1. Today, Kevin was asked to have a photoshoot with Lizzy again.

2. Unlike being 1 inch shorter than Lizzy in the last photoshoot, Kevin was now only doll-size. That was why even Lizzy could appear as a giantess to him now. He had no difficulty posing between her legs when he was only as tall as Lizzy's knees now.

3. "Are you finished already, Lizzy?" Yuki said as she came to check them out. Being 7'1 tall, Yuki easily dwarfed Lizzy's 2'7 body and she appeared gigantic to Kevin! Kevin was only as tall as Yuki's ankle in her heels.

4. "Just hope Kevin didn't cause you any trouble?" Yuki asked in a motherly tone. Yuki had treated Kevin like her child more after Kevin became infant size. "Don't worry. Kevin makes my photoshoot perfect. I can't believe I could be 'BIG' to someone one day." Lizzy said.

Both of them looked way down at Kevin. Kevin gulped at seeing both women looming over him. He felt tiny for realizing he could easily look under her skirts now.

5. Suddenly, Kevin's stomach growled. The sound was so loud that both Yuki and Lizzy heard it. "It seems the workload today is a bit too much for our little man." Yuki said with a smile. She carried Kevin to the couch beside and sat him on her lap. Yuki took out a bottle of milk from her bag. "I thought Mia was on a long trip?" Lizzy asked when she saw the milk.

Yuki gave Lizzy a mischievous smile, "It surprised us that it seemed I started lactation, maybe my body felt Kevin's need." She then skillfully held the bottle for Kevin to drink.

6. Not sure if Kevin's satisfied expression or milk's sweet aroma, Lizzy's stomach growled too. "Are you hungry too, Lizzy? I mean I still have many, or I have to discharge them later." Yuki suggested. Being a streamer, Lizzy was actually not resistant to anything strange.

Yuki smiled as she pulled her top down, craddling Lizzy skillfully so that Lizzy could suck on her nipple. Lizzy couldn't believe she would be fed by a young woman one day. The milk was more delicious than she expected and Lizzy was finally full after drinking all the milk from Yuki's single breast. "Good girl, Kevin had been full after only drinking half of that." Yuki said with a smile.

7. Yuki carried Kevin back home afterwards. Both of them removed their shoes. Kevin couldn't help but notice how big Yuki's feet were compared to his. He meant single of Yuki's foot should be as big as his whole body!

"Why don't you help me to remove my ankle bracelets when you are much closer there, Kevin?" Yuki commanded with a smile.

8. Kevin used all his strength to pull the ankle bracelet along Yuki's foot. He finally managed to do it, mainly thanks to Yuki's help. "Oh my god, my ankle bracelet looks to be much thicker than your body!" Yuki smiled to point it out. Kevin could see that even Yuki's ankle was much thicker than his whole body now!

9. "Let's have you on the bed." Yuki said, lifting Kevin effortlessly onto the bed. Yuki sat on the bed, extending her legs towards Kevin. Kevin could not help but stand against her foot; he was surprised to find that Yuki's foot was taller than him!

"Haha, I would say you are foot-size instead of doll-size more accurately." Yuki smiled to tease, realizing Kevin's whole body had disappeared behind her foot.

10. Kevin couldn't help but notice the small imperfections of Yuki's feet. At his size, he could see all the grooves and slightly calloused skin on her toes. That was the moment Yuki's big and second toes parted ways below his chin. Her warm flesh pressed his cheeks together, and he could feel his body slowly being lifted into the air. His body bobbed against her massive sole as he floated through the air,

"WOAH!" Suddenly his head was gripped with such force that he thought his head might just pop like a grape. "Opps, sorry. I never realized you were that weak." Yuki apologized as she released her iron grip around his head. Kevin gulped at realizing Yuki was now big enough to hurt him without notice.

11. "Could you please massage my foot a bit?" Yuki asked. Kevin knew it was a command more than a question. He stepped closer to her sole, lowering his other hand into her arch and leaning in, his cheek brushing against her flesh. Her scent was intoxicating.

Kevin used his leverage to use his elbow instead of his hand on her arch. Yuki could not see Kevin but she could feel his weak attempts pressing against her foot.

12. Although Kevin was too weak to massage the pressure off Yuki's foot, seeing Kevin's hard work amused Yuki enough. "Thank you." Yuki said as she effortlessly lifted him to her face to kiss.

13. "Let's bring you to your new home." Yuki said as she brought Kevin to the dollhouse at the corner.

Kevin was placed in the left-hand higher room, which he immediately recognized as the bedroom. He got to his feet and turned to Yuki, who had a look of real excitement on her face, "Go on Dad, have a walk around...This is neat."

14. Not wanting to disappoint Yukl, Kevin began to walk around. Everything in the dollhouse was his scale, which he had to admit felt good, it had been a long time since he was able to sit on a chair or even at a table!

Yuki was giggling as she was really enjoying seeing Kevin walking around in her dollhouse. After all, it was every girl's dream to have a living doll. When Kevin met the doll "Emma" in the living room, he was horrified to see that Emma was taller than him by half a head!

15. "Why don't you take a shower? You are a bit stinky." Yuki suggested. Kevin did not dare to say it was mostly from her foot. He reached the bathroom and he asked Yuki to leave.

"I don't think you are safe enough to stay on your own. I am just watching." Yuki said as she added water to the doll's bathtub. Kevin knew it was impossible to push Yuki, who was as large as a building in his eyes, away so he had no choice but to wash himself under her stare.

16. At night, Kevin was left alone in the dollhouse. It had been a long time since he felt like a normal human again, everything was his size in the dollhouse. It somehow woke his sexual desire.

He bent Emma down a bit to kiss her on the lips, he really missed having normal romantic interaction with someone his size.

17. Kevin couldn't wait to make out with Emma. He struggled to move her to the bedroom before stripping her naked. He was surprised to find that there was a fake hole at her crotch, perfect for a small man like him.

He was so lost in the desire that he forgot he was not in a separate house. "WOAH..." Yuki's voice surprised Kevin when Yuki could see what Kevin was doing in the bedroom.

18. "Oh, I am sorry, Yuki...." Kevin said but Yuki stopped him, "Don't worry, I know every man has his needs. I could see it is a bit difficult for you to move the doll." Before Kevin could react, Yuki's hand grabbed Emma and turned her around. She thrusted Emma against his hips. Her strength was so great that Kevin was pushed back but Yuki's fingers supported him from behind.

Kevin could not deny that the feeling was much greater than he had handled alone before, especially the thought of Yuki playing him and Emma in her hands like dolls made him more excited. It did not take long for him to reach the climax and shrink.

19. Several months later, Kevin was now only 3 inches tall. He was only as tall as Emma's knees now.

20. Kevin gulped at looking way up at Emma. Even the Barbie doll was as big as a small building in his eyes now.

21. Kevin tried walking around but he found something new in the living room. It took him a few moments to realize it was Yuki's shoe and it was much taller than him!

22. Kevin actually needed to climb inside the shoe. The shoe was as big as a bus to him! He could even walk around inside it. He could lie without problems inside the shoe when the width of the shoe was longer than his height.

"It seems you like my present?" Yuki's face suddenly appeared from nowhere.

23. "Hmm, I...." Kevin didn't know what to say, but Yuki then easily lifted him and placed him on her palm before her face. "You are so small and cute!" Yuki said in amazement.

24. "And you look so delicious," Yuki said with a smile. Kevin could not help realizing her mouth looked like a small cave to him now. Yuki suddenly moved him closer and opened her mouth wide. To his surprise, he saw Yuki's giant tongue, which was around his whole body, extending out and licking him. The tip of her tongue easily covered his upper torso.

"Please don't eat me....." Kevin said. He knew Yuki might be teasing but the thought of entering her giant mouth still made him shiver.

25. "Don't worry, I am just kidding." Yuki smiled. She then carried Kevin to the living room to watch TV. Yuki causally placed Kevin on her chest before she paid attention to the TV.

Kevin knew Yuki's chest was not big, especially compared to Mia's. It surprised him that he could lie on her breast without a problem. It also made him aware of how small he was now.

26. After several minutes, Kevin was bored with his location so he decided to climb down Yuki's top. He couldn't help realizing how big Yuki's breasts were when he actually needed to climb down them like a small hill.

27. Kevin then walked along Yuki's long legs. One of her legs was so thick that he could walk along on it like a bridge.

28. Kevin soon reached Yuki's foot. He climbed up her foot and there was enough space between her toes for him to stand. He gulped at seeing how large her big toe was: Her big toe was as tall as his sternum, and he believed it was heavier than his whole body!

29. Kevin climbed down Yuki's foot onto the table. Although he knew how big her foot was when he was once inside her big shoe, it was a completely different feeling to see her foot standing up like a building!

He tried to hit her foot with all his strength, but Yuki was completely unaware of it.

30. "I could see where your favourite place is, Dad." Yuki smiled as she found Kevin standing by her foot. "I bought something and I think it is perfect for you." Yuki smiled before she went to the corner.

Kevin was surprised to see Yuki putting a colossal platform sandal on the table before him. The platform had a space—and in it, Emma was lying. "Look, Kevin, there's plenty of space for you in there, right?" Yuki said, shaking Emma inside the platform.

31. "Go inside," Yuki said. Kevin walked towards the opening. His steps were short, as if delaying the inevitable. Yuki removed Emma so that Kevin could get inside the platform.

The interior was cold and smooth, with a faint smell of new plastic. She positioned him there and closed the lid, sealing him inside the shoe. "Perfect!" Yuki's voice vibrated the sandal. Her face was so close that it filled his entire field of vision.

32. Then Yuki lowered the sandal and Kevin fell off balance, feeling a chill in his stomach from the rapid descent. On the floor, he looked horrified as Yuki put on the sandal.

The weight of her foot descended on the transparent ceiling; the whole structure creaked under the giantess's immense weight, and he feared that at any moment everything would collapse, crushing him.

33. Yuki then started walking, the impact reverberated through the entire platform, and Kevin was thrown to the side, hitting the curved acrylic. The second step came quickly, and the feeling of instability made him brace his hands on the smooth floor to avoid falling.

Yuki got dressed and left the house, and thankfully she only went to the convenience store downstairs. She looked like she had received some kind of package. However, Kevin could not deny that he was in a perfect location to closely watch the shoes safely, only when Yuki was standing.

34. When Yuki returned home, Kevin was finally allowed to crawl out of the platform. He ended up lying on the floor, looking way up at Yuki. "Hope you are enjoying the ride?" She asked with a smile.

35. Yuki held Kevin with two fingers, lifting him to the table effortlessly. "Look, we just got your new house back. You are way too small for the dollhouse." Yuki said as she removed the dollhouse. Kevin was horrified to see that Yuki showed a hamster cage to him!

"But it's a hamster cage!" Kevin yelled up at Yuki. "Don't worry, it's not when you live inside it. We would call it 'Kevin's house'." Yuki smiled and Kevin knew he couldn't change her decision. Mia had left him under Yuki's care during Mia's long trip.

36. "Do you like your new home?" Yuki asked. "Yes....thank you." Kevin said meekly. He knew nothing would change even if he said no. Yuki was in charge of everything.

“You’re welcome! I’m glad you like it! Maybe you can try out your wheel for me...” Yuki suggested. Kevin looked over at it and made his way over, stepping inside without protest. Yuki took her phone and encouraged him to run before taking photos. "You are so cute! I bet Mia would love it." Yuki smiled as she recorded it.

37. Kevin felt tired after running for several minutes. Yuki then directed him to the water dispenser at the corner. Yuki had filled it with milk and Kevin drank it with satisfaction.

38. "Don't worry, your ex-wife will be here to accompany you." Yuki smiled as she put Emma outside the cage. Kevin knew what the ex meant: he was now too small to be Emma's husband when Emma was taller than the whole cage now.

39. Kevin went into his sleeping house. Today was a bit too much for him. Even in the embarrassment of being used as an accessory to Yuki's sandals, he was grateful to finally rest a little. He just didn't know what Yuki planned for him later.
