

Into Her Care

Chapter 4 by aaabbbzzz

The next day after Carmen had left, Rachel sat on the couch to talk to James. She was worried that he may still continue to shrink after becoming slightly smaller last night. Things had become different. They both wanted everything to go back to normal even though they seemed worse. Instead of just dreading all day long, Rachel had come up with an idea. She wanted to lift their spirits to help them make best of things. Knowing that there really nothing she could do, Rachel came up with an idea that she hoped her tiny boyfriend would like.

I'm so sorry about this babe, it must be so scary. I found another doctor but we can't see her until tomorrow. Eventually we will figure this out. We'll just have to hope for the best. But until then I don't think worrying all day about this is healthy. Can we try to do something together like we used to? My mom says we could reserve the pool or something. Nobody would see us if we tried to just relax. What do you think James, would you be comfortable with that?

Luckily, James was in a better mood than the last few days. Even though he was a few inches shorter, he liked Rachel's idea. Trying to make the best of things, he thought about how nice it would be to try and forget about his situation. The world was gigantic around him, but he was still himself. Going outside to get some sun with his girlfriend sounded like a great opportunity.

You know what, that actually sounds very nice. Thank you for taking care of me through all of this Rachel. I'll never forget how good you have been to me while I have freaked out about this. Let's go and try to pretend like everything is normal again.

Sounds great babe! I'm so excited that you said yes. Why don't you wait here on the couch and I'll make that reservation. Since it's a weekday it should be open. I brought one of my bikini's over here too so we don't need to go back to my place. After we have some breakfast we can go.

After making a private reservation for the pool, Rachel got started with making some food and packed her things. They ate together and hung out for a bit until it was time. Putting James in her purse, Rachel left her mom's apartment and headed down to the pool. She had a smile on her face, happy to do something with her tiny boyfriend.

Like expected, the pool area was quiet. Nobody seemed to be around in the area, allowing the water to be heard as it rippled around. Rachel let out a sigh of relief, seeing that this would be perfect for the two of them. They were in complete privacy without anyone to bother them. Walking over to one of the chairs, Rachel put her purse down and took James out. She was excited to be alone with the little guy.

Wow, it's so nice out today James. This is the perfect time to be out here. Let's try not to worry about anyone seeing you because I made sure to ask to be undisturbed. We can just take our time and enjoy the weather. Maybe if you're up for it try out the water. Only whatever you're comfortable with James. I'm going to put you down here on the chair, I want to get changed into my bikini.

Rachel gently put her shrunken boyfriend down on the chair and stood up. He was really liking this idea so far. Because Rachel was so caring of him, it made him feel safe. If it wasn't for this then there would probably be no way he would agree on such a thing. As he was placed on the chair, his girlfriend quickly started to take off her shirt behind him. She had her bikini on underneath, and when he turned around he was shocked.

Oh hey James, how is the view from down there? You know just because all this has happened hasn't made me forget that we're dating. I want to do couple things with you still, and I realized that even if you're small it doesn't matter to me. Can we just pretend this never happened and enjoy being together for at least today? I'd love to just have a fun day with you.

James was really starting to feel okay with this being shrunk thing. Maybe he was actually realizing that there might not be a way to grow back. Instead of worrying he embraced it. Having his gigantic girlfriend presented to him in such a way was dreamlike. He could see every detail of her incredibly sexy body. The fact that Rachel was encouraging him to be himself made him thrilled. He wondered how she would act and what she might of had planned in her head.

I want to relax for a bit babe. You know how you used to give me a back massage whenever we would come out here? I know that might be difficult for you now, but would you like to try?

The little man walked across the side of his girlfriend's body, admiring every inch he passed by. Rachel closed her eyes in anticipation for James. She noticed that he seemed very eager to explore her, so she laid quietly waiting. James could not believe the situation he was in. At his new size Rachel was more gorgeous than before. It's like the smaller he got the better.

A woman with her back to the camera is lying on a massage table. She is wearing a pink bikini. A man is climbing her back. In the background, there is a pink handbag on a table and a wooden bench.

You're almost there
James! It tickles me when you climb me like that. How does my ass feel? I know mine has never been really big, but it must seem huge
now. The way your hands grip onto me feels strange, but I like it. Maybe you'll be able to get into those little spots when you massage me, I can't wait.

Rachel laid in the sun as James happily leaned in to massage her back. He put as much strength as possible into his tiny arms, trying his best to give his girlfriend a decent massage. Pushing his fists into the spots he knew she liked, James could hear a Rachel exhale in a way that sounded like she was enjoying herself. So far, it seemed like things were going well.

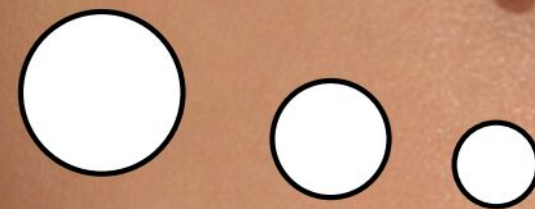

James, that feels so good.
How do you do that with those tiny hands? The way you press in around the spots I like, it's amazing. Do you mind doing this for a little bit longer? I've really been needing something like this. I bet you can tell I might be a bit tense. Sorry it's been stressful the last few days. I'm glad we can try and get through this together.

For a few more minutes James went on, voluntarily rubbing and massaging Rachel's back. He was enjoying his time with her and patiently waited for what she wanted next. Being so small he felt like he couldn't act by himself like he normally would. But soon he would find out that Rachel just wanted him to act as he would.

Thank you James, that made me feel so much better. You know how you were climbing up my butt a few minutes ago? I know you would love to get a close up with it. Why don't you move back there and take a look?

She's letting me get close to her ass? I don't know why I'm acting like that's strange of her. It's just weird being so small on her gigantic body. I hope she doesn't notice that I'm enjoying this so much. Have I had this fantasy? She's going to think I wanted this all along.

Carefully, James climbed over Rachel's butt cheek to her upper thigh. He could feel how firm her ass was as his limbs crawled across it. They had only been at the pool for a few minutes, but James was loving it. He was so happy that Rachel thought of this and that they could share this experience together.

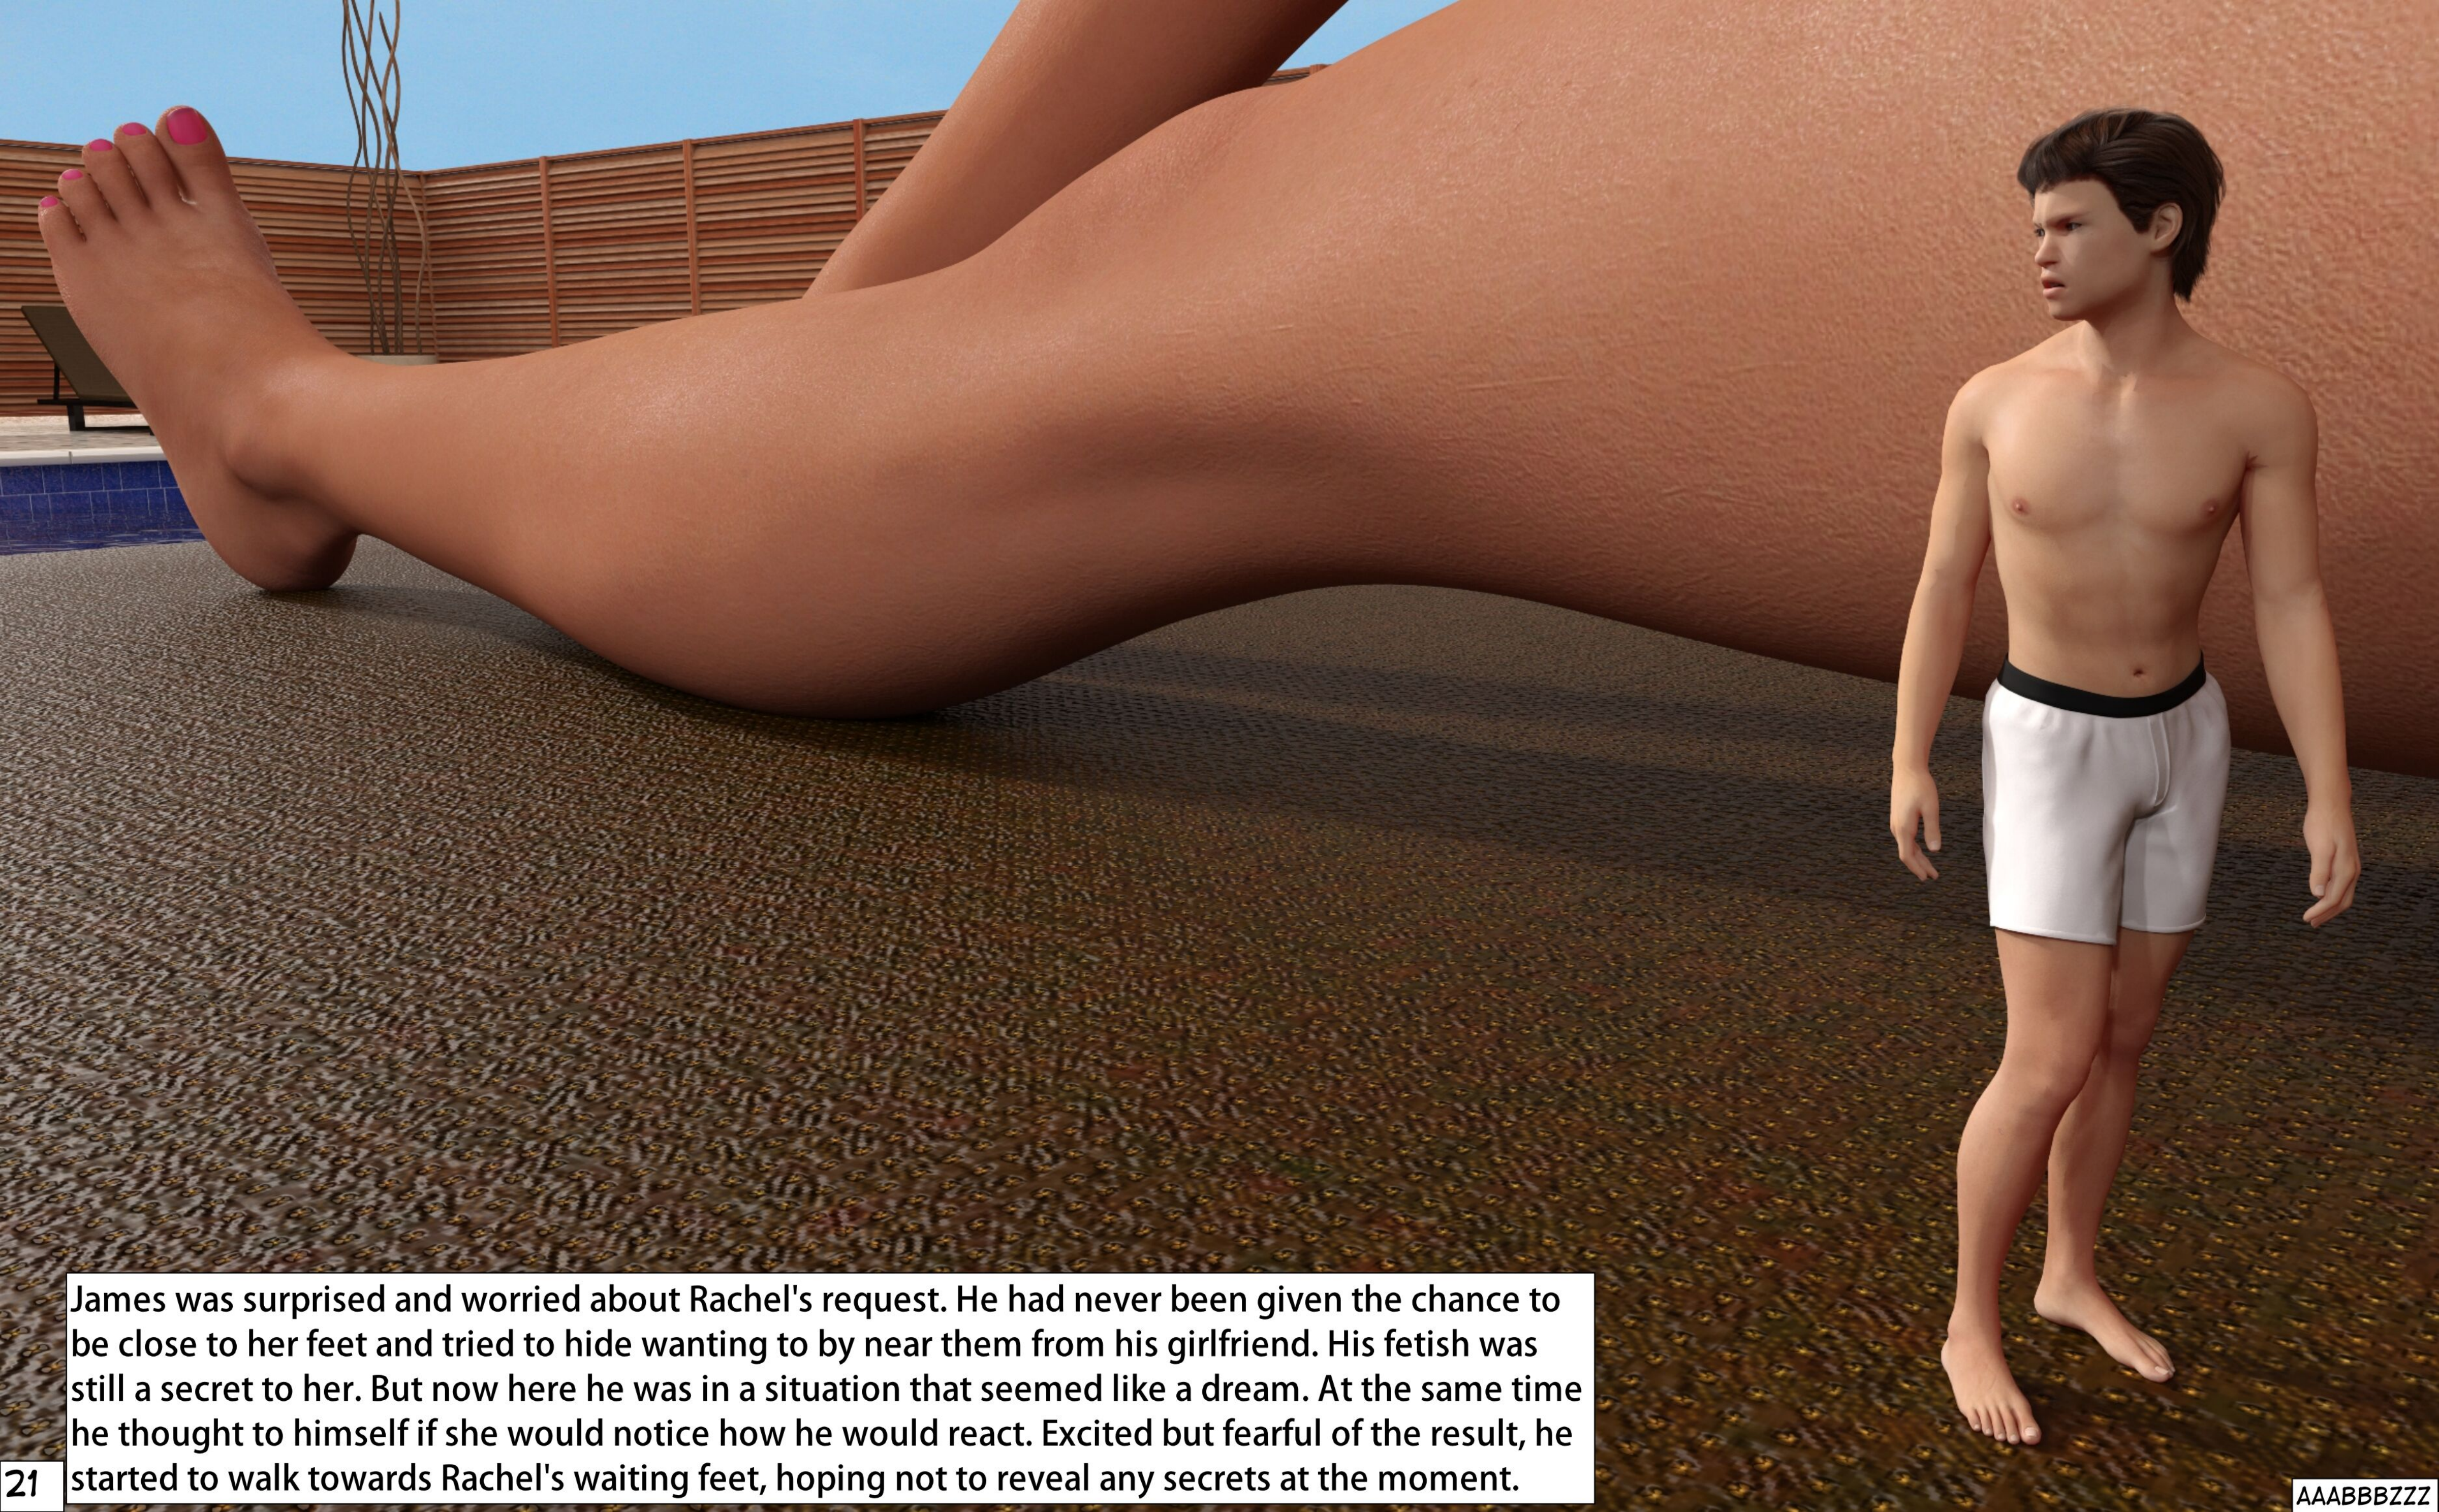

Don't be shy James,
just because I'm gigantic doesn't mean you need to be hesitant. Just please enjoy my body like you always would. Let me know if you're having a hard time because of our size differences. But I don't think we need to continue to worry about that. Try to be happy and small at the same time. I'll always be here for you.

Hearing Rachel's words made James feel welcomed. He leaned in and touched her giant ass, ignoring the feelings associated with his size. He just wanted to take advantage of this opportunity as much as possible. It seemed like his girlfriend was trying to get him to loosen up as well. Instead of thinking too much about it, he focused on where he was, admiring Rachel's gigantic butt.

That was great James, I really like how we're just going with this. You know since you're so good at that, do you mind massaging another part of my body? Sorry if this is strange to ask, but do you think you could rub my feet the way you did my back? You don't have to, but I think you would get those hard spots easily. I know I've never asked you to do that before, but I just thoguht of it.

James was surprised and worried about Rachel's request. He had never been given the chance to be close to her feet and tried to hide wanting to by near them from his girlfriend. His fetish was still a secret to her. But now here he was in a situation that seemed like a dream. At the same time he thought to himself if she would notice how he would react. Excited but fearful of the result, he started to walk towards Rachel's waiting feet, hoping not to reveal any secrets at the moment.

A 3D rendered scene featuring a woman with long brown hair, wearing a bright pink bikini, sitting on a dark green lounge chair. She is looking towards a tiny man who is walking on her right foot. The tiny man is wearing white shorts and is very small in comparison to the woman. To the right of the woman, a pink handbag sits on a black cylindrical table. The background is a stone wall and a wooden floor. A speech bubble originates from the woman, containing text.

Thank you for doing this James, I didn't think you would agree to it. At least my feet don't smell like they did last night when I got home. If they did I don't think I would even try asking. I wonder how you're going to feel after how you did on my back. Somehow those tiny hands of yours have a magical touch. That's one good thing that has come from the shrinking at least.

Little did Rachel know that James would of happily agreed to this task no matter how much her feet could stink. If anything he wished they were like last night, but at the same time he knew he wouldn't be able to control himself if that was the case. Instead of seeing this as a fantasy coming true, the shrunken man tried his best to just give his girlfriend a massage without crossing over into anything sexual.

Her feet are more amazing than I could of ever imagined. Does she know I like them as much as I do? Or did she just ask me to do this unaware of my fetish. I'll need to hold myself together if I don't want to get caught. I wish I could just plant a kiss on her sole and run my tongue up and down them. Oh god I need to calm down, I'm getting excited just thinking about it.

It was obvious Rachel was enjoying herself as the tiny man put effort into his work. He would use the palms of his hands and sometimes create a fist to put pressure on as many different parts of her foot that he thought would feel good. As he continued to keep his mind clean, he got small whiffs of a slight stench radiating from her toes. It wasn't a very overpowering scent, but it was enough to get James thinking. He couldn't stop thinking about getting closer and worshipping her feet.

You're doing such a good job down there James, can you do this other foot for me? Like wow, who would've known that you could do this so well at your current size. I wish I knew what it was like before you got small so we could compare, but right now that feels amazing. I hope you're still okay with doing this because I really like it. Please tell me you'll do this again for me sometime.

It sounds like she's actually liking what I'm doing down here. How do I tell her I'd do this anytime without sounding too eager? If she wanted I would do anything for her, especially this. Maybe if I just keep working hard she will want it again sooner than later. I've always imagined being here, but now that it's real it's just as great as I thought it would be.

After a few minutes into her massage, Rachel pulled her feet away from James and smiled down at him. She was loving the time they were getting together. James wanted to continue rubbing her soles, but his girlfriend was interested in changing things up. Lucky for him though as he was starting to get very distracted by her gigantic toes.

What do you say we go for a swim now James? You don't have to come in too, but if you do I'll promise to take care of you. If not you can wait here, I just want to get in the water.

When Rachel got up James could feel the ground beneath him shake. As his girlfriend ran towards the pool he looked up at her sexy body from behind. He was in complete awe by the way she moved. She was so powerful at her current size compared to him. Hearing her footsteps boom with every step made him worry about accidentally ever being caught by her unaware. But James knew Rachel intended to look after him. If he tried to work with her then he would always be safe.

Come on babe, you should jump in too. It would make you feel so good to go swimming on such a nice day. I'm not going to miss out though. I've been wanting to go for a dip for a few days. Hurry up and get over here!

Rachel wasn't wasting any time. Getting to the edge, she jumped right into the pool. This happened so quick that James didn't even get to start moving. He waited for a moment to watch his giant girlfriend leap off into the water. Seeing how she really wanted him to join, the little guy decided to make his way over to her.

She's so fast. It was crazy watching her run at this size, it's like she could cover so much ground. If anything tried to chase me I would be so screwed. It would probably be better if I tried to stay close to her. A swim does sound nice and I know she will watch over me. I better hurry and get over there so she doesn't have to wait too long.

While James made his way towards the pool, Rachel emerged from her dive. She pulled her wet hair back and let the drips drop down her body. Smiling to herself, she took a moment to enjoy the nice temperature of the water cool her body down. It was a perfect place to be. When she turned around, Rachel was happily surprised to see her tiny boyfriend on the edge ready to join her.

Are you over here because you want to come in too James? You really should, the water feels amazing. I don't know if we could ask for anything better. Why don't you hop in from the side here? It's almost going to be like jumping off a diving board. We have a few hours here too, so we can take our time to enjoy it as much as possible.

Without any hesitation, James dove into the pool. Rachel was very excited that her boyfriend wanted to join her, despite his tiny size. He was just happy to do something fun with Rachel, ignoring his situation in anyway they could. It was still clear that he was shrunken, but it wasn't stopping the young couple from having some quality time together. When James came up to the surface, he was greeted by a sight that made his jaw drop.

There we go, isn't that much better babe? I'm so glad you wanted to come in too. Today has been so good so far, I never want it to end. I know we can't stop thinking of ways to cure you, but in the mean time we have to have some fun at least. This pool is like a lake to you I imagine. Don't you worry though, I'll make sure to keep an eye on you. It's probably a good thing that you're a decent swimmer.

Lost in the moment by the beautiful sight, James was startled when his girlfriend dived down. Seeing her giant body move through the water was just another experience that was hard to comprehend. Her ability to move so fast underwater was a surprise.

It's crazy how quickly she can swim. Watching her body move is like seeing a whale pass by. I hope she is watching what she is doing. If she comes up on top of me the force could pull me under.

Rachel wasn't being stupid though. She was having her fun, but at the same time thinking about James. Her first priority was keeping her shrunken boyfriend safe. She didn't want to overwhelm James though and make him feel helpless, but instead tried to treat him as human as possible. After all he was just himself in a tiny body. Running out of breathe she came up to the surface so check in.

How are you doing James? You're a pretty fast swimmer even at your size. Are you enjoying the water as much as I am? Why don't you swim over here and get close to my chest. I want to float on my back and have you on my body. I can be you're giant girlfriend raft. Doesn't that sound like a lot of fun?

When James made it to his girlfriends chest he was shocked again by the amount of detail he could see. It was a wonderful sight seeing Rachel's gigantic boobs right in front of him. She giggled to herself, realizing that James' eyes were locked on her. Slowly, she started to tilt her body backwards, catching the little man right where she wanted him.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a bright pink bikini, is lying on her back on a blue tiled pool floor. She has a playful, slightly dizzy expression. A tiny man in a white and blue outfit is crawling on her belly. A large, colorful beach ball is partially visible in the bottom left corner. A speech bubble is positioned near her head.

Hang on James, it's a little shaky right now but I'm trying to stabilize myself. You're tickling my belly down there! I hope it's not too slick for you. Can you come over here? I saw you looking at my boobs just a second ago. Do you want to explore them? I'd love it if you did babe. Crawl up there but be careful you don't slip off.

Excitedly, James crawled towards Rachel's giant breasts. He inched slowly, making sure not to accidentally fall off his girlfriend's wet body. Still he could not believe how Rachel was behaving. He was loving how playful, yet gentle she was acting. Having a giantess to explore so freely was like a dream.

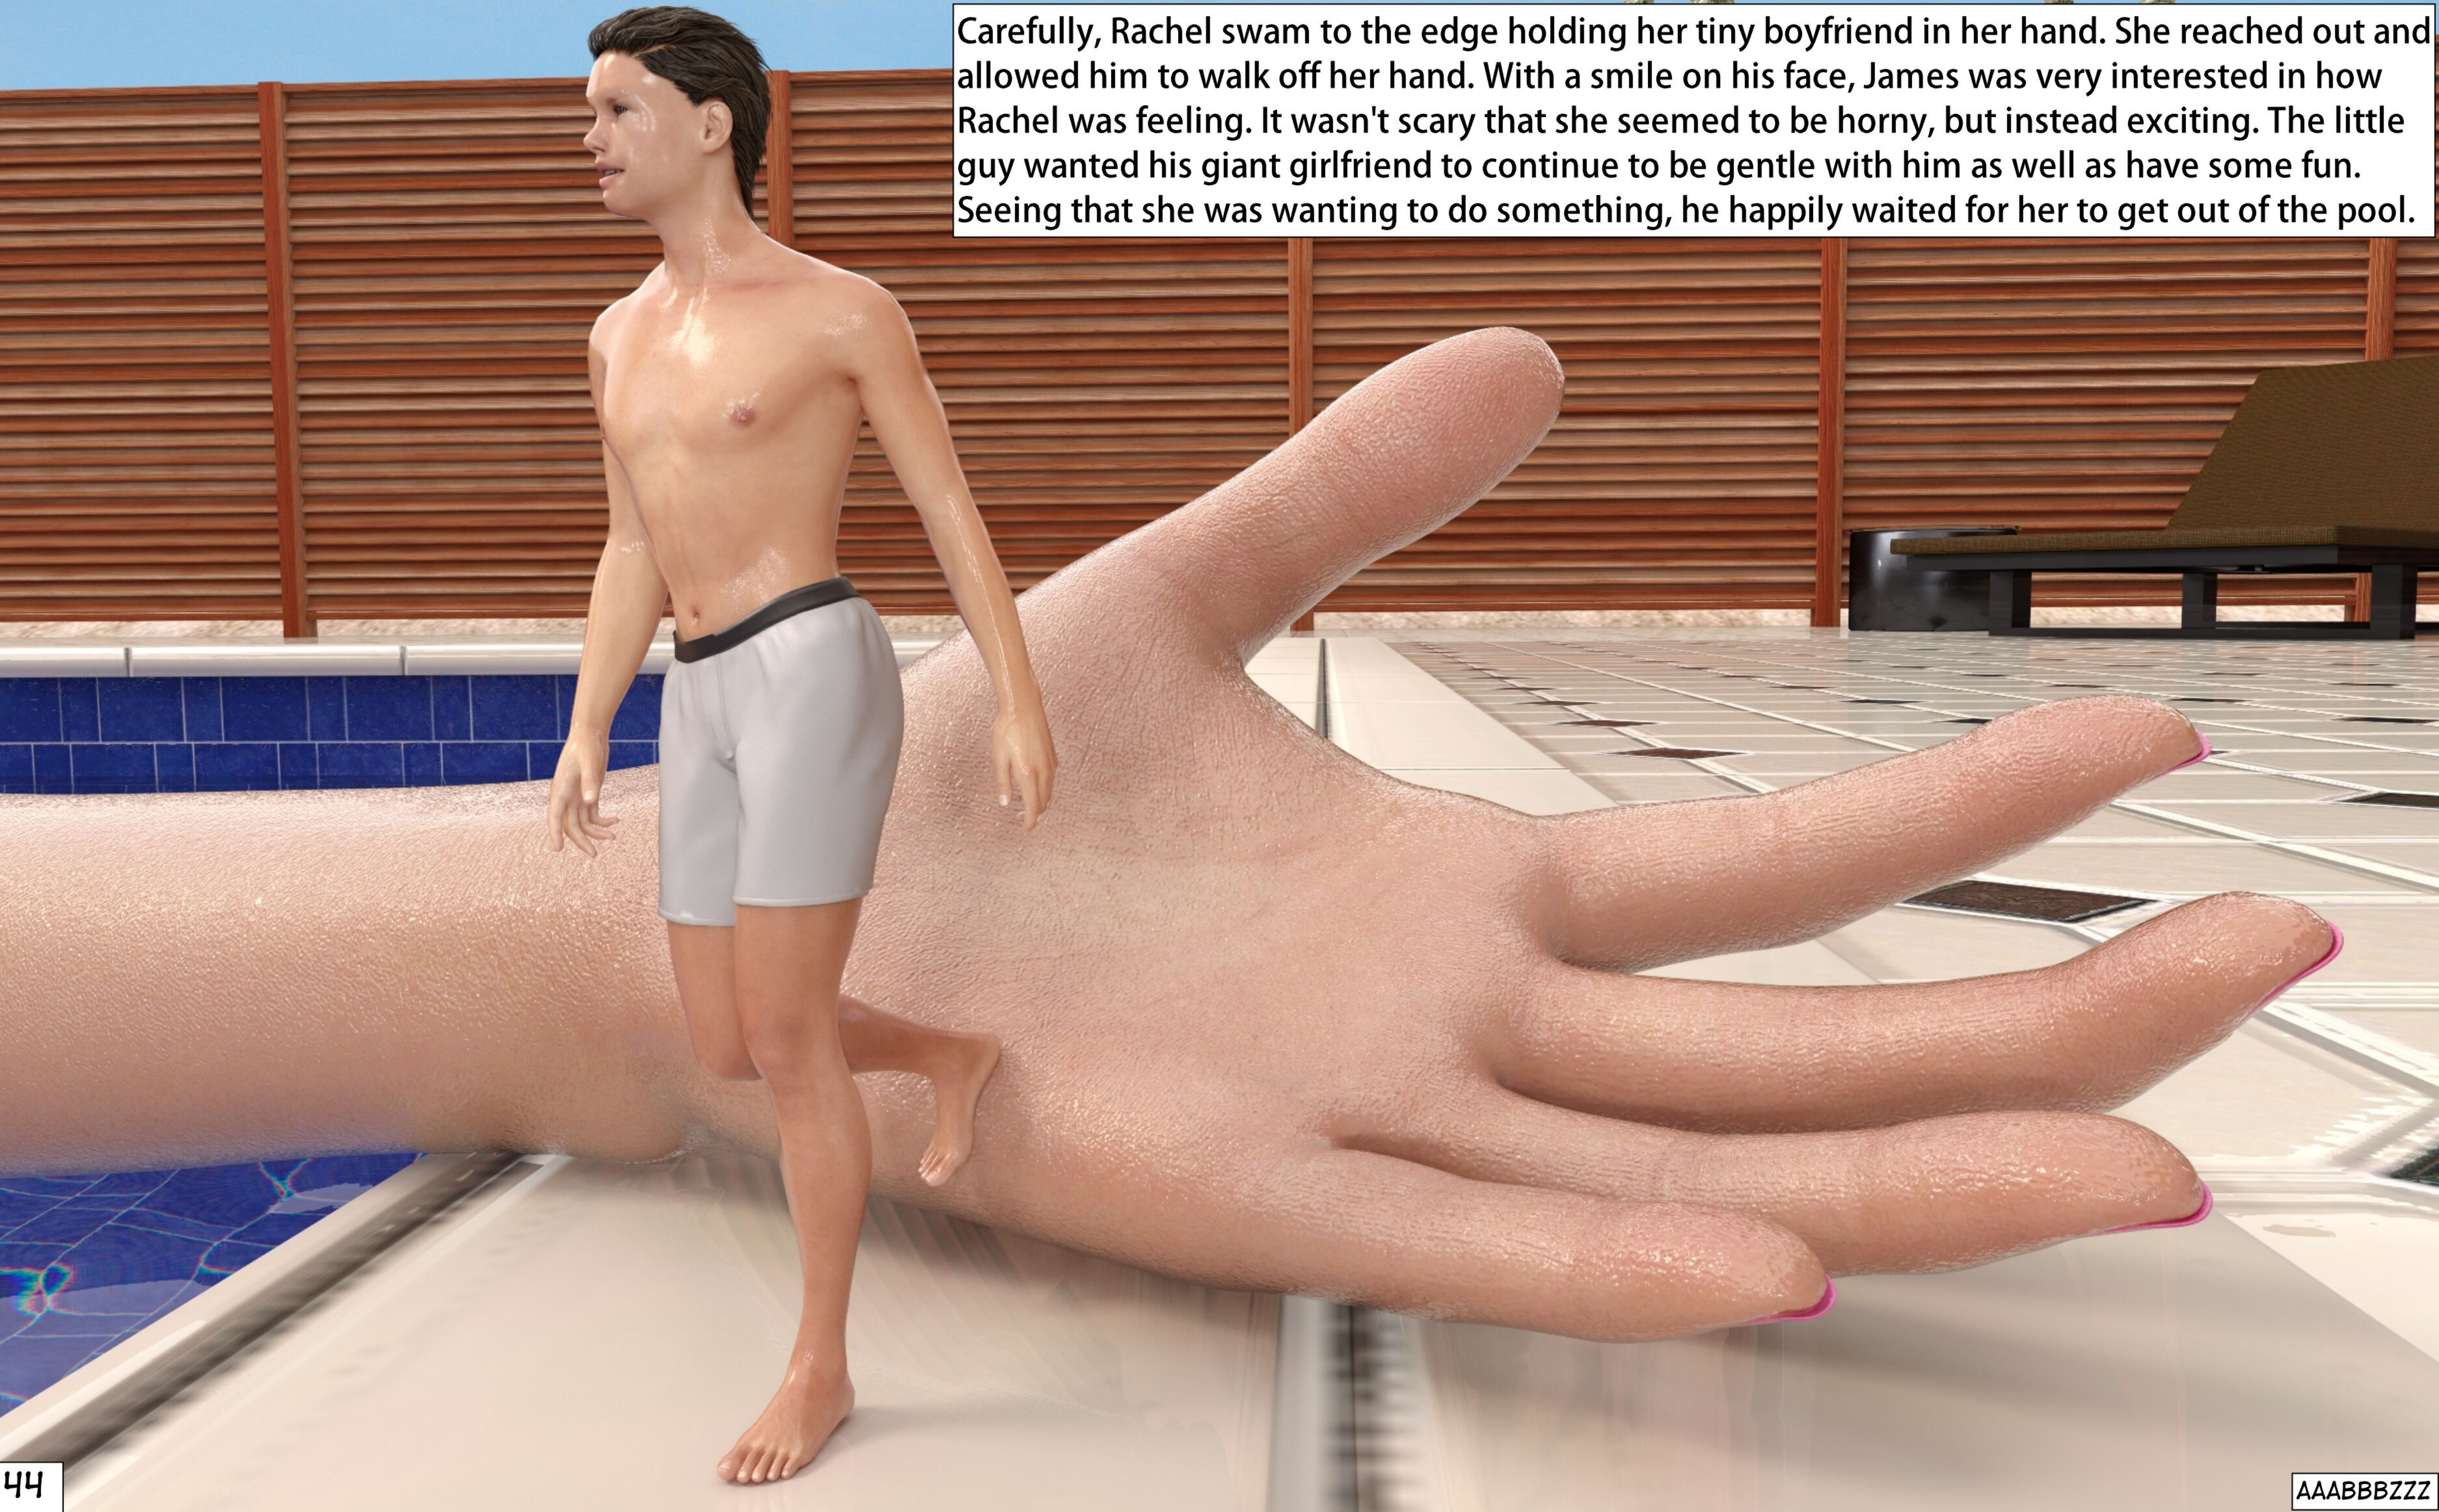

What is going on, why is this turning me on so much. Feeling his little body playing with my tit is making me wet. What the hell James, I need to say something to him. I've missed having him please me. Maybe we can find a way even if he's still shrunk.

The way James was playing with Rachel's breast was arousing her, and not just slightly. She was incredibly turned on unexpectedly and thought about how things went the other night. Just like then, they were both in an emotional state that was off. One thing that wasn't off though was their sex drives. Each of them wanted to continue to do couple things ignoring their size differences.

James, what were you doing?
Whatever that was has got me so wet. I don't know what it is, but I really just want your little body. Can we get out of the pool for now? I just had an idea.

Carefully, Rachel swam to the edge holding her tiny boyfriend in her hand. She reached out and allowed him to walk off her hand. With a smile on his face, James was very interested in how Rachel was feeling. It wasn't scary that she seemed to be horny, but instead exciting. The little guy wanted his giant girlfriend to continue to be gentle with him as well as have some fun. Seeing that she was wanting to do something, he happily waited for her to get out of the pool.

Holy shit, what a view. What is she planning on doing when she gets out? I have the feeling that she is in the mood, but we're out in public! I guess she said that the pool was reserved just for us, but she can't be planning on leaving already can she? I guess I'll just have to wait and see, it's not like I can control the situation at all except for expressing my concerns.

After getting out of the pool, Rachel started to walk back towards the chair where she left her things. She made sure to watch herself, stepping over the little man and leaving some distance to be safe. James watched in awe as her gigantic footsteps boomed next to him. He watched the bottoms of her feet and admired the view of her body all the way up as he continued to wonder what his girlfriend was up to. Surprisingly, he started to witness her undressing herself.

A woman in a pink bikini is sitting on a wooden deck by a pool. She is holding a pink bikini bottom. In the foreground, a pink handbag is on a table. The background shows a pool and a wooden fence.

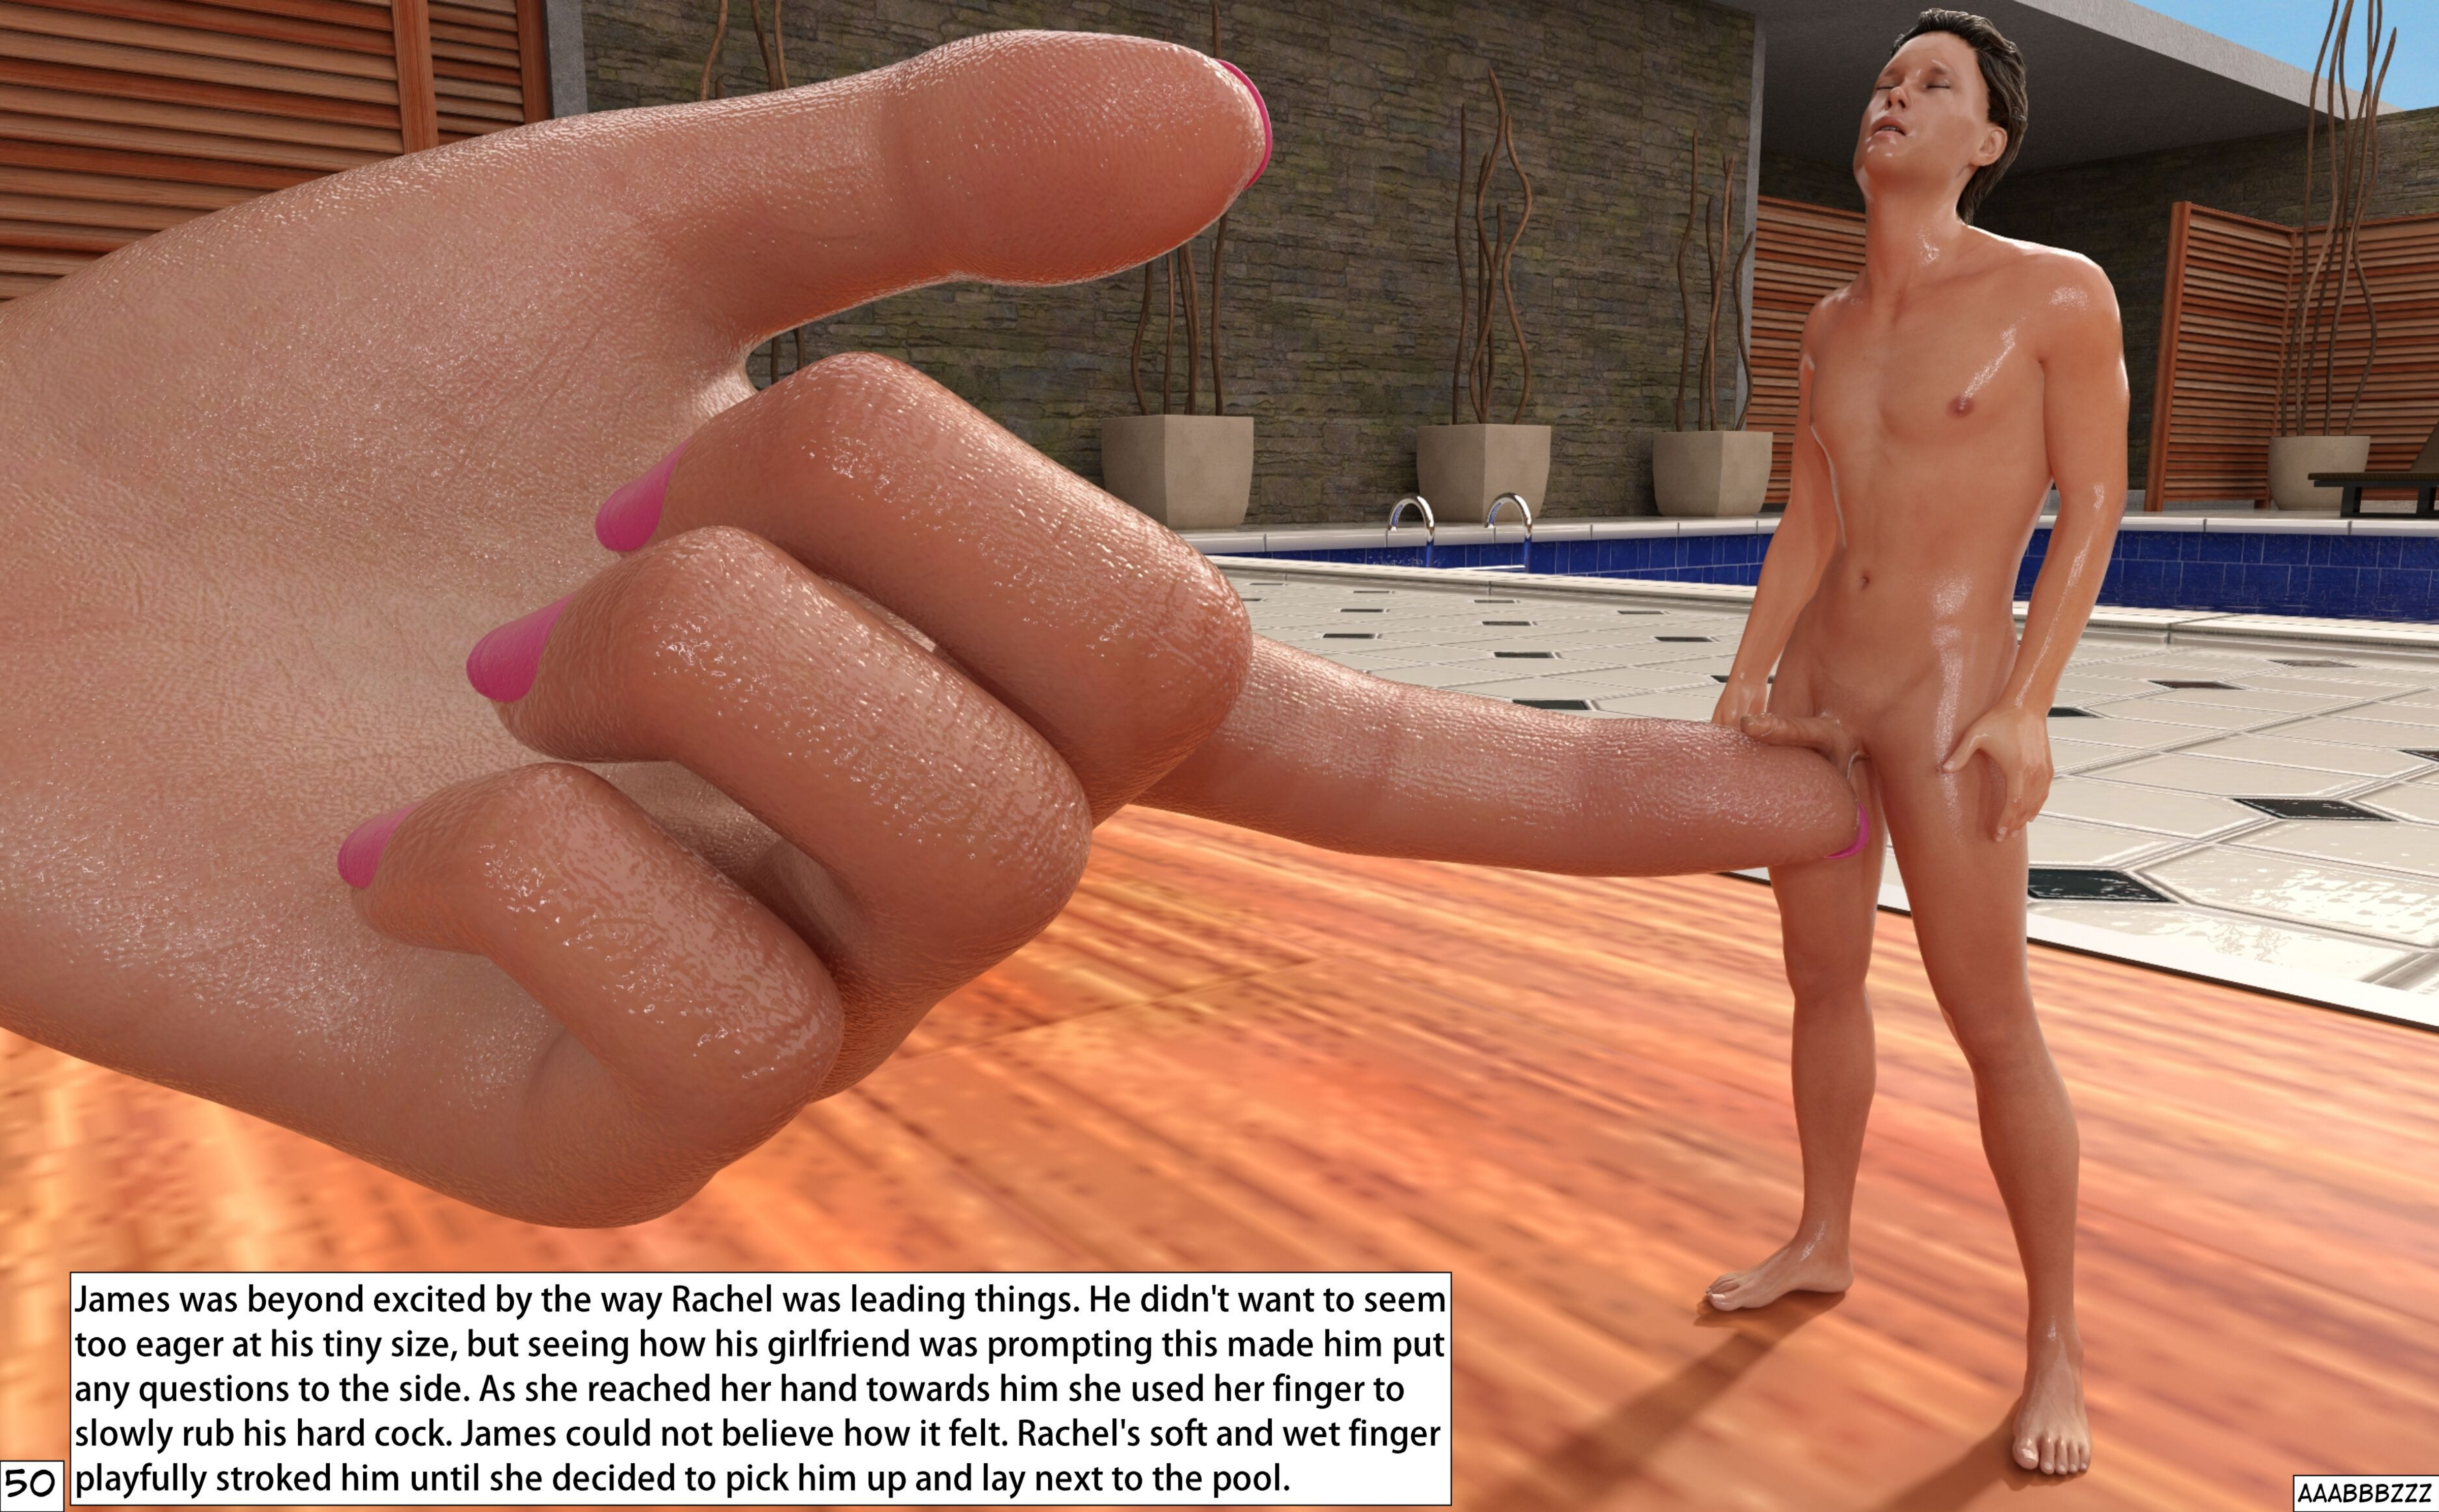

James, can you come over here? I don't know why but I just can't help myself. We should be all alone out here, do you think we could have some fun? It's hard to describe how much I'm in the mood right now. I just want you to be with me. Your size doesn't matter as long as we're together. We can figure out a way to enjoy each other, as long as you're feeling the same way too.

Now completely naked, Rachel towered over her tiny boyfriend to display her body to him. James could not believe the sight before him. It was like approaching a powerful goddess who required his attention. Even though the giantess wasn't forceful at all with him, he wanted to do anything and everything to please her. Her wants were his needs as he swiftly climbed the step to get to her. When he made it up she laid down and asked him to remove his boxers. For James, there was nothing that made him think twice about it.

Wow James, you're as excited as I am aren't you? The way you proudly let your boner hang out in front of me like that makes me assume you're okay with all of this. Spending this time with you just makes me think of old times. We used to do stuff all the time, and I want to continue to do that. Just because you're shrinking doesn't mean anything. These problems will be fixed in time, so all I want is to make the best of the moment. It's impossible to describe to you just how horny I am right now.

James was beyond excited by the way Rachel was leading things. He didn't want to seem too eager at his tiny size, but seeing how his girlfriend was prompting this made him put any questions to the side. As she reached her hand towards him she used her finger to slowly rub his hard cock. James could not believe how it felt. Rachel's soft and wet finger playfully stroked him until she decided to pick him up and lay next to the pool.

I wish you could fuck me right now babe. My pussy wants you so badly. Just thinking of it is making me soaked. Oh fuck, I'm so fucking hot right now. Can you come closer and touch me please? I want to feel you James, I need it. Come give me whatever you can. This wait is killing me.

The tiny man felt like all of this wasn't real. Being outside by the pool with his giant girlfriend was already a lot to take in. But having her in the mood that she was encouraged him to play along. Reaching out, James touched Rachel's wet vagina. Her juices were increasing as she fingered herself to the thought of her little guy. Even though James wasn't able to do much, Rachel was lost. She was beyond the point of resisting her urges to have some fun.

Oh my fucking god, why is this doing this to me? Your tiny hands feeling me up is insane. Please James, come a little closer. Climb up here between my legs, I promise I won't close them. I need you to keep touching me while I finger myself. This feels way too good, I don't ever want to stop. What the hell is going on?

Yes, yes, yes! That's fucking it babe. Stick your tiny arms in there for me. Holy fuck, this shouldn't feel this good should it? I'm completely lost. Somehow your tiny body just brings so much pleasure. The only thing I wish for is that you could give me your cock like before. I've missed having you inside me James. Please don't fucking stop, I can't go on without this now. I want you to make me cum.

Getting as close as possible, James leaned in and started to fist Rachel's pussy with his tiny arm. He could hear his girlfriend moan from the stimulation as he played around with her the best he could. Still, his dick was hard as a rock as it rubbed on her leg while he continued to drench his body with her juices and sweat. Rachel was feeling warmer than ever. After a few moments she came up with an idea that she hoped James would be okay with.

You have no idea how you're making me feel James. Can we try something I thought of? Just feeling your little arms inside me was a lot. I'm wondering what your body would do if it was inside me. What if I put you in legs first or something and you can tell me if you want to come out. Please only say yes if you're comfortable with this though James. I just think it would feel amazing.

I don't think that would be a problem at all, let's do it. All I want is for this experience to keep going Rachel. You're the best girlfriend a shrunken man could ever ask for. I'd love it if I could do anything to please you.

Happy to have James agree, Rachel picked up her tiny boyfriend and held him in her hand for a moment. While this was going on she continued to finger herself, fantasizing about how good he was about to feel. Her desires had taken over as she never expected to be doing this with James. As she started to lower his legs into her vagina, she immediately let out a moan, feeling pleasure right away from the little guy.

Fuck! Just having you slide in feels insane babe. I'm so wet that there's no struggle at all. Oh my god, are you kicking your legs around? Keep doing that please, it's stimulating me more than you would think. If you're ever uncomfortable let me know right away, but hopefully that doesn't happen. This is the best sensation in the world.

James found a way to hold himself in position after Rachel let go of his arms. Ruthlessly, he started to squirm his legs around, immediately getting a reaction from his giant girlfriend. Rachel was having a hard time controlling herself. The tiny man was somehow able to give her pleasure as if it was him fucking her at his normal size. But it wasn't his penis that was important at the moment, it was how he moved around. Continuing to kick around, he noticed she was starting to enjoy this more and more.

Holy shit James,
what the hell is even happening?
How are you able to do this? Fuck yes! Just like that, that's the spot down there. How much longer can you keep doing this for me babe? At this rate you're going to make me cum in no time. If you can just keep doing whatever this is. I feel like I'm going to have an orgasm already. There's no way I can control myself, you're doing too good of a job.

Still halfway inside his girlfriend, James did not give up. Willingly he put the work in to try and please Rachel. He knew that somehow all this movement was working. Hearing her cries and moans made him know that he could bring her to a climax. Suddenly, she was there. Letting out a scream, Rachel felt her entire body erupt. The giantess had orgasmed to the feeling of her shrunken boyfriend. Rachel thought that this was a dream as she felt waves of pleasure take her over. When it was all over she tried to catch her breathe, short of air after such an intense experience.

Wow, just wow. That made me feel like a new woman James. Don't get me wrong, I loved it before, but this time with you was insane! How could you do something like that at your current size? I don't know if I'll ever understand it, but who cares. What matters is that you were amazing. I haven't felt this good in a long time.

Rachel pulled James out of her vagina and sat up to look down at him. He looked back up at her, feeling her caring protection as he sat in her hand. Neither of them expected what just happened. They both were surprised by how much each of them were into it. The giantess felt completely satisfied, but at the same time wanted more. Knowing that she could do this for hours, she instead focused her attention on her tiny boyfriend. Rachel wanted to give back to James. Bringing her hand down towards the ground, she allowed him to safely jump off, excited to reward him for his service.

I can't stop thinking about that orgasm James. You made me feel so loved by you. Don't you think that I'm going to forget about you though. After doing so much for me, you deserve to be taken care of as well. I could feel your hard dick rubbing up inside me as you slid back and forth. You must be dying to get that thing off. Why don't you let your girlfriend take care of that for you?

Laying James onto the floor, Rachel started to play with his shrunken hard on once again. This time she could feel it throbbing on her finger. Playfully she stroked him, smiling down with a seductive look. James could feel his orgasm be worked up swiftly. After everything that had happened right before this, it just made it harder. The giantess knew what she was doing and wanted her tiny boyfriend to feel the same way she did. Using her thumb, she gripped his dick with two fingers and continued to rub it.

How does that feel James? Do you like it when I rub you like this? I can see just how much you're loving this. Please don't hold anything back babe. Normally I know you can last so long, but I can feel you getting close already! Don't be afraid to let loose everything you have. Cum for me babe, I want to see that load.

It didn't take long until James could no longer hold himself back. Suddenly he exploded intensely between Rachel's two fingers. Cum pumped from his dick until his balls were emptied of every last drop. Every pulse was itself the best feeling in the world for the little guy. After everything had calmed down, Rachel looked down at James before picking him up. She was surprised to see him orgasm in a way that drained him so much.

Are you okay James?
You look exhausted after that.
There's cum all over you! Even at your small size you had quite a load didn't you? I guess you enjoyed that a lot just like I did.
Thank you babe, that was wonderful. I can't believe we did what we just did, but it was an experience to remember. I'll never forget how happy you made me feel. You deserve to be tired now, it's okay though, just relax.

Still catching his breath from the moments before, James was surprised when Rachel brought his body closer to her mouth and started to lick around his private area. She slurped up every bit of cum, cleaning her tiny boyfriend off. All James could do was sit back as he enjoyed Rachel's tongue play with him. It was the perfect way to finish of such a good time.

That was so fun
James, I still can't wrap my head around it. Why don't we take a minute to enjoy the sun and relax before leaving. My mom was nice enough to get a hotel for now so we'll have the place all to ourselves tonight. She offered us her place until we can find somewhere else you can go.
Maybe I'll get my own apartment or we'll have to show you to my roommate. I'd rather keep you safe, but eventually we'll have to figure something out.
For now though, let's just try to enjoy some time together.

Later that night James and Rachel were hanging out in Carmen's room ready for bed. The two had spend an amazing evening together that connected them like no other. They felt like they were drifting apart when James first shrunk, but now they were closer than ever. Feeling comfort from her care was something James was starting to get used to. He loved the way his giant girlfriend watched over him.

Today has been so nice James. I can't tell you how happy I feel to be with you. I know this is tough, but we'll get through it together, I promise! If we have each other then it doesn't matter what happens. I'll always look after you and make sure you stay safe, even if this is permanent. But I know it won't be. I've been looking around and found some promising doctors to talk to if the next one doesn't work out. I'll never give up until you're cured. Until then though, we're going to spend a lot of quality time with each other.

Lovingly, Rachel brought the tiny man up to her lips and gave him a kiss on his face. James tried to give a peck back, but it was too small to be noticed. The giantess just wanted to let her boyfriend know how much she cared. She was being incredibly careful with shrunken James, making sure he would be alright all the way through this. He could feel her love, trusting her because he wanted to, not because he was forced to.

Hey so, I just wanted to let you know again just how much fun I had earlier at the pool. It was a very special time that I would never trade away. You are amazing James, don't let your size make you think otherwise. I was wondering though, would there be any chance you would be up for something similar right now? I'm having a hard time trying to get my mind off it. For some reason my body just craves having you play with me again.

Expecting to go to sleep soon, James was surprised by Rachel's request. His immediate answer was of course yes, but when he looked up he realized that his girlfriend wasn't herself. She seemed to be on a high. It's like their intimate time earlier had sparked something new within her. Rachel wanted to give into this lust badly. Her body wanted James, and the little guy was happy to be given the chance.

James agreed to Rachel's request and suddenly he felt her fingers push on his back. Next thing he knew he was right up against the fabric of her shorts, feeling her pussy. The first thing he noticed was how moist she was becoming already. As Rachel rubbed James' tiny body on her she closed her eyes and let off a soft exhale. Just like at the pool, it seemed like there was no turning back. James would have to be ready for round two because that is where it seemed like things were heading.

Oh James, do you feel that? I can't wait, I need you right now. I'm so fucking horny right now, it's good that we're alone. What do you say we turn down these lights and get ready for bed? I think it's about time we settle down for the night. I love what you're doing down there. Do you think you're ready to get to the real fun part?

Ready to have James please her again, Rachel immediately started to get the bed ready. She crawled over to where she wanted to lay and pulled her blanket. After turning down the lights James knew it was time. He felt like the luckiest man in the world to be given a chance with this beautiful giantess. He wanted to tell her just how much he loved it as well. It seemed like Rachel felt the same way too, so he imagined of all the fun they would have in the future even if he somehow remained shrunken.

Some time had passed, but it seemed like they were still up to it. With James under the sheet down at her pussy, Rachel felt like a queen. The little man was making her body feel heavenly as he put effort into his work. Not once did he want to stop because it was too much. He wanted to pleasure the giantess no matter what. Rachel loved this about her boyfriend. As she laid back and enjoyed herself, she could not stop thinking of how she would reward James at the end of it.

Holy fuck, James.
James! Fuck me I'm cumming again!
This is the third time already. I don't remember the last time I've ever felt this good.
Yes! Right there babe, that's it! Fuck! How the hell are you doing that? Please don't stop, I want more.

It seemed like Rachel was getting more into it by the minute. The little man was able to make her scream easily.
Every moment of this just made Rachel desire it more.
Having James shrunk was now becoming something they both liked. She wondered to herself if going to a doctor was still worth it. If they were both okay with this situation she would want to have James with her for the rest of her life.
