A DREAM COMES TRUE

MAD MAGGY
A Dream Comes True...

Maggy is a brilliant lady scientist. Possessing one of the best brains in the world. She is a director of a very top-secret research program, and has won many prizes and grants for her innovative devices related to robotics and electronics. She has fame, money, and smarts. Her life should be a very happy one, but for one thing.....

Her own personal robot - the one she was born and lives in is very defective. Every time she looks in the mirror's reflection of her ugly face and body. Only four feet and eight inches tall. A tendency to get fat, and a nonsense shape. Her skin and complexion are very unpleasant. The result of a personal experiment to improve her on looks that went bad a few years ago. Also, due to extreme allergic reactions to medications she cannot be a candidate for plastic surgery. She, feels she is doomed this physically disgusting image for the rest of her life!

She does try to stay in healthy shape by going to the gym regularly. Working out her small muscles for all they are worth. She has found the best private gym in the country and works out there four hours a day.

The Star Gym is the best one. Reserved for ladies only, and very, very expensive. Membership granted to only the rich and famous. The beautiful, the super sexy. Some truly unbelievably built women! Maggy had to pay even extra to be admitted, due to prejudice against her size and appearance.

At first all Maggy tried to be so friendly to these tall, super-built ladies. Trying anything to gain their favor. Perhaps learn some secret she has not discovered herself pertaining to the achievement of beauty. And - why not - the chance of meeting the many men these incredible women cast away after they finish with them.

At the beginning these beauties seemed friendly too, but it was only a golden doorway to a terrifying trap. As most these women were very sadistic, and incredibly cruel. In a few days she finds herself reduced to a slave-maid. Used and abused repeatedly!

For Maggy there seemed to be no chance for a real life. She had to find a solution to her problem, and eventually through her work, it came to her.....

For months on end Maggy feverishly worked on her project at a secret lab she kept for just such projects. Doing all the mechanical work herself, including welding and bending of special alloys. Slowly, the structure took on shape...

She created new polymers for the structure's covering. Made the most advanced hydraulic system known to man seem like a child's tinker toy set. She saved her most advanced research for the self-control unit of her creation. She did things no man had ever done before.

Finally it reached a point where her creation was far more than just a simple device.

It was not even truly mechanical in nature. It began to breath with a life of it's own, it seemed. For Maggy had created what nature had denied her. In front of her was her female robot all 7 and half feet of her!!

It was now finished and needed a name. ELKE, was the most fantastic fem on the planet, and with the touch of a switch, Maggy's beautiful creation lived!! She could control it by either manual operation from within ELKE, or like ELKE drive herself by self-pilot. It spoke in a hot sensual voice, moved with a muscular elegance.

www.lhart.com

The muscles themselves could be pumped up to terrific sizes like 45" thighs & 28" calves. Or 26" biceps and a 80+" chest!! ELKE could learn and think for herself on self-pilot. She was indeed a Dream Come True...

Maggy decided to test the power of ELKE's muscles. First biceps and shoulders. Seizing a pair of 400 lb. dumbbells she began to slowly pump them up and down. Then faster and faster like a well oiled machine. The muscles in those arms immediately grew to incredible size and shape.

ELKE even sweated for real, but smiled in the ease with which she could accomplish her task. The power unleashed from this woman's muscles would scare an elephant!

www.lhart.com

ELKE's power test continued with her back and triceps. Still smiling she seemed to enjoy her challenge with a 600 pound iron pile she lifted as easily as a 6 oz. glass.

The display excited Maggy and she felt proud of this wonderful creation as she continued sending telepathic orders to ELKE's tuned-to-her-only sensors.

MAGGY had given ELKE something she always had yearned for but knew she could never have. Long, enormously muscled legs! It was now time to test ELKE's towering pair...

ELKE's thighs, calves, and buttocks bulged out awfully large as she squatted under the weight of a 1500 pound barbell!! No sign of strain at all! Starting by doing her deep squat with both legs and then doing it with just one leg at a time! Maggy's astonishment was beginning to turn to something more like sexual attraction. Her heart filled with feelings she had never experienced before. Her first time being sexually attracted to another woman!

www.lhart.com

Maggy also checked ELKE's destructive potential. A rock filled punching bag is no match to her bulging bicep driven fist as too is a thick hardwood log over her immense upper thigh! Maggy is most absorbed by the vast, seemingly endless power of ELKE's supreme legs! From their perfectly shaped calves to her massively muscled thigh tops, ELKE's legs were an instant turn-on to watch in motion or at rest.

On a special metals scale Maggy measures ELKE's pumped up bulk weight. 360 pounds of bulging, burly, bulky female muscle! Everything has tested out to surpass even her wildest estimates for ELKE's true potential. Maggy knows she hasn't even scratched the surface.

Switching ELKE over to full self control she begins checking her electronic brain functions and discovers she has potential to become a real friend or sister, even... a lover.

As any girl, ELKE likes to be elegant and sexy. So soon they are trying on dresses, shoes and accessories that Maggy had bought to cloth her incredible creation in. Some items seem ready to explode as she zips them on over her enormous voluptuousness. Giving ELKE a pair of long panties, she pulls them up with no need for instruction, placing them above her firm, bulging buttocks.

Net-stockings, and two kinds of ultra high heels. Maggy finds herself automatically bending over to lace them up, reverting to the slave-maid status she had with the gym girls. But this time in service to her new lover/mechanical mistress ELKE.

But they are both having such a gay time they decide to celebrate the event. Opening several champagne bottles, putting on some dance music and cutting loose! With each passing minute ELKE begins to realize for herself what real living means!

She has been programmed with a lot of Maggy's own feelings and dreams, so she is a sexy man-eater at heart too. The booze and the music turn her on so that she becomes aroused and uses the corner of a steel-topped desk to get herself off!

The next day Maggy, moderately hung over, decides to go out with ELKE to gauge peoples reactions. Wearing a special suit that allows her to both physically control and experience every move and sensation ELKE encounters she enters her special driving booth sized just for her.

Wearing a very sexy short dress and high heels, she strolls through town, stopping nearly everyone in their tracks. Most men staring, mouths open and tongues wagging. Many with hard-ons raising in their pants!

Arriving at the local mall, they decide to do some shoe shopping. As they enter the store, the sell-clerk nearly collapses. Breaking out in a cold sweat he is constantly stammering and quivering. His dick achingly hard in his pants. ELKE is all his fantasy wet dreams brought to life! Soon he has to excuse himself every 10 or so minutes to come in the stores bathroom. Sometimes he doesn't make it and has to change his pants.

When ELKE bends over his eyes glue themselves to that magnificently huge ass, nearly fully revealed beneath ELKE's short, short, skirt.

Helping her into the many pairs of shoes he nearly comes again as the subtle flexing of her huge leg muscles send his heart rate into the danger zone!

Finally leaving after the clerk doesn't return from the back room, or respond to their calls to him, they go to a lingerie shop to try on a multitude of sexy pieces. They ring up a terrific bill here (They had previously left without paying for their purchases from the shoe store), but the vendor is in such an amazed and dazed state. His body nearly drained from repeated comings, ELKE realizes that she is the Mistress who can ask, demand anything she likes of these slavishly worshipful little men!

To check this out, she pays for this nearly 3 thousand dollars worth of underwear with a long wet, deep-in-the throat kiss and a hot massage of the vendors straining little dick. Making him come again and nearly die of desire. Then leaves to find something to drink.

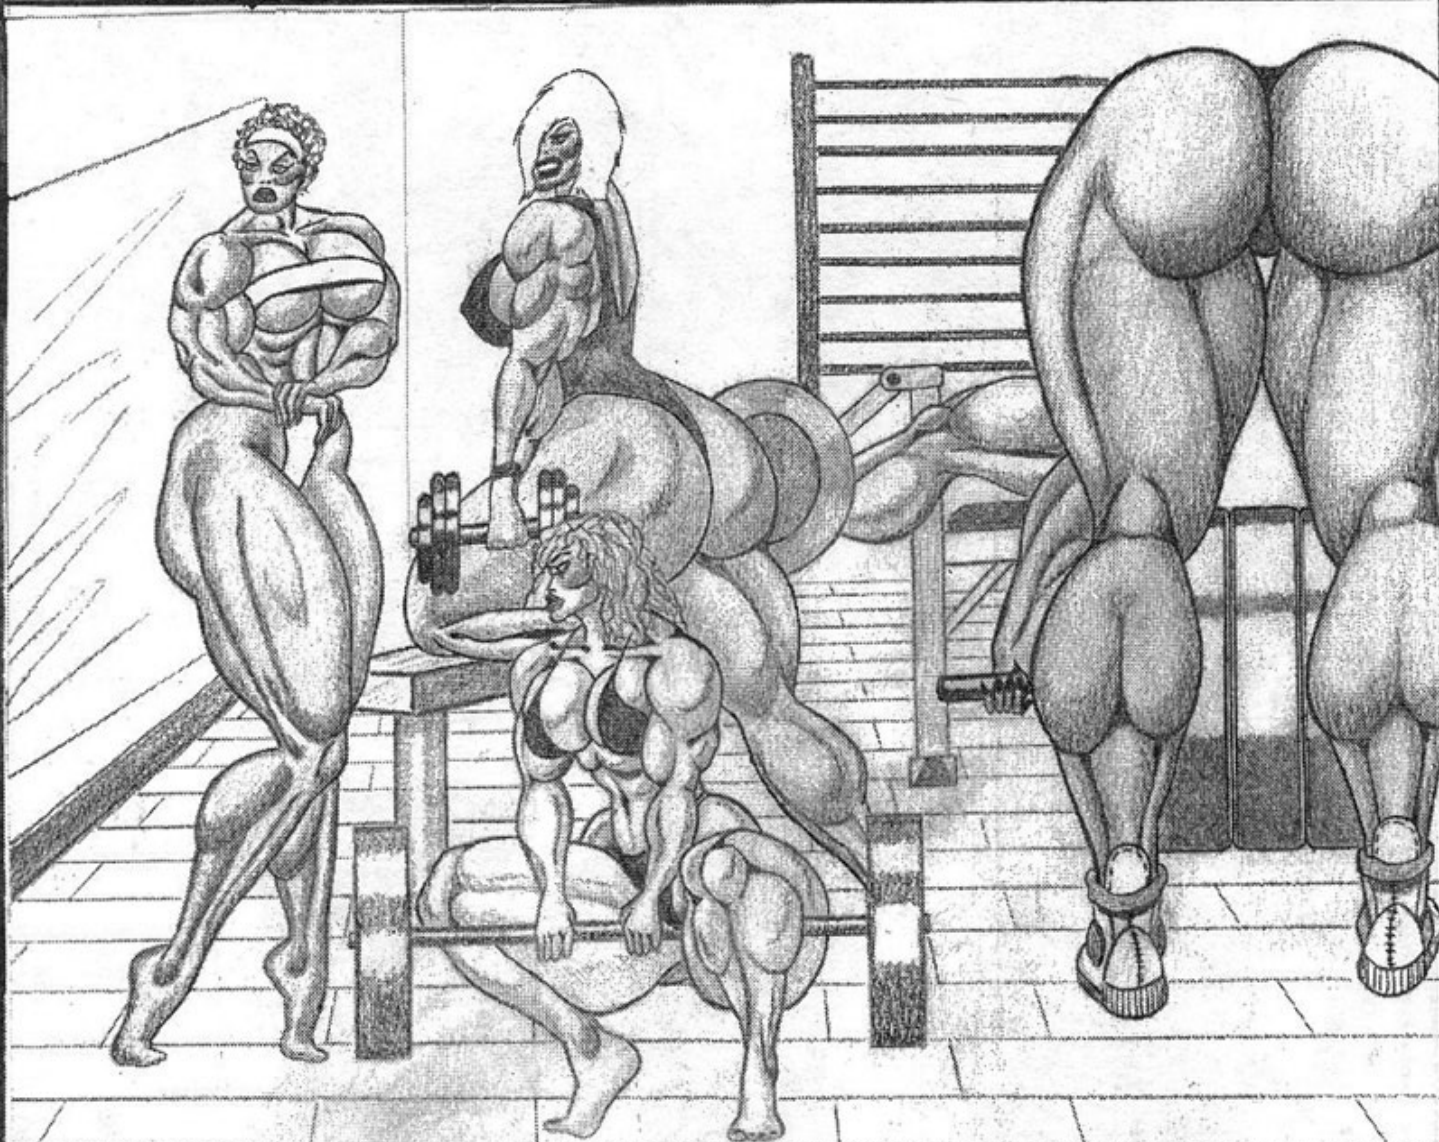

While sipping her drink, Maggy feels like this is the first truly beautiful day of her life.

But suddenly this dream fades as she thinks back to the Star Gym and she remembers the muscled girls there waiting for her return for more sadistic games and torture.

Sadie, their leader. Blondie and angel face equipped with iron abs & arms. Piggy and her special lifting rigging. And Dolly, the boxer. Under this foursome Maggy experienced the most excruciating tortures, and humiliations no woman should be made to endure.

It all comes painfully rushing back to her – Sadie taking her in the shower room and making her suck her large, wet pussy until she came again and again. Her poor little body squeezed near to breaking between her tree-trunk like thighs.

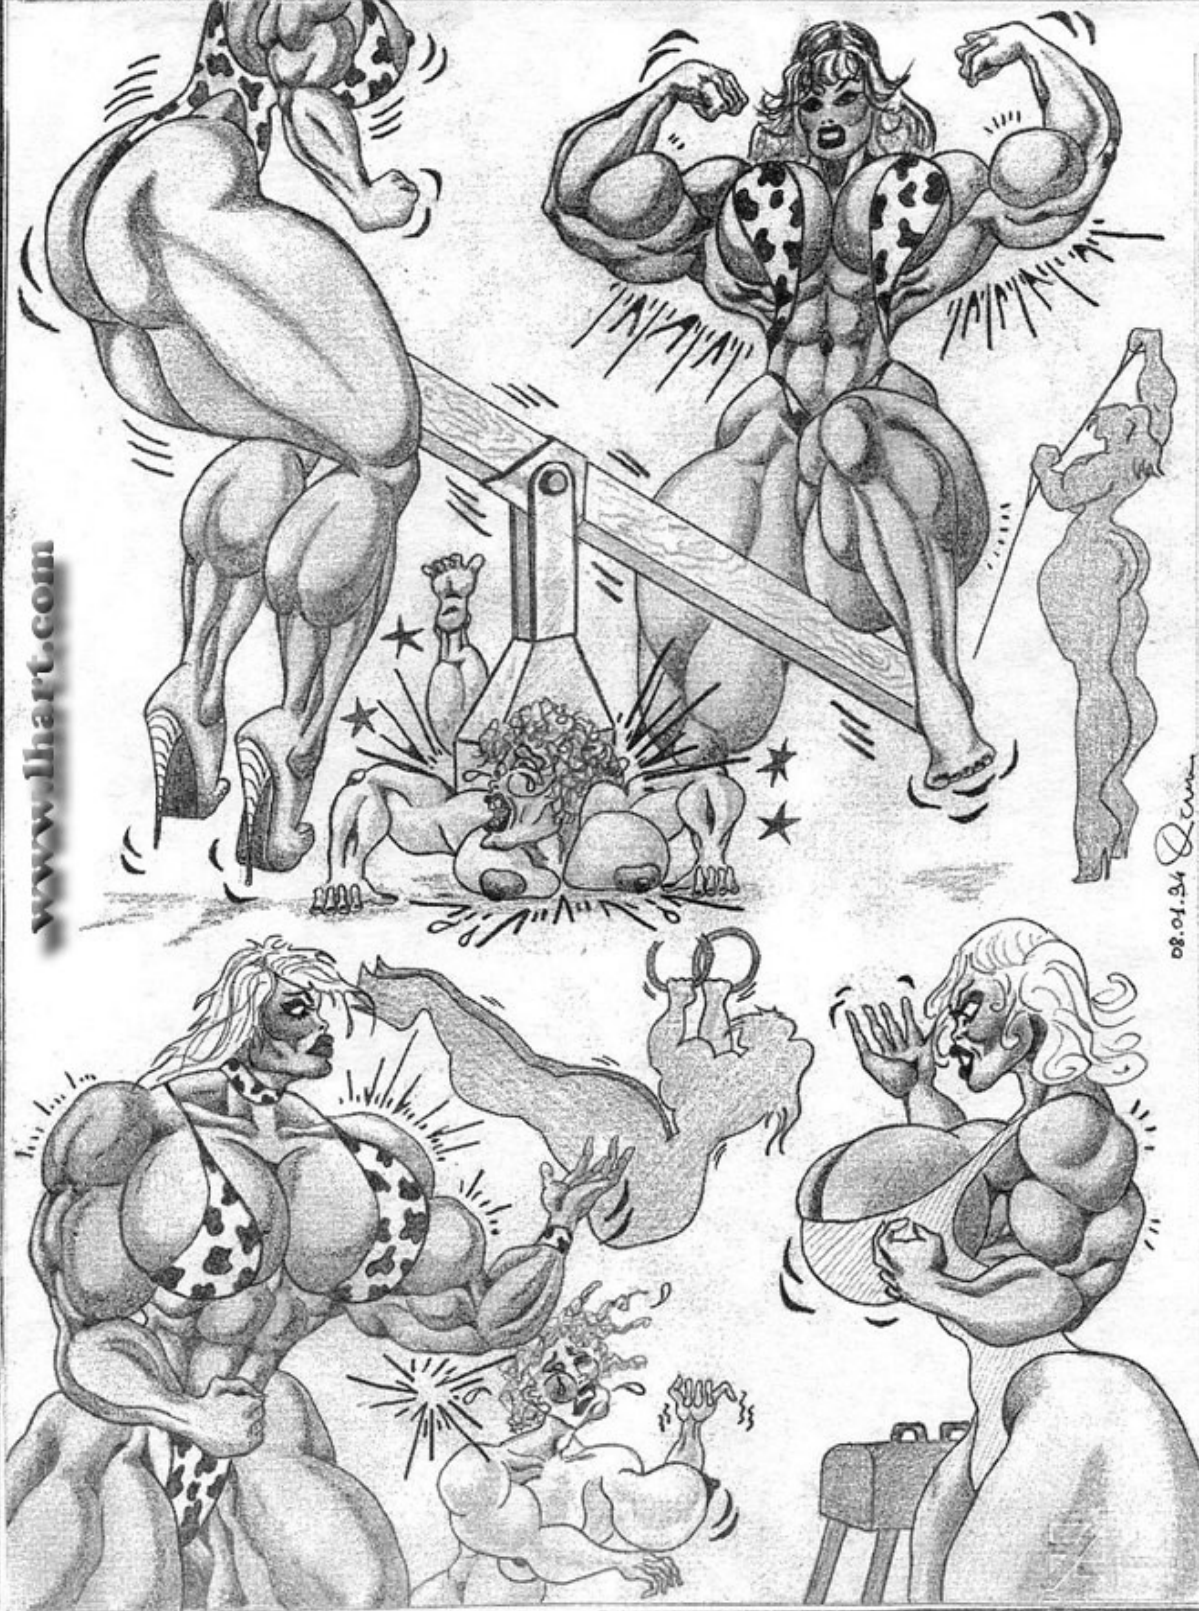

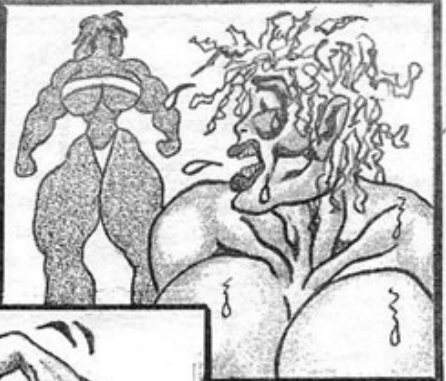

All the ass-licking and repeated face-sitting sessions she had to endure! Some of these woman weighed over 200 lbs! And they revelled in continually crushing Maggy's short, puggy body with their superior weight.

One day at the gym she spent almost 4 hours without abuse. It was time to go home, and she rejoiced in it being a unique day, when Dolly and Piggy confronted her demanding she pay her daily fee.

She tried vainly to escape, but soon she was taken and stripped of her street clothes. Made into part of the gym apparatus, and suffered agonies she never dreamed could be inflicted on someone so small as herself by such big powerful yet extremely sadistic women as these. It finished with a warning, "From now on you must asked if you may leave the gym at night. And check what else we may require of you before we allow you to go!"

Maggy thought that would be the end of it, but she soon received a call telling her if she wanted to stay alive she'd better get down to the gym right away. They had called a special meeting and since the gym's owner was away in Europe, the girls decided they wanted to use Maggy as their permanent workout dummy. She had no say in the matter. Then they introduced to a old ex-member from Sweden.

This woman towered over Maggy like some viking goddess. Weighing more than 250 pounds she subjected her to such a totally one-sided massacre that Maggy was useless to both them and herself for nearly a month!

The girls realized that if they wanted their new gym toy to last they would have to soften their hard-line treatment a bit. So, for the next month they were friendly to Maggie, seeming truly concerned about her health. They even gave her some work-out pointers to help her strengthen herself up further. It was too good to be true, and it wasn't.

Maggie was starting to feel stronger than ever when she started on her again. But this time no devastating and dangerous hits. They had devised new ways of torture. Like prolonged head and body scissors! And the tied her to large amounts of weights which he had to keep up while trapped between massive, crushing legs. It got to the point where she could recognize each girl with her eyes closed against the mounting pain, just by the size of each of their smothering, and squeezing inner thigh muscles!

Those many months of being subjected to such repeated crushing and flattening under these massive girls was starting to have the positive effect of at least giving Maggy a more womanly, and muscle-toned shape. The pain she endured for it was worse than the most rigorous bodybuilding regime imaginable!

Maggy figured she must have been crushed under the biggest, and hardest female asses in the world. So many times that she abstractly calculated the combined weight to be over 60,000 pounds. All of it squashing her frightened face!

20

They used her also at the gym's swimming pool. Tied to the diving board as girls - none weighing under 200 pounds - jumped, and sprang themselves off her into the deep end. Her stomach and tits were completely blue. But she did loose nearly 30 pounds of fatty weight due to these torture sessions. The girls even complemented her that she was really starting to show some muscle for a change. Then they'd laugh at the pathetic reality of poor Maggy's overall condition.

And with those budding muscles the girls began to inflict more elaborate tortures on her. Using great weights and forcing her to hold much too much weight aloft. They amused themselves taking wagers on when her arms or legs would give out and the weight would come crashing down on her.

Her body was now taking on a definitely womanly shape, and many muscles were evident, but nearly the whole of her skin was constantly covered with huge bruises! Her new muscles constantly cramping up from over extension. What she needed now was a good stretching treatment, and the girls were more than happy to accommodate her!

Big, solidly muscled Piggy came up with the idea of using Maggy like a human swing! Suspending her high up over the gym floor she jumped astride poor Maggy's back. The air filled with Maggy's screams and the cracking of her sorely stretched back! When asked, if she wanted to thank her for her help in stretching her out, Maggy's only reply was a moan of pain, so Piggy again climbed atop her and started swinging her painracked victim. Another girl threw a leather belt to her and she began strapping Maggy for her ungratefulness !!

Soon this nightmare memory faded and Maggy's thirst for revenge replaced it as she finished her drink think, "Liquid alone will not quince this thirst! No, No dear ELKE we will need much more than that, won't we?"

ELKE/Maggy then left the mall and started walking down towards the Star Gym. Saying aloud to all the boys and men now beginning to follow this incredible vision of total female superiority, "Well boys, if you want to watch this body in real action, follow me ...
