

MEN TAMED TO SUBMISSION BY TAME-AZONS

As Potentia roughly yanked Stuart to his feet, Stuart's mind began to work in a frenzy on the best way to make the Tame-Azons free both Dan and himself, without inflicting any more damage to them both. Stuart was still groggy from the effects of his terrific battle with Potentia and his dazed mind could not think clearly at the present time.

His incoherent mind just would not function properly, as the hard blows had taken their toll and left poor Stuart dizzy and exhausted. He was unable to figure out some plan for them to get out of the clutches of the two domineering women.

Still in a stupor, Stuart submitted meekly without offering any more resistance, as Portia dragged Dan in his maid's costume off the couch and onto his booted feet. Both men were then made to stand back to back.

Stuart could not comprehend why Portia and Potentia were making them stand back to back, which was preparatory to binding both men together. If he did not do some fast talking to get the Tame-Azons to change their plans, Stuart might wind up being completely subjugated and would have to be submissive to these two strong-willed women.

At the present time, Stuart had no desire to submit and to do servile work for anybody. He glanced at Dan's face out of the side of his eyes, while his poor client was being tied up to him, and saw much to his amazement. Stuart noticed that Dan did not actually seem to mind being tied up while in female attire! This was a complete surprise to Stuart.

In fact, Stuart could clearly see that from the look of joy and pleasure on Dan's face, that Dan was actually enjoying his role of playing a passive male in feminine clothing. So well had the Tame-Azons done their subjugating of Dan, that he seemed desirous of being dominated further by the strong and husky Tame-Azons.

The fact that Dan was enjoying his experience of being dominated by these two powerful women started to ferment the germ of an idea in Stuart's mind on how he could extricate himself out of bondage and at the same time keep his client and also obtain the goodwill of the Tame-Azons.

All Stuart had to do was to think up some sort of a ruse to get his gag removed so that he could talk and he was sure this whole problem could be solved amicably.

MEN TAMED TO SUBMISSION BY TAME-AZONS

Stuart mulled over his plan in his mind carefully, for he did not want to have any slip-up that might ruin his plan and lose his client, as well as incur the wrath of the strong Tame-Azons. His plan was to make believe that he was so weak that he could not stand up and to fake unconsciousness by fainting.

When he was unbound from Dan and his gag removed so that he could breathe properly and talk, then he would tell the Tame-Azons that he would submit to them and allow them to continue subjugating Dan exactly as they desired.

In this way, everybody would be satisfied. The Tame-Azons would get their own way, while Dan would continue to obtain pleasure from the wearing of the feminine apparel. Since all conflicts of interest would be resolved, then the Tame-Azons would no longer be angry at Stuart Arthur and would release him.

Dan would forget about his deflated ego about being a he-man because of his leanings towards being dominated, while the Tame-Azons would feel that they had earned their fee and had accomplished exactly the chore that they had been paid to do. Stuart thought this would be a perfect plan.

MEN TAMED TO SUBMISSION BY TAME-AZONS

The Tame-Azons had had the good judgment of placing a lady's corset and clothes on Dan, who had begun to feel a change in his character from male to female only after being forced to don the female attire.

The high thigh length boots which went up to Dan's thighs had contributed to his change of feelings, while the strong arm treatment by Portia and Potentia had turned his hatred towards them to fear and desire. This change in clothing had changed Dan from a loud mouthed conceited man to a meek submissive and slightly terrified girl.

Stuart had noted the amazing change that had come over Dan after he had been forced to wear the maid's costume. As Potentia was completing the binding of the two men together, with a rope around both men's necks, Stuart went into his fake faint.

There was nothing else for Potentia to do but undo Stuart's bondage away from being bound to Dan, while Stuart recovered from his fainting spell. Stuart was very happy at the change in bondage, for he was most uncomfortable, tied up as he was in these confining ropes.

MEN TAMED TO SUBMISSION BY TAME-AZONS

Stuart's being released temporarily gave him the chance to tell the Tame-Azons about his complete submission to their original plan to subjugate Dan. While waiting to Stuart to return to consciousness, the Tame-Azons decided to make Dan serve tea and soup, as it was now almost dinner time.

In order to make it easier for Dan to wait on Portia, Potentia and Stuart, instead of using ropes on Dan's body, who was still wearing his cute fully French maid's outfit, Potentia shackled a ball weight and chains to Dan's leg shackles.

Dan's left hand was handcuffed to the rolling serving wagon, while his right hand was left unhandcuffed, so that he could hand the cups and dishes to the women and Stuart.

As Stuart ate with one hand, with the other bound behind his back as a precautionary measure, he went into his "sales talk" to convince Potentia and Portia that he had fully capitulated to them and that he was agreeable for them to continue on with their subjugation of Dan. During the time that Stuart was discussing Dan's future with the Tame-Azons, their subject was happily and busily preparing dinner.

Dan had gotten over his fury at the Tame-Azons for frustrating his well-laid publicity plan and was happier now than he ever had been before in his new role of a menial servant. In his former male clothing, Dan had felt uneasy, irritable and pushing too hard for success.

Now he was extremely happy in female attire, doing something that he had unconsciously longed for, but which chance had never arisen before. He felt pride in himself for thinking up the publicity scheme and was getting quite a thrill out of having to wear feminine attire.

In addition, it was also a thrill to have the threat of a strong woman waiting to punish him if he did something wrong. At first, Dan thought he would look like a clumsy man in the maid's outfit, but a glance into the mirror told him otherwise.

Dan was now a nice looking female, wearing thigh length laced black boots with stilt high heels, a satin skirt, a leather corset laced up the back tightly, which made his homemade bosom thrust out like that of a normal female.

Even his walk, actions, temperament and emotions had undergone a drastic change and Dan no longer thought as a man but only as a woman would think. Dan wanted to play as long as possible his role of a female impersonator and so he did not object or become disagreeable when Potentia suggested that he change to female street clothes for a while.

Eagerly, Dan went with Portia to her closet to select a suitable wardrobe for a young lady. He selected a shiny satin bra with wires in the cup portion which could be padded to give him a nice curve.

Next Dan selected a pair of lacy frilly black panties, which clug to his hips and he felt cool and comfortable with these panties against his body. Then he selected a pair of sheer black nylon stockings, as well as a dainty half-slip with lace ruffles at the bottom.

To complete his ensemble, Dan chose a dark skirt with a contrasting blouse of white satin to set off his skirt. Dan put on a pair of garish earrings and made up his face with eyebrow pencil and eye shadow. After his makeup was put on, Dan looked every inch a fashionable woman about town.

Dan looked like a woman who might have just stepped out from the pages of the leading woman's fashion magazine. Much to Dan's dismay and chagrin, Portia told Potentia to bind and gag Dan in his new feminine finery, although he wanted to parade around showing off his new clothes.

He did not want to resist too much for fear of ruining the pretty clothes which he had selected. Therefore, in a husky voice tinged with excitement, Dan pleaded with the Tame-Azons.

"If you want to wrestle, then get yourself another girl--I mean a real woman, for I don't want to get these lovely things that I have on wrinkled and crumpled. If you must tie me up, please use the chains instead of rope and I won't mind."

Shaking her long black hair in a negative answer, Potentia lifted the protesting Dan and dumped him flat on his stomach, while she bound his wrists behind his back with rope. Slowly but surely, the strong-willed woman bound Dan's ankles close together, rendering him helpless in his female clothes and Dan decided it was no use resisting.

Then and there, Dan realized that Potentia could overpower him at any time she desired and that there was no chance on his part to vanquish this husky female. He wanted her to dominate him forever and he very well knew that she could best him, either as a male or even when he was dressed in beautiful female attire.

Dan no longer had the urge to be nasty and aggressive, portraying his he-man roles. He now wanted to be a female in every sense of the word! His one-time air of braggadocio was gone forever. Dan was no longer the bragging immodest hammy TV star that he formerly had been. It was a big change.

From his vantage point nearby, Stuart Arthur noted the remarkable change that had come over his client and hoped that this would last. Stuart was now convinced that the taming by the Tame-Azons was so thorough that it had done his client a world of good.

Stuart was grateful to the two powerful women for bringing about this wonderful change of attitude in Dan. Stuart could see that Dan also had been enjoying his violent and grueling ordeal, although it had been just exactly as his instructions had insisted it should be.

Speaking to Portia, Stuart requested permission to take Dan home, for he was well satisfied that the Tame-Azons had carried out their part of the agreement and had fully earned their stipulated fee.

In fact, Dan voluntarily agreed to pay the extra bonus fee he had originally promised in his letter of instructions. There was only one thing that Dan insisted on doing and that was that he be permitted to wear, while going home, the female clothing that Portia and Potentia had made him wear.

Dan wanted the feminine clothes as a constant reminder to himself of the misery and woe his actions had brought down on himself. After considering it over, Portia agreed to Dan's request and allowed him to take along the feminine apparel, provided that he pay for these clothes. This meant extra revenue for her.

Dan thanked both women for letting him wear the lovely clothes, although Portia could see the worried look on Stuart's face as Dan paid Portia the extra fee as promised and the money for the female clothes he had just purchased.

Portia held some of the ropes that she had just removed from Dan's body, as he gave her the balance of her fees. He then went home with Stuart, a well-chastised but much better person than when he first met the Tame-Azons. So everything turned out well with no one dissatisfied.

Portia and Potentia were happy that they had accomplished the job that their organization was noted for, while Dan was happy at the fact that he had found someone who could dominate him, and Stuart Arthur was extremely pleased at the way his plan had turned out without anyone getting hurt badly.

Stuart promised the Tame-Azons that he would only be too glad to recommend their valued services to his other clients, should any of them require the specialized services of the Tame-Azons.

He had a very good knowledge of their working technique and the deft way that the two husky women had handled him, as if he had been a baby. Rendering him helpless made Stuart want the Tame-Azons to be his friends instead of his enemies. The memory of the head pounding he had received still lingered vividly in his mind!

MEN TAMED TO SUBMISSION BY TAME-AZONS

Stuart wondered how the Tame-Azons had gained their vast knowledge of binding a man and breaking his spirit. So smoothly and efficiently had they worked as a dominating women team in taming both Dan and himself, that hardly any motions were wasted. It was no dream or fantasy, but real fast action applied intelligently by the Tame-Azons that subdued and subjugated Dan.

Stuart was pleased that Dan's irritating manners and loud boasting habits had been eliminated and he now spoke in a nice quiet voice instead of ordering people around in a vexing fashion as if they were all his slaves, now that Dan had been given a taste of what it was like to be booted around. So overpowering had been Potentia when she handled him, that Dan would have fallen in love with her and asked her to marry him if it were not for the fact that he was still in love with himself.

He did feel a thrill, however, when he was forced to let Potentia step all over him and force him to don the woman's corset. This was the first time a woman exercised any authority over him. This had been a very stimulating experience which he would remember the rest of his life!
