GO!!!...

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 9)

...A bit nervous before representing her "new assets" in the public Miss Heels was ready to leave the vanity room ... but suddenly little Cassie stopped her near the exit ...

BTW it was Cassandra who first advised Anna to try the gothic look in her numbers ... Everyone in the W.A.S.P. knew: Cassie's brain really worked creatively in this way... She could be a good designer... And it's rather strange that she was only a dancer in a nightclub...

- Hey! Annie!!! I haven't seen you for ages!!! heard you were in hospital ...

- Almost... He-he... Glad to see you Cassandra...

- I hope this was not something serious!... You look pretty healthy... even more, Annie, you look amazing today! But... one thing... Don't hurry! I think you didn't guess with your lipstick... Let's try this one...

Chapter XI "The Bad'ass" Part 10

"Peter stop being shy! Be a man! Get this slut!!!" - drunken masculine cries drowned out even loud sounds of "Moulin Rouge" -

Anna pretended that she didn't like listening to such things, but actually these words didn't hurt the little slutty at all - Rather, on the contrary, these words made her even more confident, more horny... Inside herself Miss Heels celebrated victory as she felt like another male body next to her turns into a softened vegetable - An incredible feeling -

It looks like Peter had a bachelor party tonight...(Anna understood this from the drunken conversations of his friends) -

...Suddenly, something pinched her pierced ear -

"Annie, let's make this boy forget about his bride, let's break this wedding" "I feel there is something in it, Mr. Impey - I do not know why I need it, but I think I'm ready to try..."

Chapter XI "The Bad'ass" Part 11

.. The soft neon light relaxed and created an intimate atmosphere in the private room ...

However always shy and stressful Peter twitched and bit his lips, as if he was sitting on hot coals ... Why was he here? What did he forget here! Damn classmates! And this damn plastic bitch!!! Her emotionless plastic slutty face frozed in front of him... This face was much more appetizing and desirable than the face of his beloved Sophia (and why his Sophia does not go to a beautician ??? !!!)... after this strange thought, he suddenly realized that something very bad would happen now ... something completely dirty... and that he is not against it at all.

...Of course Anna saw this tangle of conflicting feelings in his deep blue eyes ... Fright, indecision, powerlessness and at the same time lust ... The young slut reveled in her superiority over her next defenseless male victim ... This amazing feeling completely enveloped her fake silicone body ... She didn't even think about the possible fee (probably it was the first such case in the history of W.A.S.P.) ... It wasn't really important now ... It was much more interesting for her to understand why this boy decided to marry at such a young age ... Perhaps it was a big and pure love? ... So funny and naive... "Now I will show him how the true love looks like... He-he !!!!"

PS : After Anna saw the stupid wedding photo with happy Mrs. Fowler on it, for some reason, she began to hate all the brides of the world...

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 12 (1/3))

Anna was slightly confused ... she did her best, but for some reason the sluggish dick in her clawed hand did not want to be filled with blood ... She could not even imagine that such a thing was possible ... Previously, all her men were instantly getting hard next to her ... Taking off his pants the baby was totally convinced that she was playing with her victim like a mature cat mocks the caught mouse ... but this time the mouse was strong enough to resist cat's lustful skills...

...In fact, it was just stress... and nothing more... Peter was afraid to move, to speak and even to take an extra breath...A whirlwind of different thoughts passed through his head ... He was sure that if he surrendered to this mad slut, he would destroy and betray his love in one moment (total idiot isn't he?) ... but at the same time, something inside prevented him from just getting up and leaving this f room... And each new friction of the cat's paw made his desire to stay here even stronger...

Chapter X "Bad'ass" (Part 12 (2/3))

...Jerk... Jerk... Jerk... still soft... jerk... jerk... jerk... nothing... Miss Heels was finally confused...

She variously played with half-erected dick but it didn't move on. Like this guy wasn't horny enough...

But why?!!! The Baby didn't understand what she was doing wrong and this fact could damage her self-esteem...

She felt how with every second she was starting up more and more ... even her pussy was already wet ... but f cock was still weak...spado???

Chapter XI

"THE NEW HEIGHTS"

Part 1

...The sharp needle slowly tore up the layers of epidermis, opening the way for hyaluronic acid ... Anna froze for a few seconds, and then very carefully pressed the plunger of 2ml syringe... She tried to do everything according to the instructions, but still it was a little painful ... Standing in front of her new vintage mirror (thanks to Danny for installing it) the baby clamped the syringe with her fingers like a heavy drug addict...

...It could look scary from the outside, but not for intrepid Annie!!! Miss Heels was really excited as today it was her first experience of self-injection ...

Of course, she could just visit her favorite "ZOOM" ... But one of the dancers in the club advised her to try new product, which price was much less than the usual "Guvederm" ... It seemed to be an interesting idea, especially since new skills can be useful in the future ... Maybe someday she'll decide to open her little beauty salon?...

Chapter XII

"THE NEW HEIGHTS"

Part 2

...Annie was already finishing up with her self-injections, when the thunderous snoring of tired Danny ruined the pleasant silence in her rented apartment...

...The baby shuddered in surprise and almost hurt her upper lip ... "What's the hell?!!!" "Danny!" She closed to the sofa to wake him up, but his face looked so pleased and peaceful that at the last moment Anna changed her mind... She suddenly felt sorry for her tired friend ... He really did a good job today ... He installed the mirror and even a training pole for her and he didn't need any help! everything was done by himself!!!

... And why does she not love him?

- Our Danny is a good boy, isn't Mr. Impey?

- I agree with you, Annie ... But we can make him a little better...???

...Annie slyly looked at the syringe in her right hand, then on the vial in the left ... and then again on her friend's funny face...

"Hmm ...and why not?"...
