And we've made it... To the new place...
Some sort of a Compound they told me...

As again, my dad has a lot of properties... That I didn't know about... Let's just cycle through them...

Me: What the hell...

Me: It's so friking massive...

Me: What is my dad doing with all of these properties....

Abigail: Well... Countless parties...

Abigail: Also for relaxing at times... but he is just got so many that I haven't been to all of them...

Me: That is just crazy...

Me: How many does he have?

Abigail: I've lost count to be honest...

Abigail: But hey, let me show you around. I've been here before...

Me: Okay... That's good then...

Abigail: I'm not going to give you full details... Since I don't know them but. It's quite huge in here...

Me: Oh yeah... Lots of walking...

Me: How many times you've been here, Miss Abigail?

Abigail: I've not been here for some time, but I used to previously...

Abigail: But let's speed things up. others are waiting...

Me: Yeah I figured why I had to hold my eyes closed... Why was that?

Me: Wooah...

Abigail: I'll tell you in a sec when we get ot the main building...

Me: So that right there yeah?

Abigail: Exactly my dear...

Me: Damn this is so much easier...
Haha... Your legs are so much longer...

Abigail: There are some perks of course...

Me: Yeah... Downfalls too... the leaves are just in my face right now...

Abigail: Hehe...
I was about to say that.

Me: I'll rather stay small tbh.

Abigail: Haha... I know how to manouver when I'm this height. I'd stay this tall...

Me: Okay, we are here...
So what's up...

Me: And we're both alone as well...
Shall I take a guess?

Abigail: You’re more than welcomed too but, I’ll explain it anyways...

Abigail: So... You're the new young "Master" right...

Me: Well... I wouldn't call myself that but... Sure... if you say so...

Abigail: There is always been a rule form generationg to generation...

Me: Woah... What rule?

Abigail: The maid who served master first... Has to initiate him when he arrives to a new property...

Abigail: So you get the point now?

Me: UUh... I've got even more question than before...

Abigail: You can ask them later... but now...

Abigail: Come and fuck me... Master...

Me: Initation... Huh... Just say you wanted to have sex, Miss Abigail...

Abigail: I'm not lying... It's part of the initiation...

Me: Yeah... sure...

Abigail: It’s 100% Stella and Natalee...

Natalee: How was it then Abi? Good?

Stella: Well...

Stella: I want to see what this young guy is made off... but he did work wonders for you Abi huh?
