

JIMMY FALLING INTO JESSICA'S TRAP

Part 1

The timing was perfect. Jimmy slipped into his sister Jessica's room for practicing her witchcraft. They were twins, but to Jimmy's bitterness, Jessica had the right sex. So now that his sister was going to be away for the weekend, he was going to try on his sister's new training unitard.

Angrily he had watched as his sister had received the package that morning. Even more so as she was impressed with how the dressmaker had managed to capture her design. If it wasn't for the highschool graduation festivities, Jessica would have been able to try it on, instead of only holding it in front of her, while looking at herself in the mirror.

Part 2

Luckily for Jimmy, Jessica had arranged to meet her friends for the weekend at Alexis and Martina's lake house. Because of that, the promotion and the rush, Jessica had left the package in which her new unitard had arrived on her bed, not locking it away, as she usually did. Jessica liked to try things on, while smelling new. But her mother was careful to wash all new clothes, to avoid any toxins, parasites, or infections.

With trembling hands and a racing pulse, Jimmy pulled out his sister's new gymnastics training uniform. He did not particularly like the suntan color, but with that design, it was ideal. It was a full suit, from the neck to the toes. The sleeves ended in elegant and sensual peaks, which were hooked at the middle finger. The body part had the design of a leotard and the leg part was made of sheer fabric, as if it were pantyhose that she would wear underneath the Leotard. As with most gym overalls, there was a zipper in the back.

Part 3

The smell of the new suit was intoxicating, and the feel of the fabric was super soft. By far, that fabric was better than the rest of her training or competition uniforms. Many sparks of pleasure awakened Jimmy's nervous system when he put it on. And it was no wonder he got an erection when it started to cover his legs.

The suit seemed to be made to fit him with how stretchy it was, even though at first it looked like it was going to be too small for him. But to his discomfort, that suit had something that the rest of Jessica's suits did not. It was something in the crotch area. It was rubbery, somewhat wide, and had two slight bulges. One directly at the butt part and the other one pressed just below his testicles. But it was not something Jimmy couldn't ignore in his excitement.

With each zipp of the zipper, Jimmy's penis was getting longer, harder, and hotter. The fabric seemed to wrap around it as he zipped up the suit. As if the suit wanted to wrap it into its own sleeve. In addition, the sensation of feeling the suit getting tighter and tighter, as he zipped it up, gave him an exciting rubbing sensation that turned him on even more.

Once the suit was closed, Jimmy looked inside the box to see if there was anything else he could wear, and to his surprise there was. A pair of dancing sandals and a wig with a Bob hairdo, like the one his sister wore. Biting his lip in desire, Jimmy could not resist trying on those two things too, before looking into the mirror and discovering, that well, if it were not for his flat chest and the bulge in his groin, he looked very much like Jessica.

Part 5

Walking around the room with somewhat awkward steps, Jimmy was stroking his body, delighting in the feel of the suit on his body. When suddenly, he realized that something was happening. At first it had been just the sensation that the unitard felt a little tighter in some spots, like his knees, around his wrists, more pressing at his neck, something that was normal. But now the sensation was concentrated around his member, and the leotard part of the suit began to change... to a darker color.

Jimmy, uncomfortable and somewhat worried, reached for the zipper pull. He felt with his hands behind his back for the zipper pull, which seemed to have disappeared. Then, his blood, full of hormones that had made him ignore all the warnings, froze.

"Hope I'm not bothering you little brother?" he heard his sister's voice coming from the closet. When she came out she was dressed in a suit similar to his, but in blue and holding a controller in her hand, which she waved at Jimmy's sight.

"I have activated the suit and it is now sealed, you can't take it off anymore!" she said with a mischievous smile.

Part 6

Jimmy desperately tried to remove the suit, but there was no way he could stretch the fabric more than a few millimeters. He demanded that she give him the control. But Jessica ignored him. Instead she pushed another button, and Jimmy noticed something strange, but very pleasurable around his member that brought him to his knees.

"Why would I release you?" said Jessica walking towards her bed while enjoying what she was seeing. "Wasn't this what you wanted, to enjoy my suit? Well take it as a gift, it's yours, but you're going to do one thing for me, that I don't want to do. By the way, you can't refuse, I've hidden a camera and I'm recording everything."

"What?" he answered with a worried tone, looking in all directions. "You won't dare to... I wouldn't be able to..."

Jessica crossed her legs as she sat on the bed. Feeling that she had all the power and knowing that her little brother was helpless. At the mercy of whatever she wanted to do with him, under threat of posting the video, was making her very horny.

Part 7

Gradually, Jimmy became aware of what kind of suit his sister had bought. Noticing the fabric getting tighter and tighter around his chest, as if something was growing underneath and struggling to expand. The bulge of his penis and testicles was getting smaller and smaller, his voice becoming higher and higher pitched, with a tone more and more like his sister's. Suddenly noticing the appendix near his ass growing and pushing deeper inside, Jimmy couldn't help but moan in pain and pleasure as it began to enter and fill him.

"What do you..." Jimmy tried to say.

"... Do I want from you?" Jessica said as she enjoyed feeling her legs rubbing against each other. "You'll know soon enough, let the suit complete your transformation and do its job. Don't worry, it won't hurt. On the contrary, you will experience the same pleasure I feel when I let my boyfriend make me his whore and fuck me hard."

Jimmy really liked the idea of transforming into a girl. But what he didn't like about it all, was that it was because of his witch of a sister. And that she was recording everything, which meant she could blackmail him all she wanted.

Soon his/her new breasts filled out the suit that adapted perfectly. The transformation from Jimmy to Jyna, as Jessica called the new woman, was well underway. The suit had changed color and now looked like the tanned skin of Jessica

Almost an hour later. Panting, Jyna tried to control the rapid breathing of her body. This new experience had been the most intense and pleasurable of her life, and she was exhausted. She already didn't care about what Jessica had done to her, now she wanted more, she couldn't get enough. And what made it even more addictive, was what the suit was doing to her.

Jyna didn't know how much time had passed, but now that it was all over, she knew that now she was no longer Jimmy. Her virginity had only lasted a few seconds when the second dildo began to fill the vagina that had formed as her male genitals atrophied. She had felt so wet and full because of the two dildos that were now shrinking and leaving her body, leaving her with a feeling of emptiness that she already hated.

They had made her have so much pleasure and so many orgasms, that Jyna, in her nirvana of ecstasy, could not remember much. Jyna stroked her perfect, still quivering body, through so many orgasms. Her hand became wet again as she reached her crotch, while the other explored her new, ultra-sensitive breasts. She looked at her sister Jessica, who had both her hands resting between her legs, while she bit her lip and her eyes looked anxiously at her.

"I'll do whatever you ask," Jyna told her, waiting for her to turn the suit back on. "But leave me like this."

"But you already have, honey!" Jessica said with a cold gleam in her eyes, not hiding that the scene had turned her on so much, that she was rubbing herself and was very wet with excitement. "And for not being Jimmy again, don't worry, in your state that's impossible."

Jyna didn't really like that look and those words from Jessica, how they sounded to her, when suddenly, she noticed again the feeling of tightness of her skin, a new pressure from inside her, like when her breasts grew, but now it was different, the feeling was coming from her belly.

Part 9

"What have you done to me bitch?" Jyna gnashed her teeth as her hands went to her expanding belly.

"Isn't it obvious sis?" said Jessica with a victory face. "I have granted you to be me, in exchange for having my babies. My boyfriend has become very heavy on this issue... and I wasn't going to let having his baby ruin this perfect body, I don't want to end up like our mother, looking like a cow after having us."

"What?" Jyna shouted not quite believing what she just heard. "How could you do this to me?"

"A moment ago, you weren't complaining," Jessica replied amused as she put her high heeled shoe on Jyna's belly. "When you were enjoying the great pleasure my vagina gave you, exploding with each orgasm, meanwhile the dildo splashed you and filled your dirty new slutty womb with my Adrian's semen. I have to admit that, for a moment, watching you made me envious and I regretted letting you get pregnant, but... I really like my perfect body."

"Also I'm not going to give any slut the chance to take my boyfriend and future sports star away from me, just because he wants some brats around the house," Jessica went on. "As soon as I show him the pregnancy test he will propose and after the wedding a big chunk of the money he will make will be mine."

Part 10

Having completed the first part of her plan, Jessica decided to prepare for the second and final part. She took something from a drawer. That object had come with the package, but she hid it before leaving the room, knowing that Jimmy would only focus on the box with the clothes. With that object, she was going to rewrite her parents' memory, making them believe that Jimmy had always been Jyna. In addition, she would make the four of them move to the city where Jessica's boyfriend would enter college on a football scholarship.

"Listen well Slut!" she said before leaving the room. "If you behave well and keep your mouth shut and obey me, I will not totally erase your memory. Later when I get bored of Adrian, I will let you fuck him, as long as I have my adventures. But keep one thing in mind, try to expose me, and I will seal you in a Goblin suit and upload your videos to the www.xdarkf.suit website for everyone to meet my sister as a whore.
