

A woman in a purple bodysuit is shown from the waist down, holding a grey toy fighter jet in her right hand. The jet has 'WA 75' on its tail. In the background, a desert landscape is filled with other toy military vehicles, including several green Humvees and a large, complex green mech-like vehicle. The scene is set against a bright orange and yellow sky, suggesting a sunset or sunrise.

DESTRUCTION

(BY ELRELATOR)

Three aircraft fighters finally arrived. They were all controlled at the same time by only one man, who flew one of them while remotely controlling the other two. His name was Theodor, but everyone in the army knew him as Tech Ted, because he was able to build and pilot all kinds of vehicles.

Look, doctor! Fighter jets!
They are going to attack us!

Don't worry Adele, you and the girls are invulnerable! They could nuke this place and that would only make you grow bigger and stronger... Of course, they could easily kill me, but they are nothing but insects against you!

You are wrong, doctor... They can't kill you easily, because I'm protecting you, remember?

T-thanks for that...
Y-you are an amazing woman!

I'm just as amazing as you made me, little man... You've given me these powers, the least I can do is take care of you in return, don't you think?

W-well... Y-yes... I guess that's fair...

Baum couldn't help feeling extremely thankful for Adele's protection. He was the one who gave the girls their abilities, but now they were so powerful that now there was no stopping them.

I've just identified our target!
Now I must attack the three female supersoldiers without hurting General Brewster!

Yay! They are sending the planes!

Great, finally some action. I was starting to get bored...

He is talking about Ted, my younger brother. They always send him to the most difficult missions...

An expert pilot? Who is he talking about?

WTF?! These chicks can fly too?!

Let's see what this "expert pilot" can do with his toy planes...

DEPT. COLONY SECURITY

Come on, little hero... Be brave and attack me with your strongest weapon!

You wanted it, babe! I hope you won't start crying if it hurts...

PILDT. COL. DAVID. TANK
CC. TROT PHILIP BOLT
ACC BORT. THOMAS H.

Ted launched a missile from one of the other planes. Surprisingly enough for him, Courtney didn't try to dodge the missile, she just waited for it, without moving an inch.

She embraced and clung to the missile, dragging it to to the ground with her weight.
Ted couldn't understand what she was doing.
It was as if she wanted to crash with the missile. Did she want to get killed?

Haha! Target destroyed! I think I've disintegrated that bitch!

The attack, apparently, was successful. Courtney disappeared in a huge fireball when the missile exploded against the ground.

Wow! I can't even see her remains from here! That was just too easy... I expected more from a supersoldier, hahaha!

Of course, Ted was wrong. Courtney was still alive, and everything had gone exactly as she had planned. She had absorbed part of the energy of the explosion and now she was bigger and stronger than ever. She used her invisibility to make Ted think that she had been destroyed and approached him.

Don't worry sweetie... If you expected more... You'll have A LOT more...

WTF?!?!

What's going on?! Something opened the cockpit!! And where's that female voice coming from?! It... it can't be...

Of course it can be, worm! Did you really think that a ridiculous missile could destroy a Goddess like me?

P- Please... D- don't hurt me!

Have some dignity, insect...
I thought you were a brave little man... Are you going to cry now?
Let me see your face...

Hahaha! You look like a nerd!
No wonder you were able to fly
three planes at the same time.
I guess you've played many videogames in your life...

I'm... I'm an expert in technology! P-please... don't kill me, Miss! I... I was just following orders!

I see... It must be frustrating or someone like you to realize that all your pathetic "technology" can't even tickle a woman like me. Soon I'll be able to crush all your planes with my bare hands...

And since you like "following orders" so much, I guess you won't mind following mine from now on...

Hold on to my foot, worm... Unless you wanna fall from here!

Whoaaah!!! O-ok!

A 3D rendered scene showing a man in a grey uniform hanging from a giant, brown, human foot. The man is positioned upside down, with his arms wrapped around the foot. The background is a clear, light blue sky with soft, wispy white clouds. A speech bubble is located in the upper right quadrant of the image, containing text.

Haha! What's wrong
sweetie? Can't you fly without your little planes?

A character in a dark vest and light pants is hanging upside down from a giant, grey hand with red-painted fingernails. The scene is set in a vast, orange-hued desert landscape. In the background, a small figure stands next to a green off-road vehicle. On the right side, there are large, tilted panels with red and white markings, including the word 'LEVEL' and some illegible text.

P-Please Miss! I'm begging you! I.... I don't wanna die! Don't let me fall!!!

Don't call me "Miss". If you want my permission to live, you'll call me "Goddess" from now on, understood?

Courtney! Please, stop scaring that little man! I feel bad for him! I'm sure he has learnt the lesson!

Now you'll kiss my toes one by one... And you'll admit that you are an inferior being!

Y-yes G-Goddess!
I... I'm an inferior being!!

And what about the kisses? I could end your insignificant life just by wiggling my toes...

Nooooo!!! P-Please!!! I... I'll kiss them! B-but please don't let me fall!

Ted closed his eyes and kissed Courtney's gigantic toes holding on to her beautiful foot. Even in a dangerous situation like that, he enjoyed doing so.

Keep kissing, microbe...
Worship me the way I deserve...

Y-yes G-Goddess!

Suddenly, Courtney wiggled her toes on purpose, easily making him fall.

Well, that's all...
Bye, shrimp!

Whooooooooaaaaah!

His whole life passed before his eyes in less than a second, while Courtney laugh cruelly. He really thought that he was going to die.

But then something amazing happened. A strange force field stopped his fall, saving his life.

Courtney! What the hell are you doing?! Were you really going to kill this man?!

Of course not... I'd have saved him at the last second... Why do you care so much anyway? Do you realize that he tried to kill me?

Yeah! I know he tried to kill you... But we are not like them!

Well, then what should do with all these toy soldiers?

So... we keep them as hostages and negotiate?

Of course, what else would you suggest?

A few minutes later...

We could just crush them all, I doubt the army would dare to send anyone else....

Courtney! We won't crush anyone, ok?!

Harumi, we are going to talk with the General, please take the rest to the other side of the base. It's better to keep them separated

Ok!

Brace yourselves,
little ones!

Is it ok if I play with them?

Sure! Have fun...
As long as you don't break them...

Oops! Sorry guys... Seems that the portal I created was a bit too high up!
A little miscalculation!

Why are you so tiny, by the way? I thought supersoldiers were big strong guys...

W-well... I used to be bigger, of course! B-but your friend shrunk me to increase her own size!

LEVEL 1

I see... And what about you, sweetie? Have you been shrunken too?

N-no! This is my natural height! I'm... not a supersoldier! Just a pilot!

Listen, insect... The only reason why you are still breathing is that I let you do it... Now you are going to do everything we tell you, understood?

We just want the army to cancel the supersoldier program, nobody should be used in a war against their will...

You heard her, worm... If you want me to spare your miserable life, you'll call whoever you must call and put and end to this supid program...

I'm n-not scared of you!
I'm a General! I won't take orders from a w-woman!

Don't pretend to be brave, tiny male... You are stuttering and shaking like a leaf... Get on your knees, ant...

N-never!!

Don't waste my time. You know you'll end up begging on your knees... Can't you just skip to that?

Courtney, we don't need to keep humiliating him. This is not necessary...

Don't be so innocent, Adele... Of course it's necessary! His little "male pride" is what keeps him from obeying. He must learn his place and realize how inferior he is to women like you and me, and he needs to be humiliated for that

Bend your knees, ridiculous worm...

Whooooah!!! Ok, ok!
P-please, don't crush me!

It's "Goddess" From now on, all the women here are goddesses for you, understood?

S-sorry, Goddess!

Ok little man, are you willing to cooperate then?

Y-yes!!

Good boy... Ok, first of all, by now I guess you've realized that your pathetic missiles can't harm us. So if we let you go, you won't be so stupid as to try to attack us again, will you?

Of c-course not, Goddess! We don't have any weapon strong enough to even tickle you!

Dangerous? For women like us? Haha! Come on, doctor. They can't harm us! I've been hit by a missile and it just made me stronger!

Awww... I know what's going on, little doctor... You are scared because you are still a frail tiny man... But you don't have to worry, sweetie. We are protecting you.

N-no... It... It's not that, Courtney! Believe me, they can still hurt you! P-Please ask the General about Rachel Vega... She is another female supersoldier, t-they could use her against us!

Ok, you've heard the doctor, bug! Tell him about that
"Rachel Vega"

Was that your plan, little rat? You expect us to let you go and then you'll try to send her to kill us? I should crush you...

Answer her, General... She can break all your little bones just by closing her fist... And I won't stop her this time

N-No!! Of course not! Rachel Vega was cryognized because her body was indestructible, and she was too powerful! We would NEVER wake her up! W-Why would we use a weapon we can't control?! P-Please lady... t-trust me... W-we'll do anything you want, I... I swear!

Courtney's gigantic fingers increased the pressure around the General's little body. She could break him like a twig, so he immediately started talking.

Is that true, doctor? Is that woman that dangerous?

You've never told us about her, doc... Did you gave her abilities like ours?

N-not exactly... Adele, your abilities were designed for missions of protection, Courtney's abilities were designed for spying, and Harumi's for rescue missions... As for Rachel... well, her abilities are designed to DESTROY.
That's why she is extremely dangerous, even for you, girls...

So... Adele has grown by shrinking one of you, and Courtney has grown absorbing the energy of a missile... Maybe I should do grow too, don't you think guys?

Meanwhile, at the other side of the base...

Awww! You are the cutest of the three! I think I wanna see you get even smaller... It would be adorable!

W-what?!!

Meanwhile...

Goddess Courtney... Please, have mercy! I don't represent a threat to you!

Before letting you go, I must make sure that you take us seriously, shrimp... So you won't try anything against us

P-Please, Goddess! Let me go! Y-You could c-crush my legs! I've told you everything I know!!!!

W-why do you keep torturing me?! I... I've promised that we won't wake up Rachell!

T-thanks Goddess
Adele, y-you are so kind to me...

I'll be honest, little doll... Actually, I'm doing this for fun. I like humiliating him...

I... I like it too.. b-but... we shouldn't do it, Courtney...

G-Goddess Adele... *mwah* *mwah* Y-you are magnificent! *mwah*

Why not? We can do anything we want now. We are GODDESSES... Please, use your cute little foot and press him against my pussy

I must admit that... that would really turn me on...

Adele pushed the tiny man against her crotch and Courtney moaned sexily in pleasure.

After toying with the puny General, they started making out, feeling extremely aroused by their own power over that insignificant male.

G-girls... I hate interrupting something so beautiful, b-but... I've been thinking and... if we wanna be safe, we can't let the General go unless they bring us Rachel's frozen body...
