Elke enters the Star Gym and finds Skinny, the gym's elusive owner sitting behind the desk. The sight of Elke's magnificent body nearly sends him over. She tells him that she is a famous bodybuilder/dancer from Sweden, and that she'd like to workout at his gym. Skinny immediately signs her up and shows her to the dressing room. His male member pounding in rhythm to the powerful swaying of Elke's colossal hips!

After changing into a very sexy transparent body-suit Elke goes to the workout area where she finds only Sadie there. She flashes her a smile full of hatred and satisfaction.

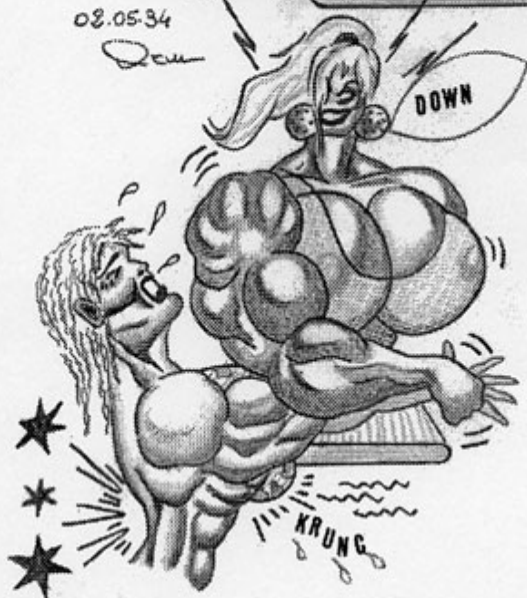

At these words, Sadie begins to shake and break out in a cold sweat. Elke (and Maggy inside her) just continues flashing that killer smile. Elke tells Sadie to sit down before she falls down, as they will start off with arm wrestling...

They grip hands and the game starts! Elke could win in a second, but she wants to amuse herself. So she holds back her true power as Sadie punches to her maximum. Muscles harden, veins pop. Elke's bicep grows to gigantic dimensions. Skinny's eye bug out as he watches. Then in about five minutes, when Sadie has wasted all her energy, Elke pushes down with unbelievable force crushing her arm to the table and almost dislocating Sadie's shoulder and elbow!

Sadie would like to quit right then, but Elke insist they test their leg strength. But before they start Maggy pumps up Elke's phenomenal legs muscles and invites Skinny to check them out. He, again starts stretching at the crotch of his pants as he runs his hands over legs two to three times larger than any he's ever felt.

Elke now tells Sadie that it is time for the main event, namely a no-holds-barred wrestling match. Looking to Skinny for help, Sadie pleads for his help. Skinny is in a pickle here. He'd like to watch such a slaughter, but he wants to help Sadie, as she has treated him to some favors in the past. He tries to tell Elke that she's too big for Sadie. Stammering around in fear of what this incredible amazon might do next.

Elke tells him he will be the ref. Then takes his brittle head into a headlock that makes his entire head vanish beneath her mighty muscle mass.

Releasing Skinny after he croaks out his approval. Elke has to goad him a bit to get him to tell them to start their wrestle, but once he does Elke quickly gets Sadie wrapped up into an extremely painful hold. Sadie complains of her injured leg from their previous contest. Elke grabs it and begins to twist it about. Doubling whatever pain it was already causing Sadie. Elke/Maggy will show her no mercy, just like she did to her in the painful months now past.

Elke begins to work over Sadie's legs first dislocating her left groin. Then she bends the right leg over her thigh twisting the ankle at a very painful angle. After this, Elke gets up to walk around a bit. Sadie is unable to stand up on her damaged legs. Smiling at the petrified Skinny, Elke sits behind the sobbing girl and clamps her tremendous calves to the sides of her head and starts to push her down. Closer and closer to the mat. Bending her painfully at the middle.

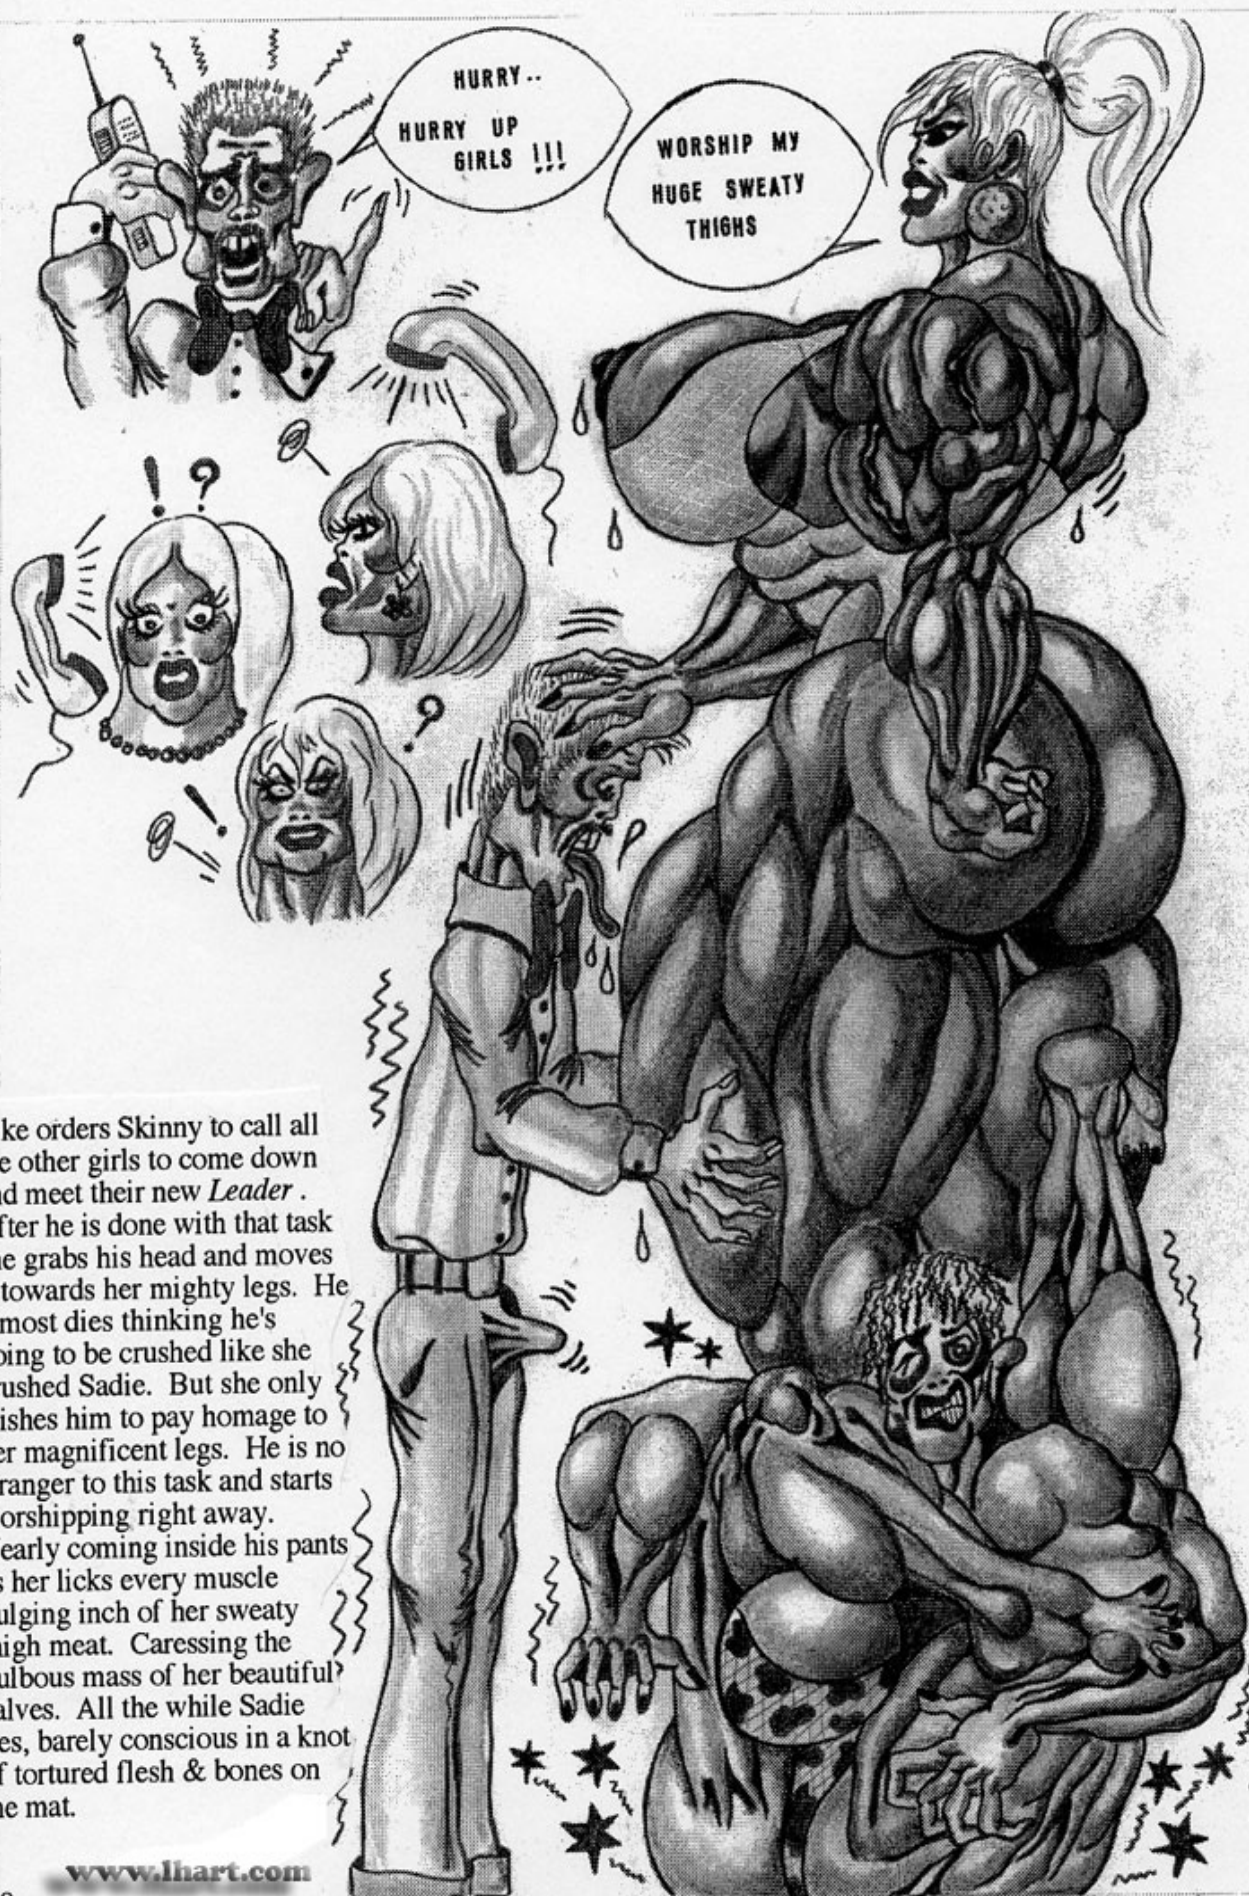

Sadie suffers like she has never suffered before. Her back nearer and nearer to breaking with each addition to the massive down force so easily applied by Elke's all-powerful legs! With one hand she reaches for Sadie's arms and dislocates both of them with a sickening popping sound. After this she gets up and forces Sadie onto her knee in front of her and clamps her head between her massive thighs for her ending torture! The pumped size of Elke's awesome thighs dwarfs Sadie's nearly crushed flat head. Soon she is unconscious.

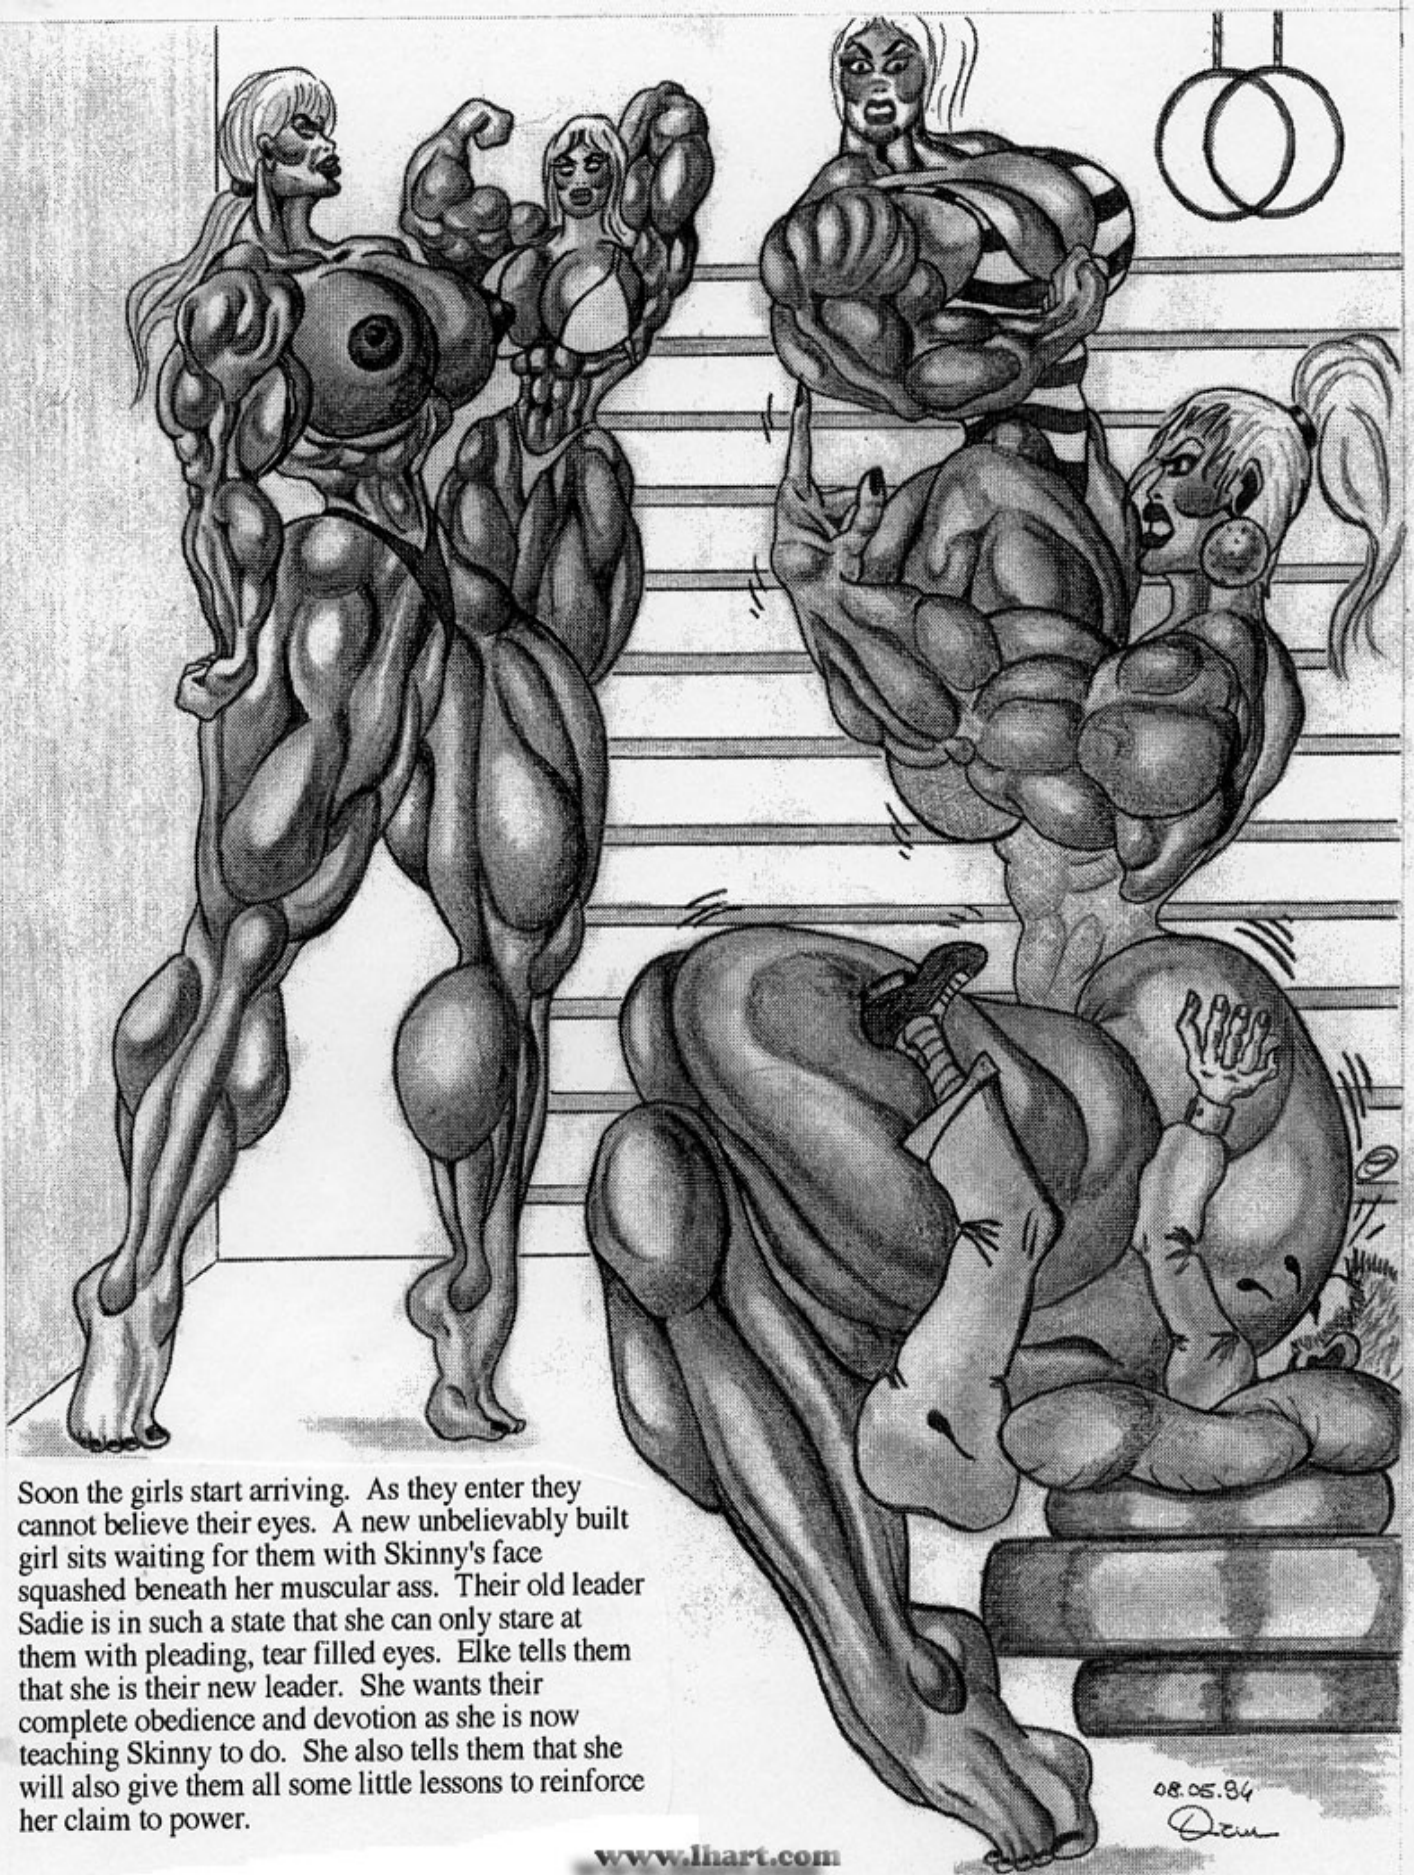

Releasing Sadie, she takes Skinny by the collar and lifts him up to her chest. He trembles in mortal fear of his astonishing female.

NOW MR. SKINNY,
THERE IS SOMETHING
I WANT YOU DO
DO FOR ME...

Elke orders Skinny to call all the other girls to come down and meet their new Leader. After he is done with that task she grabs his head and moves it towards her mighty legs. He almost dies thinking he's going to be crushed like she crushed Sadie. But she only wishes him to pay homage to her magnificent legs. He is no stranger to this task and starts worshipping right away. Nearly coming inside his pants as her licks every muscle bulging inch of her sweaty thigh meat. Caressing the bulbous mass of her beautiful calves. All the while Sadie lies, barely conscious in a knot of tortured flesh & bones on the mat.

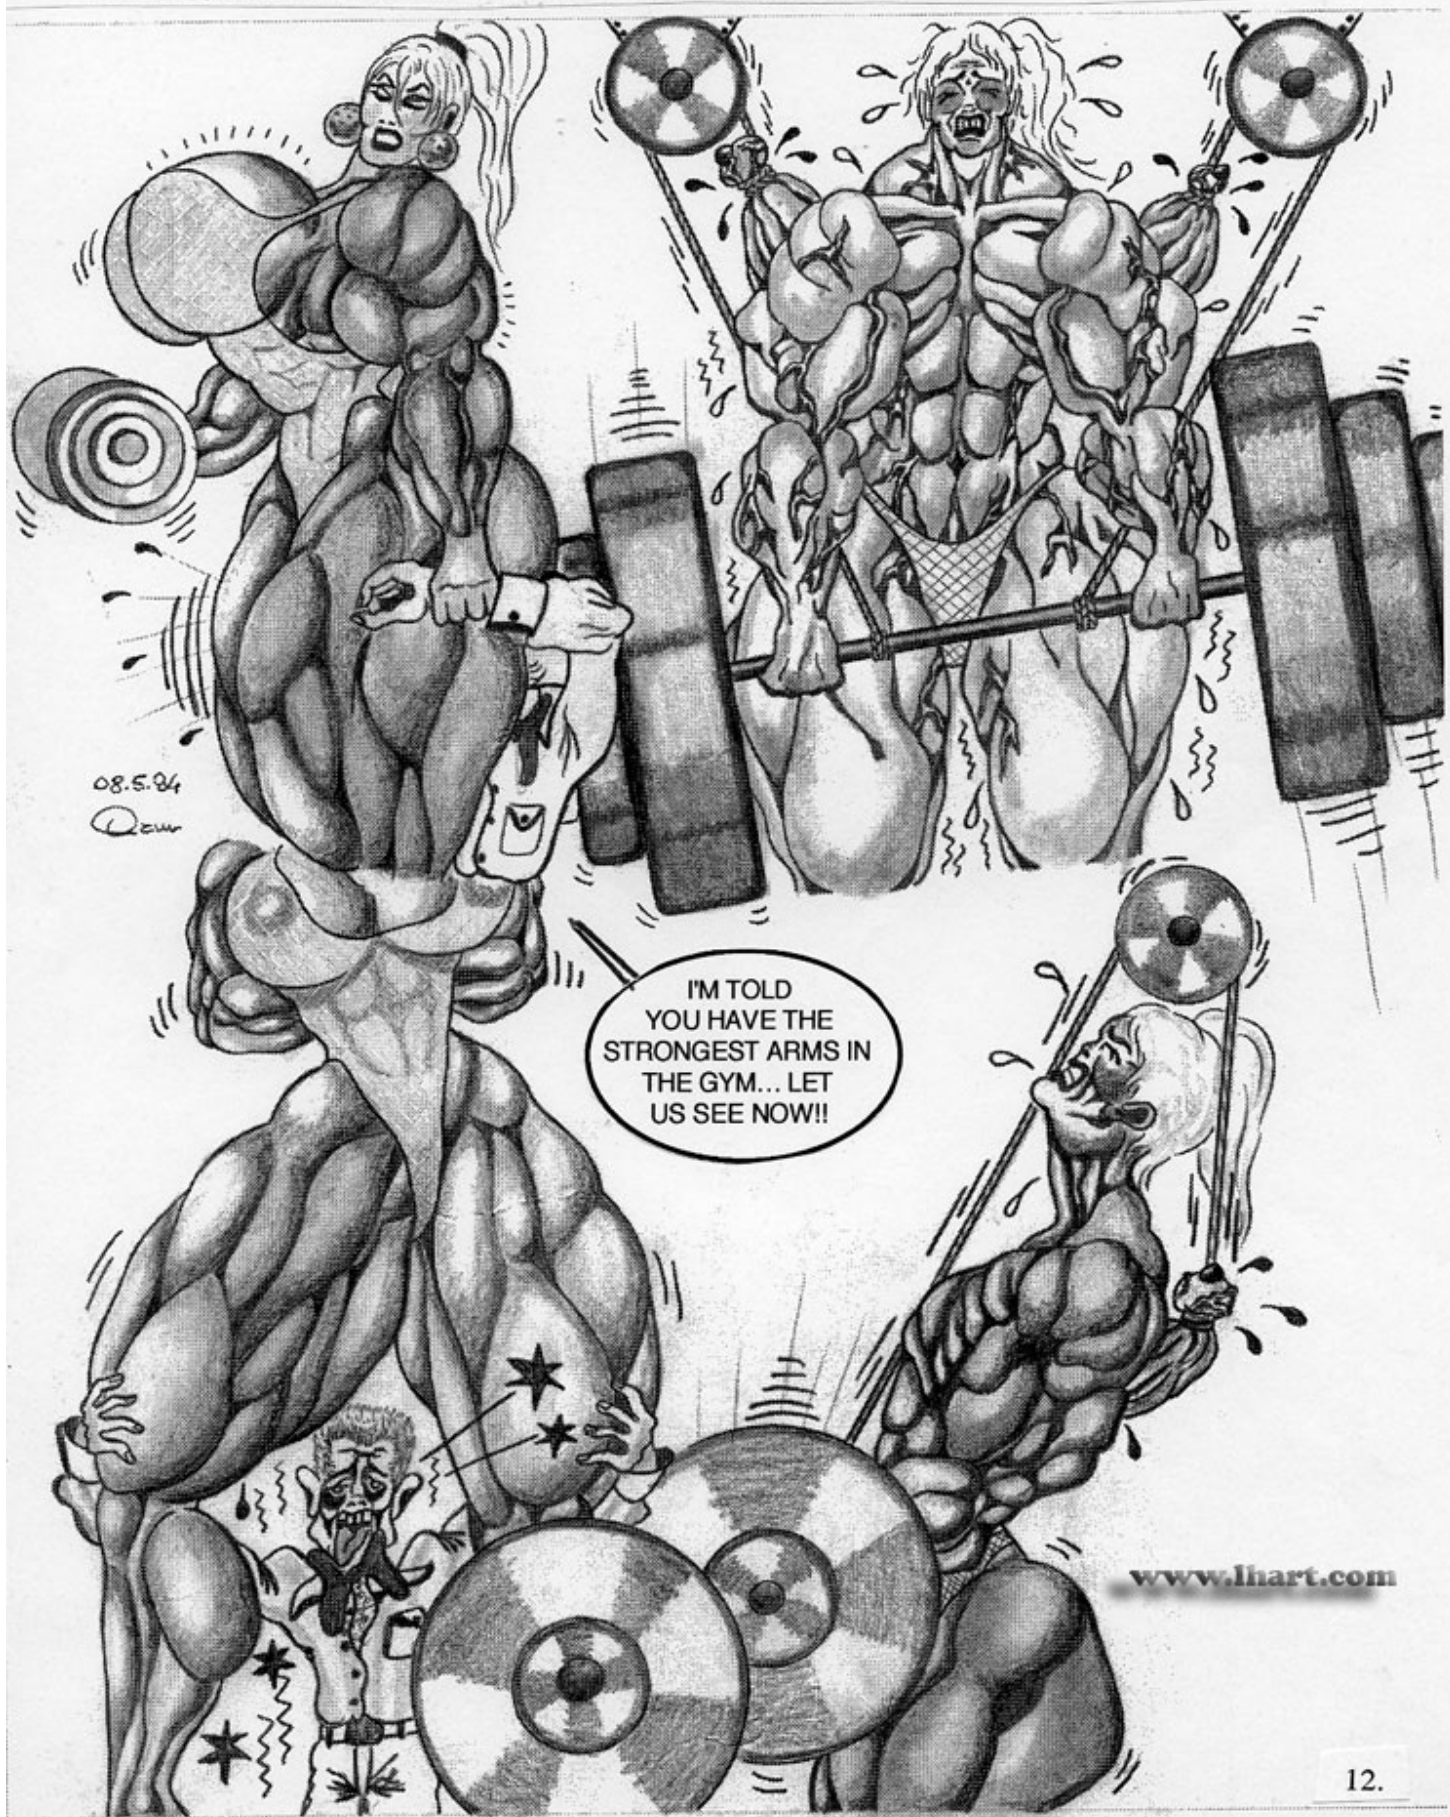

Soon the girls start arriving. As they enter they cannot believe their eyes. A new unbelievably built girl sits waiting for them with Skinny's face squashed beneath her muscular ass. Their old leader Sadie is in such a state that she can only stare at them with pleading, tear filled eyes. Elke tells them that she is their new leader. She wants their complete obedience and devotion as she is now teaching Skinny to do. She also tells them that she will also give them all some little lessons to reinforce her claim to power.

Blondie is chosen first. She tries to answer back to Elke, but before she can do anything she is caught fast and tied with rope around her nipples. Blondie wonders where the other end of the rope is tied as Elke hands her a 300 pound weight. The answer becomes self evident as her tits are nearly torn from her chest as she tries to keep her grip on the barbell.

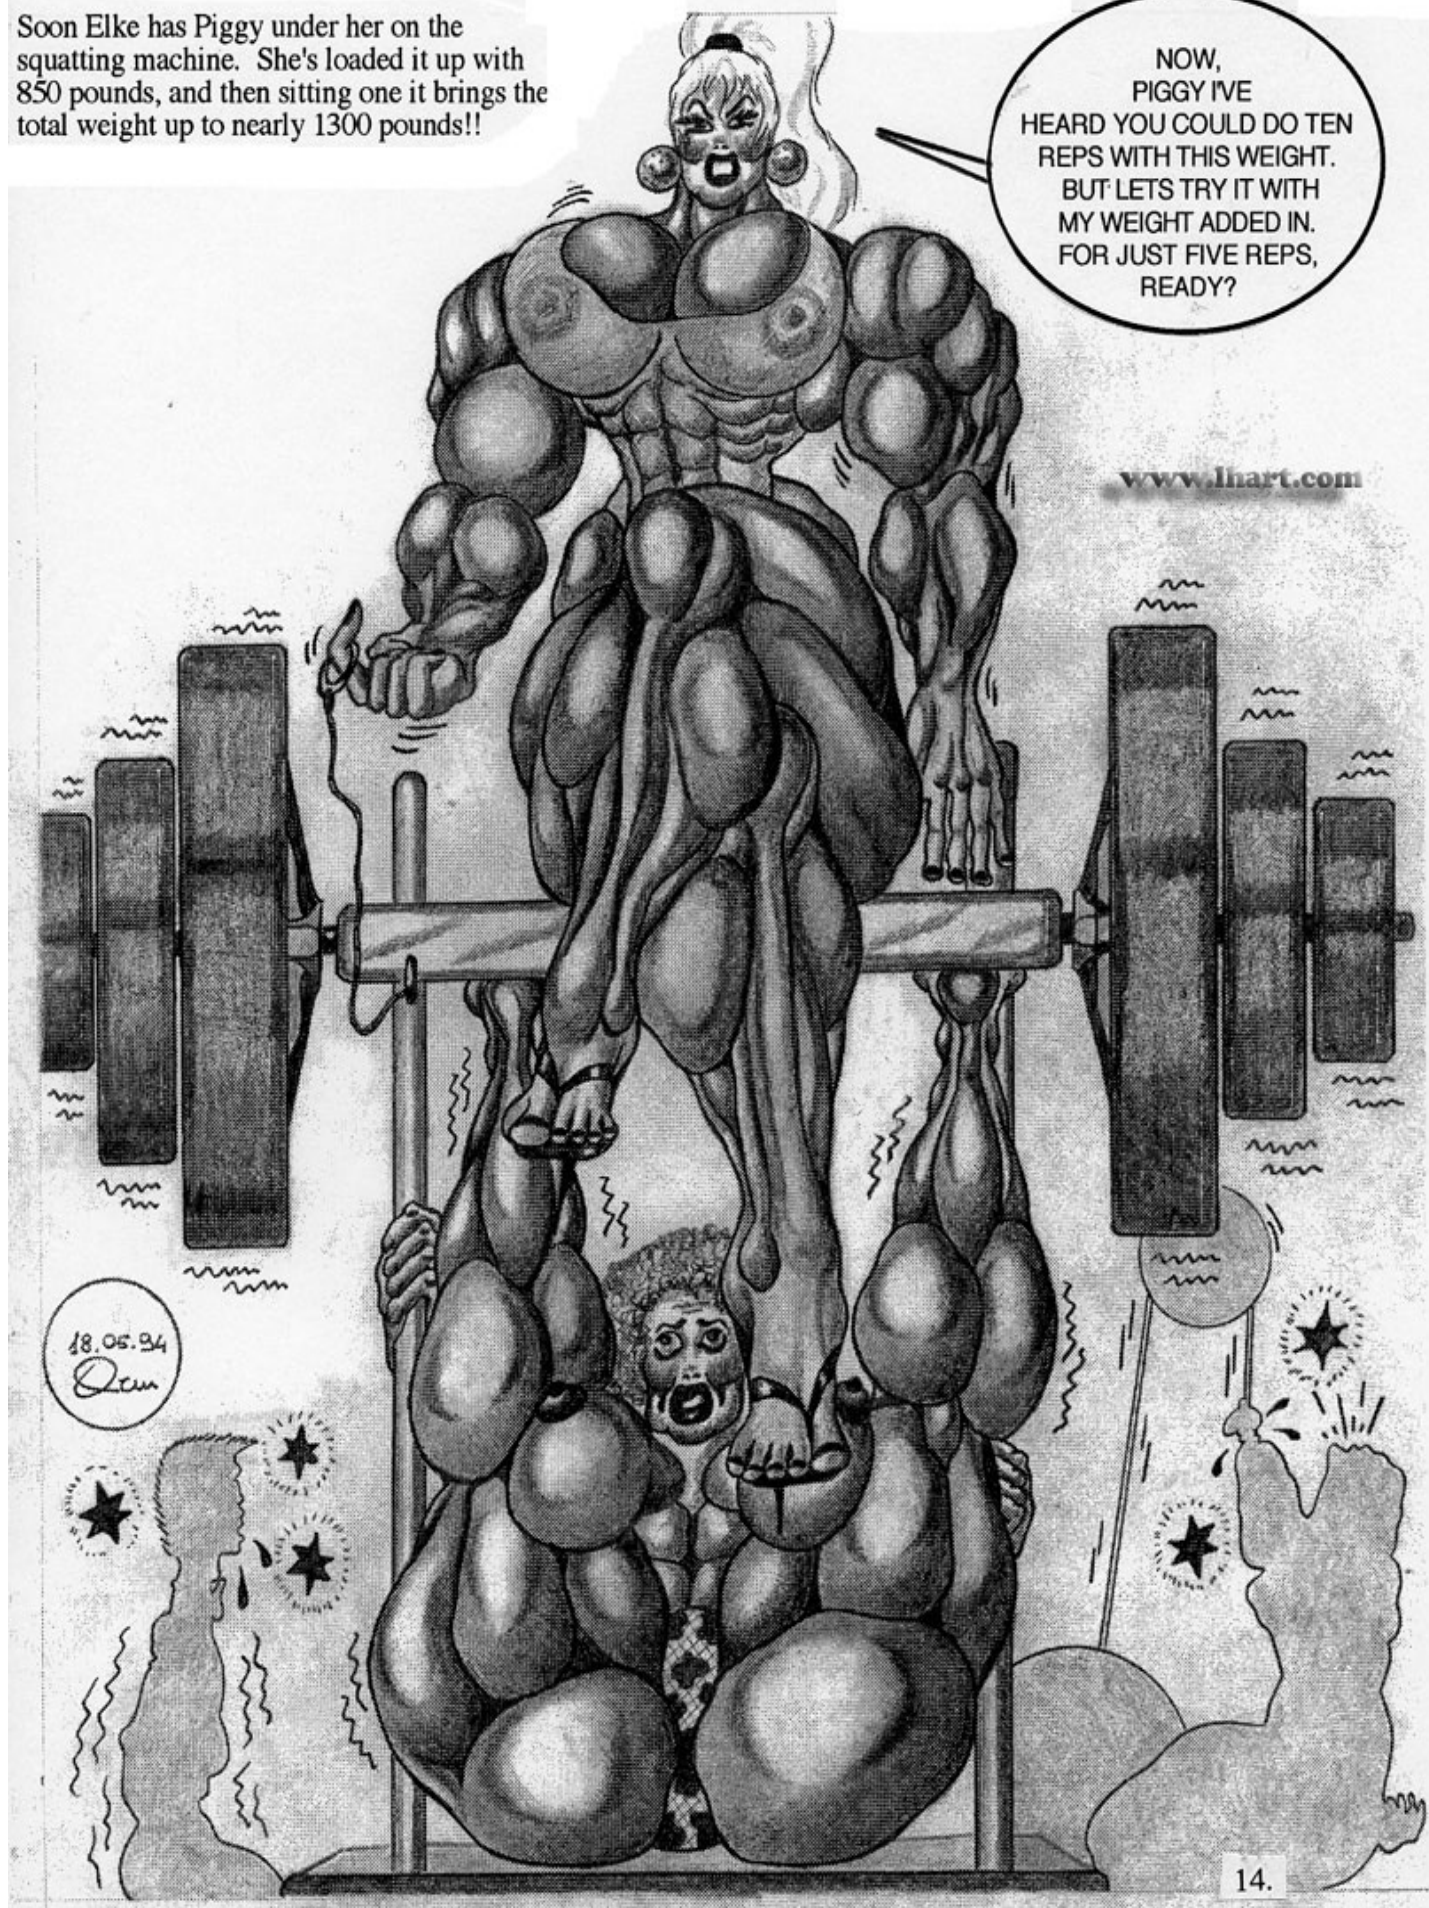

Blondie is near the end of her endurance. The pain is untenable. She drops the weight and is lifted up by her tits and they feel as tho they are being ripped from her body. Skinny tries to approach Blondie to help her and gets a blow from Elke's knee for his efforts. Knocking him out and bleeding his face. Elke looks at the other shocked and scared girls asking who's next?

Soon Elke has Piggy under her on the squatting machine. She's loaded it up with 850 pounds, and then sitting one it brings the total weight up to nearly 1300 pounds!!

NOW,
PIGGY I'VE HEARD YOU COULD DO TEN
REPS WITH THIS WEIGHT.
BUT LETS TRY IT WITH MY WEIGHT ADDED IN.
FOR JUST FIVE REPS, READY?

Piggy can do nothing but comply in the position she is not trapped in. She grits her teeth and moves the immeasurable weight down and up again slowly for one painful rep. Her legs start to cramp up on the second rep. On the third one tendons start popping. Down for the fourth rep, she can't push it back up. Quivering with over exertion she soon passes out. Then the machine with Elke on top come crashing down on her, smashing her beneath those 13 hundred pounds of synthetic flesh and iron.

Next it is Dolly's turn to box with the unstoppable Elke.....

The lesson over, they are all ordered to pay homage to the beautiful victress!

The next day Elke returns to the gym early for some private work before the other arrive. Maggy felt that her lessons administered the day before were enough to garner their obedience, but as they enter in mass and take up positions around her threatening, she can tell she mis-judged.

They tell her they are going to take her on all at once. Skinny is there encouraging them on. These words enrage Elke, and she immediately begins to kick ass royal!!

Blood and teeth fly everywhere. Taking on two at once with frightfully punishing locks. Poor skinny in literally crushed between her massive man-mashing legs!

It goes on and more limbs are dislocated, bones are cracked and broken until they all pass out. Most put out with terrific thigh & knee blows.

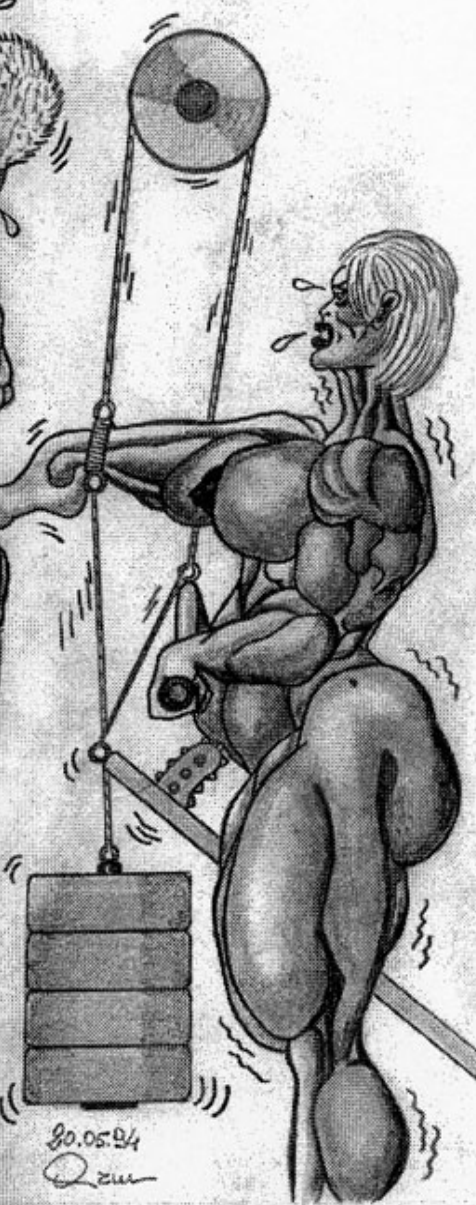

While they are all out Elke prepares everything and everybody for the show . All the girls are strung up in some torturous way and even Skinny in confined with straps so he is always face-front to her all engulfing ass! With Maggy's mechanical genius mind directing her Elke is very inventive with the set-ups of each girls awakening torture device.

As they all come around, their moans and groans soon become screams of pain and fear. The ingeniousness of their suffering is only heard by poor Skinny as all he can see is the great mounds of Elke's hard firm ass. The game is now over with Elke the obvious winner, again. There will be no further argument.

Skinny's face and head are again used as a seat cushion as the defeated, enslaved and humiliated hang and lay around them. Elke opens a bottle of champagne to celebrate her leadership/dominance.
