JUNKYARD GIRLS 3

STORY AND ART BY

REDFIREDOG

"Come out come out, wherever you are..." Tiffany said, peering over the fences. "Tell me where ya'll are hidin,' and maybe I won't smash ya' quite so badly... Ready or not, here I come!"
Wade gasped as he say the enormous woman leaning down over him. Panicked, he started to run, but before he could make it two steps, he found himself in Tiffany's arms.
www.erofus.com

“Gotcha! You’re really not too good at hiding, are ya?”

“Okay little guy, now I’m gonna have some fun with ‘ya…”

Tiffany lifted him up as if he weighed nothing. To someone TIffany’s size, men were playthings, and weak, breakable ones at that.

“Oww,” Wade cried, “y--you’re grabbing me too hard!”

“Am I?” Said Tiffany, “sorry Sug,’ I’ll hold you nice and loose. How’s that?”

Wade looked over towards the old car, and saw how badly the cab had been crushed. “You… you killed Ricky… Please, let me go…”

“Let you go? You’re such a kidder. I’m gonna do something way more fun than that! But first, I gotta ask you one question. Tits, or ass?”

“What?”

“Ya know, breasts or butt?”

“I dunno, but please, let me--”

“‘Butt, please?’ So you like the booty, do ya? Okay, butt it is!”

"No, come on, please..." But Tiffany ignored his pleading. She made her way back towards the truck, and tossed Wade carelessly onto the hood.

Wade landed hard against the car's hood. The impact knocked the wind out of him, and then some. "Uurgh..." Wade tried to get up, but the slightest movement caused him incredible pain.

www.erofus.com

TIffany looked down upon Wade's body with a wicked smile. "You ever have a woman sit on your face? Well how about one that weighs four and a half tons? Not that I'm letting your little tongue anywhere near my you-know-what..."

Wade tried to protest, but couldn't manage anything more than a pained groan. Tiffany slowly stood up, sticking out her enormous ass for Wade to see.

Tiffany slowly knelt down over Wade. "You like the view, right? You want me to sit down on that little face of yours?"

Wade, slowly regaining his energy, managed to get out a few words. "Don't... don't crush me..."

"What's that?" Tiffany replied. "Did I hear 'crush me?'"

"No!" Wade called out, but before he could get out another syllable Tiffany's extremely ample ass came down on top of him.

Tiffany let out a sigh as she gently let her ass down on top of Wade. At least, it was gentle for TIffany. As her wide ass settled on top of the car, she raised her feet into the air, putting her full weight onto the hood--and onto Wade.

"What's wrong, love? Did I squish your little arms? Are your little bones broken? Well you're lucky your little body is small enough to slip between my ass crack, or else I already would've squished the rest of your too!"

"Now let me just get a little more comfortable... Can you breathe now? Nah? Good. I'm just gonna put you in time out for a minute, so you can think about what mean things ya' said earlier..."

"You know, a lot of people have said a lot of mean things about my body over the years. Well, you reminded me about something important. I'm bigger than all those people, so I can just squish 'em!"

"Nah," Tiffany chortled, "I really should, and I kinda want to anyway. Get ready to be smashed in five... four... three... two... one!"

A second later, Tiffany's enormous ass cheeks smashed through the hood of the car. Her weight instantly flattened the hood, and Wade with it. Blood splurted out from Wade's body, as he was instantly crushed under Tiffany's behind.

Tiffany leaned back onto the hood of the car, laughing as she rolled around on the [illegible] candy.
"Whew, that was better than whiskey!"
www.erofus.com

Tiffany's sat up, taking a moment to appreciate the damage she had caused. The car was half-flattened, little more than a pile of twisted metal. Her ass, which was easily as wide as the car, had left two butt cheek-shaped imprints on top of the demolished hood. And then there was Wade, or rather, there wasn't Wade. His limbs were still relatively intact, but his body had been ground into a pulp.
"Good riddance, ya big jerk," Tiffany said as she appreciated her handiwork.

"So, last chance. You tell me where Tony ran with the 'Juice,' or you end up like the others."
Two of Tony's gangsters were trapped under Brandy's chest. Brandy started to press down, slowly lowering her titanic breasts on top of the two criminals. The sheer weight of her breasts fell onto the men's bodies, making it all but impossible to breathe.
www.erofus.com

"Ugh," the blonde man yelled, "I'll talk, I'll talk!"
Brandy reluctantly lifted her breasts, just enough so the man could talk. "Where'd Tony take Big Gina's shit? This growth 'Juice'? Is he hiding out here in Oakland?"
The blonde man gasped for air. "I-I didn't hear nothin' about him goin' nowhere! Far as I know, he never left Detroit."
www.erofus.com

"Never left Detroit? Why the hell would he stay in Big Gina's territory?"
"I dunno, maybe he couldn't leave? Maybe the buyer was there too? All I know is last I heard he was holed up in some biker bar by 8 Mile. Now let me go, I've told you everything I know!"
"Good," Brandy said, "that means I can enjoy this now..."

The air was forced from the men's lungs, as the weight of Brandy's titflesh slowly pressed onto the men. A little more, and ribs started to crack. The number rang through Brandy's head. 3700 pounds. Each. She smiled at their pain, and at her own deviousness. They had given her what she wanted, but of course, letting them go wasn't part of the plan. And she probably couldn't stop herself anyway.
Patience was overrated. Brandy leaned forward, lifting up her arms and letting the weight of her upper body fall onto her chest. So much for savoring. The men were crushed flat in an instant, pulverized by Brandy's incredible weight. Their ribs and skulls crunched, organs bursting like water balloons. Blood splattered out from under Brandy's breasts, then slowly pooled around her.

"Ooh, wow..." Brandy felt an intense release. Not merely a sexual one, although that was certainly a part of it. She had completed her duty. She had completed her mission, eliminating Tony's crew and getting what seemed to be some good information from them. The blonde guy, the one that was now a bloodstain on her left tit, seemed to be telling the truth. With some luck, she could track down Tony and the missing "Juice" once she got back to Detroit.

All they had left to do was wash down, get dressed, and meet their contact by the trainyard. Brandy was amazed at how perfectly everything had gone so far. They hadn't even attracted any attention yet; an impressive record, considering they were operating in broad daylight, in a city where people weren't used to giant women. And just as incredibly, little Tiff' hadn't caused any trouble.

Tiffany. Brandy suddenly realized she'd forgotten about her sister. Glancing outside, she didn't see her. Presumably little Tiff' was just outside, playing around with Steve, or whatever her new friend's name was. Was it Greg, or something?

Before Brandy could find her sister, someone else spotted her. A police car, responding to an unusual call, made a patrol through the area. To their surprise, she was there.

The officer stopped his car and made a call on the radio. “HQ, I’ve got a code 69, that’s right, a code 69. Guess it wasn’t a prank call after all. We’ve got one of the girls from Detroit right here, by WeldRight on Columbo Street. Subject is a female, blonde, nude, and at least ten feet tall, probably larger. There is also what appears to be a crushed pickup truck on scene. Requesting all available units, over.”

"Tiffany!" Brandy, called out. Craning her head, she squeezed through the tiny (to her) garage door. She was happy to see her sister, even as she wondered what trouble her little sister could have gotten into...

"Sure." Brandy replied curtly. "But then why did you wander off?"
"Well, sis, I felt kind of sad, since I was tryin' to be gentle this time. And since you'd just told me that I would hurt him, I didn't want to hear you say 'I told you so,' and... Well, I just wanted to be on my own for a while, right?"
"Okay, so you decided to wander off in the middle of an important mission, in a city with a hostile police force, three thousand miles away from our home turf, without telling me? Did anything ELSE happen?"

"Oh shoot, I didn't even think about that. Nah, the car's right back there, I can go back and clean it up."

"Fuck, nevermind that." Brandy listened closely. Minutes earlier, the streets had been all but deserted, but now, she could hear the sound of several nearby cars coming towards them.

www.erofus.com

"Cops." Brandy collected herself. "Tiffany, you fucking--okay, look, we can deal with this together. Listen, our ride is waiting for us by the train tracks. That's only about three blocks away. We can make it, but first we've got to take out the first wave of cops. Assuming they don't call in a chopper right away, we should be able to make a clean break after that. So as soon as they get here, get ready to--fuck. Let's do this."

It only took the police a few seconds to get set up. Their cars screeched to a halt, and the cops quickly stepped out and drew their guns. Brandy was hoping to get the drop on them, but now, it was too late.

www.erofus.com

Brandy ran over to the black pickup, her enormous breasts bouncing wildly with each step. It was time to put her plan into action. Wasting no time, she bent down and deadlifted the two-ton pickup.

It wasn't especially heavy to her. For Brandy, lifting two tons was the equivalent of a normal girl lifting a 50-pound weight. She raised the car above her head.
"This is your final warning!" The megaphone rang out. "Put down the car now, or we will be forced to shoot. I'm going to give you three seconds."

Just as the officers were about to empty their clips, Brandy emptied her own hands.. With all the force she could muster, Brandy chucked the car at the police. Two thousand pounds of weight flew through the air.
The already destroyed car fell apart, as the hull went flying towards the officers. Car parts flew through the air like shrapnel, spinning off in every direction.
www.erofus.com

The officers did their best to dive away, as the vehicle barreled towards them. Several narrowly managed to escape, but one female officer was caught flat-footed. The hull of the pickup slammed into her, crushing her abdomen against the hood of the police car. The pickup had scarcely lost momentum, and continued barreling through the air until it crashed into the side of a brick wall.

Brandy charged in, full of rage and making sure not to waste the element of surprise. The cops were still reeling, giving her time to close the distance and pick them off before they could regroup.
The black officer maintained his composure. Stumbling back to his feet, he raised his pistol and aimed it up towards Brandy.

Brandy didn't like having guns pointed at her. Two [illegible] stride, and she was already on top of him. Fuck. To Brandy's alarm, another officer had his gun pointed at her. He could have shot her by now; luckily, he was hesitating. Brandy stuck her foot under the car in front of her and kicked it up. Before the cop could react she flipped the car over and sent it flying towards the cop. The car barreled end-over-end, slamming into the officer with enough force to crack his skull. The car rolled on top of the fallen officer, pinning him to the ground.
The impact triggered the car's siren. It blared out, deafeningly loud and faintly distorted.

With another cop taken care of, Brandy searched the scene, scanning for anyone else who might be a threat. It looked like there was just one cop left to deal with... at least until reinforcements were called in.

The smart thing to do would be to take him out quickly, and move on. Brandy, though, wanted to have some fun with this one, and she was still waiting for Tiffany to make her way over. Besides, she told herself, I have information to gather. That's worth the extra time, right?
Brandy crouched down above the officer, who was bending down to pick up his gun. "Hey there," she said, "you looking for something? Let me help you out!."

Brandy leaned down, so that her breasts started to push onto the cop. “It’s really easy to get careless and hurt people with these things. If you don’t want to end up as a bloodstain on the pavement, you should tell me. Did you call for reinforcements? Are they sending more of you guys after us?”
“What the hell do you think?” The cop yelled out, trying to talk over the nearby siren. “Of course they are! You can’t get away, you’re done for, you’re...”
Brandy lowered just a bit more of her weight onto him, enough to expel the air from his lungs. That shut him up. “One of use is done for, cop. And I’m just going to take a guess and say it’s the one who’s choking on two tons of tit. I’m not wasting any more time with you.”

"Freeze!" The officer yelled, his voice barely audible over the siren. "If you move one muscle, I'll fire twelve rounds between your eyes!"

"Okay," Brandy said, "Don't shoot! I'm on the ground, I'm unarmed. You've got me!"

To Brandy's chagrin, he actually kind of did. The officer had a clear shot at her forehead, and on her chest, she couldn't react as quickly as she could otherwise. Maybe if she reached out she could just barely grab him, or knock the gun from his hand. Trying something like that wouldn't have been wise, though, not considering her other options. But it wasn't all bad. Brandy sighed with relief, as the siren behind her finally stopped.

"I'm not fucking joking, don't move!" This officer's hands didn't tremble, as he held his aim at Brandy's head. He was a steady shot. "I know you're thinking about killing me. Well go ahead and try, I'd love to have an excuse. Dead or alive, you're not getting away! You can't win this!"

"Maybe not. But she can."

The cars slowed down as the scene of destruction became visible. Inside, the police looked around carefully, scanning the area for potential threats.

Not more than a block down the road, Brandy and Tiffany waited in ambush. Crouched down on opposite sides of the road, they waited for the perfect time to spring their trap.

Officer Johnson slammed on the brakes, stunned by the sight of the enormous, nude woman. She thrusted back, nearly ramming into the other police car before she raised up to her feet. Tiffany got on all fours, sticking out her ass to taunt the little cops in their tin cans. “Hey officers, how you like that!?” She kicked her own ass, sending a ripple through her ample ass fat.

Brandy bent down, eager to start the plan. “Okay sis,” she said. “I can’t wait any longer. Let’s do this!”

They slammed their asses back, and the sisters' simple plan kicked into high gear. The girls slammed their asses into the side of the cars, bending the frames as they pressed the cars together. Then, with the cars pressed against each other, they used the leverage of their thighs to easily overturn the cars.

www.erofus.com

"Man, smashin' cars ain't hard, but it sure is fun!" Tiffany marveled at just how easy it was. Even for the smaller sister, turning over a 3,000-pound police car was child's play, and flattening it would be just as easy. Tiffany thrust her ass out, and felt the hood caving in even further. The cars creaked as they squeezed tighter together, turning further onto their sides.

He reached for his radio, but found his arms pinned against the seat by the windshield, as he was trapped in his ever-shrinking prison...

Tiffany and Brandy braced themselves, digging their heels into the ground as they pushed their asses even further back. The car roofs and been all but flattened now, and the metal frames were starting to twist and compress. The officers inside were pinned by Tiffany and Brandy's gigantic asses.

Brandy let out another low moan, which Tiffany took as a yes. She put her back into it, thrusting her ass as far back as she could, as the metal of the car bent and twisted around her. The officers inside found themselves smothered by Brandy’s immense ass as as the car’s hood, their only protection, began to press against them.

“A little help now, sis’? Brandy had already stuck her ass out as far as she could, and still hadn’t finished smashing the car. Her sister said nothing, but quickly picked up the slack, leaning back onto the cars. Eight tons of mass fell back, pressing the cars flat. As the cars flattened, the cops were squeezed between the layers of steel, like an ever-shrinking steel prison. The metal pressed them flat, squeezing their organs between the sisters’ enormous asses.

Tiffany savored the moment, thrusting her ass back a few times for good measure. The middle of the cars were thoroughly flattened now; it felt almost like she could feel Brandy's butt through the bottom of the police car.

The two vehicles crashed head-on, but there was no doubt of which one would be the victor. After a momentous smash, the police car flipped, barreling end over end, and throwing the officer through the windshield. The semi truck plowed through undeterred, while the police car rolled violently onto the side of the road.

The truck slowed down, then reared to a half in front of the two sisters. Tiffany was uncertain, but Brandy, for a moment, was pleased to see the driver.

www.erofus.com

Brandy bent down to the comparatively small driver's seat. It was Gabi alright: chunky, half-dressed, and 'only' eight feet tall.

"Gabi," Brandy said, "I didn't know you were going to be picking us up."

"Yeah, well I am. And this isn't a fucking meet-and-greet. Whatever the hell you guys did has drawn a lot of attention. I wasn't even supposed to leave the trainyard. If Gina finds out about this--"

"She won't," Brandy replied.

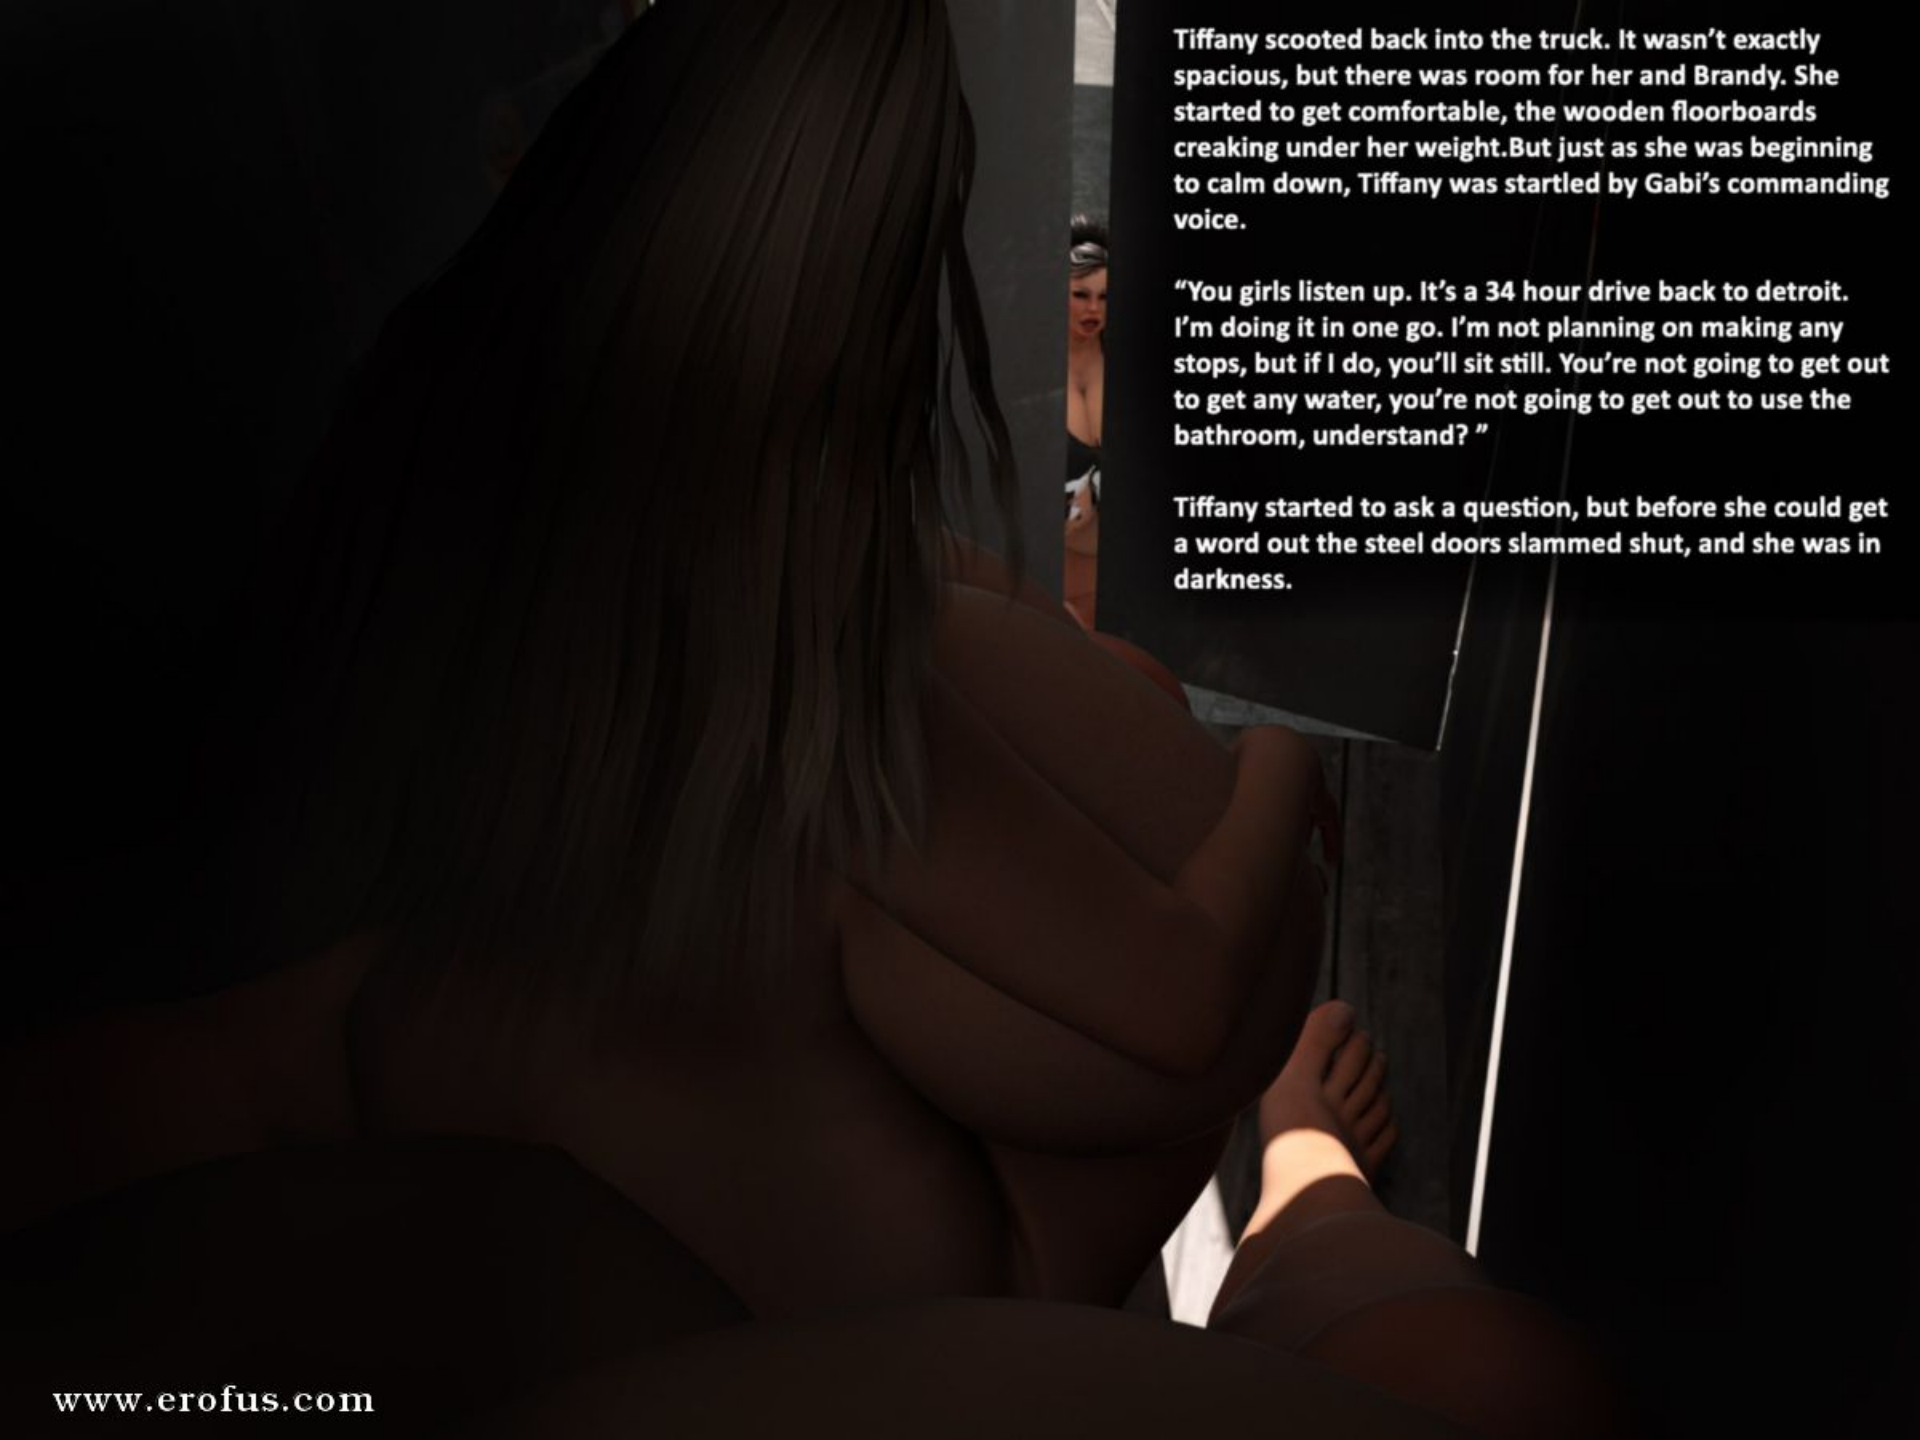

"She better not, or it's both of our asses. Now get in the back, we've got to get the hell out of here!"

Maybe it was just in her head, but Brandy could have sworn she heard sirens in the distance. Either way, she didn't waste any time. She ran around to the back of the truck, and threw open the metal doors. With a heave, Brandy vaulted up into the back of the truck. The truck bounced on its suspensions, struggling to support her weight.

www.erofus.com

Brandy turned to face her sister. “Come one, get in here!” Brandy yelled.
“I’m… coming!” Tiffany was out of breath, but she forced herself into the truck as well.
www.erofus.com

Tiffany scooted back into the truck. It wasn't exactly spacious, but there was room for her and Brandy. She started to get comfortable, the wooden floorboards creaking under her weight.But just as she was beginning to calm down, Tiffany was startled by Gabi's commanding voice.

"You girls listen up. It's a 34 hour drive back to detroit. I'm doing it in one go. I'm not planning on making any stops, but if I do, you'll sit still. You're not going to get out to get any water, you're not going to get out to use the bathroom, understand? "

Tiffany started to ask a question, but before she could get a word out the steel doors slammed shut, and she was in darkness.

A moment later, the truck started up. There was no way to see outside, but the sisters stood tense as they rode off, listening closely for any sign of what was happening. The truck's engine was loud, but Tiffany could just make out sirens over the clamor. At first they were distant, but then they grew closer, until the sirens were right on top of them. For a few minutes, they heard nothing but the siren of one police car after another passing right by them.

After what felt like an eternity the last of the sirens faded away. The only sound now was the hum of the engine, and the sound of passing cars. Tiffany closed her eyes, only to be startled by the feeling of her sister's legs wrapping around her. Only a sliver of light came in from the door, but as Tiffany's eyes slowly adjusted, she was able to make out her sister's face.
"Sis?" Tiffany asked, "what's wrong?"

She was a truly enormous woman, with skin like milk chocolate. Tiffany couldn't see her face, which was blocked by her massive breasts. Her gigantic breats had been stuffed into a tight corset, which she clearly grew out of long ago.

She wore a red hoodie over her corset, but the hoodie likewise was too small for her gigantic breasts, and couldn't close in the front. But more than all that, it was her height than amazed Tiffany. woman was far taller than Tiffany, or even Brandy. And she was thick to boot, perhaps even moreso than Tiffany or Brandy.

"Are you..." Tiffany hesitated. "Are you Big Gina?"

"Get up," the enormous woman said. "I've got a lot of questions for you."
